In the Mystic Region, the three hegemonic powers which were the Ziwei Divine Court, Great Devil Divine Palace and Heavenly Deity Mountain have all existed for countless years, balancing each other out. Although the strength of the Heavenly Deity Mountain was slightly weaker, they were still a hegemonic power and had some foundations. None of the three powers dared to truly invoke a destructive war against each other. After all, from the perspectives of everyone, even if the Ziwei Divine Court could win against the Heavenly Deity Mountain, they wouldn't be able to avoid losing heavenly deities and would surely suffer casualties.

In the present situation where there are two huge threats which were the Heaven Vault Alliance and the western world, no one expected the Ziwei Divine Court to make such a move. Not only that, they even managed to do it in such a manner that none of the deities from the Heavenly Deity Mountain escaped and completely razed the Heavenly Deity Mountain to flat ground.

After the Divine Ox Clan, yet another hegemonic power of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was destroyed. This gave all the experts in the immortal realms a warning. Even if you are from a hegemonic power, you might also be annihilated overnight. In these chaotic times, if you are not strong enough, you would have the possibility of being destroyed, becoming the stepping stone of others.

An invisible pressure surrounded the experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The destruction of a hegemonic power in the Mystic Region caused the sense of danger everyone was feeling to increase.

At this moment in the Mystic Region, at the ruins of the Heavenly Deity Mountain, many experts came by. These were all experts from the various locations, and among them, the devil cultivators from the Great Devil Divine Sect were present as well. Right now, the devil cultivators stood together as they stared at the ruins. Once, this place was a majestic divine mountain. Now, everything had turned to dust.

“How did the Ziwei Divine Court achieve this?” Someone asked, mumbling in a low voice.

No one knew the answer. Even the Great Devil Divine Palace wasn't sure either. When the Ziwei Divine Court sent a letter to the Heavenly Deity Mountain, the devil palace was already paying attention to this and they also sent experts here on that day of the meeting. However, on that fateful day, black fog covered the entire Heavenly Deity Mountain, enveloping it completely, isolating everything. No one could see what happened within.

And after everything ended, the black fog finally dissipated. All that was left was nothing but rubble. It was an extremely shocking sight. Even the corpses lying around were badly damaged, with many of them missing their heads. Even right now, these corpses were still under the ruins, no one cleared the dead bodies. Many experts in the air felt disgust, even for experts who had slaughtered many people before, they also felt extremely uncomfortable when they stared at this purgatory in the mortal world.

If one was to speak about who was under the greatest pressure, the answer was undoubtedly the Great Devil Divine Palace. They always had conflicts against the Ziwei Divine Court and now, the Heavenly Deity Mountain was attacked by the Ziwei Divine Court. In that case, the Great Devil Divine Palace which was also in the Mystic Region, would they suffer an attack as well? The possibility of this happening was extremely great. Since the Ziwei Divine Court had the strength to effortlessly exterminate the Heavenly Deity Mountain, they must have some unfathomable secrets.

"Great sin.." Someone sighed. How many people were there in the hegemonic power, the Heavenly Deity Mountain? The scene here was truly like hell on earth.

"The Ziwei Divine Court is too crazy." Someone sighed. Even in the perspective of the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm's history, it was extremely rare for a hegemonic power to be completely annihilated like this. Everyone here could deeply sense what the idiom 'lives are like weeds' meant. When a true deity-level battle occurred, ordinary people were no different from ants.

Many people then departed, they felt extremely uncomfortable staring at this hell-like scene.

There were also people who started to clean up. They used great amounts of power to cause the earth to open up, burying all the corpses within.

Qin Wentian learned of the complete extermination of the Heavenly Deity Mountain from his grandfather Luoshen Chuan, and he learned about even more details later on. Although he had long known that this wasn't a world of kindness and the battles between hegemonic powers were cruel to the extreme, he still felt that it was too brutal to completely annihilate a single power. The Heavenly Deity Mountain's experts weren't the same as the Divine Ox Clan. They weren't demonic beasts, they were the same kind as the Ziwei Divine Court's experts, both sides were humans.

What role did Yue Changkong play in this? Qin Wentian had no idea but Yue Changkong surely had a connection with this. This incident had Yue Changkong's style imprinted all over it.

Qin Wentian gave the order to collect all the latest news about Yue Changkong and sent people to monitor his movements. He discovered that recently, many humans and demonic beasts had vanished in the Desolate Region. Qin Wentian instantly recalled the evil art Yue Changkong practiced. Was he using these lives to cultivate? He might have developed a suitable method to convert the evil art he learned from the world of reincarnation and given his personality, he naturally would have no qualms using it.

But what he didn’t understand was how the Ziwei Divine Court had the power to destroy the Heavenly Deity Mountain so easily? This was something everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms didn’t understand as well.

Qin Wentian could also sense that the current Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was changing. In truth, if it wasn’t for the crazy old freak appearing to suppress the western world, he wouldn’t be as free as he is now.

He temporarily suppressed his thoughts and decided to cultivate in closed-door seclusion inside the Heaven Vault. Also, many people around him also decided to enter seclusion. Since the crazy old freak managed to buy them a period of peace where no other hegemonic powers would dare to antagonize them, they naturally should use this chance to strengthen themselves. If not, once the changes fully kicked in, they would find it impossible to deal with the changes.

Hence, while the changes were happening in the external world, many people in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect entered the Heaven Vault for cultivation. These people included those around Qin Wentian, all of them were in the Heaven Vault but they still rotated themselves to guard the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. As long as something happened, they would inform Qin Wentian immediately.

Time slowly flowed by. Two years of time is simply too short in the perspective of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there wouldn’t be any great ripples. Ever since the Ziwei Divine Court destroyed the Heavenly Deity Mountain, the Great Devil Divine Palace has been extremely vigilant. However, it didn’t seem that the Ziwei Divine Court had any plans to attack them. After a period of inactivity, the attention on that news slowly began to fade away. It was now like the power that destroyed the Heavenly Deity Mountain wasn’t them.

However, to the people in the Heaven Vault, great changes occurred in these two years. There were people who broke through and became deities, and there weren’t just a few.

Right now, many of Qin Wentian’s good friends have all succeeded. Little Rascal, Jun Mengchen, Qi Yu, Beiming Youhuang, Qing`er, Bai Qing, Nanfeng Yaoyue… These people are people who had the wills of ancient deities guiding them. In addition to their own outstanding talent and comprehension abilities, as well as the optimal cultivation environment in the Heaven Vault, with so many advantages stacked together, there probably wasn’t anyone else from the other hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms who had better cultivation conditions than them. This was why there were several people around him becoming deities within these two years.

Naturally, other than all of these, the main factor was time. In the minor worlds Qin Wentian created, the time flow was different from the external world. Two years might have passed on the outside but they had cultivated two hundred years inside the Heaven Vault. This lead to the results today.

With regards to these happenings in the Heaven Vault, the people outside had absolutely no idea. If they knew that the Heaven Vault was currently producing heavenly deities so rapidly, the wariness in their hearts would probably be even more intense. Only two plus years have passed, if Qin Wentian and his alliance was given time to further develop quietly, who knew how many heavenly deities they would have among their ranks? Most probably if they continued to develop, other than supreme-tier hegemonic powers like the western world, the other hegemonic powers wouldn’t be able to hold a candle to them.

In addition to all of this, the Heaven Vault had the Grim Reaper's protection and Headmaster Ye of the sacred academy also took very good care of Qin Wentian.

Also, other than these people mentioned above, there was a cultivator from the sacred academy who also broke through in the Heaven Vault. This person was none other than Qin Wentian's senior apprentice brother, the Divine Sound World Overlord from back then. He had always treated Qin Wentian well and he was also someone who was once on the Daoask Rankings, listed as someone with the highest hope of breaking through to the deity realm. Now, he finally attained his dao in the cultivation environment provided by the Heaven Vault.

At this moment, Divine Sound was beside Qin Wentian. He glanced at the Heaven Vault as he sighed with emotion, "Wentian, I have to thank you for being able to make such a quick breakthrough in terms of my cultivation."

Although his comprehension abilities were strong, in truth, he had already cultivated for many years and failed to break through despite the amount of time. If it wasn't for the Heaven Vault being controlled by Qin Wentian, there was no way he would be able to enter here to cultivate so easily. There wouldn't be such a selfless person in the world.

"Senior brother, why are you speaking like this? I'm going to get angry." Qin Wentian spoke in mock anger. Back then in the sacred academy, this senior brother of his had treated him extremely well. By allowing Divine Sound to enter the Heaven Vault, it truly wasn't considered anything in Qin Wentian's perspective.

But it might not be anything to him, it was different to Divine Sound. The Heavenly Deity Realm was something every cultivator sought after. How many lives were there in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and how many people were heavenly deities? Only a very rare few would be able to enter this realm. And now, he finally reached the cultivation realm he dreamt about. Such a feeling was impossible to describe.

"Haha. Alright, I won't be too polite with you then." Senior Divine Sound laughed. He looked at the many minor worlds floating in the Heaven Vault as he spoke, "If the external world gives you another hundred years, how many deities would the Heaven Vault be able to produce?"

After speaking, he shook his head. He truly didn't dare to imagine it.

A hundred years on the outside meant ten thousand years in the minor worlds. Maybe, an army of deities would be formed by then. This was also the reason why the experts from the various hegemonic powers were in such a hurry to attack Qin Wentian. The potential of the Heaven Vault was simply too terrifying.

"A hundred years is too long." Qin Wentian shook his head. If he was given another thousand years to cultivate in the minor worlds, what realm would he reach?

However, ever since he started cultivation up until now, only a thousand years had passed by at most.

In addition, he felt that the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wouldn't allow them to have so much time. Although a hundred years wasn't too long in the perspective of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm's situation was just too sensitive now.

"Wentian." At this moment, a weak-sounding voice rang out in his mind. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, "Senior brother, I need to make a move first."

After speaking, he vanished directly, causing the eyes of Divine Sound to flash. Qin Wentian was in such a hurry. Could it be that something major has happened?

In one of the minor worlds, Beiming Youhuang laid limply on the ground. A beam of light flashed and Qin Wentian appeared beside her. He half-knelt as worry flashed in his eyes.

"What happened?" Qin Wentian moved into a sitting position and helped prop Beiming Youhuang up, allowing her to lean on him. At the same time, his divine sense entered her body to investigate. Very soon, he discovered an extremely terrifying surge of destructive power ravaging the interior of her body. It was like her soul was even about to be frozen solid.

"It was caused by my own cultivation." Beiming Youhuang's body trembled, like she was cold, extremely cold..

Chapter 1950: Youhuang's Thoughts

How sharp were Qin Wentian's senses? He instantly determined that the problem appeared in her soul. The cold she was feeling spread from within to without. Staring at her shivering body, Qin Wentian felt some pain in his heart. She was a heavenly deity, how cold must the chill she was feeling be in order to cause her to shiver like this?

He understood Beiming Youhuang. If it wasn't for the fact that she truly couldn't endure on, she would never have sent a message to him. Her personality was extremely strong-headed.

Qin Wentian hugged her, wanting to give her some warmth. At the same time, his soul energy checked on Beiming Youhuang's injury. Beiming Youhuang's soul seemed to be invaded by an extremely cold power that wanted to freeze her soul. Even her soul was shivering, no wonder she felt so cold. From this, one could imagine how dire her situation was.

His bloodline power activated as he sent streams of it into Beiming Youhuang. That was the candlelight flame, he slowly dispersed the coldness bit by bit. At the same time, his soul energy also constantly seeped into Beiming Youhuang's soul, bolstered by the power of his bloodline might, gradually warming up her soul.

Although Qin Wentian's soul energy was extremely strong, it was very difficult for him to dispel this cold. He still needed Beiming Youhuang's own soul energy to be the main dispeller. After all, he didn't want to injure her soul any further, he could only act the role of a supporter, trying to guard her and provide her with warmth.

And as expected, along with Qin Wentian's actions, Beiming Youhuang's shivering lessened in intensity, things seemed to be slightly better. But at this moment, Qin Wentian felt extremely unbearable. When he was helping Beiming Youhuang, his own soul also encountered the invasion of the deathly chill. In addition, he couldn't resist it because he wanted to share the burden with Beiming Youhuang. Hence, he could only endure it silently.

Hence, the two of them maintained an extremely ambiguous posture. Qin Wentian quietly sat there, while Beiming Youhuang curled up in his embrace. This scene made it look like they were a couple but at this moment, they basically didn't have the time to think about all of this. They were trying their best to resist the invasion of the deathly chill.

Time slowly flowed by, it even felt like time had stopped. In this minor world, the environment was very quiet, there was no sound at all. Gradually, Beiming Youhuang's soul began to shine. A pearl, radiating resplendent brilliance and a formless energy which fused with Beiming Youhuang's soul power, destroyed the chill.

She ended up in this situation because she suffered a backlash. For a period of time earlier, she had no way to use her soul energy and hence, she was frozen. But now as she recovered, she gained back the sovereignty of the pearl. Very soon, Beiming Youhuang no longer trembled as her body gradually regained her original warmth.

Beiming Youhuang inclined her head, she saw Qin Wentian's chin there. As she looked up, she saw his eyes. She suddenly felt that their posture was extremely ambiguous and she instantly blushed. This posture was simply too…

Qin Wentian blinked his eyes. He naturally could sense that Beiming Youhuang has recovered, he also could feel the bundle of warmth in his embrace. He also felt very awkward and for a time, he didn't know how to react.

"You…why are you not releasing your hands yet?" Beiming Youhuang lowered her head and stared at Qin Wentian's arms that were embracing her.

Qin Wentian started and glanced at his own hands.

"Eh!" Upon seeing the location of his arms, Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines. He wanted nothing more than to find a hole and hide in it. This situation was too awkward. But earlier, he truly didn't feel anything. Only now upon being reminded, did he feel the soft sensation of her rump.

At this moment, this sensation was so clear. It felt so soft and supple.

Qin Wentian hurriedly retracted his hands as he gave a trembling smile, not daring to meet Beiming Youhuang's eyes.

Beiming Youhuang left his embrace and stood up. When he saw her beautiful eyes staring at him, Qin Wentian spoke awkwardly, "Mhm, Youhuang I didn't do that intentionally."

Beiming Youhuang's face was also completely red. She who was an ice beauty, was exceptionally mesmerizing now with that expression on her face.

"I know." Beiming Youhuang softly spoke. She naturally wouldn't blame Qin Wentian. She was silently scolding herself, why was her endurance so weak, leading to a backlash and she even called out to him at that moment, allowing him to see her in that state. In addition, they were even in such an ambiguous posture.

"What happened exactly? Did something go wrong with your cultivation?" Qin Wentian had a puzzled look on his face as he asked, no one knew if this was him intentionally trying to divert the topic.

Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes glanced at him. In her deep eyes, there seemed to be another meaning contained within. She stabilized her emotions and frowned before speaking, "I was in too much of a rush. After breaking through to the deity realm, I wanted to use the dao art I comprehended, allowing myself to grow stronger. However, the process was too extreme and I ended up suffering a backlash to my soul."

Qin Wentian understood, using soul energy was an extremely dangerous thing. Beiming Youhuang's cultivation base wasn't that stable yet but she already wanted to use the soul art she comprehended. This was why she injured herself and almost accidentally froze her own soul. This caused him to feel some fear. When he recalled her pitiful appearance earlier, Qin Wentian felt hurt in his heart.

"In the future, don't be so brash anymore. With me around, why is there a need for you to be so anxious for quick results?" Qin Wentian seriously spoke. Looking at his eyes, Beiming Youhuang could see his concern for her. She lowered her head and simply mumbled, "Oh."

It was unknown why but although Qin Wentian spoke in a very grave manner to her, she felt warmth in her heart. When she thought about how their souls touched each other, that feeling was impossible to describe with words. It felt like their entire beings were entangled together. The contact of soul upon soul felt much clearer compared to the body. His soul was guarding hers.

"Right now, the period of peace in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms has already ended. I heard you saying that the Heavenly Deity Mountain was destroyed and now, there's also the western world. There are so many enemies of the Heaven Vault, how can we only depend on you alone?" Beiming Youhuang silently mused but she didn't say it out loud. She was also very anxious and wished to grow stronger as soon as possible. She didn't want Qin Wentian bearing the burden all alone. The pressure he was facing came from the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it was enough to crush someone.

"However, I did have some harvest from this. Now, I can already control this kind of power. It can be considered obtaining a blessing in disguise." Beiming Youhuang spoke softly. She weakly inclined her head and glanced at Qin Wentian only to see him still glaring at her. She could only lower her head once more, she felt somewhat depressed in her heart. She didn't do anything wrong and was even injured. Why did she suddenly feel that she was the one in the wrong.

"No matter what, safety first. Don't forget that the crazy old freak asked me to protect you. If something happened to you, how would that old freak spare me?" Qin Wentian spoke. Beiming Youhuang was thinking, was it really all just because of what the old freak said?

"Since you have already comprehended it, there is no need to rush to cultivate it. After resting for some time, and when the energy you comprehended is stable enough, you can then continue to cultivate." Qin Wentian spoke again. Beiming Youhuang nodded her head, like she didn't know how to rebut. She agreed with whatever Qin Wentian was saying.

Today, everything was in chaos.

"Alright, now you can allow me to sense the power you comprehended." Qin Wentian smiled, it was like his solemness earlier was nothing but an act. Beiming Youhuang felt somewhat speechless when she saw his expression, but she still nodded. After that, a powerful soul energy gushed forth, Qin Wentian could instantly feel a tyrannical soul power silently invading his soul. After that, he shivered, it felt like his soul was freezing.

“Don’t stop, give it your all. I want to sense the might of this soul art.” Qin Wentian could sense Beiming Youhuang hesitating, hence he instantly spoke. Beiming Youhuang’s eyes flashed and after that, an even stronger soul power gushed forth. Qin Wentian felt that his body couldn’t move at all, it was like his soul was frozen and his actions became retarded. After that, his own powerful soul began to erect a powerful soul defense, not allowing the freezing energy to continue invading. He only felt better after that.

Beiming Youhuang retracted her power. Qin Wentian’s eyes gleamed with sharpness. As expected of a soul art attack, it was truly terrifying, “Youhuang, if you unleash this technique unexpectedly in battle, it would surely have wondrous effects. Naturally, even if you unleash it head-on, the might unleashed would be extremely great as well.” Qin Wentian praised. No wonder she suffered a backlash. This power was so strong, tyrannically strong. It was very easy to injure oneself when practicing with it.

“Mhm. In the future when a deity-level war erupts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, I can be by your side and assist you while you kill.” Beiming Youhuang seriously spoke. Qin Wentian glanced at her serious attitude and solemn look in her eyes. Evidently, she has already thought of wanting to do this, following him and assisting him.

At most, she could only do this much to help Qin Wentian. It was very tough for her to do more. Right now, she could only try her best to grow stronger faster.

Staring at the look of anticipation in her eyes, Qin Wentian couldn’t bear to reject her. He could only nod his head, “Mhm, if there’s really a powerful opponent, we shall fight together. Also, there’s not only you. Qing`er, Bai Qing, Yaoyue, all of them are also heavenly deities now and are continuing to grow stronger. In the future for deity-level fights, I will no longer be alone. The number of heavenly deities we have might not exceed the western world but we won’t be inferior to the other hegemonic powers.”

“Mhm.” Beiming Youhuang smiled as she nodded. She was naturally happy that the Heaven Vault was growing stronger, slowly but surely.

“I’ll pay a visit to my dad first.” Beiming Youhuang spoke.

“Mhm, go on.” Qin Wentian nodded. Beiming Youhuang’s body flashed as she departed. She was still very distracted and now that she was going to visit her father, she suddenly realized that earlier when she was in trouble, the first person she thought of actually wasn’t her father, it was Qin Wentian instead.

Was this only because of Qin Wentian’s strength? Or was there another reason?

Chapter 1951: Visit Once Again

Beiming Youhuang has cultivated for many years and has never taken a break. Now that she has succeeded in gaining comprehension of the soul art, she naturally wanted to pay a visit to her father.

Qin Wentian left the area and returned to his own residence. The floating palace here was in the midst of a minor world he created.

His divine sense spread out, Qin Wentian located Qing`er, Qingcheng and the others, “Everyone, come here and meet me.”

Very swiftly, many people gathered over. There was no need to say anything about Qing`er, Qingcheng and Ye Qianyu. Bai Qing, Little Rascal, Jun Mengchen, Nanfeng Yaoyue, Nanfeng Yunxi were all here too. They were all somewhat puzzled at why Qin Wentian suddenly gathered them.

“Nothing much, I just missed everyone.” Qin Wentian smiled when he saw the puzzled looks on their faces. This caused many of them to be speechless but they had no idea that it was because Qin Wentian had just witnessed Beiming Youhuang’s injury, he felt extremely worried about the others. Many people here were the same as Youhuang. In order to help him share the burden, they were cultivating frenziedly almost to the point of ignoring their safety.

“Wentian gege, earlier I was at a critical point of my cultivation and I suddenly received your message to gather.” Bai Qing depressedly complained, glaring at Qin Wentian. Although she was already a deity now, she would always be like that young girl in the past before Qin Wentian.

“Haha, in the future if you have questions to ask about cultivation, you can harass me.” Qin Wentian laughed.

“Alright, you are the one who said it.” Bai Qing smiled sweetly. But she was only joking, she naturally wouldn’t truly harass Qin Wentian. She couldn’t bear to do this, she also wouldn’t disrupt Qin Wentian’s cultivation time for nothing.

“Of course.” Qin Wentian nodded as he laughed. He glanced at the people here as he smiled, “Sis Luo Huan, sis Lingshuang. Now you guys are growing more and more powerful, not only that, you both look younger and more beautiful as well.”

“But it’s useless, no one wants us.” Luo Huan giggled, and cast a charming gaze at Qin Wentian, causing Qin Wentian’s face to be filled with black lines. This elder apprentice sister always causes him to be speechless. Even now, with her cultivation base being so much more powerful than before, she still liked to tease him. He naturally didn’t reply or he would simply be digging a hole for himself to be buried in.

“Yunxi, Shengge, now that both your cultivation bases have reached this stage, you have to work harder. The heavenly deity realm is just before your eyes.” Qin Wentian turned to two other beauties. Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge used to be the holy maidens from the Southern Phoenix Clan. Their talent was outstanding and after cultivating for a long time in the secret realms which were the minor words created by Qin Wentian in the Heaven Vault, their cultivation has already reached the world overlord level.

The two maidens nodded. Their gazes then turned to the surroundings as though looking for something. After that, they asked, “Where are the two little dolls?”

“How can those brats last for too long in any place? Xuan Xin and Jiang Ting brought them out to play.” Fan Le laughed.

“Your precious daughter went out to play, why didn’t you follow her?” Qin Wentian laughed as he glanced at Fan Le. So it turned out that Fan Le and Xuan Xin’s child had been born. Her name was Fan Ye. Although she should be about one to two years old according to the passing time of the external world, she had already grown up due to growing up in the Heaven Vault’s minor worlds.

Fan Le had a bitter smile on his face, he always had headaches nowadays. His daughter wasn’t simply mischievous. He originally thought that by having a daughter, she would be obedient and quiet. But who knew that his daughter’s personality was extremely vivacious and even resembled him somewhat.

“If you guys have the time, just go out and try to relax. Although cultivation in the Heaven Vault is good, you all have to find some time to relax.” Qin Wentian smiled. Everyone nodded their heads. It’s just that because the pressure the Divine Sect was facing was too great, all of them were busy with cultivation, wanting to grow stronger faster. They naturally wouldn’t have time to entertain idle thoughts.

“Sect Leader, someone from the western world is here to pay a visit.” At this moment, a voice rang out in Qin Wentian’s mind. This caused Qin Wentian’s eyes to flash with sharpness.

Several years ago, Reverend Seven Abstinences from the western world came by to pay a visit and upon learning that he wasn’t willing to hand over the Heaven Vault, the western world started to act, getting the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace to pull out from his alliance. At the same time, the various hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms joined together and surrounded the Heaven Vault. Only the appearance of the Grim Reaper put a stop to their plans.

And now, the western world that has remained silent for so many years, once again sent someone over. Evidently, currents were moving in the dark.

After keeping the crystal, he stared at everyone here, “The western world just sent someone here again.”

The eyes of everyone flashed, there was some faint worry within. The western world had always been the main source of their pressure. Now that they were visiting the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect again, no one knew what their intentions were.

“Don’t worry. Given our current strength, we should be strong enough to handle all changes. I’m going out now to take a look.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Wentian gege, let’s go together. We can take the chance to leave the Heaven Vault and stretch our legs outside.” Bai Qing spoke. Qin Wenttian nodded. After that, this group of people flew towards the exit together.

At this moment, a group of monks clad in cassocks stood within the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. They had solemn looks on their faces as they glowed with holy light. Their palms were pressed together as they faced forward, exuding a transcendent aura.

Many gazes in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect were filled with curiosity as they stared at the monks.

“Mother, those bald donkeys look so serious.” From the side, a beautiful young woman transmitted her voice to her mother. This older beauty was none other than Fan Le’s wife Xuan Xin and that beautiful young woman was their daughter. Although she was mischievous, her upbringing was so lacking to the point where she would directly curse at others outright. She only said what she said via voice transmissions.

“Don’t speak.” Xuan Xin frowned as she replied via a voice transmission. Her expression changed somewhat. She heard Fan Le say that these monks had very mysterious cultivation methods. For those with high cultivations, they could pry into transmissions sent by immortal senses.

Fan Ye opened her mouth wide as shock showed on her face. She pointed at the monk, “You…you can hear my voice transmission?”

There was another beautiful young woman beside her. The other young woman was Ouyang Qinxin, Ouyang Kuangsheng’s daughter. She also had a shocked look on her face.

“The buddhist path is boundless. This is merely a minor trick, nothing to be impressed about. Little maiden, you talent and intelligence is off the charts. If you wish to learn, I can bring little maiden into the Buddhist Sect and teach you about the dao. I’m sure you would have accomplishments within a short time.” That monk slowly spoke. Fan Ye blinked her eyes. She glanced at her mother Xuan Xin only to see Xuan Xin’s expression drastically changing. She hurriedly spoke out, “Reverend is too polite, this lass likes to shoot her mouth off, please don’t blame her.”

“Those words doesn’t matter.” The monk smiled. “It’s just that this young maiden truly has fate with the buddha path. Benefactor, won’t you consider allowing her to join us?”

Fan Ye blinked her eyes. “Don’t lie to me. Given your strength, if you wish to teach me this minor trick of prying into voice transmissions via immortal sense, you can easily accomplish it right here. Why is there a need for me to go all the way to the Buddhist Sect?”

The monk had a look of contemplation on his face before he spoke, “Young lady, what is the relationship between you and Benefactor Qin, the sect leader of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect?”

“He is my godfather.” Fan Ye spoke with satisfaction.

“I see, sadly our arts are not suitable to be taught to outsiders. I was willing to impart you this earlier because you have fate with the buddhist path, but since your relationship with Benefactor Qin is so close, I won’t be imparting this to you then.” The monk laughed.

“Are you afraid that I would impart it to my godfather after you taught it to me?” Fan Ye stared at the monk as she continued, “What sort of character is my godfather? He naturally wouldn’t hold these minor tricks in regards. Also, since you told me that this art isn’t suitable to be taught to outsiders, I naturally won’t do so. But if you don’t believe me, just pretend that I’ve never brought up this topic before.”

The monk stared at Fan Ye who spoke frankly with assurance as a friendly smile appeared on his face. “What an intelligent young lady. Since you have fate with the buddhist path, I decided to teach it to you then. Don’t resist.”

After speaking, his body shone with resplendent and holy light. A moment later, this light gushed over and seeped into Fan Ye’s mind. Her forehead began to shine with buddhic light, glowing brighter and brighter, it only faded away after a long time. After that, Fan Ye had an astonished look on her face. She stared at the monk before her, “You monks truly are capable of such a mysterious art!”

“Young lady, you praise us too much.” That monk calmly spoke. Only to see Ouyang Qinxin who was beside Fan Ye pulling on her sleeves, “You are so gutsy.”

They grew up in the Heaven Vault and were naturally clear of what sort of place the western world truly was. This person was a monk from the western world yet Fan Ye actually accepted his dao transmission.

“This place is our divine sect, with godfather around, what’s there to fear?” Fan Ye mischievously winked and laughed. She was filled with worship for Qin Wentian.

“Are you speaking ill of your godfather again?” At this moment, a voice rang out as a group of figures appeared. The man in the lead was none other than Qin Wentian.

“Godfather!” Fan Ye ran over and threw herself into Qin Wentian’s embrace.

“How could I bear to speak ill of godfather?” Fan Ye giggled. Qin Wentian rubbed her head and had a doting smile on his face. He was enduring extremely great pressure and has temporarily not considered having kids of his own. But he has always treated Fan Ye and Ouyang Qinxin as his own daughters.

“Uncle Qin!” Ouyang Qinxin also walked over and hugged Qin Wentian’s arm. They had always treated Qin Wentian as a father-figure, Also, because their fathers would sometimes be strict with them, Qin Wentian would always defend them and he doted on them. Hence, they acted more unrestrained before Qin Wentian.

“You are already so old now yet you are still so dependent on your Uncle Qin.” Jiang Ting walked over.

“Are we very old?” Fan Ye made a ghost face. In truth, these two girls were already adults and had grown up well.

Qin Wentian smiled. He glanced at the monks from the western world and asked, “Reverends, all of you came from so far away, can I help you with anything?”

“Our purpose here is still the same as the past. The Buddhist Sect won’t be narrow minded. If the western world controls the Heaven Vault, Benefactor Qin and your friends can still cultivate in it. How about it?” The monk didn’t beat around the bush and directly spoke out.

“You want us to hand over the Heaven Vault, allowing you all to become the controller. After that, the western world will permit us to continue to stay here to cultivate? How magnanimous.” Fan Le sneered after he heard this. The western world was shameless to this extent?

“This isn’t the intention of our western world. It’s the intention of everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. It is the great trend of things, why must Benefactor Qin resist it?” The monk continued. Qin Wentian stared at him and laughed, “If Reverend came all the way here for this matter, you guys can just leave now.”

Chapter 1952: Plot

The monk’s expression was calm. He didn’t have any reactions when Qin Wentian told them to leave. The monks pressed their palms together as the monk in the lead spoke, “Benefactor Qin, why must you be so persistent? For heavenly dao and fate, each has its own influence. If you defy the general trend and continue to proceed on your way, it’s difficult to have a good ending.”

“Bald donkey, what do you mean?” Jun Mengchen walked over and coldly spoke. Heavenly dao might radiated from him.

Defy general trend and it’s difficult to have a good ending?

Was this a threat?

“Benefactor, why must you be angered?” The monk was exceedingly calm. Qin Wentian’s eyes gleamed with a cold light as he stared at the monk.

Right now, the western world and Qin Heavenly Divine Sect temporarily maintained a calm situation, not interacting with each other. But in truth, both parties never really had any connection to each other before. Everyone was clear in their hearts that the visit by the other party this time around, was clearly feigning civility. By receiving them, he was feigning civility with them too. Who didn’t know what their true purposes were?

This buddhist logic…who was he trying to frighten?

“Scram.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. If you come here, I will welcome you politely. But since you wish to make threats, you can just scram then.

Not having a good ending? If this wasn’t a threat, what was it?

The monks pressed their palms together and bowed to Qin Wentian. After that, the monk in the lead spoke, “Since Benefactor Qin is determined to defy the general trend of things, we can only bid farewell here then.”

After speaking, they slowly turned around and departed in a neither overbearing nor servile manner. They weren’t flustered or angered. Their footsteps were calm and heavy, it didn’t look like they were being chased away.

“Those bald donkeys truly have thick skins.” Jun Mengchen cursed. Their skins were simply like walls of iron. They came all the way here and told Qin Wentian to hand the Heaven Vault over. After that, they would show mercy and allow Qin Wentian and his friends to cultivate here. But after refusing them, they threatened Qin Wentian. When the threat failed, they left calmly. How thick must their skins be?

“The Buddhist Sect cultivates their hearts and personalities. They truly have good personalities.” Ouyang Kuangsheng also coldly spoke, he was extremely unhappy with the behavior of the monks.

“Those monks are truly annoying.” Many people respectively started to curse, the atmosphere was now affected. Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed, seemingly in ponder. Such enemies were in fact, actually more fearsome. Their determination and resolve was rarely seen in other powers.

Thick skin might actually be a merit. These monks from the western world might seem to be thick-skinned but it also showed their confidence and determination. Even if others ridicule them, their perspectives wouldn’t change, they were deeply entrenched in their faith and thinking, feeling like their actions and words weren’t inappropriate at all.

There must be some reason why the western world could control four lower-world immortal realms.

Qin Wentian’s eyes stared ahead as he contemplated. Before this, the western world sent Reverend Seven Abstinences and should already know of his attitude. After that, the Grim Reaper appeared to warn them. Why did they send someone here again?

Could it be that the western world truly feel that they would accept the ‘mercy’ shown by the Buddhist Sect? By the Buddhist Sect allowing them to continue cultivating in the Heaven Vault after they took it over.

Or maybe, they felt that their threat earlier was enough to make Qin Wentian give in?

He felt extremely puzzled. What was the true purpose behind the western world’s visit this time around? Was it just for a simple verbal threat?

“Could it be that they have some other intents?” Qin Wentian silently mused. This possibility was very great. The western world wanted to understand the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect’s current strength and Qin Wentian’s side didn’t conceal anything. Bai Qing and the other newly ascended deities were just beside him. There was no need to hide information about such things. Although their strength might cause the Buddhist Sect to feel some wariness, but ultimately, the decision to fight or not to fight wouldn’t be something they could avoid by being weaker.

If the western world really made their preparations, their minds wouldn’t change just because of the appearances of a few new heavenly deities.

“Godfather, earlier, that bald donkey passed me a mysterious art that enables me to hear the voice transmissions of people using immortal sense. Should I cultivate it?” Fan Ye turned her gaze to Qin Wentian as she asked. Since those monks actually threatened her godfather, she was thinking whether should she still cultivate their buddhist art.

“He passed it to you?” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed.

“Mhm.” Fan Ye nodded.

“Let me take a look.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“I promised them not to impart it to outsiders. But if godfather wishes to look, I will naturally comply but godfather must promise me that you cannot cultivate it. In this case, I won’t be breaking my promise. Although those monks aren’t kind people, but I have already gave them my word and I want to uphold it. Is godfather fine with it?” Fan Ye asked.

“Mhm. Little Ye, excellent.” Qin Wentian smiled and nodded. “I won’t cultivate it but I want to see this art which they imparted to you. There might be something wrong with it.”

Clearly, Qin Wentian didn’t feel at ease about the western world. He wanted to check the authenticity of this buddhist art.

“Okay.” Fan Le nodded. After that, she transmitted the buddhist art to Qin Wentian via her immortal sense. After Qin Wentian received it, he did a check and discovered that this was indeed a mysterious buddhist art that allowed people to listen in on voice transmissions. Other than this, there didn’t seem to be any strange about it.

“Little Ye, let godfather see if those monks did anything to you.” Qin Wentian spoke again. Fan Ye nodded. Qin Wentian’s powerful divine sense flowed into her mind but he didn’t discover anything unusual. Only then did his rest at ease. “This buddhist art has no problem. If Little Ye wishes to cultivate it, you can do so.”

Just like what Fan Ye said, although this buddhist art was mysterious, and Qin Wentian even suffered due to this art being used by the Jiang Clan in the past, but right now given his current cultivation realm, this buddhist art was no longer a mystery to him. It was truly just some minor tricks, unworthy of mention.

After the people from the western world left, they didn’t stop to rest in the Heaven Region and returned to the Pureland of Bliss in the Universe Region instead.

Inside an ancient buddhist hall, the monks came back. Within the golden-colored hall, other than the monks who just returned, there were already some other monks seated cross-legged with a buddha statue with its back facing them. At this moment, the buddha statue actually spoke, “Have you all managed to investigate?”

“Could there be secret realms capable of changing the time flow within the Heaven Vault?” The buddha statue calmly asked.

“Yes, the flow of time should be about a hundred times, Qin Wentian should be the person who created it. However, being able to cause so many heavenly deities to be born within two hundred years is truly shocking. Their talents weren’t weak, but because they were born in the lower world or particle worlds, their natural cultivation environment and resources were lacking and they couldn’t display their potential. But their talent also isn’t so strong to the point where it’s overwhelming. Hence, the true factor here is the cultivation environment within the Heaven Vault. If we give them more time, an army of heavenly deities would surely appear.”

That monk stated, he actually knew everything so clearly. Also, he could deduce the result, he didn’t underestimate the future potential of the Heaven Vault.

Only by seeing how strong their opponent was and making ample preparations, would they be able to defeat their opponents.

“The Heaven Vault can connect the immortal realms to the nine heavevnly layers. There are billions of constellations there and people in there can directly sense the heavenly daos. It’s only natural that their cultivation speed would be so quick. It would no longer be difficult for people with high enough talent to become deities.” The buddha statue’s voice was calm, he wasn’t astonished at all.

All the monks were quiet. After that, the atmosphere turned silent, only the sounds of buddhic chants from outside could be heard.

After some time, that buddha statue spoke again, “Yue Changkong of the Ziwei Divine Court is here to pay a visit. You guys go meet with him and discuss future plans.”

That monk nodded, “Should we act?”

“We should stay behind the scenes, we will temporarily not act yet.” The buddha statue spoke. The monk nodded. After that, they stood up and left the ancient hall, moving towards where Yue Changkong was.

Two years ago after the Ziwei Divine Court destroyed the Heavenly Deity Mountain, there were some rumors that said the controller of the Ziwei Divine Court was no longer the Ziwei Star Sovereign. It was Yue Changkong. His title was the Moon God and he has replaced the Ziwei Star Sovereign.

Very soon, the monks came to a location and met with Moon God Yue Changkong.

Yue Changkong was as he was in the past. His countenance was exceptionally pale, like the flesh of a corpse. He looked somewhat horrifying.

“Reverends, I wish you all well.” Yue Changkong smiled faintly when he saw the monks. However, his smile made many people uncomfortable, it exuded evil.

“Benefactor Yue.” The monk in the lead pressed his palms together and bowed.

“Benefactor, is there anything we can do for you seeing that you came all the way to the western world?” The monk asked.

“I heard that Reverend just returned from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect?” Yue Changkong asked.

“Mhm.” The monk in the lead nodded.

“In that case, Reverend should already have a plan to deal with the Heaven Vault, right?” Yue Changkong smiled, his smile contained an unfathomable meaning within.

“Benefactor, what do you mean by this? Right now, the Heaven Vault is extremely powerful, it’s tough to do anything against it.” The monk stated.

“Monks don’t deal in deceit. My purpose and yours is the same. If Reverend has something to say, why don’t you just say it directly? How can we deal with the Heaven Vault?” Yue Changkong asked.

That monk stared at Yue Changkong before slowly speaking, “I heard that Benefactor Yue has a very deep grudge with Benefactor Qin? Is this true?”

“I won’t rest until either he or I dies.” Yue Changkong laughed.

“Since this is the case, if Benefactor Qin left the protection of the Heaven Vault, would Benefactor Yue be able to settle this grudge?” The monk asked again.

A radiant smile appeared on Yue Changkong’s face. These bald donkeys truly had their methods. After all, he had more understanding of the western world compared to others.

“Reverend, please instruct me.” Yue Changkong laughed.

Chapter 1953: Karma

The Qin Heavenly Divine Sect didn't act any differently even after the monks from the western world went there. They still lived their own lives and spent most of their time on their cultivation, wanting to strengthen themselves.

Several months passed. In the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, Fan Ye bugged Xuan Xin, "Mother, I want to go out for a walk."

"Go on." Xuan Xin spoke.

"I mean I want to go outside of the divine sect." Fan Ye spoke. "Ever since from young till now, I've grown up in the cities of the divine sect and in the Heaven Vault. I heard that outside of the Heaven Vault, there's the Boundless Sea Region. And after that, there's Boundless City. And Boundless City is just a single city in the boundlessly vast Heaven Region and there are seven other great regions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, and after that, there are still thirty-two other immortal realms in this universe. The world is so vast, we have never seen any of that before."

"Little lass, you really don't know the immensity of the heavens and earth. Back then, your father and I grew up in a particle world, our entire world is merely a small corner of the current divine sect. At that time, we didn't even dare to dream about walking out of the particle world. You have everything here, the Heaven Vault is a place countless people dream of staying in, and you grew up in this environment. Yet, you actually want to go out." Xuan Xin sighed. If there was no Qin Wentian, she and Fan Le might really have lived forever in their particle world. They wouldn't know the scenery of the true world.

"Mother, things are different. It's precisely because I've never seen any of that before for myself that I'm curious. Although the divine sect is large, and there's the Heaven Vault here, but the people here are all godfather's close friends, family and subordinates. I've never met any outsiders before and have no idea how the scenery outside is. I have also had almost no interactions with any strangers, even the minor trick used by those monks back then could shock me. I naturally want to see the outside world for myself." Fan Ye's voice grew misty, filled with the innocence of youth.

Xuan Xin was speechless. This daughter of hers was excellent indeed in terms of having a glib tongue. However, her words were logical. She wanted to see the outside world because she has never seen it before.

"I don't even know how ordinary people live their lives. Sometimes, I also wish to take a look at the mortals of the world. Why don't you send me out so I can temper myself alone outside?" Fan Ye spoke.

"The world outside is very dangerous." Xuan Xin persuaded. She naturally couldn't not feel worry, Fan Ye was her daughter. Even though Fan Ye's age was no longer small, she would always be a little girl in Xuan Xin's eyes.

“Godfather and both of you have also survived very well till now. This is especially so for godfather, you all told me many stories about him before, growing stronger and stronger, tempering himself. Could it be you want me to always live under your protection?” Fan Ye then continued. “Mother, if you don’t agree, I’ll go look for godfather.”

Xuan Xin glared at Fan Ye, “Little brat, your godfather has the entire fate of the divine sect weighing on his shoulders. Don’t bother him over small things, you should learn to be more sensible.”

“Oh.” Fan Ye felt somewhat disappointed. “In that case, I will look for Little Rascal and ask him to bring me out to play.”

After speaking, she laughed and went away. After that, she took out her messaging crystal, “Little Rascal, this young miss wants to see you.”

In the Heaven Vault, the lazy Little Rascal received Fan Ye’s voice transmission as he blinked. “Little doll, call me uncle.”

“No way. Are you coming to play with me or not?” Fan Ye spoke.

“If you don’t call me uncle, I will take a nap first.” Little Rascal lazily replied.

“Okay, okay, Uncle Rascal. Quickly bring me out to play.” Fan Ye giggled. Little Rascal’s eyes widened as he spoke, “Little doll, just you wait.”

Not long after, Little Rascal found Fan Ye. His white body in puppy form swaggered over as he glared at her, “Brat, you have something you need this esteemed demon god’s help for?”

“Che. If it wasn’t for the fact that my mother doesn’t want me to trouble godfather, I wouldn’t have come and find you. You are so fat, I don’t even know if you can carry me.” Fan Ye showed a look of contempt on her face.

“How can I be fatter than your dad?” Little Rascal disdainfully spoke. Fatty Fan Le had always been extremely fat.

“The two of you are the same.” Fan Ye leapt and sat upon Little Rascal’s back. “Let’s go!”

Little Rascal showed a look of disdain. After that, he simply plopped down on the ground and rested, “Go out yourself.”

Clearly, the two of them would bicker often and they were already used to it. Although Little Rascal was a demon god, his personality was no different from a child. Because Qin Wentian doted on them both alot, Fan Ye would frequently play with Little Rascal. The two of them actually had a very close relationship.

“Uncle Rascal, when I was younger, I would often ride on your back but recently, we no longer do that. Can you bring me to see the world outside of the divine cities?” Fan Ye spoke in a pitiful manner. Little Rascal shivered. This lass truly changed extremely fast, causing this baobao’s heart to soften.

“Alright then. This demon god will bring you out for a spin. Sit tight.” Little Rascal transformed. A moment later, he became a gigantic golden-winged roc. His wings flapped as he soared into the air with incredible speed. In the span of a few breaths of time, they had already left the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. Before Fan Ye’s eyes, she finally could see the boundless seas.

“Wow.” Fan Ye sat on Little Rascal’s back, her pure eyes were filled with a look of longing.

“I can finally see the outside world.” Fan Ye’s innocent eyes shone with joy.

Little Rascal sent a voice transmission to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian wasn’t worried. Given Little Rascal’s current strength, there wouldn’t be any problems. Even if peak-level heavenly deities from another hegemonic power wanted to stop him, they might not even be able to catch him.

Fan Le and Xuan Xin were at ease, they understood Little Rascal would protect her. That little fellow has always doted on their daughter and accompanied her when she was growing up.

After Ouyang Qinxin learned of this, she also told Ouyang Kuangsheng and Jiang Ting that she wanted to go out for a walk. However, her personality was quieter and gentler than Fan Ye, she wouldn’t force things. Ouyang Kuangsheng promised to bring her out in the future when there’s a chance to. She simply nodded in response.

After several months, in an ancient city of the Heaven Region, a young and beautiful woman riding on a chubby white puppy strolled into the city. Her innocent and beautiful eyes shone with wonder as she looked around. The cultivation bases of the people here weren’t high, many were only at the immortal-foundation level. Fan Ye herself was already an immortal too. When she sensed the liveliness of this place, her eyes gleamed with excitement. She truly enjoyed the life she had these few months. The world outside is really so beautiful. She encountered many people and many matters, all of these were things that the Heaven Vault didn’t have. The Heaven Vault was more like a big family.

“Great aunt, should we return? We have already come out for so long. Also, if we travel further, we would soon be out of the Heaven Region.” Little Rascal spoke.

“Uncle Rascal, it has only been a few months, why are you in such a hurry to return. Look, there’s a beautiful woman there with a hot figure.”

“Where?” Little Rascal’s eyes brightened, he stared in the direction Fan Ye was pointing only to see a fugly woman.

“HAHA, lecherous beast!” Fan Ye mischievously laughed. The two of them continued ahead. They saw many people moving towards a direction, all of them seemed to be heading to an ancient temple.

“There are so many people there. Let’s go and take a look.” Fan Ye spoke.

“A temple of the bald donkeys, what’s nice to see there?” Little Rascal grumbled. Now, he was a demon god, he didn’t believe in all these. But even so, he still listened to Fan Ye and moved towards the ancient temple.

Many people in the temple were kneeling as they prayed. There were many buddha statues here in alcoves above, receiving the sincere worship of the people.

Little Rascal’s divine sense swept out. He faintly sensed that something was wrong with this temple but his divine sense registered nothing out of the ordinary.

Fan Ye followed the people and came below a buddha statue. She lifted her head and stared at the buddha statue while she silently mused, why would these people who practiced cultivation believe in such things?

At this moment, Little Rascal’s eyes gleamed, the sense of unease in his heart intensified. After that, those buddha statues suddenly shone with a golden luster as through true buddhas have manifested their spirits through the statues.

“True buddhas manifesting themselves!” The people in the ancient temple all prostrated themselves. Only Little Rascal and Fan Ye were still standing. One of the buddha statues suddenly spoke, “Why are you two not prostrating in worship?”

“What vile creature are you?” Little Rascal coldly replied.

“There’s evil spirits in your hearts.” The voice rang out once more. After that, a beam of light shone on Fan Ye, the buddha statue transformed into a devil statue as terrifying black fog directly enveloped her.

Bzz~

Little Rascal transformed into a bolt of lightning and shot forward. However, the other buddha statues also acted, attacking him at the same instant. Thunderous booms rang out, how could these buddha statues stop him? All of them crumbled apart from the force of his blows, even the ancient temple collapsed.

However, the black fog actually dragged Fan Ye as it gushed into the distance with unfathomable speed.

“ROAR!” Little Rascal let out a howl. His speed was also incredibly quick as he pursued the black fog. But in the next moment, the black fog entered the void and vanished completely.

“ROAR, ROAR, ROAR~” Little Rascal’s divine sense frenziedly extended outwards, covering this entire city. Everyone in the city could feel immense pressure weighing down on them from Little Rascal’s divine sense. However, the black fog was like it no longer existed, he could find no traces of the black fog or Fan Ye. This caused Little Rascal to almost go crazy from panic. How did this happen? Who was it that actually abducted Fan Ye before his eyes.

At this moment, Qin Wentian who was in the Heaven Vault, suddenly opened his eyes. His eyes gleamed with coldness because a scream just rang out in his mind. “Godfather, save me!”

“Little Ye.” Qin Wentian sent a voice transmission but he received no reply.

“Little Rascal, what just happened?” Qin Wentian asked Little Rascal.

He faintly felt that things weren’t so simple. Given Little Rascal’s current strength, he actually wasn’t able to find someone? Was that ancient temple really just a normal temple?

Maybe, all of this happened because someone wanted to target him.

—–

In the Buddhist Sect of the western world, a monk sat on a praying mat. He activated a heavenly vision technique and before him, a golden stretch of space showed everything Fan Ye was experiencing.

“Karma, has appeared.” The monk had his palms pressed together as he calmly spoke. After that, he stood up and left.

Back then when he headed to the Heaven Vault, he imparted a buddhist art to Fan Ye. At that time, he had already planted a seed of karma in Fan Ye’s body. This type of dao couldn’t be broken save for the person who planted it. No one would be able to find it as well.

Chapter 1954: Entering the Dao

Inside the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, in a saint hall, Headmaster Ye's eyes suddenly opened as he glanced towards the western direction.

Before him, the three heavenly deities of the sacred academy were here. They saw the change in the headmaster's expression, Goddess Dugu couldn't help but ask, "Headmaster, did something happen?"

"The Karma Buddha has acted." The Headmaster's voice was a little heavy. The three heavenly deities showed a lack of understanding in their expressions. Headmaster Ye spoke again, "Qin Wentian is probably the same as you all. He doesn't know about the existence of the Karma Buddha. Since he has appeared, something major must be about to happen."

"Is that buddha very strong?" The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity asked.

Headmaster Ye's expression was very heavy. He nodded lightly. "He is one of the buddha lords of the western world. Qin Wentian and the others had no idea that a buddha lord actually personally paid them a visit in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

"Why didn't headmaster warn Qin Wentian earlier?" Goddess Dugu asked, feeling some concern in her heart. They had also cultivated in the Heaven Vault for quite some time. Also, Qin Wentian was a student of the sacred academy. She naturally hoped that Qin Wentian would be able to survive this calamity and grow even stronger. She also hoped that their sacred academy would still remain standing and the Heaven Vault would remain under Qin Wentian's control.

"I didn't know about this before." Headmaster Ye shook his head. "Also, some of these happenings are fated, there's no way to change them. If we changed them, preventing this calamity, maybe a transcender would never appear."

The three heavenly deities nodded, they naturally believed in their headmaster. It was just that their cultivation base wasn't enough yet and had no way to comprehend the meaning of such things. Headmaster Ye was someone who understood a little about fate and karma. Most probably, he could see the mysteries of the world with a clearer perspective than them.

In that ancient city of the Heaven Region, a gigantic demonic beast roared unceasingly above the sky. Numerous fearsome cracks appeared in the city as countless people prostrated themselves below, there were even some who were kowtowing to this gigantic demon beast.

This scene was too fearsome. It was a supreme demon god and it seemed to be extremely upset. It was howling with anger in the sky, circling around it like it has gone mad. This demon god was none other than Little Rascal. Right now, he didn’t know what he should do and had no idea what had just happened at all. He couldn’t find Fan Ye and could only howl in madness. He was extremely anxious in his heart and his anger drew dark clouds that covered the entire sky. It was truly an extremely terrifying sight.

Finally, a figure flew through the air. This man was dressed in white. Right now, his expression was so cold that it was terrifying.

Those people below all marveled when they saw this white-robed man, he exuded boundless magnificence and was clearly an extraordinary character. That demonic beast in the air also stopped howling and rushed towards the white-robed man.

“Still unable to find her?” Qin Wentian asked.

“No.” Little Rascal shook his head, his eyes were filled with self-reproach. If it wasn’t for him selfishly bringing Fan Ye out, this wouldn’t have happened.

“Wentian, this is my mistake. If not, nothing would have happened to Little Ye.” Little Rascal was almost mad from his anxiousness. His tone was filled with self-blame. He hated the fact that he had brought Fan Ye out. Did he become complacent because he was now a heavenly deity? It has been a very long time since he felt such agony.

“Don’t be so anxious. Since they captured Little Ye, they will definitely take the initiative to contact us.” Qin Wentian spoke. But how could Little Rascal not feel anxious? Both his eyes were red, flaring with a baleful light. If he knew who the culprit was, he would devour them for sure.

At this moment, the black fog rose up from the ground. Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. His divine sense locked on to it. After that, he flew towards the black fog. The black fog was guiding him towards somewhere.

“It is that black fog that appeared earlier.” Little Rascal stared at it and snarled. Qin Wentian increased his speed and followed after it.

The black fog traveled at an incredibly quick speed, flying into the distance. After a short time, a human and a demon both left the city. The people of the city had no idea what had just happened.

Qin Wentian and Little Rascal chased after the black fog for an unknown amount of time and distance. After a very long time passed, Qin Wentian finally stopped. He stared at the sky, he could see terrifying dark clouds covering the sky, only leaving a single gap. The gap was like telling him to go in.

It was like this gap was intentionally left for him.

“ROAR!” Little Rascal’s eyes flared with balefulness. Qin Wentian didn’t hesitate. He directly flew forward and stepped through it. When they entered, the gap gradually closed. The space here was like an independent world. When they entered, they could see countless faces surrounding them, endless in number. This scene was extremely terrifying.

At this moment, a giant face appeared right in front of them, it was like the face of a devil.

“Where is she?” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. He was naturally referring to Fan Ye.

“I wanted to see you since a long time ago. He had always wanted to devour you and his obsession is extremely strong. Now, he can finally succeed.” The devil face laughed, he didn’t reply Qin Wentian’s question.

“Where is she?” Heavenly might gushed forth from Qin Wentian, instantly creating a terrifying tempest.

“Are you referring to that little girl?” A cold and evil smile appeared on the giant face. After that, a skeleton appeared before Qin Wentian and Little Rascal. When Qin Wentian saw the skeleton, his heart violently pounded as pain flashed across his features.

“Godfather!” It was as though Qin Wentian could hear a clear voice ring out in his mind. That innocent and bright smile of his goddaughter who grew up in the Heaven Vault. How intelligent, how pure and how mischievous was she?

Why was she in the midst of all of this?

Why did they want to pull an innocent girl into this?

He closed his eyes, not daring to look at that skeleton. Tears actually flowed from his eyes. The image of Fan Ye flashed through his mind, she was like a bubbly fairy, leaping up and down in excitement. He could still remember the smiles on Fan Le and Xuan Xin’s face when Fan Ye was born. He could remember the first time she called him godfather.

At this moment, his heart felt like it was being stabbed by a thousand knives.

“ROAR~” A miserable roar shook this entire space as a gigantic golden beast appeared. Little Rascal reverted to his true form, the markings on his body contained terrifying might. He threw his head back and howled as terrifying flames flickered in his eyes, capable of burning anything.

Other than her parents, he was the one who had accompanied Fan Ye the most. Fan Ye and Ouyang Qinxin have always bugged him to play with them and loved to ride on his back. How happy were those times? Even if he was a demon god, he was willing to let them ride on his back and brought them with him as he flew through the skies.

But now, one of those little girls had died because of him. He was the one who brought her out. This was all his fault. He thought that he was strong enough to face off against all variables. He felt that there shouldn't be any accidents…However, this happened.

"ROARRRRR~" Little Rascal's howls of anger reverberated through the entire area. The black fog in the area frenziedly gushed into his mouth. The countless faces in the surroundings transformed into a black vortex storm that was devoured by Little Rascal. It seemed like he wanted to devour this independent world completely.

"Qin Wentian." A voice drifted over. After that, another face appeared below the giant devil face in the air. This face was extremely pale, it was the face of Yue Changkong.

Qin Wentian's surroundings trembled from his aura. The heavenly might he unleashed generated a terrifying storm that was about to erupt.

"It has been a long time since we last met. How do you like my meeting gift?" Yue Changkong had an evil smile on his face.

The storm raged violently, tearing apart the dark clouds and the faces that hadn't been devoured. However, the dark clouds here seemed endless, there was no way to kill them all.

"Is the western world behind this?" Qin Wentian inclined his head. Tear stains filled his face, but his gaze was ice cold. So cold that it was terrifying.

When Little Rascal brought Little Ye out, he had messaged him. Qin Wentian also felt that nothing would go wrong. Even if people wanted to target them, there shouldn't be anything their enemies could do given Little Rascal's speed.

Nothing happened for the first few months, the two of them enjoyed themselves outside. Everything was fine until now. Was this a coincidence? It was definitely impossible for this to be a coincidence.

In that case, the western world could only be the culprit. They just paid a visit to the Heaven Vault not too long ago.

But after that visit, because Qin Wentian was worried, he personally checked Fan Ye for any abnormal signs. However, he didn't discover anything at all. If not, he would surely have guarded her better and not allowed her out of the Heaven Vault. Since something happened to Fan Ye now, it meant that things were partially his fault as well.

“Hahaha…” Yue Changkong laughed malevolently. The countless faces here laughed mockingly at Qin Wentian’s ignorance as well. The giant face above Yue Changkong stared at Qin Wentian as he mockingly spoke, “Do you think that, no one else could execute this perfectly other than the western world? Yue Changkong is very impressed by you and treated you as his destined enemy. However, from my perspective, you are only so-so. You don’t completely understand the western world, you don’t know how terrifying their abilities are. The moment when they stepped into the Heaven Vault, I already knew that a calamity would begin for your Heaven Vault. No one can stop that, unless…”

The giant face paused for a moment before continuing, “Unless you immediately killed those bald donkeys when they entered your Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. Sadly, you didn’t do it. Hence, the calamity was destined to happen. Also, this is merely the start of it. Do you think that the western world is so easy to handle?”

At this moment, it was like the giant face’s words were verified.

Inside the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, Xuan Xin who was cultivating suddenly opened her eyes. Her gaze was blurry, her eyes were filled with tears. She felt an agonizing pain in her heart.

Fan Le was the same. At this moment, his heart felt extremely pained.

They both sensed that something happened to their daughter at the same time. Also, their daughter seemed to be summoning them.

It was unknown when the two of them met with each other. They stared at the tears flowing down each other’s faces as unease filled their hearts. This feeling felt extremely real.

All these happenings were now projected out in the western world. In the golden sky of the Buddhist Sect, that monk sat on the praying match and calmly watched as everything unfolded. Everyone connected to Fan Ye by karma, would enter his dao. There seemed to be some destiny at work, causing all this to happen.

Chapter 1955: World-Purification Dao

Amidst the black fog, the giant face floated behind Yue Changkong, malevolent and terrifying.

“How do you want to deal with him?” At this moment, that giant face asked Yue Changkong.

“Nutrients.” Yue Changkong only replied a single word. This was something he wanted to do the most. Wasn’t Qin Wentian very powerful? Once, Qin Wentian humiliated him, causing him to lose all face and stole all his glory. How should Qin Wentian pay him back for all of this?

He wanted Qin Wentian to become his nutrients. Only so would everything be concluded.

“Alright then, original body.” The giant face laughed evilly. In an instant, the boundless black fog and countless heads began to rush towards Qin Wentian, wanting to devour him. Each head became an evil devil, wanting to suck Qin Wentian’s blood and consume his flesh.

Qin Wentian’s dark eyes glimmered with boundless killing intent. He pulled his sword and slashed out with it. In an instant, his spacetime sword intent manifested, enveloping him. The area around him was completely covered with sword light. Qin Wentian took a step forward and vanished from his location, he shot straight for Yue Changkong.

A blood debt must be repaid by blood.

The densely packed heads directly surrounded him, rushing into the sword light, ignoring its might and devouring the light. Naturally, the heads were endlessly being slashed apart by Qin Wentian’s sword intent. However, these heads seemed endless. If this continued on, the sword light around Qin Wentian would surely be devoured completely.

Qin Wentian’s palm blasted forth, manifesting a spacetime sword river that obstructed all the devilish might. These heads were isolated outside and had no way to get near his body.

“Your skill isn’t bad.” The smile on the giant face’s widened. Around the giant face, countless figures formed. These figures were formed from the heads, and each head was actually a soul that died an unjust death. At this moment, their resentment converged together, forming an extremely terrifying and powerful force that was invisible. When Qin Wentian tried to move forward, he could sense an energy trying to affect his soul.

“Godfather.” A face suddenly appeared in his mind.

"Little Ye." Qin Wentian's heart trembled. This face belongs to Fan Ye. She had a radiant smile on her face but a few moments later, her expression changed, becoming something extremely terrifying. Her face had bloodstains as she coldly stared at him, "Godfather, you are the one who caused my death, you are the one caused my death!"

Qin Wentian's heart was filled with even more agony. He naturally knew that all of these were false but he was still strongly affected as his soul was impacted.

After that, more and more faces appeared, transforming from one to another in Qin Wentian's mind.

"Qin Wentian, you are the one who harmed us. It was you who allowed Yue Changkong to grow till today. Everything is your fault!" The terrifying resentment transformed into a fearsome energy. Qin Wentian's soul was instantly tormented.

Tears flowed from Qin Wentian's eyes. But his gaze was as resolute and icy as before, flashing with an immense killing intent.

"KILL!" Qin Wentian roared. The soul sword dao formed from his Undying Scripture tore apart these countless faces, severing the resentment.

"BOOM!" More of those faces fused together into an ethereal god of resentment that clashed against Qin Wentian's soul sword dao.

Yue Changkong had devoured countless experts. He actually refined their resentment into an attack that could attack the soul and the heart.

"This old friend of yours has cultivated a soul heart. In addition, his soul strength is extremely strong. Seems like you need to put in some effort if you wish to devour him as nutrients." That giant face spoke to Yue Changkong. "Why don't you act personally? My energy is gradually passing to you. Eventually, everything I have would be yours."

Yue Changkong nodded. Although he wasn't really used to this spirit of his from a past life, but this fellow was truly powerful and had many shocking methods and techniques. This giant face was far more powerful compared to the current him. The giant face was able to refine all negative energy in the world to allow himself to use it. Also, the higher his cultivation is, the more terrifying these techniques and methods he could use would be.

Before Yue Changkong, a fearsome blackhole resembling the mouth of an evil god appeared. A heaven-shaking roar rang out as the black hole extended forward, wanting to devour everything. Qin Wentian's body was drawn in by the absorption force. Yue Changkong wanted to devour Qin Wentian.

Little Rascal shot straight over. His gigantic body appeared in the air as the look in his eyes was as cold as a freezing hell. He roared as the ability of heaven devouring beasts to devour the heavens, the earth, the sun, the moon and the stars kicked in. Two terrifying sources of devouring might clashed with each other. The space between them was completely devastated as numerous cracks appeared in the air.

“Wentian, Wentian…” In his heart, there seemed to be people calling out to him. Qin Wentian’s heart trembled, he understood that these voices belonged to Fan Le and Xuan Xin.

“Why did you cause Little Ye to die? You are her godfather. Why didn’t you protect her?” Their voices sounded like an interrogation. Qin Wentian was filled with self-reproach as a look of guilt appeared on his face. He felt extremely agonized.

“It is a heart devil, you have to be careful.” In his mind, a voice reminded him. It was the ancient will of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity that had always existed in his mind.

“Heart devil?” Many thoughts rose in Qin Wentian’s heart. With the interrogation of Fan Le, Xuan Xin, Qing`er and Qingcheng, countless familiar faces of his friends and family appeared. They were all very unhappy towards him.

“Yue Changkong has already completely turned into the devil. He wants to control all the negative emotions and energy in the world. You will must be strong enough or you would die here for sure today. The moment you die, the Heaven Vault and Qin Heavenly Divine Sect would be finished.” The Skybreak Heavenly Deity warned.

“AH!” Qin Wentian roared thunderously as his spacetime dao radiated forth, wanting everything here to stop. However, how could resentment and his heart devil stop like that?

His heart devil continued to torment him.

In the air, black clouds churned wildly, there were countless heads and faces here. The giant face breathed out, and in an instant, all the heads and faces began to glow with a dark light that converged together into something else. Faintly, the form of a terrifying divine weapon could be seen. This divine weapon was in the shape of a spear that radiated boundless killing aura. This was formed from the resentment and killing intent of the countless death spirits devoured by Yue Changkong. The amount of killing intent seemed more than enough to destroy all deities in the world.

Just like what the Skybreak Deity had said, right now, Yue Changkong and his past self’s spirit was able to control all negative emotions and energy. From this, one could imagine how powerful Yue Changkong’s past life was. When the heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court guessed his identity, all of them submitted immediately, not daring to say anything else. What a terrifying threat he represented. From ancient times until now, how many people could cause others to fear them so much?

But at this moment, a ray of light suddenly pierced through the darkness. This light was extremely pure and holy, and its glow continued to intensify. In the air, there seemed to be countless buddhas chanting buddhist sutras, the sound of their chants filled the sky. At this moment, an ancient supreme buddha also appeared behind Qin Wentian. That was one of his astral souls.

To counter evil energy, some techniques of the buddha path were naturally the most suitable. However, the monks of the western world didn't have compassion in their hearts. They didn't use buddhic energy to counter evil energy. On the contrary, they seemed to be serving the designs of evil.

In the world, no type of energy by itself couldn't be considered good or bad. Kindness and evil didn't depend on whether one was cultivating the devil path or the buddhist path. It depended on the human heart.

During these years, Qin Wentian naturally didn't waste his time. He attempted to connect with many astral souls in the nine heavenly layers. The power of some astral souls were unimaginably strong but Qin Wentian had chosen to first condense some of the dao-type astral souls first.

At this moment, the buddha dao astral soul was summoned by him to suppress the evil.

From the buddha behind him, boundless resplendent holy light radiated forth, its radiance could overcome all negativity. This dao wasn't the power of the buddhist path alone, there were also the laws of light, of time, of space, and his bloodline power mixed within, constituting a fusion of everything, becoming a dao that could cleanse the world.

At this moment, this evil place transformed into a holy ground. Everywhere the radiance reached, the evil there was instantly purified. The heart devil and the god of resentment had no way to harass Qin Wentian.

As for the countless heads and faces that were moving towards Qin Wentian, all of them seemed to have found peace as they dissipated silently. When the radiance shone upon Yue Changkong's pale face, Yue Changkong's skin seemed to be melted away from the purifying effect. He rapidly retreated and hid within the dark clouds.

Numerous holes now appeared in the sky covered by the dark clouds, it seemed that the darkness was being cleansed away bit by bit.

"You actually cultivated the buddha dao?" That giant face coldly spoke. What he cultivated was the ultimate evil, the buddha dao was indeed something that could suppress and control him.

"The dao is neutral." Qin Wentian coldly replied. The strongest Buddhist Sect was in the western world. However, he didn't believe that the western world could represent the Buddhist Path. This buddha dao was neutral. Buddha should be merciful and compassionate, yet the western world made use of these values to do cruel things.

"Haha, interesting. I finally know why my current body in this world would be so persistent towards you. Even I, am now filled with intense interest regarding you." That giant face laughed. If this was before, Qin Wentian would surely be shocked if he learned that Yue Changkong had a past life. But now, there was no room for shock in his heart, there was only hatred. He didn’t care if he would become a demon or a devil. He wanted Yue Changkong to die.

The incomparably holy radiance gathered on Qin Wentian’s sword. He swung his sword forward, generating a world-purifying sword light that clashed together with the spear of slaughter. The heavens trembled from the impact as both were destroyed.

This wasn’t the end yet. Boundless holy sword light radiated from Qin Wentian. With a single finger attack, the glow intensified and blasted towards the giant face.

“I didn’t expect this.” The expression of the giant face flickered. When the sword light pierced into it, the face actually exploded. The dark clouds in the sky were also purified by the holy light as the black fog permeating the area faded. Qin Wentian’s gaze was extremely cold. Beams of holy light shot out, he didn’t want to allow any of the black fog to remain.

“You want to kill me?” A voice rang out from the void. “I didn’t even die countless years ago, how can you kill me? In the future, we will meet again.”

In the western world, the Karma Buddha saw everything. His expression was as calm and as unfathomable as ever.

“How can evil win against the buddhist path? Unfortunately, you didn’t join our Buddhist Sect.” He softly spoke, like he was feeling pity for Qin Wentian.

Chapter 1956: Apocalypse of the Ziwei Divine Court

Yue Changkong fled, vanishing without a trace. Qin Wentian's divine sense spread through the sky and enveloped countless distance but it was useless.

The current Yue Changkong has already awakened memories of his past life. He was completely unfathomable, becoming one of the vilest existences in this world. The dao arts he cultivated were all extremely heretic and evil. He wanted to control all the negative energy in the world, he devoured others to make them feel resentment and killing intent, he would then gather all these negative emotions to attack the souls and bodies of others.

In the air, a skeleton floated down. Qin Wentian stretched out a trembling hand and caught it. Little Rascal's entire body was shuddering as he let out low-sounding growls. Tears flowed down unceasingly from his saucer-like eyes.

"AH~!" A human-like sound echoed from Little Rascal's throat. It wasn't a bestial roar, he inclined his head and stared at the sky while a terrifying light radiated from him. His body grew larger and larger, as a crown appeared on his head. His giant body was filled with complicated patterns as a terrifying baleful qi permeated the area. This world was completely enveloped by that baleful qi. Those people below felt utterly suppressed, they couldn't even breath, it felt like their hearts were about to explode.

Motes of jade-green light flowed from Qin Wentian, filled with his life force as they entered the skeleton. Due to the influx of such vibrant life force, flesh began to form on the skeleton until a beautiful young maiden appeared. It was truly none other than Fan Ye.

Staring at the young maiden quietly lying in his arms, Qin Wentian lowered his head and gave a trembling kiss on her forehead. Tears flowed down his face, dripping on that young and beautiful face.

"Little Ye, godfather will definitely make those people enter hell. I guarantee this." Qin Wentian quietly mumbled. Although he was crying, it looked like he was smiling. It was a smile of madness.

A hoarse-sounding roar rang out from Little Rascal. Little Rascal flew up and shot straight into the distance, vanishing from sight. It was unknown how far he went.

Qin Wentian hugged the ice-cold body, he didn't make any movements but at the next moment, he vanished completely from this location. Below, countless people inclined their heads but they could no longer see him.

"Hu…" Countless hearts trembled, the battle they just witnessed shocked them to their core. The main character was Qin Wentian whose name had shook the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms as well as the Moon God from the Ziwei Divine Court, Yue Changkong.

In the Ziwei Divine Court of the Mystic Region, the divine court was a floating majestic city, exuding imposingness. There were countless experts in the divine court, including many terrifying knights who were supposed to maintain law and order within the Ziwei Divine Court. After all, the main headquarters of the Ziwei Divine Court was as vast as a world.

At this moment, a team of Ziwei Divine Knights were patrolling the area.

All of a sudden, a thunderous boom rang out as they felt the divine court trembling. They frowned and inclined their heads, staring up at the air. At this moment, one of the more powerful knights roared in anger, “Who dares to be so insolent?”

As the sound of his voice faded, a bright light flashed as thunder roared. A golden giant creature directly barged into the divine court, soaring past him. Not only for the knight who spoke, this team of knights were all slashed into pieces in an instant when the giant creature soared past them. Fresh blood continued to flow unendingly.

Rumbling noises rang out as cracks appeared on the ground. The experts in the Ziwei Divine Court could feel the earth quaking. When they inclined their heads and stared at the sky, their expressions showed wrath as killing intent flickered in their eyes.

However, in the next moment, the cold killing intent in their eyes was replaced completely by fear.

When they inclined their heads, they didn’t see a human, they only saw a flood of golden light. Each beam of golden light actually took the form of golden feathers, covering the entire sky.

“Who dares to act so brazenly in the Ziwei Divine Court?” Terrifying heavenly might radiated forth, but at the same moment, some golden feathers fell from the air. In an instant, the golden feathers that fell, exploded. The buildings of the Ziwei Divine Court crumbled as screams of fear rang out.

The heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court also acted. They stood in the air and joined forces to create a divine diagram that spanned across the sky, blocking the terrifying powerful killing might from the other feathers.

The sky instantly dimmed. A giant creature with a crown on its appeared, exuding a horrifying baleful aura.

“What sort of vile creature are you?” The eyes of a deity flashed. How dare this lowly beast act so brazenly before them and destroy buildings of the divine court?

Only to see the gaze of this demonic beast flickering with ruthlessness. Its body expanded again, as the heavenly might that gushed forth from it bore down on the entire divine court. The people in the Ziwei Divine Court all trembled, they felt true terror. This giant beast that blotted out the sun, it was impossible to imagine how strong it was.

“This seems to be Qin Wentian’s heaven devouring beast companion.” A heavenly deity of the Ziwei Divine Court spoke. But this heaven devouring beast seemed different somehow, like it has changed. Its body was many times larger than before and its aura was also different. This was why they didn’t manage to recognize it at first glance.

The giant beast in the air suddenly opened its mouth and let out a heaven-shaking bellow. In an instant, heavenly might enveloped everything as the vast Ziwei Divine Court began to shudder. Numerous buildings were wrenched off the ground by a devouring force, flying into the air with lightning speed.

“No, what is going on? No…!” There were people who couldn’t control their bodies. That terrifying devouring force bore down on them as they were drawn skywards towards that terrifying mouth.

RUMBLE~ More and more buildings were pulled up, the earth was shaking violently. Fear and shock filled the atmosphere, everyone had terror on their faces, they didn’t dare to believe what they were seeing.

The sky crumbled and earth shattered. This phrase couldn’t be more apt to be used to describe what happened right now.

Everything that could be uprooted, was uprooted, flying towards the giant vortex of devouring in the sky.

Heaven devouring beasts naturally could devour the heaven and earth, the sun, moon and the stars. This wasn’t fabricated.

“FLEE!” One of the heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court howled. He could sense that the Ziwei Divine Court wouldn’t be able to evade this calamity.

Qin Wentian finally acted against the Ziwei Divine Court?

Qin Wentian’s demonic beast has already arrived. But, where was Qin Wentian?

Why did they want to attack the Ziwei Divine Court? Also, when this heaven devouring beast appeared, it was so brazen like it was filled with immense hatred. It was willing to ignore any price to destroy the Ziwei Divine Court.

As time passed, the entire Ziwei Divine Court was uprooted, flying into the giant vortex.

“ARGHHHH….” People below screamed in terror. Countless gazes filled with hope stared at the heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court.

There was a heavenly deity with an astral sword in his hand. He flew towards Little Rascal's giant body and slashed out with it. The astral sword gleamed brilliantly, as though capable of tearing everything apart. If they still didn't act, the entire divine court would probably truly be devoured.

All of a sudden, a storm manifested in the air. That heavenly deity who just slashed out felt a chilly wind brushing past him. After that, a figure appeared before him, his attack was parried effortlessly. With just a single glance at the person, he felt into a world of illusions, entering a realm where this figure controlled everything.

The newcomer waved his hand and pierced out a sword at the same time. This sword attack seemed to originate from beyond the heavens. The heavenly deity couldn't even react and the center of his brows was pierced through directly. Flesh blood flowed as he fell towards the ground.

A heavenly deity was killed in a single sword strike.

The Ziwei Star Sovereign stood below. He finally appeared. When he saw the countless buildings and human figures being drawn into the sky, he stared up and spoke to Qin Wentian, "Qin Wentian, why are you doing this?"

"Where is Yue Changkong?" Qin Wentian coldly asked. His divine sense scanned the area but he didn't manage to find Yue Changkong.

However, the other heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court were present.

"I have no idea." The Ziwei Star Sovereign shook his head. He truly didn't know where Yue Changkong was.

"There's no longer a need for the Ziwei Divine Court to exist anymore." Qin Wentian softly spoke. These words were spoken without emotion, like he was announcing the fate of the Ziwei Divine Court. The Ziwei Star Sovereign and the other heavenly deities revealed expressions of anger. Qin Wentian and his demonic beast came here alone, did they think that the two of them was strong enough to destroy the Ziwei Divine Court? This Qin Wentian, wasn't his tone too arrogant?

However, Qin Wentian's demonic beast felt even more terrifying than Qin Wentian currently. Its aura caused fear to appear in the hearts of these deities. It wanted to devour the entire Ziwei Divine Court!

Chapter 1957: Heavenly deities transformed into bones, who can control the nine heavens?

"What did Yue Changkong do?" The experts from the Ziwei Divine Court silently mused. Right now, Yue Changkong was already the controller of the Ziwei Divine Court and had the title of Moon God. There was no need for him to report the things he wanted to do to the divine court. Hence, the people of the Ziwei Divine Court still had no idea what the reason was behind Qin Wentian's wrath.

Why would Qin Wentian come here in anger, wanting to wipe out the Ziwei Divine Court?

However, they didn't have time to worry about these now, The heaven devouring beast wanted to swallow this entire area. Everything in the divine court was uprooted, floating in the air. The wreckage of the buildings also floated towards the giant vortex, the people in the Ziwei Divine Court also couldn't escape. They struggled frenziedly but to no avail, they weren't able to break free from the devouring might that targeted them. No one was able to resist it, it was simply too powerful.

"Ziwei Divine Sword Formation!" The Ziwei Star Sovereign commanded. After that, the heavenly deities of the divine court all stood in certain positions as they released their astral souls. In an instant, they formed connections with the nine heavens as a terrifying Ziwei Divine Formation manifested. The Ziwei Constellation in the sky shone brightly as boundless astral light cascaded downwards, transforming into a meteor shower.

All of a sudden, darkness filled the area, the sun had disappeared as a manifestation of the nine heavens covered the sky, painting it with stars. Motes of astral light gathered together, forming the Ziwei Divine Sword that descended from the sky. This sword shone brightly with seven colors, illuminating the area around it. It was as though it was capable of commanding the myriad of swords ever to have existed. After it was formed, the sword shot towards the immensely gigantic heaven devouring beast and Qin Wentian.

There were countless people in the city of the Ziwei Divine Court. They inclined their heads and stared at the demonic beast in the air. It was too terrifying, the demonic beast was like a supreme demon god, wanting to devour the lives of an entire city. Above the demonic beast, the Ziwei Divine Sword shot forth like an arrow, wanting to slay it.

Qin Wentian flew over, wanting to help Little Rascal.

"Go and kill them all, leave this to me." Little Rascal growled in a low voice. Qin Wentian nodded his head. His anger towered up into the sky because of Fan Ye's death but he has not lost all rationale yet. Little Rascal seemed to have undergone some transformation, becoming stronger compared to the past. Right now, he was like a beast king of the starry skies, an absolute sovereign among demons.

Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he flew towards the heavenly deities controlling the Ziwei Divine Sword. His body shone with a world-purifying light that transcended spacetime, directly boring down on the heavenly deities here.

“Sizzle~” Some of the heavenly deities felt their bodies disintegrating under the world-purifying light. They lowered their heads in shock and watched their bodies crumble apart.

The dao of world purification was able to counter all evil energy. But that wasn’t the only thing it could do. This was a type of superstrong dao art that could purify everything in the world. In addition, it would only grow stronger upon facing evil arts because the root of this technique was based on the buddha path.

“This is impossible!” A heavenly deity raged. The power of their dao arts around them was actually dissipating from the purification effect. They weren’t able to block Qin Wentian’s attack. During these years, how much stronger has he gotten?

Could it be that heavenly deities already couldn’t even withstand a single strike before him?

Yue Changkong was someone that long ought to already disappear from this world. But because the Ziwei Divine Court kept protecting him time after time, which eventually led to the current Yue Changkong today, creating a calamity that harmed countless lives. Also, the entire Ziwei Divine Court ended up being controlled by Yue Changkong, becoming a tool of murder. Since this was the case, he would destroy the Ziwei Divine Court today. Even if he had to endure the sin of killing so many innocents along with them, he would bear them all alone.

Under the world-purifying light, the bodies of the heavenly deities disintegrated bit by bit, they were about to turn into ashes.

“No!” A heavenly deity had a look of extreme terror on his face as he howled madly. However, everything was useless. Their bodies were still disintegrating until finally, they turned into nothingness, returning to the void as their souls scattered, vanishing completely from this world.

At this moment, out of the various powerful heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court, only the Ziwei Star Sovereign remained. He was the strongest and he was still resisting the effects of the world-purification light.

As for the sword light in the air, Little Rascal blocked it with his giant body. His size was so huge that he blotted out the entire sky. His body glowed with divine light as it became covered with golden scales that possessed a supremely terrifying defensive power. When the sword light bore down on him, it actually failed to hurt Little Rascal. From this, one could see how tough his body was.

When the seven-colored gigantic sword swung down, smashing against Little Rascal, the scales on his back transformed into a supreme divine formation which became a huge mouth of the starry space as he devoured the seven-colored sword cleanly.

The Ziwei Divine Sword was actually swallowed just like that.

Little Rascal’s body seemed to no longer be a body of flesh and blood. It was like a black hole of endless depths.

The vast and majestic Ziwei Divine Court was like a terrifying ancient city. Everything here gradually entered the giant vortex of devouring in the air. Below, countless lives felt boundless terror. Qin Wentian's demonic beast companion was actually like a space beast king. He was able to swallow the entire Ziwei Divine Court in a single gulp, this was simply too terrifying. No one has seen such a shocking sight before.

At this moment, everyone was thinking that back then when the Ziwei Divine Court destroyed the Heavenly Deity Mountain, have they ever thought that they would face the same situation one day? A situation of complete annihilation.

The Ziwei Star Sovereign trembled. Despite his strength, he still felt shocked and helpless. Regardless of whether it was Qin Wentian or Little Rascal, both of them have reached a level of power that even caused him to feel fear.

The Ziwei Divine Court is finished.

He felt some hate for himself. Yue Changkong didn't lead the Ziwei Divine Court to the peak, it was because of Yue Changkong that the Ziwei Divine Court was destroyed.

If he knew this would happen, why would he have allowed Yue Changkong to live on back then? In the past when Yue Changkong devoured his master, he should have already killed him. His decision back then buried the Ziwei Divine Court now.

"Qin Wentian, this is a great sin. Even if you are using buddhist path power, are you not afraid that your dao heart would be weighed down by this amount of sin?" The Ziwei Star Sovereign coldly spoke.

Qin Wentian's expression was cold, he stared at the Ziwei Star Sovereign before sweeping his gaze towards the distance. "If the people of the world want to kill my loved ones, I will even bury the entire heavens. So what if the sins of a multitude haunt me and I have to endure eternal damnation? I will face them all by himself."

As the sound of his voice faded, Qin Wentian moved towards the Ziwei Star Sovereign. With a single glance, the spacetime around here changed.

At this moment, a starry world appeared behind the Ziwei Star Sovereign. The Ziwei Constellation shone brilliantly as endless starlight bore down on him, infusing him with the strength to resist.

"DIE!" The Ziwei Star Sovereign icily shouted. The stars in the world behind him became a killing formation. Countless rays of killing light shot out, intersecting with each other, wanting to tear Qin Wentian into shreds.

A spacetime storm generated around Qin Wentian, drawing the rays of killing light shot towards him within. However, the rays of killing light seemed endless, even if the spacetime storm was a blackhole, it still got shredded apart by the ultimate technique of the Ziwei Star Sovereign.

The rays produced by the killing formation increased in speed and were about to reach Qin Wentian's body. At this moment, the world-purifying light radiated from Qin Wentian once more, glowing even more resplendently. The killing rays collided with the world-purifying light and were neutralised. At this moment, the time in the area stopped completely.

"Life, stop." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The power of his other dao art was unleashed on the Ziwei Star Sovereign. Qin Wentian's greatest advantage was that he was proficient in many daos. Also, each of his dao arts belonged to those extremely strong daos, capable of holding their own. When these dao arts were fused together and their power was unleashed upon a single person, how terrifying would the power be?

There are a myriad of great daos, when someone controls a powerful dao and cultivates it all the way to the end, they would be able to reign supreme in an entire region. However, Qin Wentian had the advantage provided by the Heaven Vault and he could condense astral souls from countless constellations. He was able to comprehend any type of dao.

The killing rays gradually weakened and grew dim. The Ziwei Star Sovereign felt his life and his strength being sealed away in a state of stillness. Even his life force was being stilled. The power of his dao art gradually grew weaker and finally, the killing formation was unable to withstand the power of the world-purifying dao light. The killing rays actually reversed and shot back at the Ziwei Star Sovereign.

At this moment, the Ziwei Star Sovereign opened his eyes. He inclined his head and stared up at the boundless starry sky. There was no terror or fear in his gaze, only a trace of reluctance. Ultimately, he still didn't have a chance to pursue the secrets of the nine heavens.

Today, he, the Ziwei Star Sovereign, would die here.

"Calamities raining down upon the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. In the end, heavenly deities are transformed into bones. Who would be the one that gains control over the nine heavens?" The Ziwei Star Sovereign sighed. The sound of his voice rang out through the air and after that, his body was engulfed by the killing rays and disappeared bit by bit. Finally, he transformed into motes of astral light and dissipated completely.

"Calamities raining down upon the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms…" The hearts of everyone trembled, all of them could feel a sense of dismay. The Divine Ox Clan of the Desolate Region, the Heavenly Deity Mountain of the Mystic Region and the Ziwei Divine Court. They were hegemonic powers yet they were extinguished in succession, eventually becoming nothing but dust.

The Qin Clan also weakened, no longer as powerful as the past.

The Demon God Mountain relocated, the Luoshen Clan fragmented, the western world was vying for the Heaven Vault but the battle between them and the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect has yet to erupt. All these were definitely calamities.

In the end, heavenly deities were transformed into bones. Out of the countless lives in the immortal realms, heavenly deities were extremely rare. Yet so many of them have actually already fallen. Was this the tragedy of this era?

Or maybe, this was another beginning?

The ending brought about by a calamity would always have a new starting point. Who would be the one to control the nine heavens?

“The Ziwei Divine Court no longer exists.” The hearts of everyone here weren’t able to calm down. A human and a demonic beast descended from the sky, completely annihilating the Ziwei Divine Court and killing the Ziwei Star Sovereign.

The demonic beast was still howling in anger in the air, intent on devouring everything, it was like a beast king of the starry space.

That human, exuded boundless glory, shining brightly in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, unrivalled by any other. Even the fearsome demonic beast king in the air was his demonic beast companion.

Such a team was sufficient to strike fear in the hearts of any hegemonic power in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

That young man said that if the people of the world wanted to kill his loved ones, he would bury the entire heavens. Did his loved ones perish in the hands of the Ziwei Divine Court or Yue Changkong? He wanted to warn those hegemonic powers and the people of the world. Anyone who dares to kill his loved ones, he would spare no expense to get revenge, even if he would be assigned to a path of eternal damnation.

Chapter 1958: Connected Karma

In the sky, the storm of combat ceased. A gentle wind breezed by, giving people a cool and comfortable feeling.

Although Qin Wentian has destroyed the Ziwei Divine Court, he wasn't relaxed or happy at all. There was only sorrow in his heart.

This calamity was triggered by him in the first place for refusing to hand the Heaven Vault over. Everything should be borne by him. Because his cultivation base was too strong now, the people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms couldn't act against him. Hence, they moved against the people around him, leading to Fan Ye being implicated.

Little Rascal's gigantic body was still in the air. His baleful gaze swept towards the surroundings. He wanted to kill Yue Changkong but Yue Changkong managed to escape.

Other than Yue Changkong, Qin Wentian also knew that the western world was involved in this.

Currently inside the western world, the Karma Buddha was observing everything that has happened. When he saw Qin Wentian and Little Rascal destroying the Ziwei Divine Court, he pressed his palms together and chanted buddhist verses.

Qin Wentian was extraordinary, his talent was supreme. Right now, he discovered that the demonic beast beside Qin Wentian seemed to also have an extraordinary origin. Sadly, he wasn't able to tell too much from the karma between Fan Ye and the demonic beast. He could only see what was currently happening now.

Qin Wentian who was far away in the Ziwei Divine Court of the Mystic Region suddenly felt a strange feeling. It felt like someone was spying on him. He turned his gaze towards the west as his eyes gleamed with a terrifying light. It was like his gaze could peer through time and space. Over there, it seemed like he saw an illusory figure that was somewhat blurry but he could still recognize it. This blurry figure was a buddha that controls the power of karma and was currently observing him.

"Are you the one?" Qin Wentian asked. He could faintly sense that this buddha was none other than the monk who paid a visit to the Heaven Vault that time.

At this moment, in the western world that was boundlessly faraway, the Karma Buddha heard Qin Wentian's words. However, he didn't reply. He merely calmly watched on. That was him, that was also not him. That was his karma force from his dao. Everyone that has a karmic relationship with Fan Ye would enter his dao. It was dependent on the individual's cultivation base, the karmic relationship was different for each individual.

Qin Wentian was someone with a very strong cultivation. Hence, he was able to detect this karma force and managed to trace it back to the Karma Buddha via the karmic relationship he had with Fan Ye. He was able to see an illusory figure and was speaking to him.

“You won’t even have a chance to go to hell.” Qin Wentian’s voice was extremely calm, yet extremely cold. He knew that he has underestimated this buddhist cultivator that paid a visit to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. That monk who visited was much stronger compared to Reverend Seven Abstinences, possessing terrifying and unfathomable abilities. He used an unknown method to influence Fan Ye’s actions and he did it in such a way that it escaped Qin Wentian’s notice. Little Rascal came out with her but Little Rascal also didn’t sense anything strange or he would definitely have done something.

This meant that when this mysterious energy was planted in Fan Ye’s body, her fate was already destined. No one could change it.

As the sound of Qin Wentian’s voice rang out, a powerful energy blasted into the void, destroying the illusory buddha figure. After that, the sense of being spied upon disappeared. The Karma Buddha in the western world closed his eyes. Qin Wentian’s voice was very cold, it was like he meant what he said, he wouldn’t allow him to even enter hell.

Although he was the Karma Buddha, he also had no idea what the future would be. He only knew that when the dao of karma entered Fan Ye’s body, a karmic relationship was already formed between him and the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. Regardless of people around Fan Ye or he himself, everyone has already entered his dao.

Since they have entered the dao, this path naturally must be completed. The chess board of karma cannot stop. Qin Wentian was able to extinguish his karmic force but it didn’t mean that the others who were infected by this karmic relationship could do so as well.

Fan Ye’s parents, Fan Le and Xuan Xin. Their cultivation bases were still way too insufficient.

In the Heaven Vault, Fan Le and Xuan Xin already knew that their daughter has already died. Although they didn’t personally witness it and didn’t go around asking about it, they had a strong feeling that this was the truth. They felt that there was no mistake at all.

In fact, they even knew who was the one who killed their daughter. There was a reverend in the Buddhist Sect of the western world who was extremely skilled in some mysterious buddhic art that did it.

Their sorrow, despair and tears were buried deep in their hearts. They wanted to leave the Heaven Vault but the Heaven Vault was already shut. They weren’t able to leave. Qin Wentian wouldn’t let them leave either.

They didn’t ask Qin Wentian what happened. There was no need to ask. Even if they asked, what could they do?

Would Qin Wentian allow them to go out and send themselves to death?

Who could they blame for their daughter’s death?

Could they blame Qin Wentian? Without Qin Wentian, how could they have today? Most probably, they would have drifted with the waves and followed the mundane crowd blindly, not knowing which corner of the world they would end up in. They might have already been extremely old if it wasn’t for the breakthroughs of their cultivations, or they might already have passed on.

Could they blame Little Rascal? Little Ye loved to play with him the most. Could it be that Little Rascal was willing to see Little Ye die?

Regardless of Qin Wentian or Little Rascal, both of them were among the closest people to Little Ye.

If they wanted to blame, they could only blame the heavens for being ruthless, and the human heart for being cruel. They could only blame themselves for not even being able to protect their own daughter. Since they weren’t able to protect her, why did they give birth to her? They hated themselves for being useless and helpless.

They could faintly see the corpse of their daughter transforming into bones. Such a heart wrenching pain, who could understand it?

Also, this type of pain would intensify the more one thought about it.

Not only for Fan Le and Xuan Xin, even Fan Ye’s best friend Ouyang Qinxin also sensed an indescribable pain in her heart. She who was in her residence suddenly started crying, this pain was unbearable. When Jiang Ting discovered her, she immediately asked, “Qinxin, what’s wrong?”

Ouyang Qinxin was still crying, her sobs were so bad that Jiang Ting was trembling. Ouyang Qinxin knelt on the ground as tears covered her beautiful face. Jiang Ting was so scared that she didn’t know what to do. She hurriedly took out her messaging crystal, “Ouyang, quickly come over.”

Not long later, Ouyang Kuangsheng arrived here. When he saw his daughter’s appearance, he also felt pain in his heart. He hugged his daughter and spoke, “Qinxin, what happened? You can tell it to daddy.”

Ouyang Qinxin lifted her head, her eyes were bloodshot as she threw herself into the embrace of her parents. She sobbed, “Something has happened to Little Ye!”

“What?” Ouyang Kuangsheng and Jiang Ting’s hearts trembled. “Qinxin, speak clearly. What happened exactly?”

Ouyang Qinxin sobbed, “Little Ye was killed by someone.”

Ouyang Kuangsheng and Jiang Ting trembled violently when they heard this. How could this have happened?

“Qinxin, don’t imagine things. How could anything happen to Little Ye? Didn’t she go out to play with Little Rascal?” Jiang Ting looked at her daughter.

“Something really happened to her. I can sense it, I can really sense it. Uncle Qin told everyone to go inside the Heaven Vault and he went out alone. Before this, I didn’t understand. But all of a sudden, I felt something. I can’t explain it clearly but I know it is true.”

Ouyang Kuangsheng and Jiang Ting exchanged a glance. Could this be real? But why was Qinxin able to sense it?

This doesn’t conform to logic. Qinxin had a premonition?

Even if she has the ability, why didn’t she sense anything when something happened to Little Ye? She only suddenly had this feeling after Qin Wentian knew what happened.

“I’ll ask some questions.” Ouyang Kuangsheng took out his messaging crystal, he felt his heart was a little heavy. He sent his immortal sense into it and contacted Qin Wentian, “Wentian, Qinxin suddenly started crying really badly. She said that something has happened to Little Ye. Is this real?”

Qin Wentian was silent for some moments. After that, he replied, “How did Qinxin know about it?”

Ouyang Kuangsheng only felt pain in his heart. He shared a look with Jiang Ting. Something actually really happened to that child.

How could this be!

“Qinxin said that not long ago, she suddenly felt a terrible feeling. This feeling was extremely intense and she is still crying even now.” Ouyang Kuangsheng replied. He was very worried about Fan Le and Xuan Xin. If they knew that Little Ye was killed by someone, how much pain would they feel? He had no way to imagine himself losing Qinxin. That sort of pain was probably even worse than death.

After Qin Wentian received Ouyang Kuangsheng’s message, a sense of unease suddenly rose up in his heart. He was able to sense this mysterious buddha-type force, but what about the others?

Although Qin Wentian didn't know what sort of energy this was exactly, it was sure to be extremely terrifying. Qinxin was actually affected so badly, feeling pain and sorrow in her heart.

"Ouyang, quickly go check up on Fan Le and Xuan Xin. Don't let anything happen to them." Qin Wentian suddenly sent a message, his tone was filled with worry. Ouyang Kuangsheng felt his heart clench. "Alright, I'll go look for them now."

After keeping his messaging crystal, he spoke to Jiang Ting, "You take care of Qinxin. Little lass, don't let your imaginations run wild."

After speaking, his figure flashed as he sped away. And almost at the same time, Qin Wentian left the Ziwei Divine Court in the Mystic Region as he rushed back to the Heaven Region. This buddha-type force didn't merely affect Little Ye, it might also affect others in the Heaven Vault. He had to settle this matter. He had a strong sense of unease that something might have happened to Fan Le and Xuan Xin.

After Qin Wentian and the heaven devouring beast left, many people rushed over to the ruins of the Ziwei Divine Court. As they stared at the surroundings, countless emotions filled their hearts.

A hegemonic power of the Mystic Region, the Ziwei Divine Court, was exterminated.

Right now, out of the three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region, the Heavenly Deity Mountain and Ziwei Divine Court were both destroyed. Only the Great Devil Divine Palace still remained. The news here soon circulated through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, creating a huge commotion.

Not long after Qin Wentian left, a terrifying black fog descended from the sky. This black fog felt extremely evil, causing the people in the surroundings to retreat quickly. After that, the black fog swooped downwards and upon seeing some of the corpses on the ground, the fog directly engulfed the corpses. After that, it brought them away before vanishing completely.

"Is that…Yue Changkong?" The hearts of some people trembled. Yue Changkong of the Ziwei Divine Court, it already wasn't a secret that he cultivated an evil art. Right now, could it be that he didn't even want to spare the corpses of the fallen deities?!

Chapter 1959: Solution

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the news of the Ziwei Divine Court's destruction once again caused huge waves of commotion. All heavenly deities died other than Yue Changkong. The boundlessly vast divine court was devoured by a gigantic heaven devouring beast.

The Qin Wentian now, has he grown so strong that even peak characters had to be wary of him? But should they act against him? The Ziwei Divine Court was a very good example of what might happen if they tried anything against him.

Very soon, the people of the world learned of the reason behind this storm. Qin Wentian's goddaughter, who was the daughter of one of his brothers since his youth, was killed by Yue Changkong. In addition, they even knew that the culprit behind this storm might very well be the western world. Several months ago before this, a monk from the western world paid a visit to the Heaven Vault and threatened Qin Wentian.

But later on, the western world didn't act, they got Yue Changkong to act instead. Maybe, Yue Changkong was already confident enough that he could kill Qin Wentian. Sadly, he failed.

It was said that Yue Changkong's evil art allowed him to grow stronger and stronger or it would be impossible for him to gain control of the Ziwei Divine Court and have the title of Moon God. Someone even said that Yue Changkong might be the reincarnation of a powerful existence in the past. His past life was an extremely terrifying existence. But even so, he still failed to defeat Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's existence caused those hegemonic powers to feel more and more uneasy. Back then, how would they have imagined that he would be able to rise up so quickly in such a short time? All these transformations occurred after the battle in the Qin Clan. At that time, Qin Wentian still needed to depend on others to protect him. But now, he could already depend on himself.

In the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, Qin Wentian rushed back after receiving Ouyang Kuangsheng's voice transmission. He went straight towards the Heaven Vault.

The Heaven Vault's door opened. Qin Wentian took a step in. Starlight cascaded down on him and his expression was very heavy. Little Rascal followed behind him and also had a heavy look on his face. Clearly, it was impossible for them to get over Fan Ye's death so quickly.

Very soon, Qin Wentian located Fan Le and Xuan Xin. At the instant he saw the two of them, Qin Wentian's heart pounded violently, feeling extreme pain.

Ouyang Kuangsheng stood there. When he saw that Qin Wentian had arrived, he didn't say anything but his expression was also so heavy that it was terrifying.

“Why would this happen?” Ouyang Kuangsheng clenched his fists. Fan Le and Xuan Xin sat together. Xuan Xin’s head was lying on Fan Le’s shoulder and they seemed to be so peaceful and tranquil. However, they were like statues, their breathing had even stopped, even their heartbeats stopped.

Qin Wentian’s steps grew heavy as he walked towards his brother Fan Le. He sat before Fan Le and stretched out a trembling hand to touch Fan Le’s face. “Fatty, wake up…”

However, Fan Le seemed as though he would never be awake ever again. He wanted to enter eternal sleep, and be with the ones he loved. His heart has already died.

Vibrant life force gushed forth frenziedly from Qin Wentian’s palm into the two of them, he wanted to revive them. However, regardless of how intense his life force was, it was impossible to awaken someone who doesn’t wish to be awake. Their hearts had died, why do they still want to awake?

“Fatty, are you going to abandon your brother like this?” Qin Wentian stroked the familiar face before him, scenes of their youth involuntarily flashed across his mind. The scene when they first got acquainted in the Emperor Star Academy… At that time, how young were they? They were filled with vigor and that genius fatty was so shameless yet so positive.

But now, that fatty has chosen eternal sleep.

Was this only because of Little Ye’s death which caused their hearts to die?

This was naturally impossible. Although Little Ye’s death made them heartbroken, they would never be like this, choosing eternal sleep. They must be influenced by a mysterious force. It was like how Ouyang Kuangsheng has told him that Qinxin cried because she felt something. Fan Le and Jiang Ting must also be infected by that force.

“Ouyang, is Qinxin still alright?” Qin Wentian turned his gaze towards Ouyang Kuangsheng, he didn’t want anything to happen to Qinxin.

“Her emotions are not stable yet. I got Jiang Ting to accompany her and to stabilize her emotions.” Ouyang Kuangsheng replied. When he saw Fan Le and Xuan Xin, he also felt fear in his heart. He was afraid that Qinxin would end up like them.

“Wentian, what sort of power is this? Why can it control people and in fact, we can’t even see who was the one behind this?” Ouyang Kuangsheng’s voice was filled with rage. Right now, he was also a world overlord and he naturally knew that someone was behind the scenes, manipulating and controlling all of this. It was a type of supreme force, most probably Little Ye’s death had something to do with this as well.

“The western world.” Qin Wentian’s voice was so low that it was terrifying. He also wasn’t very sure about the techniques and methods available to those of the buddhist path. But after he destroyed the Ziwei Divine Court, he could sense a mysterious illusory figure spying on him. Since that figure could spy on someone like him, there was no need to speak about that figure being able to spy on Fan Le, Xuanxin and Qinxin or not.

Qin Wentian waved his hands. A figure appeared, this was Fan Ye’s corpse. Her skeleton has already regained her flesh but there was no aura of life from her at all. She floated before Fan Le and Xuan Xin. After that, a formless energy enveloped them. Qin Wentian then stepped out, bringing them away with him.

Since things have came to this, what was the point of being upset? What he needed to do was to think of ways to save their hearts. Fan Le and Xuan Xin’s souls still existed, they hadn’t died completely yet.

Ouyang Kuangsheng and Little Rascal followed silently behind him. Their hearts were incomparably heavy. Qin Wentian sent Fan Le and the two others to his own floating residence. Many people were already here, all of them were his close friends and family. They have all received the news and gathered here. In fact, Jiang Ting also brought Qinxin here.

When Qinxin saw Fan Ye lying there, her crying intensified. Her body trembled as she moved towards her best friend. She knelt before Fan Ye as she sobbed helplessly.

“Qinxin.” Qin Wentian felt unbearable in his heart when he saw this scene. He embraced her, Qinxin hugged her arms around his neck and sobbed, “Uncle Qin…”

Qin Wentian softly stroke her hair. “Qinxin, nothing must happen to you. Okay?”

“Mhm.” Qinxin sobbed as she nodded, her tears wetting Qin Wentian’s robes.

“Elder brother, is it the Buddhist Sect?” Luoshen Lei stood beside Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian nodded lightly. He inclined his head and stared at Luoshen Chuan as he asked, “Grandfather, Fan Le and Xuan Xin didn’t have any contact with the western world yet they were affected so badly. Also, Qinxin also suffers from a mysterious influence, even I myself felt that I was being spied upon and when I traced it back to the source of that mysterious force, I could see the body of an illusory buddha. However, the monks of the western world only came here once several months ago and have not been here since then. Do you know if they have any abilities that could do this?”

Luoshen Chuan furrowed his brows, after that he shook his head, “The western world has always been powerful and mysterious. Their abilities are unfathomable. It’s rumored that there is a total of 3,000 buddha daos, each of them filled with profound mysteries. It’s very possible that they might have some techniques or arts that allowed them to do this but as to what it is exactly, I cannot be sure.”

Qin Wentian's expression was incomparably heavy. If he wished to save Fan Le and Xuan Xin's hearts, he first has to break this dao.

But now, he doesn't even know what dao this was, and what type of force this was.

"I need to make a trip out. You guys should cultivate well in the Heaven Vault." Qin Wentian stared at everyone as he spoke. The others nodded respectively. No one asked what he was going to do. Since he wanted to make a trip out, he naturally had his own reasons. Mo Qingcheng pulled on Qin Wentian's hand, her beautiful eyes regarded him. Qin Wentian nodded reassuringly to her, wanting her to set her heart at ease. Only after some time did she let go of his hand.

Spatial fluctuations rumbled the area and Qin Wentian directly vanished from his location.

The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was still in Daoask City. This holy ground wasn't affected by the calamities. In fact, their status even rose higher. Everyone knew that the mysterious Headmaster Ye of the sacred academy was extremely powerful. He should be able to remain undefeated even if the calamity rained upon their heads.

In addition, the legendary character whose name shook the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Qin Wentian, has cultivated in the sacred academy before and can be considered half a disciple of the academy. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it was unknown how many geniuses made a pilgrimage here, all of them wanted to enter the sacred academy for cultivation.

At this moment, a figure suddenly appeared outside the sacred academy. This figure seemed to step out from the void. He was robed in white and exuded magnificence and elegance, like he was one with the heavens and earth.

When people here saw him, many started as exclamations rang out.

"Qin Wentian!"

Those years ago, Qin Wentian had cultivated once before in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and he showed his face in Daoask City many times. There would naturally be people who recognized him.

In an instant, countless gazes turned to him. Qin Wentian who destroyed the Ziwei Divine Court not long ago actually came here now?

Qin Wentian didn't bother replying. He directly entered the sacred academy before people could react. This caused the people here to feel some regret. Sadly, Qin Wentian was now a legendary character in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it wasn't so easy to be able to meet him. He was the Sect Leader of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, the controller of the Heaven Vault. He was able to destroy a hegemonic power by himself.

“Now, Qin Wentian already has no worries. He could enter or exit the Heaven Vault freely and came in person to the sacred academy.” Someone spoke. If it was in the past, Qin Wentian wouldn’t have dared to move so freely. After all, there were simply too many people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that wanted to deal with him.

But now, Qin Wentian was extremely confident in himself. He wasn’t afraid of anyone who wanted to hunt him.

Within the sacred academy, the three deities were already waiting for him. When they saw that Qin Wentian had arrived, they spoke, “The headmaster is already waiting for you.”

“Many thanks to teachers.” Qin Wentian nodded. After that, he was brought to a location where he saw Headmaster Ye.

“Sit.” Headmaster Ye gently smiled, indicating a place for Qin Wentian to sit. Qin Wentian also wasn’t polite and directly sat down.

“I think I can guess the reason for your visit. In truth, not long ago, I just discussed your matters with Dugu and the other two.” Headmaster Ye took the initiative to speak as he looked at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian then replied, “Headmaster, please provide me with some guidance.”

“The monk who went to your Qin Heavenly Divine Sect back then, he is actually a buddha lord with the title of Karma Buddha from the western world. He is proficient in the dao of karma.” Headmaster Ye stated.

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. “Back then, he imparted a buddhist art to my goddaughter. Was that considered planting a seed of karma?”

“Mhm. From then on, everything your goddaughter did, was actually within his dao of karma. Also, the people around her have also entered his dao and are infected with his karma force.” Headmaster Ye spoke.

“How can I break it?” Qin Wentian asked.

“If you want to break this karma, you naturally have to break its root. If the Karma Buddha dies, this karma force would naturally dissipate. Other than this, the only way remaining is for him to voluntarily release the threads of karma force linking them with his own will. But I’m afraid the second option is impossible.” Headmaster Ye replied.

Chapter 1960: Universe Region

Qin Wentian was speechless after he heard the headmaster’s words. But he suddenly understood many things. He naturally knew that it was impossible for the Karma Buddha to take the initiative to undo the threads of karma force.

In truth, when the Karma Buddha entered the Heaven Vault, it wasn’t merely to threaten him. The Karma Buddha already intended to act against him and he coincidentally met with Little Ye. Maybe, this was destiny. Even if Little Ye wasn’t the one, the Karma Buddha would have surely sought others out and used different methods to plant his seed of karma.

After the karma seed was planted, Little Ye’s fate was already destined. She was under the Karma Buddha’s control. The western world didn’t really directly act, sending Yue Changkong instead. Although Yue Changkong wasn’t able to deal with him, Qin Wentian still wasn’t able to resolve this despite defeating Yue Changkong. Seems like he still has to face the person who planted the seed personally.

The monk only needed to sit in the western world and observe everything that happened, there was basically no need for him to act. Even at the end, the Karma Buddha only needed to quietly wait for Qin Wentian to look for him in the western world.

This, was the dao of karma. Since the instant the Karma Buddha entered the Heaven Vault, everything was already fated.

“Many thanks to senior for your guidance.” Qin Wentian clasped his hands. Headmaster Ye shook his head, “This is nothing much. The western world is very powerful, you have to be careful.”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. After that, he bid farewell and left, not staying behind. If this were ordinary times, he might have stayed for a period of time in the sacred academy. But right now, he didn’t have any heart to do so.

After he left, Headmaster Ye and the three heavenly deities of the sacred academy stared at his vanished figure. In the eyes of the heavenly deities, traces of worry could be seen in their eyes for Qin Wentian.

The headmaster said that the western world was very powerful, there was naturally no need to doubt that. And right now, there would certainly be an inevitable clash between Qin Wentian and the western world and from their perspectives, although Qin Wentian was powerful enough to destroy the Ziwei Divine Court, there was still no way for him to do anything to the western world.

“Headmaster, if Qin Wentian heads to the western world, wouldn’t that be tossing himself into the net?” Goddess Dugu asked in concern. After all, she and Qin Wentian once had a relationship as teacher and student.

Qin Wentian referred to her as his teacher before and now, this student was even more outstanding than her. She naturally didn't hope for Qin Wentian to fall here.

"Qin Wentian's fate isn't so simple." The headmaster smiled and shook his head. "However, if he wishes to survive this calamity, things wouldn't be that easy for him."

"Didn't the Grim Reaper threaten the western world? Could it be that the western world is no longer wary of the Grim Reaper?" The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity frowned as he spoke.

"They still hold some trepidation for him in their hearts, this was why they didn't act directly before this. Even now, they wanted Qin Wentian to look for them instead. But if you feel that the western world would give up their designs on the Heaven Vault just because of a single sentence from the Grim Reaper, you are severely underestimating the western world." Headmaster Ye calmly spoke. His gaze turned towards the western direction after that.

Qin Wentian left. Outside, many people who knew about the news of his visit to the sacred academy, rushed here from afar hoping to catch a single glance of him. But ultimately, they didn't make it in time and heard the news of his departure. Many people sighed silently, with regards to living legends, countless people would always be filled with admiration. And there's no doubt that Qin Wentian was a living legend.

Also, this was just right now. Qin Wentian was still growing. A thousand years later, there was no doubt that his fame would be peak even among the legends of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Naturally, there was also the possibility that Qin Wentian might fall in this calamity. After all, his opponent was the immensely powerful western world.

When Qin Wentian returned to the Heaven Vault, he returned to his own floating palace. He glanced at Fan Le and Xuan Xin, they were peacefully huddled together with Little Ye lying before them. This scene seemed so tranquil but when Qin Wentian saw this, his heart turned cold. He definitely had to get revenge for this. There was no doubt that he would kill Yue Changkong. The main culprit behind the scenes, the western world, would also have to pay a price.

He decisively turned and left here, beginning closed-door cultivation. He had a dao which he hasn't fully mastered yet. He planned to make a trip out after he mastered that dao.

Although he wanted nothing more than to kill his way into the western world right now and hunt down the Karma Buddha, awakening Fan Le and Xuan Xin, he still didn't lose his rational. It was easy to be impulsive but it would be useless. Not only would he fail to take revenge, he would even cause himself to fall into the trap. Once he fell into the trap, the ones that were in trouble wouldn't merely be Fan Le and Xuan Xin. Everyone he wanted to protect would suffer a calamity. This was something he absolutely couldn't accept. He also wouldn't be able to afford to pay the price.

Hence, no matter how much anger there was in his heart, no matter how cold his heart felt, he still had to suppress his thoughts of rushing into the western world now.

In the blink of an eye, several months passed. Qin Wentian who was cultivating in one of the time worlds he created, had cultivated for several tens of years. With an increase in time ratio of one hundred times to one, this gave him more time to comprehend his insights.

Ouyang Kuangsheng interrupted him in the midst of his cultivation. He told Qin Wentian that his daughter Qinxin's emotions haven't stabilized yet even after all this time. It was like she wasn't able to get over this sorrow. If it wasn't for this matter about Qinxin, Ouyang Kuangsheng also wouldn't have interrupted Qin Wentian in his cultivation.

After Qin Wentian learned of this, he instantly ended his cultivation and went to look for Ouyang Qinxin.

Now, Ouyang Qinxin was much more haggard than before. Her originally youthful and beautiful face was now slightly sunken, she had completely lost the vibrancy of youth.

"Uncle Qin." Ouyang Qinxin called out when she saw Qin Wentian.

"Qinxin, your father told me that you haven't been able to get over it. What's going on?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I don't know why as well. Little Ye's images fill my mind, it's like I can see her coming to find me everytime, telling me about her death. Even if I want to rest, I would be startled awake by nightmares." Ouyang Qinxin shook her head lightly. She felt very miserable, this wasn't only because of her best friend's death, it was also because of the torment she felt now which caused her will to want to collapse.

"Karma Buddha." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. If the Karma Buddha doesn't die, the karma force would always exist and the threads of karma would never be severed. Qinxin would always be affected. Was this the warning the Karma Buddha told him about?

Qin Wentian felt pain in his heart. He walked over and hugged her while speaking softly, "Qinxin, you have to be fine, okay? Uncle Qin doesn't want to see anything happen to you."

After losing Little Ye, it already caused him to suffer enough pain. If something happened to Qinxin as well, he didn't know how he would face it.

“Mhm.” Ouyang Qinxin nodded her head. Upon thinking that she was still able to hug her Uncle Qin and be comforted by him yet Little Ye has already transformed into a corpse. Her tears began flowing uncontrollably again, staining Qin Wentian’s clothes wet.

“But, I can’t control myself.” Qinxin also tried her best not to think about it but she wasn’t able to control her emotions.

“Uncle Qin understands.” Qin Wentian silently blamed himself. He naturally knew why Qinxin couldn’t control herself. Because, she has entered the karma dao of the Karma Buddha. Even he himself had been spied upon, let alone Qinxin.

Qin Wentian held her closely as she simply sobbed in his embrace. Finally, the sound of sobbing grew softer and faded away. Qin Wentian lowered his head and discovered that Qinxin’s eyes were closed, she was now peacefully asleep although tear stains could still be seen at the corners of her eyes.

She actually fell asleep like this.

When he saw this scene, Qin Wentian felt even more heartbroken. How fatigued this lass must be to fall asleep like this?

“It has been a very long time since she could feel at ease to sleep. Maybe, in your embrace, she can feel more secure.” Ouyang Kuangsheng transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian stared at the haggard look on the young woman’s face. He inclined his head and looked at the sky while drawing in a deep breath.

Seems like he cannot wait anymore.

He didn’t move, he simply stood there allowing the young girl to quietly lean against him in sleep.

“Little Ye.” In her dreams, Qinxin’s body suddenly trembled like she was having a nightmare.

“Uncle Qin, save Little Ye and save me!” She actually spoke in her sleep, clearly in a nightmare. Her voice sounded so weak and helpless, causing Qin Wentian’s heart to feel even more pain and sorrow.

Qin Wentian was like a statue that didn’t move. He was afraid any movements by him would frighten the girl. He silently vowed in his heart that he would never let Qinxin suffer the fate of Little Ye. He would definitely not.

Qinxin slept with ease for a few hours before she gradually awoke. When she saw that she was lying in Qin Wentian's embrace, she inclined her head and asked, "Uncle Qin, how did I fall asleep?"

A doting smile appeared on Qin Wentian's face as he stroked her hair. "Qinxin, you are too weary. In the future, try to rest more alright?"

"Mhm." Qinxin nodded, she would try her best.

"Don't let Uncle Qin and your parents worry about you anymore." Qin Wentian spoke again. Qinxin then glanced at Ouyang Kuangsheng and called out, "Daddy!"

"Silly girl." Ouyang Kuangsheng sighed. Qin Wentian then spoke, "I'm leaving first. Ouyang, take good care of this little girl. Also, Qinxin, you have to remember Uncle Qin's words. I won't let anything happen to you."

The two of them nodded. Qin Wentian then returned to his own residence. He didn't stop for too long. He bid farewell with his wives and began to make an independent journey out of the Heaven Vault.

In the Heaven Vault, not many people knew that Qin Wentian had left. There was no need to mention about the outside world.

In the boundlessly vast territory of the Universe Region, there would be countless people entering and leaving every day. Today, a young man stepped into the Universe Region but there was no commotion at all. He was like a grain of sand tossed into the ocean, he didn't even cause a ripple.

Nobody knew he was here, and nobody knew what he came here to do!

Chapter 1961: Qin Kexin

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there were some secret forbidden grounds that only a rare few had the qualifications to enter. And after they entered, it was very difficult for them to leave alive.

Many of such forbidden grounds were not known to many people because it was extremely rare for people being able to succeed in leaving them alive, hence, this led to only very few people knowing about them.

For example the Heaven Vault. The Heaven Vault was once something extremely few people knew about. Only after the secret of the Heaven Vault was revealed did people of the world learn about it.

There were still some mysterious grounds where the secrets within them weren't resolved yet.

In the extreme eastern direction of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, this location had the title of 'Ends of Supreme Ancient.' Over here, there was a sea suspended in midair, it contained terrifying might. In every generation, there would be people from the Chaos Region trying to probe it but not even those heavenly deities from the peak powers have succeeded. Once, there were some heavenly deities from the hegemonic powers who decided to enter to probe its secrets. However, the moment they entered, they couldn't return. And after that, even for the hegemonic powers, they didn't dare to easily probe that region.

And up until today, many people only dared to stand outside the location and look. None dared to enter the Suspended Sea.

Some people claimed that inside the Suspended Sea, there was only a boundless blackhole. It was the 'ends' of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, capable of devouring everything.

At this moment, in the airspace above the Suspended Sea, a stretch of black fog could be seen. After that, a figure descended from the sky and landed on a huge reef in the Suspended Sea. This figure seemed somewhat demonic, and had a very pale countenance.

"Are you sure there's a great opportunity in this place?" Yue Changkong asked. However, there was no one beside him. It was like he was talking to himself.

"Naturally. Don't forget the identity of our past lives." A voice rang out from the void. "Within the Suspended Sea, there is a huge secret of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms hidden here. In this current era, only a scarce few know of it. Naturally, even if they knew, those from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms who could enter the Suspended Sea can be counted on the fingers of two hands. And as for you, who is me in this current life, you are naturally one of them."

“Right.” Yue Changkong nodded. In the battle before, he actually couldn’t defeat Qin Wentian. This caused him to be extremely depressed and felt a sense of defeat. Naturally, the him now would no longer waver his own heart. His heart now was even more resolute than before. There would come a day where the entire world would be trampled upon by him, the multitude of lives in this world would fight to be his slaves.

“Let’s go.” The voice from the void rang out. Yue Changkong stepped out and entered the Suspended Sea before him. Terrifying huge waves crashed over. When Yue Changkong saw this scene, despite his current state of heart, his heart involuntarily trembled. This was a sea with waves that could hammer the heavens. It wasn’t a sea that was on the ground, it was suspended in mid-air and there were many terrifying storms generating vortexes. Within the sea, there were countless black holes that would draw everyone who got near it into its depths.

Yue Changkong directly walked into the sea. After that, it was like stepping through a terrifying portal. There were countless black holes before him, his divine sense wasn’t able to probe any of them. But at this moment, countless heads formed from black fog manifested around him as they shot towards different directions to investigate.

Based on his powerful strength and the help provided by his past-self, Yue Changkong finally managed to walk through the Suspended Sea and arrived behind it. This place wasn’t a world inside the sea. It was the world behind the sea. The sea acted like an isolator to a parallel world and he has finally managed to cross the isolator, arriving at this second world.

What secrets would be in here exactly?

Yue Changkong’s body floated forward. He saw some people. Although this place he was in wasn’t as luxurious and flourishing as some of the main cities of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there are still plenty of people here. This place felt more like a small town, an extremely quiet town.

Also, the cultivation bases of people here were all extremely strong. When his divine sense swept out to investigate, he actually felt alarm in his heart. Even the children were immortals, many of the others were world overlords and there were even heavenly deities.

“What place is this exactly?” Yue Changkong felt some shock in his heart, but at the same time, he also felt excitement. Things were like what his past-life self has said. This place might contain a heaven-shaking opportunity. If he could turn all these people here into nutrients, it would definitely be of great benefit to him. The moment this thought crossed his mind, excitement leapt in his heart as an evil gleam shone in his eyes.

At this moment, many people below were looking at this stranger who was apparently a new visitor. They regarded him with trepidation, this was especially so when they felt his divine sense sweeping across them. Their expressions instantly grew colder as they stared at this uninvited guest.

What was going on? Yet another uninvited guest arrived? Many years ago, another young man had also come here.

However, when that young man arrived, he was heavily injured and almost lost his life. This young man before them actually seemed to be in glowing spirits and was in perfect health. In fact, he even exuded an aura of evil. Clearly, he was much stronger compared to the young man who came before. Also, the evil gleam in his eyes caused one to feel loathing and disgust when they looked at him.

“Who is the one in charge here?” Yue Changkong did nothing to mask his evil smile as he stared at the people below.

The people below inclined their heads and looked at him. No one replied. Yue Changkong laughed and turned his gaze towards a child, “You, come over and tell uncle.”

“I won’t tell you. Elder sis Kexin says that we must not get close to strangers.” That young child casually spoke. Yue Changkong’s eyes flashed. “Who is elder sister Kexin?”

That child was dragged away by an adult. The other adults ignored the question and one of them asked, “Sir, what is your purpose here?”

“I came here for an opportunity.” Yue Changkong laughed uproariously. “Since you guys refuse to me, I will search for her on my own.”

After speaking, Yue Changkong moved forward. His powerful divine sense extended forth, wanting to sweep through this entire place. Since he was already here, the first thing he must do is to naturally check the strength level of this place. He wanted to find the person in charge because he wanted to see how strong the cultivation base of that person was.

From afar, the beautiful eyes of a young woman suddenly opened as she glanced in Yue Changkong’s direction. Divine glow could be seen in her eyes, resplendent to the extreme. Her beauty was also unrivalled. Even Yue Changkong couldn’t help but start when he saw her, he felt like his eyes were playing tricks on him. How could such a beauty appear in a place like this?

What was even more terrifying was that this beauty was actually a powerful heavenly deity. The aura radiating from her would cause ordinary deities to be shocked.

After Yue Changkong recovered from his astonishment, the smile on his face became even more radiant, but it still exuded evil.

That young woman radiated a divine brilliance. She seemed to be a true goddess, bathing in divine light, so beautiful that everyone who saw her would be breathless. Everyone in the world was only qualified to look up at her and marvel at her beauty.

“What do you think about becoming my dao companion?” Yue Changkong asked, his heart was clearly moved by her beauty. Compared to Donghuang Ying, this woman was countless times more beautiful. Regardless of beauty or talent, Donghuang Ying wasn’t comparable at all. Only this woman could truly move his heart, only this woman has the qualifications to become his dao companion, a perfect dao companion.

“This woman isn’t simple. Her strength is extraordinary. In addition, I can sense even more terrifying existences here. You better not stay for too long at this place.” A voice rang out in Yue Changkong’s mind. That arrogant giant face which was his past-self, actually felt trepidation about this place. This caused Yue Changkong to feel some disbelief. He replied mentally, “This isn’t like you.”

“You have not fully awakened yet, it’s best to be more cautious. It isn’t so easy to exit this place.” That voice rang out once more. Yue Changkong nodded his head. At this moment, he suddenly sensed a powerful divine sense had locked on to him. He traced the divine sense and when he saw the owner of the divine sense, he was started once again.

This secret realm actually gave him surprises after surprises.

He actually met someone familiar here. In addition, this man was someone who was at the peak of all geniuses in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms among the younger generations once before – Heaven’s Son, Qin Dangtian.

He, was also in this place.

Qin Dangtian naturally also saw Yue Changkong. He stepped out and moved closer to Yue Changkong. This Qin Dangtian who was once known as the Heaven’s Son, seemed less sharper compared to the past yet his aura grew more profound.

If it was before, Qin Dangtian wouldn’t give a damn even if he saw Yue Changkong. His identity was Heaven’s Son, he disdained even giving a straight look at Yue Changkong. But now, he actually seriously surveyed Yue Changkong. He could feel that this Yue Changkong was far too different from the past.

“Brother Qin, how have you been? I didn’t expect to run into you in this place.” Yue Changkong smiled.

“How did you enter?” Qin Dangitan calmly asked. This place was something an ancestor of the Qin Clan discovered. The Qin Clan knew of this secret realm, but that ancestor who came in to probe the secrets here, didn’t manage to return. Hence, although the people of the Qin Clan knew about this place, no one dared to enter here recklessly. But Qin Dangtian came in, by doing so, he narrowly survived. But because of the determination and resolve in his heart, he still managed to come to this place.

Yue Changkong, how had he entered?

“I naturally walked in.” Yue Changkong smiled. He glanced at that beautiful young woman and he asked, “Brother Qin, who is this beauty? Can Brother Qin give some introductions?”

Qin Dangtian stared at Yue Changkong as he coldly spoke, “You best not have any strange ideas or you better be prepared to face the consequences.”

“Brother Qin, you are as proud and arrogant as ever.” Yue Changkong coldly laughed. Qin Dangtian was so rude to him? Would the current him fear Qin Dangtian? Although Qin Dangtian was different from the past, he was also not the past Yue Changkong.

At this moment, black fog appeared behind Yue Changkong as a giant face materialized. This face glanced at the beautiful young woman and Qin Dangtian, after that, he asked, “Who is the tomb keeper?”

The eyes of the young woman flashed. She stared at the giant face as her eyes gleamed with sharpness.

Qin Dangtian’s expression also changed. The giant face behind Yue Changkong, what was it?

As for the tomb keeper, even he hasn’t come in contact with him up until now. Qin Dangtian only saw the tomb keeper from afar before.

However, he knew that this beautiful young woman was none other than the tomb keeper’s daughter. It was rumored that there’s more than one tomb keeper here. There are a total of two, and they were a couple.

“My name is Qin Kexin. No matter who you are, you best not create trouble. If not, be prepared to be buried here.” The young woman coldly spoke. After that, she turned and left as multi-colored light flashed. Her cold words didn’t seem to be words trying to scare off people. In fact, she spoke these words because of immense self confidence!

Chapter 1962: Entering the World

"Qin Kexin." Yue Changkong stared at the beautiful figure that was leaving as he licked his lips. A look of greed flashed in his evil eyes.

He wanted this woman.

Qin Dangtian saw the evil light gleaming in Yue Changkong's eyes. He coldly spoke, "You better not have any ill intentions."

"What? Are you interested in her?" Yue Changkong smiled at Qin Dangtian. Qin Dangtian didn't reply, he merely coldly glanced at Yue Changkong. In truth, he was unclear what his feelings were towards Qin Kexin. She was extremely beautiful, and even in the perspective of the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, her beauty belonged to the top-tier. Also, she was a heavenly deity that wasn't weaker than him. Her techniques were also unfathomable and multitudinous.

Most probably, only the number one beauty in the nine heavens, the Mystical Maiden of the Nine Heavenly Mystic Palace would be comparable to her.

With regards to such a beautiful young woman, who wouldn't have some thoughts about her? This was especially so given that Qin Dangitan had experienced Goddess Nichang's betrayal before he entered this secret realm, in addition to Qin Wentian's humiliation. Hence, after he saw such a beauty in this quiet and peaceful world, how could his heart not be moved? Naturally, he knew of his purpose here. What was most important to him now was cultivation.

Also, although he might be interested in her, Qin Kexin was like a goddess not from the mortal world. She didn't exhibit any interest in him at all and wouldn't even spare an additional glance at him. Her personality was cool, proud and aloof.

"Back then, the fiancee of Heaven's Son got seduced by Qin Wentian. It's of no wonder that Brother Qin's heart would be moved upon encountering a goddess like Qin Kexin here. But I have to remind Brother Qin that not long ago, Qin Wentian just destroyed the Ziwei Divine Court before I came in here. He personally slew the Ziwei Star Sovereign. You better consider your own future, including the future of your Qin Clan." Yue Changkong had an evil smile on his face as he spoke.

Qin Dangtian's expression froze as a terrifying light gleamed in his eyes.

Qin Wentian had enough strength to destroy the Ziwei Divine Court and kill the Ziwei Star Sovereign alone? Has his strength already reached that level?

In this secret realm, although there are opportunities, he could still feel a heavy pressure on him. It was not only him cultivating in a secret realm. He didn't forget that Qin Wentian possessed the Heaven Vault. The Heaven Vault was undoubtedly the most suitable place for cultivation in the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Yue Changkong no longer bothered about Qin Dangtian who was lost in his thoughts. His body flashed as he moved ahead. His past-self was constantly guiding him where to go in his mind. Although he didn't know what place this is, his past-self clearly knew a thing or two.

This secret realm seemed to be very vast, and one has to pass through the Suspended Sea to get here. After arriving at this secret realm, the environment here seemed to be extremely safe. Other than the fact that the people cultivating here have very high cultivation bases, there was nothing unusual about it. If it wasn't for the fact that those people included the children that have high cultivation bases, he might have felt that he just wandered into an ordinary town.

The sky in front continued to grow dark, like it was enveloped by clouds of gloominess, casting darkness in the world. It seemed that a powerful storm would brew at anytime. Lightning flashed and thunder roared, giving the scene a desolate feel, like this was a scene from an apocalyptic world.

Yue Changkong increased his speed and moved forward. Up ahead, there was a mausoleum. The mausoleum was so vast that one couldn't see the end of it with a single glance. There were countless tombs here, all arranged chaotically and not via their heights. There was no order to it at all. Occasionally, there would be terrifying light radiating from some of the tombs but every time such a thing happened, lightning bolts would fall from the dark skies and blast into the terrifying light, forcing it to fade away. It appeared that these lightning bolts were used to suppress the mysterious power within the mausoleum.

"Is this the place you wanted to bring me to?" Yue Changkong spoke. The giant face appeared behind him again, it stared at the tombs here as terrifying evil light gleamed within its eyes. It then emotionally spoke, "I didn't expect that we would arrive here at such an opportune time. This must be heaven's will."

"What do you mean?" Yue Changkong asked.

"Go, let's enter." The giant face spoke. Yue Changkong's eyes flashed. After that he sped forward, moving towards the mausoleum. And upon the moment he stepped into it, he could feel a mysterious power flowing around his body. This feeling was very strange. And the deeper he went inside the mausoleum, the more intense this feeling was.

"Is this, dao…?" The evil gleam in Yue Changkong's eyes brightened. This was truly an excellent location.

But at this moment, Yue Changkong seemed to have sensed something else. His footsteps suddenly stopped as he turned his gaze ahead. At a location extremely far away in the distance, he could see a blurry figure quietly standing there. By simply standing there casually, he made it seem that there was only him in this entire world. This feeling was extremely strong and it caused an impact that made Yue Changkong's heart shudder.

This man was clearly an extremely powerful expert.

This figure didn’t bother with Yue Changkong. He simply continued standing there and would glance up at the dark clouds in the sky, like he was thinking about something.

After a long time, his figure flashed as he vanished from the spot. Yue Changkong couldn’t even see where he moved to.

“Do not disturb any of the tombs here. If not, die.” A cold voice rang out from the sky, reverberating through this entire space. When Yue Changkong heard this, a frown creased his face, feeling extremely unhappy. However, the giant face behind him reminded, “This is the tomb keeper, it’s better for you to act more low-profile.”

Before regaining his strength, everything had to be endured. Yue Changkong’s only goal now was to restore the cultivation his past-life had, and grew even stronger than what his past-life had achieved.

In a mysterious location inside the secret realm, there were a few tiny huts here. A beautiful middle-aged woman quietly sat there. Her features were elegant and beautiful, if she was slightly younger, her beauty would definitely be of the empire-toppling grade.

At this moment, a figure appeared here. It was none other than the figure in the depths of the mausoleum. His long hair casually draped over his shoulders, but the contours of his face were clear and sharp. If one observed closely, they would see that this man was extraordinarily handsome despite being a middle-aged man. When he was younger, he was surely a pretty boy.

“Father, that person is clearly an evil man. Why did you allow him to enter the divine mausoleum?” At this moment, a figure appeared. It was none other than Qin Kexin, that extremely beautiful young woman.

“This is the rules governing tomb keepers. I cannot break the rules.” That person calmly replied. Qin Kexin’s beautiful eyes flashed but she remained silent. She also knew of the rules of the divine mausoleum. The tomb keeper was responsible for protecting the tombs. As long as the person who entered didn’t try to destroy the tombs, the tomb keeper cannot interfere. This was a rule passed down by the previous generation tomb keeper. It has been so for countless generations.

“The divine mausoleum will undergo a great change soon, I won’t be able to protect it for long.” At this moment, the grey-robed figure turned his glance towards the direction of the mausoleum. He then continued in a low voice, “Kexin, haven’t you always wanted to go out? Now, I will permit you to leave. You can enter the world for your cultivation.”

“Father!” Qin Kexin’s beautiful eyes widened. Her father was permitting her to enter the outside world?

This secret realm was isolated from the external world. It can be considered a type of mundane world.

“Are you really letting her go out?” The beautiful middle-aged woman walked over. She had a look of reluctance to part in her eyes when she looked at Qin Kexin.

“Kexin’s strength is strong enough now, she can leave anytime she wants to. Also, in the near future, we have to exit this place as well.” The tomb keeper slowly spoke. The woman remained silent, she looked at her daughter only to see Qin Kexin was looking at both of them. Qin Kexin then nodded, “Alright. I’ll go out first to take a look. Father, when should I leave?”

“Now.” The tomb keeper replied, this caused the beautiful eyes of Qin Kexin to widen again as she stared at her parents. But even so, she nodded her head. She then bowed to her parents, “Father, mother, you two must take care of yourself.”

After speaking, she directly turned and departed, as carefree and graceful as ever.

“Kexin…” That woman still felt some reluctance as she softly spoke. However, her daughter didn’t turn her head back. After Qin Kexin vanished, the woman glanced at her husband, “Are you really so at ease about her?”

The tomb keeper stretched out his hands and stroked his wife’s hair while a look of tenderness appeared in his eyes.

“Kexin is already a powerful heavenly deity. If you are even worried about her, then…” The tomb keeper glanced towards the horizons. His wife seemed to understand what he was saying. She also followed his gaze as she glanced into the horizons. A look of longing could be seen in her eyes.

In the small town outside the divine mausoleum, when the people there knew that Qin Kexin wanted to leave, all of them felt very reluctant. They all appeared to send her off. Qin Dangtian also learned of this as he sighed silently in his heart. However, his heart was even more resolute than before. During these years, his improvements had been extremely great. Now that he was at a critical point of his cultivation, he decided to stay here for now until he achieved a breakthrough. Only after that would he leave this place. When he returned to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, he was sure that there would be a chance for him to meet with this young woman again.

The world inside the secret realm lost a beautiful young woman while the external world gained a beautiful and powerful heavenly deity. Also, her name soon began to circulate through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Qin Wentian knew nothing about this secret realm. He also didn’t know that Yue Changkong, whom he wanted to kill, was currently in there. He also had no idea that Qin Dangtian was there too. If not, he would surely make a trip there personally.

Him who has arrived at the Universe Region, directly headed to the core center of the Universe Region, the true Pureland of Bliss.

In this pureland, the Buddhist Sect was something everyone believed in, channeling their faith into it. Everyone in this great region was a cultivator of the buddhist path. They believed in the buddha dao.

Over here, there was no social ranking to differentiate the classes of humans. Everyone was equal. However, the people here all revered and respected reverends with great attainments in the buddha path. These reverends to them, were all people of virtue and prestige, everyone worshipped them.

Naturally, those with the greatest talent in the buddhist path were all cultivating in the western paradise of the Pureland of Bliss. Even buddha lords were there. Only true reverends with high enough attainments in the buddha dao had the qualifications to enter the western paradise. Other than them, disregarding their current strength, those with exceedingly high potential would also be recommended by the Buddhist Sect to enter the western paradise.

Other than them, no one else could enter the western paradise. Naturally, an existence like the Grim Reaper was an exception. Back then when he descended, dark clouds covered the western world, casting the entire Pureland of Bliss into darkness. The western paradise was covered up as well. However, that was the Grim Reaper. How many existences like the Grim Reaper does the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have?

Hence, even though Qin Wentian arrived, he wasn’t able to enter the western paradise too!

Chapter 1963: Asking about the Buddha Dao

Qin Wentian walked through the Pureland of Bliss. Holy light would shimmer in and out of existence, illuminating the mortal world. The power of the Buddhist Sect was truly strong. This western world had an aura of transcendence to it, like it wasn't stained by mortal dust.

Also, Qin Wentian discovered a strange phenomenon. It felt like there was an invisible energy that continuously flowed towards a direction. And, that direction was where the western paradise was located.

Qin Wentian didn't directly head towards the western paradise. He wasn't so self-confident that he felt he could barge into the western paradise alone and fight against the entire Buddhist Sect. Even the Grim Reaper didn't feel certainty that he could do it. If not, he wouldn't merely have come here to threaten them. The current Qin Wentian might already be sufficiently powerful but even so, there was still quite a distance between him and that crazy old freak.

He came to the western world. He had no choice but to come. Little Ye has already died while Fan Le and Xuan Xin became something akin to zombies. Although he wanted revenge for this, he could afford to wait a little. If not, once he died, who would take revenge? Who would save Fan Le and Xuan Xin? What would his family do?

But now, he had no choice but to come here. Because, Qinxin's fate might be influenced by the Karma Buddha, she might face the danger of dying anytime. Hence, he could only take the risk and come to the western world, to this Pureland of Bliss.

If he wanted to enter the western paradise, he only had a single solution. He had to find an esteemed reverend in a Buddhist Sect here in the Pureland of Bliss that would give him the recommendation needed to enter.

In that case, should he directly display overwhelming strength to gain that recommendation? This path doesn't seem feasible. If this is the case, he would only attract unwanted attention from the monks in the western paradise.

Other than this, there seemed to be only one other path remaining. For juniors in the Buddhist Sect with outstanding talent, they had a chance to gain a recommendation and could enter the western paradise to seek the dao.

The Bodhi Temple was one of the Buddhist Sects in the Pureland of Bliss. They had consummate knowledge about the buddha path and was widely respected by people in the Pureland of Bliss. The monks in the Bodhi Temple were all monks that believed in the concept of suffering. In fact, there were even some buddha lords in the western paradise that originated from the Bodhi Temple. Hence, this particular Buddhist Temple was extremely famous.

The old monk that was the abbot of the Bodhi Temple had very high attainments in the buddha dao. He was extremely kind and this was something everyone knew about. Countless people were impressed by him. If it wasn't for the fact that the old monk's talent in cultivation was slightly inferior, he would have already become a heavenly deity in the western paradise.

Today, a handsome young man came to the Bodhi Temple. He was clad in black and his hair draped his shoulders. He exuded an aura of extraordinariness and had a cultivation absent at the world overlord realm.

A monk of the Bodhi Temple came out. When he saw this young man, the monk asked, "Benefactor, what is your purpose in coming here?"

"I came here to seek the buddhist path. May I request a meeting with the Bodhi Abbot?" That young man calmly asked. His gaze was extremely deep and shone like stars in the sky. This young man was none other than Qin Wentian. He naturally didn't use his original appearance and he had even sealed his cultivation base, causing him to appear like an ordinary world overlord.

"Abbot is extremely busy throughout the day, there are countless people who come here to seek the buddhist path. I'm afraid Abbot wouldn't have time to meet with benefactor." The monk slowly spoke.

"If he doesn't see me, I will kill everyone who is here to seek the buddhist path." Qin Wentian calmly spoke, his tone was cold, brimming with an immense baleful aura. The monk before him pressed his palms together after he heard that as he chanted buddhic verses. After that, the melody of buddhic chants rang out through the air, as its energy fluctuations bored down on Qin Wentian. This buddha melody didn't contain any attack power, it was to calm one's mental state and heart down. The monk wanted to neutralize the baleful aura from Qin Wentian.

"Benefactor, you are steeped in vengeance. This place is a holy ground of the buddhist path, you should return to where you came from." The monk spoke.

"I heard that the Bodhi Abbot has a very kind personality and has the intentions to deliver the masses from evil. Could he really be so heartless as to let me kill everyone who came here to seek the buddhist path and refuses to see me?" Qin Wentian coldly continued. Although there was a hint of threat in his voice, he naturally wouldn't do so. It was just that people of this world all said that the Bodhi Abbot was a saint, he did many acts of kindness and accumulated virtue. Hence, he wanted to use this opportunity to take a look and see whether if the Bodhi Abbot was truly a merciful person or just another hypocrite.

"In the Pureland of Bliss, if benefactor touches upon the killing sin, there would naturally be people who would appear to deliver you." The monk calmly stated.

"After I killed everyone, the sin has already manifested. Those who died have already died, even if someone came to deal with me after that, what's the point?" Qin Wentian counter-asked. "Does the so-called quote 'Buddha is merciful,' only amount to this much?"

The eyes of the monk flashed as he looked at Qin Wentian. He shook his head slightly but at this moment, within the ancient temple, a voice rang out. "Benefactor, please enter the temple."

The monk blocking his way stepped aside after hearing this. He closed his eyes and had his palms pressed together. Qin Wentian stepped out and entered the ancient temple.

There was no treasure light within the temple, everything looked very simple. The atmosphere was quiet, the bell here was made from bronze and the stone pavilion contained traces of time. Qin Wentian walked through the corridor and entered a simple and somewhat crude room. There was no statue of a buddha here, there was only a simple praying mat and a buddha lamp. A monk could be seen seated on the mat, his appearance was extremely old, like the light of his life was about to wink out at any moment.

“Benefactor, you radiate a strong baleful aura.” That monk closed his eyes and spoke. Qin Wentian merely smiled, “Since abbot is willing to meet with me, the baleful aura has naturally dispersed.”

His aura gradually calmed down.

However, the Bodhi Abbot shook his head. “The baleful aura cannot be intentionally concealed. It is more of an intent then an external form, it manifests from within not without. As long as your heart is filled with vengeance, baleful aura would naturally be birthed.”

“Abbot is wise.” Qin Wentian praised, from the bottom of his heart. He sat on the opposite of the abbot as he casually spoke, “I’ve always felt that my attainments in the buddha path are extremely profound but I didn’t have the fate to meet with a true buddha. Should I feel vengeance in my heart?”

“If your attainment in the buddhist dao is profound, buddha would be in your heart. You can see him anytime.” The Bodhi Abbot replied.

“But if this is the case, why does every buddhist cultivator in the world wish to enter the western paradise instead of looking at their own heart?” Qin Wentian asked.

“The buddha path is boundless, there are many top-tier buddha techniques and arts in the western paradise.” The abbot didn’t conceal anything.

“Since this is the case, I desire to obtain top-tier buddha techniques and arts to better my understanding of the buddha path. Can abbot give me a recommendation to enter the western paradise?” Qin Wentian asked.

The abbot shook his head. “Benefactor, you didn’t come here for this purpose.”

“I pursue powerful buddhist arts to increase my understanding of the buddha path. How can you say that I’m not here for this purpose?” Qin Wentian asked again.

"The buddha path isn't as simple as one's strength in buddha arts. Benefactor, you don't have fate with the buddha path." The abbot continued to shake his head.

Qin Wentian glanced at the abbot as he coldly laughed, "Hypocrite."

The abbot simply lowered his head. Qin Wentian continued, "For those powerful buddha lords in the western paradise, other than being extremely strong in certain buddha-type energy due to their skill in the powerful buddha arts, they are no different from other ordinary men."

"Benefactor's words are too serious." The Bodhi Abbot spoke.

"Buddha says that all lives are equal. The western paradise wishes to absorb the faith of the people of the world. They unified and governed four lower immortal realms and receive the worship of countless people, enjoying the joss flames burned in respect for them. What did they rely on to achieve this?" Qin Wentian continued, "They relied on nothing but powerful buddha arts and techniques. The buddha path is a dao of hypocrisy. If they didn't have the support of strength, they would be nothing. Abbot, look at you. If all lives are equal, why don't you head into the western paradise and get the buddha lords to give up their positions to you. I'm very curious what your ending would be."

"Benefactor, your words are too extreme." The abbot calmly replied.

"Extreme?" Qin Wentian laughed. "Since I came here to ask for a meeting with abbot, I would like to ask abbot a question. Now, there are so many major things happening in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and I'm sure abbot knows a thing or two about it. The evil devil Yue Changkong brings destruction and chaos to the world, it was unknown how many died to him. I believe some of those who died should be buddha cultivators too. With such evil present, as a representative of the buddhist dao that spoke of pursuing kindness, why didn't the western world act to stop him?"

"There are countless types of evils in the world, we cannot diminish them all. The thirty-three heavens are too vast. The buddha can only make it so that our western world is freed from evil. Maybe when one day, everyone in the world cultivates the buddha path, their natural alignments would then lean towards kindness. Such evil then wouldn't exist anymore." The abbot spoke.

"What a good 'everyone in the world cultivates the buddha path.' If everyone in the world really did so, and if those who want to commit evil still exist, wouldn't they have a legitimate excuse to do what they want? Satisfying their own desires." Qin Wentian mocked.

"Benefactor, please explain." The abbot spoke.

Qin Wentian waved his hand and sealed this space. After that he spoke, "Yue Changkong is an incarnation of evil, it is one thing that the western world doesn't eradicate him. However, they even joined forces with this evil devil. Is this also what the quote 'buddha path leaning towards kindness' means?"

“I don’t understand your meaning.” The abbot shook his head.

“The Karma Buddha of the western paradise once entered the Heaven Vault. After that, there was a young girl who went out to play, she encountered Yue Changkong and was kidnapped and killed. After that, the parents of this young girl were also badly affected that they lost consciousness completely, entering a zombie-like state. As for the best friend of the young girl, she uses tears to wash her face daily, unable to walk out from the karma linking her and her best friend. Abbot, what do you feel about this matter?” Qin Wentian stared at the Bodhi Abbot as he coldly asked.

The body of the abbot trembled. His eyes opened for the first time. Although he was old, his eyes were still spirited. He stared at Qin Wentian for a long time before closing his eyes again. He chanted a buddha verse before speaking, “Benefactor Qin came from afar, this monk has neglected my reception of you.”

“I heard that there’s a buddha path technique that can open the eye of wisdom. You are truly very intelligent.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. “Since you know of my identity, do you feel fear in your heart?”

The abbot shook his head, he understood Qin Wentian’s meaning. Since Qin Wentian has revealed his identity, the abbot was now in danger.

Qin Wentian’s eyes glowed with a terrifying light. It was like he opened his heavenly eye and wanted to see through all deceit and illusions. He continued pressing, “Abbot hasn’t replied to my earlier question. What do you feel about this matter?”

“I cannot see through the reasons behind the buddha lord’s actions.” The abbot shook his head and replied.

“Is that so? In that case, what about the matter when the western world desires to seize my Heaven Vault and even threatened me? Abbot, what do you feel about that?” Qin Wentian asked again. The abbot truly didn’t know how he should reply.

“Does abbot know the reason behind the western world wanting to seize the Heaven Vault is because they wanted to unify the entire thirty-three immortal realms, including ruling supreme in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Also, from what I know, this is the instruction given by the godking of the western world. So, is this what the buddhist dao means?” A cold smile appeared on Qin Wentian’s face. He wanted to see how would this esteemed reverend that’s respected by so many people, answer his question.

When the abbot heard the words ‘godking,’ his body trembled violently. He turned his gaze into the distance and spoke, “There are endless disputes in the world. When has blood ever ceased to flow in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? If the Buddhist Sect unifies the world, peace would finally be achieved. For the great dao, the western world chose to forsake the minor dao.

“So it is all for the greater good? What an excellent response. In that case, does this mean that the people of my Heaven Vault can be sacrificed? Even if the western world has to collude with evil, there’s no problems at all because everything is for the greater good, for the sake of achieving peace in the world?” Qin Wentian laughed uproariously. “What is greater love? Lesser love? Monks cannot even love, yet they actually have the qualifications to say that they want to achieve peace because they love the lives of the world? How shameless is that? It is fine if one wanted to pursue their ambitions of becoming the ultimate ruler, but to do so using the pretext of acting with kindness for the greater good? How hypocritical is that? Is this the true face of the western world? If you want to speak about forsaking the minor dao for the major dao, does abbot know that the countless lives lost in the world-destroying battle of Ancient Azure Mystic back then, were all caused by the western world acting in the shadows?”

The abbot felt his heart trembling as a terrified look actually appeared in his eyes. His heart was trembling, his faith was wavering as well.

“I don’t want to waste time talking with a hypocrite. Send me to the western paradise.” Qin Wentian stood up as an imposing and powerful aura gushed forth from him.

Chapter 1964: Sacrifice

The Bodhi Abbot stared at Qin Wentian while sighing in his heart. His palms were pressed together while he bowed to Qin Wentian, “Benefactor Qin, it isn’t impossible if you want me to give you a recommendation for you to enter the western paradise. But have you ever thought that even if you controlled me and ensure that I didn’t leak this secret, things might not go your way. The western paradise isn’t an ordinary place. Benefactor Qin, why do you insist on acting like this, ignoring your own safety?”

Qin Wentian looked at the Bodhi Abbot. The abbot’s gaze was clear, like he was truly worried about Qin Wentian’s safety. Even though Qin Wentian could see through all illusions and deceit, he didn’t see anything hypocritical about the abbot. It was like this abbot was truly concerned about him.

However, there were simply too many buddhist arts and techniques, Qin Wentian couldn’t really be sure what was true or false. However, he couldn’t take the risk. Since he has revealed his identity, he had to make sure that he can control the Bodhi Abbot.

“A daughter of my good friend is being controlled by the Karma Buddha. I have to go to the western paradise no matter what. If abbot is really concerned about my safety, I hope that you can cooperate with me and send me there.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

“Amitabha.” The abbot pressed his palms together and spoke, “Benefactor Qin is willing to walk into danger for the people around you. From this, I can tell that you are a kind-hearted soul. Even if the Heaven Vault expands under your control, it probably won’t endanger the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Maybe, the Buddhist Sect is wrong.”

“Benefactor Qin, how do you want this old monk to cooperate? Just state it out.” The Bodhi Abbot spoke.

“Let me join the sect under the Karma Buddha.” Qin Wentian’s eyes gleamed with sharpness.

“The Karma Buddha is a buddha lord of the western paradise. Although this old monk has some face in the western paradise, I cannot promise you for sure. I can only try my best.” The abbot replied.

Qin Wentian stared at the abbot in bewilderment, he didn’t expect that the other party would really cooperate with him. Also, Qin Wentian wasn’t able to see anything hypocritical about the Bodhi Abbot.

“If this is the case, I have to thank Reverend. If I have to offend you later, please don’t take offense.” Qin Wentian spoke. For the sake of safety, he still had to control the Bodhi Abbot.

However, the abbot merely gracefully smiled. His aged eyes suddenly became bright. The him now actually looked much younger than before.

“Can this old monk ask Benefactor Qin something?” The abbot spoke.

“Reverend, please feel free to speak.” Qin Wentian nodded.

“If Benefactor Qin attains your dao in the future, I hope you won’t hate the buddha dao. The innate nature of the buddha dao is one of kindness, it’s just that the human heart is unfathomable. It isn’t the fault of the dao itself.” The Bodhi Abbot spoke. Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed, the abbot’s words weren’t wrong. The energy that was generated from the dao had no sin. Kindness or evil depended on the human heart.

“I will consider reverend’s words.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The abbot nodded his head. Only to see him sitting cross-legged on the praying mat and gradually, resplendent buddha light radiated from him. The buddha lamp nearby began to glow, like it was burning. The body of the abbot was now also like a buddha lamp, the wick of his life was burning away as his body grew illusory.

Qin Wentian frowned, his expression changed, “Reverend, what do you mean by this?”

“I’m naturally helping Benefactor Qin to enter the western paradise.” The Bodhi Abbot calmly spoke. His body grew more and more illusory, he then transformed into motes of buddhic light, no longer having a body of flesh and blood.

“Reverend!” Qin Wentian’s gaze froze. After that, the motes of light continuously seeped into Qin Wentian causing Qin Wentian’s body to glow with buddhic light too, exuding a holy intent. After that, a string of bodhi buddha beads appeared at the location where the abbot vanished. It floated up and hung around Qin Wentian’s neck. A voice then rang out in Qin Wentian’s mind. “Benefactor Qin has some misunderstanding about the buddha dao. I hope this old monk’s action can resolve Benefactor Qin’s misunderstanding to some extent.”

As the sound of his voice faded, the buddhic glow from Qin Wentian grew increasingly brighter. A formless energy was released, breaking through the seal of this room.

At this moment inside the ancient temple, countless people turned their gazes towards the room. Over there, golden light shone brilliantly, it was like they could see the illusory form of the abbot slowly fading away. In an instant, countless voices rang out in chants. The people in the temple pressed their palms together and chanted buddhist verses, as they bowed in the direction of the room.

“The abbot has passed away.” A voice rang out, but the voice was extremely calm. There was no sorrow, no resentment, only calmness. It was like passing away to them was a kind of deliverance.

The buddha chants filled the air, causing the temple to seem even more imposing. Many monks began to walk over to the small room and when they arrived outside the room, they only saw Qin Wentian walking out. At this moment, Qin Wentian was in a daze. He inclined his head and stared at the skies, his gaze was a little vacant.

The monks didn’t ask Qin Wentian why the abbot passed away, all of them merely calmly looked at him. Finally, one of them spoke, “Benefactor, you have fate with the buddha dao. The abbot gave his life up to help you accomplish your wish. We will send you to the western paradise for cultivation.”

Qin Wentian didn’t feel any joy after hearing this. He was able to enter the western paradise flawlessly. The Bodhi Abbot chose to give his life up to aid him. The risks which he imagined that he had to face when entering the western paradise no longer existed, he could simply go with the flow and enter there now. This should originally be a joyful matter, wasn’t this what he wanted?

However, he wasn’t able to feel happy at all. What just happened earlier caused his heart to be unable to remain calm.

The nature of the buddha dao is kindness. Only the human heart is unfathomable, it isn’t the fault of the buddha dao.

He knew that the abbot chose death because he intended to help atone for part of the crimes committed by the western world. At the same time, the abbot wanted to lessen the resentment and hatred Qin Wentian felt for the buddha dao.

This abbot was truly a highly respected and esteemed reverend. Sadly, he was no longer alive.

Who could judge the good and evil in this world? The human heart determines everything. Humans chose to pursue cultivation for the sake of fame, power and glory. Evil would naturally be magnified but there were still people of great kindness in the world.

Qin Wentian turned and bowed three times towards the direction of the room. Only after that did he lift his head, “This junior will carve Reverend’s words deep in my heart.”

The Bodhi Abbot could give up his life in an attempt to neutralize Qin Wentian’s misunderstanding about the buddha dao. From now on, Qin Wentian would no longer misunderstand. However, to him now, those hypocritical monks seemed to be even more detestable. These people ought to be eradicated from the Buddhist Sect. Only by doing so would the Buddhist Sect truly stand for the Buddha Dao.

After several days, a group of monks traveled across the Pureland of Bliss and arrived outside the western paradise.

Within the western paradise, holy light glowed, the atmosphere was filled with peace and tranquility. Some monks from within came by to welcome the group. And after they saw Qin Wentian and the others, they bowed in courtesy. The monks from the Bodhi Temple pressed their palms together and returned the bow. After that, they turned and left just like that, they didn't exchange any words. Their purpose for coming was just to send Qin Wentian here to the western paradise.

One of the monks turned his gaze onto Qin Wentian as he spoke, "We have already heard about the incident regarding the Bodhi Abbot. He gave his life up for the dao to aid Benefactor. I believe Benefactor is fated to have destiny with the buddhist path. After entering the western paradise, there would be sacred buddhas imparting the buddhist dao to benefactor."

Qin Wentian nodded. Sacred buddhas were a term used in the western world to describe heavenly deities of the buddha dao.

After that, Qin Wentian followed them and entered into the sacred grounds of the Buddhist Sect in the western world. The western paradise.

Golden light illuminated the ancient path, auspicious clouds could be seen in the sky. Occasionally, peacocks and phoenixes could be seen flying overhead. This place seemed to be not of this world. Just by standing here, one could feel a sense of peace calming their hearts. The name holy ground was truly apt. However, even such a peaceful place could give birth to so many monks with evil intentions.

Qin Wentian was brought to a simple courtyard for cultivation. He didn't release his divine sense to probe the western paradise. He knew the experts here were as common as the clouds. If he used his divine sense, he would instantly reveal himself. What he needed to do now was just to wait patiently.

After several days, he was brought to another buddhist hall as a sacred buddha spoke about the dao.

He recognized the speaker. It was none other than Seven Abstinences. Now, Seven Abstinences's knowledge of the buddha dao was extremely consummate, he was already incomparable to the past.

After finishing the dao lecture, his gaze landed on Qin Wentian, glancing at the string of buddha beads around his neck. He then spoke, "The Bodhi Abbot has imparted the dao in the ancient temple for many years, he is someone of great kindness. Now, he actually chose to give up everything for you. I believe that you have fate with the buddha dao. I heard that you wanted to enter western paradise? Now that you are here, are you willing to join my sect?"

"The Bodhi Abbot gave his life for me, yet I don't know if I truly have fate with the buddha dao or not. I'm willing to continue staying here to listen to the dao lectures before I make a decision. I don't dare to decide rashly." Qin Wentian spoke. Seven Abstinences nodded his head lightly, "You are unflustered and not arrogant. There are many sacred buddhas imparting the dao in the western paradise. Which sacred buddha do you wish to listen to?"

"My desire to enter western paradise actually caused the Bodhi Abbot to give up his life. I'm sure this is all karma. Hence, I wish to learn more about the dao of karma under the Karma Buddha." Qin Wentian replied. The eyes of Seven Abstinences flashed. "The Karma Buddha is a buddha lord. But since the Bodhi Abbot is willing to sacrifice himself to help you, I will speak for you. But as to whether the buddha lord is willing to accept you or not, I cannot decide that.”

“Many thanks sacred buddha.” Qin Wentian pressed his palms together and spoke.

After Qin Wentian returned, he simply waited quietly until someone came by with a message saying that the Karma Buddha was willing to meet with him. This caused waves to rise in Qin Wentian’s heart. Everything seemed to be proceeding so smoothly. However, he understood that if the Bodhi Abbot didn’t help him, things wouldn’t be like this.

Today, Qin Wentian finally met the Karma Buddha. This was the second time he met him. The first time was when the Karma Buddha led a bunch of monks to pay a visit to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. However, at that time, no one knew that he was a buddha lord character, they only knew that he was a heavenly deity. After that, he planted a seed of karma in Fan Ye which led to everything later happening.

Now that he saw the Karma Buddha again, Qin Wentian had to suppress the rage in his heart, forcing himself to remain calm. The Karma Buddha seemed as ordinary as ever, no different when compared to other heavenly deities. He exuded no aura, yet the people around him were extremely respectful of him. Their gazes were filled with reverence from the depths of their hearts when they looked at him. Because, he was a buddha lord.

“I heard that you wish to join my tutelage to learn about the dao of karma?” The Karma Buddha calmly spoke.

“Yes.” Qin Wentian nodded.

“Do you know what karma is?” The Karma Buddha asked. Qin Wentian shook his head. What is karma? The types of energy from the buddha dao has always been mysterious and unfathomable. Karma has ties to fate and samsara, how could one explain it clearly?

Chapter 1965: Independent Spacetime

The Karma Buddha glanced at Qin Wentian, “Karma is when I planted a seed of karma around you, our fates are already destined to be interlinked, unable to be severed. Do you understand?”

“No?” Qin Wentian shook his head. The Karma Buddha smiled. “Once a seed of karma dao is planted, there would be a mysterious energy from the universe that would link everything together. Even if the person who has been planted with the seed of karma perishes, the seed of karma would still continue to survive. Not long ago, I went to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect to plant a seed of karma. I planted the seed in the body of a young girl. But in truth, she wasn’t my true target. The karma I wanted, is for another person to enter my dao.”

“Has that person entered your dao?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Naturally.” The Karma Buddha nodded. “The dao of karma, how can it be severed so easily? Hence, because of karma, he would surely come to the western paradise and appear before me.”

“I still don’t understand.” Qin Wentian’s expression was calm.

“This isn’t your dao, you don’t need to understand it.” The Karma Buddha shook his head. “You only need to know that right now, you are already standing before me. That is already enough. This is karma.”

Qin Wentian’s expression didn’t change. He stared at the Karma Buddha as his features changed, reverting to his original appearance.

The Karma Buddha was very calm as well. The two of them simply looked at each other, like this was something that ought to happen. None of them felt any surprise.

“Back then, I once traced the karma link to an illusory figure. I should have already destroyed the karma seed linking me to you. How did you know it is me?” Qin Wentian asked? In truth, he could be sure that before he came here, the Karma Buddha didn’t know he came to the Universe Region. It was only after they met did the Karma Buddha recognize him. Back then after that illusory buddha figure was shattered by him, the Karma Buddha no longer had a way to spy on him.

“I already said this is karma.” The Karma Buddha calmly replied. “I didn’t expect you to be so impressive, able to silently come before me, hiding it from everyone else. Even your cultivation base was concealed, no one was able to see through it.”

“But didn’t you see through everything in the end?” Qin Wentian smiled.

“I have a question. The Bodhi Abbot, was he forced by you or did he help you out of his own choice?” The Karma Buddha asked.

“The Bodhi Abbot is a true buddha.” Qin Wentian touched the strings of buddha beads on his neck as he thought of the Bodhi Abbot, feeling some guilt about him.

“Understood.” The Karma Buddha stared at Qin Wentian. “How impressive, Benefactor Qin actually dared to barge into the western paradise alone.”

“Since you are the one who planted that karma, it’s about time to sever that karma.” Qin Wentian replied. Although he was discovered, he wasn’t startled at all. He was still as calm as ever. Such determination even caused the Karma Buddha to reveal a look of being impressed.

As expected of the young man with the most outstanding talent in the current Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

“I wonder if Reverend understands other buddha daos other than the dao of karma?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Benefactor Qin, you want to discuss the dao with me?” The Karma Buddha pressed his palms together.

“Although the dao of karma is powerful, I wonder if it can be applicable to direct combat?” Qin Wentian spoke. His eyes turned terrifying, as vortexes appeared. In the depths of his eyes, there seemed to be another space within there. The monks around the Karma Buddha stared at this solemnly, powerful buddhic light radiated from them, extending outwards wanting to envelop Qin Wentian.

An invisible energy then flowed through space, time seemed to stop completely. At this moment, countless buddha cultivators from the buddha sects in the western paradise could sense this energy. Their gazes turned to a certain direction, many of their figures flashed as they prepared to head towards there.

But at this moment, the dao might from this particular energy was unleashed to the max. Those figures flying over simply stopped in mid-air. Their bodies were immobilized.

On the ground, the other buddhist cultivators also couldn’t move as well. All of them were forced into a state of stillness by that invisible energy.

This dao might continued to extend through the western paradise. The space and time in the western paradise both entered a state of stillness.

But a moment later, some of the buddhist cultivators managed to break free slightly as they moved. Those buddha cultivators who could move were all extremely powerful ancient buddhas.

A brilliant light radiated from one of them. That ancient buddha glanced at the surroundings before speaking a single world, “Break!”

As the sound of his voice faded, the power to still time was broken. Those immobilized bodies could move once again.

In the western paradise, the gazes of everyone turned into the distance. The direction of their gazes was naturally where the Karma Buddha and Qin Wentain were located. Evidently, they could sense that the origin of that earlier invisible energy came from there. To think that there was actually someone who managed to invade the western paradise and was even using a dao art to stop time.

It has been a long time since someone dared to act so brazenly in the western paradise. However, during these years, such a thing happened twice. This was simply unbelievable.

The first time was during the descent of the Grim Reaper. And now, it was because of Qin Wentian’s arrival. It’s rumored that Qin Wentian was the successor of the Grim Reaper, there were also people who said that he was the Grim Reaper’s disciple.

This master and disciple pair, what do they take the western paradise as? How brazen!

The holy ground of the Buddhist Sect in the western world. This was a place where the buddha dao hold sway. Did they think that they can come because they wanted to and leave simply because they wanted to?

Buddhic light flashed, illuminating the surroundings. There was a powerful buddha cultivator who activated his heavenly eye. His gaze could pierce through time and space and he could directly see what was happening.

“Benefactor Qin, good technique.” At this moment, the Karma Buddha praised. Qin Wentian was still looking at him, he didn’t care about the current changes in the surroundings, or care about the fact that his spacetime dao was broken through. This place was the western paradise after all, anything was possible.

Qin Wentian calmly spoke, “It’s time to sever this karma.”

As the sound of his voice faded, his gaze grew even more terrifying. Space and time collided with each other as the stars shifted position. This entire world seemed to sink within his eyes. In the next instant, a spacetime storm manifested, Qin Wentian and the Karma Buddha actually vanished together, like they have never existed before.

In an independent chaotic spacetime world, Qin Wentian and the Karma Buddha appeared. There was only the two of them in this place. Around them, terrifying spacetime storms roared angrily. This world was something created by Qin Wentian.

“Benefactor Qin, your methods are so frightening.” The Karma Buddha knew that he was brought into an independent space by Qin Wentian. Was this the reason why Qin Wentian dared to barge into the western paradise alone? His talent was truly shocking, even the Karma Buddha was shocked. Qin Wentian’s understanding of the dao grew deeper and deeper every time, showing his outstanding comprehension abilities.

“However, I still feel that Benefactor Qin’s act of coming to the western paradise isn’t an intelligent choice. Even if this karma is already fated.”

“When Reverend planted that seed of karma, Reverend’s fate was already decided in reality. Although the spacetime here is chaotic, but the timeflow ratio is stable, roughly a hundred times compared to the external world. To better put it, two hours might pass here, but only roughly the amount of time taken for half an incense stick to burn out would pass in the outside world. And for the time it takes for an incense stick to finish burning out in here, maybe only an instant would pass in the outside world.” Qin Wentian spoke. He could change the flow of time, this meant that Qin Wentian has ample time to settle the karma between them here.

This was his purpose in coming to the western paradise. Since he wanted to deal with the Karma Buddha, he naturally has to be prepared for the fact that his identity might be exposed. How can it be possible to silently finish off one of the buddha lords in the western paradise?

In truth, if it wasn’t for Qinxin being in danger, Qin Wentian would continue to endure and only take revenge in the future. However, he could no longer afford to wait. Since he had to come here no matter what, he had already made preparations for all possibilities.

If he wanted to sever the karma, there were only two ways. Either the Karma Buddha severed the threads of karma voluntarily, or someone has to kill him.

Hence, Qin Wentian acted. Resplendent world-purifying light was released, about to land on the Karma Buddha’s body. But at this moment, the surroundings around the Karma Buddha suddenly glowed with a dazzling golden buddhic light. He was a buddha lord of the western paradise. Qin Wentian wanted to kill him so easily? How can that be possible?

A powerful buddhic light protected his body, rendering it free from the effects of all laws. Even for the powerful world-purifying dao, it had no way to break apart the Karma Buddha’s defense.

Qin Wentian’s movements didn’t stop. He didn’t have too much time. Although he changed the flow of time, he still had to finish off his opponent as soon as possible. There were too many powerful buddha cultivators in the western paradise, he didn’t know what unfathomable methods they might have. There was nothing impossible within the buddha daos.

The Karma Buddha pressed his palms together. His body was like a buddha lamp that lit up, filling this space with light. After that, the shine of the buddha lamp shone upon Qin Wentian’s body. This scene was actually extremely similar to how he acted against Fan Ye back then. Evidently, the Karma Buddha wanted to plant a seed of karma in Qin Wentian.

Chapter 1966: Resolve

"Qin Wentian!" The buddha lamp shone upon Qin Wentian. The Karma Buddha suddenly shouted. Qin Wentian inclined his head and at this moment, the light from the buddha lamp enveloped him completely, seeping into his body. This energy didn't have any destructive properties and wouldn't harm Qin Wentian. However, Qin Wentian knew that this was the karma force from the Karma Buddha. This dao was able to form a fruit of karma, it was exceedingly troublesome to deal with.

With a wave of his hand, a sword formed from world-purifying light appeared. The boundless dao might in the heavens and earth gathered, and as Qin Wentian pierced out with his finger, this sword also penetrated through the air.

"Kindness." The Karma Buddha pressed his palms together. The buddhic light from him glowed resplendently, causing him to seemed like the most holy ancient buddha in the world. Qin Wentian's body also began to shine with the resplendent buddha dao light. It seeped into his will and influenced his heart. At this moment, it was like he could see the Bodhi Abbot. The abbot didn't have any resentment, there was only kindness in his heart. The ancient buddha before his eyes was a true buddha, he shouldn't make any moves against the buddha. How could he have forgotten the Bodhi Abbot's death so quickly?

Qin Wentian's heart stirred. The power within his sword gradually weakened. At the instant it landed on the Karma Buddha, it transformed into motes of light and dissipated completely. Even Qin Wentian had a shocked look on his face when he realized what had happened. His heart actually was influenced by an intense kindness, he wanted to forgive the Karma Buddha. How could this be possible?

"Benefactor Qin's heart is innately kind. Why don't you put down the blade of slaughter and join me in becoming a buddha? The buddha daos of the western paradise are boundless. If you really want to cultivate the dao of karma, I'm willing to impart it to you." The Karma Buddha's voice contained a magical energy, influencing Qin Wentian's heart. This made Qin Wentian's heart became peaceful, all violence and resentment faded away, it made him feel that he could accept everything and forgive the Karma Buddha for his actions.

"Is this the power of karma force?" Qin Wentian mumbled silently. His state of heart and his thoughts were actually affected.

Kindness, compassion…However, what about the Karma Buddha? Was he a person of kindness?

He killed Fan Ye with a single thought, causing Fan Le and Xuan Xin to become like zombies. Qinxin was affected by the karma link and wasn't even able to enter sleep, crying non-stop continuously. Was this the kindness of the buddha dao?

The Karma Buddha had his palms pressed together, the buddhic light continued to shine on Qin Wentian, influencing him. Every fiber of Qin Wentian was fighting against it.

The power of buddha daos was unfathomable. The dao of karma requires one to first cultivate the eight senses of Buddhism first. One had to be able to control the sight, hearing, smell…and even the will of others. Only then would they be able to gain elementary knowledge about the dao of karma. He planted a seed of karma force in Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian's eight senses were under his influence and control. The ending the Karma Buddha wanted was for Qin Wentian not to kill him.

He didn't want to kill Qin Wnetian because he knew that as long as Qin Wentian couldn't kill him, many things were already destined. This by itself would be an act of karma.

Back then when Fan Ye went out to play, when Fan Le and Xuan Xin fainted into unconsciousness as their hearts were dead, when Qinxin cried continuously through the days and nights… all of this was because their eight senses were controlled by the Karma Buddha.

The world-purifying light frenziedly radiated from Qin Wentian's body as boundless light flooded the area. Qin Wentian wanted to wipe away the karma force from his body. However, the light from the buddha lamp of the Karma Buddha grew even more resplendent, causing numerous buddha statues to appear. Each of the statues shone with its own buddhic light. Buddha lamps then appeared in their hands, all shining their light on Qin Wentian. This caused the karma force to circulate repeatedly, boring down on Qin Wentian unceasingly. There was no way to wipe the karma force away.

"Bodhi gave his life for the dao in order to reform Benefactor Qin, wanting Benefactor Qin to let go of the obsession in your heart. Since Benefactor Qin has fate with the buddha dao, why don't you put down the sword in your hand?" The Karma Buddha's voice rang out once more. The killing intent in Qin Wentian's heart grew weaker and weaker. In fact, he was thinking about everything he has done during these years. Were all that a mistake?

Monopolizing the Heaven Vault, fighting against the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. If he was willing to let it all go and sincerely accept everyone in the world, wouldn't everyone in the world also face him sincerely? The people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could all enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation, growing in strength together.

Out of the eight senses in Buddhism, the first five senses were the ordinary mortal senses such as sight, hearing, smell…The latter three senses are the terrifying ones. Will, was the sixth sense, control of will was the seventh and the eighth sense of Buddhism could even influence the worldview of that person, an example was like kindness and evil, it was able to guide the person to become either a buddha or a devil. Everything rested on the span of a single thought.

The Karma Buddha was a buddha lord, his understanding of the dao of karma was incomparably deep and his control over the eight senses of Buddhism was extremely terrifying. He influenced Qin Wentian deeply, even causing Qin Wentian to doubt himself. This was something that Qin Wentian has never felt before. This was why the power of buddha daos were fearsome. They seemed to have no destructive power but they were in truth, much more terrifying compared to any destructive attacks. The Karma Buddha was able to manipulate the thinking of people, changing their world view, causing them to lean towards kindness or evil.

Despite Qin Wentian's abilities, he had no way to unleash any of them. There was no opportunities at all.

“Should I put it down?” Qin Wentian asked himself. If he let go of everything, could everyone in the world co-exist peacefully in the Heaven Vault?

But when these people conspired to seize the Heaven Vault, what did they do?

Buddhism was about kindness, but what did the Karma Buddha do?

He did evil yet wants to teach people to do kindness? Could it be that after being able to control the power of kindness and evil, he could no longer differentiate between the two? Was this considered mara? Was there a devil in his heart?

Be it a buddha or a devil, everything rested on the span of a single thought.

“If buddha is inclined towards kindness, I will become a buddha. If buddha is inclined towards evil, I will become a devil and deliver all buddhas of this world.” Qin Wentian’s hands swung down, the buddhic light from him vanished, replaced by an immensely powerful devil might. At this instant, black qi gushed out from him, covering this entire space. The Karma Buddha glanced at Qin Wentian only to see Qin Wentian’s body was seemingly being consumed by darkness as he completely fell into the devil path.

A terrifying devil might erupted forth, wanting to devour karma and all types of buddha dao energy. Qin Wentian no longer radiated buddhic light, there was only the devil path for him.

Buddhic energy and devilish energy were innately opposed to each other, they weren’t able to exist together, just like fire and water.

At this moment, Qin Wentian chose to turn into a devil to end the insidious influence of the Karma Buddha.

His personality turned cold, his heart was filled with icy killing intent. Qin Wentian cast aside all thoughts of benevolence and kindness. What is good, what is evil? The Karma Buddha could kill his loved ones just to deal with him. He could also control the lives of people, causing them to become good or evil. If he doesn’t die, that would be the greatest sin. The buddhic light radiating from the Karma Buddha and his vaunted power, all of that was nothing but the symbol of evil.

“Devil transformation.” Qin Wentian spoke. In an instant, all the holy buddhic light in this space was corroded. All the buddha dao energy here started to become devilish. The numerous golden buddha statues here also darkened, infected by the devilish light. Gradually, the statues all turned into that of devils. The buddha energy was being consumed frenziedly.

“Benefactor Qin, if you cultivate the devil path, you will enter hell.” The Karma Buddha spoke, seemingly cursing Qin Wentian.

“You cultivate the buddha path but what is the difference between you and the devil? If there really is a hell, you wouldn’t even be qualified to enter it.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. After speaking, a terrifying hell actually appeared before him, created by the Karma Buddha. Within there, there were countless demons and devils, all of them charging towards Qin Wentian wanting to devour him. Qin Wentian’s eyes glowed with darkness, the devilish light from him intensified as he stared at the Karma Buddha.

A single sentence became karma. The Karma Buddha’s understanding of the dao of karma has truly reached great heights.

“Just a minor dao.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. He actually voluntarily stepped into the so-called hell. Devil might towered up into the sky, the demons and devils in hell all had to step back. Qin Wentian then punched out, the force of his fist penetrating everything, shattering this hell. The demons and devils here all died miserable deaths. Before absolute power, everything else was illusory.

Qin Wentian stretched out his hand. In an instant, the boundless energy here was all under his control. Spacetime fluctuated chaotically, he was the lord of this place. Before Qin Wentian, a devil god saber appeared, it was like an embodiment of the power of his dao. All his daos were infused into this saber. And the moment he grabbed the saber, at this moment, everything seemed to enter a state of stillness. Only the devil god saber remained in this world.

The Karma Buddha stared at Qin Wentian with a cold expression. Under the corrosion of the devil dao might, his buddha arts were being repelled. The karma force couldn’t control Qin Wentian, the eight senses of Buddhism weren’t able to affect Qin Wentian as well. Qin Wentian decisively embraced the devil to seal off Buddhism’s eight senses, focusing on festering the hatred in his heart. He wanted to hone his killing intent and use this saber to sever all karma.

Everything stopped. In this chaotic spacetime, the chaotic flows of power all stopped. The Karma Buddha glanced around, he could faintly sense that this was the end for him. This caused him to feel boundless unease.

Only by changing the cause would he be able to manipulate the effect. The laws of cause and effect was none other than karma.

He closed his eyes, the buddha lamp within him glowed as he called out, “Qin Wentian.”

Qin Wentian stared at him, his gaze was unwavering, fixed on the Karma Buddha. However, because of this gaze, the Karma Buddha managed to brand Qin Wentian’s image into his buddha lamp. And at this moment, the lamp in Qin Wentian’s body began to glow, the image of the Karma Buddha was reflected in there. This scene was extremely strange, causing Qin Wentian to sense as though he was connected by karma to the Karma Buddha. There was no way to sever the link, if he wanted to slash the Karma Buddha, it would be equivalent to slashing himself.

“Have you felt it yet? We are connected by karma, this is irreversible.” The voice of the Karma Buddha rang out in Qin Wentian’s mind. It was like he was the one in Qin Wenntian’s body. They were linked by irreversible karma.

Qin Wentian’s expression was as cold as ever. His killing intent intensified to the peak. The devil god saber in his hand controlled everything here. It could also control the lives of the two of them.

Everything, rested on the span of a single thought from Qin Wentian.

And at this moment, the powerful buddha cultivators in the external world already rushed over to the location where Qin Wentian and the Karma Buddha were earlier. Although Qin Wentian has accelerated the flow of time here, time would still flow in the outside world.

“An independent spacetime?” An ancient buddha spoke. He knew that Qin Wentian brought the Karma Buddha into an independent spacetime of his own creation. How ruthless, Qin Wentian actually dared to barge into here alone for the sake of killing a buddha lord of the western paradise. This was simply madness!

Chapter 1967: Severing Karma

There was no need to doubt Qin Wentian's strength. He could destroy the Ziwei Divine Court, kill the Ziwei Star Sovereign and defeat Yue Changkong.

In the western paradise, the power of the buddha lords was naturally extremely strong. They were comparable to peak characters from the various hegemonic powers but they might not be able to win against Qin Wentian. The monks of the western paradise had to admit that Qin Wentian has already reached that level and he was among the stronger ones among existences of that level too. If not, how could he have killed the Ziwei Star Sovereign?

However, the monks and buddhas of the western paradise also believed in the Karma Buddha's strength. Qin Wentian wanted to kill a buddha lord of their western paradise in an independent spacetime? It probably wouldn't be so easy.

But even so, it was impossible for them to wait passively.

One of the buddha lords activated his buddha dao heavenly eye and managed to see past all illusions. Even for that independent spacetime, it was revealed under the gaze of his heavenly eye. Buddhic light flashed, the heavenly eye shot through space and time and arrived there, turning its gaze onto the battlefield. The buddha lord saw the scene where Qin Wentian and the Karma Buddha were currently fighting each other.

He saw that in this independent spacetime, everything seemed to stop. A powerful devil might dominated everything. The power of this entire world congregated into the devil saber in front of Qin Wentian. Silence was everywhere, the Karma Buddha stood opposite him and a buddha lamp could be seen in his body, shining resplendently. The light from the lamp enveloped Qin Wentian, linking the two of them by karma.

This was truly a shocking scene. It caused the buddha lord to feel that the battle was about to be concluded. The two of them were currently in their ultimate confrontation.

"How is it?" The monks and buddhas in the surroundings asked the Heavenly Eye Buddha.

"This brat has gone mad." The Heavenly Eye Buddha Lord coldly replied. His heavenly eye shone with a corporeal light, wanting to open up an ancient buddhic path that leads to the independent spacetime.

The various monks and buddhas frowned. Qin Wentian was actually so powerful?

However, no matter if he was strong or not, since he came into the western paradise, his fate was already determined. No one had dared to act so brazenly before. The Grim Reaper was an exception. Since Qin Wentian came, it was impossible for them to allow him to leave here unscathed.

The Karma Buddha has already set the karma. No matter how the ending was, Qin Wentian's karma is already fated.

In that chaotic spacetime, that terrifying devilish might still permeated the atmosphere. Everything here entered a state of absolute stillness. The two of them didn't move. Behind Qin Wentian, an astral soul appeared. This astral soul was a brand new one that has never been unleashed by him before. This astral soul absorbed all energy, causing countless daos to integrate into it, fusing them together inside the devil saber. The devil saber emitted a might that could destroy everything. Even for the Karma Buddha, he felt his heart shudder when he sensed the power of this might.

"After you die, will you be qualified to enter hell?" Qin Wentian asked.

The Karma Buddha pressed his palms together. Buddhic light enveloped him as he spoke, "If Benefactor Qin can enter, I will be able to as well. You and I are linked by karma."

"The karma force might be strong but it is still a type of dao. In this world, there are no unbreakable daos." Qin Wentian's eyes turned incomparably dark. His hand that held the devil god saber was extremely steady. At this moment, a burst of power erupted from the saber. His gaze was filled by madness, covered over by devil intent.

"Try it." The Karma Buddha wasn't affected by Qin Wentian, he was as calm as ever.

"Sure." A towering devil might exploded forth, creating chaos. He lifted the saber, all the daos in the world fused within it as the time here entered a state of absolute stillness.

The Karma Buddha lifted his head and stared at Qin Wentian. Would he really dare to slash the saber downwards?

A saber of darkness arced through space, tearing apart the void. This saber strike was as swift as thunder, instantly landing on its target in this place where the time has been stilled. This saber slash was decisive and ruthless, there was no hesitation.

Fresh blood instantly splattered. One of the Karma Buddha's arms was slashed apart. Even buddhas can bleed.

But at the same moment the Karma Buddha's arm was slashed off, Qin Wentian's left arm suddenly felt an intense tearing pain. A moment later, his arm limply hung there, like it was broken too.

"Slashing me equates to slashing yourself. We are linked by karma." The Karma Buddha stared at Qin Wentian. Even though one of his arms was torn off, he showed no agony or fear. He was as calm as ever. Since they were linked, how could Qin Wentian kill him?

Slashing at him means slashing himself.

Who would bear to slash themselves?

His dao was destined to be undying.

“Puchi…” Black lightning flashed as another saber strike cleaved down. There was no hesitation at all. One of the Karma Buddha’s legs was slashed off, causing fresh blood to flow. His lips twitched as his expression changed. Qin Wentian radiated towering devilish might, it was like he could feel no pain at all.

“I’ve long tasted the feeling of death many years ago. I wonder if you tasted it before? If not, you would be tasting the feeling of death today as well as understanding what true hell is.” Qin Wentian spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, he slashed out again and again, dismembering the Karma Buddha’s body. The expression of the Karma Buddha finally changed, revealing terror. He stared in disbelief at Qin Wentian.

At this moment, Qin Wentian was covered in devilish might but he could be sure that the pain Qin Wentian felt was no less than his.

Qin Wentian’s eyes were dark as he stared at the Karma Buddha. “So, even buddhas can feel fear. Seems like you also have no wish to go into hell.”

After speaking, the devil saber lifted up. When he thought of Little Ye’s death, the madness in his eyes intensified.

The saber light was like black lightning, cleaving out again and again, destroying the Karma Buddha’s body. However, his soul was still there. The ethereal soul of the Karma Buddha showed a struggling expression, he stared at Qin Wentian who has also lost his body as he asked, “Have you gone crazy?”

“The power of the daos have to depend on humans to unleash its full might. Since I cannot destroy the dao even after destroying your body, I can only choose to destroy your soul.” Qin Wentian’s soul formed a corporeal body swiftly as he slashed out with the saber once more.

“ARGH!” A scream or misery echoed through the air. The pain of one’s soul being sliced caused the Karma Buddha to be truly terrified. Terror shone in his eyes, it was terror towards death. His buddha lamp that was shining upon Qin Wentian also gradually dimmed.

Just like what Qin Wentian said, the power of daos ultimately depended on human control.

“STOP!” The Karma Buddha roared but Qin Wentian didn’t do so. He coldly spoke, “You will surely die before me. This is your sin, the price you have to pay. You are proficient in the dao of karma but have you ever thought about your own ultimate end?”

As howls of pain continuously rang out, the buddhic light shining on Qin Wentian grew increasingly dimmer before snuffing out completely. His soul also became extremely weak. At this moment, he even found it difficult to control the powerful devil saber. As for the Karma Buddha, only a remnant of his soul remained, the soul remnant was so weak like it could dissipate at any moment.

“You are a devil!” The Karma Buddha roared. He was no longer as peaceful and as calm as before, his expression was convulsing.

The devil saber lifted once more as devilish will flooded the area. The final saber strike was about to slash out.

At this moment, the light from a heavenly eye shot into this place. After that, an icy voice echoed out, “Qin Wentian, have you gone mad? Stop now!”

“Gone mad? Stop now?” Qin Wentian’s expression was extremely cold. Indeed, he has gone crazy but he wouldn’t stop. The western world will pay the price for everything they’ve done. Since these buddhas have no benevolence, he shall deliver all of them. He will tell them that when buddhas took up the blade of slaughter to harm others, they would receive an even more terrifying retribution.

“DIE!” Qin Wentian slashed out with the saber, aiming at the last soul remnant of the Karma Buddha. The buddha lamp crumbled apart, the struggling ethereal soul form of the Karma Buddha vanished, his life ended amidst boundless pain and agony. Most probably, the Karma Buddha’s heart was filled with reluctance. He was a buddha lord of the western paradise and understood the dao of karma, enabling him to control people easily.

But today, someone barged into the western paradise and killed him. This sounded ridiculous, when he saw Qin Wentian earlier, he didn’t panic at all. From his view, Qin Wentian was merely courting death. He was a buddha lord of the western paradise after all. But his ending was so miserable.

The Karma Buddha was slashed to death, Qin Wentian didn’t have it easy either. Because of the karma link, he suffered heavy damage and lost more than half his life force.

The devil saber faded. He sat cross-legged and circulated the Undying Scripture. The powerful undying force began to aid his soul in recovery. After that, his physical body slowly appeared again. He had an undying soul and an undying body. As long as his soul wasn’t completely exterminated, he would be able to live.

The Karma Buddha wanted to perish with him? How could things be so easy? As long as Qin Wentian had a hint of vitality remaining, he would be able to live on.

Chapter 1968: Suppression

In a courtyard inside the Heaven Vault, Ouyang Kuangsheng and Jiang Ting were accompanying their daughter Qinxin. Right now, Qinxin grew more and more sensitive. Her body was now extremely frail, her energy, spirit, and qi seemed to be almost completely exhausted.

Ouyang Kuangsheng and Jiang Ting were extremely worried for her. If this continued on, something would surely happen to Qinxin.

But just at this moment, Qinxin suddenly felt a wondrous feeling in her heart. She wiped her tears away. She lifted her head and stared at her parents, “Dad, mom.”

“Qinxin.” Jiang Ting walked over.

“I think I’m fine now.” Qinxin softly spoke. “Although I still feel some sadness, the feeling isn’t as intense as before to the point where I cannot control myself. Now that I think back on it, it felt like my emotions were being controlled.”

The eyes of Ouyang Kuangsheng and Jiang Ting flashed as they exchanged glances. “Are you really fine now?”

“Mhm.” Qinxin nodded.

“Hu…” A strange light flashed in Ouyang Kuangsheng’s eyes as he stared into the distance. “Your Uncle Qin might be doing something dangerous that we know nothing about now.”

“Will Uncle Qin be fine?” Qinxin asked in worry.

“No idea. Let’s go and visit your Uncle Fan Le first.” Ouyang Kuangsheng spoke. They then moved towards a certain location, heading to Qin Wentian’s residence. When they arrived, the discovered that Fan Le and Xuan Xin had both awakened. In addition, Mo Qingcheng and the others were present as well.

“Fan Le.” Ouyang Kuangsheng walked over and tapped Fan Le’s shoulder lightly.

“We’ve caused everyone to worry.” Fan Le spoke. His gaze still lacked the luster of life. Although he has awakened, it wasn’t going to be so easy for him to get over his daughter’s death.”

“It’s very possible that Wentian went to the western world. Qingcheng, can you ask how he is now?” Ouyang Kuangsheng turned to Mo Qingcheng.

A hint of worry flashed through Mo Qingcheng's eyes. She shook her head, "He is uncontactable."

The hearts of everyone clenched as unease welled up.

The experts in the western world were as common as clouds, they are the strongest hegemonic power in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, a terrifying existence. Did Qin Wentian slaughter his way into the western world alone?

"Wentian." Fan Le's expression froze. He must be doing this for his sake.

"Uncle Qin." Qinxin's eyes were wet, filled with an intense worry. Nothing must happen to her Uncle Qin.

Very soon, the people in the Heaven Vault all knew that Qin Wentian went to the western world. After obtaining the news, Jun Mengchen and the others wanted to rush to the western world to search for Qin Wentian. However, they weren't able to exit. Only Qin Wentian could open the entrance of the Heaven Vault. Everyone could only drive themselves crazy with worry, they had no way to leave.

What they could do, was to cultivate, allowing themselves to grow stronger and stronger. At least, Qin Wentian need not handle this alone every time such situations occurred. Qin Wentian had to bear the weight of the fate of everyone in the Heaven Vault, the pressure on him was incomparably immense. And now, for the sake of his loved ones in the Heaven Vault, he went to take the risk alone.

In the independent spacetime in the western world, Qin Wentian's soul was gradually recovering, as was his fleshly body. It's just that he felt extremely weak now. After all, he just fought a terrifying battle. Although he managed to slay the Karma Buddha for revenge, he didn't have it easy either. His injuries were very serious and if it wasn't for the fact that he has the heaven-defying undying energy to aid him, he would probably have died as well.

Naturally, at his current realm today, his recovery rate was monstrous. This was especially so given that he was proficient in both the life laws and undying laws. Even his bloodlines could be easily replenished.

How was bloodline energy generated? When one's cultivation reached a sufficiently high stage, their bloodlines would undergo a change. For experts at the heavenly deity realm, they would nurture divine blood and pass it on to their descendants. Now, he himself was already a powerful heavenly deity. His blood was the bloodline of a powerful deity, how could he lose his bloodline powers despite losing his body? Now, he was no longer an immortal like back then. He was a deity now.

Bloodlines were merely a type of power, they can transform into the dao and integrate into dao arts, depending on one's comprehension.

In fact, the current him could even use his understanding of the dao to modify his bloodlines and pass it on to his descendants. The prerequisite was that the modification to his bloodlines had to be stronger than the ones he currently possessed. However, Qin Wentian didn't have such thoughts now. After everything calmed down and when he wanted to plan for children with his wives, he would revisit this thought once more, properly modifying his bloodlines to pass on.

Naturally, all these were things in the future. The him right now was still in danger.

Although the flow of time here was 100 times quicker than normal, those ancient buddhas of the western world outside weren't ordinary deities too. When he was still fighting against the Karma Buddha, he could already sense someone using a heavenly eye to locate him. Most probably, they would be able to find the path leading to this independent spacetime not long after.

However, Qin Wentian was wrong. At this moment, after those ancient buddhas knew that the Karma Buddha was killed, they no longer had any plans to enter the independent spacetime.

At this moment, at the location outside, all the ancient buddhas gathered together. They were chanting buddhic verses, as though they wanted to perform religious ceremonies to help the Karma Buddha find peace.

The death of a buddha lord was also a huge loss to the powerful western paradise.

"Senior brother cultivates the dao of karma. He planted the seed and caused Qin Wentian to come to the western paradise, achieving his goals. However, he didn't expect to die because of this." The Heavenly Eye Ancient Buddha sighed. However, these monks didn't really feel sorrow. It was like all of them had seen through the mysteries of death.

Naturally, it was because the person who died wasn't them, it was someone else instead.

Before this, the Karma Buddha also appeared very calm, like life and death wasn't able to waver his heart. But when true death arrived for him, his expressions was contorted by terror.

His buddha heart was impure, how could he see through life and death?

Before death, true terror was still able to shake his heart. Only a truly esteemed reverend like the Bodhi Abbot was a true buddha who could cast aside life and death. As the saying went, if he didn't descend to hell, who would? He'd rather die to neutralize the resentment Qin Wentian felt in his heart towards the buddha dao. He was truly an incarnate of kindness, a representative of the buddha path.

"Martial uncle cultivates the dao of karma and brought Qin Wentian to the western paradise. Now that he has passed away, we cannot fail to live up to his wishes." Another reverend spoke. This man was also a heavenly deity, he said that the Karma Buddha was his martial uncle. From this, one could see that the Karma Buddha's status in the western paradise was extremely high.

"That's only natural. Let's suppress him." A powerful ancient buddha nodded. The others instantly agreed. They all stood in different locations and chanted buddhic verses. In an instant, a powerful buddha light manifested. All the monks in the western paradise actually generated holy buddhic light that flowed towards a certain direction. Gradually, the light took the form of a giant buddha palm, like a five-fingered mountain, capable of suppressing even the sky.

These buddhas didn't want to take Qin Wentian's life, they wanted to suppress him instead because their goal was the Heaven Vault, the Heaven Vault under Qin Wentian's control. They cannot allow Qin Wentian to die before they got what they wanted.

This buddha palm imprint seemed to contain the power of all buddha daos. At the heart of the palm, countless buddhic words resembled buddha statues, exuding majesticness. The palm flew into the void, towards that independent spacetime. At this moment, although Qin Wentian was still in his independent spacetime, buddhic chants rang out in his ear. He felt his mind trembling, causing his heart to be distracted and his thoughts to be in turmoil.

He inclined his head and stared into the distance. His gaze penetrated everything and soon after, he saw the giant five-fingered mountain breaching this spacetime, descending from the sky. This entire dimension started to tremble. After that, with a thunderous bang, the space and time here was suppressed. The terrifying sounds of the buddhic chants continued relentlessly, intent on destroying this dimension.

Some time later, this spacetime was destroyed and Qin Wentian's figure appeared in the void. He saw that he was standing on the heart of a giant palm. Before him, the five fingers appeared like pillars that had the power to seal him. There was no way out.

Boundless buddha dao light descended, boring down on him. Countless buddhic ancient words flowed towards him, wanting to suppress him. This caused him to feel an incomparably great pressure. The chants entered his ears, wanting to destroy his will. He radiated a towering aura, his terrifying spacetime sword dao wanted to tear apart the sky and shatter those ancient words and the giant palm. However, there were countless buddha statues that defended against Qin Wentian's attacks. Qin Wentian wasn't able to break the giant buddha palm.

This palm was formed by all the buddhas joining forces. It was as tough as ascending to the heavens if Qin Wentian wanted to exit.

Qin Wentian's expression turned unsightly. He tried all sorts of methods but he was unable to break the giant palm. He knew that he was already suppressed. Also, there would be a relentless flow of energy that continued to launch attacks at him, wanting him to collapse.

"Benefactor Qin." At this moment, a voice rang out in his ears. A buddha outside was speaking to him.

Qin Wentian inclined his head. His gaze was cold. The other party spoke, “A buddha lord of our western paradise has died in the hands of Benefactor Qin. However, this is also karma. Buddha is merciful, if Benefactor Qin is willing to open the Heaven Vault and let our Buddhist Sect take charge, we will grant Benefactor Qin your freedom.”

After hearing these words, a cold smile appeared on Qin Wentian’s face. Giving up the Heaven Vault? If he did this, wouldn’t the fate of his loved ones be under the western paradise’s control?

Even if the western paradise promised him freedom, could the various hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms not guard against him? Would they spare his loved ones?

In addition, the Karma Buddha planted a seed of karma in Little Ye, using the life of a young girl to deal with him. The buddhas of the western paradise were no different from devils in Qin Wentian’s eyes. Benevolence? Kindness? How ridiculous. If these buddhas were merciful, would they be so despicable to this extent?

Right now, they still wanted Qin Wentian to trust them? Is this even possible?

“Bald donkey, if you all can’t kill me, you all will die.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

“Benefactor Qin, why must you be so stubborn. Since this is the case, we can only temporarily inconvenience Benefactor Qin for now.” The voice rang out again. Qin Wentian suffered endless attacks inside the giant buddha palm, it felt like these attacks would never cease.

…….

The news of the incident in the western paradise began to spread through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. For a period of time, it caused huge waves of commotion.

Qin Wentian actually went crazy and went to the western world alone, killing a buddha lord of the western paradise, the Karma Buddha. Right now, he was being suppressed by the western world. His fate most probably was already fixed. Was the vying of the Heaven Vault finally going to conclude?

Chapter 1969: Viewing Death Like Going Home

After the various peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms learned of this news, many of them heaved a sigh of relief. The Qin Clan was one of them. Qin Wentian's existence was undoubtedly an extremely large threat to them. They were very clear that it was very possible for Qin Wentian to kill his way into the Qin Clan anytime.

This was especially so after the Qin Clan learned that Qin Wentian destroyed the Ziwei Divine Court and killed the Ziwei Star Sovereign, they kept feeling trepidation in their hearts. The atmosphere in the Qin Clan was extremely tense. Qin Zheng's strength might be strong but the Ziwei Star Sovereign was merely slightly weaker than him. Given the speed of Qin Wentian's growth, there would surely come a day where Qin Wentian could destroy him alone. And when that day arrived, that would be an apocalypse of their Qin Clan.

In the past, they placed all their hopes on Qin Dangtian. He went to the secret realm an ancestor of the Qin Clan discovered and managed to barge into it. However, there was no news from him after that.

But now, since Qin Wentian was finally suppressed by the western world. Everything ought to end.

Qin Wentian killed a buddha lord of the western paradise. Even if the Grim Reaper showed up and wanted to take him away, the western paradise most probably wouldn't release Qin Wentian so easily. If they truly feared the Grim Reaper, they basically wouldn't have dared to act against Qin Wentian at all.

In truth, the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms understood that this was related to who the future ruler of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would be. If the Grim Reaper and Qin Wentian won enough time, they would eventually be able to grow into the number one hegemonic power in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and suppress the western world.

After the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace learned of this news, they sighed in pity. How many years have passed since such a magnificent character with such outstanding talent appeared? He barged into the western paradise of the western world alone and killed a buddha lord. Such spirit, there probably wasn't a second person comparable to him in the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He was someone who had the chance to transcend, but sadly, he lost to time. The western world wouldn't give him time to permit him to continue growing.

Everyone in the Heaven Vault also received the news. Although they were in the Heaven Vault, it didn't mean that they were isolated from the world. There were still people outside, guarding the Qin heavenly Divine Sect. These people maintained close contact with the Heaven Vault. And when Fan Le and Ouyang Kuangsheng learned of the reason, they wanted nothing more than to replace Qin Wentian. They knew very well that Qin Wentian took this risk and went to the western world because he wanted to get revenge for Fan Ye and help Qinxin, while also saving Fan Le and Xuan Xin.

After Qinxin learned about this, she cried again for a long time. Sadly, she couldn't even go out.

Everyone was very worried about Mo Qingcheng and the others. However this time around, Qin Wentian's wives were exceptionally calm. It was like they had long expected that such a day would happen. In addition, they had once even experienced a scene more agonizing than this. What's the point if they feel needless sorrow?

This was especially so for Qing`er. After she obtained the news, she who was once called the white-haired killing goddess, simply turned and left silently, heading straight to cultivate. She was so quiet that the others felt it was terrifying.

After cultivating to today, she has experienced so many things. Maybe, her personality gradually changed.

Many people thought that maybe, the sadness and worry in her heart was already something mere words couldn't express. She could only convert them into motivation for cultivation. Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er believed that back then, the war in the Evergreen Immortal Empire wasn't able to kill Qin Wentian. This time around, Qin Wentian wouldn't die as well. He would wait for their growth.

In the western paradise of the western world, Qin Wentian was being suppressed and had to suffer buddha dao attacks constantly. Also, the power of the attacks within the giant buddha palm seemed to be adjustable by the outside world. If the buddhas outside joined their voices in chants, the attacks would be stronger. If they didn't, the attacks would be weaker. When the attacks weakened, Qin Wentian could simply depend on his physical defense to withstand the attacks.

Some days after Qin Wentian was imprisoned, he sensed that there were ancient buddhas arriving at an external location. After that, he heard a voice, "Benefactor Qin, have you thought things through clearly during these days?"

The buddha was naturally referring to the Heaven Vault. The western paradise wanted Qin Wentian to hand over the control rights of the Heaven Vault to them.

Qin Wentian didn't bother with the voice. In the space within the buddha palm, he had his eyes closed. There seemed to be another independent spacetime opened up within here. Even if he was suppressed, he still didn't forget to cultivate. He has experienced many tribulations before and he wouldn't give up easily no matter what the situation was. This time was the same as well. As long as there was a chance to, he would cultivate to make himself grow stronger in order to better deal with future changes.

"Ultimately, this is something that cannot be avoided. Benefactor Qin, why must you be so persistent?" The voice rang out once more. After that, the sound waves of the voice transformed into palm energy. In an instant, buddhic light flared brightly as numerous waves of terrifying attacks blasted towards Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was as immobile as a mountain. Terrifying spacetime storms appeared around him, devouring all the attacks. Regardless of the intensity of the attacks, he held his ground.

At this moment, the palm attacks became more terrifying. An illusory golden palm print smashed over, blasting through the spacetime storms, slamming into Qin Wentian. This caused him to feel pressure equal to the entire skies, as he bowed over from the blow.

The buddhic chants continued, the ancient buddha words were countless. Qin Wentian's body sat there, resisting the attacks. Terrifying rumbling sounds rang out as powerful blasts slammed into Qin Wentian, causing his body to tremble. But even so, he still remained sitting, like an immovable mountain.

After a long time, fresh blood seeped out of his mouth but the look in his eyes was as cold and as determined as ever. Finally, the buddhic chants dissipated, the overwhelming pressure also vanished without a trace. At this moment, the voice rang out once more, "Benefactor Qin, news about you being in the western paradise has already circulated through the immortal realms. Right now, many experts from the hegemonic powers are currently heading towards the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. When the time comes, I'm afraid the situation would be very hard to handle."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with terrifying coldness, "The self-proclaimed merciful Buddhist Sect wants to threaten me like that?"

Although he had already arranged for his loved ones to be inside the Heaven Vault before he left. There were still people on the outside, guarding the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. Although they weren't very close to him on a personal basis, they were still experts from the various factions. Qin Wentian clearly didn't want anything bad to happen to them.

"It's precisely because the Buddhist Sect is merciful that's why we hope for Benefactor Qin to allow our Buddhist Sect to take control of the Heaven Vault. By doing so, the various powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms naturally would no longer interfere with the matter regarding the Heaven Vault. Our Buddhist Sect will neutralize the conflicts there, we wouldn't allow them to commit the killing sin." The voice of the ancient buddha had a tone of bemoaning the state of the universe and pitying the fate of mankind.

"The Buddhist Sect is merciful indeed." Qin Wentian spoke. His tone was cold, the Buddhist Sect first used force to suppress him and now, they were using the innocent people of his Qin Heavenly Divine Sect to threaten him. Was this the true characters of the buddhas in the western paradise?

What a pity that even a true buddha like the Bodhi Abbot couldn't even enter the western world. How sad.

"Help me pass a message to the hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. If I don't die, I will annihilate the hegemonic power that dares to touch a single member of my Qin Heavenly Divine Sect." Qin Wentian icily spoke, his voice filled with an intense killing intent. It was impossible for him to handover the Heaven Vault. Even if he has to die, he wouldn't do so.

Although he didn't want anything bad to happen to the people of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, the significance of the people in the Heaven Vault was simply too important to him. Once he handed control over, not only would the lives of the people in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect be under the control of the other party, even the lives of his loved ones would be under their control as well. At that time, he would no longer have any value left, having handed all his cards over.

He, Qin Wentian, was not so foolish to that extent.

“Since this is the case, we will come and visit Benefactor Qin again in the future. We will bring the news of what happened to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect to you as well. I hope that at that time, Benefactor Qin could think through things clearly.” The voice rang out once more. After that, the ancient buddhas all left. Qin Wentian was suppressed here, they weren’t in a hurry. In any case, they wouldn’t kill Qin Wentian. Leaving aside the problem of obtaining the Heaven Vault, just with the Grim Reaper being present, although their western paradise didn’t fear him, they didn’t want to shred all pretense of cordiality as well. At the very least, now was not the time.

As long as Qin Wentian was suppressed here, the Heaven Vault would fall into the control of the Buddhist Sect sooner or later. There was no need to doubt this point.

And just like how the buddhas had threatened Qin Wentian, after the news of his imprisonment was circulated out, many people from the various hegemonic powers felt desire stirring their hearts. After that, the western world spread out news saying that Qin Wentian still refused to handover the Heaven Vault. Hence, the various hegemonic powers all understood tacitly and started to gather at the Boundless Sea Region once more, turning their gazes to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

Within the Boundless Sea Region, the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was established here. Many experts guarded the entrance to the divine sect. Although their sect leader Qin Wentian was now being imprisoned in the western paradise, the atmosphere in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect wasn’t chaotic, it was as orderly as ever.

At this moment, many imposing figures appeared in the airspace above the sea region. A few groups of people flew towards the direction of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect while exuding terrifying pressure. The people in the lead of the various groups were actually all heavenly deities.

“Seniors, please halt.” A guard of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect stepped out to block these people.

“How dare you.” A thunderous voice rang out. A sturdy middle-aged man in blue robes angrily berated. At the same time, that guard seemed to be blasted by thunder, he simply fell from the air into the boundless sea below, his body completely numbed. The other guards at the side all turned ashen upon seeing that.

“No one can barge into the territory of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. Seniors, please halt.” Down below, that falling figure finally recovered. He wiped away the blood at the corner of his mouth as he soared into the sky and stood before these people once more. Although the other party was a heavenly deity, this guard showed no fear at all.

“Do you know the identities of the people you are blocking?” The middle-aged man in blue robes coldly spoke.

“I know. You are a heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan of the Earth Region.” The guard calmly replied. “However, this place is the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. This is a rule set by our sect leader. If senior wants to enter, you have to step over my dead body first.”

“Gutsy.” That heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan coldly spoke. “Since this is the case, I will step over your dead body then.”

As the sound of his voice faded, he unleashed a finger attack. Thunder penetrated through the air, piercing into the guard. The guard instantly exploded with his soul scattered.

“A mantis trying to block a chariot.” The heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan coldly spoke as he continued to move forward. Today, they clearly came here with malicious intentions. These imbecile guards actually dared to block them? They were simply courting death.

However at this moment, another guard appeared, blocking these people from advancing. His eyes held a hint of fear, but there was also fearless courage. He was someone from Azure Mystic and he joined one of the powers in the Heaven Empyrean Palace, and managed to perform well enough to follow them to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He has always been following the Heaven Empyrean. The Heaven Empyrean in the hearts of people from Azure Mystic was lofty and incomparable. He was a symbol of faith to all of them. Although he was imprisoned now, they would never allow people to profane the rules of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

Without Qin Wentian’s orders, no one was allowed to enter the divine sect. Unless, these invaders stepped past the dead bodies of all of the guards.

“Mhm?” The experts from the various hegemonic powers frowned. There were actually people who didn’t fear death?

At this moment, more and more experts from within the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect flew up into the air, arranging themselves in rows, blocking the entrance of the divine sect. They turned their gazes towards the invaders and showed a spirit so imposing like they viewed death as the same as going home. Since they were going to die, why don’t they die with more backbone? Their sect leader would surely obtain revenge for them sooner or later!

Chapter 1970: Brazen Female

Naturally, not everyone had the courageous spirit and unyielding character. When Qin Wentian was imprisoned by the western world, many people in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect started to waver. When they saw the experts of the various hegemonic powers from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms arriving, they already started to think about how to flee. They didn't want to be buried here.

The heavenly deity of the Thunder Clan stared at the guards blocking him as a cold smile flickered in his eyes. Excellent courage. However, such behavior was the same as courting death.

"Since this is the case, this seat shall grant you all your wishes." The heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan stood arrogantly in the air. Lightning flashed around him, heavenly might descended as bolts of thunder wanted to destroy the entire divine sect.

With a rumbling boom, violet lightning blasted downwards, hitting a great hall in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. The great hall whose roof touched the clouds, directly exploded into pieces. This scene was terrifying to the extreme.

"Qin Heavenly Divine Sect." Sparks shot out from the heavenly deity's eyes. Back then, how imposing was Qin Wentian? He threatened all the experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and monopolized the Heaven Vault, creating the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect around it, causing many other powers to come by in congratulations. Today, all of them shall end. Qin Wentian was suppressed in the western paradise, his fate was sealed. He would never be able to escape from there.

"Halt." At the instant the heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan wanted to continue attacking, a shout rang out. He turned his gaze over and saw a few figures flying towards him. These figures were all heavenly deities as well.

The heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan stared at them as he coldly spoke, "When as the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy ever interfered in worldly affairs?"

"Everyone, by doing so, you guys are going overboard. From what I know, back then all of you surrounded Qin Wentian but Qin Wentian didn't take any revenge against any of you for that. Now that he is in danger, you all actually want to hit him while he is down, acting against people of lower cultivation. Are your actions not a little too despicable?"

The people who came were none other than the three heavenly deities of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. They received a request for aid from Divine Sound and immediately rushed here. Right now, Divine Sound was also already a heavenly deity. He was the fourth heavenly deity of the sacred academy. Now, he was currently in the Heaven Vault, he didn't wish for the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect to encounter a calamity.

"This is a personal grudge between us. What does this have to do with your Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy?" Another heavenly deity spoke. He was an expert from the Prison God Clan. He and his clan members came here because they also received the hint from the western world.

"Our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy won't simply watch on the fence with regards to this matter." Goddess Dugu coldly spoke. This caused the heavenly deities here to frown. Things would be troublesome if the sacred academy wanted to interfere. Although it wasn't too much of a trouble for so many of them to deal with the three heavenly deities here, the headmaster from the sacred academy was unfathomably powerful. Back then in that battle inside the Qin Clan, the Thunder Clan Leader was suppressed by Headmaster Ye so badly that he didn't even have time to catch his breath. Many people knew that if the battle continued, the Thunder Clan Leader would surely lose and be in danger of dying.

The headmaster of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was extremely strong.

"You guys won't watch on the fence? So what of it?" A thunderous voice rang out in the airspace above the boundless sea region at this moment. The Thunder Clan Leader descended from the sky, exuding incomparable imposingness. Lightning and thunder crackled around him as he stared at the heavenly deities from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Back then at the battle in the Qin Clan, he had lost much face. Although the headmaster of the sacred academy was powerful, this was something the western world wanted. Could it be that the headmaster of the sacred academy dared to interfere?

Since this is the case, they shall let the western world handle the headmaster. As for now, did the sacred academy really think that with just the appearance of these three heavenly deities, all of them would stop acting against the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect? Was this possible?

"As the Thunder Clan Leader, you want to bully the juniors when Qin Wentian is now in trouble? Do you even want face?" Goddess Dugu coldly spoke. "Back then when Qin Wentian was present, why didn't you come and look for him to settle your grudge?"

"Impudent!" The Thunder Clan Leader roared as he stared at Goddess Dugu. "Are you even qualified to talk to me like this?"

"How imposing." Goddess Dugu laughed coldly. "Can it be the Thunder Clan Leader wants to act against me?"

"A mere female. I won't bully you." The Thunder Clan Leader waved his hand and spoke. After that, he turned to the direction of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect as he commanded, "Rush in. Kill anyone that tries to stop us."

"Yes." The experts of the Thunder Clan nodded. They strode forward, but the experts from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect still blocked their way. They were like a human wall. The heavenly deity on their side had an extremely cold look on his face. Although there was fear in his heart, his courage surpassed his fear.

"When the Heaven Empyrean comes back, it would be the day of regret for your Thunder Clan." The person from the Azure Mystic spoke. He believed that the young man who created miracles would be able to reverse all negative situations.

"Although we might die, our sect leader will surely annihilate the Thunder Clan and these other hegemonic powers that dares to invade us. Using our lives to trade for their destruction? Worth it." Another person spoke, staring at the experts from the hegemonic powers ahead. These despicable people, there would be a day where they all regretted their actions.

"Courting death." A heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan grabbed out. A giant palm immediately manifested, instantly tearing through the bodies of many people. Screams of agony rang out, but those who were alive still didn't break their positions and maintained the human wall. Behind, more experts from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect flew out and joined the human wall, their gazes had no fear at all.

The experts from the Thunder Clan laughed. Was courting death useful?

Today, they definitely had to take down the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect and gain control of it while the western paradise slowly tormented Qin Wentian. By doing so, they didn't believe Qin Wentian would still choose not to give up control of the Heaven Vault.

"You guys are truly despicable." Goddess Dugu stepped out. But at this moment, the terrifying light of lightning and thunder flashed as a destructive pressure manifested in the air, causing the boundless seas below to churn wildly.

The deity from the Thunder Clan wanted to draw divine lightning and send it down. But at this moment, he felt as though the divine lightning was out of his control. He furrowed his brows, what was going on?

He inclined his head and stared into the air. In the next moment, his gaze froze there.

Many people in the area seemed to have sensed something. They inclined their head and stared into the air and after that, their reactions were the same as the deity from the Thunder Clan. All their gazes froze as they stared fixedly in shock at the sky filled with lightning and thunder.

"This…" A strange look crossed their faces. Amidst the lightning and thunder, a human figure actually appeared there.

In addition, it was a female figure.

What caused these people to be shocked was that this young woman was actually so beautiful that it was breathtaking. She was clad in yellow, her raven black hair fluttered in the wind and her fair skin and flawless features were so exquisite that no words in any known languages could describe her beauty. Some of the people here had seen Goddess Nichang before. But when they saw this young woman, they couldn't help but admit that her beauty wasn't in anyway inferior to Goddess Nichang.

Also, her cultivation base was higher than Goddess Nichang. She was a heavenly deity, an extremely beautiful one. If one really wanted to compare her with someone, only the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden would be a suitable match.

"Who is she?" Many people silently mused. Such a beautiful figure with such a high level of cultivation, she shouldn't be someone unknown.

Even for many heavenly deities, they were stunned when they saw her. If this young woman was willing to be their dao companion, how wondrous would it be?

This young woman was none other than the same young woman who just came out from the Divine Mausoleum Secret Realm. She was none other than Qin Kexin, no one knew who she was, this was her first time meeting the experts of the various hegemonic powers.

"Lady, who are you?" That heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan asked. His tone was peaceful as unmasked admiration could be seen in his eyes. Such a young woman was truly a pleasing sight to the eyes.

Qin Kexin lowered her head and turned her gaze onto that heavenly deity. Her beautiful eyes flashed with coldness, and a hint of rage. These emotions caused the heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan to feel puzzled. When had he ever offend this beautiful young woman before?

"Scram."

Qin Kexin coldly spoke, with no intentions of being polite, directly telling a heavenly deity to scram.

The deity from the Thunder God Clan frowned as unhappiness flashed across his face. "When has the Thunder Clan ever offended miss?"

"Are you deaf?" Qin Kexin icily replied. This caused the expression of the Thunder Clan's heavenly deity to gradually darken. Although this young woman was an extremely beautiful heavenly deity, how could he be happy when she insulted him like this? No matter what, he was also a lofty heavenly deity. He ignored her when she told him to scram and now she was asking if he is deaf? Wasn't she a little too arrogant?

The others quietly watched, temporarily choosing not to act. A beautiful heavenly deity has appeared and there was actually no one who knew who she was. Her identity caused them to be puzzled. Why did she want to protect the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect?

"Miss, are you not too brazen? What if I don't leave?" The Thunder Clan's heavenly deity coldly spoke.

Qin Kexin's expression didn't change. She lowered her head and stared at him. At this moment, a terrifying wave of divine might manifested, this entire space was enveloped by immense pressure. That Thunder Clan's heavenly deity furrowed his brows. This young woman was actually so crazy, wanting to start a deity-level fight because of some verbal exchange? How much did she underestimate him by exactly?

Upon thinking of this, the heavenly deity waved his hand. The sky crackled with lightning and thunder as he rose into the air, preparing to battle.

"I didn't want to act against a woman. But since you are so brazen and arrogant, I can only choose to fight you." His voice thundered throughout the air.

"Fight?" Qin Kexin glanced at him, her beautiful eyes were as calm as ever like she didn't even place him in her eyes.

"Are you even worthy?" She stated. When everyone heard this, they all felt speechless. What a brazen female, she actually stated that the heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan wasn't worthy enough to fight against her.

None of them have ever seen such a brazen and beautiful heavenly deity before. This young woman was surely the first.

However, at this moment, a terrifying scene appeared in the sky. Behind Qin Kexin, an ancient gate akin to an entire world manifested. Through the gate, one could see the scene inside. That place was like a mausoleum, containing countless tombs that radiated traces of ancientness. This place was like the tombs of gods!

Chapter 1971: Women are a match for men!

“What sort of power is this?” Everyone inclined their heads and stared at the terrifying scene in the world inside the gate. Even heavenly deities felt their hearts trembling.

This mausoleum, was it a power from a type of dao?

However, what type of dao had a connection with a mausoleum?

The eyes of many peak experts flashed with sharpness. When they saw this mausoleum, all of them recalled an ancient legend in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. However, how could that be possible? Could it be that the legends were true? Did this nameless beautiful heavenly deity come from that place?

The light from the divine mausoleum enveloped the entire space, landing upon the heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan. In the next moment, his heart trembled violently. The him now felt as though he had arrived before the divine mausoleum. He wasn’t outside the picture but somehow, he came through the gate. He was actually brought into this world. That young woman appeared before him, standing in the airspace above the divine mausoleum. In fact, countless bolts of lightning flashed in the sky, this was his own power.

“What sort of ability is this?” The heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan stared at the young woman, only to see her expression as calm as ever. Her gaze held a hint of cold arrogance, completely having no regards for a heavenly deity like him at all.

In the divine mausoleum, resplendent light suddenly flashed, shooting up towards the lightning and thunder in the air. In an instant, the destructive lightning and thunder were all expelled. This miraculous power caused the heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan to tremble once more. Maybe, this beautiful young woman was so powerful to the extent where he couldn’t even resist.

But even so, he as a heavenly deity, there was no reason for him to fear battle. This was especially so given the fact that his opponent was such a young woman.

Arcs of lightning crackled wildly around him as his form expanded, he became a true thunder god. His giant fists flared with purple lightning, emitting a white glow. After that, he punched out towards the young woman. His punch shot forward, penetrating through everything with an unstoppable momentum. It was like he wanted to destroy all types of energy blocking it from advancing. It was very difficult to imagine what sort of terrifying scene it would be when this fearsome thunder god punch landed on the young woman fighting against him.

Qin Kexin clamly stood there, allowing the fearsome thunder god punch to blast towards her. Beneath her, the divine mausoleum radiated a terrifying radiance. When the thunder god punch arrived, a boundless golden light erupted forth, transforming into a resplendent screen of light that appeared before her. The thunder god punch directly slammed into the screen of light, wanting to destroy it yet it was like the power of the punch entered a boundless space, causing the attack to sink in endlessly.

Behind her, numerous tombs appeared, they were all the property of the divine mausoleum. At this moment, from the divine mausoleum, numerous illusory figures manifested. These figures didn’t have any features, it was like they manifested from the great dao. But, every single one of them contained an incomparably terrifying level of strength. Their figures flashed as they rushed towards the heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan. When the waves of might crashed down on him, that heavenly deity was so frightened that his countenance turned completely pale.

At this moment, he understood that this young woman before him absolutely wasn’t someone he could win against. The two of them weren’t on the same level. Although both were at the deity realm, the disparity in strength was extremely great.

“Miss, your cultivation base is profound. I’m inferior.” The heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan conceded, he no longer had any thoughts of continuing the battle. Although he didn’t wish to admit it, this was the truth. He had no choice but to admit it.

“You only know this now?” Qin Kexin coldly spoke. Those illusory figures attacked, aiming for the heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan. Did this man think that just a single sentence of him conceding was enough? What if he was stronger than her?

If conceding was useful, what’s the point in battling?

In the airspace above the boundless sea region, screams of misery rang out. Everyone stared at the miserable-looking appearance of the heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan as their hearts pounded in fear. Too violent, this young woman was so powerful.

“Enough.” The Thunder Clan Leader roared in rage. The sounds of heavenly thunder echoed out. Qin Kexin stopped her attacks towards that heavenly deity, yet at this moment, that poor heavenly deity no longer looked like he originally did. His body was covered in numerous injuries, like he was violently abused. This was simply too miserable a sight.

Qin Kexin’s beautiful eyes turned to the Thunder Clan Leader. “You want to fight?”

When everyone heard how calm her tone was, they felt their hearts pounding again. What a valiant female goddess and she was actually so exceptionally beautiful that everyone didn’t dare to believe their eyes.

She stood in the air, calmly asking the Thunder Clan Leader if he wanted to fight?

Such spirit, how many characters in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could rival her?

“Who are you?” The Thunder Clan Leader didn’t reply to Qin Kexin’s question directly. His deep eyes gleamed with destructive might as he stared at Qin Kexin while questioning her.

“You don’t need to know.” Qin Kexin coldly replied. From her tone, everyone felt that no matter who she was facing, she would always treat them with disdain. This was so even if the person she was speaking to was the Thunder Clan Leader.

The experts in the airspace above the boundless sea region grew even more curious about her identity. What sort of hegemonic power would be able to nurture such a character?

“There are ancient rumors stating that in a certain corner of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there’s a forbidden ground with the name Divine Mausoleum.” The Thunder Clan leader spoke. “What relationship do you have with that place?”

Divine Mausoleum?

To many people, this was the first time they heard this name. Only those heavenly deities of the hegemonic powers had the qualification to know some of the secrets in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Also, for the exact location of the Divine Mausoleum, not even the peak hegemonic powers knew where it was.

If it wasn’t for them personally seeing Qin Kexin’s ability, they wouldn’t have thought of that place either.

It simply resembled the divine mausoleum too much, containing unfathomable power. In addition, no one here has ever seen Qin Kexin before, it was like she appeared in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all of a sudden. Only the explanation of her coming from the forbidden ground could explain everything.

“You want to know?” Qin Kexin coldly glanced at the Thunder Clan Leader. “I’ll tell you then. So what if I came from there?”

The heart of the Thunder Clan Leader trembled. So it was true, she really came from that forbidden ground.

His gaze turned sharp, he wanted to get the information about the location of the Divine Mausoleum from Qin Kexin.

“You plan to head there?” Qin Kexin saw through his thoughts. She coldly smiled, “Let me warn you to give up such thoughts. You might not even be able to defeat me. I wonder if you would survive the journey there. Even if you did and you entered the divine mausoleum, you won’t find any opportunities now. My father said that the divine mausoleum is changing.”

“The divine mausoleum is changing?” The Thunder Clan Leader’s eyes flashed. “Who is your father?”

“The tomb keeper.” Qin Kexin calmly replied.

“It’s rumored that once someone becomes the tomb keeper, they have to guard the mausoleum for their entire life or they would suffer divine punishment.” The Thunder Clan Leader mumbled to himself. “Yet he allowed you to leave. This means that your words saying that the Divine Mausoleum is changing, are real.”

“You think I was wasting my time telling that to you?” Qin Kexin coldly spoke. Back then, for some reason, her father was willing to become the tomb keeper and protect the Divine Mausoleum but this didn’t mean that he doesn’t want to come out. She knew that her father has always wanted to come back to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Now, since the Divine Mausoleum was changing, there was finally a chance for him to do so.

She knew her identity, she already knew about it when she was still in the divine mausoleum. After she exited, she made some inquiries and learned many things. Since this was the case, before her father could leave that place, she would accomplish some things in his stead for him first.

And now that she appeared at this place, this was evidently some of the things she wanted to accomplish.

“Can you scram now?” Qin Kexin coldly spoke. her purpose in saying so much was because she wanted these people to leave.

“Since you just entered the external world, why are you interfering in so many matters? What connection does the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect have with you?” At this moment, another expert stepped out. This was also a heavenly deity and was someone from the Qin Clan. Qin Zheng didn’t come here but he sent someone else to be here instead.

Qin Kexin glanced at him and coldly asked, “Who are you? What does this have to do with you?”

“I’m someone from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region. Between our Qin Clan and Qin Wentian, there’s an unresolvable grudge. This matter naturally has a connection to us.” The heavenly deity coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, Qin Kexin’s gaze shone with a terrifying light as a fearsome aura gushed out from her, enveloping the heavenly deity.

The Qin Clan’s heavenly deity frowned when he felt the aura. He was prepared to fight at anytime.

But in the next instant, that aura suddenly vanished, like it has never appeared before.

Qin Kexin no longer glanced at the heavenly deity from the Qin Clan, like she held him in disdain. Her beautiful eyes landed on the people from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect as she calmly spoke, “All of you return first. Leave things here to me.”

The people from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect were all stunned. What situation was this?

This beautiful heavenly deity was so powerful that it was terrifying. She actually wanted to protect their Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. Also, her overwhelming confidence was implied by her casual words. Each of her words contained an immense domineering attitude.

“Many thanks senior.” The people from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect bowed. One of them spoke, “We are all disciples of the divine sect, how can we have any reason to retreat? We are willing to stay here with senior and guard our sect to the death.”

“I told you all to return. Why are you talking so much crap? During a battle between deities, do you all have any qualifications to participate? Courage? Death is before your faces, what use is courage for?” Qin Kexin coldly berated, causing the people of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect to be speechless. That was true, in a battle of heavenly deities, they weren’t even qualified to join in. Although this goddess berated them, it was to protect them.

“Many thanks senior.” They clasped their hands and retreated into the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect after that. Qin Kexin still guarded outside, standing in the air as she stared at the experts here. “Whoever wishes to enter the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect has to defeat me first.”

The various experts frowned, they had personally seen Qin Kexin’s strength and knew that she was very powerful. But as to how powerful she was, it was impossible for them to gauge it exactly.

What made their hearts fill with even more trepidation was her father. Her father was the tomb keeper of the divine mausoleum. Since she was already so powerful, how strong would her father be?

If things were really as she said and her father would soon come to the external world as well, if he knew that there were people who bullied her, what would he do?

Also, the information regarding the Divine Mausoleum was an extremely important news towards experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. This caused them to hesitate. They had to consider things carefully before making a decision!

The experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms didn’t move. Many people in the boundless sea region glanced up and stared at the beautiful heavenly deity in the air while sighing with admiration in their hearts. This young woman stopped the advance of the various hegemonic powers all by herself. Out of all the women in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, she was the only one who could do so. Just this single feat was enough to cause her name to resound through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms famously!

Chapter 1972: Threaten

A mysterious young woman appeared in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. She came from the legendary forbidden ground, the Divine Mausoleum and was the tomb keeper's daughter. In the airspace above the Boundless Sea Region, she blocked all the experts from the various hegemonic powers, protecting the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, shooting to fame after a single battle.

It's rumored that this young woman was exceptionally beautiful, not in anyway inferior to the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang. In fact, she could even be comparable to the number one beauty of the nine heavens, the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden not only in terms of beauty, also in terms of strength as well.

This news instantly caused a commotion to erupt. Countless people were curious and decided to personally head to the Boundless Sea Region, wanting to take a look at this beautiful heavenly deity themselves.

And at the same time, rumors about the Divine Mausoleum also gradually began to circulate through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

In the past, the Divine Mausoleum was a secret, only very few people knew about it, far less compared to those who knew about the Heaven Vault. Because the Divine Mausoleum would never appear in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it remained hidden inside a forbidden ground. Even for peak characters, they might not even know where the exact location of the Divine Mausoleum was. Only a very few knew about that.

But now, a mysterious female actually came out from there and her story shook the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, causing everyone to take note of her.

There was news saying that the Divine Mausoleum was a mausoleum created by a godking. It was rumored that during the ancient era, a shocking battle has erupted and many deities fell and were buried there, as numerous tombs manifested. Those deities fortunate enough to survive shifted all these tombs to an independent dimension. That place, was also known as the tomb of gods in the ancient era.

Naturally, because that era was too long ago, no one could verify this rumor. Most probably, only people of that generation knew about it.

Qin Kexin's appearance caused countless people in the immortal realms to be in fervent discussion. Many people in the Heaven Vault were also trying to guess her identity. Could she be acquainted with Qin Wentian? If not, why did she want to help the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect? They couldn't understand.

The news also circulated to the western paradise. The western world sent some monks to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect when they saw her in the airspace above the Boundless Sea Region. She was still guarding there. The beautiful her sat cross-legged in the air, pure light radiated from her, not allowing any outsiders to enter half a step into the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

“This monk greets female benefactor.” The monk in the lead from the western world pressed his palms together as he spoke to Qin Kexin. Qin Kexin’s beautiful eyes opened as she glanced at them. Her expression was extremely cold, “Is there anything the matter?”

“May I ask benefactor for your title?”

“Do buddhist cultivators care about this?” Qin Kexin then continued, “Don’t beat around the bush, just tell me what you want.”

“Sure.” The monk nodded. “This monk came from the western paradise. The Divine Mausoleum has some connection with the western paradise. Can benefactor tell us its location?”

“I heard that you guys wish to seize the controlling authority of the Heaven Vault and have currently imprisoned the Heaven Vault’s controller. Now, after learning that I came from the Divine Mausoleum you say that the Divine Mausoleum has a connection with the western paradise? Since there’s a connection, why don’t you all just head there yourself. Why are you asking me for the location? I’m very curious if there are any places under the heavens that don’t have a connection with the western paradise?” Qin Kexin coldly spoke. Behind her, many people of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect were glowering with anger as they stared at these monks. These bald donkeys from the western world were so shameless, wanting to interfere in everything. When has the Divine Mausoleum ever had a connection with the western paradise?

“Monks from the Buddhist Sect wouldn’t practice deceit.” The monk calmly spoke.

“When have the monks of the buddhist sect become so greedy?” Qin Kexin mocked. “If you want to know the location of the Divine Mausoleum, I can tell it to you. But first, bring Qin Wentian before me. I want to enter the Heaven Vault. At that time, I will naturally give the location of the Divine Mausoleum to you.”

The eyes of everyone flashed, so the reason why this young woman was helping the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was because she wanted to enter the Heaven Vault?

It seems that there was such a possibility indeed. The Heaven Vault was a place where all cultivators yearned for even in their dreams. This young woman came from the Divine Mausoleum and had already been to one of the forbidden grounds. Now, she wanted to grow stronger by entering the Heaven Vault, it was only to be expected.

“All of us also hope that Benefactor Qin would open the Heaven Vault but even up till now, he hasn’t agreed to do so. Hence, we still have him as an esteemed guest in the western paradise. Can benefactor change your condition? We will see if we can accomplish it.” The monk spoke, it was not so easy for them to suppress Qin Wentian, how could they release him so easily? Qin Wentian was an extremely dangerous character. Once they released this tiger back to its mountain, it would definitely be even more difficult if they wanted to suppress him again. This was especially so since Qin Wentian was still the controller of the Heaven Vault. Once he decided to hide in the Heaven Vault, even they wouldn't be able to do anything to him.

As of now, Qin Wentian was imprisoned in the western paradise. They weren't afraid that Qin Wentian would remain stubborn forever. Time would change everything. If a single day was useless, they would suppress him for one year then. If one year was useless, they would make it ten years. There would eventually come a day where the sharp edges of Qin Wentian would all become blunt.

"Fine, shift the scripture library of your western paradise over in exchange for the Divine Mausoleum's location. How about it?" Qin Kexin spoke.

"Female benefactor, is your request not a little too over the top?" The monk pressed his palms together, lowering his head as he spoke.

"Monks are truly honest, only knowing that the requests of others are over the top but don't feel that their own requests are the same as well." Qin Kexin mockingly spoke. She then continued, "I still have something I want to warn the western paradise about. You all better treat Qin Wentian, who is a 'guest' in the western paradise, better."

The monk from the western paradise frowned. He stared at Qin Kexin, "Female benefactor, what do you mean by that?"

"In the Divine Mausoleum, there's someone who has a connection with Qin Wentian. If something happened to Qin Wentian, I'm afraid the peaceful days of the western paradise would end." Qin Kexin coldly spoke. Not only did the monks of the western paradise frown, many experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms here also had strange looks on their faces.

How can that be? The Divine Mausoleum was a forbidden ground that was isolated from the world. There was actually someone in there who had a connection with Qin Wentian?

What's going on exactly?

In the current Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there are too many people who have a connection with Qin Wentian. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy wanted to help him, the Grim Reaper of Ancient Azure Mystic also might be his master. And now, the Divine Mausoleum also had a connection with him?

In that case, this mysterious young woman might not have helped the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect because she only wanted to enter the Heaven Vault. Most probably, she herself knew the situation Qin Wentian was in and that was why she came here? The reason was because someone in the Divine Mausoleum had a connection with Qin Wentian.

"Who?" The monk asked.

“You don’t have a need to know. You just need to understand that if Qin Wentian is unhappy in the western paradise, in the future, I’m afraid that the western paradise would meet with endless troubles. Hence, I really hope that reverend would be able to consider my words seriously.” Qin Kexin’s calm voice still contained a hint of arrogance. It was like this was her unique style.

The monks chanted buddhic verses. The monk in the lead had his palms pressed together as he bowed, “I will remember female benefactor’s words. It’s just that I still have to ask you to move aside. We have some things we need to handle inside the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.”

Clearly, the western paradise wouldn’t take to threats that well. If the powerful western paradise shrank back just because of a single sentence from Qin Kexin, they would no longer be the western paradise.

Even the Grim Reaper’s threat didn’t make them feel much trepidation, let alone the threat from the unknown Divine Mausoleum.

Chapter 1973: Preparation

Qin Kexin stared at the monks from the western world, her expression was like ice as she spoke, “I’m standing right here. If you all can barge into the Qin Heavenly Deity Sect by passing through me, just do it. But if you can’t, don’t blame me for being impolite then.”

The monks stared at Qin Kexin. Before this, Qin Kexin had a battle here, she dominated a heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan. Although the monks came from the western paradise, there wasn’t a buddha lord among them, all of them were ordinary heavenly deities of the western paradise. If a fight really broke out, they weren’t confident in winning against Qin Kexin.

“Benefactor, your cultivation is profound and your talent is exceptional. We can only join forces and seek guidance from you. We will have to offend you.” The monks then spread out. In an instant, the buddhic light radiating from them merged together, illuminating the area.

“Shameless bald donkeys.” The people from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect cursed. Numerous deities from the western world were actually joining forces against Qin Kexin yet they still sounded so dignified. They were truly extremely shameless.

In an instant, the ocean waves below churned as numerous gigantic buddha statues actually rose up from beneath the water. Not only that, there were also gigantic buddha bodies that appeared in the air, their pressure enveloping this entire space. Sounds of buddhic chants permeated the atmosphere, causing experts in the entire Boundless Sea Region to feel their ears tremble as they fell into the rhythm of the chants.

Qin Kexin was surrounded by all the buddhas. It looked like there was no way for her to escape this buddha-infested world.

Numerous buddhist techniques were launched as attacks at Qin Kexin. Gigantic buddha palm imprints, powerful buddhist path ancient words containing dao might… This power level was enough to directly crush ordinary deities, causing them to lose their combat strength. However, there was only coldness in Qin Kexin’s eyes.

The world of the divine mausoleum enveloped this entire area, shrouding everyone within. Numerous illusory figures appeared once more from the divine mausoleum. These figures threw themselves at the buddha statues, each actually unleashing a different type of heavenly dao might, shattering the buddha statues and techniques. Qin Kexin seemed like she could control all types of daos alone by summoning the Divine Mausoleum. She could use the daos of the deities who died there to aid her in battle.

The waves of the Boundless Sea Region churned, the buddha statues shattered apart. Qin Kexin was like an absolute goddess, standing in the air proudly. The monks still chanted buddhic verses but the effect was growing increasingly weaker. All the monks retreated, the monk in the lead then pressed his palms together, “Female benefactor, your cultivation base is extraordinary and this old monk is impressed. In the future when there’s a chance to, we will come and seek guidance from you again.”

“What? Wanting to leave now?” Qin Kexin coldly smiled. But as the sound of her voice faded, those monks instantly transformed into beams of light and directly flew away with great speed. Such swiftness of action caused Qin Kexin to furrow her brow. The monks didn’t seem willing to fight a protracted battle, it was like they just wanted to test Qin Kexin’s strength and once that was accomplished, they left straight away.

“The western paradise actually retreated?” The eyes of everyone flashed. The hearts of experts in the Boundless Sea Region trembled. Seems like even the monks from the western paradise weren’t able to contend against this young woman or they wouldn’t have left so cleanly. But this was also normal. After all, this young woman was someone who dared to challenge the Thunder Clan Leader. If a buddha lord didn’t show up, most probably the other monks wouldn’t be able to do anything to her.

The only genius character in the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that could be comparable to her, only seemed to be one person… Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian barged into the western paradise alone and hunted down the Karma Buddha. This was why he got suppressed and imprisoned in the western paradise.

However, this only pair of geniuses that were the only ones comparable to each other. They also seemed to have an unknown connection. She told the western paradise to treat Qin Wentian kindly. There was someone in the Divine Mausoleum that has a connection with Qin Wentian.

Currently, the situation was now at a stalemate. A mysterious young woman from the Divine Mausoleum actually blocked the invasion from the various hegemonic powers, causing them to be unable to take a step into the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. Naturally, this didn’t mean that the various hegemonic powers wouldn’t be a match for this young woman if they joined forces. It’s just that the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect wasn’t the Heaven Vault after all. They wanted to take over the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect purely because they wanted to pressure Qin Wentian but as to how useful it might be, nobody knew.

In addition to the mysterious identity of this young woman from the divine mausoleum, she said that her father was the tomb keeper. This caused the leaders of the various hegemonic powers to feel some trepidation. This was why the situation was now at a stalemate.

Also, what made the experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have a headache was that this young woman clearly seemed to be content to wait here and guard the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. She showed no signs of wanting to leave, and with her present, no one would be able to enter half a step into the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

However, in the western paradise, the attacks unleashed against Qin Wentian have never stopped before. They didn’t listen to Qin Kexin’s warning. The Divine Mausoleum might cause the western paradise to feel some trepidation but it wasn’t enough to snuff out their ambitions of obtaining control over the Heaven Vault. They had to sacrifice a buddha lord before they could imprison Qin Wentian. How could they treat Qin Wentian kindly?

Not only did they not do so, they would send experts over to the location where they imprisoned him daily and caused the giant buddha palm that was suppressing Qin Wentian to radiate even more power. Also, they used different techniques and methods every day. Some of these buddha dao techniques were extremely terrifying, capable of influencing the hearts of their target, wanting to control him. However, given Qin Wentian's current cultivation where he could even sever the eight senses of Buddhism when the Karma Buddha used it against him, it wouldn't be so easy to gain control of him.

But the western paradise wasn't in a hurry. They repeated this everyday, using different techniques and methods and sometimes, there were even buddha lords who joined in the attack, slowly grinding away at Qin Wentian's will, wanting his dao heart to collapse.

Today, outside the buddha palm where Qin Wentian was suppressed, a buddha lord appeared. This was a very powerful character from the western paradise. The other buddhas bowed when they saw him. The buddha lord moved closer and began to radiate buddhic light. After that, buddha dao energy seeped into the giant palm, boring down on Qin Wentian.

Inside the dimension within the giant buddha palm, Qin Wentian sat there cross-legged as he exuded terrifying dao might to block the invasion of buddha dao attacks. Numerous scenes flashed across his mind, it was like he could see the scene of the Heaven Vault's destruction, he saw Qingcheng being killed, he saw Qing`er's body immersed in blood, he saw his loved ones entering purgatory, being surrounded and slaughtered.

All these scenes felt extremely real, not like an illusion at all, causing Qin Wentian to feel that he was on the verge of collapse. Even his will was wavering as his body trembled.

"What a powerful dao art." He gathered his focus and reminded himself. Evidently, an extremely powerful buddha lord of the western paradise was outside acting against him, using this dao art to influence his mind, wanting to break his resolve.

After a long time, the buddha dao energy finally dissipated. Qin Wentian was sweating profusely. A voice then rang out from the outside, "Benefactor Qin, why must you be so stubborn? The Buddhist Sect is merciful, if Benefactor Qin is willing to cooperate, we will naturally not make things difficult for you and will grant you your freedom. Right now, many things happened in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, I'm sure that Benefactor Qin still has no idea about them, right?"

After speaking, the buddha lord directly left. Qin Wentian inclined his head and looked at the buddha statues in this dimension of the giant buddha palm. Were these buddhas buddhas or devils?

If this continued, how long could he persist?

A day or two? No problem at all. But what about a year or two years?"

Although he definitely wouldn't give up and would continue to work hard in cultivation even in such situations, the monks would come here everyday to disturb him. There was basically no time for him to cultivate with his heart at ease.

But no matter what, it was impossible if they wanted him to give up the Heaven Vault. All his loved ones are within there. Even if he has to die, he would never allow the people in the Heaven Vault to fall into danger.

Time slowly passed. Unknowingly, over a year has already passed. In truth, it has been almost two years since Qin Wentian was imprisoned. This meant that the people in the Heaven Vault have cultivated close to two hundred years due to the minor worlds of time in there. Little Rascal, Jun Mengchen, Qing`er and the others grew more and more powerful. This was what Qin Wentian was thinking about as he still persisted under the torment of the western paradise.

At this moment, some shocking changes did occur to the Heaven Vault. In addition, many of these changes were things Qin Wentian basically wouldn't be able to imagine. Let alone Qin Wentian, even the people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms weren't able to imagine these changes.

Qin Kexin still guarded the area outside the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, and people of the divine sect referred to her as the Goddess of Protection. The people from the various hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms felt somewhat anxious. Although a year or two to them was considered very short, but since the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was in a period of change, they all naturally wanted to enter the Heaven Vault to cultivate as quickly as possible. But the western paradise still wasn't able to handle Qin Wentian, this caused all the hegemonic powers to feel extremely flustered.

There were so many buddha dao techniques and arts yet they had no way to deal with Qin Wentian who was suppressed and imprisoned?

Time continued flowing by. And today, in the western paradise at the location where Qin Wentian was suppressed, many ancient buddhas appeared here. They were all extremely quiet, like they were waiting for something.

Finally, golden light flashed as a true buddha manifested. A buddha lord descended from the air and all the buddhas here bowed to him.

This buddha lord had a fat head and large ears, he exuded a feeling of peace. He nodded lightly as he turned his gaze towards the giant buddha palm suppressing Qin Wentain.

"During these days, have you all finished what you all needed to do?" He didn't open his mouth yet his voice rang out in the minds of everyone here. The buddhas nodded their heads, it has been so long, they have tormented Qin Wentian enough and it was now time to reap their harvest. This was especially so that this particular buddha lord of the western paradise had decided to act personally. No more unexpected things would occur. Qin Wentian would open the Heaven Vault for sure.

“Good. Have the various hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms been informed?” The buddha lord’s voice rang out in their minds once more as everyone nodded. Everything has been settled.

They have accomplished everything that needed to be done. At this moment, countless experts from the various hegemonic powers gathered in the airspace above the Boundless Sea Region. There were so many of them that the scene was extremely terrifying. All these hegemonic powers seemed to have come to a tacit understanding and chose to gather outside the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. This caused Qin Kexin to feel that something was wrong. It felt like something major was about to happen!

Chapter 1974: The general situation is already fixed?

In the location where Qin Wentian was suppressed in the western paradise, that buddha lord with a fat head and large ears stood at his original location as he transmitted his voice out, “Let it begin.”

The buddha cultivators here nodded. Their bodies began to glow with a resplendent light. After that, their power all surged into the giant buddha palm that was suppressing Qin Wentian. At this instant, Qin Wentian could hear the sounds of buddhic chants drilling into his mind. Waves of buddha energy surged into his body again and again, influencing his will.

“Has it started again?” Qin Wentian lifted his head, there was a cold expression on his face. After such a long time, he had to endure such torments everyday and suffer the attacks. But even so, he managed to guard his original heart and prevented his will from collapsing. He would never allow the western paradise to succeed.

But Qin Wentian didn’t know that today was different from the past.

What he was experiencing now didn’t seem any different from usual. Buddha dao energy relentlessly invaded his mind, wanting to influence him. Inside the dimension of the giant buddha palm, the ancient buddha statues recovered once more as countless ancient buddhic words floated in the air, entering his body. Gradually, the invasive might grew stronger and stronger while Qin Wentian did his best to resist, just like how he had done so in the past.

But as the boundless buddha dao energy invaded, Qin Wentian didn’t discover this. In his body, the light gathered together and a golden lotus was beginning to take form.

This golden lotus was just a young sapling. After that, as the buddha dao energy poured in, it continued growing. Gradually, the golden lotus took complete form and grew larger and larger in Qin Wentian’s body. If this golden lotus invaded Qin Wentian alone, he would have discovered it long ago. However, because he was facing too many other buddha dao attacks, this buddhic golden lotus didn’t have the ability to cause any harm at the start so he overlooked it. But, as the golden lotus grew, Qin Wentian also finally began to feel that something was wrong.

In his body, his blood churned wildly, gushing towards the golden lotus. He wanted to use the power of his bloodlines to destroy it. However, when his blood power came in contact with the golden lotus, that golden lotus exuded a strange energy and actually devoured Qin Wentian’s bloodline powers as nutrients. After that, the golden lotus began to glimmer with a faint crimson radiance, like Qin Wentian’s blood was very nutritious to it, allowing to grow stronger as it continued to grow larger.

Not only so, the buddhic energy that continuously flooded into Qin Wentian’s body also protected the golden lotus. This faintly caused Qin Wentian to feel a sense of unease. This golden lotus has never appeared before in the past. This might be the method the monks planned to use to deal with him.

Qin Wentian's divine sense enveloped the golden lotus. Through it, he could see a buddha figure, it was a buddha cultivator with a fat head and large ears. His appearance was unremarkable but his entire body exuded an imposing aura. His body was currently wrapped around by a giant golden lotus and he seemed to be an incarnation of the golden lotus.

"Bald donkey, are you the one doing this?" Qin Wentian's voice rang out directly inside the buddha lord's mind. That buddha lord seemed to have entered meditation and didn't reply to Qin Wentian.

The golden lotus still continued to grow. Qin Wentian felt that this golden lotus seemed to be alive. In fact, it radiated the same aura as that buddha lord and this caused him to feel an intense sense of danger. He had no way to control the growth of the golden lotus.

In Qin Wentian's body, the golden lotus continued devouring everything. After that, it broke out from Qin Wentian's body and grew outside. Golden buddhic light enveloped Qin Wentian, and after that, a second golden lotus and a third golden lotus continued to form within him…

"What method is this?" Qin Wentian truly felt danger. That golden lotus could devour everything. When the light from the golden lotus shone on him, he felt his will wavering. There was a source of energy that was trying to wrest the sovereignty of his body.

"Buddhist cultivators actually cultivated such an evil technique?" Qin Wentian angrily berated, his voice was cold. This dao art was the same as seizing control of the bodies of others. If there was a difference, it's that this method was even more tyrannical and powerful.

"Since Benefactor Qin refused to cooperate, we can only use some extreme methods. As the saying goes, if I don't enter hell, who would? I'm willing to use Benefactor Qin's body to make a decision that would end the conflict in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." A voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. The golden lotuses devoured everything, in fact, they even wanted to devour Qin Wentian's consciousness. At this moment, Qin Wentian's face changed. Occasionally, the features of the buddha lord would appear on his face. It was like Qin Wentian wasn't Qin Wentian.

"Which buddha lord of the western paradise are you?" Qin Wentian asked.

"The Reincarnation Buddha." Qin Wentian's face transformed into the buddha lord's face once more as a voice rang out. This voice was actually his voice, it was like he was talking to himself. He was the Reincarnation Buddha, and the Reincarnation Buddha was him. It was like the buddha lord wanted to use him as the vessel for reincarnation.

"Why do you name it as reincarnation and not seizing a body?" Qin Wentian's original features appeared, his voice was cold to the extreme.

“Reincarnation is an act of kindness, seizing bodies are evil. How can they be mentioned in the same breath?” The voice still rang out from Qin Wentian’s mouth.

“Haha, the black and white has truly reversed. If this is also kindness, there would be no evil arts in the world.” Qin Wentian laughed uproariously, the golden lotuses grew brighter and brighter, Qin Wentian’s body continued trembling like he was doing his best to struggle and seize back the sovereignty of control of his body.

The methods of the Reincarnation Buddha were heaven-defying, the buddhic energy flooding Qin Wentian protected the golden lotuses, and in addition to the long period of torment, regardless of his will or body, Qin Wentian felt extremely fatigued. By choosing to act now, it was clear that the buddhist sect wanted to succeed in one fell swoop. Naturally, they could act later. But the western world was no longer able to wait and no longer wanted to wait.

Qin Wentian closed his eyes. His powerful will resisted the invasion of the other party. The energy of his Undying Scripture continued to circulate as his powerful soul energy guarded him. The reincarnation dao was extremely terrifying. The light from the golden lotuses seemed to be able to devour everything, including bloodline power, soul power, and used what they devoured for their own growth. The golden lotus was like the root of this dao.

After a long time, Qin Wentian was still struggling as he resisted. The buddhic energy suppressed and tormented him.

“So the reason why you gained control of the Heaven Vault was because you received the inheritance of Godking Xi’s will. Only your will can open or close the Heaven Vault. In that case, the only way for us to gain the Heaven Vault is through controlling you.” The golden light grew even more resplendent as Qin Wentian spoke. However, this voice didn’t belong to him.

“You will not succeed.” Qin Wentian icily replied.

“The bitter sea is boundless, why don’t you turn back and return to the shore? There’s no need to waste time struggling bitterly.” Another voice rang out. An incomparably powerful will manifested as a buddha figure appeared. A voice then rang out from Qin Wentian’s mouth. “Heaven Vault, open!”

As the sound of his voice faded, in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect at the boundless sea region, at the place where the sea meets the sky, the space there suddenly trembled as a tiny slit opened up.

Down below, countless people inclined their heads and stared at the sky, including the people from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect and the experts from the various hegemonic powers.

“The Heaven Vault has opened!” Countless figures felt their hearts pounding. What did the opening of the Heaven Vault mean?

This meant that Qin Wentian might have fallen into the western paradise's control. Was everything about to conclude?

"Qin Wentian is already finished, everything has ended. Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, do you still want to resist?" The Thunder Clan Leader took the initiative and stepped out. In the air, terrifying bolts of thunder and lightning crackled, like an apocalyptic scene.

The people of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect inclined their heads. Many people were in a daze, they felt some disbelief about what had just happened. Was their sect leader truly finished?

Was everything concluded?

Today, the experts from the various hegemonic powers gathered here. So it turned out that they were long prepared. They must have known something before hand…

When they thought of this, many people felt sorrow in their hearts. Was Qin Wentian's legend going to end now?

Qin Kexin was also still outside the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. Her figure flashed as she flew higher up, staring at the sky above her. During these days, she learned many things about the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. There was only a single person who could open the Heaven Vault. Once the slit appeared, everyone knew what it meant. She also understood.

"How could this be?" Her expression turned unsightly as her beautiful eyes flickered with a terrifying coldness. The monks from the western paradise basically didn't heed her words at all, completely disregarding her.

Today, experts from the Qin Clan came as well, including Qin Zheng. His expression was cold as he stared at the open entrance. Even if Qin Wentian had shocking talent, he still wasn't able to escape fate. The overwhelming power of the western paradise made it so that no one in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could be their match.

Qin Zheng understood that the era belonging to the western world would soon arrive. But no matter what, it would still be better than Qin Wentian rising to the peak. The western world has promised everyone to allow them to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation. Although by doing so, there would be more hegemonic powers born in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms in the future, it would much better than Qin Wentian growing so strong that no one could stop him, and they would only be easy pickings when he decided to get revenge on all of them.

Within the Heaven Vault, the people cultivating in there also received the news that the entrance was open. Yet, Qin Wentian didn't return. This caused their hearts to tremble as a strong sense of unease welled up. After that, the unease turned into a cold killing intent.

“Go.” At this moment, on the outside, numerous figures flew up into the air, flying straight towards the entrance. Their eyes also contained killing intent, it was time for this matter of the Heaven Vault to be fully concluded.

Qin Kexin stood in the air but her strength wasn’t sufficient to block all the experts here. Right now, the thing in the eyes of the various experts was no longer the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, it was the Heaven Vault instead. How could they hesitate and halt?

But at this moment, the entrance of Heaven Vault shuddered, like it was about to close once more.

“Huh?” Everyone frowned as they stared at the entrance. At the next moment, they saw a strange phenomenon. The entrance seemed to be struggling, opening and closing from time to time. It was like two different wills were trying to control the Heaven Vault.

“What’s going on?” Everyone was confused. The people of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect felt hope was reignited when they saw this. Their sect leader might not have been fully controlled yet and was still resisting. If not, such a thing wouldn’t have happened.

“Struggling at death’s door?” The Thunder Clan Leader coldly spoke. After that, the experts from the hegemonic powers increased their speed as they flew towards the Heaven Vault, wanting to hurry up and enter. They would gain control within and capture Qin Wentian’s loved ones. At that time, even if Qin Wentian wanted to try anything, it would be useless. He would have to obediently listen to their orders.

The general situation is fixed, it is irreversible!

Chapter 1975: Giant Beast

This time around, many hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have gathered here. They were flying towards the entrance and their eyes were filled with excitement.

The Heaven Vault was a place that connected the immortal realms to the nine heavenly layers, it was the number one cultivation ground in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Cultivating in the Heaven Vault allowed one to directly fly to their respective constellations and allowed them to comprehend their daos at an extremely close distance. What sort of concept was this? Being able to sit there everyday to sense the heavenly daos. There was naturally no need to mention how beneficial it would be towards one's comprehension. If every place in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was like that, there wouldn't be so few heavenly deities in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

And now, they were finally able to enter the Heaven Vault. How could the experts from the hegemonic powers not be excited?

An opportunity was finally here. The era belonging to Qin Wentian has just started, but it ended so quickly.

This was fate. Those characters exuding boundless magnificence also had to bow their heads to fate. They might not be able to rise up despite their outstanding talent as they didn't have the time to grow.

Qin Kexin stared at the various experts flying towards the Heaven Vault as her eyes flickered with coldness. However, she herself also understood that she wouldn't be able to stop them. Earlier, the various hegemonic powers Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms didn't really need to take down the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect but things was different for the Heaven Vault. Although Qin Kexin was confident in her strength, she wasn't so arrogant that she felt she was powerful enough to really contend against all the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Kill our way in." The Thunder Clan Leader coldly commanded, giving the order to slaughter a path into the Heaven Vault. From today onwards, they would be able to cultivate inside here.

Qin Zheng's expression was cold. He waved his hands and the experts from the Qin Clan also killed their way towards the Heaven Vault. Right now, the Qin Clan has already been extremely low-profile but there was no way they could miss out on such a chance. Since Qin Wentian was dealt with by the western paradise, there is no ending more perfect than this. Next, they only hoped that Qin Dangtian could grow strong enough and come back to them.

The army of deities formed from the various hegemonic powers started their slaughter.

In the boundless sea region, countless people inclined their heads and stared at the slit in the sky. The entrance to the Heaven Vault was there, and these people felt their hearts trembling. The era belonging to Qin Wentian hasn't even fully started but was it already about to end? Once the Heaven Vault falls under the control of the western world, a new era would unfold in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

The people of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect turned pale as they sighed in their hearts. Was everything about to end? They also felt that although Qin Wentian was still struggling, but once the Heaven Vault was taken over, everything would end.

Finally, the experts managed to rush into the Heaven Vault. They continued on their way forward, heading towards the ancient pathway leading up to the nine heavenly layers. These experts from the hegemonic powers have all been in the Heaven Vault before but they had left then due to Qin Wentian's trickery, which ended in the monopolizing of the Heaven Vault by Qin Wentian.

Today, all of this shall be repaid.

Their speed was incomparably vast, flying towards the ancient pathway. However, the interior of the Heaven Vault seemed to have changed. After traveling for some time, they actually weren't able to find the ancient pathway. In addition, they directly saw a stretch of boundless starry space instead. After hesitating for awhile, they rushed into the boundless starry space but the moment they entered, they felt that this stretch of starry space seemed somewhat different from what they remembered.

At this moment, a gigantic astral beast appeared before them. This astral peace was incomparably baleful, staring at the experts who entered this stretch of starry space.

"This isn't the nine heavenly layers." The experts who took the initiative to rush in spoke. A heavenly deity of the Thunder Clan spoke, feeling that something was wrong.

"This is my world." Another voice drifted over. After that, a handsome young man appeared here. His entire body was clad in emperor-king armor as he exuded a sense of unrivalled imposingness like he was the ruler of this world.

"Isn't he the junior apprentice brother of Qin Wentian?" Someone remarked when they saw this handsome young man.

"Mhm, his name seemed to be Jun Mengchen." Another person spoke, recognizing Jun Mengchen.

"This giant astral beast must be Qin Wentian's demonic beast companion that once went with Qin Wentian to the Ziwei Divine Court, annihilating it as it devoured everything. It should be that heaven devouring beast."

The comments caused those who took the initiative to rush in to falter. They turned their heads back yet they discovered that none of their comrades came in after that. In truth, the moment they rushed into the starry space, those behind them actually discovered that these people in the lead has disappeared. If they had set foot on the ancient pathway, they wouldn't have disappeared, hence those people at the back knew that this stretch of starry space wasn't the ancient pathway.

Outside the starry space, many people halted as they frowned.

“What is this?” Someone asked.

“It should be a world created by a heavenly deity. Someone go in to take a look.” A person commanded. After that, several figures stepped out and moved towards there. But the moment they set foot in this stretch of starry space, they didn’t see those people who entered before. They also entered the starry space but they seemed to have entered a world of stars. It was just that no one was present here.

“Is this an illusionary technique?” A heavenly deity furrowed his brows.

“No, if it is the heavenly dao of illusions, we would be able to sense it. Everything before our eyes should be real.” Another person replied. “This might very well possibly be a space created by a powerful deity, isolating those who stepped into here from the outside world.”

They were indeed isolated. This was Jun Mengchen’s dao, the World Dao. He has been a heavenly deity for many years, and ever since Qin Wentian left the Heaven Vault, almost two hundred years have passed inside. He managed to gain a breakthrough in terms of his dao and now, his world dao was able to produce a world within a world.

At this moment, Jun Mengchen and Little Rascal were facing off against the first batch of experts who entered here. His gaze held the authority of an emperor, shining with coldness. Now, his senior brother Qin Wentian’s fate was unknown and these people wanted to take the chance to kill their way into the Heaven Vault. If something happened to his senior brother, these people were all the culprits too.

“Little Rascal, do you want to do it or shall I?” Jun Mengchen spoke to the baleful looking gigantic beast beside him.

“I’ll do it.” At this moment, Little Rascal wasn’t adorable at all. His baleful aura towered up into the sky. His claws shone with a fearsome light as his saucer-like eyes glowed crimson, exuding an aura of a ruler, filled with disdain as he looked down on all life.

The experts in the first batch felt their hearts clench. This heaven devouring beast was extremely infamous, he could actually devour the entire Ziwei Divine Court. Such a feat naturally caused all of them to feel trepidation.

“BOOM!” The heaven devouring beast moved, his gigantic body shot through the air as a terrifying devouring storm manifested from him. He didn’t even open his mouth, this storm of devouring could generate from any part of his body. This was his dao.

Some of the experts at the world overlord realm discovered instantly that they weren’t able to move at all. After that, they were drawn towards the fearsome devouring storm. They let out howls of fear and anger but they discovered to their shock that every part of the giant beast's body was like a bottomless black hole that could devour everything. They did their best but had no way to resist. World overlords were simply too weak before heavenly deities, they couldn't even withstand a single strike.

"RUMBLE~" The terrifying giant beast covered the entire sky. That heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan summoned countless bolts of thunder and lightning, wanting to blast through the giant beast. In an instant, the giant beast's body was covered in the divine might of lightning and thunder but in the next moment, Little Rascal who transformed into a giant astral beast suddenly transformed into darkness, devouring the power of lightning and thunder bit by bit.

In addition, that terrifying attack by the Thunder Clan's deity actually had no way to injure him. Even though his entire body was shrouded by lightning and thunder, Little Rascal didn't seem to feel a thing.

This scene was too terrifying. This giant beast was cloaked in purple thunder and lightning as he devoured and slaughtered everything. Ordinary deities were no longer a match for him.

Chapter 1976: Deity-level battle in the Heaven Vault

The heavenly deities of the Thunder Clan and the Thunder Clan Leader stood together. There were many experts following behind them. All of them stared at the starry space ahead as they frowned.

“Something is wrong.” The Thunder Clan Leader spoke.

A bright light flashed as a divine hammer appeared in the hands of the Thunder Clan Leader. Fearsome lightning crackled around it, he then moved forward, wanting to enter the starry space personally.

In just a few short years, even though there were many characters in the Heaven Vault, so what of it? Would any of them in here be able to block his advance?

“Everyone stop watching. Let’s go in together.” The Thunder Clan Leader turned his head and spoke. Qin Zheng also stepped out, in addition, the clan leader of the Prison God Clan, Five Elements Sect Leader and the heads of the various hegemonic powers also stepped forward, entering the starry space. At the instant they entered, the Thunder Clan Leader and the others instantly furrowed their brows.

“This isn’t the starry world in the Heaven Vault, it is a world created by a heavenly deity. Let’s shatter it.” The Thunder Clan Leader spoke. He lifted his divine hammer and smashed it down towards a corner. In a short time, countless dragons made from lightning and thunder arced through the skies here.

“BREAK!” The Thunder Clan Leader coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, his divine hammer flew out of his hands into the air, releasing world-destructive lightning bolts, intent on wrecking this world. Rumbling sounds rang out constantly as this dimension began to crumble apart. Everything in this world had to be destroyed.

The people behind felt their hearts shaking when they watched this. That divine lightning destroyed this world and that illusory starry space before has disappeared. The ancient pathway leading to the nine heavenly layers finally appeared but right now, there were two figures standing on it. One was a human, and the other was a beast.

Other than them, the two other groups of experts who went in earlier had all vanished. Everyone naturally understood what this meant. Those people have already died, they died in the hands of these two.

“A heavenly deity and a demon god.”

Everyone could sense the cultivation bases of these two. Also, these two weren’t an ordinary heavenly deity and a demon god. A few years ago, this giant beast has appeared once, participating in the destruction of the Ziwei

Divine Court. As for that handsome young man, he only appeared extremely rarely. The people of the world didn't really have much understanding towards him. But now, the aura he was exuding was like a lofty king of this world. This type of aura was extremely natural, it was like he was destined to be born extraordinary.

In the starry space, a wind gusted by. Another gigantic demon god soared through the air, this was none other than the Kun Sovereign. On his back, many figures could be seen. The demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain were all present, there was also no need to mention anything about Luoshen Chuan and the heavenly deities of the Luoshen Clan. Other than this, Sword Monarch Jian Junlai and the heavenly deity of the Battle Saint Tribe Qi Yu, were here as well.

Naturally, what made the experts from the hegemonic powers shocked wasn't them. It was a bunch of new faces. For example, there were a few extremely beautiful women. White-haired Evergreen Qing`er, the ice beauty Beiming Youhuang, the cold and aloof Nanfeng Yaoyue, the Underworld Goddess Bai Qing. All of them were now already at the heavenly deity realm. Not only for them, there were still quite a few others who broke through as well. Qin Wentian's younger sister Luoshen Lei, she had also broken through, including the monk Bujie as well as Matriarch Ji.

Staring at the heavenly deities here, the experts from the hegemonic powers simply didn't dare to believe their eyes. In just such a short amount of time, the Heaven Vault actually produced so many heavenly deities?

How could this be possible? Even though the Heaven Vault was the number one holy ground for cultivation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, one would surely need much time to comprehend the insights of their dao before they could enter the heavenly deity realm. How could it possibly be this quick?

However, they soon thought about Qin Wentian who was proficient in the dao of time. Their gazes involuntarily froze. Qin Wentian must have created places of cultivation within the Heaven Vault where the flow of time is different. By doing so, not only would the people in the Heaven Vault have an unmatched advantage when it comes to comprehending insights, they would also have much more time to cultivate.

But the more things were so, the greater was the excitement in the eyes of everyone. This was the Heaven Vault, the holy ground for cultivation. Becoming a heavenly deity here wouldn't be as tough as the outside. They could directly land on their constellations to comprehend their heavenly dao.

Very soon, the owner of the Heaven Vault would shift and enter the control of the western world. In the future, they would be able to cultivate here.

As for these newly ascended heavenly deities, they would be nothing but stepping stones for the various hegemonic powers.

"Is this Qin Wentian's family? There are so many beauties here and their cultivation bases are actually so high." The Thunder Clan Leader icily spoke as an evil smile flickered in his eyes. The scene in the air was truly shocking. Luckily, the western paradise acted fast and finally managed to subdue Qin Wentian, forcefully opening the Heaven

Vault. If not, if they allowed the Heaven Vvault to continue growing, the consequences would truly be unimaginably dire for them.

How many years has it been? The Heaven Vault was already so powerful? If they gave the Heaven Vault ten more years, what would happen?

“This is truly a good location.” The Che Clan Leader sighed. His golden eyes gleamed with a bright light.

“Don’t be in a hurry to kill them yet. Maybe they would be of some use if we leave them alive. But in any case, the males can die first.” The Prison God Clan Leader coldly laughed. If the western paradise failed to completely subdue Qin Wentian, leaving some female hostages alive here should be useful.

“Little Rascal.” At this moment, Jun Mengchen who was in the air suddenly spoke. Little Rascal’s gigantic head turned and stared at him.

“Didn’t you always want to have a competition with me? Now, the chance has come. Let’s see who can kill more heavenly deities. How about it?” Jun Mengchen spoke. His eyes contained the will of an emperor-king, glowing with immense confidence. Despite the army of heavenly deities from the various hegemonic powers, he didn’t feel fear at all.

Upon facing such a situation, they could only fight.

“Fine. But I will win for sure.” Little Rascal coldly spoke.

“Try it and see then.” Jun Mengchen spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, an incomparably brilliant glow radiated from his body. Little Rascal’s gigantic body also began to glow with a fearsome devouring light. When they sensed the demonic aura gushing forth from him, even the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign of the five demon sovereigns felt trepidation in his heart.

The awakening of the king of their race would finally cause the people of this world to tremble.

From the outside, several other figures flew over. It was none other than Qin Kexin and the three deities from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Qin Kexin’s beautiful eyes glanced towards the experts in the air. Her gaze paused for a moment on Luoshen Chuan and the others, before her gaze shifted away. She didn’t know what identities these people had because she has never met them before. She could only guess based on the information she gathered.

“Everyone, you all should already know this. If the people in the Heaven Vault aren’t exterminated completely, there’s no need for me to say what would happen to all of us in the future if they grow stronger. Let’s act together and kill them.” The Thunder Clan Leader spoke. Everyone nodded, divine might began to permeate this entire area completely.

A majestic deity-level battle would erupt at the slightest spark.

The world in the Heaven Vault was a boundless stretch of starry space. The aftershocks of a deity-level battle wouldn't affect the innocent. They had enough space to fight.

"KILL!" The Thunder Clan Leader took the initiative to act. His divine hammer smashed out towards the sky as a million bolts of lightning and thunder blasted out. Little Rascal's gigantic body immediately rushed out, blocking the attack, he actually used the toughness of his body to endure this. The boundless divine thunder and lightning slammed into him, but his body was like countless black holes that continuously devoured the energy behind the attack. Right now, every part of his body was a part of the dao of devouring.

A deity-level battle erupted in the Heaven Vault!

Chapter 1977: Soul Stop, Reaping Lives

The Thunder Clan Leader stared at the gigantic beast's body. He wielded his divine hammer as he stepped out. He wanted to see how powerful the body of this divine beast was exactly.

The divine hammer's surroundings were filled with black cracks. This power was even more terrifying compared to earlier. Clearly, this was an extremely powerful destructive dao.

"Be careful." Jun Mengchen reminded Little Rascal. Little Rascal let out a low-sounding roar, "Leave him to me."

As the sound of his voice faded, a terrifying devouring vortex manifested in the sky. Little Rascal flew towards the nine heavenly layers. The Thunder Clan Leader chased after him with the divine hammer in his hand. A human and a demonic beast wanted to finish the battle in the starry space.

At this moment, a terrifying divine formation suddenly appeared in the starry space. The light of divine punishment flashed, it was a punishment power that has the power to cause an apocalypse. Qin Zheng stepped out with the judgement halberd in his hand. This was a divine weapon used by his father Qin Ding back then. However, Qin Ding was dragged into the boundless chaotic space by Qin Tiangang and had vanished completely. The judgement halberd has now been refined by him. He had fused the power of that Qin Clan's ancestor together with himself and he was much stronger compared to the past when the deity-level battle erupted in the Qin Clan.

Luoshen Chuan stared at Qin Zheng with a cold expression. The heavenly might radiating from the judgement halberd caused the hearts of those who stared at it to tremble. The current Qin Zheng was much more difficult to deal with.

Jun Mengchen stared at Qin Zheng, his gaze was like ice. And just when he was about to step forward, an exceptionally beautiful figure appeared before Qin Zheng. This young woman was someone he has never seen before. But from the information circulating within the Heaven Vault, he knew who this beautiful young woman was. It was none other than that mysterious person who helped the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect to fend off the hegemonic powers back then. Many people in the divine sect guessed that she might have a relationship with his senior brother Qin Wentian or someone in the Divine Mausoleum might know Qin Wentian.

Qin Kexin's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Zheng. Her gaze was extremely glacial and contained a hint of killing intent. This caused Qin Zheng to frown. What relationship did this young woman have with the Heaven Vault exactly? She said that someone in the Divine Mausoleum had a connection to Qin Wentian? Why did she radiate killing intent when she looked at him?

"Are you acquainted with Qin Dangtian?" Qin Zheng suddenly asked. Only he knew where his son went. Qin Dangtian precisely went to the Divine Mausoleum to seek opportunities for further breakthroughs. If this young woman came from there, she might have met his son before.

Qin Kexin’s expression was as cold as ever, she basically couldn’t be bothered with him. An ancient aura radiated from her, gradually enveloping Qin Zheng. Very soon. Qin Zheng, discovered that he appeared in another world. Before him, a stretch of tombs appeared. The atmosphere was heavy, filled with a deathly silence. It was very hard to imagine that such an exceptionally beautiful young woman was the one unleashing this power. No one had any idea how she had cultivated.

On the other side, Jun Mengchen’s eyes gleamed with a bright light. He located the Che Clan Leader and stepped out towards him. The Che CLan Leader had an authority scepter in his hand that exuded terrifying might. It was extremely dangerous.

As for Luoshen Chuan, he flew towards the Prison God Clan Leader.

The five demon sovereigns and Sword Monarch Jian Junlai respectively searched for their own opponents. They had to contain the strongest characters from these hegemonic powers first. These people were too dangerous. As for those more ordinary heavenly deities, they could leave them to the newly advanced deities of the Heaven Vault to handle. From what they knew, they understood that the newly advanced heavenly deities weren’t weak. Currently, Beiming Youhuang was considered quite powerful. Also, the dao she comprehended was extremely suitable for team battles.

The various top-tier characters from the hegemonic powers all had an opponent. However, it was evident that the hegemonic powers had more heavenly deities on their side and possessed an absolute advantage. Despite the fact that the Heaven Vault has developed very quickly during these years, it was still impossible for them to fight against the joint forces of all the hegemonic powers. Even if the three heavenly deities from the sacred academy were added into the mix, they wouldn’t be able to do it. If the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace were still in the Heaven Vault’s alliance, only then might they still have a chance to fight equally.

Those heavenly deities from the hegemonic powers all soared into the air, facing against the newly advanced deities of the Heaven Vault. Qing`er, Beiming Youhuang and the Southern Phoenix Matriarch were all so beautiful that their hearts couldn’t help but to skip a beat. It seems that they now had to destroy these beautiful flowers with their own hands.

“Let’s act!” A heavenly deity from the Qin Clan coldly spoke. In that battle in the Qin Clan back then, the Qin Clan suffered the heaviest casualties. Right now, they finally had the chance for revenge. These female deities should be Qin Wentian’s family and close friends, right? If they managed to captured them, what would Qin Wentian feel if he was still alive?

Beiming Youhuang closed her eyes. She stood in the air as her powerful soul energy was unleashed madly, enveloping this entire space. At this moment, all the souls of the heavenly deities seemed to transform into points of light that appeared in her mind. However, she wasn’t in a hurry to invade them, she took her time to sense them. Numerous powerful deity souls were currently nearing here. These were the heavenly deities from the hegemonic powers that were attacking them.

Around Beiming Youhuang, Qing`er, Bai Qing, Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Bujie, Qi Yu and the other heavenly deities stood in different locations. Beiming Youhuang was at the center, they were protecting her. They understood a little about Beiming Youhuang’s strength. As long as they protected her, they would have an advantage in the team battles.

“KILL!” Finally, a heavenly deity took the initiative to act. Heavenly dao might gushed forth as the surrounding space turned into a blazing world of flames, that wanted to incinerate everything. The red-colored flames contained a deep darkness within, wanting to burn this space into nothingness.

In Beiming Youhuang’s mind, the treasured pearl revolved rapidly, releasing a seven-colored glow that augmented her soul power. After that, a fearsome soul might erupted from her in an instant, causing those attacking heavenly deities to suddenly shiver. It was like they were thrown into icy water all of a sudden. Despite being in a world of blazing flames, they still felt a bone-chilling cold, a cold that came from the depths of their souls.

“Soul stop.” Beiming Youhuang had her eyes closed as she stood in the starry space. Her ruby red lips uttered a few words. This was the power of her dao. Her dao, was the dao of the soul, she could directly attack the souls of her opponents.

And as the sound of her voice rang out, many people felt a layer of frost covering their souls. Their movements froze, like their lives stopped circulating. If one’s soul was stopped, how could there still be lives?

The heavenly deities were so cold that they were shivering. White air could be seen from their breaths as frost covered their bodies. The them now didn’t seem like heavenly deities at all, they were no different from ordinary humans, affected by the cold.

When Beiming Youhuang released her soul attack, the heavenly deities protecting her also started to move. Given how fast the reactions of deities are, how could they miss out on such an excellent opportunity?

Qing`er’s speed was extremely fast. In the past, she was already proficient in the laws of space and now because the dao she comprehended also has to do with space. As her figure flashed, she directly shot past one of the attacking heavenly deities. When her body passed him, her white-hair fluttered as golden threads appeared in the air, formed from spatial energy. That heavenly deity had a look of despair and terror on his face and in the next instant, his frozen body directly crumbled into nothingness, vanishing from this world forever.

Qing`er didn’t stop. Her body was like a bolt of golden lightning, arcing through the air as she flew to her next target. Qin Wentian’s life and death was unknown, from this one could very well imagine how powerful the killing intent in her heart was. She was once known as the White-Haired Killing Goddess. Now, she was already a heavenly deity.

“Chi, chi~’ PIercing sounds rang out, when Qing`er attacked her second target, that person forcibly endured the cold his soul was feeling and unleashed his technique. A spatial divine hall appeared before him. Transforming into absolute spatial energy that could isolate him from everything in the external world. However, when Qing`er flew by, that spatial divine hall was torn into pieces. That heavenly deity rapidly retreated, using his dao of space to aid him as he teleported away.

Qing`er didn’t chase after him. A spatial longsword appeared in her hand as she waved it in his direction. A moment later, a thin thread instantly slashed out towards the location the other party wanted to teleport to. That entire space there was slashed apart, causing that heavenly deity to turn ashen.

He lifted his palms and blasted out while a divine spatial formation appeared, transforming into a spatial barrier wanting to block Qing`er’s sword slash. However, when that thin thread sliced passed, the barrier instantly disintegrated. Qing`er’s dao of space was able to slice apart all space, nothing could block it. That heavenly deity screamed in misery, his palm was sliced open, but he still employed teleportation, wanting to flee this place. Cold sweat covered his entire body, he felt like he had just visited the gates of hell.

What made him terrified was that Qing`er didn’t stop at all. She directly chased over, moving with a speed faster than lightning. At this moment, this heavenly deity didn’t have any chance to admire her beauty. This white-haired woman before him was a god of killing.

“Kacha~” His soul suffered another attack, covered in frost. His movements slowed perceptibly and the White-Haired Killing Goddess finally caught up. He had no way to escape. A dark void manifested around him, he wanted to enter it to a place of absolute safety. But a moment later, that terrifying burst of killing might from Qing`er completely flooded the dark void he created, causing the heavenly deity to despair even more.

As a heavenly deity, he came with an army of deities from the hegemonic powers to attack the Heaven Vault yet he was about to die here?

Was this a new beginning? Or was it the end?

“Die.” Qing`er coldly spoke. As the sound of her voice faded, the heavenly deities in the air felt his life being reaped away. There was an invisible dao might that bore down on him. His eyes widened, filled with pain and despair. The dao of space Qing`er comprehended was a true killing dao that was much more terrifying compared to his own dao of space. Her dao of space could directly reap lives.

“NO!” That heavenly deity roared in anger. Puchi…his body was directly slashed into pieces, as he fell into the dark void. Although he got his wish and managed to enter the dark void, he still died!

Chapter 1978: Jun Mengchen’s Name

After Qing`er’s attack succeeded, she instantly retreated, not allowing herself to be caught inside the enemy’s camp. Although she instantly finished off two heavenly deities, she was still extremely calm. Their opponents had an advantage in terms of the number of deities. If they wanted to fight this battle, they could only depend on Beiming Youhuang’s soul power as interference and use the opportunity to kill off their opponents one by one.

The heavenly deities of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms also understood this point. When they were enduring Beiming Youhuang’s attack, they could sense their souls freezing over. This feeling was extremely terrifying. She herself was actually halting the attacks from all the heavenly deities. Such a technique was simply too terrifying. Her soul power was simply heaven-defying. If a heavenly deity fought against her alone, the consequences would surely be unimaginably dire for the heavenly deity.

Naturally, although Beiming Youhuang’s soul was powerful, it wasn’t that powerful to the extent where she could launch soul attacks at such a huge number of heavenly deities simultaneously. She had to depend on the treasure that crazy old freak gave to her. This mysterious spirit treasured pearl was rumored to be a divine soul weapon that was owned by the Imperishable Heaven Lord before. It was able to greatly strengthen her soul power, allowing her to track all the souls of the heavenly deities here and directly launch an attack.

“Kill her first.” The heavenly deities rushed towards Beiming Youhuang. They had to first eliminate this ice beauty who stood in the starry space with her eyes closed or they would be severely impeded. Also, she was already so powerful when dealing with all of them. Later on, if Beiming Youhuang decided to focus on them one by one, they would surely die.

“Divine Corrosion.” At the same time, an invisible miasma was released, transformed into dao energy that permeated the area where Beiming Youhuang was at. This miasma had the power to corrode everything.

A rumbling sound rang out as Qi Yu of the Battle Saint Tribe appeared. He transformed into a giant and guarded Beiming Youhuang. Behind him, an even more gigantic divine ape appeared, staring down imperiously at everything like it was the beast king of this starry space. With a loud roar, the constellations in space seemed to be trembling. Boundless star light cascaded down, forming a terrifying golden divine formation behind Qi Yu.

These people fighting in the starry space were all the loved ones of his Saint Lord. Some of these women were his Saint Lord’s wives, some were his close friends, his younger sisters. Not a single one of them must be harmed. Now that the Saint Lord isn’t present, he naturally would give it his all to protect them. The power of his saint bone erupted as battle might gushed forth. His hands folded seals and unleashed his Battle Saint Art directly. The power of the great dao here could be used by him, undergoing countless transformations by virtue of his dao of battle.

Countless incomparably gigantic words '斗' which represented the character 'battle,' appeared. Each of them contained a shocking battle might that could suppress the heavens.

Once, after he obtained the saint bone and broke through to the heavenly deity realm, he followed Qin Wentian to the Divine Ox Castle and defeated the deities there. Right now, several hundred years have passed. Under the nourishment of the Battle Saint Bone, his talent was stimulated countless times, his strength was much, much stronger compared to before.

"Scram!" A gigantic battle word shot towards the thunder god sword that was descending. At the same time, the other battle words surrounded Beiming Youhuang, protecting her within. They transformed into a light screen of battle might. The Battle Saint Art could be used in defense or offense. In offense, he directly shattered the thunder god sword. For defense, he made it so that the power of the divine corrosion had no way to breach the light screen he created. But even so, the battle light screen was clearly weakening as it suffered the corrosion. If this continued, it would dissipate sooner or later. From this, one could see how terrifying the poison dao of that heavenly deity from the God Destruction Palace was. If such power was used directly on someone, even deities would be corroded into dust.

"Chi, chi…" A divine weapon pierced into the battle light screen, and it was actually frenziedly devouring the energy of the light screen. This divine weapon itself contained dao energy and was a weapon forged by the Che Clan. This deity was also someone from the Che Clan.

A red-colored light suddenly slashed towards the Che Clan's deity. The deity hurriedly retreated but in the next moment, the entire space around him seemed to instantly transform into a world of blood. A figure stood in front of him. This figure was a female and was very beautiful. But now, her beauty seemed somewhat demonic, exuding a heavy feel of bloodiness. Even her beautiful eyes were blood-colored. There were rings of blood around her, each containing a terrifying judgement energy. Her black hair fluttered in the wind, and she resembled a devil goddess.

However when the experts from the hegemonic power saw her earlier, she looked like a young and innocent maiden. Who could have thought that her combat form was so terrifying, completely different from her normal state.

This devil goddess was none other than Bai Qing who was once the Judiciary Priestess in the Myriad Devil Islands. Her eyes glowed crimson, filled with a fearsome killing intent. Right now, the life and death of her Wentian gege was unknown, something might have happened to him. If not, the Heaven Vault wouldn't have opened. If something really happened to her Wentian gege, the heavenly deities from all the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would all become the culprits. She would not spare a single one of them.

Boundless blood light engulfed the Che Clan's deity. His divine weapon stabbed out, forming a terrifying whirlpool that absorbed the blood light into his weapon. In the next moment, Bai Qing arrived. She actually rushed him directly.

This maiden seemed to be courting death, flying towards the divine weapon.

His gaze was cold. A terrifying dao might erupted from his weapon as it started to devour Bai Qing’s flesh and blood.

“Do you know what pain is?” At this moment, the beautiful devil goddess actually spoke. Her words sounded like a curse.

“If you don’t experience it, you would never understand.” After that, Bai Qing’s body transformed into a sea of blood, it was like she was completely made from blood. The sea of blood surged forth, engulfing everything, including the divine weapon and the Che Clan’s deity.

That deity sensed danger, a divine glow sprang up around him, wanting to resist the corrosion factor of this blood. But Bai Qing simply stared at him and coldly spoke, “Judgement of Blood.”

As the sound of her voice faded, the blood waves churned wildly, slowly sapping her opponent’s strength bit by bit. Gradually, when the body of the heavenly deity was completely immersed in blood, he started to dissolve, and transformed into motes of blood light.

“What an evil technique.” A cold voice rang out. After that, two heavenly deities flew towards Bai Qing who was in her devil form.

Bai Qing’s body returned to normal but now, there was a terrifying wound on her body. Fresh blood seeped from it, clearly she chose to suffer injuries to kill her earlier opponent. Blood light flooded the area as her wound closed up. Her eyes were as red as ever, she was so beautiful, yet seemed so devilish.

Evil?

If something really did happen to her Wentian gege, she was willing to transform into an evil devil. Even if she had to face endless calamities, she would definitely kill those who caused such a situation to happen.

As numerous deities fell, the heavenly deities from the hegemonic powers grew much more cautious. They decided to band together, different dao mights surged forth violently, pressuring the heavenly deities of the Heaven Vault. Ultimately, the heavenly deities of the Heaven Vault suffered a disadvantage in terms of numbers. Beiming Youhuang’s soul stop power was unleashed to the limits. Although she had no way to kill them, she seriously impeded them, not allowing the enemy deities to fight with their full strength. The weaker enemy deities couldn’t even fight at all.

Naturally, the deciding battles were the battle between Little Rascal and the Thunder Clan Leader, the battle between Qin Kexin and Qin Zheng, and the battle between Jun Mengchen and the Che Clan Leader. These enemy characters were the truly fearsome ones. If these enemy leaders managed to defeat their opponents, they would instantly turn their attention to Beiming Youhuang and the others. A truly powerful heavenly deity could ignore the numerical advantages of their opponents. It was useless no matter how many people joined forces against them.

Currently in an independent world, the Che Clan Leader wielded his divine weapon in the form of a scepter and was currently fighting fiercely against Jun Mengchen. Jun Mengchen's body was cloaked in divine light, radiating a supreme emperor-king intent. It felt like the entire world revolved around him and his defense was so high that it was terrifying.

Despite numerous attacks by the Che Clan Leader, he actually couldn't manage to tear apart Jun Mengchen's defense completely.

At this moment, the scepter that was capable of automatic transformations turned into a golden sharp sword. It contained a dao might that could destroy everything and pierced into the protective screen of world light in front of Jun Mengchen, actually causing cracks to appear. However, this screen of light was formed by many layers of world energy. After a layer was broken, there was yet another layer.

“I want to see how strong is your defense exactly.” The Che Clan Leader got more enraged as he battled. He initially thought this would be an easy fight, and entered the battle with complete disregard for Jun Mengchen. However, in reality, he realized that he was wrong. He actually had to take this young man who seemed inconspicuous around Qin Wentian very seriously.

He pierced out with his finger, tapping on the sword which the scepter transformed into. In an instant, boundless strands of sword energy howled in anger and flooded forward, piercing into Jun Mengchen's defense from all angles. It felt that all the swords in this space were attacking, wanting to tear apart the world. More and more cracks began to appear as the layers of world energy were peeled off one by one.

“BREAK!” The Che Clan Leader roared in anger. His attack seemed indomitable, capable of crushing everything, breaking through the layers to reach Jun Mengchen's body. But at this moment, a planetary light barrier appeared around Jun Mengchen. The radius of this new light screen wasn't large, but it contained an extremely pure world energy. When the all-out destructive attacks broke through all the layers of his earlier light screens, they were actually halted by this planetary light barrier.

When the Che Clan Leader saw this, he frowned. He stared at Jun Mengchen as he asked, “Who are you exactly?”

“Jun Mengchen.” The young man replied.

“Jun Mengchen…” The Che Clan Leader mumbled in a low voice. “Just Jun Mengchen?”

Jun Mengchen furrowed his brows, he didn’t understand what his opponent meant.

Upon seeing the puzzled look on Jun Mengchen’s face, the Che Clan Leader’s frown deepened. Could it be that he was thinking too much? But this type of energy and this aura, was it really something he was born with?

“KILL!” The Che Clan Leader’s finger transformed into his dao, blasting out once more. Boundless sword light pierced out, Jun Mengchen was within the screen of light as he observed the terrifying scene outside. If his defense was broken through, he would instantly be torn into pieces.

Chapter 1979: Heaven and Hell Within the Flash of a Thought

In the holy land of the Buddhist Sect in the western paradise, the ancient buddhas gathered together and chanted buddhic verses. Countless ancient buddhic words and buddhic energy continued gushing into the giant buddha palm. One of the ancient buddhas was enveloped by a golden lotus. The giant lotus radiated a pure and holy light. His eyes were close as he chanted continuously.

His face would occasionally turn illusory as another set of features appeared. This second set of features wasn't his original appearance, it seemed like a reflection of Qin Wentian.

At this moment, Qin Wentian was currently struggling. In that sealed space, Qin Wentian seemed that he had already been completely devoured by the golden lotus and his body was completely shrouded by the light the lotus was radiating. His body, his will and even his soul were being devoured bit by bit. The dao of reincarnation was incomparably tyrannical, the Reincarnation Buddha wanted to replace him completely. This was much more terrifying compared to ordinary body seizing. This was a type of extremely powerful dao art. Other than this, he still had to endure the endless attacks from the other buddhas. From this, one could very well imagine how great the pressure he had to endure was.

But even so, he still continued to struggle bitterly. It was like even he himself didn't expect he could persist for so long. During this one year plus of time, the bald donkeys of the western paradise attacked him daily, wanting to collapse his will. This lasted up until today when the Reincarnation Buddha appeared. The Reincarnation Buddha wanted to seize his body in a single move, he initially thought it wouldn't be so difficult but Qin Wentian's will was incomparably resolute, clearly far surpassing their expectations.

But even so, this wouldn't change the ending. Everything was long destined.

"Qin Wentian, the Heaven Vault has opened. The experts from the various hegemonic powers have already killed their way into the Heaven Vault. Just give up." A voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind, wanting to shatter his final bit of will.

"If you give up now, I will replace you. I will naturally give those people in the Heaven Vault a path of survival. Buddha is merciful after all." A voice rang out from Qin Wentian's mouth but this wasn't said by himself. This was spoken by the Reincarnation Buddha through his mouth.

Qin Wentian's will grew increasingly weaker. The light from the golden lotuses grew brighter and brighter. The Reincarnation Buddha felt that everything will reach the end soon. Things were about to be concluded.

An instant later, the Reincarnation Buddha spoke again, "Open…"

As the sound of his voice rang out, the giant buddha palm suppressing Qin Wentian began to tremble as it directly collapsed in the next instant, transforming into motes of golden light before dissipating. Qin Wentian's body appeared in the external world. However, the him now was no longer the same as the past. His life has reached its final point. From now on, the Reincarnation Buddha would replace him.

The numerous buddhas were in Qin Wentian's surroundings. The buddhic light was as radiant as ever, constantly boring down on Qin Wentian. The body of the Reincarnation Buddha moved, slowly walking step by step towards Qin Wentian's body.

He then spoke, "Buddha birthed lotuses, a golden body in exchange for the next life."

This voice seemed to contain a magical power. The golden radiance from his body continued seeping into Qin Wentian. His buddhic golden body seemed to be breaking apart. Gradually, his form turned illusory as he moved closer to Qin Wentian. Finally, his body transformed into lotuses, directly pressing into Qin Wentian's body.

The dao of reincarnation requires giving up one's body in exchange for a next life.

In this next life, they could start from the beginning like they had undergone the cycle of samsara and were born anew, allowing them to restart their cultivation. Also, they could directly use this on others, replacing them completely.

Naturally, given the strength of the Reincarnation Buddha, he definitely wouldn't do so for the sake of replacing an ordinary human. But this time, his target was none other than Qin Wentian's body.

Who was Qin Wentian? He was the expert that was widely proclaimed as the genius with the most outstanding talent in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. No one could surpass him. Once, even the extremely famous Qin Dangtian who was known as the Heaven's Son, was also defeated by him, becoming nothing but a foil to enhance Qin Wentian's brilliance. His rise was like a legend. He became the Heaven Vault's controller, he had the secret of how to break the limit of nine astral souls, he comprehended various daos, as numerous as the stars in the sky… Given such high quality, how many in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would refuse if they could replace Qin Wentian and take over his body?

The Reincarnation Buddha was a buddha lord. He experienced many reincarnations before he had his current accomplishments. Right now, he wanted to traverse even further on his path. His current body's limits in terms of potential made it hard for him to do so. Even if he chose to be reborn again and again, it was unknown how many lifetimes he would need. But as for Qin Wentian, he might be the key to everything. Hence, he decided to target Qin Wentian's body, leading to the scene today.

He had to replace Qin Wentian, he was willing to give his own body up.

The buddhas continued chanting and devouring the strength that still existed in Qin Wentian, preparing to bear witness to his final moments. Qin Wentian would become history. From now on, there would only be the Reincarnation Buddha in the world, a buddha lord of the western paradise, replacing Qin Wentian to radiate glory and radiance in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

The illusory form of the Reincarnation Buddha gradually fused with Qin Wentian's body. The light from the golden lotuses grew even more resplendent, completely shrouding Qin Wentian's body within. It was like all of this was already destined.

And as the Reincarnation Buddha slowly devoured Qin Wentian's awareness, he saw Qin Wentian's soul. Even Qin Wentian's will was being replaced. At this moment, he gradually began to absorb some of Qin Wentian's memories, as well as the secret of the Heaven Vault's control.

"Impressive." The Reincarnation Buddha praised. He opened his eyes. The other buddhas here stopped, the buddhic chants vanished and the buddhic light was also no longer so intense. The buddha heavenly deities, whose states of heart were always calm, all had brilliant smiles on their faces. They exchanged mutual glances and after that, all of them bowed before Qin Wentian's body. "Congrats."

Right now, the Heaven Vault completely belonged to their western paradise and the Reincarnation Buddha would soon obtain Qin Wentian's secret of breaking the limits of nine astral souls.

"Mhm." The Reincarnation Buddha smiled and nodded. At this moment, his original golden body dispersed into motes of buddhic light which fused together becoming a sarira. The sarira floated towards him, he stretched his hand out and took it. There was a smile on his face. This bout of reincarnation wasn't easy but everything was worth it.

"Wait for me to gain full control of his body." The Reincarnation Buddha spoke. He had just taken over and wasn't completely familiar with Qin Wentian's body yet. Right now, he still didn't have complete control over it.

"Right, we will take our leave first." The buddhas here nodded. After that, all of them flew away. As for the matter regarding the Heaven Vault, none of them were worried at all. Right now, the Reincarnation Buddha already obtained Qin Wentian's body. This meant that everything would come to an end soon. The Heaven Vault would fall into their control, the battles there weren't of any significance to them. The only person they had to take precautions against, was the Grim Reaper.

The experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms had already entered the Heaven Vault. In truth, the western world hoped for the experts inside the Vault to be stronger. Only then would it be more beneficial for them if both sides killed each other.

The Reincarnation Buddha turned his gaze to the western direction as golden light flashed in his eyes. A brand new era would soon occur.

As he stepped out, he moved towards a certain direction. After some time, he came to an ancient buddhist hall. He sat down cross-legged and prepared to gain full control of this body.

He closed his eyes, in his sea of consciousness, the powerful awareness and thoughts were all already seized by him. Now, he was the sovereign of this body.

“Mhm, what is this?” The Reincarnation Buddha saw a black dot that radiated a faint luster. His divine sense swept over, coming in contact with the black dot. But in the next moment, an incomparably vast amount of power erupted forth from within. It was like an ancient primordial beast that broke apart its seal, causing an incomparably resplendent radiance to illuminate this entire space. There seemed to be an immensely powerful soul hidden within. At this moment, an illusory figure appeared, this was none other than Qin Wentian himself.

Inside this black dot, there seemed to be an entire starry world contained within.

A terrifying sealing energy exploded out, transforming into the dao of sealing that rapidly sealed the Reincarnation Buddha’s soul energy. At the same time, this sealing energy spread through his entire body. This powerful force seemed as though it wanted to retake the sovereignty of his body.

After all, this body belonged to him originally, belonging to his soul. All his memories and thoughts were his. Even if the Reincarnation Buddha used the extremely powerful dao of reincarnation against him, when it comes to taking control, he possessed an advantage. He would be able to contend against the buddha.

Before this, he used the dao of sealing and sealed half of his power in the black dot because he was waiting for an opportunity to erupt forth. In such a situation where the buddhas were still around, they would surely attack him en masse. There was also the suppression by the gigantic buddha palm, he was helpless to resist then and could only endure, allowing the Reincarnation Buddha to feel that he has succeeded.

Now, his opportunity finally arrived.

The Reincarnation Buddha was completely caught unaware. His soul suffered a backlash and was directly sealed. However, he instantly reacted and unleashed his dao of reincarnation. Golden light surrounded this body but his control over Qin Wentian’s body was still not proficient yet. He didn’t have complete control. So, when he used Qin Wentian’s body to unleash his dao, the law attributes were completely incompatible.

Before this, his golden body transformed into the dao and pressed into Qin Wentian’s body. At the instant he decided to reincarnate and replace Qin Wentian, he had already given up on his previous body. Hence, right now, the predicament he was in was extremely obvious. He no longer had a body to return to if he lost.

On the contrary, Qin Wentian was like a dragon soaring through the skies. He frenziedly seized back the power that ought to belong to him, regaining control of his body. Very swifty, his body was no longer under any control by the Reincarnation Buddha. In fact, the Reincarnation Buddha couldn’t even seek help. The situation instantly reversed.

“How could this be?” The Reincarnation Buddha’s will trembled. Everything ought to be concluded, how could he still fail despite having succeeded? Shouldn’t everything be ended?

A thought to heaven, a thought to hell!

Chapter 1980: Dao of the World, World-refinement Force

He could still seize the sovereignty of Qin Wentian's body. But since the Reincarnation Buddha has lost the power of his original body, how could he still be a match for Qin Wentian? Although Qin Wentian also wasn't in his peak condition, this body originally belonged to him. Being in his body, he still possessed an advantage against a foreign soul that was not familiar with the control of his body yet. In addition, the advantage wasn't small.

The power from his dao of sealing and his dao of devil exploded forth. He wanted to seal the Reincarnation Buddha's energy, and use his devil energy to harass the Reincarnation Buddha's buddhic energy, aiding him to gain back control. Gradually, in his dark eyes, the luster belonging to Qin Wentian grew increasingly brighter.

In Qin Wentian's body, there were still golden lotuses being birthed. However, before they could grow, they instantly turned black, corroded by devil energy, becoming black lotuses instead. After that, they were gradually refined by his devil energy.

On the golden lotuses, the illusory form of the Reincarnation Buddha appeared. He was frenziedly struggling and howling in anger, his facial features were contorting.

"No…!" He was filled with reluctance. He had already succeeded. How could the situation suddenly reverse?

In addition, the other buddhas weren't present. There was no one who could help him. If he waited until Qin Wentian completely regain control, his soul would surely be destroyed. In that case, he who was a buddha lord of the western paradise would be lost in oblivion forever. He wouldn't even have the qualifications to reincarnate. He had no way to accept such an ending.

Everything in the past was so perfectly arranged, how could the ending be like this?

Was it simply because he neglected that black dot? It was merely a speck of dust in Qin Wentian's soul yet it actually contained half of Qin Wentian's complete power. When he thought everything had concluded, Qin Wentian burst forth explosively. His fate was changed because of that single speck of dust. It was just a tiny mistake, yet it would cause him, a buddha lord of the western paradise to lose his life. The control of the Heaven Vault would return to Qin Wentian. In addition, the trajectory of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would also change!

"ARGH!" His soul was howling madly but everything was useless. It seemed like everything was already fated. After some time, Qin Wentian's eyes glowed with a terrifying black light. He glanced at the buddhist hall. After that, his body began to radiate a brilliant buddha light that was incomparably resplendent as he began to exit the hall.

Right now, he didn't have time to find trouble for the western paradise. He had to use his fastest speed and rush back to the Heaven Vault.

This debt could be accounted for in the future.

Stepping out, Qin Wentian directly left the buddhist hall. The buddhic light from him shone brilliantly. From afar, an ancient buddha saw Qin Wentian's figure and a faint smile appeared on his face. As expected of the Reincarnation Buddha being an ancient buddha lord. He managed to gain full control over Qin Wentian's body so quickly.

Many heavenly deities of the buddha dao sensed Qin Wentian but all of them had smiles on their faces, not minding him at all. It was like things should be like this originally. Under their observation, Qin Wentian's body radiated buddhic light as he exited the western paradise, leaving this holy grounds of the Buddhist Sect.

The moment he exited, Qin Wentian increased his speed, unleashing the terrifying speed of heavenly deities to the max. He moved an incomparably vast amount of distance with a single step. Spatial light flashed, aiding him as he sped through the air.

His goal was the boundless sea region.

At this moment. Qin Wentian's gaze was extremely cold. The Heaven Vault has already opened, in any case, it was impossible to close it now or his loved ones would be trapped inside. Things would be even more dangerous for them. Leaving the Heaven Vault open would still give them a chance to flee. Right now, he had no idea what was happening inside the Heaven Vault, he could only rush there as quickly as possible.

In the Heaven Vault, the battle still continued. Jun Mengchen was struggling with difficulty dealing with the Che Clan Leader's attacks. The Che Clan Leader wielded an extremely powerful divine weapon, invoking the dao with his finger attacks. Under the augmentation of his divine weapon, a million strands of sword light pierced into the planetary protection barrier of Jun Mengchen. This protection barrier was like an entire world but even so, it still cracked continuously under the attacks.

The dao of the world was an extremely powerful heavenly dao. If one cultivated it all the way to the end, they could achieve transcendence and create a true world, forming the world's systems and laws, allowing them to reach the pinnacle of the great dao. However, it was clear that Jun Mengchen was clearly not at that level yet. He only managed to have his current cultivation level due to the few hundred years of time he spent cultivating in the Heaven Vault and this was already very terrifying. Naturally, this wasn't only because of the Heaven Vault's environment and the ancient wills of heavenly deities coaching him. A large part of this was due to his own talent.

Once, the senior brother who recruited him into the Heavenly Talisman Realm said that he had an innate divine body and was destined to be extraordinary. There was no need for Jun Mengchen to work too hard in cultivation, he would still be able to directly comprehend world force and slowly grow stronger, transforming his comprehensions into the dao. From this, one could see how high his talent is.

However, his opponent right now was the Che Clan Leader, a peak character among heavenly deities, one of the leaders of the hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Also, he was wielding the Che Clan's supreme divine weapon. An ordinary deity would have died long ago. Seeing that Jun Mengchen was able to fight him for so long, this indicated that he received a transformation during these two hundred years. His strength has already exceeded the tier of ordinary deities.

When the million strands of sword intent landed on his protection barrier, Jun Mengchen's expression was cold. He could feel his planetary world crumbling bit by bit. The world force within churned frenziedly, as terrifying as the heavens and earth being split apart.

"Break!" Jun Mengchen coldly spoke. At this instant, the churning world force within erupted forth. The planetary world expanded rapidly, like its core has exploded. Boundless destructive light engulfed everything wanting shatter this sky. Upon sensing this supreme destructive might, the Che Clan Leader actually chose to retreat. How strong would the explosion of an entire world be? Even for him, he had to be wary of it. This was especially so given the fact that he actually linked Jun Mengchen with a legendary character after seeing his techniques.

The destructive power within the sword light was devoured cleanly. Jun Mengchen's body seemed to be buried within the boundless dust. This destructive explosion might was ignited by exploding the world's core, causing the planetary world to crumble. Both of them appeared in the boundless starry space, and the terrifying destructive might continued to extend outwards. This caused many heavenly deities who were battling from afar to turn their gazes over with looks of shock on their faces.

The Che Clan Leader actually failed to finish off Jun Mengchen?

Also, the aftershocks of their battles were so great, things didn't seem normal.

The destructive aftershock waves gradually dissipated, revealing Jun Mengchen's figure. His long hair fluttered in the wind and his robes were completely tattered. Yet even in such a sorry state, it had no way to mask the imposing arrogant aura of a king from him.

"Dao transformation." Jun Mengchen spoke. His voice was extremely calm. But as his voice rang out, the astral soul behind him shone brilliantly and a total of eight worlds appeared. Each of these worlds seemed to be an independent existence. At this moment, these eight worlds flew into his body, causing the world light radiating from him to grow more intense as his aura climbed higher and higher.

"Dao transformation? Are you already on that path?" The Che Clan Leader turned ashen. He discovered that the existence of the Heaven Vault didn't only constitute the threat of Qin Wentian threat alone. Within the Heaven Vault, there was still an existence like Jun Mengchen. Other than him, there were some other extraordinary heavenly deities. An example was that gigantic heaven devouring beast. If they remained alive, they were undoubtedly both a great threat.

His heart couldn’t help but curse silently. What sort of power exactly could give birth to such a bunch of monstrous characters?

Jun Mengchen’s body seemed to transform. After receiving the augmentation of the dao of the world, he transformed into the dao itself. His eyes glowed with divine light, like torrential thunder, instantly blasting out. The Che Clan Leader waved his hand as a golden screen appeared before him, blocking the attack. However, Jun Mengchen didn’t stop. He stepped forward and his momentum actually resembled a godking. In his eyes, the dao of the world manifested lightning, thunder, fire, water, all these elemental attacks blasted towards the golden screen, destroying it bit by bit.

“Could it be he just comprehended even more insights in the battle against me earlier?” The Che Clan Leader cursed. His opponent now grew even stronger and actually could take the initiative to attack him.

He was a peak character among deities but he didn’t expect it would be so troublesome for him to deal with this junior apprentice brother of Qin Wentian. They had still underestimated the strength of Heaven Vault’s experts after all. In the past, they thought they could sweep through everything with impunity, crushing everyone within.

The divine scepter in the Che Clan Leader’s hand changed again, forming a zone of divine light before him. The zone of light ignored all of Jun Mengchen’s attacks and didn’t even tremble. At the same time, he waved his hands and instantly, a powerful divine formation manifested in this space. Golden light engulfed everything. This boundlessly large divine formation was placed with Jun Mengchen at its center. The power of the formation was used to deal with Jun Mengchen.

The Che Clan was the number one artificer clan of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The power the Che Clan Leader was most proficient in was none other than this Heaven Refinement Divine Formation. It was able to refine anything in the world.

The divine light from the formation radiated forth, enveloping Jun Mengchen. Jun Mengchen’s eyes grew extremely cold. He was like a lofty godking, and exploded with immense might with every step, actually forcibly severing the strands of light that enveloped him. After that, he threw a punch towards the divine formation.

A thunderous boom rang out, the divine formation was directly penetrated. This terrifying punch seemed to contain the law energy of an entire world. The might within was simply terrifying.

“I want to see how strong you are exactly.” The Che Clan Leader waved his hand once more, the divine scepter transformed into boundless light, infusing the formation. In an instant, the divine formation was repaired, it grew even larger and radiated boundless light that drowned Jun Mengchen’s figure within, preparing to refine him, channeling Jun Mengchen’s strength into the divine scepter.

“Even if you are really transformed from a world, I will refine the entire world.” The Che Clan Leader’s voice was cold. He released his astral soul as the power of his dao poured into the divine formation. Countless runes gleamed with shocking light, engulfing Jun Mengchen as the temperature surged upwards. This was the true world refinement force, capable of refining everything in the world. Just like what the Che Clan Leader has said, even if Jun Mengchen was a world, he would also refine him!

Jun Mengchen felt his extremely tough skin being burned away. This world refinement force bore down on his body, wanting to melt him down to refine him!

Chapter 1981: Battlefield

Jun Mengchen’s gaze was extremely cold, containing the power of the dao. He could sense the refinement energy. A brilliant divine glow radiated from him, resisting the invasion of the refinement might. His body integrated with his dao, becoming extremely powerful.

Jun Mengchen shot a cold gaze over as a surge of power blasted out, instantly causing the divine formation to suffer destruction. Jun Mengchen’s body also moved. He punched out, this punch was like an emperor-king divine punch, capable of devastating the nine heavens. An explosive boom rang out, the divine formation trembled as cracks appeared. Although the power of a supreme divine weapon reinforced the formation, it still cracked under Jun Mengchen’s attack.

In the next moment, Jun Mengchen’s body transformed into lightning as he shot out, resisting the power of the divine formation. For a time, the powerful Che Clan Leader actually had no way to refine Jun Mengchen. Occasionally, there would be glances from the other deities cast here, causing all of them to feel extreme shock. As for those experts below the heavenly deity realm who entered the Heaven Vault, they could only sighed when they saw the deity-level battles in the air. The power of the Heaven Vault has actually already grown to such an extent, capable of withstanding an invasion from the various hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Although there were some powers who didn’t come, the majority of them showed up. It was a number that would cause people to feel despair.

They felt that most probably, only the western paradise would be able to resist an invasion by such powers. Who would have ever imagined that the Heaven Vault’s experts actually had enough combat strength to do so as well.

In another battlefield, the Thunder Clan Leader was fighting against Little Rascal. The supreme divine weapon, the Vastsky Divine Hammer slammed out again and again, wanting to destroy the starry space, causing the constellations to dim. However, Little Rascal was actually terrifyingly powerful regardless of attack or defense. His entire body contained the dao of devouring. Even a strand of his fur contained the power of his dao. When the attacks landed on his body, they would be automatically weakened and devoured.

Little Rascal was currently evolving into the ultimate form of heaven devouring beasts. He would be able to devour anything in the world, including the sun, the moon and the stars.

Other than this, Little Rascal still had a very powerful innate ability. After devouring the dao might of his opponents, he could actually refine them for his own use, transforming the dao might into an all-out destructive attack which he could unleashed back at them. It was extremely tough to deal with. Right now, he transformed into a giant astral beast with incredible mass yet this didn’t affect his agility at all. When you feel that it would be easy to hit such a large target, you would realize that his speed wasn’t affected at all. Not only so, even if the attack landed, each strand of his fur could transform into a vortex of devouring, absorbing the attacks. This was truly shocking.

Hence, at this moment, in the battlefield where the Thunder Clan Leader and Little Rascal were fighting, the scene there was extremely terrifying. The Thunder Clan Leader transformed into a giant god, standing in the starry space, radiating the light of thunder and lightning. It was like he himself was a constellation of thunder and lightning. A human and a demonic beast clashed repeatedly, their battlefield was surely the one with the greatest commotion.

Their battle also caused spectators to sigh in admiration. Qin Wentian's demonic beast was actually already able to contend against the Thunder Clan Leader. It has only been a few short years yet the Heaven Vault was so powerful to this extent. Even though Qin Wentian cultivated the dao of time and could change time flow, it shouldn't be possible for his demonic beast to grow so quickly.

Qin Kexin was fighting against Qin Zheng. Luoshen Chuan, the five demon sovereigns and Sword Monarch Jian Junlai were fighting against the other powerful deities from the hegemonic powers.

In another chaotic battlefield, Qing`er and Bai Qing caught several deities off guard and killed them. But in the battles after that, things were no longer so easy, their enemies were filled with vigilance and didn't dare to act carelessly. They slowly forced their way forward, wanting to surround the deities of the Heaven Vault. They no longer fought alone. This was especially so after they suffered the soul attack from Beiming Youhuang, they couldn't help but be cautious now, advancing forward slowly.

"We can isolate this entire space where that soul attack user is. Everyone, pick your opponents. We will fight them one on one after this space is isolated." At this moment, a heavenly deity from the Prison God Clan spoke. The deities all nodded. After that, numerous astral divine prisons appeared, enveloping this stretch of starry space, imprisoning everyone in it.

"Be careful, they are all banded together." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch spoke. They had to condense their formation by moving closer to each other and one of the divine prisons appeared, imprisoning them within. Qing`er's figure flashed. The spatial divine sword in her hand slashed out, arcing through space, slicing the divine prison apart. However, a golden screen of light manifested right away. Qing`er could have taken this chance to flee but it was impossible for her to leave everyone behind. A moment later, the divine prison was repaired, becoming even more sturdy than before.

"Let's finish her first." The Prison God Clan's deity stared at Beiming Youhuang. Although Beiming Youhuang didn't directly participated in the battles, her threat was undoubtedly the greatest. She was extremely effective in team attacks, and could influence her enemies. Even now, their bodies were still layered with frost as their souls trembled from the cold. They had to use the energy from their daos to resist the chill.

A terrifying venomous object fell from the sky, releasing miasma into this isolated and sealed space. Beiming Youhuang was able to freeze the souls of her opponents but the heavenly deities of the God Destruction Palace were proficient in poison arts. Now, Beiming Youhuang's group were like turtles caught in a jar. By using poison, he would be able to take all of them down in one shot.

"Prepare to break out." Nanfeng Yaoyue stated. Although they were facing a great crisis, her beautiful eyes were still as calm as ever. She radiated a sense of nobility and elegance. In Azure Mystic, she was a matriarch-level character. She calmly gave the command. Despite the situation, she was able to maintain a clear head and react according to the circumstances, while planning for future moves.

Now in this situation, it was evident that fighting together was no longer possible or they would all be caught in one fell swoop by their opponents and be completely annihilated.

Everyone nodded when they heard the Southern Phoenix Matriarch's command. They could only do their best and try to break the siege.

Those powerful heavenly deities on their side had their own opponents, they weren't able to help them. They were also trying to buy a chance for them. In any case, they still had some combat strength. However, things would only become worse if things continued on like this. In the Heaven Vault, there weren't only heavenly deities. There were still many other people with cultivation bases lower than the heavenly deity realm who were staying in the floating palaces in the nine heavenly layers. Their enemies would easily be able to destroy these people once they gained control of the Heaven Vault, hence, their enemies could afford to take things slow, choosing to focus on winning the battle against them first.

If the battle continued and they had no way to make their enemies retreat, they would fall into a passive position. The lives of the entire Heaven Vault would be in danger.

"Move out." The heavenly deities began to rush out in different directions. The eyes of the enemy deities flashed with cold killing intent. Although some of them died earlier, they still maintained an absolute advantage in terms of numbers.

Qing`er and the others began to flee in different directions. Qing`er opened up a path with her sword slashing out, causing many enemies to retreat. She transformed into a resplendent beam of light that shot out. A terrifying energy that could reap lives gushed forth while at the same time, Qi Yu who was behind her followed after her as well. With a roar of anger, words of battle filled the air as he supported Qing`er.

Qing`er was his Saint Lord's wife, he naturally would protect her first.

"Let them go for now." A heavenly deity spoke, actually preparing to release Qing`er and Qi Yu. They weren't in a hurry and could afford to deal with the Heaven Vault's heavenly deities one by one. In the end, none would escape their grasp.

When the various heavenly deities of the Heaven Vault rushed out in different directions, Beiming Youhuang's eyes were still closed. Her soul attacks intensified to her maximum output, causing all their enemies to shiver. She did this in an attempt to protect those who were escaping. But by doing so, she herself drew most of the attention. Numerous cold gazes were shot her way.

Earlier, she was already the person everyone wanted to kill the most. Now, they might as well take this chance to finish her.

“KILL!” A cold voice rang out. After that, in the airspace above Beiming Youhuang, resplendent spatial sharp swords slashed out, wanting to tear this space into pieces. Beiming Youhuang rapidly retreated, the surrounding space around her seemed to enter a state of stillness as her movements became slow.

“BOOM!” A spatial divine prison appeared, isolating Beiming Youhuang. After that, two heavenly deities appeared above the prison. These two were deities from the Prison God Clan. They clenched their fists as the spatial prison compressed rapidly, wanting to destroy Beiming Youhuang who was within.

“Youhuang!” Those people who were fleeing in different directions all paled when they saw this.

“Youhuang!” The Southern Phoenix Matriarch cried.

Qing`er didn’t say anything. Her body flashed as she reversed direction, flying towards Beiming Youhuang.

“Return.” The Southern Phoenix Matriarch spoke. Numerous figures turned back. Beiming Youhuang defended them with her soul attacks alone to give them the chance to flee. How could they abandon her here?

If they sacrificed Youhuang, given the relationship between her and Qin Wentian, how sad would Qin Wentian be?

“Block them.” A cold voice rang out. The various deities unleashed their dao arts to stop them. The two deities from the Prison God Clan were determined to kill Beiming Youhuang. What a pity given she is such a beauty, they could only act ruthlessly to destroy this flower. There was no choice, the threat she presented was too great.

Terrifying energy from dao might converged and bore down on Beiming Youhuang. Beiming Youhuang’s dao of frost was unable to break through the destructive energy. After that, she saw the two deities land before her, engaging her in close combat.

A spatial screen directly enveloped her, wanting to kill her. Beiming Youhuang lifted her head and stared at her attacker. Her black hair fluttered wildly in the wind. At this moment, her terrifying soul stop ability was completely targeted on one person. The party’s soul was completely in her control, the soul treasure pearl in her mind began to glow with a resplendent light.

“Kill.” Beiming Youhuang spoke in a bone-chilling voice. The soul of that expert directly stopped. All his movements halted as frost gathered on his body. But at this moment, the other heavenly deity grabbed this opportunity and blasted out a golden palm imprint. The spatial screen around Beiming Youhuang exploded into pieces in an instant. Piercing sounds rang out as Beiming Youhuang’s defense shattered. Her sleeves were torn as fresh blood splattered. She groaned in pain as a terrifying dao might gushed into her body, intent on taking her life.

“Youhuang.” Qing`er’s voice was cold. She brandished her sword and slashed out an open path, speeding forward, ignoring the attacks from the other deities. At this moment, Beiming Youhuang was covered in blood.

Her gaze seemed to transform into a world of ice and froze as she stared at the heavenly deity who attacked her. Her eyes of abyssal frost gleamed with a terrifying killing intent. In the next moment, the powerful soul of her attacker actually turned into frost, his body was frozen solid in midair as well!

Chapter 1982: Change of the Divine Mausoleum

In the Chaos Region, in the isolated place within the Suspended Sea.

At this moment, this world seemed to have undergone a great transformation. The eyes of everyone turned to the direction of the Divine Mausoleum.

Over there, a mirage seemed to appear. Numerous divine tombs reflected their projections up into the sky as a terrifying aura engulfed everything. Dark clouds covered the sky as a tempest brewed. The heavens and earth were howling with anger, like a scene from an apocalypse.

What’s even more terrifying is that within the tempest, one could faintly still see an incomparably gigantic figure. He stood in the center of the storm with many terrifying-looking heads around him that were madly devouring everything. It looked like the heads wanted to devour the tempest, wanting to absorb the power of the Divine Mausoleum.

At the boundary, another figure quietly stood there, allowing the tempest to rage on as he calmly watched everything that was happening. This person was none other than the tomb keeper.

The tomb keepers guarded the Divine Mausoleum, they were the people who understood the Divine Mausoleum the most. For the tomb keepers of this generation, they had once received a prophecy saying that great change would come to the Divine Mausoleum. And now, the prophecy seemed to have come true.

It was rumored that the Divine Mausoleum had buried a batch of extremely terrifying existences in ancient times, including godking existences. They all fell in a world-shaking battle and their burial grounds transformed into this Divine Mausoleum. They scattered their dao within the Divine Mausoleum and according to ancient legends, those supreme existences have not truly died yet. They were able to depend on their scattered dao to find a chance for revival, reappearing again in this world. Naturally, no one knew whether this was true or false. But the tomb keepers of the previous generations seemed to have understood some things, which was why they left behind a prophecy.

However, right now the change to the Divine Mausoleum seemed to be caused by that outsider. Yue Changkong cultivated terrifying evil arts and was now currently devouring the boundless energy within the Divine Mausoleum.

The tomb keepers didn’t interfere, they were bound by rules. The Divine Mausoleum would grant the tomb keepers some power but at the same time, the tomb keepers were also restricted. But there was one rule that everyone knew about. Before the tomb keeper of this generation found his replacement, he wasn’t permitted to leave this forbidden ground.

Hence, even now, the tomb keepers could only watch all these proceedings. They didn’t stop the evil cultivator from absorbing the energy within the Divine Mausoleum.

Other than the tomb keepers and that evil cultivator, there was another figure in the Divine Mausoleum. This figure was none other than Qin Dangtian, he stood in the midst of the tempest, his gaze was cold when he lifted his head and saw Yue Changkong who was frenziedly absorbing everything. The terrifying energy in the Divine Mausoleum would all end up belonging to Yue Changkong?

Qin Dangtian felt unwillingness in his heart. During these years in the Divine Mausoleum, he had great improvements and his cultivation had transformed. This evil cultivator Yue Changkong came much later, what qualifications does he have to seize all the energy in the Divine Mausoleum?

When he thought of this, Qin Dangtian stepped out, actually moving towards Yue Changkong. His astral soul shone brilliantly behind his back, the Absolute Beginnings Astral Soul released a blinding radiance as it transformed into his dao. Terrifying waves of dao might directly blasted towards Yue Changkong.

“Mhm?” Yue Changkong’s eyes gleamed with coldness as he glanced at Qin Dangtian. His gaze was filled with mockery and disdain. Qin Dangtian wanted to stop him?

No one would be able to stop him. He has already awakened. Naturally, he was still Yue Changkong but he has merged the memories of his two lives together. Once the energy in this Divine Mausoleum was completely devoured by him, he would be able to swiftly return to his peak state and save many years of cultivation time. Back then, his past self was buried here. It had really saved him a lot of trouble.

Yue Changkong stretched his palm out. A palm formed from black fog blotted out the sky and sun, appearing like a bottomless black hole of darkness. Numerous evil heads appeared within the darkness, devouring their way towards Qin Dangtian, wanting to consume him.

The dao of Absolute Beginnings madly transformed, a pure-white terrifying divine glow flashed, it was like a white-colored sharp sword, capable of slashing through all energy in the world. When this sword slashed into those evil heads, the devil-like heads directly transformed into black death qi before dissipating into the wind.

“Qin Dangtian, you dare to stop me?” Yue Changkong had an evil smile on his face. “Are you courting death? Do you believe that I will annihilate your Qin Clan and devour them all, using them as my nutrients?”

“Despicable evil cultivator, how can you achieve the great dao?” Qin Dangtian mocked. The evolution ability of his Absolute Beginnings Astral Soul was much more terrifying than before. Everywhere the blazing white-colored divine light passed by, the dark fog there would fade into nothingness.

“You have grossly overestimated yourself. No wonder you were defeated so badly at Qin Wentian’s hands.” Yue Changkong coldly laughed. More and more skeletons appeared, producing terrifying creaking sounds that actually influenced Qin Dangtian’s will. This caused Qin Wentian’s figure to appear in his mind. It was like the person in front of him now wasn’t Yue Changkong, but was Qin Wentian instead.

Qin Wentian was his heart devil. This negative emotion was ignited by Yue Changkong. Qin Dangtian had to face it head-on, there was no other way.

Yue Changkong had a dao art that enabled him to control all the negative energy and emotions in the world, influencing the hearts of people.

Qin Dangtian's eyes gleamed with a red light, his aura violently surged forth as countless thoughts of Qin Wentian filled his mind. That battle of humiliation back then and Nichang's betrayal. That year, Qin Wentian arrived in the Qin Clan. He, who was the chosen of the heavens, fell in an instant, becoming the butt of jokes in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. All this was caused by Qin Wentian's existence.

His heart devil transformed into numerous evil heads, all of them were Qin Wentians. They rushed towards him, causing Qin Dangtian to feel despair and pain. Qin Wentian was like an opponent of destiny which he was fated never to defeat.

"I didn't expect even after cultivating in the Divine Mausoleum for so many years, I still have no way to sever this heart devil." A voice rang out in Qin Dangtian's mind. He closed his eyes as the beautiful face of Goddess Nichang was gradually wiped away from his mind. He thought of another exceptionally beautiful woman. She was like a goddess of the nine heavens, high-up and untouchable. She was cold and aloof and had a shocking cultivation. This young woman he thought of was none other than Qin Kexin.

There were many outstanding females in the world, why must he be trapped inside his emotions for Nichang? Also, as for Qin Wentian, wasn't his goal to defeat him? Now, how could he allow himself to be controlled by his heart devil?

"Yue Changkong, this isn't my heart devil. This is your heart devil." Qin Dangtian coldly spoke. The Absolute Beginnings Astral Soul began to transform frenziedly, producing numerous devils. These devils took the form of Qin Wentian and rushed towards Yue Changkong.

"From what I know, ever since you met Qin Wentian, you became nothing but a joke to everyone in the world. You were defeated by him numerous times and have never gained even a single victory before. You want to kill him?" Qin Dangtian's voice contained a bewitching tone. Yue Changkong's eyes flashed as he suddenly smiled. "You actually want to use my dao against me? If it was in the past, I might have been affected. But the me now is no longer the past Yue Changkong."

From afar, the tomb keeper quietly stood there, listening to their words, watching their battle. The terrifying tempest in the Divine Mausoleum continued to intensify and swept towards them. Shocking rumbling sounds rang out, no one knew what the ending of this battle in the Divine Mausoleum would be.

However, the tomb keeper didn't care about the ending. He was more interested in their conversation as well as the person they were talking about.

Now, he only hoped that everything could end as soon as possible. By doing so, he would be able to accomplish his mission as the tomb keeper so he could leave here.

In truth, the current Divine Mausoleum could no longer restrict him and force him to remain here. However, he was willing to abide with the regulations. After all, he had received many things from the Divine Mausoleum before. A man should be true to his words.

“What an evil method.” He calmly watched the battle. He silently sighed when he noticed the techniques Yue Changkong was using. However, Qin Dangtian was also extraordinary, he depended on his powerful will and persisted in the battle.

At this moment, the tempest in the Divine Mausoleum was like an azure dragon seeking to devour everything. A pair of eyes appeared in the sky, staring at the two parties who were fighting each other.

Yue Changkong inclined his head and stared at the eyes, “Old friend, I’m here to visit you. Join me and we will rule the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms together. From then on, we will be unrivalled in the world.”

The pair of eyes gleamed with a demonic light. After that, the terrifying tempest exploded with pressure, the azure dragon descended, flying towards the location where Yue Changkong and Qin Dangtian were fighting at. Yue Changkong’s figure flashed as he rushed towards the tempest. It felt like the entire sky could be blocked by him. An incomparably terrifying head of evil began to devour the sky.

“BOOM!” A supreme destructive energy erupted forth. The azure dragon actually began to fight with Yue Changkong. Fearsome shockwaves radiated outwards. Qin Dangtian’s gaze was cold, he soared into the sky and rushed into their battle as he attacked Yue Changkong. He also wanted this power.

It was unknown when, when a beautiful middle-aged woman appeared beside the tomb keeper. She quietly stood there and watched the world-shocking battle. After a long time, Yue Changkong’s howl of rage rang out.

“It’s about to end.” The beautiful middle-aged woman spoke. The tomb keeper nodded his head. During the process of the battle, Yue Changkong was frenziedly absorbing the energy in the Divine Mausoleum. However, the energy in the Divine Mausoleum seemed that it would rather choose Qin Dangtian. Hence, Yue Changkong could only absorb a part of the energy.

The destructive tempest gradually weakened, like everything was about to be concluded. The tomb keeper held his wife’s hand, their figures flashed as they moved towards the small town. They stood in the air and spoke, “This forbidden ground shall now be opened. For those who are willing to go out, you all can leave with me.”

Numerous figures flashed, flying towards them. Some among them were the elderly. They quietly stood behind the couple and their cloudy eyes now shone with sharpness. Finally, they could leave this place and head to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?

In the Divine Mausoleum, large cracks appeared in the ground as though an earthquake of great magnitude had occurred. From afar, huge tsunami waves crashed over, wanting to destroy everything. Many people glanced in that direction. It’s rumored that the Divine Mausoleum was the supporting pillar that protected this world. Now that the Divine Mausoleum was going to disappear, would this world disappear with it as well?

What was the outside world like? Many people were silently pondering, filled with yearning. They stared at the tomb keeper. All of them flew forward and stood behind him and his wife, they were willing to follow him to see the external world out there!

“Let’s go.” The tomb keeper stepped out, flying forward. He didn’t turn his head back. It was like everything that was now happening in the Divine Mausoleum no longer has anything to do with him.

Chapter 1983: Despair

The Suspended Sea reversed its flow. The water surface seemed like a mirror. At this moment, a group of people walked out from there. There were two people in the lead and these two were none other than the tomb keepers of the Divine Mausoleum.

At the moment they came out, they inclined their heads and stared at the blue skies. They couldn't help but have a mesmerized look on their faces. It has been so many years, they finally exited. And now, their cultivations have reached a very high level as well.

During the years spent inside the Divine Mausoleum, the states of their hearts changed quite a lot. Their temperaments became milder than before but this didn't mean that they had forgotten what happened in the past.

"Uncle Black." The tomb keeper called out. Behind him, an old man walked over. At this moment, although the old man looked very calm, he was actually suppressing the pounding of his heart. They had exited, ever since their master led them into the forbidden ground the Divine Mausoleum, their master became the tomb keeper and his cultivation continued to grow stronger. His cultivation of two lifetimes fused together, and given the excellent cultivating conditions of the Divine Mausoleum, he understood his master was much stronger compared to before.

"It has been hard on you through these years." The tomb keeper spoke.

"Master, this is something I ought to do originally. Young master has inherited master's talent, he would surely not disappoint master."

The middle-aged man revealed a smile on his face. On his sharply contoured face, one could tell that he must be really good looking when he was younger.

"Naturally, I already know roughly how he is now from the conversation between those two in the Divine Mausoleum."

Upon thinking of the two of them, Uncle Black frowned as he spoke, "That young man is clearly a descendant of the Qin Clan. Given Master's current cultivation, the Divine Mausoleum wouldn't be able to restrict you. Why did master allow him to stay in the Divine Mausoleum?"

The middle-aged man glanced at Uncle Black before he calmly spoke, "That young man should be his son. Since that's the case, even if the rules of the Divine Mausoleum didn't restrict me, I wouldn't do anything to him either. He can return after his cultivation base grows stronger. At that time, I will personally pay a visit to the Qin Clan."

Uncle Black's gaze flashed. He then nodded. This was his master's personality, he could even allow the son of his enemy to grow stronger.

The people of the world could finally see everything, they could see what sort of character his master had. All the debts from back then would be concluded, transformed into dust.

When he thought of this, excitement involuntarily filled his heart. Currently, how strong has that little brat grown to? He was truly filled with anticipation.

At this moment, the middle-aged man took out his messaging crystal and softly spoke, "Now that we are out, there are no longer restrictions due to the forbidden ground. The voice transmission crystals can work again."

The Divine Mausoleum was a special place that could block out divine sense. With such a powerful barrier, it caused Qin Zheng to be unable to contact Qin Dangtian. The middle-aged man also had no way to contact his daughter. But now since he has left the Divine Mausoleum, the crystals worked again.

"Kexin." He sent a strand of divine sense into his messaging crystal.

At this moment, Qin Kexin was currently battling Qin Zheng in the Heaven Vault. When she heard the voice in her mind, a bright light gleamed in her eyes. After that, she didn't say anything and simply took out her messaging crystal, making it float in the air as light radiated from it, capturing all the scenes here to be transmitted to the middle-aged man's mind via divine sense. Such transmission could cross countless distances, it was like he could personally see the deity-level battles in the Heaven Vault. Naturally, he also saw Qin Kexin's current opponent.

"Qin Zheng." The tomb keeper coldly spoke. How dramatic. Kexin was actually fighting against Qin Zheng. The middle-aged man then shifted his attention to the other battlefields, wanting to find the figure of someone. However, he didn't manage to find it. He only saw several deities fighting inside here.

This place seemed to be the interior of the Heaven Vault. In the starry space, the nine heavenly layers could be seen.

"Child." The tomb keeper clenched his fist. He knew that if someone could open the Heaven Vault, that person would be none other than 'him.' It was the only possibility.

In that case, the divine battle must have occurred because of 'him' as well.

At this moment, a voice rang out in his mind. This voice belonged to Qin Kexin, she was telling him the reason for this deity-level battle as well as those who participated in it. When he heard this, the calm aura from the tomb keeper disappeared completely as a shocking might radiated forth from him. Those people around him felt their hearts clenching at the pressure.

The eyes of the beautiful middle-aged woman beside him turned towards him as she asked softly, “What happened?”

“Look at this.” He transmitted the scenes in his mind to the woman via his divine sense. Very soon, she also saw everything. Great waves of shock arose in her heart as she lost her calm as well. She also saw an extremely familiar figure. That figure was none other than her father. To think that he was also actually there, participating in the deity-level battle.

“Some of them are injured.” She softly spoke, feeling somewhat worried. Although she didn’t know who the majority of these people were, they most probably had a connection with her son.

“I will head over there now.” The tomb keeper stood in the air. His eyes suddenly closed as a fearsome energy radiated from him. In this instant, in the air, resplendent astral light actually cascaded down, bathing him in it.

At this moment, there were indeed people who were already injured in the deity-level battle.

After Beiming Youhuang killed the two heavenly deities, she suffered heavy injuries. Even her soul was enduring a backlash, those heavenly deities surrounding her counterattacked madly.

Qing`er and the others went to protect her, they stayed around Beiming Youhuang to guard her from attacks. The white-haired killing goddess killed her way into the throng of heavenly deities and everywhere her divine sword slashed by, no one dared to contend against her. But as Beiming Youhuang’s soul attacks weakened, the heavenly deities from the various hegemonic powers could finally give it their all and concentrate on the battle. They were no longer so easily dealt with. Dao might from the various dao arts descended, causing Qing`er and the others to feel great pressure.

Qi Yu of the Battle Saint Tribe fought frenziedly, he was like a single man intent on holding a pass against a thousand, protecting everyone. This was a responsibility he had to take on. But it was precisely because he flew all the way to the front and fought so crazily that he was so seriously injured. Bloody wounds covered his body, revealing the whiteness of his bones. This scene was a shocking sight but the battle intent radiating from him was shocking to the extreme. Experts of the Battle Saint Tribe would fight all the way to the end, their battle intent would never diminish until they die.

Bai Qing was also one of the most seriously injured one. She fought too crazily as well, transforming her body into a sea of blood, ignoring injuries to herself as she killed their enemies. She didn’t seem to fear death at all. Such craziness naturally resulted in her suffering heavy injuries.

“Gradually, even her blood seemed to have almost dried out. But even so, her gaze was as cold as ever, shining with blood-colored light. She was screaming her heart, “Wentian gege, where are you? Are you okay?”

“AHHH!” A roar suddenly rang out, this roar belonged to Qi Yu. An enemy’s dao heart slammed into his chest, tearing it apart. There was now a cavity in his chest area as blood flowed out profusely. He inclined his head and stared at the sky, “Saint Lord, I’ve tried my best.”

The heavenly deities of the Heaven Vault were completely surrounded. Storms of destruction raged all around them, like their day of apocalypse has finally arrived. Many of them felt despair, the other experts on their sides were tangled up, they had no way to help them. There were still so many people here below the deity realm that needed their protection but they were hard-pressed to even defend themselves. How could they not feel despair?

Was the Heaven Vault really going to be destroyed?

That legendary young man, did he really no longer have a way to return?

The destructive storms continued raging, the dao arts were unleashed again and again. The eyes of the attacking heavenly deities were filled with coldness and bloodthirst. During this bout of battle, they lost another two deities again. Despite their overwhelming superiority in terms of numbers, several of their own actually fell here. How shameful was this? Luckily, things were about to end. The Heaven Vault’s deities gradually lost their combat strength but even so, they couldn’t afford to be careless. There were quite a few lunatics among that group from the Heaven Vault.

“Qin Wentian you bastard. This monk hasn’t lived enough yet.” Monk Bujie cursed at the air. Although he was someone from the Askheart Temple that has converted to the devil path, his personality was still the same, lecherous and shameless. But at this moment, the devil intent from him was fading rapidly, he was completely covered in blood. Clearly, he was like an arrow at the end of its flight.

At this moment, Qin Wentian who was exceedingly faraway seemed to have sensed something. He suddenly felt intense pain in his heart as a strong sense of unease welled up. He wasn’t even so frightened when he was imprisoned by the western paradise. But right now, he truly felt terror.

The Heaven Vault has opened, and much time has passed since the experts from the hegemonic powers killed their way in. What was the situation within like?

He didn’t dare to imagine it. Although his speed was already extremely fast, the distance between the western paradise and the Heaven Vault was simply too far. He still needed some time. He might not make it in time, this was why he felt fear.

But even so, he unleashed his speed to the fullest and let out a beast-like howl. He madly burned his energy as he sped towards the Heaven Region. The fear in his heart grew stronger and stronger.

“Wentian.” All of a sudden, a voice rang out in his mind. Qin Wentian’s body trembled violently. Although his messaging crystal was destroyed by the western paradise, he was still able to receive the messages from Qing`er and the others. His divine sense was recorded in their messaging crystals and this voice in his mind was none other than Qing`er’s.

“Qing`er.” Qin Wentian clenched his fists, the terror in his heart grew even stronger when he heard her voice.

“I love you.” A soft voice rang out, filled with so much tenderness and love. There was no trace of coldness, only warmth.

“AHHHHHHHHH, wait for me!” Qin Wentian let out a long howl as he madly sped over. However, he grew increasingly fearful that he wouldn’t make it in time.

“Wentian…” Another voice rang out, sounding extremely weak. This time, this voice didn’t belong to Qing`er.

“Youhuang!” Qin Wentian felt pain in his heart. They sent him messages one after another at this moment. Could it be that they were at the end of their ropes?

“I like you…” Her words caused Qin Wentian’s heart to pound violently. He roared in rage, “I KNOW, I KNOW!”

He felt hatred in his heart. He hated himself, he clearly knew Youhuang’s feelings about him but he has never taken the initiative although he felt the same way. He hated himself for being useless.

Despair festered in his heart. Although he wasn’t present, he could imagine what sort of situation his loved ones in the Heaven Vault were facing. If they weren’t in desperate straits, how would Qing`er and Youhuang say those things? Even for Qing`er, she has never stated it verbally before!

Chapter 1984: Dominating Everyone

Qin Wentian's heart was filled with despair. The people in the Heaven Vault were also filled with despair. Just like what Qin Wentian was thinking about, Qing`er, Beiming Youhuang and the others were truly in desperate straits. This was why they took out their messaging crystals and bid farewell to him. Those tender words were equal to their final farewell.

Upon seeing the barrage of dao art attacks launched at them, Qi Yu, Bujie and the others gathered their energy to create a heavenly dao light barrier to block it. However, the barrier clearly wouldn't be able to last for too long. The eyes of the enemy heavenly deities surrounding them flashed with cold killing intent. Although there were many beautiful deities in there, they didn't mind destroying the flowers. These heavenly deities of the Heaven Vault were simply too dangerous and have already killed quite a few of them.

"Kacha." Destructive thunderous might slammed down, wanting to blast through the weakening defense. Light from the dao might continued boring down, causing cracks to appear on the barrier. The numerous words for 'battle' which formed a large part of the light barrier were being destroyed extremely quickly. Qi Yu howled in rage, he expanded in form and flew out, trying to defend the barrier but the unceasing attacks tore into his body, causing fresh blood to flow relentlessly.

"Things have concluded." The heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan roared. Everything was concluded indeed. Qin Wentian was finished off by the western paradise, the Heaven Vault would fall under their control. The curtains on the legendary era that belonged to Qin Wentian was already closed. He wasn't able to become the person that could decide the situation of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Qing`er and the others felt despair but they didn't feel fear. They all used their last remnants of energy for defense and at the same time, they made preparations to counter attack. Even if they had to die, they would still try to take down as many enemy heavenly deities as possible.

"Wentian gege." Bai Qing lifted her head and looked up at the sky. Her blood-colored eyes flashed with a mournful light. Wentian gege has experienced so much but wasn't he able to climb all the way to the peak? She felt an unwillingness to accept this for him.

And at this moment, she saw that up in the air, from the nine heavenly layers, a resplendent beam of astral light suddenly bore down. This incomparably resplendent astral light enveloped the entire battlefield, causing all the heavenly deities to involuntarily incline their heads and stare upwards. This situation seemed extremely strange and unusual.

"Halt." A low-sounding voice rang throughout the heavens and earth, it was like a hammer that slammed into the hearts of everyone. This voice originated from the sky, causing the hearts of everyone to tremble as they looked upwards.

In the Heaven Vault, above the constellations of the nine heavenly layers, could there be an extremely powerful character who has yet to appear?

At this moment, an illusory figure bathed in astral light appeared. He descended from the nine heavenly layers, a path formed from starlight appeared before him but his figure was extremely blurry and no one could see his features clearly. They could only see the general outlines of his face but even so, they could still feel the might radiating from him.

“Mhm?” Some of the peak heavenly deities frowned. This illusory figure wasn’t a true person. There was no fluctuations of life from him. It felt like a body the dao of an expert transformed into.

This resembled the method used by the Grim Reaper back then. His true self didn’t appear but the scenes of dark clouds appeared both outside the Heaven Vault and the western paradise simultaneously. How was this accomplished? Why was the Grim Reaper able to appear in two places that were so far away at the same time?

Many of the heavenly deities who were still fighting paused their battle. Qing`er and the others persisted bitterly from earlier. The appearance of this figure gave them a moment of respite. They glanced upwards in confusion, could it be that someone came to their aid?

“Continue to kill.” A heavenly deity from the Thunder Clan spoke out. He knew that they couldn’t afford to wait anymore, no one knew if there would be any more changes.

The gaze of the illusory figure in the air turned over, gleaming with coldness. After that, a terrifying devil might descended, blotting out the sky. It transformed into a heavenly devil palm imprint that smacked towards the Thunder Clan’s deity who spoke.

A stifling pressure bore down on that deity from the Thunder Clan, when he sensed the power of this palm, a resplendent light shot out from his eyes, transforming into thunder and lightning which formed a giant palm that blasted towards the heavenly devil palm, choosing to clash head-on. A deafening sound rang out, the gigantic thunder palm directly exploded, the devil palm continued forward, slamming into the Thunder Clan’s deity. Another explosive boom rang out as waves of destruction flooded the area.

That heavenly deity screamed, as he died, his body was split into six parts from the impact. This scene caused the hearts of the surrounding heavenly deities to tremble violently.

A single smack crushed a heavenly deity. Complete and utter dominance.

“Children, everything is fine now.” That illusory figure spoke to Qing`er and the others, his tone was filled with warmth and the doting love of an elder. This caused Qing`er and the others to be puzzled as strange looks appeared on their faces when they stared up at the illusory figure in the air. Who was this person?

Why did he refer to them as children?

Could this be an elder of Wentian?

But no matter who he was, hope once again reignited in their hearts. If they could really survive, it would naturally be for the best.

Those heavenly deities surrounding Qing`er and the others started to hesitate, no longer daring to act casually. They were only one step away from ending this battle but a supreme character suddenly appeared, destroying a deity with a single smack. Who among them would still dare to act recklessly?

“Who are you?” The Thunder Clan Leader flew away from the battlefield where he was fighting Little Rascal. His form was still as large as ever, like a god of thunder. He stared at the illusory figure in the air as he roared.

“All invaders are to clear out from the Heaven Vault this instant.” The illusory figure coldly spoke, his words like a command, filled with unquestionable authority.

“Arrogant. You didn’t even come here with your true body. How dare you speak such big words.” The Thunder Clan Leader icily replied. The hegemonic powers gathered and launched the attack and now, they were already one last step away before capturing the Heaven Vault, how could they be willing to retreat?

“Boom!” The illusory figure stepped out, causing the sky to tremble. He lifted his palm and directly slammed it towards the Thunder Clan Leader. This palm imprint seemed to cover the sky, it was incomparably gigantic, locking the Thunder Clan Leader down.

The Thunder Clan Leader roared in anger. He wasn’t able to take down a demonic beast despite fighting it for so long and now, even more troubles had appeared. The flames of his rage burned in his heart, he lifted his divine hammer and summoned lightning and thunder from the nine heavens that blasted towards the giant palm imprint. Space itself was on the verge of shattering. This terrifying might could shake the heavens and earth.

The devil palm imprint contained shocking power, it slammed into the divine hammer and actually split off into six smaller palms which transformed into six terrifying vortexes. The vortexes emitted a fearsome devouring might, wanting to draw the Thunder Clan Leader into them.

“What type of power is this?” The expression of the Thunder Clan Leader drastically changed. Despite his large body, he was drawn towards the vortexes, they were intent on burying him within.

He let out a howl of rage and waved his divine hammer wildly. Desolate divine lightning shot out from his eyes, blasting towards the six vortexes. Each of them seemed to contain a different dao. There was the dao of devouring, the dao of dimension and even the dao of reincarnation. This was terrifying to the extreme.

“Force of the six paths?!” Many peak heavenly deities felt the pressure here as their hearts pounded violently. They stared at the illusory figure, who was this person exactly, how could he be so strong?

The Thunder Clan Leader attacked frenziedly and finally managed to extricate himself from one of the paths. He glanced upwards as a strong wariness appeared in his eyes.

“Who are you exactly?” The Thunder Clan Leader asked. When has such a powerful character appeared in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms before?

At this moment, a figure flashed by. This figure was exceptionally beautiful and was none other than Qin Kexin. She stared in the air and called out, “Father!”

Father?

The eyes of everyone flashed, finally knowing the identity of this person. So it turns out that this person was the tomb keeper of the Divine Mausoleum.

Earlier, Qin Kexin said that there was someone in the Divine Mausoleum that has a connection with Qin Wentian. This was why she told the western paradise to treat Qin Wentian better. Could it be that the person she was talking about was her father?

In that case, this exceptionally beautiful young woman herself also had a connection with Qin Wentian?

How did Qin Wentian accomplish this exactly? Why did experts from everywhere have a connection with him?

Now, another super strong expert appeared. The western paradise has now already finished off Qin Wentian. Doesn’t this mean that this mysterious figure would fight against the western paradise as well?

“Sir, the idea of taking over the Heaven Vault is the intent of the western paradise.” One of the heavenly deities spoke. The illusory figure swept his gaze at the person who spoke. Although the eyes of the illusory figure couldn’t be seen, everyone could feel how sharp they were.

“Scram!” A loud roar rang out, causing the starry space to tremble. The hearts of everyone shuddered at the same time, there seemed to be a tyrannical devilish might contained within the voice.

The faces of the heavenly deities from the various hegemonic powers turned ashen. Did they really have to retreat just like that?

“BOOM!” Seeing that no one reacted, a world-destroying devil dao might blasted out from the sky. This terrifying pressure enveloped everyone, some of the heavenly deities here even felt that they have lost their strength. As heavenly deities, they originally should already be characters that stood at the highest level. However, when they stood before a truly supreme character, they felt so much fear that they couldn’t even muster their wills to do battle.

In addition, this illusory figure wasn’t this expert’s true self. It was merely a body formed from the dao. This person might not even be in the Heaven Region but was in some place that was extremely faraway. Even so, he already possessed such overwhelming might. Such a level of power was something they didn’t dare to imagine. At the very least, ordinary deities would never be able to achieve it. In fact, even peak deities of the hegemonic powers wouldn’t be able to achieve this.

The hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms joined forces but they weren’t even able to take over a single Heaven Vault even without Qin Wentian being present?

“I hope you can endure the anger of the western paradise.” The Thunder Clan leader coldly spoke. After that, he turned around and flew away. The expressions of the other deities here grew even more unsightly. Their endeavor actually ended up in failure?

“Dang`er, how are you?” After knowing that this mysterious figure came from the Divine Mausoleum, Qin Zheng’s wife instantly thought about her son. Did the appearance of the Divine Mausoleum’s tomb keeper indicate something?

At this moment, she basically didn’t think who the illusory figure was. She would also never have guessed that this immensely powerful character was someone that once had a connection with her as well.

Since she didn’t think of it, Qin Zheng naturally wasn’t able to think of this too. The battle today still resulted in failure to take over the Heaven Vault. Seems like they could only leave this to the western paradise. Seeing that there was such a powerful character protecting Qin Wentian, the western paradise most probably has to finally display their true power!

Chapter 1985: Arrival

In the world-destroying battlefield of Ancient Azure Mystic, the atmosphere that was always shrouded by gloomy dark clouds was actually different right now. Currently, golden buddhic light flashed in the sky, replacing the dark gloomy clouds.

Under the pure and holy golden light, faint buddha statues could be seen. There seemed to be countless ancient buddhas present. But in reality, all of these were just illusions.

Directly opposite to the buddhic light, a terrifying death aura was present, clashing in opposition against the holy buddhic light.

"Everything will end soon. Since Azure Mystic is already destroyed, why must you persist? When the light from my Pureland of Bliss illuminates the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and when all living things in the world only have a single faith, there would be no more slaughter." A voice rang out from within the buddhic light, the tone of this voice was extremely calm as he spoke the words with such arrogance.

"If you are skilled in premonition, you wouldn't have failed so badly back then. Once, you failed to rule Ancient Azure Mystic. You shall fail this time around as well. This is your destiny." The Grim Reaper coldly replied as death qi churned.

"Are you still dreaming your foolish fantasies? This is fate, everything will be concluded soon." The holy light flickered, the voice within it was filled with immense confidence.

"Some people were born to fight fate. Let's just wait and see." The Grim Reaper spoke. The buddhic light and death qi still clashed with each other. It was like this was an eternal state of things and has been so since a long time ago.

"Mhm?" At this moment, an exclamation of surprise rang out from the voice within the buddhic light. Amidst the golden light, an illusory scene appeared. It was the scene within the Heaven Vault.

"Who is he?" The buddha asked.

"A person who fights fate." The Grim Reaper calmly replied. "You failed yet again."

"Is it a failure though?" The buddha shook his head. "The person you are waiting for has already disappeared completely in the western paradise."

“You are as self-confident as ever. But now, where is your true body? You shouldn’t have made a full recovery yet, right? If not, you would surely dare to show your face.” The Grim Reaper coldly asked.

“You will see my true body not long after this.” As the sound of his voice faded, the boundless golden light dissipated. The holy light in the air completely vanished in an extremely short period of time. Ancient Azure Mystic was surrounded by the gloom and darkness once more. Deathly silence was everywhere, there were no other living things here at all.

In the Heaven Vault, all the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms retreated. The people from the Heaven Vault felt joy like finding a new lease on life after the calamity. No one expected that at the critical moment, a powerful existence would come down from the nine heavens to dominate all their enemies.

Many people glanced over at him. Qi Yu bowed, “Many thanks senior for helping us out.”

“No need for thanks.” The illusory figure waved his hand. “Where is Wentian?”

The eyes of everyone flashed, indeed this man was acquainted with Qin Wentian.

In that case, the reason of why he helped should also be because of Qin Wentian. In addition he directly called out ‘Wentian.’ It seems that their relationship wasn’t ordinary.

“The saint lord is being imprisoned in the western paradise. Right now he might be in trouble or he wouldn’t have opened the Heaven Vault.” Qi Yu’s face was filled with worry. When he thought about Qin Wentian’s situation he couldn’t help but feel uneasy. Nothing must happen to the saint lord.

“I will arrive shortly.” The illusory figure spoke. After that, his body vanished. After all, this wasn’t his true body, it was something incarnated from his dao. This was why he released the heavenly deities from the hegemonic powers. If not, those people might go crazy. This debt could always be accounted for in the future.

As the illusory figure among the stars vanished, everyone was speculating who he was exactly.

They didn’t know that Qin Wentian was acquainted with such a powerful character. Clearly, the illusory figure earlier wasn’t the Grim Reaper.

Many people turned their gazes to Qin Kexin. Over here, most probably only Qin Kexin was able to solve this riddle. However, Qin Kexin didn’t seem to have any intentions of explaining. She calmly stood there and after that, she flew towards a certain direction. Her personality was more proud and aloof but her strength was truly very powerful, able to delay the Qin Clan Leader Qin Zheng. From this, one could see how terrifying she was.

Her personality was like this naturally because of the environment she grew up in. Ever since she was young, she lived in the sealed off Divine Mausoleum. The people there weren’t plenty in number and they weren’t really talkative. Things were very quiet which further nurtured such a personality in her.

“Many thanks.” Jun Mengchen turned his gaze to Qin Kexin who was faraway as he clasped his hands to convey his gratitude.

He felt a lingering fear, if something had really happened to Qing`er and Youhuang, how should he answer to his senior brother?

Luckily, everything has ended now. Right now, he could only pray that his senior brother was fine. Jun Mengchen vowed that he would surely take revenge for everything that happened today.

Numerous figures flashed, flying over as they gathered. Qing`er, Youhuang, Bai Qing, Qi Yu and the others all had injuries on their bodies but at this moment, they didn’t really care about those injuries. They were waiting, waiting for the mysterious expert to come by again. If something really happened to Qin Wentian, that mysterious expert might bring them to the western paradise and aid them to kill their way in. Other than that mysterious expert, most probably no one in the world would be able to do so.

Mo Qingcheng, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Darknorth Immortal Emperor and the others who weren’t strong enough to fight, came down from the starry space. In the battle earlier, they could only watch while worry and anxiousness festered in their hearts. Many people saw the dire straits Qing`er and Beiming Youhuang were in. They felt despair and tears of agony flow down their faces, hating themselves for being helpless, unable to participate in the battle. With their cultivation bases, if they participated, they would only be a burden. Hence, they could only hide in the starry space. This was a truly agonizing thing for them to do.

Luckily, everything was fine now. Although there were injuries, their loved ones were still alive.

“Elder sis Qing`er, Youhuang.” Mo Qingcheng softly spoke. She walked over to Qing`er and Youhuang, pulling on their hands. Earlier, she truly felt extremely unbearable when she saw the battles. She could only silently curse at herself for being useless.

“It’s fine.” Qing`er smiled at Mo Qingcheng, as though trying to console her. They interacted all day and their relationship was as close as real sisters. When she saw the expression on Qingcheng’s face, she knew what Qingcheng was thinking about.

Their hands held each other tighter. Mo Qingcheng glanced at the faces here, she who has been holding back her tears, trying to be strong, finally couldn’t control her emotions anymore as tears flowed down her face. Everyone in the Heaven Vault had deep emotions for each other. Everyone was willing to die together, not willing to forsake anyone.

They fought side by side, when encountering danger, those who had already fled, came back to reinforce the ones being attacked. Everyone was protecting each other. Such emotions caused currents of warmth to appear in their hearts.

The gigantic heavenly devouring beast transformed back into the adorable Little Rascal. He flew over and jumped into Qingcheng’s embrace.

“Qing`er, Youhuang, Bai Qing. All of you are very brave.” Little Rascal softly spoke, he looked so adorable, completely unlike the giant beast who radiated towering amounts of baleful qi.

“You too. Good job.” Mo Qingcheng patted him on his head, feeling very moved. Everyone was using their lives to protect them, willing to go all out for the sake of the battle.

“Let’s take care of our injuries first.” Nanfeng Yaoyue spoke. Everyone nodded lightly. They simply sat down on the ground and focused on their recovery. The star light cascaded down onto numerous beautiful figures. The atmosphere here was now peaceful and tranquil.

But just earlier, this peaceful starry space was the battleground of an intense battle.

All of them seemed to have passed, the original calm was finally restored.

And right now at a very far away place, another person was frenziedly rushing over, in the midst of the journey from the western world to the Heaven Region.

Other than him, in the Chaos Region, there was also a group of people rushing towards the Heaven Region. Given their speed, it seemed they would arrive slightly earlier.

There were still many experts in the Boundless Sea Region. They saw the hegemonic powers retreating, not stopping at all as they rushed out of the Heaven Vault like they were terrified of something. Not long after, everyone then learned that when the hegemonic powers attacked the Heaven Vault, they encountered strong resistance. The experts in the Heaven Vault have already grown to become immensely powerful.

After that, another supreme expert on the same level as the Grim Reaper appeared, incarnating a body from his dao, dominating all experts from the hegemonic powers before telling them to scram.

That expert’s true body might rush to the Heaven Vault hence the hegemonic powers didn’t hesitate to flee. Naturally, they reported this to the western paradise. Only the western paradise was strong enough to deal with such a heaven-defying character.

Time slowly flowed on.

Finally, the group of people from the Chaos Region arrived at the Boundless Sea Region, at the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. The man in the lead had shoulder-length hair, he turned his gaze towards the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect as a look of gratification could be seen in his eyes. After that, he continued and entered the divine Sect.

Within the Heaven Vault, Qin Kexin seemed to have sensed something. Her figure flashed as she flew into the air and gazed at a direction.

The others here saw Qin Kexin's movements. Many of those who were seated stood up as they glanced over in the direction where she was looking at.

Very soon, a group of figures appeared in the vision of everyone. This group of people was currently flying towards the Heaven Vault.

There were two people in the lead, a man and a woman. The man exuded no aura at all yet everyone could feel that he was extraordinary. Everyone instantly recognized that this middle-aged man was none other than the illusory figure incarnate from the dao who helped them earlier.

As for that woman, she was very beautiful. There were many beauties in the Heaven Vault but this middle-aged woman wasn't inferior in terms of beauty when compared to any of them.

"RUMBLE!" Within the Heaven Vault, when Luoshen Chuan saw clearly who these people were, his body involuntarily trembled violently. Although he was a heavenly deity, he actually couldn't control the involuntary movements of his body.

A bright light flashed in the eyes of Luoshen Lei who was beside him. This woman was so familiar, like she knew her.

After that, she saw the body of her grandpa trembling. In the next instant, the light in her eyes brightened. She seemed to have thought of something.

That's right. Other than her, who else could there be?

She should have already guessed it earlier, but she didn't dare to make the assumption.

The beautiful eyes of Mo Qingchen and Qing`er also flashed with a bright light because they also saw someone familiar within the group of people flying over.

"Uncle Black…" Mo Qingcheng called out in a low voice, it was like she didn't believe what she was seeing. To think that she would actually see Uncle Black here.

Finally the group of figures arrived here.

When Uncle Black saw Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er, a kind smile appeared on his face. He turned to the man and woman in the lead and spoke. “Master, this young woman is Qingcheng, she is Wentian’s wife. This is Qing`er, she is also Wentian’s wife and has always been protecting him ever since the particle world, staying at his side as he grew stronger.”

The middle-aged man turned his gaze to Qingcheng and Qing`er. His solemn expression relaxed as a gentle smile appeared. He softly spoke, “Children, it has been tough on you two.”

Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er stared at the middle-aged man in the lead. They seemed to have guessed something. Their hearts pounded violently as they actually felt nervous, extremely nervous. This feeling was very strange, it was something they had never felt so intensely before!

Chapter 1986: Reunion

The beautiful middle-aged woman also smiled, as she looked at them with tenderness in her eyes.

Not long after, she shifted her gaze away, turning to Luoshen Chuan as she called out, “Father.”

As the voice of the beautiful middle-aged woman rang out, everyone felt their hearts trembling. At this moment, how could they still not know of her identity?

What relationship did Luoshen Chuan have with Qin Wentian? He was Qin Wentian’s grandfather. And as for this woman, she referred to Luoshen Chuan as ‘father,’ in that case, was there still any need to guess her identity?

The beautiful middle-aged woman was none other than Qin Wentian’s mother. As for that middle-aged man, there was no doubt that he is Qin Wentian’s father.

Qin Yuanfeng, a person whose name once shook the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the so-called traitor of the Qin Clan.

Now, he has returned. He borrowed the dao of the starry space, getting the experts from the hegemonic powers to scram with a single sentence, intimidating and dominating all of them.

“The Saint Lord’s parents.” Qi Yu’s eyes gleamed sharply.

“Senior brother!” Jun Mengchen called out silently in his heart. His senior brother’s parents came by. If his senior brother was to know about this, he would surely be very happy, right?

Little Rascal blinked his eyes, his adorable eyes flashed with curiosity as he stared at the people before him. So, these two were Wentian’s parents?

Luoshen Chuan’s aged eyes were slightly wet around the rims. He walked over and stared at his daughter, Luoshen Qianxue.

“Lass, why did you leave without saying a single thing? Since you are still alive, why didn’t you come back despite so many years having passed.” Luoshen Chuan’s voice trembled. Luoshen Qianxue sighed, how could she not have wanted to return? When they returned to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms again during her husband’s second life, they had to act with absolute secrecy and hide things from everyone. If she returned to the Luoshen Clan and news about this was leaked to the Qin Clan, would the Qin Clan have spared them?

Hence, after they returned to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms from the particle world, they directly barged into the suspended sea and entered the secret realm that was the Divine Mausoleum, living in complete isolation from everyone. For the sake of gaining strength, her husband Qin Yuefeng was willing to become the tomb keeper of the next generation, he made a vow to the Divine Mausoleum.

Up until now, they only had a chance to leave after the great change to the Divine Mausoleum occured.

How could she and Qin Yuanfeng not want to come back after so many years?

“Father-in-law.” Qin Yuanfeng greeted. Luoshen Chuan glanced at Qin Yuanfeng. In the past, he hated Qin Yuanfeng very much, he hated him for taking his daughter away. However, so many years have already passed since then. Qin Wentian’s appearance had long caused the hatred he felt for Qin Yuanfeng to fade away. Now that when he saw Qin Yuanfeng and his daughter coming back together, after growing so much stronger, he naturally felt happy in his heart.

“It’s good that both of you have returned. Qin Yuanfeng, Qianxue, both of you have a good son indeed.” Luoshen Chuan sighed. Qin Yuanfeng and Luoshen Qianxue exchanged a mutual glance as a smile appeared on their faces. They had always felt extremely guilty to Qin Wentian. Ever since he was young, Qin Wentian had to grow up alone in a particle world. Everything they knew about him came from Uncle Black.

As parents, they truly couldn’t face up to their son.

However, their son was everything they hoped for and more, standing tall, exuding an indomitable spirit capable of supporting both the heavens and earth. He opened the Heaven Vault, established the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, neutralized the grudge within the Luoshen Clan and was together with his grandfather. All of these made them feel gratified in their hearts.

“Aunt, uncle.” Beside Luoshen Chuan, Luoshen Lei called out. Her words caused Luoshen Qianxue’s beautiful eyes to flash as she looked at Luoshen Lei. She spoke emotionally, “Are you the daughter of my elder brother?”

“Mhm, aunt. My name is Luoshen Lei.”

“Good child.” Luoshen Qianxue’s eyes turned slightly red. She then continued asking, “Where is your father?”

“Father…” When Luoshen Lei thought of her father, she felt an involuntary sadness. She glanced at one of the floating palaces as she spoke, “Father is in there, he didn’t come down with us.”

“I can finally meet my elder brother again.” Luoshen Qianxue smiled. When she was young, her elder brother Luoshen Yu had always doted on her very much. He had always supported her. She couldn’t help but wonder how he was faring now.

“Mhm.” Qin Yuanfeng nodded. He stared at the many faces here, feeling gratification in his heart.

“Children, shouldn’t you all start to greet them?” Luoshen Chuan glanced at Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er, as a kind smile appeared on his face. Qin Wentian’s wives were all very outstanding regardless of all aspects. This was especially so in the earlier battle, Qin Wentian’s wife and good female friend, as well as his other friends and subordinates were all extremely courageous, willing to give their lives. This made him extremely touched.

These people were all the future of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Mo Qingcheng blushed, she still felt nervous. She clenched her fists, staring at Qin Yuanfeng and Luoshen Qianxue as she drummed up her courage and greeted, “Qingcheng pays my respects to father-in-law and mother-in-law.”

Qing`er blinked. After that, she also called out, “Father-in-law, mother-in-law.”

“Father-in-law, mother-in-law.” Ye Qianyu also walked over and greeted. Staring at the three exceptional beauties that were their daughters-in-law, Qin Yuanfeng’s smile grew even wider. Luoshen Qianxue walked over and helped Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er and Ye Qianyu to tidy their robes. She gently spoke, “Good children, I owe you all too much.”

“Uncle, Aunty, my name is Bai Qing. I’m Wentian gege’s younger sister.” Bai Qing also walked over as she greeted. This caused Qin Yuanfeng and his wife to look at her as an affectionate smile appeared on their faces.

“Master, little Qing didn’t have it easy and has suffered a lot for the sake of Wentian. I’ve mentioned her to you all before.” At the side, Uncle Black spoke up. Bai Qing was long acquainted with Qin Wentian back in the Sky Harmony City and the two of them could said to have grown up together. Their relationship was as close as real siblings.

Luoshen Qianxue nodded, she smiled at Bai Qing, “Since you are Wentian’s younger sister, the two of us are his parents. Why don’t you become our goddaughter? How do you feel about it?”

Bai Qing’s beautiful eyes shone with the glow of tears. She nodded her head heavily before smiling radiantly, “Godfather, godmother.”

“Good.” Luoshen Qianxue smiled. She truly liked these young maidens before her. All of them were so beautiful and the look in their eyes was so tender when they spoke of her son.

Qin Yuanfeng and his wife then turned their gazes to the others. They wanted to be acquainted with people around Wentian.

“Wentian is now still imprisoned in the western paradise. Uncle, your cultivation base is extremely powerful, can you pay a visit there to see if he is fine?” At this moment, a voice rang out. The gazes of everyone turned to the person who spoke, it was none other than Beiming Youhuang. Her eyes flickered with worry. Earlier, they didn’t dare to think about rescuing Qin Wentian. But earlier, a dao incarnation suddenly appeared and scared off the hegemonic powers. To think that the supreme expert who helped them was actually Wentian’s birth father. In that case, since he was strong enough, he would surely be able to rescue Wentian.

And it was precisely because they were Qin Wentian’s parent that Beiming Youhuang spoke.

The expressions of everyone grew heavier. Clearly, they were all worried about Qin Wentian’s safety.

Qin Yuanfeng glanced at Beiming Youhuang, he could see the worry in her eyes. Luoshen Qianxue naturally could tell too. Seems like this beautiful maiden might be in love with their son. How lucky was that little fellow?

“Right.” Qin Yuanfeng nodded. In truth, he was also worried himself.

Just as they were speaking, outside the Heaven Vault, in the airspace above the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, a burst of raging wind gusted. Qin Wentian has finally returned. His eyes were filled with anxiousness, he didn’t waste anytime. Spatial light glowed around him as he directly sped forth, entering the Heaven Vault. His speed was too fast, so fast that none of the experts in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect and Boundless Sea Region could even react. In fact, they couldn’t even see who the person who just arrived was?

“Mhm?” In the Heaven Vault, Qin Yuanfeng seemed to have sensed something. He turned his gaze over and a moment later, an intense spatial fluctuation could be felt. In the next moment, a figure rapidly sped here. When that figure saw them, he abruptly stopped in the air.

Qin Wentian was completely stunned when he saw the scene before him. Everyone was present and they were fine, nothing has happened to them. His heart, which was filled with worry, could finally be at ease.

But very soon after, he noticed another group of people here as well.

“Uncle Black.” Qin Wentian’s heart pounded violently. Because, he didn’t merely see Uncle Black, he also saw the two people standing beside Uncle Black. Although the middle-aged man was different from the face he saw in his memories, age had no way to mask his magnificence.

As for that middle-aged woman, the changes to her face was even fewer. She was as beautiful as ever. To Qin Wentian, she was naturally one of the most beautiful women in the world.

Qin Yuanfeng and Luoshen Qianxue also looked at him. The three of them stood in the starry space, staring at each other. Time seemed to stop, a moment later, a brilliant smile appeared in Qin Wentian’s eyes. He has never felt so happy before.

He was initially filled with despair and was rushing back madly. But now, he saw that both Qing`er and Youhuang were fine.

Not only so, he even saw his parents whom he has been constantly dreaming about. Both of them were still alive, Uncle Black was present as well. From this, one could very well imagine what his current emotions were like.

At this moment, this starry space in his eyes were simply too dazzlingly beautiful.

It was as though a very long time has passed before Qin Wentian stepped out, flying towards that beautiful starry space. He moved towards his parents and came before them.

Qin Yuanfeng and Luoshen Qianxue also moved towards him. The three of them hugged each other, this simple action surpassed the exchange of a thousand words.

“Father, Mother. This child is unfilial, I’ve not been able to find you all.” Qin Wentian smiled.

“Son, it’s your mother me who has let you down.” Luoshen Qianxue hugged Qin Wentian, she could no longer control her tears. They caused Qin Wentian to grow up alone in a particle world, making him an orphan. How much must he have suffered to be able to climb to his current heights today?

However, he didn’t feel any resentment, his smile was so brilliant and radiant. The first words out of his mouth was saying that he was unfilial. From this, one could clearly be able to tell what Luoshen Qianxue was feeling as a mother. She felt guilt, self-reproach and ashamed.

Qin Yuanfeng’s expression was very calm and as steady as a mountain. He clapped his hand on Qin Wentian’s shoulder. “The son of I, Qin Yuanfeng, is a man of indomitable spirit, capable of propping up the sky. How is there anything unfilial about that?”

The three of them embraced for a long time before they separated. Qin Wentian looked at his parents. Undoubtedly, his parents must have arrived in time and saved the Heaven Vault. The heavens ultimately still favored him. If something happened to the Heaven Vault, he would feel regret forever.

“Uncle Black.” Qin Wentian glanced at the old man at the side. He walked over and hugged him tightly.

“I’ve finally waited till today.” Uncle Black smiled, feeling gratified in his heart. He has watched Qin Wentian grow up bit by bit. Right now, Qin Wentian finally was able to stand tall, becoming a character the same as his father.

The two of them separated. Qin Wentian turned to his wives, he could see that there were tears in their beautiful eyes as they also looked back at him.

Qin Wentian has returned. He returned safely from the western paradise. One could very well imagine their emotions. All the calamities were now at an end!

Chapter 1987: Qin Clan's Hope

This time, it was truly a great reunion. All of Qin Wentian's loved ones were here. His parents and Uncle Black also appeared in the Heaven Vault.

Everyone was very quiet, after surviving through the calamity, everything seemed to be more beautiful than ever.

Qin Wentian walked towards Qing`er. He gently stroked her delicate hair. His gaze was filled with emotions and tenderness as he softly spoke, "Silly lass."

Qing`er lowered her head when she saw the gentle look in Qin Wentian's eyes, feeling a little shy. Earlier, she just sent a message to Qin Wentian saying that she loved him. At that point of time, despair was everything in her heart, she thought that she was dead for sure. However, now when she thought back to it, she felt a little strange.

Mo Qingcheng stood at the side, smiling sweetly. Qin Wentian stroked her face, feeling extremely warm in his heart.

"Youhuang." Seeing that Youhuang was averting her gaze, Qin Wentian called out.

Beiming Youhuang lifted her head and looked at Qin Wentian. Her beautiful eyes showed hints of evasion, not daring to look him straight in the eye.

"I know." Qin Wentian smiled. Youhuang's heart pounded, she lowered her head, not daring to look him in the eye. She naturally knew Qin Wentian was referring to her voice transmission. He had always known that she liked him.

The Darknorth Immortal Emperor seemed to have guessed at something when he saw the interaction between Qin Wentian and his daughter. After that, a faint smile appeared on his face.

Qin Wentian's mother, Luoshen Qianxue, blinked when she saw this scene. A look of contemplation appeared on her face. She really liked these beautiful young women before her eyes. Their gazes when they looked Wentian was like how she looked at Qin Yuanfeng. Such emotions were unable to be masked.

"Kexin, hurry up and come over." Luoshen Qianxue called out. Qin Kexin's body trembled slightly. After that, she flew over slowly. She was truly exceptionally beautiful. She kept looking at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian seemed to feel a resonance with her in his heart and also looked at her. This seemed to be a very mystical feeling, attracting the two of them. This was the kinship born of blood. Blood was thicker than water.

“Kexin, this is your elder brother.” Luoshen Qianxue softly spoke. Qin Kexin’s hands pulled on the corners of her robes. She actually also felt a little nervous. Her red lips shivered a little, wanting to say something but didn’t know what to say.

Qin Wentian walked over, staring at his beautiful sister. As expected, his younger sister has inherited the good looks of their parents. Truly exceptionally beautiful.

“Kexin.” Qin Wentian gently called out. This was his younger sister, bound by blood. He didn’t expect he would actually have a true younger sister.

Qin Kexin started, when she saw the gentle look in Qin Wentian’s eyes, she lowered her head and nodded slightly, calling out, “Brother.”

“This lass.” Luoshen Qianxue walked over, staring at her children, feeling gratified in her heart. Their family was finally united.

“Let’s go. We shouldn’t stay here, let’s talk in the floating palace.” At this moment, Luoshen Chuan came over as he spoke. Most probably, everyone has plenty of things they wanted to say.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. “Father, mother. Let’s head to my residence. I still have many things I want to tell you all. In the Heaven Vault, I met grandpa.”

“You met your grandpa?” Qin Yuanfeng’s gaze turned sharp.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. “Let’s speak while we head there.”

“Uncle Qu, help me give the command telling everyone in the divine sect to enter the Heaven Vault. I will temporarily close the Heaven Vault off after that.” Qin Wentian spoke to Qi Yu.

“Right.” Qi Yu nodded. After that, he flew towards the Heaven Vault’s exit. Currently, those people that still remained in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect were all trusted subordinates that were worthy of being nurtured. They were willing to share life and death with the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect when calamity struck.

A group of people soon arrived at Qin Wentian’s residential palace. They had too many things to say given that they had experienced so many things through the years. Those words hidden in their hearts had to be said no matter what.

They spoke about the return of Qin Tiangang. Luoshen Qianxue also saw Luoshen Yu. When she saw the elder brother who always doted on her in his crippled state, her anger rose up to the sky. This was the first time Qin Wentian felt how strong his mother was. She exuded an intense killing intent. Her elder brother was actually crippled by a junior.

This was especially so after they learned that this junior was none other than the so-called Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian. It was none other than that young man who entered the Divine Mausoleum. In the past, Qin Yuanfeng allowed him to cultivate inside, not acting against him. But in the future, all these debts had to be accounted for, including all the things the Qin Clan has done towards Qin Yuanfeng in the past.

The people of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect entered the Heaven Vault. The Heaven Vault then closed up, becoming isolated from the world. The people in the external world had no idea what happened within. But since the Heaven Vault closed, this meant that Qin Wentian might have returned and regained control. The western paradise didn't manage to suppress Qin Wentian and even allowed him to escape?

How powerful was Qin Wentian? Even the western paradise couldn't imprison him for long.

The western paradise also received the news. They suddenly felt a sense of unease. The Qin Wentian they saw, was that the Reincarnation Buddha or Qin Wentian?

When the various hegemonic powers received the news, all of them felt incomparably depressed. The western paradise actually failed to take down Qin Wentian and even allowed him to escape back to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

Now, with the addition of that mysterious expert, wouldn't the strength of the Heaven Vault be heaven-defying?

Right now, even if the hegemonic powers joined forces, it was tough for them to take down the Heaven Vault. And if more years passed by, they wouldn't even have any chance.

However, the Qin Clan didn't really think too much about this news. Because, the Qin Clan was now in a celebratory mode.

Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian has finally returned.

Not only has he returned, he came back much stronger than before.

People in the Qin Clan knew that after Qin Dangtian returned, he sparred with Qin Zheng and was actually not in anyway inferior to Qin Zheng. Also, according to what Qin Dangtian said, he has yet to completely consolidate his foundation. If he had more time to stabilize his cultivation, he would become even stronger.

Qin Zheng and his wife knew that Qin Dangtian came back from the Divine Mausoleum and has also received the inheritance of the Divine Mausoleum. When they thought about how powerful the tomb keeper was, they felt anticipation in their heart. Would Qin Dangtian become as powerful as that tomb keeper? Becoming an existence that stood at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Everyone in the Qin Clan was rejoicing. Back then, Qin Ding was sent to a chaotic spacetime by Qin Tiangang and several Qin Clan deities had fallen, causing the Qin Clan's strength to dip down quite a few tiers. However, now that Qin Dangtian came back much stronger than before, they finally saw hope of gaining back their former glory.

Hence, everyone in the Qin Clan was in a very good mood. Time flowed by, several months passed. During this period of time, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was extremely calm. It seemed that the storm that occurred in the Heaven Vault has already been forgotten by everyone. However, everyone understood that how could things be so simple.

Qin Wentian managed to escape from the western paradise. How could he not want revenge?

Right now, the only thing the Heaven Vault feared was most probably the western paradise. If not, given the Heaven Vault's current strength, they should have already killed their way out and started their revenge.

The peace in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was finally broken by a challenge letter.

This challenge letter was sent by the Heaven Vault, to the Qin Clan.

The Qin Clan finally got past the joyous mode. They haven't forgotten the humiliation they suffered back then.

Once, the Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian was about to marry the number one beauty of the Heaven Region Goddess Nichang. The Qin Clan invited everyone to attend the wedding banquet, all the experts came to offer their congratulations, the Qin Clan was basking in glory. However, what was the ending?

The ending was that the Qin Clan suffered boundless humiliation. Qin Ding was sent away, the Heaven's Son was defeated, several of their deities also died.

Right now, the situation was extremely similar. After Qin Dangtian's return, a challenge letter from Qin Wentian was sent to the Qin Clan. Qin Wentian would pay the Qin Clan another visit. With reference from past history, the Qin Clan didn't dare to be careless and treated this very seriously.

They absolutely didn't want to suffer humiliation again.

This challenge letter not only caused a commotion in the Qin Clan, it also caused a commotion in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The hegemonic powers have been keeping tabs on the Heaven Vault's actions. Now that the Heaven Vault sent this letter, was this the beginning of their revenge?

Everyone’s attention was concentrated on a certain place. The Heaven Region, an ancient and powerful clan, the Qin Clan.

At this moment, in the great hall of the Qin Clan, Qin Zheng and his wife, Qin Dangtian and a few heavenly deities from the Qin Clan were present here in discussion.

“This time around, I’m afraid things would be troublesome. The Heaven Vault’s current strength is extremely powerful.” Qin Zheng spoke. When the various hegemonic powers joined forces to attack Heaven Vault back then, they already had a taste of the Heaven Vault’s strength level.

“If the lips die, the teeth would grow cold. We have already contacted the various hegemonic powers. If the Heaven Vault’s army descends, the hegemonic powers won’t stand aside and ignore it. If not, the Heaven Vault’s next target would be none other than them.” A heavenly deity of the Qin Clan spoke.

“Even so, although Dangtian’s current strength is very powerful, I still feel some worry. Would that mysterious tomb keeper act? I feel extremely uneasy.” Qin Zheng spoke.

“Father, don’t worry. Back then when I was in the Divine Mausoleum, I met the tomb keeper a few times before. I’ve now obtained the inheritance of the Divine Mausoleum, I believe he would give me some face. In addition…” Qin Dangtian spoke. He suddenly thought of that beautiful young woman. She was also here in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, right? Now that he has received the inheritance of the Divine Mausoleum and grew stronger, he should finally have the qualifications to pursue her, right?

“In addition what?” Qin Zheng asked.

“The tomb keeper’s daughter…Father you should have seen her before, right? How do you feel about her?” Qin Dangtian asked.

“Outstanding talent and flawless beauty.” Qin Zheng praised. He fought with Qin Kexin before, although they were enemies, he couldn’t help but be impressed by that young woman. Such a young woman of that caliber was extremely rare in the world.

“I want to pursue her. I hope father wouldn’t mind your past battle against her.” Qin Dangtian’s eyes gleamed with sharpness. Goddess Nichang’s betrayal has created a huge shadow in his heart. Now, he has already walked out from that. Also, there was an even more outstanding woman for him to pursue. Although the path would be tough, he was now someone that gained the inheritance of the Divine Mausoleum. There was no difficulty he cannot overcome.

“Good.” Qin Zheng praised. “If Dang`er can really succeed in pursuing her. How would father mind? I’m even willing to present a gift to her to seek her apology.”

Such a talented young woman, if she really could become the daughter-in-law of the Qin Clan, it would surely be a type of glory. He was only afraid that the tomb keeper might have a close relationship with Qin Wentian.

However, his thoughts didn’t wander to Qin Yuanfeng. He didn’t dare to think about that. Also, Qin Dangtian had met the tomb keeper in the Divine Mausoleum before. If it was Qin Yuanfeng, how could Qin Dangtian leave there alive? How could he even obtain the inheritance?

Even if the tomb keeper has a close relationship with Qin Wentian, given how outstanding his son Qin Dangtian was, what does the Qin Clan have to be afraid of? Time would change everything. If Qin Dangtian successfully pursued that young woman, wouldn’t the tomb keeper be a helping force for his Qin Clan instead?

One couldn’t help but say that Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian’s thoughts were very beautiful. However, they were doomed to be disappointed. The ending was something they didn’t wish to see the most!

Chapter 1988: Qin Yuanfeng, Tomb Keeper

The challenge letter caused a commotion in the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Everyone knew that a storm of blood would soon occur in the Qin Clan.

Once, when Qin Wentian was still weak, he went to the Qin Clan on the date of Qin Dangtian's wedding, causing a bloody storm to manifest.

Now, the strength of the Heaven Vault in Qin Wentian's control far surpassed their strength level back then. Even without the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace, just based on the Heaven Vault's heavenly deities alone, he was strong enough to almost contend against the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Qin Wentian most probably didn't even have the Qin Clan in his eyes.

In addition, there long was a grudge between Qin Wentian and the Qin Clan. Evidently, this challenge letter might be the final battle to settle all things.

There was a specific date stated in the letter. The Qin Clan was waiting, the experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms also arrived but they didn't appear out in the open, choosing to observe in the dark instead. But they also understood in their hearts that they were bound together with the Qin Clan. Everyone who participated in the battle within the Heaven Vault was standing on the same side, no one could escape. Once Qin Wentian destroyed the Qin Clan, his next target would surely be one of them.

In the Qin Clan, inside an ancient hall, Qin Zheng stood with his hands behind his back. His divine sense extended outwards, enveloping boundless space as he spoke, "Everyone, since you are already here, why hide yourselves? Could it be that you all feel that hiding would work if Qin Wentian really wanted to deal with you all?"

"This fellow…" All the experts silently cursed. Qin Zheng wanted to force them to appear.

The Thunder Clan Leader led the Thunder Clan's experts and stepped out. His grudge with Qin Wentian was also a very deep one. There was really no way for them to avoid being Qin Wentian's target. Hence, he decisively walked out.

With someone taking the lead, the experts of the hegemonic powers all appeared one after the other.

"Qin Zheng, you seemed very calm." The Prison God Clan Leader spoke.

"My son Dangtian has returned from the Divine Mausoleum and he has obtained its inheritance. He also met with the tomb keeper before. In addition, Dangtian's current strength is even above mine." Qin Zheng calmly spoke, causing the hearts of everyone to tremble. Heaven’s Son Qin Dangtian was already stronger than Qin Zheng?

Also, he came back from the Divine Mausoleum and has obtained the inheritance there? In that case, there might be some connection between him and the tomb keeper?

Heaven’s Son Qin Dangtian. Although he was defeated back then, he was still a supreme character.

The Qin Clan was truly a terrifying clan, producing such a character like Qin Dangtian and Qin Wentian. Sadly, if the two factions worked together, the Qin Clan might have reached an unprecedented height in this era.

Everyone quietly waited.

Qin Zheng turned his gaze toward the horizons, with his hands behind his back. Beside him, his beautiful wife was there as well. Her purple dress fluttered in the wind, she exuded a sense of cold elegance. Her beautiful eyes held a hint of anticipation. Qin Kexin was truly very outstanding, being able to fight against her husband Qin Zheng. If such a female became her daughter-in-law, she would naturally be very satisfied. She believed that her son would be able to succeed. As a mother, one would naturally always have blind trust and confidence towards their children.

Naturally, Qin Dangtian himself truly possessed confidence and strength too. The him today was no longer the current him. The Heaven’s Son underwent a transformation, he already has an opportunity to come in contact with a supreme and higher level. He didn’t fear anything at all, and was anticipating the challenge. He was yearning for Qin Wentian to come by. This time around, he would cleanse all his humiliation using Qin Wentian’s blood.

Countless people in the Qin Clan stared at the air, quietly waiting. In the past, the Qin Clan suffered a calamity. This time, what would be awaiting the Qin Clan? Not even in their wildest dreams could they imagine what was waiting for them.

The experts in the Qin Clan were as numerous as the clouds. But at this moment, the atmosphere was completely silent. From afar, the sound of a wind gusting by could be heard. There seemed to be a stream of air flowing towards here.

Gradually, a powerful pressure could be felt. Even the wind turned cold.

Finally, a group of figures appeared in the vision of everyone.

“They are here.” The people silently mused, they saw a giant demonic beast soaring through the sky. This demonic beast was none other than the Kun Sovereign.

On his back, many figures could be seen standing there. All of them exuded an extraordinary aura. The man in the lead was robed in white, his long hair fluttered in the wind. If this wasn’t Qin Wentian, who else could it be?

But, the tomb keeper seemed like he didn’t come at all.

Beside Qin Wentian, that powerful mysterious young woman could be seen. She actually came here with Qin Wentian. This caused many people to wonder if this mysterious beauty had some sort of emotional relationship with Qin Wentian?

However, when Qin Wentian stood together with her, they did seem like a matching couple. One was handsome, the other was beautiful and both were supreme geniuses.

Waves arose in Qin Dangtian’s heart when he saw Qin Wentian. However, his countenance was calm. Clearly, he was suppressing his emotional waves.

Finally, the day has come? All their grudges would be settled today. It’s indeed time for everything to end.

The Kun Sovereign stopped in the airspace above the Qin Clan. Qin Wentian stared at the experts here, his expression was calm, there were no fluctuations.

“We meet again.” Qin Dangtian turned his gaze to Qin Kexin as he spoke.

Qin Kexin cast a glance at Qin Dangtian, she was as cold as ever, like she has no emotions. But it seemed more like she couldn’t be bothered. Qin Dangtian didn’t mind. He understood her personality was like this, cold and aloof. However, she did indeed have the qualifications to act like that.

“My name is Qin Dangtian. I obtained the inheritance in the Divine Mausoleum.” Qin Dangtian continued, causing a strange look to appear on the faces of the people here. Looking at Qin Dangtian’s attitude, could it be he wished to pursue this exceptional beauty?

Qin Wentian also had a strange look on his face. Qin Dangtian was interested in Kexin?

What a contrived plot. However, Qin Dangtian probably didn’t know how ridiculous his thinking was. Who was Qin Kexin? She was his blood sister, the daughter of Qin Yuanfeng. Who was Qin Dangtian? He was the son of Qin Zheng.

Qin Kexin basically didn't bother with Qin Dangtian. After some time, Qin Dangtian turned his gaze back to Qin Wentian as he calmly spoke, "You are finally here."

Qin Wentian swept his gaze towards Qin Dangtian, and then to Qin Zheng and his wife, before finally sweeping over the people of the Qin Clan.

"Today, I came to the Qin Clan not only to settle the grudges of the past. I also want to let the Qin Clan to meet a few people." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, an aged and weak-looking figure walked over. He was none other than the Skyorder Heavenly Deity, Luoshen Yu.

Bringing Luoshen Yu here was the idea of Qin Wentian's mother, Luoshen Qianxue. The Qin Clan has to repay this debt in blood.

"Just a loser dog, nothing but a trash." Qin Dangtian glanced at Luoshen Yu and mockingly spoke.

"In that case, are you not a trash before me as well?" Qin Wentian coldly countered.

"That was before. Today, things will be different." Qin Dangtian stared at Qin Wentian, his battle intent surging up into the skies.

"Don't be in such a hurry to fight. There are still two people I want the Qin Clan to meet." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. "I once said that the Qin Clan shall regret everything they have done. Today, everything will come true."

"Our Qin Clan will definitely not feel regret." A heavenly deity standing behind Qin Zheng coldly spoke.

"You still want to get back justice for your father? He is the traitor of the Qin Clan and ought to die. Why would we feel regret? As for you, you are too rebellious and is set on walking down your father's path." Another deity spoke. Qin Wentian stared at the ugly faces as a cold smile appeared on his face. He wanted to see what expressions these people would have later.

Qin Wentian didn't continue to speak, he quietly stood there as the atmosphere turned silent. At this moment, a beam of light cascaded down the sky as two figures flew down, like they were from beyond the heavens. They appeared at a location near to Qin Wentian, standing there as they turned their gaze to the Qin Clan.

When Qin Zheng and his wife clearly saw who these two people are, their bodies trembled violently.

"You are actually still alive." Qin Zheng stared at Qin Yuanfeng. Back then when Qin Wentian appeared, they had already guessed that Qin Yuanfeng might still be alive. Now, it seems that their guess was true. Qin Yuanfeng has returned.

Many old men of the Qin Clan also felt their hearts trembling when they saw Qin Yuanfeng. They didn't expect after doing so much, they still failed to kill him. He actually came back alive. Was he here to get revenge for everything they have done?

"You still dare to return?" An old man of the Qin Clan coldly spoke.

Qin Wentian quietly watched everything. Why wouldn't his father dare to return?

"It's been so many years since we last saw you. You've grown older." Qin Zheng's wife smiled at Qin Yuanfeng. However, her smile was more like that of a venomous snake and scorpion.

However, Qin Dangtian who was beside them suddenly felt a strong sense of unease.

"Father, mother, who is he?" Qin Dangtian's voice trembled a little.

"Dang`er, this is your clan uncle. However, he is a traitor of the Qin Clan, he is none other than Qin Yuanfeng." Qin Zheng's wife spoke. At this moment, Qin Dangtian felt as though there were thunderbolts falling on his head. His heart trembled violently. His gaze stared at Qin Yuanfeng before turning to Qin Kexin. How could this be? How was this possible?

The tomb keeper was actually Qin Yuanfeng.

"No…" Qin Dangtian mumbled in a low shaking voice. When they saw Qin Dangtian's expression, Qin Zheng and his wife frowned as a puzzled look could be seen in their eyes.

"Dang`er, what's wrong?" Qin Zheng's wife asked. Why would Qin Dangtian suddenly act so strangely?

Qin Wentian stared at Qin Zheng and his wife as he coldly spoke, "Are your reactions so slow? Do you still not understand?"

Upon hearing Qin Wentian's words, it was like a lightning flashed through the minds of Qin Zheng and his wife. They seemed to have thought of something as they glanced at their son. A moment later, their expressions instantly changed. This was especially so for Qin Zheng's wife. Her smile completely froze as her countenance paled.

She inclined her head and cast another glance at Qin Yuanfeng. Several months ago, that powerful illusory figure that appeared in the Heaven Vault, that lofty and invincible figure whom she hoped Qin Damgtian could be able to catch up to, was actually Qin Yuanfeng? Now that she looked carefully, the silhouette of that illusory figure did resemble Qin Yuanfeng.

“No, this is impossible.” She mumbled in a low voice, like she was trying to console herself. If Qin Yuanfeng was the tomb keeper, what ending would their Qin Clan face?

Everything would soon be concluded.

“Dang`er.” Qin Zheng turned his gaze to Qin Dangtian.

“Father, he is none other than the tomb keeper of the Divine Mausoleum.” Qin Dangtian’s words was like thunder from a clear sky. This caused the hearts of everyone in the Qin Clan to tremble. It was the same for the experts from the various hegemonic powers.

Everything that happened finally connected, all of them understood now. But the truth made them feel even more terror.

The tomb keeper was Qin Yuanfeng. In that case, what was his relationship with Qin Wentian?

They are father and son!

Chapter 1989: Demanding Repayment

Qin Yuanfeng was the tomb keeper.

Several months ago, he borrowed the dao of the starry space and descended using a dao body, frightening away all the experts from the hegemonic powers.

At this moment, countless people stared at him, silently musing how powerful the tomb keeper was.

Now, the tomb keeper finally revealed his identity. However, he was actually none other than the past traitor of the Qin Clan, Qin Yuanfeng.

Qin Zheng's wife stared at Qin Yuanfeng as her heart pounded unceasingly. She didn't dare to believe and was unwilling to believe this. When he was young, Qin Yuanfeng had once loved her, treating her as his goddess. However, she completely held him in contempt, choosing Qin Zheng instead. After that, she even wanted to act against Qin Yuanfeng, killing him. Even though back then Qin Yuanfeng had proven his strength, her heart didn't waver. She had no regrets, she would never doubt her own actions.

But what about now?

In the Heaven Vault, that illusory figure whom she looked up to, that lofty and unreachable existence, was actually the person who had once admired her. Now, that person was the enemy of the Qin Clan.

Also, the woman whom her son liked, was actually Qin Yuanfeng's daughter?

What's even more terrifying was that regardless of Qin Wentian or Qin Kexin, both of them already had the strength to fight against Qin Zheng. His son and daughter were already so powerful.

One could very well imagine her current feelings.

The people of the Qin Clan were in a daze as they stared at the figure in the air. Back then, they all heard about how the battle in the Heaven Vault ended. The mysterious tomb keeper of the Divine Mausoleum arrived and displayed his strength, frightening everyone into retreating. He was a lofty existence, standing at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

But right now, reality revealed that the invincible and lofty existence was actually none other than their so-called traitor of the Qin Clan, Qin Yuanfeng? Wasn't this ridiculous?

The traitor of the Qin Clan was now standing at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Just a body formed from borrowed dao was enough to frighten the experts of the hegemonic powers away. Wasn't this absurd?

When one's cultivation reached this level, whether or not he was a traitor, was already no longer important. Qin Yuanfeng alone had enough strength to rival the entire Qin Clan. He could directly open up another Qin Clan. Was there any meaning to the title of 'traitor'?

Previously, Qin Tiangang descended with supreme might, traveling through time to dominate the Qin Clan, finishing Qin Ding. At that time, the hearts of people in the Qin Clan had already wavered. They didn't know if all the things they did to Qin Yuanfeng before was correct or wrong. This time Qin Yuanfeng came back once more, displaying his shocking might in the Heaven Vault. Between him and Qin Zheng, there was already no need to discuss who was stronger? Time had all the answers.

With the addition of Qin Wentian and Qin Kexin, their family of three generations were so powerful. Qin Tiangang, Qin Yuanfeng, Qin Wentian and Qin Kexin. This strength initially ought to belong to the Qin Clan. But, what about now?

Qin Yuanfeng and Qin Wentian led an army of deities from the Heaven Vault over. What was the reason for this? How could the people of the Qin Clan not understand?

"I, the traitor to the Qin Clan, Qin Yuanfeng, has returned." Qin Yuanfeng stared at the Qin Clan, he felt no emotions in his heart. This clan once killed him for the sake of seizing everything he possessed. How cruel was that? They actually used such a method to deal with their own clan member? It felt like they were dealing with a mortal enemy whom they couldn't live with under the same sky instead.

His clan crippled Luoshen Yu of the Luoshen Clan.

His clan attempted to hunt his son, wanting to use the same methods they used on him against his son Qin Wentian.

Would he have any emotions towards such a clan?

Even if he was a saint, this was impossible. Right now, there was only coldness in his heart.

"Everything the Qin Clan has done to me and my son, how are you all going to pay us back today?" Qin Yuanfeng coldly spoke. He stepped out, moving forward. Down below, the deities of the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were gathered. But who would dare to stop him?

"Yuanfeng, it has been so many years since that thing in the past happened. Why must you be so stubborn refusing to forget it? Since you didn't die and have now grown even stronger, as well as the fact that your son Qin Wentian has outstanding talent, isn’t this perfect? Why don’t you just forgive the past? After all, the blood of the Qin Clan flows in your veins.”

At this moment, an extremely aged heavenly deity of the Qin Clan spoke, trying to persuade Qin Yuanfeng to give up his revenge.

When they heard his words, Qin Wentian and the others were completely stunned. Jun Mengchen stood at Qin Wentian’s side and angrily replied, “Undying piece of shit. How can there be someone so shameless like you in the world? The Qin Clan could even do such a cruel thing, killing him and seizing his flesh and blood. At that time, didn’t you all think about the fact that Uncle Qin also has the blood of the Qin Clan in his veins? When you tried to hunt my senior brother, sparing no expense to kill him, didn’t you all think about the fact that he also has the Qin Clan’s blood in his veins? Do you all still want face?”

“If it wasn’t for master possessing absolute might, these people would act differently. They are truly disgusting.” An old man who was a follower of Qin Yuanfeng was filled with loathing for the Qin Clan. How could someone be so shameless to this extent?

Everything was in the past?

If they didn’t know Qin Yuanfeng was the tomb keeper, and if the tomb keeper hadn’t displayed his strength, would they say such a thing?

Most probably, they would go all out to kill Qin Yuanfeng and Qin Wentian.

Qin Yuanfeng didn’t say anything. He took a step forward.

“Qin Yuanfeng, what do you want to do?” An old man asked. “Could it be that you want to destroy the Qin Clan who raised you? The clansmen here have the same blood as you. Do you want to annihilate all of us?”

“When you kill my father, where were the clansmen?” Qin Wentian walked out. The Qin Clan could commit such an utterly heartless act. Anyone with the slightest shred of conscience would probably never do such a thing. At that time, did anyone in the Qin Clan show pity towards his family?

In their eyes, they only had their sights on making the Qin Clan stronger. Because that would determine their fate.

Now, they were playing the sympathy card? Wanting his father to give up on revenge and spare the Qin Clan?

“Father, a debt of blood has to be repaid in blood.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. If they were weak, they would be hunted down like dogs by the Qin Clan. Now that they are strong, the Qin Clan wanted them to forgive the past? Was this possible?

“I won’t implicate the innocent but I will not spare a single one that was responsible. Back then when the Qin Clan decided to kill me, this was a decision approved by all the heavenly deities in the Qin Clan. Since you all keep talking about the Qin Clan, let’s see you put your money where your words are. Step out now and commit suicide, this act shall be the repayment for your sins.” Qin Yuanfeng spoke. The hearts of countless experts in the Qin Clan trembled. Getting all the heavenly deities to commit suicide? Was this possible?

Heavenly deities were peak existences in any power. If the Qin Clan didn’t have any heavenly deities, would they still be the Qin Clan? What differences do they have compared to ordinary clans?

In addition, those lofty heavenly deities have reached the peak, how would they be willing to give up their lives?

“Is no one willing to step out to repay this debt?” Qin Yuanfeng stared at the experts of the Qin Clan. “So, the thing that matters most to you, is still your own life and death. Spare me the talk about for the sake of the clan. What a load of bullshit.”

“Qin Zheng.” Qin Yuanfeng then lowered his head, staring down at Qin Zheng.

Qin Zheng’s expression turned ashen. He inclined his head and stared at Qin Yuanfeng, this clan brother of his. Right now, Qin Yuanfeng’s cultivation base has already far surpassed his. He felt extremely helpless.

“How did I treat you back then, and how have you treated me? Now, as the Qin Clan Leader, you even mobilized the deities of the Qin Clan to hunt my son Wentian. Now, both of us father and son are present. You should step out.” Qin Yuanfeng spoke, telling Qin Zheng to step out.

But, would Qin Zheng dare?

What was the use even if he stepped out? Could he deal with Qin Yuanfeng? He couldn’t even win against Qni Yuanfeng’s daughter Qin Kexin, he only possessed a slight advantage when they crossed blows before and he even needed to use the Judgement Halberd.

“Everyone, if my Qin Clan is destroyed, do you all think the hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms can survive?” Qin Zheng spoke out, wanting to gather the experts from the various hegemonic powers to join the Qin Clan in battle. Based on the strength of the Qin Clan alone, it was basically impossible for them to win.

“Today, I came here to settle the private grudge between I and the Qin Clan. Since you all are here, it’s fine if you all want to watch. But I shall kill whoever dares to interfere.” Qin Yuanfeng calmly spoke, in his calm tone, there was a supreme tyranny. He would kill whoever dares to interfere.

Today, this matter was between his family and the Qin Clan.

This debt would have to be repaid today.

“Qin Zheng, can you act like a man please?” Qin Yuanfeng stood in the air, waiting for Qin Zheng. Qin Zheng wouldn’t be able to avoid the battle today. Even if he didn’t want to fight, he had to fight.

Qin Zheng slowly soared in the air. His wife stared at him, sorrow was as plain as day in her eyes.

Fight?

In the Heaven Vault just the dao incarnation body of Qin Yuanfeng was invincible. At that time, the power he displayed made everyone understand this. It was absolutely impossible for Qin Zheng to be his match. Qin Zheng might even be completely dominated.

“Rush them together!” Qin Dangtian spoke. A shocking divine might radiated from him. The heavenly deities of the Qin Clan flew forth together. They had no other choices. Qin Yuanfeng wouldn’t spare any of the Qin Clan’s deities. Today, they had to fight even if they didn’t want to fight.

When Qin Wentian saw this, he stepped out. The heavenly deities behind him flew forth as well. Did the Qin Clan want to compete in numbers?

The heavenly deities of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect might be inferior when compared to the joint forces of the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. But they definitely had enough strength to crush any single one of the vast majority of hegemonic powers. The Qin Clan was no exception.

“Back then, the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan banded together to kill me. Today does resemble the past. Wentian, I need you to act as support for me to make sure none escape.” Qin Yuanfeng spoke as he stepped out, walking into the Qin Clan, into the midst of the Qin Clan’s deities.

How similar was today compared to the past? But the him now was no longer the him in the past.

Chapter 1990: Massacre

Qin Yuanfeng stood in the center of the Qin Clan's heavenly deities, he was cool and collected, like a supreme godking, staring at all the deities.

Qin Zheng stared at this clan brother of his who had grown up with him. His eyes flashed with an intense killing intent as he looked at this clan brother of his who was expelled from the clan because of his machinations due to the fact that his talent was higher. But he also knew that right now, this clan brother of his has a higher cultivation base compared to him.

Qin Yuanfeng simply stood there, like an invincible godking.

"Do your worst." Qin Yuanfeng calmly spoke as he stared at this similar scene. As the sound of his voice faded, a divine punishment formation appeared in the sky, locking down the surroundings. Waves of power radiated from it, a blast of divine might bore down on Qin Yuanfeng, wanting to destroy him. The power of the divine formation was fully focused on Qin Yuanfeng, the destructive light was so bright that it was eye-piercing.

In Qin Yuanfeng's surroundings, a wave of towering devilish might radiated forth, wanting to suppress the heavens and earth.

Not only that, the light of the six paths shone resplendently, transforming into six giant vortexes. He was like an absolute devil god, no one could destroy him. When the divine punishment light bore down on him, one of the six giant vortexes was like a giant mouth. It opened wide and directly swallowed the attack, transforming the beam of divine punishment light into nothingness.

"Force of the six paths." The heavenly deities of the Qin Clan felt their hearts trembling. Qin Yuanfeng has successfully cultivated the force of the six paths. They revolved around him, nothing could touch him. In addition, these six daos were all daos he comprehended. Hence, this force of the six paths was a technique he created. What a heaven-defying method.

"KILL!" The various heavenly deities decided to act at the same time. They had no choice.

Qin Yuanfeng and his son came here to seek repayment for the debts. Qin Yuanfeng challenged the deities of the Qin Clan while Qin Wentian led an army of deities from the Heaven Vault to act in support. They had no place to flee to. Only by battling would they be able to find a sliver of chance to survive.

Numerous dao attacks blasted into Qin Yuanfeng. The six dao vortexes around him grew even more terrifying, as they extended continuously.

A flower manifested, as six petals opened. Each petal was a type of dao and represented a path. These six dao petals had a bizarrely black hue, so dark that it was terrifying, like they were petals of a devil flower. They also seemed like a flower of death. The six dao petals enveloped Qin Yuanfeng, when the dao attacks slammed into them, they actually had no way to break the barrier created by the six petals. Such defense caused the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan to feel some despair, and also caused the other deities of the various hegemonic powers to feel an intense pressure. They were thinking that if they were in the shoes of the Qin Clan's deities, would they be able to succeed?

After Qin Yuanfeng dealt with the Qin Clan, would he deal with them?

They had no hatred with Qin Yuanfeng but they had participated in the hunt for Qin Wentian numerous times. Would Qin Yuanfeng spare them? At this moment, many of these powers faintly felt regret. The western paradise actually still has not appeared even now. The western paradise was everyone's only hope to stop Qin Yuanfeng and the Heaven Vault but they didn't come. Clearly, they must be harbouring unfathomable motives. They could not be trusted.

Staring at the black-colored six dao petals around Qin Yuanfeng, all the spectators had a thought in their minds. The Qin Clan will be finished today.

How foolish were they? They actually drove such an expert away from their clan and even tried all sorts of means to kill him. But Qin Yuanfeng had survived.

"Such a weak clan actually wanted to kill your own kin, hunting down my son and kept flaunting yourselves as powerful? How sad can the Qin Clan be?" Qin Yuanfeng sighed, causing the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan to feel a great humiliation. They were being insulted, Qin Yuanfeng was basically saying how weak they were.

The six dao petals shot outwards, expanding their area of control. This entire space was enveloped as the range of the petals expanded, fiercely absorbing the energy of the Qin Clan's heavenly deities's attacks. This forced the Qin Clan's deities to retreat unceasingly as helplessness arose in their hearts.

Qin Yuanfeng's strength far surpassed them.

At this moment, Qin Yuanfeng stretched out his hand. In an instant, one of the six dao petals began to unleash a terrifying devouring might, drawing a heavenly deity in. The devouring force formed a vortex that grew increasingly larger, seeking to devour the heavens and earth. That heavenly deity explosively retreated but the surrounding space he was in was locked down by the devouring might. He had no way to escape.

"Qin Yuanfeng, you dare to kill your elder? How can you be so unfilial?" That heavenly deity howled madly as he struggled.

Qin Yuanfeng's face was cold, there were no fluctuations to his emotions. Killing an elder?

“Are you all even qualified to be my elders?” Qin Yuanfeng calmly spoke. He felt no mercy in his heart. The black petal that transformed into the vortex directly enveloped that deity and devoured him. His screams echoed out loud through the skies, everyone of the Qin Clan felt their hearts trembling violently, regardless of whether they were heavenly deities who were fighting or ordinary members of the Qin Clan who were spectating.

The heavenly deities of the Qin Clan couldn’t even withstand a single strike from this so-called ‘traitor’ of the Qin Clan. They were dominated. All of them felt despair. Was there anyone who could contend against Qin Yuanfeng?

“Vile creature!” Another heavenly deity roared. He unleashed his dao attack, aiming for the dao petals. However, another one of the dao petals began to shine with reincarnation light, directly neutralizing his attack. After that, the deity’s body was swallowed as well into the reincarnation petal as he was forced into the reincarnation cycle.

Down below, Qin Dangtian let out a low-sounding roar. His divine might towered up into the sky. He wanted to soar into the air to join the battle but a hand pulled him back. Qin Dangtian turned his head, his eyes were shining with bloodlust as he stared at his mother.

“Dang`er, you should flee.” Qin Dangtian’s mother transmitted her voice to him. “Your talent is outstanding, you are the only one who has hope to defeat them. Flee now and get revenge for us in the future.”

She could also feel that presently, there was no one here who could win against Qin Yuanfeng. Even for Qin Dangtian who had obtained the inheritance of the Divine Mausoleum, he wouldn’t be able to win too. After all, Qin Dangtian hasn’t cultivated for too long. Even if he obtained the inheritance, it was impossible for him to grow much stronger within such a short time. He sparred with Qin Zheng before and could already fight equally with his father. But if he wanted his strength to reach Qin Yuanfeng’s level, it was clearly impossible right now.

If Qin Dangtian joined the battle now, the ending wouldn’t be different, he wouldn’t be able to influence the situation. Hence, she hoped that her only son could flee.

“Mother…” Qin Dangtian’s eyes shone with a blood-light. He was unwilling. Why would things happen like this? He obtained the inheritance of the Divine Mausoleum and came back in glory, becoming much stronger than the past. He initially thought that he would be able to cleanse the previous bout of humiliation he received and would be able to successfully woo that beautiful maiden. But what was reality? What awaited him was an even greater calamity.

Right now, the only thing he could do was to escape, dragging out an ignoble existence. His father and the deities of the Qin Clan had no choice but to fight this battle even if they couldn’t win. But by doing so, there was no difference from courting death.

“BOOM!” Another heavenly deity of the Qin Clan was killed, his body was flung with such force that when it knocked into a Qin Clan’s building, the building crumbled apart instantly and the buildings behind it all crumbled from the impact as well. The people of the Qin Clan glanced over, they didn't only see the buildings crumbling, it was like they could see the entire Qin Clan crumbling before their eyes.

If one were to say that the return of Qin Tiangang back then was to teach them a lesson, sealing Qin Ding away as his revenge, this time around, the return of Qin Yuanfeng was clearly the destruction of the Qin Clan.

Inclining their heads and staring at the supreme expert in the air that resembled a godking, the people of the Qin Clan truly felt regret. Such a powerful existence and invincible character should originally be a part of their Qin Clan. Why did the Qin Clan stoop so low to chase him away, and even wanted to kill him? If not for that, such a powerful supreme character would surely be able to lead their Qin Clan to greater heights, even conquering the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Other than him (Qin Yuanfeng), his son and daughter, Qin Wentian and Qin Kexin, were both so outstanding and powerful. But now, their family has become the enemy of the Qin Clan.

Who was in the wrong for all of this?

Who made the decision back then?

The ones who made the decision back then was Qin Ding and Qin Zheng. Now Qin Ding was sealed away, Qin Zheng clearly wasn't a match for Qin Yuanfeng. What an irony this was?

If the truth was really what Qin Wentian has said back then, Qin Ding and Qin Zheng wanted to eliminate Qin Yuanfeng because they were jealous that Qin Yuanfeng's talent surpassed them, many things could be explained.

But now, everything seemed to have been destined. What else could the people of the Qin Clan do?

If time could reverse, they would definitely not permit such a thing to happen. But in this world, there was no 'if.'

"ARGHHH!" Another miserable scream rang out. Yet another deity from the Qin Clan was killed. The black dao petals sliced him apart. Qin Yuanfeng had no intentions to show mercy at all. He had suffered so much through the years and has long forgotten what the word 'mercy' meant. Back then, if the Qin Clan had shown a little bit of mercy to him or his son, his heart might waver and he might choose not to kill them all.

But the Qin Clan didn't do so. They had never shown any mercy at all. After he was killed, the Qin Clan crippled Luoshen Yu. After his son appeared in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, he encountered relentless pursuit by the Qin Clan as they attempted to hunt him down. Now, what else could he, Qin Yuanfeng, do? Naturally, the only thing to do now was to repay a debt of blood with blood.

“Stop killing.” An expert from the Qin Clan roared loudly at the Qin Yuanfeng. He prostrated himself on the ground and revealed an extremely agonized expression. If the killing continued, all the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan would be wiped out. At that point of time, would the Qin Clan still be the Qin Clan? Even if Qin Yuanfeng spared the rest of the Qin Clan, there would only be a single fate for the Qin Clan then – utter destruction. They would become nothing but specks of dust in the history of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

“Qin Yuanfeng, you have the blood of the Qin Clan in you too. Don’t be so ruthless and annihilate our deities!” People from the Qin Clan called out, begging Qin Yuanfeng to show mercy. If all the deities really died, the Qin Clan would be completely finished.

Qin Wentian coldly stared at these people, he felt no sympathy in his heart. He coldly spoke, “Back then when the Qin Clan killed my father and attempted to hunt me, did any one of you ever stand out to say a single sentence for my father or me?”

Chapter 1991: Qin Zheng's Request

The people of the Qin Clan were speechless, they had no way to reply.

Back then, when the Qin Clan killed Qin Yuanfeng, where were these people? They simply stood aside and watched the heavenly deities killing the traitor Qin Yuanfeng.

When the Qin Clan wanted to hunt Qin Wentian, did any of them speak up for Qin Wentian? Not a single one of them would doubt the decision of the Qin Clan Leader.

Now that Qin Yuanfeng and Qin Wentian returned in such a dominant fashion for revenge, do they even have the qualifications to beg for mercy? Have they ever spared a thought for Qin Yuanfeng and Qin Wentian back then?

But even so, they couldn't help but beg. They weren't able to continue watching as the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan were killed. They weren't able to continue watching as the Qin Clan headed towards destruction.

"Qin Yuanfeng, we ultimately share the same blood. The first ancestor established this clan, I'm sure he didn't wish for a descendant to destroy everything he created." Another person spoke, hoping Qin Yuanfeng would show mercy. They already understood that no one in the Qin Clan was able to block Qin Yuanfeng. Qin Yuanfeng, who has returned, was simply too powerful. So powerful that he alone could trample the entire Qin Clan flat. Qin Wentian and his army of deities only needed to stand at the side to watch and ensure no one fled.

"When the Qin Clan wanted to kill us, did anyone think of the fact that we share the same blood?" Qin Wentian coldly asked.

Qin Yuanfeng swept his gaze towards the person who spoke. His expression was very calm as he spoke, "If I'm alive, the bloodline of the first ancestor will naturally live on. The Qin Clan's bloodline will continue existing. My family alone is strong enough to replace the Qin Clan."

"My family alone is strong enough to replace the Qin Clan."

His calm voice belied an immense self-confidence, causing everyone in the Qin Clan to be stunned. Such spirit. None of them had any words left to reply to this.

If he is alive, the Qin Clan's bloodline would exist as well. Who could rebut this? Let alone his family, he alone was already enough to establish a clan. Everyone could see that he was dominating the entire Qin Clan with his strength alone despite the fact that the deities of the Qin Clan had joined forces. They were helpless and couldn't reverse the situation, they could only wait to be killed.

He, Qin Wentian and Qin Kexin. If they joined forces, it would be way too easy to destroy the Qin Clan. If they lived on, their descendants would naturally have the Qin Clan’s blood as well. How could their branch be weaker compared to the current Qin Clan? Time was the only problem. Qin Yuanfeng was more than qualified to establish a new Qin Clan.

So in that case, even if he destroyed the Qin Clan now, so what of it?

The light of the six paths enveloped the entire Qin Clan. The six fearsome vortexes had the ability to destroy everything. The deities of the Qin Clan who were still alive were completely surrounded by them. Not one of them managed to escape outside the force of the six paths.

“Too strong.” The experts from the hegemonic powers who came here to the Qin Clan felt their hearts trembling. At the same time, they also felt a trace of panic, worried that Qin Yuanfeng’s next target would be them.

Sadly, could it be that the western paradise would simply sit on the fence and watch on as the Qin Clan was destroyed?

Although the various hegemonic powers attacked the Heaven Vault, the western paradise was the mastermind behind the scenes. However, the western paradise not only failed to finish Qin Wentian, they didn’t even come to assist now that Qin Yuanfeng has returned. Could it be that they were intending to exhaust the strength of all the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?

If this was the case, the hegemonic powers would be in for it. Their endings would be extremely dire. Qin Wentian definitely wouldn’t spare them.

Although they understood this point, they didn’t have the courage to help the Qin Clan now to act against Qin Yuanfeng. Qin Yuanfeng was simply too terrifying. No one knew if his strength has truly reached the godking tier already or not. At the very least, with their cultivation bases they knew that they could only look up to him. Qin Zheng was beaten so badly that he didn’t even have any strength to resist.

“Dang`er, leave quickly. I will protect you.” Qin Zheng’s wife transmitted her voice to Qin Dangtian. Qin Dangtian’s eyes turned red as he stared at the battle in the air.

Leave? If he left now, he would completely be a coward. His father was fighting yet he was fleeing? Let alone the fact that even if he wanted to leave, would he be able to do so? Leaving aside Qin Yuanfeng’s strength, Qin Wentian and the other deities on his side had surrounded the area.

“ARGH!” Another scream of misery rang out as a heavenly deity fell. Right now, only a few deities were left in the Qin Clan. If this continues on, they would soon be completely wiped out.

“Qin Yuanfeng, to think that you are actually so ruthless.” A heavenly deity howled madly. What awaited him was only the light from the six paths. A terrifying dimensional vortex tore apart everything, shredding him into pieces

Ruthless?

Back then considering how the Qin Clan had treated him, they actually dared to say that he was ruthless now?

“Thirsting for power, cold-blooded, cruelty. Such a Qin Clan is unfit to continue surviving. In the future, the Qin Clan will be handed to my son, the Qin Clan would only grow even stronger. There will be a new Qin Clan in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.” Qin Yuanfeng’s voice was as calm as ever. As his voice rang out, the killing continued. Finally, other than Qin Zheng’s wife and Qin Dangtian who hasn’t participated in the battle, all the heavenly deities had died, save for one person.

The Qin Clan Leader, Qin Zheng!

Other than Qin Zheng, all the other deities of the Qin Clan have fallen, killed by Qin Yuanfeng.

Qin Yuanfeng, who has returned, had no hesitation to kill them for the sake of revenge.

How did the Qin Clan kill him back then? Even if the debt of them killing him had dissipated over the many years, in that case, what about the debt of them trying to hunt down his son Qin Wentian?

The Qin Clan was unforgivable. Just like what he has said, such a cold-blooded and cruel clan wasn’t fit to exist.

At this moment, Qin Zheng stood before Qin Yuanfeng. He had the judgement halberd in his hand and his hair was disheveled, cutting a very sorry sight. He no longer had the imposing aura of the leader of a clan. He stared at his clan brother before him. He didn’t plead for mercy because he knew it would be useless.

Even if Qin Yuanfeng spared everyone, it would be impossible for Qin Yuanfeng to spare him. He understood this very well in his heart. Back then, he schemed and employed all sorts of means to deal with Qin Yuanfeng. Other than because he wanted that treasure, it was also because of jealousy. Back then, after this clan brother rose up, he started to display talent that didn’t lose out to his own. At that time, Qin Zheng was already nominated as the next leader of the Qin Clan. How could he tolerate another existence that was more outstanding than him? Qin Yuanfeng would threaten his position as long as he was alive, and threaten the possibility of him becoming the next leader.

Everyone would have selfish desires. He and his father, Qin Ding, naturally were no exception. They wanted to control the Qin Clan. In truth, they managed to do it. The Qin Clan fell into their control. He as the Qin Clan leader, was incomparably glorious in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, enjoying the admiration of countless people.

Ordinary people would look at him like he was a god. In the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, he was an impressive major character.

All this lasted until Qin Wentian appeared. Everything began to change slowly. Never in his wildest dreams would he have imagined that the changes would be so drastic. Firstly, Qin Wentian rose up, growing in strength and stepping into the heavenly deity realm. He then allied with the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace, Demon God Mountain and the others. After that, Qin Tiangang returned, traveling through time to seal his father Qin Ding. All the way until today where Qin Yuanfeng also returned. Qin Yuanfeng, who became the tomb keeper of the Divine Mausoleum came back in an invincible manner, looking down with disdain at him, the Qin Clan Leader.

As for the status and authority of the clan leader, before true power, everything seemed so fragile, unable to withstand a single strike.

“Is this what you wanted to see?” Qin Zheng felt despair, the deities of the Qin Clan had all fallen.

“Any last words?” Qin Yuanfeng calmly spoke. Just like before, his voice contained no emotions. This single sentence was like announcing Qin Zheng’s death. The next words he spoke would be his last words.

Qin Zheng stared at Qin Yuanfeng and suddenly laughed. He lifted his head, and stared up at the sky. “I have nothing to say about my defeat today. As for the matters back then, I have no regrets as well. The winner becomes the king the loser would be vilified. Back then after killing you, no one in the Qin Clan would be able to threaten my position and I would become the Qin Clan’s King. Now you came back for revenge, I’m not strong enough to contend against you. Hence, you would be correct no matter what you say. I only wish to beg a single thing from you. Mo`er, although she let you down in the past, you have once loved her before too. Can you spare her?”

Qin Yuanfeng didn’t expect that before Qin Zheng died, he would actually beg for mercy for his wife. This caused him to be somewhat taken aback. As for Qin Zheng’s wife, her gaze also froze as she stared at the sorry-looking figure in the air. Her figure flashed as she soared upwards. Her long robes fluttered in the wind, radiating exceptional beauty.

She and Qin Zheng have always been a peerless couple envied by the people of the world. Regardless of her talent or beauty, she stood at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

She also didn’t regret following Qin Zheng. That was her choice and that was undoubtedly the most correct choice. Everything that happened after that proved that her choice was the current one. It was only now that after Qin Yuanfeng returned, everything started to change.

The things in the world are hard to anticipate. Who could foretell the future?

Qin Yuanfeng stared at her. Luoshen Qianxue also stared at her. But before Qin Yuanfeng said anything, Luoshen Qianxue calmly spoke, “Impossible.”

Qin Zheng’s expression froze as she stared at Luoshen Qianxue.

Luoshen Qianxue didn’t bother explaining, she simply stood there calmly. This sentence was her attitude. When the Qin Clan acted like this against her husband, did this woman not participate? She understood Mo`er very well and knew her character. Hence, she said what she had to say.

The Qin Clan killed her husband and tried to hunt her son, crippling her elder brother, causing the Luoshen Clan to be fragmented, almost completely annihilated. Did Mo`er have nothing to do with all of this? Could everything be forgotten just like that?

Qin Yuanfeng heard his wife’s words and didn’t say anything, merely looking at Qin Zheng. Since Luoshen Qianxue has spoken, that would be his stance as well. She was his woman.

Qin Zheng’s wife suddenly laughed. She stared at Qin Zheng, “If you die, what’s the point of me living alone? We didn’t do anything wrong. It’s just that heavenly fate is like that, destiny made fools out of us.”

After speaking, she walked to Qin Zheng’s side and held his hand.

They didn’t beg Qin Yuanfeng to spare their son because they knew it was impossible.

“Since this is the case, I have one last request. Your son Qin Wentian has unrivalled talent and is proclaimed to be the strongest genius in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. My son Dangtian also has unparalleled talent and is known as the Heaven’s Son. In the past, they fought each other twice, both of them had one defeat and one victory each. Today, can you allow them to truly face off against each other once more?” Qin Zheng stared at Qin Yuanfeng as he spoke. Even before his death, he still wanted to see for himself that his son Qin Dangtian wasn’t in anyway inferior to Qin Yuanfeng’s son.

He hoped that everything would be concluded based on the results of this one battle!

Chapter 1992: Desired Battle

Qin Zheng already knew what his fate would be. Before his life ended, he still felt reluctance in his heart. He knew he couldn’t compare to Qin Yuanfeng, but he didn’t want to admit this. Hence, he made such a request.

He hoped that his son was able to fight against Qin Yuanfeng’s son. This would be a battle of destiny, all his hopes were on it. If Qin Dangtian could win, he would feel gratified in his heart. He would die knowing that Qin Yuanfeng’s son ultimately was still inferior to his son. He wouldn’t have lost to Qin Yuanfeng so badly.

Regardless of Qin Yuanfeng or Qin Wentian, they naturally understood Qin Zheng’s thoughts. Qin Wentian took a step out and spoke to Qin Zheng calmly. “Back then, you were inferior to my father but you used despicable methods and borrowed the strength of the entire Qin Clan to kill my father. Now, time finally proven everything. You are completely unworthy to be mentioned in the same breath as my father. Even before your death, you still want to use such a method to make yourself feel better? Since this is the case, I will grant you your wish. However, take note that I shall tear apart the last bit of your hope.”

As the sound of his voice faded, he turned his gaze to Qin Dangtian. His white robes and black hair fluttered in the wind. In the ruins of the Qin Clan, countless people stared at this young man that was exuding boundless magnificence. His name was Qin Wentian, a descendant of the Qin Clan. Right now, he was known as the number one character in the younger generations of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the one with the highest talent. Even Heaven’s Son Qin Dangtian was trampled by him.

But this descendant of the Qin Clan, Qin Wentian, has long stood in opposition to the Qin Clan due to the matters of his father.

Qin Wentian’s action naturally proved his attitude. Qin Yuanfeng didn’t stop him and simply watched calmly. He believed that his son wouldn’t be weaker than anyone else. Even in the situation where he wasn’t around, his son managed to climb all the way by himself to his current height. This by itself can already be considered a legendary feat. In addition, the legend of his son would continue. His son would surpass him and become a character standing at the pinnacle of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

When Qin Dangtian saw Qin Wentian’s action, he stepped out and appeared before Qin Wentian. There was no fear in his eyes, only calmness. The battle of destiny?

In that case, in this battle, he shall prove everything.

“If I can kill him, would you interfere?” Qin Dangtian stared at Qin Yuanfeng as he asked.

“Yes.” Qin Yuanfeng didn’t hesitate and replied directly. His tyrannical and cold voice directly smashed apart Qin Dangtian’s trace of wishful thinking.

He naturally would act because that was his son. In this situation where he alone could effortlessly wipe all of them out, it was already considered very benevolent of him to allow Qin Dangtian a fight with Qin Wentian. If Qin Dangtian was truly powerful enough to kill Qin Wentian. How could Qin Yuanfeng watch neutrally?

“Although I will, but you are not qualified enough to kill him yet. You are not worthy.” Qin Yuanfeng’s voice was calm. He would naturally act if the situation became dire for Qin Wentian but it didn’t mean that he needed to act. Qin Dangtian asked him this question hence Qin Yuanfeng gave him the most direct reply. But this didn’t mean that he felt his son was inferior to Qin Dangtian.

“I understand.” Qin Dangtian’s body flashed as he soared into the air. “Come, let’s battle then.”

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stepped out. He has already heard what his parents said. Qin Dangtian entered the Divine Mausoleum for cultivation. He also wanted to know how strong Qin Wentian has grown.

This was like the arrangement of destiny. Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian once again stood opposite and faced each other. The two of them were so resplendent, their talent was unrivalled. Countless experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms couldn’t help but sigh in admiration. These two were like the past Qin Yuanfeng and Qin Zheng as well as the even earlier pair of Qin Tiangang and Qin Ding. However, destiny made them stand in opposition to each other, resulting in this battle.

Qin Dangtian released his Absolute Beginnings Astral Soul. He has always felt that his dao was the ultimate dao, able to lead him to the strongest path.

The terrifying Absolute Beginnings Dao began to brew a divine art. Boundless light shone from the astral soul behind him. A strand of sword intent manifested. In an instant, the sword intent expanded, permeating the entire space here. From the starry sky, astral light cascaded down as this world seemed to transform into a world of starry space. The white sky disappeared. This was a world of constellations formed by his Absolute Beginnings Dao, his dao could seemingly replace the true constellations in the sky.

“He is growing stronger and stronger.” Everyone spoke. Qin Dangtian’s Absolute Beginnings Dao could now even transform into the constellations of the sky, becoming one with the starry space. This was an evolution of dao. Qin Dangtian made his dao move in the direction of the supreme ultimate dao. The Qin Dangtian now was evidently much stronger compared to before. The Divine Mausoleum forbidden ground was truly a mystical place.

Like the Heaven Vault, those godking ruins in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms contained unimaginable power.

In this world of starry space, the sky was transformed into a divine formation of the great dao. Qin Dangtian was at the center of it, like a godking standing among the stars, lording over the constellations.

“Kill.” Qin Dangtian stretched out a finger. In an instant, a billion flows of sword light and a wave of sword qi shot towards the location Qin Wentian was at. This scene was so magnificent that everyone stared in awe and shock, the power of this attack was so great that the spectators felt despair. This great killing dao that could exterminate everything was formed by the Absolute Beginnings Sword Dao. It was able to shatter all existences, and the billion flows of sword light were clearly aimed at Qin Wentian.

Numerous gazes landed on Qin Wentian. How could he block such an attack?

But from what they knew, Qin Wentian's astral souls seemed limitless in number, he could control all daos. Even the western paradise had no way to finish him. He killed his way into the western paradise and two buddha lords died in his hands. There was no need to doubt his strength. How could the current him be weaker than the him in the past?

At this moment, a terrifying whirlpool appeared around Qin Wentian. Space began to warp as a powerful dao art was manifested. The billion flows of sword light shot over and when they were about to engulf him, they suddenly flickered and blinked out. They were actually absorbed into another dimension, causing Qin Dangtian's attack to disappear completely.

"His spacetime dao grew even stronger." Everyone sighed silently when they saw this. Qin Dangtian had grown, but so did Qin Wentian. His mastery of spacetime was nearing his grandfather. Back then during the battle in the Qin Clan, Qin Tiangang traveled through time and used a heaven-defying divine technique to seal Qin Ding away into chaotic spacetime.

Today, Qin Wentian's spacetime dao already contained a hint of the splendor of his grandfather. He caused the billion flows of sword intent to enter the warped space, sealing them away. How powerful was this? This made everyone understand that even those major characters of the hegemonic powers, who stood at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, would probably find it tough to deal with Qin Wentian. For example, even a person like Qin Zheng might not be his opponent anymore.

"You are indeed stronger than before. Only like this would you be qualified to fight against me." Qin Dangtian coldly spoke. His eyes flickered with intense self-confidence. Although currently the Qin Clan had undergone great changes and his clan suffered a calamity, when it comes to battling, he was as radiant as ever, filled with incomparable self-confidence. Because, he understood what sort of transformation he himself had gone through after the bout in the Divine Mausoleum. He knew how powerful he was now. Although he was still inferior to Qin Yuanfeng who could use the force of the six paths, he knew that Qin Wentian was definitely not his opponent.

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at Qin Dangtian as he calmly spoke, "You, who was once defeated by me, actually would say such words? Don't you find yourself ridiculous?"

"Ridiculous?" Qin Dangtian mockingly spoke. He didn't find it ridiculous at all. In the next moment, terrifying divine might radiated from Qin Dangtian. Behind Qin Dangtian, the stars his Absolute Beginnings Dao transformed into began to congregate together, taking on the form of a human figure. This figure was extremely majestic and imposing, although it was blurry, everyone here could feel an unexcelled aura from it.

The experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms inclined their heads. Strange looks could be seen on their faces as they stared at Qin Dangtian. What was that?

When they recalled some of the rumors about the Divine Mausoleum, the hearts of many people started to pound violently. Could it be Qin Dangtian truly received the complete inheritance of the Divine Mausoleum?

“Descend,” Qin Dangtian spoke. That incomparably majestic figure appeared fully in the air, like it was the lord of the heavens and earth. It transformed into a protector that stood behind Qin Dangtian. The Qin Dangtian now was like he was being protected by a godking, inheriting the divine dao. He was truly the Heaven’s Son, unexcelled in this world.

Qin Yuanfeng frowned when he saw this scene. To think that this figure had such heaven-defying capabilities. It actually borrowed the energy of an inheritor to manifest once again in the world.

However, since that figure has already died, he should remain dead. Let the dust return to dust, the earth return to earth. The destiny of this figure has already ended. Even if the godking really returned now, Qin Yuanfeng wasn’t afraid of fighting the godking.

Naturally, he also wasn’t in a hurry to act, this wasn’t a true return. This was the battle between his son and Qin Dangtian. He still believed that his son Qin Wentian would be able to win.

“I was proclaimed by everyone in the world as the Heaven’s Son. This ought to be my destiny. In truth, everything that has happened also proved my claim to my destiny. Regrettably, there would always be some obnoxious characters in the world trying to influence destiny. Yet, the ending of this battle has already been dictated by fate. You will lose for sure.” Qin Dangtian calmly spoke. His confidence came from his strength as well as the inheritance he had obtained!

Chapter 1993: Moon God Eyes

The experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms felt their hearts trembling as they stared up at the sky. As mention of ancient ruins and forbidden grounds were brought up, many ancient rumors started to circulate through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

It was rumored that the Divine Mausoleum had buried countless ancient deities. The person who made this happen was none other than a supremely powerful existence, one of the overlords of one of the eight great regions, the godking of the Chaos Region, the Moon God.

Out of the constellations in the nine astral rivers in the sky, moonlight was the brightest of all. The people of the world paid their highest respect to the Moon God.

It's rumored that in that era, the Moon God was so powerful that he could use all the astral energy from the constellations as his own, manifesting exceedingly powerful divine arts that had the power to destroy all existences. It's rumored that the Moon God was only a single step away from transcendence back then.

He had sealed himself into the Divine Mausoleum then. Could it be that he was waiting for a day to return?

"Is that a godking?" Everyone stared at the illusory figure. Was he planning to borrow the body of the inheritor to return?

If a godking returned and fought in this battle, how could Qin Wentian contend against that? In addition, the body the godking borrowed would be one filled with terrifying potential, the body of Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian.

This scene caused all the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to tremble. Maybe, Qin Dangtian would really be able to defeat the number one genius of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms today.

The people of the Qin Clan felt their hearts trembling violently when they saw this scene. Was this the Qin Dangtian who has returned from the Divine Mausoleum? No wonder their clan leader, Qin Zheng, said that right now, he already wasn't a match for his son Qin Dangtian. The Heaven's Son today truly obtained the favor of a godking and gained incredible power. Unfortunately, Qin Yuanfeng was here. He wouldn't give Qin Dangtian enough time to grow or the Qin Clan might be able to survive this calamity and catapult into becoming one of the strongest hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that was on par with the western paradise.

Just like what Qin Dangtian has said, destiny has decided that he was the Heaven's Son. However, there would always be some existences in the world trying to struggle against and attempting to influence fate.

Qin Dangtian obtained the inheritance of a godking, but it just so happened that Qin Yuanfeng was coincidentally the guardian of the inheritance. If this wasn't destiny, what was?

Now, what they could do is only to admire this battle. This battle of destiny between the twin supreme geniuses of the Qin Clan.

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the illusory figure of the godking formed by the motes of starlight from the boundless constellations. A pair of eyes gradually formed, these were the Moon God Eyes.

It’s rumored that in ancient times, the Moon God Eyes contained the power to exterminate all powers in the world. Now, no one knew how strong it would be since Qin Dangtian gained this ability.

Qin Wentian soared into the air. An extremely powerful divine might gushed forth as spacetime storms manifested around him. In an instant, a spacetime sword intent capable of tearing through everything directly appeared. It transformed into a sword dao that could slash apart time and space. Terrifying sword light flashed in the starry space, powerful to the extreme.

Behind Qin Dangtian, in the space above that illusory figure, countless constellations swirled about, giving birth to an extremely powerful moon that seemed akin to a divine formation. Its glow coated Qin Dangtian completely. When that spacetime sword dao that could tear apart anything slashed over, it actually dispersed and transformed into nothingness, like it has never existed before.

That moonlight seemed to have the power to exterminate the dao. It was able to destroy all types of power born from the heavenly dao, akin to supremely lofty divine might that could lord over everything.

Qin Wentian frowned. He continued to attempt different dao attacks but under the protection of that illusory figure, the Moon God Formation destroyed all his dao attacks. Nothing he tried could even get close to Qin Dangtian. All his heavenly dao attacks lost their attack might.

“Dao extermination.” Someone exclaimed. Was this the power of a godking? It was simply too powerful. Now that Qin Dangtian has inherited this power, he could actually use his own body to unleash such might that only belonged to godkings. How incredible. The methods of godkings were incomparably unfathomable.

“If I have more time, even your father Qin Yuanfeng wouldn’t be my opponent. Let alone you.” Qin Dangtian’s voice was filled with arrogance. Although this might be his last battle, he would never lose his pride. This was a battle that belonged to him. It was here where he would shine the brightest.

He had immense self-confidence because his inheritance was a godking-level inheritance. Even for Qin Yuanfeng, he was merely the tomb keeper responsible for guarding that place.

“Borrowing the power of ancients. To think that you are so arrogant. If you depend on yourself alone, you wouldn’t even be qualified to be my opponent.” Qin Wentian’s voice was calm, floating in the starry space. He stared at Qin Dangtian, “Do your worst. Let me see how strong exactly is the power of this godking-level inheritance.”

He had never met an ancient godking. As of now, it's very possible that there's only one godking who had survived since the ancient times. That godking was that supreme existence in the western world. That existence would surely be his greatest enemy. Hence, he wanted to experience for himself how strong a godking was. Has his father and that crazy old freak reached the godking level yet?

If they had not, how great was the distance between them and a godking?

"Laughable. Could it be that you, with your current strength, have never depended on the power of the inheritances gained from experts of the prior generations? Since I have the inheritance, this power naturally belongs to me." Qin Dangtian coldly replied. His heart didn't waver. He stared at Qin Wentian and continued, "Moon God Eyes."

As the sound of his voice faded, that gigantic imposing illusory figure trembled. The pair of eyes began to glow resplendently, unleashing two beams of light that could devour everything. The two beams instantly enveloped Qin Wentian. In this moment, Qin Wentian felt like he arrived at another world, a world formed by the Moon God Eyes. In here, it was like he lost all his strength and became a mortal. Before him, a divine being of incomparable might stood there. Just a single glance from those eyes made him feel an urge to submit himself in worship, prostrating himself on the ground.

"Kneel." A voice drifted over, ringing out in Qin Wentian's mind, causing him to feel an impulse to obey. His will was being tested as it wavered violently.

Frowning, Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with determination as he stared at the figure ahead. He was also a heavenly deity. Even if a true godking came by, that godking wouldn't have the qualifications to make him kneel. He would never kneel.

"Profaning the majesty of godkings." The cold voice rang out. After that, a supreme divine weapon shot out and began to attack Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian released his own heavenly dao might to resist. Spacetime storms manifested, wanting to drown the divine weapon. However, when the divine weapon came in contact with his dao, his dao was directly exterminated, so weak that it couldn't even last a single hit. The divine weapon then pierced into his body, causing him to feel a sense of pain. Qin Wentian lowered his head, he saw a hole in his chest, the divine weapon had penetrated his body, causing fresh blood to flow out.

"What sort of power is this?" Qin Wentian silently mused. Under the energy envelopment of the Moon God Eyes, he was like a mortal, so weak that he was unable to withstand a single strike. If this is the case, how should he fight with Qin Dangtian? His attacks couldn't reach his opponent and his defense was also useless. How should he fight?

"Illusion?" Qin Wentian suddenly spoke. He inclined his head and stared at the sky. This definitely must be the power of an illusion heavenly dao. The Moon God Eyes brought him into the world of this illusion heavenly dao, influencing his perception. In this illusion-scape, his strength was greatly weakened, even his heavenly dao might seemed to be exceedingly weak. He was helpless against heavenly deities and there was only a path of death before him.

His will was very powerful, wanting to find a way to break this illusion. However, he discovered that this heaven-defying illusion art seemed to have no difference from reality. There were no flaws.

It was a truly unfathomable art, illusions became reality and reality became illusions.

By borrowing the starry space to form the dao, Qin Dangtian manifested the Moon God Eyes, unleashing this powerful illusion art. As to how strong the Moon God Eyes are, most probably only those people living in that era would understand.

“How can you fight with me?” At this moment, a voice drifted over. Qin Wentian glanced ahead. Under the moonlight, a supreme figure appeared. This figure was none other than Qin Wentian’s figure. The him now was like a true godking. Was it the godking who borrowed his body for this battle, or has he became the godking?

“Kill.” Qin Dangtian icily spoke. Another supreme divine weapon shot out. Qin Wentian’s expression turned cold. “Timestop.”

In his surroundings, time seemed to want to stop. However, when that supreme divine weapon passed through, the dao of timestop was directly broken. That divine weapon penetrated Qin Wentian’s body once again, nothing could block it. His chest was pierced through once more, fresh blood flowed out dying his clothes red, causing Qin Wentian to appear in an extremely miserable sight.

Such a battle basically had no suspense. As long as Qin Wentian couldn’t break this dao, Qin Dangtian would never be defeated.

At this moment, outside the illusion dao, Qin Yuanfeng and the others lifted their heads and stared at the battle in the air. They could see Qin Wentian’s body being penetrated as fresh blood flowed.

“Elder brother!” Luoshen Lei’s gaze froze, she was extremely worried. Even Luoshen Qianxue felt worry as she stared at the battle in the air. Only Qin Yuanfeng seemed as calm as ever. He had more understanding compared to anyone else with regards to the legends of the ancient era. He knew how terrifying the Moon God was. In that era, the Moon God could dominate the living things in the entire world with a single glance, causing everyone to sink within the powerful illusions, unable to extricate themselves from it. He was able to borrow the power of the constellations to form the Mood God Eyes. Once he invoked this divine art, no one in the world would be able to escape.

Now that Qin Dangtian inherited this power, he would naturally be very powerful. But if he wanted to be comparable to the Moon God of that era, it was clearly not possible.

He didn’t make a move. He knew this was something Qin Wentian had to experience. In their future, they might have to face off against a true godking. Now that a godking of the past has borrowed Qin Dangtian’s body to fight this battle, this was a sort of challenge to Qin Wentian. He had to overcome this.

The road ahead is still far. If he wanted to be able to become powerful enough to decide things in the world, he had to accomplish something others had no way to achieve.

Qin Wentian had even understood the mysteries of the Heaven Vault. Qin Yuanfeng believed that his son would become an existence that could transcend fate and soar above the nine heavens.

Chapter 1994: Half-moon

“Struggling is useless.” In the air, Qin Dangtian was like he had transformed into a godking, and was unexcelled in the world. He stared at Qin Wentian and coldly spoke, “As long as you are in this spacetime, you won’t be able to escape my dao attacks for all eternity. You have already lost. I’m the true Heaven’s Son, the number one in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.”

“Your dao attacks?” Qin Wentian stared at the figure in the air as he spoke, “Is that really your dao?”

That was the dao of a Godking. Qin Dangtian was merely a successor and most probably, Qin Dangtian wouldn’t be able to digest such a powerful inheritance so soon. Given how extraordinary this inheritance was and the fact that the godking returned, using his body to do battle, although Qin Wentian didn’t know what consequences this would have, he knew that even if Qin Dangtian didn’t die from this, his ending wouldn’t be good.

The Moon God has schemed for countless years, burying himself in the Divine Mausoleum. How could it be so simple as him looking for a successor?

“Now, this power belongs to me, it is naturally my dao.” Qin Dangtian arrogantly replied. “Qin Wentian, you are no longer qualified to be my opponent. Go to hell.”

As the sound of his voice faded, numerous supreme divine weapons manifested, all of them shooting towards Qin Wentian.

Down below, countless gazes stared up at the battle in the air. Qin Wentian was now in danger, would Qin Yuanfeng act?

But at this moment, Qin Wentian actually closed his eyes. The time flow around him abruptly changed, becoming extremely slow.

“You are right, as long as I’m in this spacetime, I will never be able to escape from this illusion art. This illusion art is actually a spacetime illusion dao. It is able to be executed from borrowing the power of all constellations in the sky. If one wants to break this dao, they cannot be inside this spacetime created by the dao.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Below the sky, astral light from the constellations shine upon everywhere. It’s the same no matter where you flee to.” Qin Dangtian’s voice was cold. The attack from the supreme divine weapons continued, wanting to claim Qin Wentian’s life.

“You are right. However, how could there be an invincible dao art in the world? No matter how strong a dao is, there would always be a weakness. The illusion dao might be strong, but it ultimately has to borrow the strength of the constellations to activate.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. A moment later, the ninth astral gate in his seas of consciousness began to radiate with a dazzling light. At this moment, endless beams of astral light cascaded down from the nine heavens.Boundless starlight flooded the area, Qin Wentian was completely immersed in the starlight, shining resplendently.

“This…” The hearts of everyone who saw this scene trembled violently. Countless beams of astral light from different constellations in the nine heavenly layers cascaded down on Qin Wentian. It was like he could use the power of any of them. They shone upon his body and shone upon this spacetime. The night sky was now so bright that it felt like day.

As the boundless starlight cascaded down, the illusory figure behind Qin Dangtian grew weaker and weaker, bit by bit. The night sky that blotted out the true sky, slowly began to fade. Qin Dangtian’s expression changed as he stared at this scene in disbelief. How could this be? How did Qin Wentian managed to break the Moon God Eyes’s technique?

“Borrowing the power of the constellations.” The experts below felt their hearts pounding. The Moon God Eyes was a technique that borrowed power from the starry sky to cast a reflection down below, causing everyone in the world to fall within the grand illusion. Yet for Qin Wentian, he formed a connection with all the constellation in the heavenly layers, causing the light from the constellations to cascade down on him alone. The illusion was broken even without him needing to lift a finger. There was no way to resolve this more perfectly.

However, since Qin Wentian could do this, does it mean that he was like what was mentioned in the rumors? He could connect with any constellations in the nine heavenly layers?

What sort of terrifying inheritance has he gained from the Heaven Vault exactly?

Qin Zheng and his wife had unsightly expressions. The Moon God Eyes technique was broken. This was a powerful technique from the Moon God’s inheritance. It was actually broken by Qin Wentian.

“What sort of power did you obtain from the Heaven Vault?” Qin Dangtian stared at Qin Wentian as he asked.

Qin Wentian didn’t reply. He merely coldly looked at him. “Without borrowing the power of a godking, how can your Absolute Beginnings Dao fight against me?”

Behind Qin Dangtian, the illusory figure of the godking was still present. There was a terrifying pair of eyes there. However, it’s power was no longer as immense as before where it could drag Qin Wentian into the heaven-defying illusion-scape with a single glance.

The Absolute Beginnings Astral Soul shone brilliantly as it transformed again. In an instant, numerous pairs of eyes were manifested by the Absolute Beginnings Astral Soul. Each pair of eyes were like the Moon God Eyes. This was the heaven-defying transformation ability of the Absolute Beginnings Astral Soul, it was like the beginning of the myriad of daos, able to transform and evolve a dao to its most perfect state. Although the Moon God Eyes technique has been broken, it didn't mean that Qin Dangtian had lost all his combat strength.

The terrifying pair of eyes stared at Qin Wentian, wanting to seal him into that spacetime illusion once more.

However, a terrifying storm suddenly manifested before Qin Wentian, capable of tearing through everything. Even space and time was torn apart with ease before it.

"It's time for me to attack." Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at Qin Dangtian. In an instant, his own terrifying gaze was like it could cause everything in the world to sink within. Qin Dangtian felt the spacetime around him twisting, turning chaotic. Qin Wentian's figure in his vision was also warping. It looked extremely fearsome.

Before Qin Dangtian released the Moon God Eyes, Qin Wentian had already displayed his current extraordinary attainments in terms of his spacetime dao. He was much stronger compared to the past and he already has the power of banishment, capable of banishing the attacks of his opponents into a different spacetime. And right now, every step he took caused the space and time here to twist. Not only so, Qin Dangtian could sense that his surroundings had completely warped.

A spacetime storm arose, wanting to bury everything. Qin Dangtian's expression turned extremely unsightly. His Absolute Beginnings Dao also manifested a spacetime storm. The two storms collided together, but the spacetime here only turned more chaotic. He could feel that the surrounding spacetime was gradually out of his control.

Swish~ Qin Dangtian's body flashed, shooting out like a bolt of lightning. But at this moment, he saw a faint shadow flashing. The twisting space and time wanted to slice him into pieces. Qin Dangtian instinctively drew back. But in the next moment, he saw Qin Wentian appearing before him, blocking all paths of escape.

"I will let you be destroyed in this stretch of spacetime." Qin Wentian calmly spoke, his voice filled with incomparable confidence, telling Qin Dangtian straight that he would kill him here.

Qin Dangtian's expression grew increasingly ugly. He bolted in another direction but Qin Wentian directly took a single step, crossing through the void and appeared before him once more. A punch blasted out, causing the heavens and earth to tremble. Spacetime seemed to be on the verge of shattering here, blasting Qin Dangtian back into the zone of twisting spacetime whose boundary kept expanding, enveloping Qin Dangtian wanting to swallow him whole.

Next, Qin Dangtian continued trying to break out but his attempts ended in failure every time, blocked by Qin Wentian. The spacetime storm raging here grew increasingly terrifying. It was like a bloody maw wanting to devour everything.

“Dang`er!” Qin Zheng’s wife called out. Her beautiful eyes flashed with a trace of worry. Qin Zheng’s expression turned ashen. Qin Wentian’s attainments in the dao of space and time were already so powerful to this extent? If this continued, there would be a day where he comprehended the ultimate quintessence of the spacetime dao.

“Ahh!” A loud scream of misery rang out. The terrifying twisting spacetime storm tore an arm off Qin Dangtian. Fresh blood spilled, splashing through the air. Qin Zheng roared in rage and stepped out, moving towards the battlefield.

But at this moment, a giant hand directly appeared, manifesting the force of the six paths, knocking Qin Zheng back with a thunderous explosion. Qin Yuanfeng coldly glanced at him. When a son was in danger, a father would always act. However, was Qin Zheng qualified to act before him? Qin Zheng was no match for him.

“Qin Wentian!” The scream of misery continued, filled with rage. The raging spacetime storm was now so strong that it could bury Qin Dangtian within completely.

Would the Heaven’s Son die here in the Qin Clan today?

The people of the Qin Clan all felt intense sorrow. The experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were bearing witness to this scene. Even just by watching, they could feel pressure on them.

Qin Wentian’s family was actually so powerful. From now onwards, another peak hegemonic power would be born in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, their strength would surely rise above the other powers in the future.

“Mhm?” At this moment, Qin Yuanfeng frowned. After that, a fearsome black fog began to drift over from afar. A spacetime tunnel seemed to open up in the air, shining with a beam of incomparably dark light, directly cascading down from the sky, seemingly from outer space.

When this beam of dark light came in contact with the spacetime storm. The power of the spacetime storm was actually exterminated bit by bit, finally being extinguished completely. Qin Dangtian’s body appeared but he was covered in numerous wounds and cut a sorry figure. Qin Wentian furrowed his brows and glanced up at the spacetime tunnel. The beam of dark light was moonlight. This moonbeam contained terrifying dao intent, like it had the power the exterminate all daos in this world.

Qin Wentian sensed that this energy was somewhat similar to the extermination dao Qin Dangtian displayed earlier. But this was much stronger.

“Yue Changkong.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. He naturally recognized that black fog. It was Yue Changkong’s ability.

The dark moonbeam then shone upon Qin Dangtian as black fog enveloped him. A voice drifted across time and space, “Qin Dangtian, the godking inheritance you’ve obtained isn’t complete. Now, the Qin Clan is destined to fall today. If you want revenge, the only way is to let the inheritance become whole.”

Qin Dangtian inclined his head and stared at the source of the dark moonbeam. At the end of the spacetime tunnel he saw a black moon, a half-moon. If this half-moon merged with the half-moon he gained from the godking inheritance, that would then become the complete inheritance of the Moon God.

In addition, Yue Changkong’s comprehension of the Moon God’s dao seemed to be superior to his.

Qin Dangtian glanced at his parents before shooting another cold look at Qin Wentian. His eyes burned with flames of hatred. Just like what Yue Changkong said, the Qin Clan would surely fall today and his parents might die. What about him then? Should he choose death, or another path for revenge?

“Fine, I will grant you your wish.” Qin Dangtian icily spoke, no longer resisting the corrosion of the black fog. In an instant, the terrifying darkness energy in the fog seized all the inheritance power from his body, devouring everything. Even his soul floated out, swallowed into the black fog as he was brought away, drifting towards the spacetime tunnel.

Chapter 1995: The Curtains are Drawn

"Dang`er!" Qin Zheng and his wife called out loudly when they saw this. The illusory figure drifting away turned to them and spoke. "Father, Mother, I will definitely come back to take revenge for you two."

"No…!" Qin Zheng's wife screamed but everything was useless. The black fog carried away Qin Dangtian's soul and vanished into that space-time tunnel. Qin Yuanfeng frowned when he saw this. He knew who that person in the tunnel was. It was that evil cultivator who has also entered the Divine Mausoleum. This man had many evil methods at his disposal. Back then, he wanted to devour the Divine Mausoleum but the Moon God's inheritance refused to be devoured by him. He only managed to devour half the inheritance while the other half went to Qin Dangtian. Now, it seemed that nothing could stop Yue Changkong from obtaining the complete inheritance of the Moon God.

"BOOM!" Qin Yuanfeng stepped out, he actually was flying towards that space-time tunnel. After that, he lifted his fist and punched out. In the next instant, a terrifying storm manifested and shot towards the tunnel. It transformed into a punch of the six paths, capable of shredding everything. The spacetime tunnel trembled unceasingly as numerous intense noises rang out. At the other end of the space-time tunnel, a groan of misery could be heard. But after that, a cold and evil laughter rang out.

"Tomb keeper, just wait for me. Both you and your son will become my nutrients sooner or later." That evil voice reverberated through the heavens and earth. The space-time tunnel closed as the violent and churning qi flows gradually returned to calmness. Finally, the curtains were closed on this incident. Qin Dangtian's body fell from the sky and was caught by Qin Zheng. However, there was no longer any hints of life.

"Heaven's Son actually died." The experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms inclined their heads. This was a epoch-marking battle. Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian returned from the Divine Mausoleum. He who had obtained the inheritance was unexcelled in the world, incomparably arrogant. But even so, he was still defeated in the end. Just like what Qin Wentian has said that power ultimately belonged to the inheritance, it didn't belong to Qin Dangtian. It was like the godking had returned and Qin Wentian was fighting the godking instead. Qin Dangtian's own Absolute Beginnings Dao was extremely weak before Qin Wentian. Hence, after the Moon God Eyes technique was broken, Qin Dangtian no longer had a way to contend with Qin Wentian and was defeated. After that, he was brought away by Yue Changkong.

The Heaven's Son lost his body, the Qin Clan was annihilated. Qin Yuanfeng and his son Qin Wentian seemed to be the most dazzling existences in this era. There would no longer be anyone who could mask their radiance. Maybe, the remaining existences that could contend against them in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were only the western paradise and the mysterious evil cultivator Yue Changkong.

Now, how could the people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms not understand that the Yue Changkong's current existence was no longer the past him.

Staring at the location of the vanished figure, Qin Yuanfeng was still frowning. The existence of Yue Changkong would bring about plenty of trouble.

He turned his gaze towards Qin Zheng and his wife. They were also staring at him with cold expressions, their eyes flickering with the flames of hatred. However, Qin Yuanfeng's inner heart didn't waver. Hatred? Were they qualified to hate him? Compared to the things they did to him back then, what could this count for?

A light flashed as the judgement halberd flew into the air. After that, it reversed direction and fell down, aiming for Qin Zheng himself.

Everything has concluded.

Qin Zheng lifted his head and stared at the descending halberd as he sighed, "The heavens want me to die, it isn't a fate that I can change. Fate made fools out of us."

In his life, how much had he paid in order to gain what he had today? But now, everything turned back to dust. His legendary story has finally come to an end.

The judgement halberd radiated boundless light, like it was its final radiance. It trembled in the air and let out a humming sound.

In the next moment, the judgement halberd transformed into light and flew towards Qin Zheng. It was like a bolt of lightning that penetrated Qin Zheng. Qin Zheng's body trembled violently. He inclined his head and stared at Qin Yuanfeng. "Yuanfeng, I'm truly inferior to you."

As the sound of his voice faded, a wave of divine might exploded forth. His entire body was flowing with divine punishment light. The two sources of power were combined, they began to act together and destroy his body and his soul. His body grew more and more illusory, like it was about to disappear at any moment.

Before his death, he finally admitted that he was inferior to Qin Yuanfeng. Regardless of him or his son.

Once, he schemed with all he had to finish off Qin Yuanfeng to become the king of the Qin Clan. However, despite all his plans, at the very end, everything returned to emptiness. In fact, the situation became even worse. Not only had he lost, his clan was completely annihilated and no longer existed.

When his wife saw this, tears flowed from her face. She embraced Qin Zheng's body and also released a fearsome dao might and attacked herself, destroying her own body, stepping into the underworld with her husband.

In this life, they tasted glory and radiance. Now, everything has ended. Qin Yuanfeng returned for his revenge, their son was killed. They no longer had any hopes left and only wanted to seek death.

This was fate. No matter how glorious or how strong they were in the past, they were no different from ordinary humans now.

The experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms gradually watched as their illusory figures faded away, feeling a faint sorrow in their hearts. So what if one gave it their all and fought tooth and nail for a high position? As long as one couldn't climb up to the absolute peak, everything was nothing but floating dust in the end. In this world, who could transcend life or death? Who could truly be free of all bindings? Only by transcending the nine heavens would one be able to do so. Did any of the ancients manage to accomplish this?

Maybe. The experts were all silently musing.

The people of Qin Clan felt even more sorrowful. Their clan leader Qin Zheng committed suicide and the mother of the Qin Clan followed him into death. The heavenly deities of the Qin Clan were all completely wiped out.

This was the price they had to pay for the mistake they made. This price was too heavy and painful, the mistake back then was too great, to the extent of it being unforgivable. The heavenly deities of the Qin Clan then joined forces to kill one of the most outstanding geniuses in the younger generation of their Qin Clan, even to the extent of seizing his body and power. How cruel was that? Now that Qin Yuanfeng came back for his revenge, could they really hate Qin Yuanfeng? What qualifications do they have to hate him?

Finally, the bodies of Qin Zheng and his wife vanished, transformed into dust that was gone with the wind. The clan leader of a generation and the mother of a clan passed on, committing suicide to pay for their crimes.

This debt of hatred finally had a full stop put onto it.

Qin Yuanfeng watched as the two of them vanished. He didn't feel too much satisfaction with regards to this revenge. He was very calm, like he had simply done something he ought to do. He wasn't controlled by hatred but since there was a debt, this debt naturally had to be repaid. Now, everything in the past can finally said to have come to an end.

He inclined his head and stared into the distance. Qin Yuanfeng looked at the people of the Qin Clan only to see experts of the Qin Clan kneeling, "The Qin Clan has already paid for the sins we committed long ago. Qin Zheng committed suicide, the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan were all wiped out. Why don't you let things end now? You are originally also a chosen of the Qin Clan. Now, we hope you can come back and become a pillar of the Qin Clan."

All the deities in the Qin Clan had died, a clan without deities couldn't be considered a hegemonic power. Even if Qin Yuanfeng stopped his act of revenge and didn't exterminate them, the Qin Clan was now a shell of the past. A hegemonic power with no deities at their back would only become easy pickings for others. Their end result would be extremely dire.

As the sound of this voice rang out, many people in the Qin Clan knelt. "Please come back and take control of the clan."

If Qin Yuanfeng was willing to do so, the Qin Clan would still be the Qin Clan. Just like what Qin Yuanfeng has said, his family alone could become a clan.

Qin Yuanfeng looked at the numerous figures as well as the calls they made, asking him to return as their clan leader. His heart was as still as water, his gaze was as calm as ever.

“Once, when the deities of the Qin Clan banded together to kill me for the sake of Qin Zheng obtaining leadership, did anyone stand out for me? Today, Qin Zheng committed suicide and the Qin Clan wants me to simply take the leadership just like? All of this can be described with a phrase. The victor is king, the loser is vilified.” Qin Yuanfeng calmly spoke, the hearts of everyone trembled. It was true. Everything that happened was aptly described by this phrase. The victor would become the king. When Qin Zheng had won, all the people in the Qin Clan felt that he had done nothing wrong.

“The victor becomes the king and the loser is vilified. In the view of an empire, this might be alright. But when this phrase is used within a clan, isn’t it a little too ruthless? Is there any meaning for such a clan to exist?” Qin Yuanfeng sighed. After hearing his words, many grew nervous again.

“Just disperse. Seeing that we share the same blood, I will pardon you all. But from now on, the Qin Clan will no longer exist.” Qin Yuanfeng waved his hand and spoke. After that, a powerful fluctuation radiated from his palm and destroyed the symbolic buildings of the Qin Clan. Heavenly might bore down and the buildings all collapsed.

Turning their heads back, looking at the ruined buildings, the hearts of people of the Qin Clan were filled with melancholy. They understood that Qin Yuanfeng’s heart towards the Qin Clan had died long ago. From now on, the era that belonged to the Qin Clan has already passed.

Countless people in the Qin Clan could only sigh. Everything has ended. Once, they felt incomparable glory to be part of the Qin Clan. But from today onwards, the Qin Clan no longer existed. The people of the world would only know of the names of Qin Yuanfeng and Qin Wentian. From now on, their names would represent the Qin Clan.

“Once, I had imagined me coming here countless times to destroy the Qin Clan, acting in the stead of father to claim back the debt. To think that father came back personally today and settle the debt with your own hands.” Qin Wentian stood beside Qin Yuanfeng and spoke softly. Many emotions filled his heart. Qin Zheng has died, Heaven’s Son Qin Dangtian most probably would die soon after.

“Even if I didn’t return, you would still stand in my place one day. The ending wouldn’t be any different.” Qin Yuanfeng looked at his son as he calmly spoke. “The future of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms belongs to you. Let’s go back for now.”

“Right.” Qin Wentian nodded his head. He turned his gaze below. Those experts from the hegemonic powers could sense the coldness in Qin Wentian’s gaze. Their hearts trembled, from Qin Wentian’s gaze they could sense killing intent.

After the Qin Clan was destroyed, they were probably next.

Now, given Qin Yuanfeng and Qin Wentian's strength, the hegemonic powers were like lambs waiting to be slaughtered, they couldn't even escape. At this moment, maybe Qin Wentian didn't act because their experts weren't gathered fully. They weren't so foolish to assume that Qin Wentian would spare them out of mercy. One must know that not long ago, they just killed their way into the Heaven Vault. Qin Wentian would look for them to claim this debt for sure.

Qin Wentian led the deities on his side back. On the return journey, Qin Yuanfeng spoke. "You have to be careful of that man. He and Qin Dangtian entered the Divine Mausoleum together. I think that he should be the reincarnation of an ancient godking."

"You mean Yue Changkong?" Qin Wentian's eyes was cold. "I truly didn't expect that I would be able to meet with different godkings in this era."

"The eight godkings who split the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms into eight great regions all wanted to pursue the ultimate supreme path. Even if they fell in the pursuit, they would never be willing to accept this and would think of ways to return. The Divine Mausoleum is a place arranged by the Moon God. He schemed for countless years, waiting for today. Did you see that Qin Dangtian didn't really inherit his power, but was possessed by the Moon God's power instead? The reason why he chose Qin Dangtian and not that evil cultivator was most probably because Qin Dangtian is easier to control, making the conditions of his return easier. Sadly, despite the many years of planning, it seems like all his plans ended up benefiting others instead." Qin Yuanfeng slowly spoke, staring up at the sky. "The godkings returned one after the other, like they wanted to put a full stop to this era. And from now on, a brand new era shall unfold."

Chapter 1996: Two Great Godkings

So far up until now, Qin Wentian had came into contact with five godkings either directly or indirectly.

In ancient times, the eight extremely powerful heavenly deities of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms split it into eight great regions, each ruling over one. They gained the title of godkings.

The Heaven Vault was the inheritance of Godking Xi. He med the Godking of Time back in the Time Realm of the Mystic Region, the Time King even gave him a time-attributed dao bone, allowing him to comprehend the laws of time. And after that, he had a conflict with the western world and found out that there might be another godking existence within the western paradise. This was an ancient godking that had lived since the ancient times until now.

And recently, he found out that the Divine Mausoleum was a scheme set up by a godking and his father has revealed that the past-life of Yue Changkong might also be a godking. There were already a total of five.

This was truly unusual, like it was symbolizing that this era was ending. Just like what Qin Yuanfeng has said, the eight godkings might either have left inheritances, or have reincarnated into other bodies, trying to return. A new era was about to unfold.

In that case, who would be the one to lord over this era?

The Qin Clan was destroyed, all their heavenly deities were annihilated. Qin Zheng and his wife committed suicide. Qin Dangtian was also devoured by Yue Changkong. This news instantly circulated through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms causing a huge commotion. Yet another hegemonic power has fallen. The Qin Clan of the Heaven Region was such a powerful clan yet they got destroyed in a single day. It was said that after that battle, the people of the Qin Clan dispersed, splitting up into different factions due to internal conflict. It may be due to unequal distribution of resources or some other reasons.

Qin Yuanfeng's name resounded through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Once, he was abandoned by the Qin Clan. Now, he came back to bury the Qin Clan. What a legend was he? This was a truly epic tale.

He controlled the force of the six paths and ignored heavenly dao, fighting against all the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan alone. Qin Zheng couldn't even withstand a single strike. Someone even said that Qin Yuanfeng's strength was actually equal to the Grim Reaper and many people were speculating, comparing Qin Zheng to the eight ancient godkings, wondering who was stronger.

After the Qin CLan was destroyed, the secret of the Divine Mausoleum was also leaked. It was a scheme plotted by an ancient godking, the Moon God. He borrowed Qin Dangtian's body and returned for the battle and was immensely powerful, almost killing off Qin Wentian. However, the number one genius of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms Qin Wentian managed to reverse the situation due to his heaven-defying capabilities. He connected with countless constellations and broke the Moon God Eyes technique, eventually defeating Qin Dangtian.

Qin Yuanfeng and Qin Wentian, this pair of father and son could war against the world. The brilliance they displayed caused the experts from the hegemonic powers to sigh in admiration.

Because of the appearance of the Moon God and the discussion with regards to the eight great godkings in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Many people searched through ancient records to read about some of the still existing information with regards to the legends of the godkings. After reading through, they learned of the deeds some of the eight great godkings have done before. Among the eight godkings, there was an extremely evil and terrifying existence. He wanted to use the multitude of lives of the world to establish his dao. It was incomparably cruel and his name was Godking Gu.

Godking Gu’s life was legendary, it was rumored that only a very few people knew his name because he was an orphan. However, he grew famous because of this and according to some of the limited ancient records, Godking Gu’s background was an extremely miserable one. This led to him hating life and treated the lives of people as weeds, basically not having any regards for lives at all. He was also incomparably cruel and once ruled the Yellow Region with an iron-fist. The people of the Yellow Region all felt fear towards him.

Godking Gu had a myriad of incarnations, he is said to be an undying existence, and was also capable of devouring the energies of others for his own use. He could transform into anyone, he cultivated the evil dao and set off on a path of no return. These rumors coincided with a certain person in this era. That person was none other than Yue Changkong. Right now, more and more rumors about Yue Changkong floated up. The people of the world already knew that he was a reincarnated cultivator.

Hence, many people guessed that Yue Changkong was none other than the reincarnation of one of the eight great ancient godkings, Godking Gu.

At this moment, Yue Changkong was in a desolate mountain range. This range of mountains extended endlessly and was enveloped by black fog, the atmosphere stifling to the extreme. No hints of life could be sensed here at all. The wild beasts that ran rampant had all been exterminated, their lives stolen by the black fog.

At the center of the fog, Yue Changkong sat cross-legged, as numerous faces appeared around him. One of those faces belonged to Qin Dangtian.

“How long do you still want to protect him?” A cold voice filled with disdain rang out from Yue Changkong’s mouth. His lips curled slightly into a vile smile.

“I know you feel reluctance in your hearts. You schemed for countless years and should have been able to return yet your opportunity was seized by me. How could you tolerate being refined by me? However, the era is no longer the same. Your era has already passed. Look at the young man Qin Dangtian fought against earlier, as well as the young man’s father. Isn’t he the tomb keeper? Is he powerful? They are the main characters of this era. If you and

I wish to gain control of this era, we have to be fused as one and seek back the glory of the past." Yue Changkong spoke, his voice filled with a bewitching tone.

"Who are you talking to exactly?" Qin Dagntian stared at Yue Changkong as he coldly asked.

"You don't have the qualifications to speak here." Yue Changkong glanced at Qin Dangtian. "Unless, you feel that you can win against Qin Wentian with your strength alone? That person is after all someone who defeated me. You, the so-called Heaven's Son, is basically not worthy of becoming his opponent. Your strength is far inferior and your dao cannot even withstand a single strike from him. Now, even your parents committed suicide and your clansmen became fragmented. Stop dreaming about useless fantasies in your heart."

Qin Dangtian's expression twisted, becoming extremely unsightly.

"Look, his heart has already collapsed. Why do you still help him to resist me? It is possible for me to forcefully devour you but I don't wish to do that. You know what I need, I need your complete strength, I need your dao. Your inheritance is on both of us, why don't you pass his portion to me?" Yue Changkong's eyes gleamed with a terrifying light.

"My patience is limited. If you work with me, both of us will rule supreme in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. If you refuse to comply, you will vanish completely." Yue Changkong's voice grew even colder. Behind him, the reflection of a half-moon appeared, shining resplendently, its rays cascading down on Qin Dangtian.

"Come on, give me the complete dao and both of us will fuse perfectly, becoming a new godking. This era will belong to the two of us." Yue Changkong continued to speak in that bewitching tone. Qin Dangtian's face gradually floated towards the half-moon. A resplendent burst of moonlight radiated out, Qin Dangtian's face began to transform into another half-moon which wanted to merge together with the half-moon behind Yue Changkong.

"What? How is this possible?" Qin Dangtian's expression showed that he was struggling madly. However, his soul was no longer under his control. There seemed to be a mysterious power that took it over.

"In the Divine Mausoleum, you transformed yourself into a dao incarnation. Moon God, our legend has just begun." The smile on Yue Changkong's face grew increasingly evil. As the two half-moons fused completely, a brilliant full moon appeared. In an instant, the dark fog in the area completely dispersed. As the full moon appeared, the surroundings were completely illuminated as an incomparably imposing figure appeared, the God of the Moon.

"Finally, things have ended." Yue Changkong spoke, his voice flickering with evil. Everything in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would be brought to an end by him. He wondered how strong that fellow in the western paradise was now.

In the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, Qin Wentian and the others returned. The destruction of the Qin Clan could be considered a weight in their hearts that has settled down. However, the dispute in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms hasn't concluded yet. Qin Wentian knew that he still has two great enemies.

Yue Changkong is someone he has to kill no matter what. He would never forget about Little Ye's death.

However, his father said that Yue Changkong might be the reincarnation of a godking and now, he just devoured the Moon God and was sure to be even more powerful than before. He would recover his peak cultivation sooner or later. In truth, in the battle during the past, Qin Wentian understood that the Yue Changkong now was no longer the Yue Changkong of the past.

His other enemy was the western paradise. This buddhist land of hypocrisy. They were incomparably cruel and was the main culprit behind Little Ye's death. Similarly, they are also the mastermind behind the joint attack of the hegemonic powers against the Heaven Vault. He himself also narrowly survived, almost dying in the hands of the Reincarnation Buddha. And if it wasn't for his father rushing over to the Heaven Vault in time, Qin Wentian didn't dare to think about how dire the consequences would be. Even now, his mind would still be filled with the scene where Qing`er and Youhuang messaged him.

These two enemies were much stronger compared to the Qin Clan. His current strength is simply too inferior. Even his father might not be able to deal with them as they were true godkings.

At this moment, Qin Wentian and Qin Yuanfeng sat together. Qin Wentian asked, "Father, there are two daos of the Moon God that are the most powerful. The first was Moon God Eyes. It was able to borrow the power of constellations in the sky and cast the living people of the world under an illusion with a single glance. It's the ultimate quintessence of the spacetime illusion dao. The second dao is the dao of dao extermination. It was able to exterminate all dao arts in the world. When these two are combined, they can destroy everything. Back then when I fought with Qin Dangtian, just a little portion of the Moon God's power already caused me to sink within the illusion. In addition, Qin Dangtian's control of the dao extermination dao wasn't strong enough. In the future if his control of the dao reaches the level of the Moon God, what sort of dao can be used to counter it?"

Qin Yuanfeng shook his head, "There are boundless daos in the world. If one hasn't reach that level, they will never know how great the limits of the daos are. There's no need for you to consider about how to comprehend a specific dao that can counter his. You should just follow your heart and delve even deeper in terms of understanding of your own daos. You possess the innate advantage of being able to connect with the boundless constellations in the sky, granting you countless possibilities, allowing to use all types of daos. You have to believe in yourself that you will be able to create a brand new path of your own."

Qin Wentian nodded his head lightly. Although he won against Qin Dangtian, he could deeply feel that the Moon God's daos were simply too tyrannical.

As for the western paradise, they possess a myriad of dao arts and were proficient in countless buddha-path techniques. Although the godking of the western paradise was heavily injured, countless years had already passed since then. He might have already recovered. If that was the case, he who has been keeping a low profile since such a long time ago, how strong was he now exactly? How terrifying would his dao be?

All these factors caused him to feel great pressure.

“Mengchen.” Qin Wentian smiled.

“Senior brother, our people are already mobilized. The Thunder Clan has been keeping tabs on our movements as well.” Jun Mengchen spoke.

“Good. I’ll go over shortly.” A sharpness flashed in Qin Wentian’s eyes. The people of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect said that when the Thunder Clan attacked the divine sect, they were very extreme. The first to jump out to lead the attack was a deity from the Thunder Clan, causing great casualties to his people.

Chapter 1997: Settling Accounts

The Thunder Clan was precisely located in the Earth Region of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Back then when the experts of the various hegemonic powers joined forces to attack the Heaven Vault, the experts of the Thunder Clan acted with the greatest relish, they were incomparably tyrannical and did what they wanted, wantonly killing the people of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

But now, the experts of the Thunder Clan were all filled with worry. The more brazen they were back then, the more fear they felt right now.

The Qin Clan was a very good example for everyone. The Qin Clan was already destroyed, such an immense hegemonic power had now become history. Those who died, died. Those who dispersed, dispersed. All heavenly deities from the Qin Clan had fallen.

Ever since the Qin Clan was destroyed, the experts of the Thunder Clan haven't spent a single day not living in fear. They were afraid of the future. The Thunder Clan Leader personally went to the western paradise but didn't manage to gain their assistance. After he returned, he cursed the western paradise of being despicable, saying that they were hitting a person who was down. But as to his exact discussion with the western paradise, nobody in the Thunder Clan knew what it was about.

The heavenly deities of the Thunder Clan also discussed if they should lay low for now and migrate away. There were billions of people in the Thunder Clan, even if they wanted to flee, where could they flee too? They were too huge a target. Unless they were willing to be fragmented and all the heavenly deities would go their own way, there was no way to flee. But the deities of the Thunder Clan were all filled reluctance simply thinking of this. They had worked so hard to cultivate to the heavenly deity realm. Now, they wanted to run away before their enemy came by? What does this count for?

Eventually, the Thunder Clan still chose to wait, they were preparing for a battle.

The Thunder Clan had countless years of foundation. How could they not have the ability to fight a battle with the Heaven Vault?

Although they were already prepared mentaly, when Qin Wentian led an army of deities to the Thunder Clan, the experts of the Thunder Clan still felt their hearts shuddering as fear filled their hearts. In the vast Thunder Clan Castle, countless people inclined their heads and stared up at the army of deities in the sky. This, was the power of the Heaven Vault. They actually had so many heavenly deities.

Which hegemonic power in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could compare to them? The western world was the only one.

The Heaven Vault became a peak-tier hegemonic power with a single leap, they are actually even slightly superior when compared to ordinary peak-tier hegemonic powers.

The Thunder Clan Leader stood below, staring up at the sky. His divine sense swept out while he sighed in relief in his heart. Among the deities from the Heaven Vault, Qin Yuanfeng wasn't here.

Qin Yuanfeng was the truly terrifying character. His strength far surpassed heavenly deities, even Qin Zheng of the Qin Clan couldn't withstand a single strike. The heavenly deities of the Qin Clan joined forces and was crushed completely. Qin Yuanfeng was like a godking, all deities were ants before him.

Luckily, he didn't come here today or the Thunder Clan would truly have no hope at all.

"Qin Wentian." The Thunder Clan Leader spoke. "Back then, I might have offended you but that was only because of the general situation then. It isn't my clan alone who is behind this. Today, I'm willing to apologize for my clan's past actions, you can ask for any compensation you want. From now on, my Thunder Clan will no longer have anything to do with the Heaven Vault, let's let all our grudges be cleared off with a single stroke. How about it?"

Qin Wentian stood in the air, staring down imperiously. His expression was cold, what a joke. Why do people of the world always act like this? They were so brazen before but when they realized their strength couldn't compare, they immediately wanted to apologize and call off the grudge. How could things be settled so easily? If things could be settled so easily, how could there be the word 'hatred'?

I kill your people but when your strength exceeds mine, I will apologize and everything shall be concluded?

"I heard that when the experts of the Thunder Clan killed their way into my Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, they were extremely imposing and tyrannical? Where was the imposingness all of you showed back then?" Qin Wentian laughed mockingly. His eyes flickered with cold killing intent. If he spared the Thunder Clan now, wouldn't those disciples of the divine sect who died in defense have died for nothing? They were filled with hot-blood, willing to sacrifice their lives for the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. If he spared the Thunder Clan, how can he as the sect leader, face up to those who chose to sacrifice their lives?

"Although my Thunder Clan was at fault, but we have only killed a few disciples of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. My Thunder Clan is willing to pay a huge price as compensation. Why is there a need to force us to the end?" The Thunder Clan Leader spoke from a position of weakness.

"Merely killed a few disciples of my Qin Heavenly Divine Sect?" Qin Wentian's eyes grew colder and colder. He stared at the Thunder Clan Leader, as he icily spoke, "Even your life cannot compare to a single one of my sect's members. You will die today."

As the sound of his voice rang out, an intense killing intent was released from Qin Wentian. His heavenly dao might gushed forth, instantly creating a stifling pressure. He took a step out and resembled a godking, the divine might from him bore down on the entire Thunder Clan.

The Thunder Clan Leader stared at Qin Wentian as his expression turned unsightly. Since Qin Wentian refused to spare the Thunder Clan, they could only fight.

Not long ago, at the battle in the Qin Clan, Qin Wentian defeated Qin Dangtian who obtained the Moon God’s inheritance. In the western paradise, he killed the Karma Buddha and Reincarnation Buddha. From this, one could see that Qin Wentian’s current strength has already reached the level of peak characters in hegemonic powers. But even so, it didn’t mean that him, the Thunder Clan Leader, had no way to fight. The Thunder Clan was a heavenly deity clan that had lasted for countless years, their foundations were also immeasurably deep.

Qin Wentian saw the Thunder Clan Leader retreating. The Thunder Clan Leader waved his hand and in the next instant, boundless lightning flashed. The entire Thunder Clan was in the center of a divine thunder formation. The terrifying light of thunder and lightning towered up, causing fearsome rumbling noises. The purple lightning streaked across the entire sky. In an instant, this boundlessly vast space turned into a world of thunder and lightning.

The experts in the air lowered their heads and looked at the Thunder Clan. The entire Thunder Clan was shining with an incomparably resplendent glow that radiated a dao intent of destruction. At the center of the thunder divine formation, a supremely powerful divine weapon appeared. It was none other than the Vast Sky Divine Hammer used by the Thunder Clan Leader. This supreme divine weapon was acting as the catalyst for the divine formation, drawing the thunder and lightning. Other than this, in eight other locations inside the Thunder Clan, there were eight other divine weapons used as catalysts as well. Each of the weapons were extremely terrifying and at this moment, they all became a part of the divine formation. From this, one could imagine how strong the power of the formation was.

Qin Wentian lifted his head and stared at the sky. Although this formation used the Thunder Clan as the base, the true destructive might was actually in the air. Lightning streaked through the entire sky, thunder booms could be heard constantly. Numerous divine hammers and giant drums manifested in the air. Clearly, the Thunder Clan was long prepared for their arrival.

How could a powerful heavenly deity clan just simply wait for their deaths?

“Be careful.” Qin Wentian warned after sensing the power of this formation. Everyone nodded their heads. The army of deities descended slowly. They wouldn’t allow the Thunder Clan to find any chance to kill one of them. Not a single one of them can die.

“Qin Wentian, why must you force me?” The Thunder Clan Leader stepped out. As the sound of his voice rang out, the thunder drums in the sky began to reverberate. Everyone only felt their souls trembling from the echoes of the drums. It was like the sound had the power to injure their souls. Even their bodies were suffering an unbelievable amount of damage. This caused many deities to groan in misery as their faces turned pale.

“Qin Wentian, I shall ask you again. If you are willing to stop now, my Thunder Clan is still willing to apologize and compensate your Qin Heavenly Divine Sect for the losses.” The Thunder Clan Leader spoke. His entire being was cloaked in divine thunder, like he was the lord of the sky. He could control all the thunder of the nine heavens, and stood in the air arrogantly. Even now, he still didn’t want to wage a war with Qin Wentian. Because he knew that even if he could defend himself against this army of deities, there was still a Qin Yuanfeng behind Qin Wentian. No one was able to block such a heaven-defying character like Qin Yuanfeng.

“Are you sure you want to resist like this?” Qin Wentian swept his gaze at the Thunder Clan Leader as he spoke with cold disdain. Upon seeing the coldness in Qin Wentian’s eyes as well as hearing his words, a strong sense of unease welled up in the Thunder Clan Leader’s heart. But he still stood in the air arrogantly and spoke, “Seems like you don’t want to make peace. Since this is the case, we can only fight.”

As the sound of his voice faded, he took a step out, trampling on the heavens and earth. Heavenly thunder churned wildly, everyone only felt apocalyptic might boring down on them, wanting to destroy their bodies and souls.

But at this moment, Qin Wentian slowly moved forward. He stretched his arms out and released heavenly dao light, creating an independent spacetime that enveloped the deities on his side. This spacetime seemed to contain a strange energy, able to absorb the divine might from the divine thunder formation, turning the attacks into nothingness.

“Power of banishment?” The Thunder Clan Leader’s heart grew cold. He continued to wave his hand, causing thunder to strike down from the sky. The thunder and lightning mixed together, forming a huge current of power. Qin Wentian felt as though he was in an ocean of thunder, he could sense how insignificantly small was he.

“Enter.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. The powerful current of boundless lightning and thunder was sealed inside another spacetime he created, the might contained within them were exiled completely due to being sealed. The Thunder Clan Leader stared at Qin Wentian with an ugly look on his face. This fellow, what sort of method was this exactly?

“Why must you try so hard?” Qin Wentian spoke in a glacial tone. As the sound of his voice faded, the thunder and lightning power he sealed inside his independent spacetime now actually was all unleashed in the direction of the Thunder Clan. In the next instant, the entirety of power inside there erupted forth. It was like the apocalypse came for the Thunder Clan. Countless people died in an instant, buildings crumbled apart, the deities of the Thunder Clan acted frenziedly to protect their weaker clansmen.

“How can this be?” The Thunder Clan Leader turned ashen when he saw this. Qin Wentian could actually seal his attacks and turn it against his people? This was simply too overbearing.

Was that something just from the spacetime dao? It was impossible. There was also the dao of sealing integrated into it.

“From today onwards, the Thunder Clan shall no longer exist.” Qin Wentian coldly declared. The entire stretch of independent spacetime was hurled downwards to the Thunder Clan. In an instant, an immensely powerful explosion occurred. The divine thunder formation cracked apart and was broken. The experts of the Thunder Clan were now all fully revealed to the army of deities around Qin Wentian.

The Vast Sky Divine Hammer flew back to the Thunder Clan Leader’s hands but his expression was ashen as a sense of loss filled his heart. He knew that there was no chance left. Qin Wentian actually broke the defensive divine thunder formation of his clan with brute force!

Chapter 1998: Changes to the Situation

Qin Wentian directly walked towards the Thunder Clan Leader, he was brimming with cold killing intent. A terrifying spacetime dao wind gusted by, sealing the surroundings of the Thunder Clan's experts within.

"Kill!" Jun Mengchen and the others stepped out, moving towards the deities of the Thunder Clan. Their eyes flickered with intense killing intent. Once, the Thunder Clan's experts were extremely brazen, even surrounding Qin Wentian's loved ones, wanting to kill the males and capture the females. Now, the Thunder Clan leader said that they only killed a few members of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect? How ridiculous was that.

Jun Mengchen's punch contained the force of an entire world, causing the entire area to tremble under his might. Destructive waves of might spread out, adding to the destruction of the Thunder Clan.

Little Rascal stretched out his claws. He has transformed into a giant astral beast. His claws contained a terrifying devouring might and when he swiped down, huge portions of the Thunder Clan's territory were being devoured into the devouring space around his claws. The scene was like how he devoured the Ziwei Divine Court back then.

Down below, screams rang out unceasingly. It was unknown how many people died. The vast Thunder Clan soon became a gigantic ruin. After the divine formation was broken, how could the Thunder Clan have the ability to contend against the army of deities brought here by Qin Wentian?

Back then, the various hegemonic powers joined forces to attack the Heaven Vault and failed. Now, they had to face the Heaven Vault's revenge one by one, it was easy to imagine what the situation was like. Without allies, none of the hegemonic powers would be able to stand against the full strength of the Heaven Vault.

The Thunder Clan Leader said earlier that they only killed a few members of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. From this, one could see how arrogant he was, treating the members of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect as ants. But in the eyes of Qin Wentian, wasn't he an ant as well? His life couldn't even be compared to the members of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. Hence, his fate was already decided.

The screams of misery continued. The Thunder Clan Leader roared madly, but he was completely suppressed by Qin Wentian. Layers of space stacked upon each other, with each exchange of blows, his confidence would weaken. Although he was wielding a supreme divine weapon, he had no way to block Qin Wentian's attack. In terms of heavenly dao comprehension, Qin Wentian's insights have already surpassed him.

With a loud howl, the Thunder Clan Leader brandished his hammer and broke past all restrictions, flying towards Qin Wentian before slamming down with his divine weapon. In front of Qin Wentian, a terrifying tempest manifested. Qin Wentian grabbed out with his hands, casing a terrifying spacetime crack to appear in the air. With a wave of his hand, the crack widened and appeared before the Thunder Clan Leader. The Thunder Clan Leader sensed that something was wrong and wanted to evade this.

“Timestop.” A cold voice rang out from Qin Wentian’s mouth. In an instant, this entire spacetime entered a state of absolute stillness. The Thunder Clan Leader could no longer move. The blood in his veins also stopped. The terrifying crackling and rumbling sounds of thunder and lightning faded into silence. The thunder and lightning wanted to break this dao attack but they were too slow. That crack in the air widened and directly enveloped the Thunder Clan Leader, devouring him as he was banished into it.

Qin Wentian didn’t stop his dao art. The terrifying timestop dao continued spreading out in the air.

“RUMBLE~” The thunderous rumbles rang out from the void. It didn’t seem to originate from this dimension, but was from the void instead. This sounded like the Thunder Clan Leader’s counter attack but the attack strength grew weaker and weaker. The dao might from Qin Wentian’s body also gradually dissipated and finally, he coldly spoke, “Banish.”

As the sound of his voice faded, the dimension inside the crack was banished. The powerful Thunder Clan Leader was banished along with it.

Down below, countless people who were still alive watched as their clan leader got banished. Terror filled their hearts as despair could be seen in their eyes. They knew that the Thunder Clan, this clan that has been established for countless years, was going to end today. It was the same as the Qin Clan, the Thunder Clan would become nothing but dust in the history of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. From now on, the name of the Thunder Clan would only appear in historical records and they might only be mentioned as a foil to enhance the radiance of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

The battles still continued, but the fluctuations of battles grew gradually weaker. Some time later, the buildings of the Thunder Clan were all destroyed and the deities of the Thunder Clan had all fallen. Only then was everything considered ended. The deity army from the Heaven Vault didn’t continue to act. They understood that the Thunder Clan no longer has a way to climb back up. They were destined to disappear forever.

At this moment in the ruins of the Thunder Clan, a figure climbed out from there. His body was covered in blood. He lifted his head and stared at Qin Wentian in the air. A gentle wind breezed by, causing Qin Wentian’s white robes to flutter in the air, exuding boundless magnificence. However, there was no admiration in the eyes of this Thunder Clan’s expert, there was only hatred.

“Qin Wentian, you are cruel and ruthless, destroying the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan and using blood to cleanse the Thunder Clan. Could it be you want your rise to be symbolized by the destruction of all the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? Even if you really rule the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms supreme one day, the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would only decline given the number of deities you killed. Is this what you want?” That expert from the Thunder Clan roared in rage, his eyes flickering with flames.

Qin Wentian swept his gaze over, his calm eyes held no fluctuations. He turned and simply left, not bothering about this expert.

The people of the world are always selfish, they would only see things from their point of view. When they killed their way into the Heaven Vault, did they ever think that such a day would come for them? Now, is there even a need for them to explain anything? The Qin Clan, the Thunder Clan…back then if his father hasn't made it in time, countless lives would similarly be lost in the Heaven Vault. Since that was the case, he would rather use blood to cleanse the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Let alone deities, he wouldn't even spare those experts with lower cultivation bases. Why was there a need to show mercy to such people?

He wasn't a devil, he wouldn't kill innocents. However, he also wasn't a saint, his heart wasn't big enough that he could forgive those who attempted to kill his loved ones.

A trace of anger appeared on Jun Mengchen's face when he heard that. His palm grabbed out, directly aiming for that expert as he icily spoke, "So we can only allow you guys to attack the Heaven Vault but we cannot counter-attack? How ridiculous? So what even if all the deities from the hegemonic powers are killed? With my senior brother present and with the Heaven Vault present, batches of new deities would be born easily, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would only be stronger compared to before."

The expression of that expert froze. Jun Mengchen's arrogant words were backed by logic. The army of deities here was the best proof. With the Heaven Vault, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms in the future would only be stronger than the past.

"I will wait and see." That person coldly replied.

"You will wait? Stop dreaming. You made me very angry. So, you won't be able to live till that day." As the sound of Jun Mengchen's voice faded, the expression of that person drastically changed. After that, a giant palm imprint directly slammed out, burying that expert. Earlier, they had shown mercy and didn't fully annihilate those who weren't at the deity level. But those survivors better not challenge their mercy.

"Let's head to the next target." Jun Mengchen calmly continued. Those hegemonic powers who attacked the Heaven Vault in the past wanted to peacefully continue like nothing has ever happened? They must be dreaming.

They would never let the members of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect die for nothing, they would never forget this hatred. Could it be that if they chose to forgive and forget, those people would repay them with kindness? No. If they spared the hegemonic powers due to mercy, in the future when an opportunity comes by, the hegemonic powers wouldn't hesitate to attack the Heaven Vault again. They would also not show any mercy.

The Che Clan was also located in the Earth Region. When Qin Wentian and his group arrived at the Che Clan, they discovered that the Che Clan that once shone with brilliant golden light in this location, the number one artificer clan in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, has completely vanished. The buildings here were all destroyed, becoming a ruin. They seemed to be destroyed by people. Outside the Che Clan, countless people stared in its direction as they sighed. The number one artificer clan in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms actually chose to flee?

Also, it seemed like they were the ones who destroyed everything here. Even all the innately built-in divine formations in this place were also destroyed by them.

“This bunch of fellows are so ruthless.” Qi Yu spoke. The number one artificer clan of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were actually willing to give up their reputation and flee.

Qin Wentian’s divine sense enveloped this space, sweeping through everywhere but he didn’t discover anyone. Down below, a figure suddenly flashed and flew towards Qin Wentian. That figure than spoke, “I pay my respect to sect leader.”

“What happened?” Qin Wentian asked.

“I’ve been monitoring the Che Clan from outside. A period of time earlier, a huge commotion suddenly occurred in the Che Clan. Boundless divine light flooded the area, it seemed like a divine formation had activated. After that, many people departed using that divine formation. After they left, all the divine formations inside the Che Clan began to explode, saturating the area with destructive divine might. After the explosions settled down, this place became a ruin.” That person replied.

Qin Wentian didn’t reply to this. He sent people to observe the Che Clan’s movements but he didn’t send any deities because heavenly deities were just too conspicuous and they would be in danger if they were exposed. In any case, since the Che Clan had the intention to flee, there was naturally no way for a few deities to stop them.

And at this moment, Qi Yu walked over from behind. He spoke to Qin Wentian, “Saint Lord, our spies report that not long ago, the Five Elements Sect whom they were keeping tabs on, was suddenly invaded by black fog. The black fog enveloped the entire Five Elements Sect and a few moments later, everyone inside the Five Elements Sect vanished.”

“Yue Changkong.” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed with coldness. Yue Changkong has begun to move. In addition, when he destroyed the Qin Clan, most probably the news has already spread to the other hegemonic powers. It was impossible for the hegemonic powers not to have any eyes and ears outside. Hence, everyone wanted to flee. The Che Clan was like this, and so was the Five Elements Clan.

These heavenly deity powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms evidently wouldn’t sit there to wait for their deaths.

“Let’s return for now.” Qin Wentian spoke in a heavy tone. Everyone nodded their heads. Seems like the situation of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was going to change again. Maybe in the future, the era of the eight regions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would end.

Qin Wentian and his group left the Che Clan and returned to the Heaven Vault. The ruins of the Che Clan were still there but nobody knew that inside the ruins, there was an independent space hidden there. Inside that space, the sky here was golden in color and divine flames roared as they were used in refinement. It felt like the Che Clan wanted to create the number one divine weapon in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Despite the strength of the Che Clan and the fact that they have been attempting this creation for countless years, the ultimate divine weapon still hasn't been created yet.

"They have left." At this moment, a person appeared next to the Che Clan Leader as he spoke. The Che Clan Leader nodded his head lightly. They used the divine formation to teleport people away as a smokescreen technique. In truth, all the important experts of the Che Clan have already entered this hidden dimension. Not only that, even the fluctuations which manifested from the creation process was masked completely. Even Qin Wentian wasn't able to discover anything.

Chapter 1999: Changing Era

After Qin Wentian returned to the Heaven Vault, news from the various regions began to circulate over. The Prison God Clan and the others who participated in the attack of the Heaven Vault have all disappeared.

If in the past they felt a trace of hope in the Thunder Clan, after the Thunder Clan was destroyed, they instantly regained clarity of mind. Undoubtedly if they fought Qin Wentian, he would make them vanish from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

And when news about this spread, the people of the world finally understood that the era of hegemonic powers in the eight regions has already become history.

An era has concluded.

In the previous era, experts from the eight regions competed against each other, vying for supremacy. The territories of each region were also split between the hegemonic powers of the respective regions. They even gained control of the lower worlds other than the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Sadly, all of this came to an end as the Heaven Vault rose in strength.

After that, more rumors rang out. Those powers that vanished had chosen to follow Yue Changkong for the sake of evading Qin Wentian's pursuit. Yue Changkong might be an individual who had merged the powers of two godkings together. In this new era, he would surely be a strong contender for supremacy and he would only grow stronger and stronger.

As this news spread, everyone in the world claimed that the old era has ended. The current era was that the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were now divided into three portions.

The strength of Heaven Vault and Qin Heavenly Divine Sect helmed by Qin Yuanfeng and Qin Wentian rose up due to their own strengths. This was because the Heaven Vault had an innately excellent condition for cultivation, it was easy to nurture an army of deities. Even now, everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms yearned for that place.

Other than the deities of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect being powerful, the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect also had a good relationship with the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Although the sacred academy rarely interfered in external matters, the reclusive Headmaster Ye of the sacred academy wasn't an existence that could be neglected.

Also lastly, Qin Wentian had the inheritance of the Grim Reaper.

All these factors caused the various fleeing hegemonic powers to submit to Yue Changkong. Hence, it can be said that the Heaven Vault was the cause of the previous era ending.

The second power naturally belonged to Yue Changkong. He who had merged the powers of two godkings, was extremely mysterious and evil. With the addition of the hegemonic powers who had submitted to him, there's no doubt that they have the strength to threaten the Heaven Vault.

The last power was undoubtedly the western world. They have been established for countless years and had always been the one governing the territories there which have always been of the Buddhist Sect. Their position has never wavered before. Among them, there were countless buddha lords and many more sacred buddhas at the heavenly level. What made everyone even more terrified was that there were rumors saying that the godking who ruled the Universe Region, the lord of the western paradise hasn't died yet. He had survived through all these years.

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were now split into three main factions and once again achieved a subtle balance. This caused the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to enter yet another period of calmness. During this period, many new people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms rose up but there were also people who fell.

And given the current situation of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, news of many incidents regarding Qin Wentian were also excavated. The history of his growth was gradually made known to the people of the world.

Once, who could have guessed that a certain genius in the Mystic Region who rose to fame by participating the convention of the myriad realms would put an end to the era and create a new history.

At that time, Qin Wentian was just a young man with a slightly more outstanding talent, with the title of a hegemonic-level world overlord who was the Realmlord of the Qingcheng Realm. If one traced his history even further back, everyone would know that he started out as an inconsequential immortal and had even became a bandit before. He then worked under the Lifire Palace Lord and slowly climbed upwards, replacing the Lifire Palace Lord and eventually killing the Lifelong Realmlord, slowly growing until today.

Each legendary character had their period of struggling. At that point of time, no one knew about them but after all the trials and tribulations they experienced, there wouldn't be anyone in the world not knowing their names.

Qin Wentian was precisely a legend of this era.

Right now, large amounts of experts in the Qingcheng Realm would explore the world outside. For example, they would go to the Boundless Sea Region in the Heaven Region, and to other places that has a connection with Qin Wentian. Everyday, stories about Qin Wentian's rise were circulated in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The young people of the Qingcheng Realm were all filled with inspiration, thinking about how grand it would be if they could rise up and establish their own legend. However, how could it be so easy to be a legend among legends like Qin Wentian?

Qin Wentian himself had no idea about this. Although he didn't return to the Qingcheng Realm, he has already become a mental pillar there and was the source of inspiration for the younger generation. They were all tracing his path, like moths flying into flames, chasing the pinnacle of their own paths.

Time flowed by, the tripartite situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was something no one could change. Even for those extraordinary characters who recently rose up, or even recent heavenly deities, they were not qualified to set up a new power. The people of the world were very clear that the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms now was an era that belonged to the three major factions. In addition, the tranquil situation now was like the calm before the storm. The three strongest factions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would ultimately clash with each other. The victor might become the ultimate king of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Right now, many people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were already discussing who the future king would be.

Leaving aside new powers that rose up, even for previous hegemonic powers like the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavenly Mystical Palace in the Heaven Region, both of them lost the qualifications to be part of the winning faction. They could only be spectators. However, because they had never offended any of the powers involved before, they were still able to survive untouched in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

They had once formed an alliance with Qin Wentian. Although they eventually quit that alliance, Qin Wentian wasn’t someone who repaid kindness with enmity. The two hegemonic powers could be considered as having helped him before and even after they left, they had never acted against the Heaven Vault. Qin Wentian naturally wouldn’t move against them. In addition, they were also located in the Heaven Region, in the same region as the Heaven Vault. Even if Yue Changkong and the western paradise wanted to make a move against them, it wouldn’t be that easy.

At this moment, in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect outside the Heaven Vault, two figures could be seen flying over, a male and a female. Their auras were transcendent, the female was exceptionally beautiful. These two were none other than the Qiankun Sect Leader and the Nine Heavens Mystical Maidens.

The two of them inclined their heads and stared at everything before them. Right now, the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect has expanded compared to before, it looked incomparably majestic, with the Heaven Vault above them. This place is already considered a holy ground in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Those who came to pay homage was many times more in numbers compared to what the Qiankun Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden had imagined.

‘There are so many wondrous changes in the world. Have you ever thought that this place would stand at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms back then and have a chance to become the ultimate king?” The Qiankun Sect Leader sighed with emotions. The Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden stared ahead. She didn’t say anything but she also didn’t expect this. The changes during these years in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was simply too fast. The entire era was changing.

“Junior pays my respects to Qiankun Sect Leader and Fairy Nine Heavvevns.” At this moment, a person walked out from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, bowing to them. The statuses of the two of them were transcendent and they had a close relationship with Qin Wentian. Some of those in the divine sect would naturally recognize them.

“Mhm, we came here to visit Sect Leader Qin.” The Qiankun Sect Leader nodded.

“Sect Leader Qin should still be cultivating in the Heaven Vault. Sir, why don’t you enter the divine sect to rest first? I will immediately report this up the chain of command and spread the news. Could I trouble the two of you to wait a little for now?” That person spoke. The Qiankun Sect Leader and the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden started before they nodded their heads lightly, silently sighing with emotions.

Right now, they actually have to wait despite their identities if they wanted to meet with Qin Wentian? If it was in the past, when they wanted to meet with someone, who would dare to delay?

But now, things were different. They also understood and accepted this change.

Qin Wentian’s current status was no longer the same as the past. Even if he didn’t want to meet them, what could they do? Qin Wentian does have such qualifications indeed. After all, they could be considered to have betrayed the alliance.

“Sect Leader, Fairy, please.” That person politely spoke, inviting the two of them into the divine sect. After the two of them entered, someone beside the person who spoke to them earlier said, “Did you discover that you were actually very calm even when facing the Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden?”

“Huh?” That person started. After that, he drew in a deep breath while also feeling disbelief in his heart. That was the Qiankun Sect Leader and the number one beauty in the nine heavens! If in the past, he would surely tremble with trepidation if he came face to face with just a hegemonic-level overlord. How incredible this was? This, was the self-confidence that had been nurtured into the hearts of members from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

“Us who are members of the divine sect need not look up to anyone. As long as we work hard in cultivation and are loyal to our sect, we would also be able to gain the chance to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation in the future. After we enter, we would also have the chance to become heavenly deities.” His eyes glanced up at the Heaven Vault as his heart was filled with a burning desire.

After the Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden entered the sect, a member with a higher status welcomed them. After they waited for a little more, Qi Yu and Jun Mengchen appeared.

“Sect Leader and Fairy came here to look for Saint Lord, I wonder if there’s anything the matter?” Qi Yu stared at them and calmly spoke. Jun Mengchen stood with his arms crossed before his chest. Upon noting their attitudes, the gaze of the Qiankun Sect Leader froze slightly. Was this their transformation? Right now, the auras from the two of them were no longer inferior to his own. They could definitely speak on the same level as him.

“We wish to meet with Qin Wentian to discuss some things.” The Qiankun Sect Leader spoke.

Qi Yu didn’t say anything. Jun Mengchen’s eyes flashed as he calmly spoke, “My senior brother is extremely busy and he is still in cultivation. If there’s no major issue, you can just speak with us.”

Back then when the two of them quit the alliance, Jun Mengchen felt extremely dissatisfied and unhappy with their behavior. Since everyone was in an alliance, they should naturally advance and retreat together. Yet the two of them actually cowered due to the western world. Hence, his tone right now wasn't polite at all.

The Qiankun Sect Leader felt somewhat unhappy after hearing Jun Mengchen's words. However, he didn't say anything. In addition, he could faintly sense that be it in terms of aura or strength, this young man was in no way inferior to him. He also heard of the incident where Jun Mengchen fought alone against the Che Clan Leader back in the battle within the Heaven Vault in the past. Jun Mengchen was undoubtedly very powerful. And now, after so much time has passed, Jun Mengchen would only grow more powerful considering that there are minor realms where the flow of time are different inside the Heaven Vault.

Although he is a junior in terms of age, but in the cultivation world, age was never an issue. Even if Jun Mengchen was impoilite, there was really nothing he could say.

"Mengchen, how can you speak like this to the Qiankun Sect leader?" At this moment, a voice rang out from within the Vault. This voice belonged to Qin Wentian.

"Senior brother." Jun Mengchen lifted his head and called out. His tone was still filled with some unhappiness. But since his senior brother has spoken, he didn't continue to say anything.

"Sect Leader and Fairy came to my Heaven Vault to discuss things? Mengchen is still young, I hope the two seniors wouldn't blame him." Qin Wentian's voice rang out. The Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden nodded their heads respectively. But even if Qin Wentian really didn't apologize, they wouldn't be able to say anything either.

Chapter 2000: Joining

In the Heaven Vault, numerous floating palaces could be seen bathing in starlight, they were all incomparably majestic.

At this moment, the Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden arrived outside a floating palace. This floating palace was in the absolute center and was none other than Qin Wentian's residence. Outside the palace, guards could be seen here. Right now, the number of people in the Heaven Vault was much more than before. This particular palace was a place where no one could disturb easily. After all, this palace was the residence for Qin Wentian, his family, and his closest friends.

The Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden stared at the two guards outside the palace. One of them radiated devil might and was akin to a devil god while the other radiated an intense battle intent. Their existences caused the hearts of the Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden to tremble fiercely.

Because, these two guards were actually heavenly deities.

Heavenly deities acting as guards? Who else in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could use deities as guards?

They, with their identities of being the Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden, naturally have seen many things before. There weren't too many things that would shock them but this trip to the Heaven Vault already caused them to be shocked even before they met Qin Wentian earlier.

And now seeing the heavenly deities acting as guards, they didn't know what to say.

This meant that currently, the number of heavenly deities in the Heaven Vault was already…

When they thought of this, their hearts trembled once more. They tried their best to endure their shock as they walked into the floating palace.

On their way in, they encountered some people and things were just like how they imagined. The people they met were all at the heavenly deity realm. It was like in this place, heavenly deities were like mortals. There were simply too many of them.

Finally, they came to a location and finally saw Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian smiled at them, "Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden came from afar, please forgive me for not being able to head out to welcome you both."

The two of them surveyed Qin Wentian. Right now, Qin Wentian's magnificence was even greater compared to the past. With a single glance at him, he gave off a feeling of unfathomable mystery. Back then, he was already the number one genius in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that could suppress the Thunder Clan Leader. Now, his cultivation base must have grown even stronger to the point where it was hard to imagine. But there's no doubt that he was more than sufficiently strong enough to deal with the two of them. With regard to this point, this was still something they could accept.

The Qiankun Sect Leader smiled bitterly. Earlier, he still felt a trace of unhappiness because Qin Wentian just sent out his voice instead of going out to receive them as he felt that Qin Wentian didn't give them respect. But after he came here, that unhappiness vanished completely. He truly could feel that right now, Qin Wentian's position was no longer the same as before, on a different level from them. Him being willing to meet with them was already a sign of respect. If not, given their betrayal of the alliance back then, so what if Qin Wentian didn't want to meet them? Qin Wentian didn't even need to be too polite with them.

"Take a seat." Qin Wentian stretched out his hand in invitation. The Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavenly Mystical Maiden nodded their heads lightly and sat before Qin Wentian. Beside him, a beautiful maiden walked over to pour the tea. This young woman exuded a pure sense of beauty like she was someone from a portrait. What made the Qiankun Sect Leader and the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden shocked was her current cultivation. This young woman who was pouring tea for them was actually a heavenly deity too.

They felt that the majority of people in this particular floating palace were all heavenly deities.

"Sect Leader Qin, this young woman is an outstanding beauty. I wonder who is she?" The Qiankun Sect Leader attempted to probe, wanting to know the identity of this young woman.

"I'm a maid serving the sect leader and am in charge of the internal matters here in this palace." The beautiful maiden blinked her eyes with some mischievousness. The Qiankun Sect Leader perspired. A heavenly deity as a maid… he felt his heart pounding faster.

"Sect Leader, don't listen to this lass talking nonsense. Her name is Nanfeng Shengge and is one of my good friends. I knew her back in Azure Mystic." Qin Wentian rolled his eyes at Nanfeng Shengge. Nanfeng Shengge didn't mind at all and gave him a mischievous smile.

"So this is the case." The Qiankun Sect Leader nodded his head lightly but he was sighing in his heart. Truly, this was a case of when a person achieved the dao, everyone around him would rise to the skies. Even his subordinates and good friends from Azure Mystic were deities now.

Was the Heaven Vault really so mystical?

He was thinking that if they hadn't quit the alliance back then, would an army of deities have also appeared in his Qiankun Sect?

“Sect Leader Qin, the flow of time in this floating Palace should he different from the outside world, right? I can sense some differences.” The Nine Heavens Mystical Maidens asked curiously. How could she not be extremely shocked as well? Even a young maiden from Azure Mystic has already become a heavenly deity. Other than cultivating in this cultivation sacred ground which was the Heaven Vault, the amount of time was also an important factor.

“Currently, the flow of time in here has roughly reached 1,000 times.” Qin Wentian laughed. The Mystical Maiden nodded her head. No wonder. The Heaven Vault possessed an extremely favourable advantage allowing people to comprehend their daos on their respective constellations. That, in addition to the change in the flow of time, a short time might have passed outside while a long time passed in here. Now, they could already be certain that heavenly deities weren’t a rare sight at all in the Heaven Vault. They were commonly seen everywhere.

The Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden exchanges a mutual glance. They came here initially wanting to discuss some conditions but right now, all their confidence was wiped away. It seems that with the addition of them or not, it made no difference for the current Heaven Vault.

“Wentian, for some of the matters in the past, we were also helpless about it then. I’m sure you know about the strength of the western world. That godking has never appeared at all and that by itself is already a great threat. Back then, they told us to leave the alliance, we were truly helpless to resist…” the Qiankun Sect Leader slowly spoke. Qin Wentian waved his hands to stop him from continuing to speak. He smiled, “Sect Leader, there’s no need to explain anything about that matter. With regards to that, I understand everything and can comprehend your reasons. In any case, I have also fought together with Sect Leader and Fairy before. I naturally wouldn’t care about such a matter.”

If humans don’t act for the sake of themselves, the heavens would fall. The Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden didn’t make a mistake by choosing that choice. They did it for the sake of their sects. No one would have wanted to directly defy the western world.

“Since this is the case, I can set my heart at ease.” The Qiankun Sect Leader nodded lightly. Qin Wentian lifted his tea cup and took a sip, he didn’t say anything. He believed that the Qiankun Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden didn’t come here together just to apologize to him. If they wanted to do so, they would have already come earlier. Why was there a need to wait until now?

Hence, at this moment, Qin Wentian decided to wait for the Qiankun Sect Leader to speak.

As expected, after falling silent for a period of time, the Qiankun Sect Leader spoke. “Sect Leader Qin, our purpose for this trip, other than offering our apology, we also hope that we can form an alliance with the Heaven Vault again.”

“Alliance?” Jun Mengchen at the side frowned. “Do you think that given the current strength of our Heaven Vault, we would still need the Qiankun Sect to ally with us? In addition, what’s the use of an ally that would forsake you the moment things go south?”

"This…" The Qiankun Sect Leader had an awkward look on his face but he had no way to refute Jun Mengchen's words. Although the words were ugly, Jun Mengchen's words were the truth. Before he and the mystical maiden came by, they were confident that the Heaven Vault needed their strength. But after they entered the Heaven Vault, their confidence melted into nothing.

But precisely because of that they saw the current strength of the Heaven Vault clearly now, their determination to form an alliance strengthened even more.

Right now, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were in a tripartite situation. The positions of their Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace was somewhat awkward. Maybe, they didn't need to proclaim their allegiance to one of the three factions and might be able to peacefully wait in silence for one of the three factions to emerge in triumph. But, what would happen after that day arrived? Would there still be any place for their sects?

The western world wanted the entire world to believe in the buddhist path, gathering their faith. Once they became the ultimate king of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, would there still be any place for them left?

If Yue Changkong won, that would be even more terrifying. In the past, Godking Gu was known to be someone with a strange and evil character. If he became the ultimate king, the Qiankun Sect and the Nine Heavens Mystical Palace would surely have dire endings.

Out of all three factions, they could only trust in Qin Wentian's character. They hoped that Qin Wentian would be able to become the victor. Also, after they entered the Heaven Vault, they felt that the chance of the Heaven Vault becoming the final victor was very great.

Since they supported Qin Wentian to win, it would naturally be better to join him before victory is determined than later. At that time, if they joined him then, that would no longer be an alliance. It would be them submitting to him. Their statuses would be completely different.

And just by seeing Jun Mengchen's attitude, they knew for sure that the people around Qin Wentian would definitely look down on them once the Heaven Vault is victorious. If they joined now, they could still fight together.

This time around, Qin Wentian didn't stop Jun Mengchen. Seems like although Qin Wentian didn't hate them for quitting the alliance, it wasn't going to be so easy for him to accept them again.

"We were wrong in the past. If war truly occurs between the three grand factions, we shall aid the Heaven Vault with the fullest of our abilities. Our fates are tied together." The Qiankun Sect Leader spoke.

"It's easy to talk. What if someone comes to persuade you two when we are fighting against the other two factions, wanting you all to betray us? Senior brother, we have to be on our guard against them. It already happened once before." Jun Mengchen spoke.

“Your words are too overboard.” The Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden stared at Jun Mengchen. “We are not like those types of people.”

“Whether you are or not, words alone cannot prove it.” Jun Mengchen calmly spoke. Qin Wentian turned his gaze to Nanfeng Shengge who was at the side as he asked, “Shengge, what do you think?”

Nanfeng Shengge smiled good naturedly. “Shengge absolutely believes in the sincerity and character of both the Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden. But after all, an unhappy thing has once happened in the past. It’s highly impossible for the Heaven Vault to accept the two of them again completely without reservations in their hearts. If Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden is really keen to be with us, you all can lead your men and enter the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, joining us completely, becoming one of the official branches. In the future, we can observe the performance of Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden before we decide to let the experts of both your branches to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation or not. If not, once the strength of your sects increased and unhappy matters occur once again, it would be a calamity to our Heaven Vault.”

“This…” the Qiankun Sect Leader had an unhappy expression on his face.

Qin Wentian smiled, “Sect Leader, Fairy. Let’s not speak about such unhappy matters for now. No matter what, we had once fought on the battlefield together. Even if my faction truly becomes the ultimate king of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms in the future, we would never make things difficult for you two.”

The Qiankun Sect Leader and the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden silently sighed in their hearts. Qin Wentian had already silently agreed to Nanfeng Shengge’s words. After all, they did quit the alliance out of their initiative in the first place. If Qin Wentian were to accept them like before, there would definitely be many who would be unhappy.

The Heaven Vault now was no longer the Heaven Vault of the past. It was one of the three great factions today.

After that, they chatted idly for some time. The Qiankun Sect Leader and the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden then bid their farewell. When they departed, they inclined their heads and stared up in the air. The Qiankun Sect Leader sighed, he had a feeling like he was past his prime. The era has changed. The current heavens no longer belonged to them any more.

Many days later, news was circulated through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace has relocated to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

But this time, it wasn’t an alliance. They have submitted and joined the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect as one of the official branches!

Chapter 2001: Little Rascal's Origins

After the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace joined, the might of their faction grew increasingly stable. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, no other hegemonic powers existed outside of the three factions.

At this moment in the boundless starry space of the Heaven Vault, a strange scene could be seen. A gigantic golden-furred demon had its pores opened as it frenziedly absorbed the astral light from the constellations. Boundless amounts of astral light flowed into the demon's pores, causing his body to glow as resplendently as the constellations, making it resemble an astral beast god.

Countless people in the Heaven Vault saw this scene. Qin Wentian stood at the boundary of the floating palace and glanced upwards. Beside him, Mo Qingcheng leaned against him, they were like an immortal couple. Right now, Mo Qingcheng's cultivation base had also finally entered the heavenly deity realm. Although her talent was considered among the weakest out of Qin Wentian's loved ones, she still cultivated for tens of thousands of years within the minor realms Qin Wentian created in the Heaven Vault. That, in addition to the innate advantage of cultivating here, finally made her comprehend her heavenly dao, allowing her to make a breakthrough to the heavenly deity realm.

She wasn't the only deity who recently broke through. In truth, the situation here was like what the Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden had imagined. Heavenly deities were everywhere, the Heaven Vault really had an army of deities. If one didn't enter the Heaven Vault to see this personally, they would never dare to imagine such a grand situation.

"Little Rascal is growing stronger and stronger." Mo Qingcheng softly spoke. Everyone in the Heaven Vault was growing stronger but they were all okay with biding their time. They had time and could afford to wait. In the future, the Heaven Vault would only grow increasingly stronger.

"Mhm. Little Rascal can already absorb the dao from the various constellations. It's rumored that in the legends, ancient heaven devouring beasts could even swallow the sun, moon and stars, it seemed that there's some truth in that." Qin Wentian nodded his head lightly. But at this moment, that gigantic golden-furred figure suddenly trembled. And it was trembling continuously.

"What's going on?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Such a situation has never appeared before.

Had something happened to Little Rascal?

"Did something happen?" Mo Qingcheng asked.

"I'll go and take a look." Qin Wentian's figure flashed as he flew through the air, soon arriving at the starry space. His body flew past Little Rascal's gigantic figure and arrived at Little Rascal's head area. Little Rascal had his eyes closed, his gigantic body was trembling as low-sounding roars were emitted from his mouth.

“No, no…” He kept shaking his head, the trembling of his body grew even more intense. Qin Wentian frowned, he placed his palm on Little Rascal’s face and infused strands of his energy into Little Rascal.

“NO!” A loud roar shook the space, even the constellations seemed to tremble under the intensity of his roar. When his giant saucer-like eyes opened, he finally saw Qin Wentian.

“Wentian.” Little Rascal called out softly.

“What happened?” Qin Wentian gently asked.

“I think I saw my parents.” Little Rascal spoke, his words causing Qin Wentian’s body to tremble. Little Rascal was a royal-blooded Heaven Devouring Beast and he met Mo Qingcheng in a chance encounter back in Azure Mystic. After that, he followed Qin Wentian because he was attracted by his blood but at that time, Little Rascal was already alone, he had no other companions or loved ones. It simply seemed that he was born alone with many unique abilities.

Once, he was also wondering who were Little Rascal’s parents were.

Could the parents of a royal-blooded heaven devouring beast be simple?

Demon gods were different from humans. Although bloodlines were important for humans, they could depend on post-natal cultivation to grow in strength. It was different for demonic beasts. Their bloodlines were the extremely important. For example, since Little Rascal was a royal heaven devouring beast, how could his parents be ordinary demonic beasts? They must definitely be immensely powerful demonic beasts as well.

“How did you see them?” Qin Wentian asked. Little Rascal was cultivating in here and didn’t leave the Heaven Vault. How did he see his parents?

“Earlier when I was cultivating, I was devouring the daos from the constellations. I seemed to have entered a dreamlike state and I saw my parents. They were the same as me and were devouring the constellations. At that instant, it felt like I traveled through time and saw my parents. They appeared in my memories.” Little Rascal’s eyes turned red, it was like he was extremely agitated. The scenes he saw in his mind kept repeating themselves.

“Did they leave anything behind that can allow you to know where they are now?” Qin Wentian asked.

“No but I’m sure something happened to them. When they were devouring the constellations, they suffered a backlash and were heavily injured. After that, a blurry figure appeared and attacked them. I wasn’t able to see what happened next.” Little Rascal grit its teeth as it roared. “Where are my parents? Who was that blurry figure? How could he actually attacked when they were injured? Truly despicable.”

“Devouring the constellations of the starry space…” Qin Wentian’s heart trembled. This was just too crazy. Little Rascal origins were actually so terrifying. All of a sudden, he thought of something but this conjecture seemed somewhat incredible. Would that really be real?

“Go and rest for now.” Qin Wentian spoke softly. Little Rascal nodded. His gigantic figure became small and soon turned into his usual puppy form with snow white fur, resembling an adorable pet as he leapt into Qin Wentian’s embrace.

Qin Wentian paced about, his eyes gleaming with sharpness. The words spoken by Little Rascal earlier made him feel an impulse to want to help and find out Little Rascal’s origins.

After returning to the floating palace, Qin Wentian told Little Rascal to rest first. He then headed to look for his father Qin Yuanfeng and his maternal grandfather Luoshen Chuan.

“Wentian, do you have some questions you want to ask?” Luoshen Chuan spoke.

“Grandfather, I once heard you telling me about some stories regarding the ancient godkings of the eight great regions. Ancient records have it that the godking of the Desolate Region had the title of ‘Huang’ (Desolate). He has no other names. Grandfather, you once told me that it’s possible Godking Desolate isn’t a human but a demonic beast, right?” Qin Wentian asked.

“The era of the eight godkings is simply too long ago. Many ancient records about them aren’t whole, there is too much information missing and no one can verify what was recorded. Everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms only knows about the exact information which was passed down in ancient records. I once made a deep study about the Desolate Region’s history. From my conjecture, I feel it’s very likely that Godking Desolate is a demonic beast. I remember that I once flipped through a tattered-looking record that has information about some of the deeds of Godking Desolate. He could devour the sun and moon, pluck down the constellations and according to some clues, the original form of Godking Desolate might very well be the same as your demonic beast companion. Godking Desolate was also a heaven devouring beast.”

Luoshen Chuan spoke, “Naturally, these clues are what I’ve inferred. You won’t find them specifically stated in ancient records.”

“Wentian, did you discover something? Why are you asking these?” Luoshen Chuan was curious.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded his head. “Not long ago, Little Rascal was cultivating in the starry space of the Heaven Vault. From what he said, he seemed to have entered a dream-like state while he was cultivating and saw some memories regarding his parents. They were devouring the constellations and had suffered a backlash. After that, a mysterious person sneaked attack them and he couldn’t see anything more after that. Hence, I have some conjectures of my own. However, the timeline in reality doesn’t seem to match. Hence, I wanted to consult grandfather and father.”

“There’s no problems with the timeline.” Qin Yuanfeng spoke. “At the godking level, there are many methods available to them which are unfathomable to us. The Moon God created the Divine Mausoleum to plan for a return countless years later. If Godking Desolate really had descendants, it’s possible for them to be born countless years in the future as well, he must have used his dao to nurture the fetus.”

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. If this is the case, this might truly be possible.

“Who was the one who sneaked attack Little Rascal’s parents?” Qin Wentian softly spoke. If they could find the identity of the attacker, only then would it be possible for them to get their answer.

“If your guess is true and Little Rascal is the descendant of Godking Desolate, in that case, for the attacker who dared to do a sneak attack, his power level wouldn’t differ too much. It’s very possible that he is a godking as well.” Qin Yuanfeng replied. Luoshen Chuan nodded in agreement. Even for godkings who are injured, they weren’t characters heavenly deities could deal with.

“In that case, it’s very possible for the attacker to be one of the other known godkings. Yue Changkong might know some things.” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. Was his guess really accurate?

Right now, Little Rascal’s performance was more and more heaven-defying. If not, he wouldn’t dare to make such a bold conjecture.

In the western paradise, in an independent spacetime, there was a golden world filled with golden buddhic light. This buddhic light was like holy light, lighting up this entire golden world.

In this golden world, there actually was an incomparably gigantic figure there. This figure seemed somewhat illusory and not real, like it would vanish at anytime. Shackles formed from golden buddhic light bounded his body. Each part of his body seemed to be a lighted buddha lamp which chained together, forming a terrifying lock.

At this moment, a blurry figure suddenly appeared in the midst of the buddhic light. This figure was also illusory, its face couldn’t be seen clearly. However, this figure had his palms pressed together. Clearly, he was a buddhic cultivator.

After appearing in this spacetime. The buddha lamps on the gigantic figure turned towards him and began to channel the light they drained from the gigantic figure into his body causing the illusory figure to grow increasing corporeal.

“It has been so many years. Have you not returned to life yet?” That gigantic figure suddenly opened its eyes and spoke in an incomparably cold voice. Although he sounded weak, his voice was still filled with a terrifying aura.

“I shall plunder the heavenly daos you devoured back then bit by bit. One day when you have vanished completely, my dao shall grow closer and closer to reaching grand completion. In the future when I verify the pinnacle of my dao and transcend the nine heavens. You would be a part of that too.” The monk spoke lightly. His voice sounded ethereal and somewhat unreal.

“You think you can succeed? Through these countless years, I’ve already seen the future. The date of your destruction grows near.”

“So, to which era have you sent your son to?” That monk calmly interjected, his words causing the gigantic figure to tremble. After that, the gigantic figure mumbled, “My son?”

“It’s fine if you don’t want to admit it. He has already appeared. I didn’t expect you to have such a move in reserve back then. Sadly, everything you did would only serve my designs in the end.” The voice of the monk didn’t fluctuate. He continued to absorb the light from the lamps slowly and only left this spacetime after a long period of time. The gigantic figure suddenly let out an earth-shaking howl, like it had just suffered an intense provocation.

Has that era finally arrived? He really wished to go out for a look!

Chapter 2002: Destruction, Rebirth

In the location of the Che Clan which became ruins after the Che Clan departed, this place now was actually completely different. Numerous imposing and beautiful palaces and buildings were built there and these didn't belong to a single power but were occupied by several powers instead.

Right now, maybe the three grand factions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms didn't have any regard for the ruins of the Che Clan in their eyes. But to many other smaller powers, this place was simply a gem. There were many battles that occurred during these years and a fragile balance was finally reached. Some powers occupied this treasured land and refused to leave, wanting to dig out the treasures of the Che Clan.

The Che Clan of the past was once prosperous for a period of time and was considered an empire. It wasn't so easy to fully excavate everything of the Che Clan in this ruin.

However, these powers that occupied the Che Clan's past territory had no idea that in a different spacetime dimension underneath these ruins, the Che Clan experts were still present here. Golden divine flames burned wildly, an immensely gigantic world furnace appeared in the center of the world. The golden flames were like primordial fire and terrifying waves of might gushed forth from it. Countless divine formations were inscribed around it. If it wasn't for these divine formations existing, the primordial fire would surely erupt and easily destroy this dimension.

But even with the existence of the divine formations, they weren't able to completely suppress everything. Within the primordial divine fire, a faint blurry shape of a chaos divine weapon could be seen. The chaos divine weapon was shifting forms unceasingly and the power that radiated from it continued to destroy the divine formations bit by bit, like it wanted to break free of the bindings and break out from this dimension.

"What's happening?" The Che Clan Leader had an unsightly expression. They spent so much effort through the generations, and there were even many deities who died for the sake of forging this divine item. But in the end, they had no way to control this weapon? Their Che Clan didn't have powerful enough dao arts to allow the divine formations to take its final form?

He was reluctant, this chaos divine weapon was the last hope of their Che Clan. Once they failed, the Che Clan would be destroyed and cease to exist forever from this world.

In the surroundings of the primordial fire, above the countless divine formations, the experts from the Che Clan were still working hard, channeling their energy to maintain the primordial fire, wanting the chaos divine weapon within to fully form as they sought to gain control over it by inserting their daos within. They attempted to use their daos as a way to communicate and to form a resonance with it. However, the primordial fire radiated a terrifying blast of energy that transformed into a chaotic vortex that frenziedly devoured the daos of everyone. Not a hint of resonance could be felt.

“Careful! We might suffer a backlash.” A heavenly deity shouted. A few moments later, a Che Clan expert screamed in pain as he transformed into ashes directly. His body then flew into the primordial fire, becoming a part of it.

“Rumble~” The divine flames flared with even more intensity. That terrifying vortex was churning and after that, more and more people screamed as they were turned into ashes, swept into the divine flames before being absorbed by that vortex.

“Clan leader.” Many people turned their gazes to the Che Clan Leader. Che Hou’s expression turned ashen. Generations of the Che Clan put in all their effort and hardwork but did all of that amount to them creating such a strange object which they wouldn’t be able to control? There was only a single step away before the divine weapon could be born. However, their current strengths were no longer able to control it.

Che Hou’s expression contorted as he coldly spoke, “Suppress it or if it destroys this dimension, the entire Che Clan would truly be annihilated.”

The experts from the Che Clan had looks of madness on their faces. They understood what their Clan Clan Leader said was real. The power of this divine weapon was simply too great. If they couldn’t suppress it, this entire dimension would be destroyed and the Che Clan would vanish as well. They frenziedly unleashed their power to suppress it using the divine formations. However, their efforts were useless. The terrifying vortex could devour all destructive energies. The divine flames burned, shooting straight up into the air, illuminating the entire sky. The experts from the Che Clan were sucked into the vortex one by one from the absorption force and became a part of the primordial divine flames.

The golden divine flames raged higher and higher. Inside the chaotic vortex, a humanoid face akin to a devil actually appeared. This entire space seemed to be sighing, this was the calamity of the Che Clan.

When Che Hou saw this, pain and agony filled his eyes. The Che Clan actually exhausted all their efforts of countless generations to create this divine weapon. What an irony was this, he was unwilling to accept this.

Countless divine formations were inscribed here. Che Hou wielded a scepter that was capable of refining everything in the world. He took a step forward and the world refining force was released, locking onto the newly born devilish figure in the vortex.

That figure lifted its head and stared at Che Hou. It seemed to be alive and this realization caused Che Hou’s heart to tremble violently.

“Since you all have created me, why bother to resist? All of you should give me all your life force and energy. Your wish will naturally be accomplished then. Only by doing so would I be able to be fully born.” The devilish figure spoke in human speech. Its voice was cold and had no traces of emotions. After all, it wasn’t a human, it was a weapon with sentience.

“We’ve created you but we didn’t expect that you would seek to devour us.” Che Hou coldly spoke.

“From their memories, I learned of the purpose of why the Che Clan wanted to create me. You guys wanted to forge a divine weapon that could transcend everything and since this is the case, you should already know that your strengths are not enough to control me. If you can control me, I wouldn’t be able to meet your goals. Can you not understand this? Are you foolish?” An emotionless robotic voice rang out once more. Che Hou’s expression grew extremely unsightly. The words of this figure were extremely logical, so logical to the point where Che Hou had nothing to retort.

Indeed, they wanted to create an ultimate divine weapon that could transcend everything. Since this is the case, its power would naturally exceed the scope of their ability to control it. Could all of this be karma?

“I didn’t expect that we would have created such a monster like you.” Che Hou sighed. Could this be the fate of their Che Clan?

“Maybe.” That emotionless voice rang out once more. This entire dimension was being destroyed, countless people of the Che Clan died and became part of the weapon. The devilish figure actually let out a sigh, “I was created by you all and ultimately, your wills shaped mine to a certain extent. Your obsession is so strong. Since this is the case, from now onwards, let me be you and you me.”

As the sound of its voice faded, the divine weapon broke through Che Hou’s world refinement force and drew his body closer. After that, the power in the divine weapon slowly flowed into Che Hou bit by bit. Che Hou’s body trembled violently, it felt like he was being possessed by a devil. In this dimension, the boundless energy here surged towards him endlessly, his body became a receptacle that wanted to digest all the energy in this world.

The terrifying primordial divine flames burned through everything, including the fabric of this dimension.

Currently, at the ruins of the Che Clan, there were still many people excavating things. There were even conflicts between them and a face off occurred.

But at this moment. The entire world seemed to tremble. After that, space cracked apart as an overwhelming might that could destroy everything erupted forth. Within the dimension, a beam of light that could tear everything apart also appeared.

“No…” A person screamed and wanted to flee, but everything was already too late. That beam of light exploded. Everything here turned to ashes. The numerous reconstructed buildings in the Che Clan’s ruins crumbled apart as this place became a ruin once again. That beam of light enveloped the entire ruin and continued extending towards the surroundings. It seemed to have enough power to destroy the world. People from afar saw the destructive light but a few moments later, the light radius expanded and enveloped them completely, absorbing their lives. The light then congregated into a terrifying beam and shot up into the clouds like it wanted to break through the nine heavens.

The location where the Che Clan once existed, was completely destroyed again. Countless people in the Earth Region saw the light. Their hearts pounded madly. Did something happen in the Che Clan's area again?

At this moment, the Che Clan Leader, Che Hou, stood in the airspace above the ruins. His aura was completely different from before. It felt more like a cold divine weapon than a human. So cold that it was terrifying. The him now was that ultimate divine weapon and that divine weapon was him.

The generations of the Che Clan put in all their efforts to create the ultimate divine weapon but eventually, the weapon annihilated most of the experts of the Che Clan. But even so, the wills of the Che Clan also influenced the weapon and in the end, the fusion between Che Hou and the weapon took place.

He, Che Hou, was no longer the Che Hou of the past.

Boundless light radiated from him, spreading outwards, creating a golden world. Very soon, numerous gold-colored palaces and buildings rose up from the ruins, this creation extended out in all directions and the reconstruction was actually a model of the past Che Clan.

Since the Che Clan was destroyed, he wanted to create a brand new Che Clan. Right now, with his existence, the Che Clan would never be exterminated again. He would represent the entire Che Clan. His life alone contained the lives of countless members of the Che Clan.

The news regarding the great commotion in the Che Clan's ruins began to spread through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The Earth Region was trembling from the commotion.

Many people wanted to know what happened there exactly.

Soon after, there were people saying that they saw the Che Clan Leader, Che Hou. He has returned and his cultivation base made a huge breakthrough and he was now equivalent to a godking. He returned to rebuild the Che Clan and was prepared to extend his influence in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Could it be that the tripartite situation would be broken? Did the fourth great faction just appear?

Given the huge transformation to the Che Clan, most probably the other three great factions wouldn't be able to ignore this, right?

In the Heaven Vault, Qin Wentian felt some shock after he received the news. The Che Clan was actually rebuilt and there seemed to be only the Che Clan Leader in the Che Clan? Something seemed strange.

Qi Yu took the initiative to volunteer for a mission. He wanted to head to the Che Clan to gather information. If he could do so, he also wanted to kill Che Hou. However, Qin Wentian didn’t agree. He could feel something highly unusual about this. Since the Che Clan Leader has reappeared and destroyed the reconstructed buildings in his territory to rebuild the Che Clan anew, things wouldn’t be so simple. Maybe, the truth was like what was rumoured in the outside world. Che Hou might have made a huge breakthrough in his cultivation and reached a completely different level!

Chapter 2003: Che Hou's Dominance

After Che Hou rebuilt the Che Clan, he stayed there and didn't leave. There didn't seem to be any reactions from the three grand factions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Until one day, multiple heavenly deities arrived here. These deities were the Prison God Clan Leader and the experts from the Prison God Clan. They had chosen to submit to Yue Changkong and came here to find out about the commotion.

When the Prison God Clan Leader saw the majestic golden city before his eyes, he spoke, "Brother Che, an old friend has come to visit you. Why don't you come out to meet me?"

Within the giant golden city, a beam of light flashed. After that, the beam of light transformed into a human silhouette. This person was none other than the Che Clan Leader, Che Hou. He turned his gaze onto the experts as he calmly spoke, "I didn't expect the first one to come would be you."

His voice seemed very cold, like an emotionless mechanical object. There were no feelings within.

"Such a major thing happened to the Che Clan, I naturally wanted to come here for a look." The Prison God Clan Leader smiled. "Back then, we all joined forces to attack the Heaven Vault and we had no wish to return empty-handed. But what's detestable was the fact that the Heaven Vault ended our era. I'm sure Brother Che wouldn't forget about this hatred, right?"

"What are you talking about?" A cold light flickered in the eyes of Che Hou, involuntarily causing people to feel a chill in their hearts.

"Right now, I'm sure Brother Che already knows about the situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Now, I've chosen to follow Yue Changkong. He has the power of two great godkings within him and is currently unrivaled in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Why doesn't Brother Che submit to Yue Changkong together with me? We shall destroy the Heaven Vault and unify the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." The Prison God Clan Leader revealed his objective here. Yue Changkong told him to come here and persuade Che Hou to submit.

Che Hou coldly looked at him. A mocking smile appeared on his face, "Back then when Qin Wentian attacked and destroyed the Thunder Clan, why didn't that unrivaled character you are talking about appear? Also, where's the western world? We attacked the Heaven Vault because the western world was supposed to be behind our backs. However, they didn't even show themselves. Could you still not understand what's going on? In the past, we were all nothing but chess pieces."

The Prison God Clan Leader felt his heart trembling. The powerful them were actually chess pieces, what a sorrowful thing. However, in this chessboard, the strongest three grand factions in the current Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were gambling. The one who wins the gamble would win the entire world.

And now, the Prison God Clan Leader was still a chess piece and he was willing to be one. He had no choice but to be one.

“Brother Che, sometimes we cannot go against the trend of things. You have to make a choice no matter what.” The Prison God Clan Leader seemed to be sighing, yet he also seemed to be making a threat.

However, Che Hou merely smiled coldly. “You are right. People feel helpless because they cannot go against the trend of things. But from now on, I myself shall control my own destiny. The Che Clan was annihilated and I, Che Hou, have died once. The current me is no longer the past me. Seeing that we once fought together side-by-side on the battlefield before, you can leave. I won’t do anything to you.”

“Brother Che, don’t make things difficult for me.” The Prison God Clan Leader spoke. Che Hou had a mocking smile on his face.

Make things difficult?

He truly didn’t want to act against the Prison God Clan Leader because he knew that the Prison God Clan Leader was nothing but a chess piece being used by someone else. If not, he wouldn’t even have deigned to speak with the Prison God Clan Leader.

“Just return.” Che Hou turned his back. The Prison God Clan Leader’s eyes flashed with coldness. He waved his hand as a deity beside him began to erupt with divine might. An incomparably powerful spatial blade sliced through the air, appearing before Che Hou.

Che Hou’s body stopped in mid-air. When the terrifying spatial blade slashed at his body, a loud grinding sound could actually be heard. This attack seemed to have landed on the toughest divine weapon instead of a body of flesh and blood.

Che Hou slowly turned back. His gaze became much colder than before as he stared at that heavenly deity of the Prison God Clan.

“Mhm?” That deity who attacked frowned. He pierced out with his finger as a terrifying golden spatial storm sought to lacerate everything, wanting to destroy the space Che Hou was in. But under the terrifying storm, Che Hou still stood there quietly. His golden robes produced flapping sounds and fluttered with the winds. Let alone his body, even his robes suffered no damage.

This fearsome scene caused the deities of the Prison God Clan to change drastically, including the Prison God Clan Leader.

After reaching the heavenly deity realm, the toughness of one’s body would be extremely terrifying. There were experts with bodies tougher than divine weapons but if they were faced with a heavenly dao energy attack, the attack would still be able to affect them. However right now, when such a powerful dao attack blasted into Che Hou, Che Hou didn't even need to resist. He stood there and calmly watched everything while remaining stationary. How terrifying was that?

"Dao of space?" A cold smile appeared on Che Hou's face. He then stretched out his hand and gestured towards that deity who attacked him. At this instant, a spatial tunnel appeared between them. This tunnel was directly enveloped by a terrifying golden vortex. After that, countless divine weapons manifested in the vortex, turning it into a storm of divine weapons that wanted to tear the tunnel that was linked to that heavenly deity apart.

The expression of that heavenly deity drastically changed. He waved his hand, wanting to open up another pathway so he could flee.

"You still want to leave?" Che Hou's voice was cold. With a squeeze of his hands, the vortex enveloping the tunnel began to twist. The space where the heavenly deity was at began to twist and distort as well.

"Senior Che please spare me!" That heavenly deity begged. His screams of misery rang out together with his plea but Che Hou didn't have any intentions of stopping. He simply stood there and continued making hand movements. The vortex slowly spun according to his commands, seemingly linked to his hand via energy resonance. That terrifying vortex then caused everything to crumble apart, that Prison God Clan's deity was buried within. He didn't even have a chance to make an attempt to escape.

The deities of the Prison God Clan in the surroundings stared at everything in fear and trepidation. In fact, even the Prison God Clan Leader didn't do anything. He stood at the side and observed passively while his countenance grew extremely unsightly.

Yue Changkong told them to come here to find out what happened. If they could get Che Hou to submit, it would naturally be for the best. However, they were already prepared in their hearts before they came that Che Hou might be more powerful than before. But even so, he clearly didn't expect Che Hou to be this powerful. Heavenly deities were like ants to him and his earlier attack seemed extremely casual. If Che Hou erupts with his full strength, how strong would the current him be?

"Yue Changkong wants me to submit?" At this moment, Che Hou's voice rang out. His gaze was fixed on the Prison God Clan Leader as he coldly continued, "Tell him to come look for me himself. I want to see how strong is he exactly for someone who has the powers of two godkings."

The Prison God Clan Leader's heart trembled. The Che Hou now was so confident, so confident to the extent that he didn't even fear going up and testing the strength of a godking. He seemed to be a completely changed man, different from the past. What happened to him exactly? Where were the others from the Che Clan? Why did Che Hou appear alone?

"I don't wish to kill you or you wouldn't have been able to be still alive. Help me convey my words to Yue Changkong. If he doesn't come and look for me personally, he better not antagonize me. Also, for the western world and the Heaven Vault, they better wait. I, Che Hou, have come." Che Hou's icy voice was filled with immense confidence and hatred.

He hated Qin Wentian. If it wasn't for Qin Wentian and the strength of the Heaven Vault, the Che Clan wouldn't have needed to escape into that dimension.

He also hated the western world for using them like chess pieces, not revealing themselves and only knowing how to hide in the dark.

Right now, the vengeance of the entire Che Clan was gathered on his body which fused as one with the Divine weapon. He would definitely claim this debt of revenge back.

Even though Che Hou was alone right now, he would still make the name of the Che Clan resound gloriously through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

When the Prison God Clan Leader heard Che Hou's confident and crazy words, he didn't rebut. Although both of them were at the heavenly deity realm, he was now already left in the dust by Che Hou. He was no longer able to be comparable to Che Hou.

If the heavenly deity realm was divided into tiers, the first was probably the ordinary tier while the second elite tier would be people like him, those controlling a hegemonic power. For the third supreme tier, it would be characters like Qin Ding and the old Qiankun Sect Leader. And as for people like Qin Yuanfeng, he was even above the supreme tier and might already be very close to the godking level.

In that case, what tier has Che Hou reached now?

Was he already at Qin Yuanfeng's level? Or was he even stronger and was as powerful as the ancient godkings?

The Prison God Clan Leader had no way to know because he himself couldn't be sure how powerful someone would be when they reached that level.

As for the controller of the Heaven Vault Qin Wentian, he could already suppress the Thunder Clan Leader back then. At that time, Qin Wentian's strength level should have already reached the level of Qin Ding and the old Qiankun Sect Leader. Now, there's no doubt that he would be even stronger. The current Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have entered a crazy era where all heroes vied for supremacy.

The Prison God Clan Leader left. Che Hou's name once again resounded through out the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. No one knew how he did it or what had he experienced but the people of the world already recognized his strength. Most probably, he truly could become the fourth grand faction in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms based on his strength alone.

The words spoken by Che Hou to the Prison God Clan Leader also circulated through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Inside the Heaven Vault, Qin Wentian gave the order telling members of the divine sect not to leave the sect. Che Hou might want to target them. Although he had no idea what Che Hou experienced, Qin Wentian guessed that the Che Clan was already finished.

In the Heaven Vault, within the floating palace, Purgatory appeared beside Qin Wentian and called out, “Big brother Qin.”

Purgatory was currently also at the Heavenly Deity Realm.

“Has everyone been summoned back to the Heaven Vault?” Qin Wentian stared at Purgatory’s beautiful face as he softly asked.

“Mhm.” Purgatory nodded her head. “Big brother Qin, isn’t it fine if we go after Che Hou? Given Qi Yu, Jun Mengchen and Little Rascal’s current strength, they should be strong enough to deal with him.”

Evidently, she felt that Qin Wentian was somewhat too overly cautious.

Qin Wentian gently smiled at Purgatory. His hand stretched out and gently patted her head, “The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms now is different from the past. Because of my carelessness, Little Ye could no longer come back. Now, I no longer wish to lose any of you. Che Hou is currently alone, it isn’t easy for us to deal with him. Yet, we can be considered a giant target for him. It’s better for us to wait in the Heaven Vault for him to come to us.”

“Will he come?” Purgatory asked.

“He will.” Qin Wentian nodded. “I guess that the Che Clan might no longer exist. Che Hou might shift his anger onto us because of this. Given what he said to the Prison God Clan Leader back then, he would come for sure!”

Chapter 2004: Divine Weapons Falling from the Sky

In the Boundless Sea Region where the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was located, it was like a divine empire built above the seas. The current divine sect was no longer the divine sect of the past.

Back then when the Qin Clan was destroyed, Qin Wentian led his army of deities to the Prison God Clan. The various hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all chose to flee, not daring to battle, and in the end, they submitted to Yue Changkong. From then on, the status of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms already became transcendent. During these tens of years, there were endless streams of experts joining the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. The criteria for joining was extremely strict, and core disciples were able to join the various branches of the divine sect. Only the core disciples would have the qualifications to enter the Heaven Vault freely for their cultivation. Also, for those people who were willing to give their lives to defend the Heaven Vault back then, Qin Wentian also allowed them to enter the Heaven Vault.

The various branches would naturally cause many heavenly deities to appear. However, the exact figure was only known by the people of the Heaven Vault. The disciples of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect also only knew the tip of the iceberg.

The Qin Heavenly Divine Sect governs Boundless City. Now, Boundless City has long become the territory of the divine sect, the people there were filled with respect and worship for the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

Because of the calmness during these years, the experts from the various regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms gathered in Boundless City, admiring the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. There were people who also wanted to join the divine sect. In any case, Boundless City was incomparably lively.

All the inns and restaurants in the city were filled to the brim throughout the year as the people there discussed about the current situation of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

On the streets, countless experts could be seen walking around.

The skies today were very clear but all of a sudden, a sharp whistling sound rang out. Many people inclined their heads and stared upwards, a golden light that was even more brilliant than the sun shone blindingly, causing the people on the streets to be unable to open their eyes.

“What is that?” At this moment, more and more people glanced upwards. The light grew increasingly resplendent, causing piercing pain to the eyes of everyone. Terrifying whistling sounds rang out unceasingly as a divine glow colored the sky.

“Divine weapons, divine weapons falling from the sky. The hearts of many people trembled. Numerous waves of heavenly might radiated forth, those beams of light were actually divine weapons, raining down from the sky like shooting stars. Finally, a thunderous boom echoed out as the ground was shattered from the impact. Many people screamed as a radius of ten thousand miles instantly became flat ground. Just the aftershock alone claimed the lives of countless innocents.

RUMBLE~ Thunderous noises rang out unceasingly. A terrifying earthquake unfolded in Boundless City, terrifying to the extreme.

“Divine weapons, divine weapons falling from the sky.” Countless people let out screams of madness. This might be a calamity where countless people lost their lives but it was also a great fortune. Divine weapons were falling from the sky into Boundless City, this naturally drew the madness of people. It was a calamity for the weak, but the stronger ones were excited as they rushed towards the location the divine weapons were falling. These were true divine weapons, divine weapons used by deities. They had the power to destroy heaven and earth. If they could obtain these divine weapons, they would be able to sense the power of the heavenly dao within and could even greatly increase their strength.

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, only heavenly deities were qualified to wield such high-level divine weapons. And now, these ordinary experts actually had a chance to obtain such weapons. How could they not go crazy?

However, how could it be so easy to obtain these divine weapons? After the weapons landed, they radiated dao might, forming a zone where experts below the deity level couldn’t even enter. If they forcefully moved nearer, there would be a danger to their lives.

“Great changes have happened to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Now, was the heavens changing too? It would actually rain divine weapons.” An old man in Boundless City inclined his head and stared at the sky as he sighed. His cultivation was strong, he was at the elite world overlord level but even so, he had no way to obtain any of the weapons. Hence, he could only sigh.

For the divine weapons on the ground, there were divine swords, divine halberds…all sorts of weaponry. No one knew what was the reason and where did these divine weapons come from. Other than the heavens, who else could be so impressive?

Since such a huge commotion occurred in Boundless City, the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect in the Boundless Sea Region was naturally aware too.

There were instantly experts from the divine sect who came to investigate. After that, they sent the news back to the divine sect, then to the Heaven Vault. The members from the upper echelons of all branches received the news and all of them felt that something was wrong. Hence, they sent out an order for heavenly deities to move out to check things out.

For those experts from the various sects that joined Qin Wentian before, the Myriad Devil Islands, Battle Saint Tribe, Southern Phoenix Clan, etc, their leaders Bai Qing, Qi Yu, Southern Phoenix matriarch and the others had long entered the deity realm. During these years, there were other heavenly deities being born as well. They went out from the Heaven Vault to probe this incident in Boundless City.

Divine weapons falling from the sky, although this was a wondrous matter, it didn’t shock Qin Wentian. Currently, the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was one of the grand factions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. It couldn’t possibly be Qin Wentian handling everything, right? Only when the various branches are unable to solve the problem would they inform him. If not, what’s the point of having so many deities?

Heavenly deities were considered peak-tier existences that could establish their own hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. It was only because the era has changed and many deities were born in the Heaven Vault, in addition to godkings appearing, and existences like Qin Yuanfeng nearing the power of godkings which made heavenly deities not so conspicuous.

Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge of the Southern Phoenix Clan went out together, they flew to Boundless City to investigate. The deities of the other branches also came as well. All of them sent out their divine sense and enveloped Boundless City. After that, they flew towards the location of a divine weapon. This divine weapon was a divine sword, it shone resplendently and had the ability to slice the void, containing immense power.

A heavenly deity from Matriarch Ji’s branch walked out. She unleashed a powerful spatial dao art and grabbed out. A moment later, the divine sword hummed and flew into her hands.

“Let’s disperse then and bring the divine weapons away. Although there’s nothing strange about them, it’s better for us to be careful in case of unforeseen events.” Nanfeng Yunxi spoke. Everyone nodded respectively, they were still very respectful of Nanfeng Yunxi and the others from the Southern Phoenix Clan. After all, they were Qin Wentian’s good friends who would share life and death with him, fighting side-by-side since the past. They had the qualifications to stay in the floating palace where Qin Wentian resides and could meet Qin Wentian anytime they wanted.

Right now, Qin Wentian wasn’t someone whom people could meet even if they felt like it.

The various deities then went to the different locations and collected the divine weapons in Boundless City, preparing to bring them away. Although they didn’t know where these divine weapons came from, the people of Boundless City wouldn’t be able to take them. If the divine weapons remained here, they would only cause chaos.

At this moment, a powerful devil cultivator from the Myriad Devil Islands held a divine spear in his hands. He was preparing to return but at this moment, the spear suddenly gleamed with a brilliant light and twisted around his arm, wrapping around him slowly. He frowned and looked down as his arm. A powerful might radiated from him, wanting to break free. But in the next moment, the terrifying light from the weapon directly assimilated his arm, making his arm a part of the weapon. Not only that, the light was still continuing to spread through his body.

“No good!” His heart trembled as he roared loudly, “Quickly toss away the weapons!”

This voice was like thunder from a clear sky. The deities from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect instantly heard his voice. They lowered their heads and looked at the divine weapons in their hands, all of them discovered that their hands holding on to the weapons have turned into a golden color. In just an instant, their hands no longer belonged to themselves, they were already a part of the divine weapon they held.

Nanfeng Shengge also took a divine sword. Her arm turned golden, becoming a part of that sword.

“Sever your arm!” Nanfeng Yunxi who was at the side shouted out. Nanfeng Shengge’s expression froze, she didn’t hesitate and instantly swung her other arm out in a chop, severing her arm that held the divine weapon. Fresh blood flowed out instantly, the light from the divine weapon flared and flowed forth to envelope Nanfeng Shengge body. Nanfeng Yunxi’s figure flashed as she pulled Nanfeng Shengge and sped away.

“Are you alright?” Nanfeng Yunxi looked at Nanfeng Shengge’s severed arm. Right now, Nanfeng Shengge was using her energy to rejuvenate her arm. She shook her head lightly. Her beautiful eyes changed as she sent out her divine sense to envelop Boundless City. Many of the heavenly deities weren’t as lucky as her. Right now, their bodies have already been completely assimilated by the divine weapons they held. Their bodies turned golden and the divine weapons have disappeared, melding into their bodies, becoming them.

Nanfeng Yunxi naturally saw this scene as well. She knew that this unknown enemy wasn’t something they could contend against anymore. She pulled Nanfeng Shengge as they sped rapidly towards the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

In the airspace of Boundless City, numerous golden bodies appeared. Behind them, there were still many divine weapons. These golden bodies were none other than the deities from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. Right now, their eyes were gleaming with an intense coldness, as cold and emotionless as a weapon.

“This…” The people of Boundless City stared at the sky as their hearts pounded violently. What was going on? Was this a trap set by someone? How fearsome was this?

Those heavenly deities also sped towards the direction of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect while the divine weapons behind them hummed loudly, causing the entire city below to vibrate. A powerful pressure bore down on everyone, the stifling atmosphere was so heavy that no one even dared to breathe loudly.

Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge’s speed was extremely fast, and given the fact that Boundless City borders on the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, they soon retreated into the sect and informed the other experts, activating the protective divine formations which created a screen of light that enveloped the entire sect.

The Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden in the sect were shocked. They turned their gazes outside and saw the terrifying scene. Numerous golden-colored heavenly deities stood outside the sect, their eyes filled with the emotionless aspects of machinery, there were even divine weapons following behind them.

“The Che Clan?” The Qiankun Sect Leader spoke in a low voice. The Che Clan was once the number one artificer aristocrat clan in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. These divine weapons reminded him of the Che Clan.

At this moment, the faces of those heavenly deities outside all changed to the appearance of one person.

“Che Hou.” The Qiankun Sect Leader’s eyes gleamed with sharpness when he saw this. The Che Clan Leader came to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect like how he told the people of the world he would be coming.

In addition, he was actually able to assimilate so many deities, using divine weapons to possess them. Such a heaven-defying method was something Che Hou wasn’t capable of in the past. The current him was so much more terrifying than before!

Chapter 2005: Killing His Way into the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect

Che Hou was no longer the past Che Hou. He fused with that ultimate divine weapon which was created through the efforts of several generations of the Che Clan by the refinement of countless divine weapons with the use of divine formations. Ultimately, the Che Clan suffered a backlash and the ultimate weapon devoured all of them before fusing with Che Hou, becoming the present him.

Because he could easily transform into different divine weapons, each of the divine weapon was him, they were also considered as his clones. Naturally, these types of clones were weaker than usual clones and their strength was a far cry from Che Hou’s original body.

But even so, any of those divine weapons could easily destroy an ordinary deity. Those deities of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect actually didn’t even have any ability to resist. They were possessed and assimilated, becoming a part of Che Hou.

Che Hou coldly stared at the screen of light from the protective formation. After that, the golden bodies transformed into divine weapons again as the divine weapons began to hum, creating a shrill whistle that rang through the air. A supreme divine formation that could destroy everything appeared outside the light screen. This divine formation shone with brilliant light as countless divine weapons manifested from it, blasting into the screen of light around the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. The protective barrier trembled violently, causing tremors to rock the divine sect. Countless people inclined their heads and stared at the terrifying scene outside. All their hearts were trembling violently.

There was actually an enemy that directly attacked their Qin Heavenly Divine Sect? Such audaciousness! How strong was this enemy exactly?

In just a short instant, the screen of light shattered, the deities inside all turned ashen. A trace of worry flashed past Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge’s eyes. The current Che Hou was too powerful, so powerful that they felt suppressed in his presence. Would he really be as strong as what was rumored? Having a strength level equal to godkings?

“Che Hou.” The Qiankun Sect Leader stepped out. He has already joined the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect but because they quit the alliance in the past, although Qin Wentian didn’t blame them, it was no longer possible for them to gain back the same amount of trust as before. At this moment, since Che Hou killed his way over, he naturally had to step out. If not, most probably he would never be a part of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect in the future after this.

“You have also become a dog for others?” Che Hou calmly stared at the Qiankun Sect Leader. Even his mocking voice was as cold and emotionless as that of a robot.

“What happened exactly back then? How was the Che Clan destroyed? I’m sure that wasn’t done by the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.” The Qiankun Sect Leader asked. Why would such a huge transformation happen to Che Hou?

“Since you have already become a dog, why don’t you be my dog instead? I can spare your life.” Che Hou didn’t reply to the question and coldly continued.

“Che Hou, you are too insolent.” The Qiankun Sect Leader’s voice turned cold. A qiankun diagram appeared behind him, covering the sky, manifesting terrifying divine might.

“Do you think that the current you would be able to contend against me?” The bodies of Che Hou spoke together at the same time. Each of them began to radiate an intensely resplendent divine glow that flowed towards the Qiankun Sect Leader. At this moment, there seemed to be constellations falling from the airspace above the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. The divine glow radiating from all the Che Hous illuminated everything.

The Qiankun Sect Leader angrily shouted. His Measureless Law Body appeared, resembling a supreme divine lord. The qiankun energy in the world began to congregate with the Qiankun Sect Leader at the center. It was like the entire energy in this world could be used by him. The white sky transformed into night as the countless stars cast their light downwards.

RUMBLE~ The attacking beams of light from the divine weapons didn’t blast directly towards the Qiankun Sect Leader. Instead, they locked down the Qiankun Sect Leader’s surroundings and began to glow with a bright light.

“Exterminate.” A cold voice rang out, the locked-down space instantly exploded with apocalyptic destructive might, capable of killing anything. At this moment, this was the first time the Qiankun Sect Leader felt how tiny and inconsequential he was. Before this power, he was helpless to resist. He could only wait for death.

His Measureless Law Body crumbled. The Qiankun Sect Leader turned pale. That destructive might that seemed to represent the supreme strength of the heavens and earth bore downwards. It was useless even with his qiankun reversal art. He was directly countered, he had no way to use any of the energy in this world.

And just when the destructive might was about to land on the Qiankun Sect Leader, all of a sudden, the area he was at began to twist. The Qiankun Sect Leader’s body directly vanished. The night sky returned to normal, the numerous divine weapons still shone brilliantly as Che Hou’s figure was reflected above. His gaze was like ice as he stared at the two figures before him. Two generations of Qiankun Sect Leader were currently present. The one who saved the current generation Qiankun Sect Leader was none other than the old Qiankun Sect Leader.

“No matter what, you are a hegemonic character of your era and was once the Qiankun Sect Leader, famous throughout the world. To think that you have actually also become Qin Wentian’s dog, guarding his door for him.” Che Hou stared at the old sect leader as he spoke.

“Che Hou, you can be considered my junior. Although I don’t know what changes occurred to you, but can you still not see the situation clearly? The era that belongs to you is already over. The halo around you has faded, fate is already fixed. If you continued to be stubborn and cling onto old beliefs, I’m afraid you won’t have a good ending.” The old sect leader persuaded. His voice was filled the vicissitudes of time. He had enjoyed glory for many years and could see through some strands of fate. The era was destined to change. No one can change this fact.

Since the Che Clan has become the past, even if Che Hou returned, he wouldn’t be able to change the predestined fate. History wouldn’t change just because he wanted it to.

“How ridiculous. The era may have changed, but the new era is my era, it is just the beginning. Some people are destined to rise up sooner or later. Since you have become such a degenerate, there’s no need for you to continue existing in this world.” Che Hou coldly spoke. His icy voice was filled with killing intent. Even when facing the old Qiankun Sect Leader, he had no regard for him at all. No one was clearer than him about what existence he was now. The past Che Hou was merely a part of his current body, a very small part.

He seized the luck from the heavens and earth, he was created from the efforts of countless generations of people. He was the accumulation of souls from a myriad of lives. The powerful divine formations, divine weapons, heavenly deities, they were all merely a part of him.

How could he not be qualified to become the king of this era?

“What arrogant words.” A voice echoed out. In the air, in the direction of the Heaven Vault, a figure flew over. He was incomparably handsome and had an unmatched demeanor. His body glowed with a resplendent light.

“I don’t care who you are. Since you dare to attack the deities of our divine sect and destroy our protective barrier, you shall die.” Jun Mengchen coldly spoke. His body glowed with radiance like he was the most valuable gem in the world. The emperor-king force from his body was far more outstanding compared to the past like he was innately born a king, this was something decreed by fate.

Numerous figures then flew over from the Heaven Vault, all of them were at the deity level and had extraordinary and tyrannical auras. When the people of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect saw their arrival, all of them heaved a sigh of relief. This was especially so when they spotted a person among the deities who just arrived. That incomparably handsome figure which exuded boundless magnificence, Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian cast a glance at Che Hou, and turned his gaze towards Nanfeng Shengge. His figure flashed and appeared beside her. A jade-green light flowed from him and enveloped her. Dao might descended as a new arm grew out from her earlier severed stump. The skin of her new arm was like jade, as soft and supple as a baby’s skin.

“Thank you.” Nanfeng Shengge’s beautiful eyes turned to Qin Wentian as she smiled at him. It was like she wasn’t too bothered about her injuries.

“It’s good that you are fine, try to be more careful in the future.” Qin Wentian reminded. In the past, he gathered his friends and loved one in the Heaven Vault because he wanted to guard against Che Hou. He was worried about what happened to Little Ye in the past might happen again. But he didn’t expect Che Hou to appear using such a method. Even before he knew anything about it, the Heaven Vault’s deities already went out to investigate.

Although there were now many deities being born in the Heaven Vault, but the fall of any deity still caused Qin Wentian to feel pain in his heart. Each heavenly deity was considered a core support of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect nurtured by the Heaven Vault, they were all loyal followers who had pledged themselves to him.

In fact, even Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge almost lost their lives. This was simply unforgivable.

“You finally came out.” Che Hou coldly spoke. Qin Wentian turned his gaze over. His gaze was cold to the extreme, filled with killing intent.

“Back then, you would always grow stronger after disappearing for a period of time. Now, over ten years have passed. Would the current you still be as lucky?” Che Hou stared at Qin Wentian. Although the two of them didn’t really interact much before, there was no need to doubt that all the experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would have a deep impression of Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian’s eyes gleamed with a golden light, staring at the bodies of Che Hou, wanting to see through everything. He discovered that each body seemed the same, but there are differences as well. They contained different daos.

Being able to have so many clones yet all with different daos…what had Che Hou experienced during these years?

“You assimilated the power of everyone in the Che Clan?” Qin Wentian suddenly asked. “Could it be that the Che Clan was killed by you? Or they died because of you?”

Che Hou’s eyes flashed with coldness. “The Che Clan died because of you.”

“Because of me?” Qin Wentian coldly laughed. “Back then, it was your Che Clan who wanted to act against me. In fact, I didn’t even get any revenge, when I went over to the Che Clan, all of you had already vanished. Now that the Che Clan is destroyed, not only are you unwilling to admit your guilt, you even want to shift the blame and your anger to me? How ridiculous.”

“Naturally, everything is useless now. Between the two of us, one has to die.”

Che Hou’s bodies and the divine weapons fused together into one, becoming the true Che Hou. He agreed with what Qin Wentian has said. Everything in the past was useless now. Now, only the victor can live.

“What about Qin Yuanfeng? Why don’t the two of you come at me together?” Che Hou calmly spoke. Back then when Qin Yuanfeng appeared, he gave off a feeling of invincibility. Now after his transformation, Che Hou truly wanted to see how powerful Qin Yuanfeng was exactly.

Chapter 2006: Fighting Che Hou

“Arrogant.” Jun Mengchen’s voice was calm. Although Che Hou had transformed and became much stronger than before, how dare he act so arrogantly and come to the Heaven Vault alone and even speak so arrogantly. Telling his senior brother Qin Wentian and Qin Yuanfeng to fight him together.

Jun Mengchen stepped out, staring at Che Hou and he spoke, “Win against me first before you challenge my senior brother.”

Over ten years have passed in the outside world, he has cultivated for thousands of years in the Heaven Vault due to the secret minor worlds Qin Wentian created. His current strength naturally far surpassed the past. The era has changed, with three grand factions sharing control of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Everyone knew that the Heaven Vault was one of the three but who would know how powerful the Heaven Vault was now exactly?

“You?” Che Hou glanced at Jun Mengchen. Once, when he fought against Jun Mengchen in the Heaven Vault, he wasn’t able to do anything to Jun Mengchen despite after a long time. Now, this Jun Mengchen actually dares to overestimate himself and challenge him? Jun Mengchen truly didn’t know the immensity of the heavens and earth.

“I will grant you your wish.” Che Hou spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, his body directly vanished. He shot with lightning speed towards Jun Mengchen. At this moment, Che Hou was no longer a human but was a true supreme divine weapon instead. He wanted to break the dome of the heavens and tear apart all existences. The divine glow from him enveloped the space as a golden beam of light shot towards Jun Mengchen.

The treasure light radiating from Jun Mengchen flared resplendently. It was like there was an entire world protecting him. His body was like a world by itself. He then punched out, choosing to collide head-on against Che Hou. Two beams of light clashed together. In an instant, a blinding light erupted as a fearsome vortex appeared between the two of them due to the impact. Countless rays of light shot out in all directions, each one of them capable of killing an ordinary heavenly deity. Qin Wentian stretched out his hand as a barrier of light enveloped the people around him as well as his surroundings.

The aftershocks from Che Hou and Jun Mengchen’s battle could directly destroy the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

Jun Mengchen’s body was blasted back. He groaned in pain as cracks appeared in the treasure light radiating from him. His eyes stared at Che Hou as a look of surprise flickered within. Currently, the power of one of his punches could easily kill an ordinary deity, it was equivalent to the destructive force created from the explosion of an entire world. His body had fused as one with a world as well, his world-body physique should be invulnerable by right.

However, when he clashed head-on against Che Hou, he was actually inferior? What sort of body enhancement had Che Hou gone through exactly?

In truth, Che Hou was also extremely shocked at this moment. Other than himself, no one knew how strong his current body was exactly. He had fused together with the ultimate divine weapon in the world. Jun Mengchen could actually clash head-on with him? The attacks and defense of the dao of the world were truly terrifying. But so what of it? Even if it is truly a major world, Che Hou was confident that he would still be able to shatter it.

He moved with lightning speed and flew forward again, appearing before Jun Mengchen. The divine glow was still present, Che Hou's body transformed into an indestructible supreme divine weapon while an entire world appeared around Jun Mengchen. Multi-colored light flashed as boundless energy from the heavens and earth suffused his body, like Jun Mengchen's body was indestructible as well.

"BOOM!" The human-form divine weapon penetrated through everything, tearing the world apart. The human-form divine weapon Che Hou transformed into began to spew golden flames, enveloping Jun Mengchen's body and the surrounding world, wanting to burn them with his divine flames. These flames seemed to contain world-refinement force, capable of refining everything. Under the intensity of such flames, no other power could exist.

Jun Mengchen's world body was enveloped by the divine flames and began burning. He roared in rage, the world light from him directly exploded forth while his body broke free of the bindings from the world as he flew away. That world-refining flames seemed to be from the most terrifying divine formation, and as for the world around Jun Mengchen earlier, it was burned into nothingness under the heat of the divine flames.

"You are not human." At this moment, a voice rang out from within the Heaven Vault. Qin Yuanfeng appeared, he stared at Che Hou, "You are something that's transformed from a divine weapon. The Che Clan is the number one artificer clan in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. You used the entire Che Clan to create this divine weapon, sacrificing everyone including yourself. All of your daos are contained within this divine weapon."

The eyes of the experts from the divine sect gleamed with sharpness. No wonder they felt like Che Hou was like a human-form divine weapon. So it turned out that he was already a divine weapon at his core.

Che Hou stared at Qin Yuanfeng, a cold smile appeared on his face. One couldn't help but say that Qin Yuanfeng's guess was extremely near the truth.

"I'm indeed a being transformed from a divine weapon. But I'm still Che Hou. Not only that, the vengeance and obsession of the entire Che Clan are in my heart. My Che Clan managed to create the ultimate divine weapon in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. This divine weapon is also me."

"Sacrificing your entire clan for the sake of a divine weapon. Was it worth it?" Qin Yuanfeng sighed. "A divine weapon is ultimately a divine weapon, humans are the controllers of all weapons. Yet your Che Clan ended up being controlled by a divine weapon. How sorrowful."

"Haha, sorrowful? The entirety of the strength and obsession of the Che Clan is now accumulated in my body alone. I shall become the strongest in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Why would the Che Clan be sorrowful? I have inherited their will, and I will reign supreme and unchallenged in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Your Heaven Vault shall be my witness." Che Hou laughed uproariously. As the sound of his voice faded, boundless divine light radiated from him. Each ray of light had the power of a divine weapon. The rays shot out in all directions, seeking to destroy the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

Qin Wentian's eyes glowed with a fearsome divine glow. At this instant, the surrounding space here was all covered by the glow from his eyes. Space and time twisted, revolving around. Che Hou frowned, in the next moment, he discovered that his surroundings have changed. He was no longer in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect but in a stretch of starry space instead.

Over here, other than him, only Qin Wentian was present. The rays of light he shot out didn't manage to kill anyone, they were absorbed into the void instead.

This was truly an extremely terrifying spacetime dao. With a single glance from Qin Wentian, space and time would change. After not meeting Qin Wentian for over ten years, Qin Wentian had become stronger once again like how he did in the past. His dao now was becoming more and more powerful, gradually closing in on reaching the ultimate pinnacle.

"Since you want to fight with me, I shall grant your wish." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. He had cultivated for thousands of years inside the Heaven Vault, and the amount of time he cultivated already far exceeded his age. How could his transformation not be great? Although it was already very difficult to advance even a single step forward given his current cultivation, he had still improved. If it was easy to grow stronger after the heavenly deity realm, the deities of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wouldn't be stuck despite the passage of countless years. After becoming a heavenly deity, one's comprehension of the dao was everything. If their comprehension abilities weren't enough, it was extremely difficult for them to advance any further.

Luckily the Heaven Vault provides a natural advantage. It could allow cultivators to go to the nine heavenly layers, aiding their comprehension of their daos by the close proximity to their respective constellations. It would naturally aid their comprehension abilities.

After so many years of cultivating in the Heaven Vault, Qin Wentian's strength could no longer be compared to the time he destroyed the Thunder Clan.

"Seems like I have to get more serious." Che Hou's voice turned colder. His body began to glow with divine light. In the starry space, numerous golden runes of the great dao manifested, spreading out like a huge web that covered the entire space.

The golden divine web seemed to contain a chaos divine formation within. After that, it began to manifest numerous divine weapons. This scene seemed to be the scene where the new Che Hou was born.

Qin Wentian glanced at the surroundings. The terrifying chaos divine formation enveloped everything, it was flaring with divine flames and mass-producing divine weapons, each of the weapons contained incredible might from the great dao. This entire space was locked down by the chaotic divine formation.

The divine flames surged out, gushing towards Qin Wentian. At this moment, Qin Wentian was in the center of the destructive flames. Other than the divine flames, the divine weapons shot out as well, their power transforming into an absolute killing force. They were so powerful that ordinary deities would perish just from coming in contact with them. Peak-level deities would also die if they were trapped within. This scene was just too terrifying, the flames brimmed with apocalyptic might.

"Even if you can open up separate dimensions, it's useless. This killing force can permeate everything in the spacetime of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Even if you hide in the void or in a dimension you opened up here, you would also die." Che Hou coldly spoke. A truly powerful killing move could ignore the evasion of spacetime dao. Qin Wentian won't be able to escape.

"You are right. But why must I evade?" Qin Wentian stared at Che Hou, when he glanced at the killing force in the area, his eyes were so calm that it was terrifying.

An invisible energy manifested in the heavens and earth. This was the energy from the dao. It developed this spacetime and seeped into the killing force gushing over.

"Spacetime reversal." Qin Wentian spoke. In the next instant, those attacks suddenly halted. After that, they didn't continue gushing towards Qin Wentian but flowed in reverse instead, blasting towards the chaos divine formation behind them. They gradually vanished, fading into oblivion just like that.

When Che Hou saw this, his expression grew extremely ugly. He roared in anger, "KILL!"

As the sound of his voice faded, more attacks were launched towards Qin Wentian. However, the dao of spacetime reversal could manipulate time and space here. Hence, a wondrous scene appeared in the air. The killing instants blasted out constantly but were forced to reverse their trajectories. This seemed to be a competition between the control of one's dao. It depended on whose insights into their daos were deeper.

"Although you were created from the energy of heaven and earth, you didn't intentionally try to comprehend any type of dao. After the fusion, you became able to control the killing intent of the divine weapon, capable of converting that into killing force but as long as I gain control your dao, how can you kill me?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. He inclined his head and stared towards the chaos divine formation in the air. His eyes grew terrifying to the extreme and a moment later, the spacetime in that area crack apart. The divine formation began to crumble bit by bit from the shocking power of Qin Wentian's dao.

No matter how strong the chaos divine formation was, it could only be as strong as the amount of energy in this spacetime. If Qin Wentian slashed apart this spacetime using his dao, the divine formation would naturally crumble.

In the air, as the chaos divine formation crumbled, the killing force gradually dissipated. That absolute killing might was actually neutralized by Qin Wentian's spacetime dao. Although he was already proficient in this dao before, the level of power he could exhibit now was remarkably different.

For any dao, as long as one cultivated that dao to the extreme endpoint, that dao would possess incredible might. Let alone the fact that the dao of spacetime contained a supreme logic of heaven and earth within and was already an extremely high-level dao by itself. This was precisely the dao the Godking of Time wanted to pursue in the past, he wanted to deepen his insights and reach the pinnacle of this dao before using this dao to transcend the spacetime of the Supreme Ancient Immortal realms!

Chapter 2007: Divine Eye

Che Hou inclined his head, when he saw the divine formation in the air being destroyed, his eyes became extremely cold.

"I didn't expect your understanding of your dao to reach such a realm. I was born from seizing good fortune from the heavens. To think that my attacks are actually neutralized so easily." Che Hou seemed to be muttering to himself. When his gaze turned to Qin Wentian again, the coldness within grew in intensity. It felt like that was a beam of killing light emitting from his eyes, wanting to pierce through Qin Wentian.

However, Qin Wentian's eyes were as terrifying as well. He glanced back, causing space and time to distort. How could he possibly be injured by the killing intent of divine weapons unleashed through a gaze alone?

"However I, who was born from seizing good fortune from the heavens, clearly possess the root of the Great Dao. Do you know what is the ultimate dao?" Che Hou stared at Qin Wentian, his voice filled with his killing intent. It was like their fight earlier was just an appetizer. He has yet to unleash his true strength.

"No matter what dao it is, it isn't qualified enough to make you so arrogant." Qin Wentian calmly replied.

Che Hou laughed, but his laughter sounded extremely frosty.

"Chaos was the beginning of everything, the progenitor of the myriad of daos. I seized good fortune from the heavens and just like what you said, indeed, it's true that I didn't comprehend any dao deeply. However, the dao I gained comprehension of is that of chaos. Chaos is the beginning of everything, the true root of all grand daos. When all the daos are in the presence of chaos, how can they unleash their might?" Che Hou coldly laughed at Qin Wentian. After that, a golden-colored aura exuding disgust radiated from his body. This aura gradually enveloped the surrounding space, causing everything here to fall into a chaotic state.

Che Hou opened his mouth and breathed out chaotic flames, wanting to burn through all living things, causing utter destruction. The cloudy golden mist that was the chaotic aura caused more divine weapons to manifest as they shot towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian suddenly felt the airflow in his surroundings was out of his control. Under the chaotic flames, cracking sounds could be heard as everything in his surroundings was incinerated. After that, that chaotic aura enveloped him, wanting to destroy him along with his dao as well.

"Reverse." Qin Wentian activated his spacetime dao art. However, within this stretch of chaos, the space and time here were no longer under his control. Chaos was the progenitor of all daos. The dao of spacetime had no way to reverse the dao of chaos. Qin Wentian narrowed his eyes, feeling somewhat bewildered. He didn't expect Che Hou to be skilled in the dao of chaos.

“This isn’t the true grand dao of chaos.” Qin Wentian mused silently. Chaos was the beginning of everything. If this truly was the grand dao of chaos, it would easily be able to disintegrate him. If that was the case, Che Hou wouldn’t be an existence with the power of an ordinary godking. If he possessed the true grand dao of chaos, he would be at the pinnacle among godkings or even surpass them. The grand dao of chaos was a true ultimate dao.

But even though that was not the true chaos dao, when the new Che Hou was born from seizing fortune from the heavens, what he gained control over could be named as a false chaos dao that contained a hint of power from the true grand dao of chaos. It was extremely tyrannical and had the might to destroy daos as well.

Qin Wentian brandished his sword. His sword qi surged into the chaotic aura, wanting to exterminate the divine flames. At this instant, millions of sword qi strands manifested around him, permeating the area with his sword qi. Such an amount of sword qi could tear the sky apart, yet it actually had no way to do anything to the chaos energy here. In addition, the divine weapons manifested by Che Hou continued shooting out, with a different dao imbued in each of the weapons. It felt like an attack that contained a multitude of daos that were unleashed together. Che Hou’s attacks formed a chaos vortex that could devour all energy and was unblockable.

A pair of terrifying eyes suddenly appeared behind Qin Wentian. His eyes gleamed with a divine glow that could pierce through everything. In the sky, among the nine heavenly layers, a pair of heavenly divine eyes descended.

“Halt.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. The divine eyes descending from the sky and the pair of eyes behind him simultaneously cast their gazes on the divine weapons in the chaos vortex. In the next instant, the chaos vortex actually stopped spinning. This power was already not solely from his mastery of spacetime dao.

Che Hou inclined head and looked up at the sky. He furrowed his brows. Qin Wentian actually caused a pair of divine eyes to descend from the nine heavenly layers. The pressure from the divine eyes bore down on his false chaos dao. It felt immensely powerful. At this moment, it was like Qin Wentian was one with the heavens. That constellation that birthed the divine eyes merged together completely with him, becoming a part of Qin Wentian’s strength.

When the light from the divine eyes landed on Che Hou, Qin Wentian’s eyes also stared at Che Hou. In this instant, Che Hou’s body seemed to freeze. He felt an extremely powerful sealing energy that wanted to seal this space and time, as well as his life.

However, Che Hou could still move his hand. He pointed at Qin Wentian, the look in his eyes was cold to the extreme as he spoke, “Your dao is unable to seal me.”

“Is that so?” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. The light radiating from the divine eyes grew even more resplendent, casting their gaze onto Che Hou. In that instant, Che Hou felt his soul being immobilized, sealed within the gaze. He was no longer able to move.

“I’m something that a divine weapon transformed into. How would I have a soul?” Che Hou coldly spoke, like he was mumbling to himself.

“Since you took on human form, you became fully sentient and are a living thing. All living things would naturally have a soul, you are no exception. If not, you would be nothing more than a zombie, and wouldn’t be capable of thought.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. His words shook Che Hou. Che Hou’s body trembled violently as he tried to break free but no matter how much he struggled, he could still feel the pressure immobilizing him.

“I am a divine weapon, where did my soul come from?” Che Hou roared coldly, desiring to break free from the great dao and leave the domain of the divine eyes.

“Even divine weapons have their weapon souls. Divine weapons would be immobilized as well.” Qin Wentian replied in a glacial tone. The heavenly divine eyes was another superstrong dao Qin Wentian cultivated. It was an evolution of his sealing dao including his insights into the other daos and when it’s cultivated to the peak, it could seal all manifestations of the grand daos. This dao generated incredible divine might and could be said to be heaven-defying, containing boundless power.

And this was precisely the case. The heavenly divine eyes sought to seal Che Hou’s soul. If a divine weapon has no soul, it would just be an ownerless object, easily manipulated and controlled by others. Whoever grabbed it would be its owner.

“Seems like I still have underestimated you.” Che Hou coldly spoke. He didn’t expect that after over ten years, Qin Wentian’s dao was already so strong to this extent, capable of contending against his false chaos dao and he himself who was born by seizing good fortune from the heavens.

Qin Wentian with a body of flesh and blood was fighting against him who had fused with the ultimate divine weapon. This so-called number one genius of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms truly lived up to his reputation.

“I didn’t expect that I wouldn’t be able to kill you even when we fought today.” Che Hou’s body suddenly began to emit an immense amount of sharpness. His entire body became a divine weapon and hummed loudly. The power of the myriad of daos erupted from this human-form divine weapon, causing the sealing energy binding him to suffer cracks. After that, the light from the heavenly divine eyes grew weaker by a little as a lightning bolt broke the sealing effect. Che Hou then shot out from the domain like a shooting star, like he was never within the domain before.

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at that vanishing beam of light that Che Hou transformed into. He furrowed his brows, he actually had no way to stop Che Hou from fleeing. Despite his current cultivation, he still couldn’t stop Che Hou. The debt of revenge he had to claim for the members of his Qin Heavenly Divine Sect had to be postponed for now. Che Hou would surely be a source of great trouble in the future. Che Hou was simply too powerful, a truly terrifying character.

Spacetime twisted, Qin Wentian vanished from this area. In the next instant, he returned to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect and everyone saw his safe return, they all revealed a relaxed expression, the worry in their hearts also faded away. All of them saw clearly how powerful Che Hou was. If something happened to Qin Wentian, the consequences would be unimaginable.

“Senior brother.” Jun Mengchen stepped out and looked at Qin Wentian.

“This Che Hou was created by seizing good fortune from the heavens, he has control over a shadow of the grand dao of true chaos. I have no way to stop him from fleeing.” Qin Wentian spoke softly.

“I didn’t expect your divine eyes to actually fail in making him stay. Seems like in the near future, chaos would reign once more in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.” Qin Yuanfeng sighed. During these years, he would often discuss the dao with Qin Wentian. He naturally knew how strong his son currently was. The divine eyes would summon the constellation to appear, and the power of the constellation would merge together with the user, employing heavenly might to immobilize a target. The target would feel his soul being sealed and wouldn’t be able to extricate himself.

This was a way to apply his insights into the fusion of the dao of sealing and the dao of spacetime while borrowing the boundless might from the required constellation.

“Now that he has left, he is sure to be a source of future trouble. Like Yue Changkong, our Heaven Vault has gained another powerful enemy.” Qin Wentian sighed again. He really didn’t expect a new version of Che Hou would emerge all of a sudden and transformed into an existence that was so powerful to the extent where he could even threaten the Heaven Vault.

“We will deal with whatever comes our way. You should still focus on your cultivation and breakthrough your current limits. If you can reach that final step, even if the eight ancient godkings return, what can they do?” Qin Yuanfeng exuded a heroic air. Qin Wentian’s eyes gleamed with sharpness. His father was right. All cultivators in the world were in pursuit of transcendence. If he truly could transcend the nine heavens, even if it was that godking in the western paradise or Godking Gu and Moon God joining forces to attack him, what could they do against him?

Naturally, if the other parties transcended first. Things were the same, he wouldn’t be able to do anything against them. That day would be the day of apocalypse for the Heaven Vault!

Chapter 2008: Return

Che Hou’s return caused everyone in the Heaven Vault to feel a sense of crisis. Jun Mengchen seemed to have suffered a setback and immediately went into closed-door seclusion after his fight with Che Hou.

The external world was shaken by the commotion as well. They were shocked by Che Hou’s strength and also because of Qin Wentian’s power. It was rumored that when Che Hou and Qin Wentian fought, Che Hou unleashed the grand dao of chaos, the progenitor of all daos, capable of destroying everything. However, Qin Wentian actually managed to merge with a constellation from the nine heavenly layers and summoned a pair of heavenly divine eyes from the sky, fusing his dao of sealing and dao of spacetime together, using the constellation to unleash a terrifying art that forced Che Hou to retreat.

Other than this, Qin Wentian’s usage and control of the spacetime dao has already reached an extremely high level. He was able to distort time and space with a single glance and cross immense distances. With a single thought, he could connect to constellations in the skies. Right now, even without needing the assistance of the Heaven Vault, given Qin Wentian’s powerful cultivation base, he could easily fly up to the nine heavenly layers by himself.

The Heaven Vault was something left behind by Godking Xi. Godking Xi was an ancient godking. And now, Qin Wentian, Che Hou and the others have gradually begun to approach this level of power. Their actual strength undoubtedly wouldn’t differ too much from the ancient godkings. In the past in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there never has been so many terrifying characters appearing together at once. The era has changed, although there were many deities who died, the people of the world still felt that this era would surely be much more glorious compared to the past eras.

According to rumors, just the number of deities being born in the Heaven Vault alone could already be comparable to the sum of all the deities from the other hegemonic powers. Although many people felt that this was hard to believe, they had to acknowledge the possibility of this being the truth. In the past, there was once a hegemonic power that had over ten heavenly deities, that hegemonic power was considered one of the peak-level ones. Usually, in any of the great eight regions, there would at most be tens of deities.

But right now, just by displaying the tip of the iceberg, the Heaven Vault actually had more deities compared to the sum of other deities from the various hegemonic powers. Also, this hasn’t included peak characters like Qin Wentian and Qin Yuanfeng. Just these two alone could win against all the deities in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms other than the western world. Other than the two of them, Qin Wentian’s junior brother Jun Mengchen, his demonic beast companion Little Rascal, both had already shown enough strength to challenge a hegemonic power single-handedly in the past. How strong were they now exactly?

No matter from which angle, the current Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were stronger compared to the past. In fact, it was much stronger than before.

This was a cruel era, experts would fall anytime. Even for deity-ranked hegemonic powers, no heavenly deities were safe. Weaker ones would fall and become insignificant specks of dust in the long river of history. Only those true peak characters could continue existing. Also, the peak characters would continue to contend against each other until an eventual king was crowned.

—–

The western paradise was still as incomparably holy as ever. During these days, the western world was extremely peaceful. A harmonious air permeated the entire region. Golden light illuminated the sky, painting a magnificent sight.

In this golden world. Many people gathered either at their homes or at temples, chanting buddhic verses. Buddhic light radiated from their bodies, permeating the entire space, which transformed into auspicious qi that spread through the western world. This caused some experts who came from the other regions to feel shocked in their hearts. The western world seemed to be changing. They glanced over and could see everyone here seemed to be doing so due to some mysterious energy acting upon them.

This scene was just too terrifying. Although they felt that something was wrong, no one could stop it. They knew that the source of all of this was the western paradise, the holy ground of the Buddhist Sect.

Everyone in the western world were buddhist cultivators. The auspicious golden light spread out through the entire world, forcing evil back. Numerous illusionary buddha shadows could actually be seen in the sky. These buddhas shone with golden light and seemed incomparably pure and holy. It caused many of the buddhist cultivators to prostrate themselves in worship as their hearts grew even more devout.

And in the western paradise, the illusory shadow of an ancient buddha appeared. He was like the supreme buddha lord of the western paradise and has the golden buddhic light in the western world gathered, the shadow grew increasingly clearer and became larger and larger, becoming the largest buddha in the world. Even for people who were extremely far away, they could either see or sense the existence of this terrifying being.

Behind the ancient buddha, great solar light flared, as though this buddha was Vairocana, the Buddha of supreme enlightenment. A total of eighty-one halos surrounded him. The halos seemed to contain the faces and the will of the multitude of living things in the western world, including all the scenes, were cast onto it. It was simply incredible.

Inside western paradise, many buddhist cultivators sat on praying mats. They had their eyes closed and were linked by their buddhic senses. Even for buddha lords and sacred buddhas, all of them were extremely pious at this moment. They knew that the Buddha Sovereign was about to return.

Once he is back, the buddha dao would become even more prosperous. Everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would convert to Buddhism.

Far away, in the Heaven Vault located in the Heaven Region, Qin Wentian and Qin Yuanfeng seemed to have sensed something. They who were cultivating inclined their heads and stared at the sky. The constellations sparkled, radiating their boundless light, cascading towards the west. In the starry sky, the faint shadow of an ancient buddha appeared. This scene seemed unbelievable.

“Seems like the lord of the west has returned.” Qin Yuanfeng saw this scene and quietly mumbled. After that, he contacted Qin Wentian with his divine sense, “Wentian, don’t allow your heart to waver. Concentrate on your cultivation.”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded.

“Buddha cultivators experience a cycle of samsara every time they cultivate. For every bout of cultivation, it can be considered a whole reincarnation cycle. Although he is confirmed to return, the amount of time needed might still be quite long.” Qin Yuanfeng spoke. Buddha arts are extremely unique, each session of meditation and cultivation might be an entire lifetime spent in the cycle of samsara. It may last a hundred years or a thousand years. And as for the godking of the buddha dao, the Buddha Sovereign, each session of his cultivation would naturally last extremely long. No one knew when he would truly return. Hence, Qin Yuanfeng reminded Qin Wentian not to be flustered.

Qin Wentian also understood this. Although the western world was extremely domineering in the past, but in truth, the Buddha Sovereign has yet to truly return. If he had done so, many things wouldn’t have been as simple. Back then, Qin Wentian would never have been able to escape the western world.

All the powerful experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could sense the phenomenon in the sky. After that, they all gradually learned of what happened in the western world as their hearts pounded violently.

The godking of the Universe Region has returned. Would the time where the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm were soon united about to come?

In a certain place in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, inside a majestic palace of darkness on a mountain peak. There were countless experts within. This place was none other than the place Yue Changkong was cultivating in.

At this moment, inside the palace of darkness, a figure walked over. This figure was Yue Changkong, but he also wasn’t Yue Changkong.

Because his current aura was just too terrifying, a far cry away from the Yue Changkong of the past. He was the same as Che Hou and has undergone a transformation. In fact, his transformation was even more complete compared to Che Hou.

Yue Changkong turned his gaze towards the west as an evil smile appeared on his face. Did the Buddha Sovereign finally return? Only then would things be interesting. If not, his current life would truly be too lonely and boring.

An incomparably resplendent light descended from the sky and landed beside Yue Changkong. Yue Changkong didn't turn his head and merely asked calmly, “Have you considered it clearly?”

“I promise you to exterminate the Heaven Vault first.” That figure coldly spoke. So it turned out that this figure was none other than Che Hou. After he left the Heaven Vault that day, he came here to find Yue Changkong.

“That's good then. I will head to the western world to convince them to seize the Heaven Vault first. After that, you and I shall join forces to destroy the western paradise.” Yue Changkong calmly spoke.

“And after destroying the western paradise, you will destroy me to conquer the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms completely, right?” Che Hou spoke. Although he was a divine weapon, he had the souls of an entire clan within him. His intelligence was no different from humans.

“If you can kill me, you would similarly also be the one that unifies and conquers the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.” Yue Changkong calmly replied. Their words to each other were extremely blunt, there was no need to mask their intentions. At their current levels, there was no longer a need to mask anything. They could tell what each other was thinking easily.

“I will wait for your news.” Che Hou's figure flashed, disappearing instantly.

Yue Changkong still stood there calmly. After that, he spoke, “Men.”

As the sound of his voice rang out, numerous experts came by. These experts were all powerful characters from the hegemonic powers that have submitted to him. The person in the lead was the Prison God Clan Leader, he bowed as he stood behind Yue Changkong.

“Release the news saying that one of the ancient godkings of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Godking Desolate, his true form was a heavenly devouring beast. He can devour the constellations in the nine heavenly layers but because he suffered a backlash, the godking of the Universe Region took the chance to sneak attack him and imprisoned him inside western paradise. Through the passage of countless years, the Buddha Sovereign has been slowly assimilating the strength of Godking Desolate.” Yue Changkong calmly spoke. The heart of the Prison God Clan Leader standing behind pounded rapidly as huge waves rose in his heart. This was truly an ancient secret.

What was Yue Changkong's purpose in releasing this news? Was he planning to destroy the image of the godking from the Universe Region?

“God, buddha, demon, devil?” Yue Changkong coldly laughed. In this era, only supreme experts at the peak could set the rules, this included the rules of kindness and evil.

His figure flashed and disappeared from his original location. He was heading towards the western world and was preparing to meet the recently returned Buddha Sovereign!

Chapter 2009: Before the Storm

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the return of the godking from the Universe Region shook the entire world.

After that, news got circulated out. One of the eight ancient godkings, Godking Desolate, he was actually a royal-blooded heaven devouring beast. He suffered a backlash and got heavily injured during cultivation and soon after that, the Godking from the Universe Region sneak attacked him and imprisoned him in the western paradise, absorbing all his power away.

This news caused the views of many people towards the buddhist path to turn topsy-turvy. For some of the powerful cultivators, they were shocked but didn’t feel that this was unbelievable. After all, a battle at that level would surely be extremely ferocious. They understood that regardless of deities or Buddhas, everyone was still human. Humans weren’t sages. In order to ascend to the peak of the world, one naturally had to step on the bones of many others.

For example in this era, the western world, the Heaven Vault, Yue Changkong and Che Hou. They were the representatives of the current pinnacle in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. A war would surely happen between these four grand factions. At that time, it was unknown how many people would die.

Everyone could faintly sense that that day was soon approaching.

Now, it was the calm before the storm. This upcoming storm would surely engulf the entire world.

This news was naturally circulated to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect as well. After Qin Wentian learned of it, he felt a chill in his heart. Seems like his conjectures were correct. Little Rascal’s origin was actually so powerful. Also, that Buddha Sovereign who was the godking of the Universe Region was actually such a despicable person. Naturally, Qin Wentian had already experienced the methods of the western paradise before. Regardless of the Karma Buddha or Reincarnation Buddha, their methods were truly filthy to the extreme. Hence, he wasn’t too surprised by this news.

He was thinking that if these buddhist cultivators were like the Bodhi Abbot who was fully devoted to Buddhism and had sacrificed himself back then, the western paradise wouldn’t have become such a place.

True buddhas weren’t in the western paradise. The buddhas in the western paradise were buddhas who were enamored with strength and power. What they cultivated wasn’t virtue and kindness, they cultivated strength.

Qin Wentian initially wanted to hide this from Little Rascal but Little Rascal eventually learned about it. Back then, he saw the scenes of his parents in that dream-like state. From then on, Little Rascal was often distracted and unable to focus. Now that he learned of this news, his roars of anger shook the Heaven Vault as a baleful aura permeated the air. He wanted nothing more than to kill his way into the western world and destroy the western paradise.

His gigantic form soared through the air, flying towards the Heaven Vault's exit. Qin Wentian's figure appeared, blocking him. "Little Rascal, right now, a huge change has occurred in the western world. The godking of the Universe Region has returned. He is sure to be exceedingly powerful. It's highly probable that we would be unable to kill him now."

That was a true godking, someone alive from the ancient era until now. Now, his return actually caused such a huge commotion. Also, it was a given that he possesses godking techniques from ancient times. Even though Qin Wentian was very confident in his own strength, he didn't dare to say that he would be able to deal with the godking from the Universe Region. The Buddha Sovereign is a true godking existence.

It was naturally more impossible for Little Rascal to be a match for the Buddha Sovereign. Compared to the western world, Qin Wentian and the experts of the Heaven Vault still needed more time.

"I'm going to devour that bald donkey." Little Rascal coldly spoke. The baleful qi transformed into terrifying clouds of demonic qi. It was one thing if he doesn't know about his origins. But now, after learning that he is a descendant of Godking Desolate and his parents were killed by the bald donkey of the western paradise, one could very well imagine the killing intent in his heart.

"I'll take revenge for you. Not only for you, the debt of Little Ye's revenge as well. But the time is not now. Our enemy isn't solely the western world, there's still Yue Changkong in the dark and Che Hou's hostility. No one knows when they will attack the Heaven Vault. We have to grow stronger and become much stronger than before." Qin Wentian spoke. It wasn't that he didn't wish to kill their enemies. In truth, although he killed the Karma Buddha, was he the only one responsible for Little Ye's death?

The western world has always coveted the Heaven Vault. They once urged the hegemonic powers to gather and attack together. Qin Wentian had long felt hatred for them in his heart. He was the same as a little Rascal and wanted nothing more than to raze the holy ground of the Buddhist Sect to flat ground.

Little Rascal turned over and stared at Qin Wentian. His large saucer-like eyes were blood-red. When Qin Wentian saw his eyes, his heart involuntarily trembled. He felt somewhat unbearable. He then spoke, "But if you insist on going to the western paradise now, I'll accompany you."

"ROAR!" A low-sounding roar echoed from Little Rascal's throat, it sounded hoarse, like he was trying to suppress his anger. He looked into Qin Wentian's eyes. The two of them had became connected telepathically since a long time ago, he knew what Qin Wentian said was the truth, Qin Wentian was willing to accompany him. However, how could he harm Qin Wentian and toss away his rationale for the sake of his revenge?

Little Rascal turned his head away and glanced at the Heaven Vault. Behind him, many familiar faces appeared. These people had accompanied them in the Heaven Vault for many years and could be considered kin to him. They were also kin to Qin Wentian and many of them needed Qin Wentian to protect them.

"HOWL!" A howl of violence echoed out. Little Rascal's gigantic body turned as he flew into the sky, into the nine heavenly layers as he began to devour the astral light from the constellations.

Qin Wentian could imagine how much pain and hatred there was now in Little Rascal's heart. He had felt the same way when he learned of what the Qin Clan did to his father back then. The anger he felt was like it could burn through everything. At that time, he wanted nothing more than to kill his way into the Qin Clan and obtain revenge for his father.

But even so, Little Rascal had chosen to endure for his sake and for the Heaven Vault.

Right now, the situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wasn't calm at all. It was already exceedingly difficult to deal with the western paradise and Yue Changkong. And now, another Che Hou has appeared. The pressure boring down on the Heaven Vault was far greater than before.

Qin Wentian sent people to monitor the situation in multiple locations. The people of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect also made preparations, they could easily retreat into the Heaven Vault any time in the event of enemy attacks. Qin Wentian knew that once the situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms changed, that change would be an earth-shattering one for sure.

As for himself, he allowed everyone in the divine sect to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation. Even the experts from the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace were permitted to enter. Right now, the Heaven Vault needed to increase their strength to better deal with any upcoming changes.

After several days, a person arrived at the Heaven Vault. The people of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect didn't obstruct him because the person who came was none other than that expert who went to threaten the western world, causing darkness to descend there – the Grim Reaper.

It was also rumoured that the Heaven Vault Controller, Qin Wentian, has received his inheritance. Naturally, no one in the divine sect would obstruct him.

Qin Wentian soon received news of the Grim Reaper's arrival. After that, he swiftly ended his cultivation and rushed out to meet the crazy old freak. The appearance of the old freak now had extraordinary meaning to him. Currently, the Heaven Vault was severely lacking in peak-level combatants.

"Old fellow, you are finally willing to appear." Qin Wentian spoke as the old freak walked closer. This old man's movements had always been so mysterious. It was tough even if he wanted to meet with him.

"Why? Are you feeling the pressure?" The old freak glanced at Qin Wentian. "Are you not already very powerful now?"

“I’ve never truly fought against an ancient godking before. But from what I saw of the methods of Godking Xi, I truly have no idea if I can fight against a godking or not.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“You can be considered to know your own limits. This time, the bald donkey would be stronger than ever after his return. You should be prepared. The bald donkey is in control of a great dao that might spark a grand war which engulfs the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Things would be the same as the world-ending battle from back then.” The eyes of the crazy old freak were extremely cold. Back then, that world-leading battle destroyed the entire Azure Mystic. He had never forgotten that at all.

And now, that scene from back then might repeat itself but this time, the target of the war was the Heaven Vault.

“I won’t let what happened to Ancient Azure Mystic happen to the Heaven Vault. Old fellow, stay behind and help me. We will defeat the western world and obtain revenge for Azure Mystic.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Back then when you discovered the ancient battlefield, everyone had hope. They hoped that there would come a day where you lead an army of deities to conquer all thirty-three immortal realms, unifying the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and seek justice for what happened in the past. Only then would a new world order be found, the glory of Ancient Azure Mystic would be recovered too. I naturally won’t sit back and do nothing. Where is Beiming Youhuang? Her current cultivation base should be pretty high as well, right?”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. “Youhuang is very powerful in terms of her attainments in the soul. She has that treasure of the Imperishable Heaven Lord. Now, she wouldn’t be afraid even if a group of deities ganged up on her. She can hold a region by herself independently.”

“Good. Tell her to come over, I’m going to bring her to a place.” The crazy old freak spoke. Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed before he nodded. He didn’t inquire too much. This crazy old freak spent so much effort to nurture him and Beiming Youhuang, he would naturally not harm them. There is bound to be something advantageous for Youhuang. He then took out his messaging crystal and contacted her. Not long after, Beiming Youhuang arrived here. She inclined her head and greeted the old freak, “Senior.”

“Mhm, Youhuang. Leave with me.” The crazy old freak spoke. Beiming Youhuang’s gaze turned to Qin Wentian. When he saw this scene, the lips of the crazy old freak twitched as he sighed, “Ai…your heart already belongs to someone. I can be considered your half-master but it seems that my words are completely useless.”

Beiming Youhuang flushed after she heard this. She shivered a little and glanced at Qin Wentian.

“Youhuang, you should go with the old fellow.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“This brat simply has too many women.” The old freak sighed and brought Beiming Youhuang away. Qin Wentian’s face was filled with black lines. He stared at Beiming Youhuang’s back while silently musing. When he meets her again in the future, she should definitely be even stronger, right? Since the old freak wanted to bring her away, it’s clear that he wouldn’t bring her away to do useless things.

It’s just that he had no idea when she would return.

Qin Wentian had a premonition that when Youhuang returns, it might very well be in the midst of the grand war between the four grand factions. At that time, what a scene would that be? How many people around him would die?

When he thought of this, an extremely powerful obsession manifested in his heart. He had to grow stronger, much stronger than he is now. Only by doing so would he be able to protect the people around him when the grand war of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms erupts!

Chapter 2010: The Buddhist Sect Travels East

In the Heaven Vault, up in the nine heavenly layers, there was a constellation that was shaped like a giant buddha. At this moment, a figure was sitting cross-legged on it.

Although this figure was tiny, a gigantic image of an ancient buddha actually appeared behind him, wanting to merge as one with this constellation. Buddhic light flared as buddhist chants filled the air. This constellation contained an immense amount of buddha-path energy, it felt holy and sacred.

The figure on the constellation was none other than Qin Wentian. He was trying to gain insights into the dao of the buddha. In addition, every time he visits a constellation, he would construct a minor world where the flow of time was different. This would give him more time to cultivate.

If a day passed by in the outside world, he could cultivate for several years.

If a month has passed in the outside world, he could cultivate for hundreds of years.

And after several months, he appeared again on another constellation. This constellation radiated heavenly devil energy, filled with the intent to control all lives and was extremely tyrannical. The controller of such a dao would rule everything with might, everyone in the world had to submit to him.

At this moment, Qin Wentian has already cultivated for several hundred years on different constellations while only a few months have passed in the outside world. And after this, he would continue heading to different constellations. For example, constellations of sealing, of time and of space.

Many minor worlds were constructed on the different constellations, they were marked with his shadow, proving that he cultivated on them before. He was able to draw on energy from all the constellations and form a connection and manifest any astral souls he wanted. Hence, he attempted to comprehend different daos, fusing them in experiments in a bid to grow stronger. If not, when the grand war of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms arrived, his enemies would be a returned godking, Yue Changkong and Che Hou who has control over a false dao of chaos. He wouldn’t possess any advantage with his current strength at all.

Not only was Qin Wentian working hard, everyone in the Heaven Vault was frenziedly cultivating, their strengths were also gradually transforming. Everyone could feel immense pressure, they had to grow stronger before they could deal with the changes to the situation. If not, all the pressure would bore down on Qin Wentian alone when the time comes.

Time slowly flowed by, three years of time passed in the outside world. Three years was truly too short in the perspective of the external world, it was a period of time that passed by in the blink of an eye. The strange phenomenon in the western world still persisted, everyone in the Universe Region cultivated the buddha dao. The airspace of the holy ground of Buddhism still had incarnations of ancient buddhas which grew increasingly corporeal. The people there all felt devotion in their hearts as they focused fully on their buddhism path to seek the dao.

What’s even stranger was that there seemed to be buddhic chants permeating the entire area. The source of this was actually from the direction of the western paradise.

Another strange scene appeared in the western world, all the buddha cultivators were heading towards the Buddhist Sect.

The western paradise became even more magnificent than before. A high-up and incomparably supreme buddha incarnation appeared in the air. This was the body of the Buddha Sovereign. He soared into the air, flying higher and higher like he wanted to reach the nine heavenly layers. Everyone in the world claimed that he was trying to compete with the heavens, seeing who was taller. He desired to ride over the heavens and wanted to surpass the nine heavenly layers.

Today, this buddha incarnation body began to glow with golden light, illuminating all parts of the western world. His fingers wriggled, after that, a rumbling sound rang out as countless people in the boundlessly vast western world glanced up at it. The incarnation body seemed to be alive. It was seated on a golden lotus throne and it revealed a smile that was gentle and filled with kindness.

The lotus throne drifted forward. The ancient buddha on it floated forth as well. The buddha lords, sacred buddhas and countless buddhist cultivators followed after the throne while chanting buddhic verses. A brahmic melody reverberated through the sky, enveloping the western world. The hearts of everyone trembled. Their hearts were linked by Buddhism as they all followed after the gigantic ancient buddha as it headed towards the east.

His speed wasn’t fast, he was leading the Buddhist cultivators of the western world over, it was impossible even if he wanted to be fast. However, it wasn’t slow either. He only appeared slow because of his size. He was so large that this heaven and earth didn’t seem to have a way to restrict him. Hence, for every shift of his motion, ordinary-sized people needed to move an immense distance to keep up with him.

The Buddha Sovereign was heading to the east, wanting to deliver the multitude of lives from their suffering.

This news instantly created a huge commotion that engulfed the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

The changes in the western world were long known by the people of the world. The devotion towards the buddhist path in the hearts of these people caused many to feel fear. This didn’t seem like faith, they seemed more like fanatics. All other emotions saved for their devotion towards buddha were discarded. As long as their faith existed, buddha would always exist. This was why the phenomenon of countless ancient buddhas would manifest in the sky of the western world.

So how could the news of the buddhist cultivators heading east not cause a commotion?

Yue Changkong was in his darkness palace. He flew into the sky and stared at the west as a smile appeared on his face. Was that bald donkey finally going to act? This time around, the bald donkey would no longer hide in the darkness like he did in the past. The bald donkey was personally acting. Because, everyone knew that the opponents he had to face might be even stronger compared to the experts in Ancient Azure Mystic back then.

Naturally, the ambitions of the Buddha Sovereign this time was greater than before. He wanted to convert all lives, unifying the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms under the banner of Buddhism.

In the lower world, in Ancient Azure Mystic, the crazy old freak stood in the air and stared in the direction of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. What should have returned has finally returned. And this time around, the Buddha Sovereign was even stronger and more dangerous than before.

Turning his head back, he glanced in the direction of Ancient Azure Mystic. The ancient world-leading battlefield was trembling. An incomparably magnificent faint shadow appeared in the sky. If Qin Wentian was present, he would surely be able to recognize this silhouette. Once, when they first came to the ancient battlefield, they once saw a magnificent statue. This silhouette that appeared now was none other someone with the appearance of that statue. It was a remnant of energy left behind by the Imperishable Heaven Lord.

Undying Scripture, it was for the cultivator to become undying. Death Scripture was to allow the dead to return.

Everything that was sealed in this ancient battlefield could allow the Death Scripture to erupt forth with the greatest effect.

“Time grows short. I hope you can unravel the seals from her energy remnant.” The crazy old freak turned his gaze into a direction, piercing through the void and landing on a beautiful figure. His gaze was cloudy but it was much sharper compared to any time before. At the same time, it was filled with tenderness. His hope was on the shoulders of that beautiful figure.

The Heaven Vault naturally also learned of the commotion in the western world. After Qin Wentian learned of this, he had no distractions in his heart. He entered seclusion again and ignored external matters. He would only leave his seclusion if the western world arrived at the Boundless Sea Region. Qin Wentian’s attitude also encouraged the others in the Heaven Vault. They no longer panicked and calmed down to cultivate instead. All of them wanted to grow stronger before the western world arrived.

They understood that the purpose for the cultivators of the western world to head east, was probably for the Heaven Vault.

In truth, they only guessed half the story. The Buddha Sovereign did indeed chose to head east for the Heaven Vault but that was not the only reason.

One day, when that supreme ancient buddha stepped out of the western region and came to the other regions, countless people in the other regions stared at this magnificent scene as their heart trembled. They could see an unending mass of buddhist cultivators from the western worlds following after the supreme ancient buddha. Who in the world would be able to obstruct them?

In reality, it was completely impossible to obstruct them. The sounds of buddhic chants filled the air, enveloping a boundlessly vast area. Many people felt their souls trembling. But in that instant, all distractions in their hearts were smoothed over, all of them felt like their cultivation in the past were all for nothing.

Those who lusted after beauties, now felt that beautiful women were nothing but skeletons in rouge. What's the meaning of chasing after them?

Those who coveted authority and power discovered that having power merely grants you a period of satisfaction. Your subordinates would be respectful towards you on the surface but they wanted nothing more than to replace you secretly. What's the meaning in having such authority? For those chasing after power and authority, do they have to kill everyone above them before they could be happy? What's the point in chasing after all of these?

Those who felt a strong attachment to their homes now discovered that their past efforts were all futile. Their wives and children wouldn't be grateful to them. Their wives would always complain, their sons and daughters weren't filial and were rebellious. All their hard work amounted to nothing. What was the meaning of life?

There were also people with virtuous wives and filial kids feeling that they had spent their entire life living for others, they had never truly lived for themselves before. In the end, they would be nothing but a tomb on a plot of earth.

This buddhic chants seemed to contain the true Great Dao, able to clear their confusion. Those who were affected all laid down everything and joined the masses, learning the chants. The more they chanted, the more at peace they felt, distractions no longer bothered them.

The western world was heading east not for war, but to deliver the multitude of lives. Ordinary people had no way to resist the buddhic chants at all. They were directly delivered and became part of the procession. If everyone in the world turned to Buddhism, how terrifying would this concept be? It was simply unimaginable.

Even for cultivators with high cultivations, they also began to doubt themselves. Many of them gradually slowly sank and became a part of the masses as well. There were also people feeling that something was wrong. They felt like the buddhic chants were making them lie to themselves. These people fled and closed off their six senses, not daring to listen anymore.

The western world, although they didn't fight, they could still make people submit to them. Everywhere they passed by, the people there would submit to Buddhism, no one resisted. And several years later, they finally entered the borders of the Heaven Region.

During these years, the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were turned topsy turvy. The remaining people of the world all wanted to flee from the buddha army. They all knew how terrifying this was. No one dared to stay behind.

Everywhere the western world passed by, resplendent golden light would flare as a holy aura permeated the atmosphere. However, other than themselves being at their location, not a single person of a different faith could be found. This strange situation continued on!

Chapter 2011: Gathered

The western world has arrived.

Feelings of fear and panic permeated the atmosphere in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. It was impossible to remain unbothered. During these years, everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was discussing about this army from the western world. Everywhere the western world army passed by, the people there would be ‘delivered’ and decided to join the buddhist path. No one could obstruct them. This army grew increasingly in size. No one expected that the western world would actually be able to do this. It was clear now that they truly wanted to unify the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and reign supreme under the nine heavens.

It was rumored that even cultivators weren’t able to resist the effect of the buddhist chants absolutely. Many cultivators decided to convert to Buddhism and grew as devout as the buddhist cultivators. What heaven-defying mighty force was this? This was simply incredible. Who could obstruct them?

And now, the direction the western world army was heading, was precisely for their Heaven Vault. Clearly, the Heaven Vault was the final destination of the western paradise. They wanted to obtain the control rights to the Heaven Vault and continued to make everyone in the world submit. From then on, there would only be one official power in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and that power would be the Buddhist Sect of the western paradise.

Every step that was taken by the western world army caused the hearts of people of the world to tremble. Everyone understood that their actions would concern the future situation of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

In the past, many people felt that the Heaven Vault had a high chance of winning and could become the future supreme leader of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. But after the godking of the western world returned and as he brought his army along as he headed east, the people of the world discovered that they were wrong. It has been countless years since a godking has appeared. Just his appearance alone, even before there were any fights, his methods have already caused the world to tremble.

The western world has already entered the Heaven Region and came to a place roughly ten thousand miles away from Boundless City. They were currently advancing towards Boundless City at a very fast pace.

After some time, the western world army arrived at the borders of Boundless City and began to move into the Boundless Sea Region.

Many pieces of news were circulated to the Heaven Vault. The members of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was extremely worried. Qin Wentian finally left his seclusion. Right now, everyone was gathered in the floating palace where he stayed in. All his friends and loved ones have arrived. The familiar faces looked at him staunchly. Clearly, everyone knew what they were going to face.

“Father, mother.” Qin Wentian called out to Qin Yuanfeng and Luoshen Qianxue. Qin Yuanfeng’s expression was calm. Luoshen Qianxue’s beautiful eyes flickered with a hint of worry. Qin Kexin stood behind them, but her gaze was resolute.

“Wentian, the western paradise is a huge threat. Yue Changkong and Che Hou might take this chance to attack us as well.” Luoshen Chuan spoke. The five demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain stood beside him. Currently, their auras were clearly more extraordinary than before. In fact, there weren’t merely five demon gods in the Demon God Mountain now. There were still several demon gods standing behind them. These were all the demon gods that rose up in the recent years.

“We shall fight them all then.” Jun Mengchen’s voice was cold, radiating a shocking battle intent. After he lost to Che Hou, he went into closed-door seclusion and he clearly had another transformation during these years, becoming much stronger than before.

“I’ll devour them all.” Little Rascal roared in a low voice. The reason why he was estranged from his parents was precisely all thanks to the godking of the western world, the Buddha Sovereign.

“Battle!” The battle intent from Qi Yu surged up into the skies. The members of the Battle Saint Tribe, who stood behind him, also began to radiate shocking battle intent. Many of them were already deities.

At the side, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Darknotth Immortal Emperor, Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Matriarch Ji, Bai Qing and the others and their subordinates were all present. The army of deities from the Heaven Vault have already made their preparations and were ready for a battle.

Qin Wentian glanced at the familiar faces. He had no way to anticipate what the ending of this battle would be. He could only do his best and protect their families should they fall.

“In this battle, there might be people who die.” Qin Wentian glanced at everyone, speaking with a heavy tone. It wasn’t that he wanted to bring down the morale. But, this was the truth.

The eyes of everyone twitched. Qi Yu laughed, “We have followed the Saint Lord for so many years, all the way from the immortal emperor realm to our current realm, allowing us to taste the glory of becoming a deity. Even if we have to die in this war of supremacy, it’s worth it. We have no regrets.”

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch smiled. She was also extremely magnificent and beautiful, her smile caused her beauty to intensify as she calmly spoke, “Wentian, there’s no need to say anything more about our relationship. Although the Southern Phoenix Clan belonged to me, it also belongs to you. If I was younger and was of the same generation as you, I will pursue you for sure. Once, you gave up so much for the Southern Phoenix Clan. In that case, let the Southern Phoenix Clan fight for the Heaven Vault as well as our future today.”

“Yaoyue, your beauty is exceptional. If you pursue me, I will definitely not be able to withstand your charm.” Qin Wentian laughed carefreely after he heard that. There was truly no need to say anything more given his relationship with the Southern Phoenix Clan.

“If I die in battle, Wentian, help me take good care of Youhuang.” The Darknorth Immortal Emperor spoke, glaring at Qin Wentian. Even up until today, Qin Wentian has yet to give Beiming Youhuang a status. Who in the Heaven Vault didn’t know of his daughter’s feelings towards Qin Wentian?

“Right.” Qin Wentian nodded heavily.

“Us old fellows from Azure Mystic actually have a chance to participate in the war for supremacy of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. It can already be considered an honor.” The Evergreen Immortal Emperor laughed.

“My Demon God Mountain shall gamble for our future. If we win, our Demon God Mountain shall become the royals of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms from now on. Wentian, even if us old fellows die in the war, I hope you can make our wish come true.” The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign laughed.

“Senior, please rest at ease. If I claim supremacy, I will definitely ensure that the Demon God Mountain will become one of the royal branches of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.” Qin Wentian nodded. The various demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain’s eyes flashed with sharpness. If they won, they would become kings of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. This would be completely different from the past where they were merely one of the hegemonic powers in the Desolate Region. For all generations from now on, the Demon God Mountain shall be one of the royal branches, part of the core of the Heaven Vault. They all had no doubts about Qin Wentian’s character.

“What a good bet. Wentian, our Qiankun Sect and Nine Mystical Heavenly Palace are willing to bet as well. Let all the unhappiness of the past be washed away in this battle.” The Qiankun Sect Leader spoke.

“No problem. If we win this battle, regardless of whether all of you survive or not. All the powers here, your families and clans shall become part of the new royalty of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms in the future. We shall rule the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms together.”

“I don’t care about ruling the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. I only want Wentian gege to be safe. If something happens to you, even if we win the war, many people wouldn’t want to live anymore.” Bai Qing’s beautiful eyes turned to Qin Wentian. She didn’t want glory, she only wanted him to be safe.

“Silly lass.” Qin Wentian gently stroked Bai Qing’s hair. In this life, he owed many things to many people. This little sister of his, Bai Qing, was undoubtedly one of those he owed the most things to.”

Qing`er, Qingcheng and Ye Qianyu all quietly stood beside Qin Wentian, they didn’t say anything. Qin Wentian didn’t want them to join the battle but how could they not participate? They had all already vowed to live or die together in this battle.

Purgatory and Jialan Qiuyue stood behind Qin Wentian, silently watching all of these.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze back. His foster father Qin Chuan, Ye Qianyun, his sisters Qin Yao, Luo Huan and many other loved ones were all present here. All these familiar faces were looking at him and there was a trace of nervousness in their eyes. Everyone knew what Qin Wentian had to face in the battle. Despite the fact that he was already very powerful, no one dared to say that the Heaven Vault would be the ultimate victor for sure. Their opponents were just too terrifying.

“In the past, how terrifying was that battle in Azure Mystic? However, Wentian could even survive then. And for this battle, given Wentian’s current strength, why is there a need to fear a fight?” At this moment, Bai Wuya spoke. He thought back to that miserable battle in the Evergreen Immortal Empire back then as he continued, “Back then in Azure Mystic, there were multiple wars but Wentian claimed supremacy in the end, and established the Heaven Empyrean Palace. People of the world would head there and pay their respects daily. Today, he shall lead us and claim supremacy for this battle in the Heaven Vault.”

“Senior brother Bai is right. This battle is for supremacy, let’s see who in the world can challenge us!”

The experts here all felt their blood surging.

“Move out.” Qin Wentian turned and headed towards the exit of the Heaven Vault. The experts all followed after him, their eyes were filled with determination.

Many people stared at the imposing back of Qin Wentian. They could tell that he was prepared to die out there, he had no regrets even if he couldn’t return.

The waves of the great river would all eventually flow into the ocean. There were so many legendary characters throughout time. Why was there a need to fear a battle? Why was there a need to fear death.

The people of Boundless City have long left. It was now an empty city. They gathered at the sea shore of the Boundless Seas, and hovered in its surroundings, waiting for the western world army to arrive. None of them had any thoughts of obstructing the western world army. All of them have heard stories of how people would instantly be converted upon hearing the buddhic chants.

Although they were pretty far away, the people around the Boundless Sea Region could already see that gigantic ancient buddha leading the way. It was too shocking. They couldn’t see the buddha’s head and could only see its body.

The sounds of buddhic chants began to drift over. Many experts sealed their six senses, not wanting to be influenced. But as for those weaker cultivators, they had long relocated far away. They didn’t dare to remain behind. In a battle of such great scale, the boundary of the aftershocks would definitely be extremely vast. If they stayed behind, they might die. It was just too dangerous.

Naturally, there were also some who were unwilling to leave. They wanted to bear witness to this historical battle that would rarely happen even through the different eras. In fact, there was never a battle of such scale in the history of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Maybe, the world-ending battle of Ancient Azure Mystic back then was comparable. And if this battle could decide the future ruler of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, its influence would then surpass the world-ending battle from the past.

Who wouldn’t want to witness such a historical battle?

Those experts who had some capabilities were all reluctant to leave. Although their lives might be in danger, they still wanted to watch this battle.

And at this moment, the sounds of the buddhic chants grew lower and lower, no longer resounding out. It seemed like the buddhist cultivators intentionally ceased to chant but the golden holy light didn’t fade in the slightest. It enveloped the sky and continued spreading forward.

Even Boundless City seemed extremely tiny in comparison. The golden buddhic light easily enveloped it.

Finally, the western world army occupied Boundless City. The buddhas from the western paradise who were in the lead also arrived at the shore area. They then halted and stared in the direction of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

That place was the purpose of their trip here. Just like what people of the world have guessed, the western world wanted to overtake the Heaven Vault first.

In another direction, Yue Changkong’s forces also arrived, he led many of the past hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, as well as the deities from there. Clearly, he was here to join forces with the western world. In Yue Changkong’s eyes, a cold smile could be seen. Today has finally arrived. He has waited for this day for a very long time.

In the sky, a bright beam of light descended, exuding a terrifyingly sharp aura that arced through the skies, wanting to split the waters of the sea region apart. A golden figure than appeared. He created a path through the boundless seas, leading straight to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

This figure was none other than Che Hou. He stood in the air and his gaze was terrifying to the extreme as he stared ahead.

Just like what many people in the Heaven Vault have guessed, their enemies have gathered today. Also, it wasn’t simply the western world. The strongest powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have all gathered here today in the Boundless Sea Region, preparing to attack the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect!

Chapter 2012: Good and Evil

A path opened up in the sea. Right now, the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect basically already bordered on the boundless seashore. Qin Wentian and the rest stood within the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect and could clearly see the enemy experts.

The western world, the hegemonic powers led by Yue Changkong, as well as Che Hou.

A mighty pressure gushed over. Even the waves of the Boundless Sea Region were affected. This pressure was too strong. Such a formation of enemies truly could dominate everything.

Only to see a buddhist cultivator walking out from the area where the western world occupies. This was a buddha lord. He stood beside the ancient gigantic buddha in the lead and stared in the direction of the Qin heavenly Divine Sect as he pressed his palms together. “Sir Qin, I trust you have been well since we last met.”

“We aren’t friends, save it.” Qin Wentian coldly replied. In fact, he couldn’t even be bothered to cast a glance at this hypocrite.

“Since this is the case, I won’t beat around the bush then.” That buddha lord spoke. “Sir Qin, you monopolized the Heaven Vault and used it to threaten all the experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, destroying multiple hegemonic powers, tyrannically lording over the world, doing whatever you desire. The buddha is merciful, our Buddhist Sect decided to head east and resolve this crisis posted to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms by the power you have established. If Sir Qin still has kindness in your heart, you should lay down the slaughter knife and convert to Buddhism.”

The voice of this buddha lord rang out through heaven and earth. Golden light flashed, appearing incomparably holy. However, when the people of the Heaven Vault heard these words, they couldn’t help but to curse.

“Only today did I know the most shameless people are all from the western world. What a high ‘realm’ they reached, to think that they could actually speak such shameless words.” Luoshen Chuan coldly spoke. He then continued, “The western world heads to the east and on their way here, the people in the places where you all passed by, have all effectively turned into your puppets. What’s the difference between such methods and Yue Changkong? The acts you committed are also that of evil.”

“They originally already allied with Yue Changkong, and it isn’t just a single time. They wear the clothes of buddhist cultivators but are in fact, nothing but an evil sect. Even so, they still wanted to openly say that they are the epitome of kindness. How disgusting.” The Heaven Devouring Devil Sovereign looked down on the behavior of the Buddhist Sect. For this journey, the western world has actually taken so many innocent people as hostages, brainwashing them. It was unknown how many of these brainwashed people are currently in their army.

“The people of the world are foolish, trapped by their own desires. Our Buddhist Sect delivered them from their desires as we head to the east and we have never killed a single human or beast at all. These people are all fully willing to follow us and have decided to convert their faith to Buddhism, letting go of everything and entered the buddha dao. This can be described as ‘Under the world, all hearts are united, an irresistible trend.’” That buddha lord calmly replied, his skin was so thick that it was unbelievable.

“ROAR!” Little Rascal transformed into a giant beast and bared his fangs. He wanted nothing more than to kill his way over and devour these shameless buddhist cultivators.

“Kidnapping the people of the world, using buddhist arts to control their thinking. Is this the so-called ‘kindness’ of the buddhist sect?” Qin Wentian mockingly laughed. The ‘kindness’ of the western world ran in the opposite direction of the kindness of the true buddha dao.

“Buddhist arts would never seek to control the hearts of people. It would only teach people to let go. Those with evil thoughts would be able to let their evil thoughts go, those who covet authority and power would be able to lay down their desires. Everyone in the world would turn to Buddhism, this is the grand dao of the heavens and earth.” That buddha lord spoke, like his words were logical and right. This most probably was the pinnacle of shamelessness and hypocrisy.

Qin Wentian and the others were thinking whether if these buddhist cultivators were truly ignorant of the nature of their actions or not.

“But I heard that the journey of the western world caused many families to break up, there were even deaths that occurred. Those people let go of everything to join with you, forgetting who they were in reality, including their loved ones. Is this the grand dao of the western world?”

“Since they can put everything down, this meant that they have buddha in their heart. This is nothing but them managing to return to their true natures. What’s wrong with that? Look at them now, all they know is tranquility and peace, they are much happier and at ease than before.” The buddha lord calmly spoke. He then continued, “Sect Leader Qin. Our Buddhist Sect didn’t travel all the way here to discuss the dao with you. The Heaven Vault is considered a weapon that could dictate the fate of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. For this weapon, our western world is willing to be responsible and take charge of it. If Sect Leader Qin truly cares about the world, we hope that you wouldn’t reject this and create needless sins of killing.”

“Your mother’s fart!” Some disciples of the Qin heavenly Divine Sect were completely enraged after hearing this, they couldn’t help but curse out loud. This was simply unbelievable, there would actually be someone so shameless in this world. Although Yue Changkong was evil, he is outrightly evil. Everyone knew this, he wouldn’t hide behind a false front. But these bald donkeys were truly the epitome of shamelessness. Controlling others was nothing but ‘deliverance’ for those controlled in their eyes. They wanted to seize the Heaven Vault and ‘take charge’ of it.

“This bunch of bald donkeys, they must have gold placed on their faces. Even powerful dao arts wouldn’t be able to tear through the thickness of their skin.” Many people involuntarily cursed.

Qin Wentian was also speechless. The heavenly deities around him were all enraged when they heard that. They were the controllers of the Heaven Vault but these bald donkeys actually have the face to say that if they care about the world, they shouldn't reject this? It was like the Heaven Vault should belong to the Buddhist Sect by right. If they rejected this arrangement, they would be in the wrong and they would be evil.

In any case, their action of taking over the Heaven Vault was an act of kindness to the world. It was the supreme logic of the heavenly dao.

And if one might ask, other than the western world, are there any other powers out there who could speak of seizing the Heaven Vault so calmly and righteously? I shall seize your belongings but I'm righteous. If you resist, you are evil. It was one thing if the western world was as evil as Yue Changkong. But the truth was, despite their evil natures, they still had to hide behind a facade where everyone could see their true colors. This was truly unbearable.

It was one thing to be evil, there's no need to put on a robe of righteousness to cover up your nature. How shameless can this be?

Even Yue Changkong who was standing at the side couldn't help but grin evilly. These bald donkeys were as shameless as ever. He then laughed, "The western world is thinking of the world. This is an act of great kindness and this action is also necessary given the general trend of things. Qin Wentian, if you know what's good for you, you should submit right now. The Buddhist Sect is merciful in nature, they will spare your lives."

As Yue Changkong spoke, he was also grinning.

And as for Che Hou, he had no emotions on his face. Although he was sentient and had intelligence not inferior to humans, his true form was something that was transformed from a divine weapon which seized fortune from the heavens and earth to be born. He wouldn't have so many complicated emotions.

"There are many incorrigible people in the world. Benefactor Yue might have gone astray but his heart is still one that is inclined towards the buddha. He is willing to take control of the Heaven Vault as well along with us, doing a great act of kindness. In the future, our Buddhist Sect will try our best to influence Benefactor Yue to do good." The buddha lord calmly spoke. Qin Wentian started. After that, he nodded his head, he was truly and utterly speechless. So, Yue Changkong joined forces with them to seize the Heaven Vault and this was interpreted as an act of kindness. An evil villain had the chance to become good, but they, who were the controllers of the Heaven Vault, were the evil ones.

Qin Wentian understood that words were useless. You would never know where the limits of your opponent lie. The extent of their shamelessness was truly unprecedented even in ancient times.

Yue Changkong also had a strange expression on his face. A faint smile could still be seen, seemingly somewhat evil. However, his tone sounded respectful as he spoke, "Reverend's words make sense, as expected of an esteemed monk."

“Our Buddhist Sect is willing to give Sect Leader Qin the chance to turn to good. But if Sect Leader Qin refuses us, for the sake of the world, our Buddhist Sect can only choose to act against you.” The buddha lord spoke.

“Isn’t reverend afraid of creating the sin of killing?” Someone asked.

“If we don’t enter hell, who will?” That buddha lord pressed his palms together and solemnly stated. Qin Wentian nodded, “I’m also concerned for the world and wish to do great kindness. I have no wish to disrupt the great order of the world. But my act of kindness is one that doesn’t permit the western world to exist. I will make the western world disappear from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms forever.”

At the end of his sentence, Qin Wentian’s tone turned ice-cold.

From his perspective, the evil nature of the western world wasn’t inferior to Yue Changkong at all. They spoke of doing good yet their actions were the opposite. They controlled the people of the world, brainwashing them to convert their faith, making them let go of everything except for the buddha dao. This was a true act of great evil.

After hearing Qin Wentian’s words, all the buddhist cultivators present pressed their palms together. That gigantic ancient golden buddha began to radiate a bright light that illuminated the surroundings, enveloping this space. In this instant, the sounds of buddhic chants rang out from all the buddhist cultivators. A moment later, boundless buddhic light shone resplendently, manifesting an endless number of brahmic runes. The deities beside Yue Changkong frowned and sealed their senses while trying to steady their minds. They didn’t want the buddhic chants to influence them.

Many people in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect instantly felt a loss of control. Very soon, there were people who actually pressed their palms together and began to join in the chants. Upon seeing this scene, Qin Wentian and the others furrowed their brows. The western world’s methods were truly mysterious. People below the heavenly deity realm were basically helpless to resist their influence.

“ZHA!” Qin Wentian roared, his voice sounded out loud right in the minds of everyone, shaking the hearts of those present, awakening them. After that, he gave the command, “Everyone retreat into the Heaven Vault.”

Those disciples of the divine sect below the heavenly deity realm all retreated. They would die for sure if they joined the battle and could only be cannon fodder. Retreating was the only option for them.

Everyone’s expressions were extreme unsightly. Although they wanted to fight together with their sect leader and kill these bald donkeys, the sounds of the buddhic chants were in fact, even more terrifying than the whispers of the devil. They had no way to resist its influence at all. They could only speed up and retreat into the Heaven Vault.

“Bzz~” A golden bolt of lightning arced through the sky, moving in the direction of the Heaven Vault. This was none other than the human-formed weapon Che Hou.

Qin Yuanfeng coldly snorted. He stretched his hand out and blasted out a punch. In an instant, the power of six paths manifested, becoming six terrifying vortices. Che Hou’s dao of chaos manifested as he caused millions of divine weapons to materialize, each imbued with a different dao art. He clashed head-on against the power of the six paths, the impact creating numerous tears in space. Even the boundless sea below was split apart as huge cracks appeared in the ground, continuously extending outwards.

In addition, the two of them didn’t stop after the initial clash. The force of the six paths transformed into six beams of light. The dao of chaos was also unleashed frenziedly but in the end, Che Hou didn’t force his way through. Both of them merely attacked casually, yet the might they unleashed was so shocking.

If they fought seriously, they would undoubtedly be able to destroy the Boundless Sea Region effortlessly.

“Qin Yuanfeng.” Che Hou glanced at the imposing figure faraway. He didn’t expect that after his transformation and after gaining insight into the dao of chaos, there would actually be two people in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect able to contend against him. This era was truly a special one.

Most probably, back then during the era of the eight ancient godkings, the pinnacle of power should be roughly at this level too.

However, that glorious era would come to a conclusion in this battle. There would only be a single person that can conquer and unify the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms in this era!

Chapter 2013: Giant Buddha

"Brother Che Hou." At this moment, a person called out causing Che Hou to turn his head. The person who called out was none other than Yue Changkong.

Only to see that there was a faint smile on Yue Changkong's face. He spoke, "Brother Che Hou, why is there a need to be in such a hurry? The buddhas of the western world came all the way here. Their acts of kindness spread throughout the world and they desire to deliver the multitude of lives from their suffering. Under the power of the Buddhist Sect, all resistance will be futile and will submit eventually. Both of us only needs to act as support."

What sort of character was Yue Changkong. It wasn't too overboard to say that he is the incarnate of pure evil and he also possessed the power of two godkings. His cultivation base is extremely strong, yet his personality was so evil. His purpose wasn't so simple as to destroy the Heaven Vault. He naturally wanted to rule unchallenged and become the king of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

However, the commotion caused by the western world this time around not only stunned the people of the world. It caused him to be stunned as well. This wasn't merely the power of the Buddhist Sovereign alone. It was the power of all buddhist cultivators. Once this gathered power erupted forth, how strong would it be? Even if the one on the opposite side was an ancient godking that has returned, the godking might not be able to contend against this.

After all, the lord of the western paradise himself was also a godking and he was much stronger than before. In addition, he had the reinforcement from all the buddhist cultivators this time around.

Under such circumstances, Yue Changkong naturally wouldn't take the lead to act first. If both parties ended up injured from the clash, who would then contend against the western paradise? For such a situation, it was naturally best to allow the western paradise to take the lead.

Che Hou's eyes flashed, instantly understanding Yue Changkong's intention. Although the battle intent in his heart was extremely intense and he wanted nothing more than to transform into his supreme divine weapon form to kill his way into the Heaven Vault, he still managed to endure that desire. He transformed into a golden beam of light and flew aside, leaving the battlefield for the buddhas of the western world.

Buddhic chants filled the air, that incomparably gigantic ancient buddha in the lead stepped forward. From his body, countless buddha figures manifested. These figures seemed to be manifested from the faith in Buddhism from the people of the world. As the sounds of chanting intensified, rumbling sounds could be heard. The palm of that gigantic buddha pressed down, instantly casting a shadow over everything. A five-fingered palm imprint directly bore downwards, even the sky seemed to have been entirely covered, only that palm was left in the world. It had the power to suppress the heavens, nothing could evade its scope. The boundless sea, the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect were both completely covered as well.

Qin Wentian inclined his head. At this moment, not only did they feel pressure boring down on their bodies, they felt pressure on their souls as well. An image of an incomparably gigantic buddha appeared in their minds, their own selves were incomparably tiny compared to it, unable to withstand a single strike. The buddha felt like it could easily destroy anything.

"No…!" Many people let out roars of fears. These people were those innocent spectators who were at the shores of the Boundless Sea Region. They stared at the gigantic palm print and felt an immense pressure from their souls. They felt doomsday arriving for them. Given their cultivation bases, it was basically impossible for them to evade this strike. They would die for sure. Not only for them, for those weaker cultivators here in this space, everyone would be buried.

Qin Wentian's gaze became terrifying to the extreme. A fearsome storm of space and time enveloped everyone. Time flowed by, the bodies instantly vanished from their original location and when they appeared again, those innocent spectators as well as his friends and loved ones were directly brought into the Heaven Vault. At the moment of the storm, they felt themselves traversing through different points of space and time, they had no idea the amount of distance they traveled. When they returned to their senses, they could see the giant palm before them, the palm covered an incomparably vast distance, burying everything within its area.

"Hu…" Many people let out a breath they unknowingly held in, feeling as though they just returned from a visit to the gates of hell as they stared at the destruction before their eyes. Their hearts pounded violently. They initially only wanted to witness this battle yet just a single attack has almost buried them.

"Many thanks." Many of them turned and bowed. They knew that it was Qin Wentian who saved their lives. As for those buddhas who said that they were acting in the stead of kindness, they didn't care about them at all. In the eyes of the buddhas from the western world, they were as tiny and inconsequential as ants. Completely insignificant beings that could be smacked to death with a single slap.

Were the buddhas of the western world really acting in the name of good?

"I will pray that the Heaven Vault would become the ultimate king of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. I will definitely give it my allegiance." Someone spoke. "If the western paradise or Yue Changkong becomes the ultimate king, it would undoubtedly be a calamity for the rest of us."

"I also hope that the Heaven Vault would be able to become the ultimate king. For this war, the Heaven Vault must definitely be the winner." Those who were rescued by Qin Wentian all gave him their blessings. Qin Wentian's method of saving them has already surpassed the scope of their understanding and is already something infinitesimally close to the level of a godking. It wasn't surprising that such powerful existences would have some heaven-defying methods.

The entire Qin Heavenly Divine Sect disappeared from the power of that one palm strike. The boundless sea appeared again, but it was clearly more sunken in now than before. The sea region transformed into an abyss. Qin Wentian sent the others directly into the Heaven Vault.

Intense rumbling sounds rang out. A golden finger appeared in the space inside the Heaven Vault. This finger was incomparably gigantic, resembling the sharpest absolute ultimate divine weapon in the world. It pierced into the slit which was the entrance of the Heaven Vault and forced the gap between the slit to widen increasingly, forcefully opening the Vault's entrance.

Once, when Qin Wentian occupied the Heaven Vault, he enjoyed an advantage whereby if he doesn't open the vault, no one else could enter. However, things were different today. The godking of the west has returned, Yue Changkong possessed the power of two godkings, and Che Hou has completely transformed. The entrance of the Heaven Vault could no longer block them. Qin Wentian was very clear on this point. After all, the Heaven Vault was a creation of Godking Xi. It might be able to block deities but it definitely wouldn't be able to last forever against godkings.

The western world army advanced, moving towards the Heaven Vault's entrance. A pair of gigantic hands appeared there, trying to pry the entrance wider.

However, at the instant when they entered the Heaven Vault, a surge of supreme sword intent descended within the Heaven Vault. A spacetime storm manifested, transforming into billions of strands of sword qi that could exterminate everything.

"Careful!" A low voice rang out. That immensely gigantic ancient buddha used its body to block the entrance of the Heaven Vault. Countless smaller buddhas manifested from it, all of them blasting out a palm attack, forming an array with billions of palm imprints that stacked together, extending into the Heaven Vault, intend on opening up a pathway for the western world army.

The gigantic buddha extended his palm through the entrance first followed by his head, causing the entrance to widen as more cracks appeared. That gigantic body finally stepped through, the sounds of buddhic chants could now be heard within the Heaven Vault, transforming into a mighty force.

Qin Wentian and the others retreated into the depths of the Heaven Vault. They stood in the starry space but they saw the buddha head rising in height to the point where it was on the same level as them. Their figures flashed and continued flying upwards. That head also continued to grow higher like it intended to reach the nine heavenly layers.

Finally the height of the giant ancient buddha stopped growing. The western world army behind it finally entered fully and stood around the buddha. Qin Wentian and the others stood in the starry space, they felt their hearts trembling when they stared at the gigantic buddha. This buddha was too huge in size. It was something transformed from the faith of all the buddhist cultivators in the western world. Could this buddha be that godking of the western world?

Or maybe it was just a statue that was being controlled by the Buddha Sovereign?

Within the Heaven Vault, despite the gigantic size of the buddha, it was unable to occupy the entire starry sky. It just appeared extremely large before the eyes of the cultivators of the Heaven Vault. In any case, it was more convenient to fight a battle inside here, they would have space to evade the buddha’s blows. If it was on the outside, they would have no space at all and the aftershocks would surely cause the deaths of countless innocents.

The buddha chants reverberated through the air. The buddhist cultivators all pressed their palms together as they chanted together. In an instant, the power of their faith seemed to act as an amplifier for the buddha arts. The buddhic sounds continued to enter the minds of Qin Wentian and the others. Qin Wentian and the rest wanted to seal their hearing but they still had no way to prevent the voice from entering their minds. A few moments later, buddhic light actually manifested from all of them.

At this moment, Qin Wentian felt as though a buddha was born in his body. There was now a buddhic root. Everyone had a buddha in their hearts at this moment.

“The buddhic arts are boundless, everyone just return from the path of evil. The shore is just behind you.” A voice rang out in the minds of everyone, like the voice of a great dao. Those people who recently entered the heavenly deity realm felt their hearts wavering. At this moment, numerous scenes flashed through their minds. These scenes were scenes of their lives from their birth up until now. It was like they were looking through their entire lives.

The moments of pain and agony were even clearer now, imprinting that in their minds. After that, a supreme might born from the power of faith descended on them, expelling all feelings of negativity from their minds, allowing their hearts to gain peace again. The buddhic light radiating from them grew even more resplendent, it felt like they were on the verge of becoming a buddhist cultivator.

“The wills of the multitude of lives transformed into a type of dao.” Qin Wentian’s powerful will allowed him to break free. He stared at the western world army. Such power was somewhat similar to what he experienced back then due to the eight senses of buddhism. But the power he felt today was even more tyrannical. How powerful would the western world army, an army formed from the faith of everyone, be? The dao has entered their hearts, steeped in their souls. All their actions and thoughts were already influenced. This was just too terrifying. No wonder the western world wanted to take the time and slowly travel east to ‘deliver’ people from suffering.

“The old bald donkey is actually so powerful now. Is he about to comprehend the ultimate dao?” Yue Changkong stood in another location inside the Heaven Vault as he watched the happenings. His heart silently shook when he saw the deities around Qin Wentian being affected. Although he hoped to take down the Heaven Vault, he didn’t wish for the process to be so simple. If the western world could directly suppress and dominate Qin Wentian, this wouldn’t be something advantageous to him. The best case scenario would be one where the two of them were heavily injured by each other.

“Don’t be controlled!” Qin Wentian coldly roared, his voice ringing out loud in the minds of everyone, causing those affected to regain a modicum of clarity. After that, all of them did their best to resist that buddhic sounds in their minds.

However, the buddhic sounds was relentless. The gigantic ancient buddha continued to chant, manifesting buddhic runes which imprinted themselves in the hearts of people.

“Such a buddha art, what difference does it have when compared to an evil art?” Qin Wentian coldly spoke when he felt this power. An immense amount of devil might gushed forth from him, enveloping the people around him, helping them to resist the corrosion of their wills by the buddhic energy.

At this moment outside the Heaven Vault, a black shadow flashed by. After that, the skies in the starry space turned to darkness. Terrifying death qi permeated everything.

“That fellow has finally appeared.” Qin Wentian silently mused. In truth, he wouldn’t find it easy to deal with that gigantic buddha at all. Luckily, help has now appeared.

Chapter 2014: Invincible

That crazy old freak appeared in the midst of the dark clouds. He resembled a true god of death, a grim reaper that controlled the lives of the populace.

His eyes were no longer muddy but gleamed with extreme sharpness instead. He stared fixedly at the gigantic buddha ahead. His astral soul then manifested, it was in the form of a grim reaper, tall, majestic, imposing and completely robed in black, materialized from death qi. His eyes manifested cycles of complex runes. Each cycle was so complicated that people would find their lives slipping away just by being gazed at.

When he turned his gaze towards the western world army, strands of divine will packed with the power of death descended from the sky. In the next instant, the countless experts among the western world army suddenly began to radiate death qi as death spirits were born, appearing behind them. These death spirits then started to devour their lives and souls.

“A heretic and evil dao.” A buddha voice rang out. Golden light filled the sky, wanting to expel the death spirits. The two sources of energy began to clash in mid-air. At the same time, the boundless buddhic light bore down on the Grim Reaper, wanting to extinguish the death spirits.

“You harness the faith and fate power of people of the world to accomplish your ambitions, ignoring their wills. Who is the true evil?” The expression of the crazy old freak turned extremely cold. These people who were brainwashed and converted their faith to Buddhism had basically already lost themselves, becoming mindless tools of the western world. The Buddha Sovereign gathered these people and formed an army. This is then a true act of great evil. It was too terrifying.

“Your dao is the heretic and evil one, what would you know of faith? The Buddhist Sect seeks to deliver the people of the world from their suffering. One day when the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is united under the Buddhist Sect, peace would then reign, everyone’s hearts would be filled with kindness, there would be no more evil.” The buddha’s voice echoed out loud, the soldiers in the western world army continued with their chants, expelling the death qi, destroying the death spirits. Buddhic light illuminates everything. Under the gigantic ancient buddha, everything seemed so tiny and inconsequential.

“Seems like that old fellow won’t be able to contend against that giant buddha.” Qin Wentian silently mused. The Godking of the Universe Region took so many lives as hostages, channeling their faith to form the gigantic buddha statue. If an ancient godking was to return, even they might not be the Buddha Sovereign’s match. The crazy old freak might be strong, but he would at most be on-par with the Buddha Sovereign. This was proven by the fact that he failed to protect Ancient Azure Mystic back then. There’s no way he would be stronger than the Buddha Sovereign. And now, not only has the Buddha Sovereign returned, he could augment himself through the faith of the western world army, how terrifying was he exactly?

The old freak stared ahead, the number of people in the western army filled his vision and a single glance wasn’t able to see them all. That gigantic ancient buddha statue in the air seemed to be an invincible existence. That bald donkey was indeed much stronger compared to back then.

Qin Wentian's figure flashed. His gaze landed on the surrounding space as time started to reverse. He wanted to teleport the western army into a spacetime where he has control over. However, the endless buddhic chants in the air interfered with his dao, he had no way to execute it. When the power of a dao art like the buddhic chants reached a certain level, all other dao arts would be rendered ineffective.

"Zha!" A sound akin to the true speech of buddha dao rang out, boring down on Qin Wentian's heart. It felt like heavenly might and was extremely difficult to resist. There seemed to be numerous buddhas weighing down on his heart. All the buddha-dao constellations bore down on him, causing him to groan. This felt almost impossible to endure.

In the next moment, boundless buddhic light radiated from the nine heavenly layers. Those buddha-dao constellations directly cast their images downwards, transforming into giant buddhas that applied pressure on everyone. The might spread towards the floating palace, and similarly, placing the people around Qin Wentian under its pressure. This was truly comparable to a supreme world-destroying divine technique.

Qin Wentian's figure flashed. He moved with lightning speed, flying towards one of the floating palaces. His loved ones resided here, if the gigantic buddha destroyed this, the ending would be unimaginably dire. Countless experts flew out from the floating palaces in all directions, their expressions were extremely unsightly to behold. The Buddha Sovereign gathered the power of the buddhist cultivators and the converted people of the world on himself alone. Was there truly no way to break this?

If they couldn't break the power of the western world army, they would have no chance of victory.

Qin Wentian soared into the air, using the dao of the starry space to envelop his floating palace. By glancing at it, this entire floating palace began to shift through space and time and soared even higher. A buddha constellation manifested a buddha but Qin Wentian lifted his hand and directly punched a hole through the buddha, not allowing it to interfere.

"Powerful. As expected of somebody that defeated myself in this current age multiple times." Yue Changkong spoke to Qin Wentian who was in the air.

However, such strength still wasn't enough to win against the bald donkey of the western world.

If one wanted to win against the Buddha Sovereign, there's only a single method. They had to sever his connection with the western world army and stop him from absorbing the faith energy they provided. If not, that bald donkey would be akin to a transcender among them, no one would be able to stop him. Even Yue Changkong himself wouldn't be able to do anything at that point of time.

Those heavenly deities from the various hegemonic powers around Yue Changkong felt their hearts trembling violently. Simply too powerful, that gigantic buddha from the western world was simply an invincible existence to them. Also, Qin Wentian was much stronger than before, he basically had transformed completely. The young man from back then was already one of the characters that stood at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms now.

Qin Wentian’s expression turned unsightly. He was trying to figure a way to break the connection.

At this moment, a lanky figure in green suddenly appeared in the sky and slowly strode over. The cycle of samsara could be seen in his eyes and when he strode over, the starlight from the sky seemed to follow him. Several constellations cast their light on him. It was like wherever he goes to, the area there would be bathed in starlight.

“What a powerful faith energy.” That figure calmly spoke. He walked to the side of Qin Wentian. The two of them were so handsome and extraordinary.

“The Godking of the Universe Region controls the faith of the entire western world and those people he converted. He wants to use their fates and faith energy to transcend.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“The power of faith touches on the eight senses of buddhism. He is controlling people through their will. I’ve cultivated for two lifetimes and my current cultivation base can be of use to you. However, I alone cannot resist such powerful might. We will require the joint forces of many deities to be able to do something.” The figure in green spoke. He was none other than Hua Taixu.

In truth, he has already been cultivating in the nine heavenly layers in the Heaven Vault since a long time ago. He was in closed-door seclusion for countless years and refused to exit as he gained insights into the heaven daos. He wanted to completely fuse his insights over his two lifetimes and even when the deity-level battle broke out in the Heaven Vault back then, he still chose not to end his seclusion and didn’t participate in that battle. Only until today when an even more terrifying deity-level battle was about to erupt, did he finally appear.

“What should we do?”

“His control over the eight senses is extremely strong. Now, he is taking the multitude of lives as hostages and using their faith of the western world army, allowing him to channel endless might into his buddhic dao arts. If we wish to sever the connection between him and them, our wills have to enter their sea of consciousness and force them to awaken. I cultivate in the dao of samsara and I can create an illusory cycle of samsara that’s powered by the heavenly dao, slowly severing the connection. But, I need you guys to protect me from all external threats as well as defend me from the attacks launched by the Buddha Sovereign.”

Hua Taixu spoke. Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. It seemed that Hua Taixu also had some understanding of Buddhism’s eight senses and knew how to break it. From this, one could tell that his control over the dao of samsara was exceedingly strong. But if even he wasn’t able to break the connection between the western world army and the Buddha Sovereign, no one in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would be able to do so unless they transcended.

Chapter 2015: Hua Taixu's Past Life

Qin Wentian nodded his head as he transmitted a message to his father Qin Yuanfeng as well as that crazy old freak. After that, a few peak characters stepped out from different directions as they flew towards the giant buddha.

If they wanted to defeat the giant buddha, the first thing they must do is to cut off his connection with the western world army.

“I’ll send you there.” Qin Wentian spoke. Time flowed by, his figure along with Hua Taixu directly vanished. They passed through space and appeared behind the giant buddha, in the airspace above the western world army. Countless gazes turned to them but those people in the western world army soon lowered their heads like they didn’t mind it at all. Right now, all the experts in the western world army were linked as one. They had no regards for any experts.

A golden lotus with six petals appeared. It continued to bloom as more petals manifested. In the blink of an eye, that lotus had already enveloped this space and continued growing towards the direction of Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu. There seemed to be countless faces within the petals which branded themselves into Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu’s souls. This made them feel like there was a lotus directly growing within their souls, threatening to rend their lives and spirits.

The buddha arts were boundlessly profound and unfathomable. Now that all faith of the western world army was gathered onto one person, it was extremely difficult to defend against its power when this attack was unleashed by the Buddha Sovereign.

“You go, leave this to me.” Qin Wentian spoke. His figure flashed and directly stepped into the countless petals. His body was then completely enveloped and after that, the petals that could destroy everything, began to close. But at this moment, from within, a sharp tearing sound could be heard. After that, numerous holes manifested as cracks appeared on the petals. Hua Taixu left the area through the cracks as he unleashed his own dao art power.

And when Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu acted, Qin Yuanfeng and the Grim Reaper also moved. Qin Yuanfeng’s figure was incomparably imposing. He stepped out and expanded in form, resembling a god. The light from the six paths shot out, forming into six vertices. His palms slammed out, blotting out the sky. These vertices then flew towards the giant buddha head, wanting to devour the head into the six paths.

The Grim Reaper turned his gaze towards the giant buddha. After that, his astral soul that was behind him began to radiate rays of death that caused death spirits to be born everywhere the rays passed, seeking to envelop all buddhas.

Qin Wentian, Qin Yuanfeng, and the Grim Reaper were currently three of the strongest characters standing at the peak in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. When the three of them joined forces, even the giant buddha would be tied up for some time. In the battlefield where Qin Wentian was in, the petals continued to break apart.

Qin Wentian glanced in the direction of Hua Taixu only to see a stretch of samsara light manifesting, shining down on the western world army.

At this moment, Hua Taixu was incomparably resplendent, resembling the god of samsara and reincarnation. In fact, Qin Wentian could even feel buddhic energy from him. It was like Hua Taixu had also cultivated the buddhist path before.

The western world army was enveloped by the samsara light. All of them entered an illusory cycle of samsara as everything they have ever experienced played through once again in their minds. These scenes were all of intense emotions, ones where they were moved emotionally. Their loved ones, their companions, the sacrifices their friends made for them, how their masters sincerely nurtured them… all of these scenes flashed through their minds, completely different from what the Buddha Sovereign showed them before.

Two different types of faith energy clashed within them. The light radiating from Hua Taixu's body grew brighter as he softly spoke. "Initially, I cultivated the emotionless dao of samsara. However, despite me extinguishing my emotions for an entire lifetime, I still don't know what's the ultimate goal for my cultivation. After giving up everything and entering reincarnation once more, only then did I learn that being emotionless is just a middle point to verify how important having emotions is during my cultivation in my second lifetime. No emotions, no love, no desires, no needs. Would I still be a human? That would be nothing but a zombie, a puppet of the heavenly dao."

His voice entered the minds of everyone. Those who heard it could feel the emotions within as their wills wavered.

Many in the western world army started to awaken, no longer blindly providing their faith. They were in a daze. As they awakened, the power unleashed by the giant buddha against the Grim Reaper and Qin Yuanfeng seemed to be weakening bit by bit. But even then, it was extremely powerful.

Numerous buddha lords from the western paradise turned their gazes to Hua Taixu. One of the buddha lords pressed his palms together and spoke, "So, it's junior apprentice brother that has returned. Why do you not return to the buddha dao, but instead choose to harm the believers instead?"

"Junior apprentice brother?" Everyone felt their hearts trembling when they heard the buddha lord's words, feeling somewhat unbelievable. A buddha lord of the western paradise actually referred to Hua Taixu as 'junior apprentice brother'?

The eyes of a few major characters of the hegemonic powers flashed as they thought of a person. After that, their hearts pounded violently.

"You all know him?" Yue Changkong glanced at the people around him.

“The buddha lords of the western paradise all cultivate different daos. The dao of karma, the dao of reincarnation, the dao of the other shore, the dao of samsara… Many years ago, a buddhist cultivator with supreme talent appeared in the western paradise. His attainments in Buddhism were extremely deep and he was well versed in the myriad of buddha arts and techniques. He was the youngest buddha lord in the western paradise and possessed startling comprehension abilities. In order to gain insights into the dao of samsara, he severed his emotions. With a single glance, he could cause his target to sink inside the cycle of samsara forever, unable to extricate themselves to the point where they would choose suicide. His attainments were unfathomable.”

The God Destruction Palace Leader continued, “However, after that, it’s rumoured that he began to doubt his own cultivation, feeling that there was a mistake somewhere. He could feel an invisible shackle. In the end, the doubts intensified to the extent whereby this supreme buddha lord character began to question the Buddhist Sect. His personality was rebellious by nature and he simply did what he wanted to. Because he was a man of no emotions, no one could do anything to him. The other buddha lords eventually joined forces to suppressed him but he killed one of them instead and managed to escape from the western paradise. After that, there was no longer any news about him. Someone claimed that he was cultivating silently, others claimed that he was already hunted down by the western paradise. There’s another rumour that states that he was tempering himself in samsara. Now, it seems that the last rumor was the more accurate one. He gave up everything and entered the cycle of samsara and not only is he not an emotionless man, he was a man filled with emotions and came to the conclusion that emotionless was nothing but a yardstick so one could measure how important emotions are.”

Yue Changkong’s eyes flashed. Regardless of his past life as a godking or this life as Yue Changkong, he seemed to have missed the era of this supreme buddha lord. Because he had no idea about Hua Taixu’s story, he didn’t expect another legendary character like this to have existed. In the past, he cultivated an emotionless dao yet he was a man of emotions today. These two types of contrast could allow one to better understand the great dao completely. No wonder he was so powerful today.

“Back then, I already felt that the western paradise’s daos were wrong. And now, the current actions of the western paradise have indeed verified that my past actions in leaving were correct. The me in the past wasn’t qualified to have the title of a buddha lord and was unworthy of being a buddhist cultivator. In this life, I no longer cultivate the buddha path but I know one thing for sure. The western paradise isn’t worthy of representing Buddhism.” Hua Taixu spoke.

“Vile creature. You betrayed our sect and you still dare to bewitch people with your lies? You ought to be killed today.” Another buddha lord angrily spoke. However, Hua Taixu didn’t care. His dao continued to be unleashed as its light bore down on the western world army.

Chapter 2016: Troublesome

Tears flowed down the faces of many people in the western world army. They began to awaken in the cycle of samara, and understood that they have been tricked by the Buddha Sovereign's dao, leading them to be unable to extricate themselves as they fell into his buddha dao. They actually abandoned everything and followed the western paradise. This was just too ridiculous.

Did they do it to pursue the great dao? Whose great dao were they pursuing?

If the western paradise managed to take over the Heaven Vault today, allowing the plan of the Buddha Sovereign to succeed, what use would that be to them?

Under the effect of Hua Taixu's dao, more and more people awakened. The power of the giant buddha was also being weakened unceasingly. This naturally caused the threat posed by Qin Yuanfeng and the Grim Reaper to be stronger and stronger. They could already control the giant buddha. The supreme formation established from the faith of the western world army that allowed the giant buddha to use their faith power began to crumble.

But at this moment, cold smiles could be seen on the faces of the buddha lords of the western paradise. After that, one of them coldly spoke, "Junior brother, do you really think that your actions would be useful?"

Hua Taixu's heart trembled. His handsome eyes turned to the giant buddha as a strong sense of unease suddenly filled his heart.

He was once a buddha lord of the western paradise and was very familiar with the dao arts and techniques they used. If his actions couldn't even diminish the opponent's strength, this probably meant that the Buddha Sovereign had mastered a heaven-defying grand dao completely. If this really is the case, his dao of samsara would probably be useless.

Boundless starlight cascaded from the sky. Countless constellations shined their light on the giant buddha and reflected the light from the giant buddha to the western world army after that. In an instant, the reflected buddhic light flared with magnificence, and began to spread and envelop a boundlessly vast space. Everyone in that space that was shined upon by the reflected buddhic light seemed to have established a mysterious connection with the giant buddha.

Buddhic chants filled the air, like the true speech of fate. The fate of the multitude of lives were like they no longer belonged to themselves. Buddhic light was emitted from their heads and they seemed like buddhic lamps that shone resplendently to illuminate the entire area. Everyone's fate seemed to be lit up as well, burning away within the lamps.

The buddhic light flowed towards Hua Taixu, enveloping him and directly seeping into him. Hua Taixu's expression drastically changed. He closed his eyes and his body actually began to tremble. He could faintly sense an illusory figure walking out from his body. This illusory figure had his appearance, and was a representation of his fate. Once his fate soul left his body, his fate would be in the control of others, the controller could make him do anything they wanted.

“The dao of fate can deliver everyone from sufferance. Who can still resist the righteous path of turning to Buddhism?” One of the buddha lords spoke, his gaze sharp to the extreme. So what even if the rebellious Hua Taixu was immensely powerful? Now, this already wasn’t the era where Hua Taixu lived his first life. At that time, the Buddha Sovereign couldn’t appear due to his injuries. Although the buddha lords of the western paradise knew of the existence of their godking, they also knew that he was injured and wasn’t able to direct the plans of the western world.

But now was different from the past. In this era, the Buddha Sovereign had already returned. He was the master of the western world. With him present, how could Hua Taixu be able to play any tricks?

Countless shadows manifested from Hua Taixu. All these shadows seemed to be him. He rapidly retreated and blasted out waves of samsara light, wanting to sever the connection between him and the buddha light.

“He failed.” Qin Wentian’s expression stiffened. They seemed to be only one step away from success but they still failed in the end. From that giant buddha, he could sense the power of fate. If the Buddha Sovereign truly could control fate, how could anyone in this world be able to contend against him?

All of a sudden, the giant buddha changed his target and began to attack Hua Taixu, like it wanted to destroy Hua Taixu who was a traitor of the Buddhist Sect.

Hua Taixu continued soaring up into the sky. The terrifying giant buddha grabbed out with a gigantic hand towards Hua Taixu. And just when Hua Taixu wanted to dodge, the entire space around him seemed to be locked. His body couldn’t seem to move. That giant hand grabbed out, containing boundless buddhic might that could immobilize the heavens.

Hua Taixu’s eyes of samsara shone with a terrifying light. The radius of the light expanded increasingly, shrouding his body as he entered a cycle of samsara. The buddha mobilizing force was broken. When that giant palm slammed down, Hua Taixu’s body had already arrived in another location.

However, the attacks didn’t stop. It was like the giant buddha wouldn’t stop unless Hua Taixu was killed. As for Qin Yuanfeng, the Grim Reaper and Qin Wentian, the three of them were ignored by the giant buddha. The three of them turned their gazes to the giant buddha and began to launch full power attacks that could destroy entire worlds at the buddha. The giant buddha manifested millions of palms and defended against the attacks but it had no way to block everything. Qin Yuanfeng’s force of the six paths penetrated through its head, shattering it completely. From this, one could tell how terrifying the destructive power that erupted forth was.

However, they had no time to be happy. The actions of the buddha palms didn’t stop and continued attacking Hua Taixu while defending against the barrage of other attacks.

“They can’t even kill him after blasting his head into pieces?” Many people were speechless. They stared at the headless gigantic buddha. Could it be that this wasn’t the original body of the Buddha Sovereign? How monstrous was he exactly?

Hua Taixu’s heart trembled when he saw the buddhic attacks continued being launched at him. He knew that although he didn’t manage to wipe away the dao of the other party earlier, in truth, his attack had some effects. If not, this buddha statue wouldn’t go all out, wanting to eliminate him.

Also when he saw that there was no effect despite the giant buddha head being shattered, he suddenly recalled a terrifying rumour in the western paradise. Shock filled his heart as he called out loudly. “Stop attacking the giant golden buddha body, this isn’t the Buddha Sovereign. It isn’t anyone at all. This gigantic statue is formed from the gathered faith of all buddhist cultivators in the world. Its controller can stay in the dark and its controller is undoubtedly the true godking of the western world. Even if this entire gigantic buddha body shattered apart, the Buddha Sovereign wouldn’t be injured at all.”

“In that case, even up until now, we haven’t seen the real Buddha Sovereign at all.” Qin Wentian felt some shock. So that giant buddha was formed from gathered faith. They haven’t even met with the Buddha Sovereign at all.

The opponent this time around was too troublesome. Truly unprecedentedly terrifying.

At this moment, a beam of light from outside the Heaven Vault flew over. This beam of light was incomparably resplendent and stopped right in front of the gigantic ancient buddha. This figure was actually a female. She was incomparably beautiful and exuded boundless magnificence. She then cast a glance at the location where Qin Wentian and the Grim Reaper were at. After that, she closed her eyes and her body was abruptly immersed in starlight. A moment later, another figure that was so beautiful that it caused everyone to be breathless appeared. This beautiful figure exuded a sense of peerless might like she was the ruler of an era.

Upon seeing that figure behind the first young woman, the gaze of the Grim Reaper froze. His body actually shuddered. He didn’t expect after so many years, he would still be able to see her returning. In addition, he would be fighting side-by-side with her!

Qin Wentian glanced at the young woman as he called out, “Youhuang.”

So it turned out that the figure who appeared was none other than Beiming Youhuang. And as for that magnificent goddess which appeared behind her, it was none other than the Imperishable Heaven Lord.

The Imperishable Heaven Lord seemed to be alive. She stared at the ancient giant buddha before them as her eyes flickered with coldness. This was a meeting between mortal enemies from countless years ago.

Back then, the mastermind behind the world-destroying battle of Ancient Azure Mystic was none than the Godking of the Western World, the Buddha Sovereign. He was the one that destroyed Azure Mystic. She, as the Heaven Lord of Azure Mystic, had failed to protect her immortal realms, leading to it being destroyed. Countless deities on her side had fallen, there was no need to mention about ordinary cultivators. Those who died turned into specks of dust in history, an entire world was destroyed. How cruel was that? This debt of hatred, although countless years had passed, she would always remember it and had engraved it in her heart.

Endless soul power enveloped the surroundings. Around the Imperishable Heaven Lord, countless halos lit up, each representing an illusory soul. They seemed endless in number and were akin to an army of death spirits. These souls were all experts who had died in defense of Ancient Azure Mystic, and have now all been awakened. They returned, filled with vengeance.

“You could actually return?” A voice rang out from the giant buddha, like he recognized the Imperishable Heaven Lord. Although he was formed from the gathered faith of the western world army, the one controlling him was none other than the Buddha Sovereign. The Buddha Sovereign naturally would recognize the Imperishable Heaven Lord. He was borrowing the power of faith to attack the Heaven Vault, reinforcing his own strength to a shocking level.

Even when he was in his peak state back then, he had never been so powerful before. This was the Buddha Sovereign after his transformation. He returned after recuperating for countless years and he returned much stronger than before after gaining insights and mastering different daos. He was now capable of almost anything. In this world, was there still anyone who could block his path and ambition?

After he took over the Heaven Vault, he would use it as his base of operations to control the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, converting the masses. The people of the thirty-three immortal realms would all change their beliefs and channel their faith to him. At that time, he could use the boundless amount of faith to allow his body to break out of the nine heavenly layers and truly obtain transcendence. When that point of time arrived, this universe would no longer be able to restrict him. He would then become the ultimate king of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

“Since you could return, why couldn’t I?” The Imperishable Heaven Lord spoke, like she has truly returned. Once, she used a heaven-defying method to disperse her soul to bury Ancient Azure Mystic, sealing countless souls there, storing their vengeance away. She did all of this in hopes that there would come a day where the souls in Ancient Azure Mystic could be awakened and obtain revenge for the world-destroying battle.

Beiming Youhuang was none other than the person who awakened her. She was chosen by the Grim Reaper and not only has she awakened her, she has also awakened the souls sealed away for countless years in Ancient Azure Mystic.

Behind the Imperishable Heaven Lord and Beiming Youhuang, the army of death spirits from Ancient Azure Mystic could be seen. They've returned for battle. They only have a single purpose and that's to destroy the western paradise.

"Just a bunch of spirits, do you really think they can do anything? I shall use my supreme buddhist arts to deliver all of you from your suffering." That figure icily spoke. After that, countless buddhas manifested in the air. The buddhic chants they uttered seemed to contain the power of deliverance. In an instant, Boundless buddhic light flashed, enveloping the starry skies, including the space where Beiming Youhuang and the Imperishable Heaven Lord was at.

Around the army of death spirits, countless runewords of the character '卍' directly branded themselves into the bodies of the spirits, intending on destroying them.

"This giant buddha statue is capable of the myriad of buddhist arts, he can do anything." Many people sighed silently. The Godking of the Western World was just too strong, he was skilled in everything and could unleash any type of buddhic technique or art to the greatest effect.

However, at this very moment, the figures of the army of death spirits grew increasingly illusory, like they were becoming non-existent. An invisible energy flowed towards Beiming Youhuang like the energy within the death spirits all belonged to her. The faint spirits shimmered in and out of existence around her, as though they possessed void bodies. Their spirits seemed like they were about to vanish at any moment.

This caused the runewords of deliverance '卍' to lose its effect. The runewords hit nothing but air, they were still extremely powerful but didn't have a target to aim at.

Beiming Youhuang closed her eyes. Her long hair fluttered in the wind. At this moment, she was exceptionally beautiful and incomparably holy and pure, like a maiden from the nine heavens. Right now, she was even comparable to the Imperishable Heaven Lord standing behind her, as her aura had a hint of majesty. In terms of beauty, she wasn't inferior at all.

The Imperishable Heaven Lord stared ahead, her eyes flickered with coldness. The Buddha Sovereign wanted to deliver these spirits?

The army of death spirits were awakened by none other than Beiming Youhuang. It wasn't going to be so easy to attack them.

The giant buddha also seemed to have realized this. Beiming Youhuang was then the crucial component. If he killed her, everything would be resolved.

"As the Heaven Lord, you actually handed everything to a junior. Is this your inheritance?" The giant buddha spoke. The Imperishable Heaven Lord stared at him, "Someone as selfish as you would never understand. To you, the people in this world are nothing more than tools to help you achieve your desires. You care nothing for their lives and deaths and would willingly destroy a world if it suits your aim. Back then, Ancient Azure Mystic was a good example. Today, you control everyone in the western world for your own purpose again. Most probably, there's no one as evil as you in this world. What's even more terrifying is that you still want to act behind the facade of being a buddha."

"Youhuang, allow him to feel your strength." The Imperishable Heaven Lord spoke. Beiming Youhuang still had her eyes closed. In an instant, everyone in the starry sky including heavenly deities, all felt a strange sensation. It was like a mysterious energy had appeared in their souls and could directly attack their souls.

"She's even more terrifying now." The expressions of some of the deities beside Yue Changkong changed. Back then in the battle within the Heaven Vault, some of them had already experienced the power of Beiming Youhuang's soul stop ability. This type of ability that could ignore defense to directly attack the souls of her target was simply too terrifying. There was no way to defend against this at all. Now that Beiming Youhuang was stronger than before, how much more terrifying would the consequences be if she directly soul attacked them?

There was no one who could guarantee their survival. If they suffered a soul attack from her, they would most probably die.

In this ultimate clash of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, what would the ending be? No one could anticipate who the final victor would be.

"Soul stop." Beiming Youhuang's long hair danced in the wind. Her beauty was exceptional. Her ruby red lips moved as a cold voice was issued from her mouth. In an instant, countless experts behind the giant buddha felt their bodies stiffening. The buddhic light radiating from their bodies weakened as their souls seemed to stop functioning, like they were frozen. Layers of frost covered their bodies as they became ice statues, frozen forever in the starry space.

"Do you think this will be useful?" That giant buddha coldly spoke. His voice rang out through the starry skies. Countless people heard his voice. The light from his dao enveloped everyone from the western world. He was one with them. Fate has tied them together and they were now one entity. Since this is the case, their daos are the same as well.

"Time reversal." As the sound of his voice rang out, the buddhic light flared even brighter. The giant buddha statue transformed into a buddha of time and caused the time reversal effect. The power of soul stop began to recede from the bodies of everyone. This scene was extremely wondrous. The layers of frost on their bodies began to thaw bit by bit.

“He is even proficient in the dao of time. Is there really no one who can defeat him?” Many people were speechless. The Buddha Sovereign was too powerful. Even without his original self appearing, he was already so powerful to the extent of invincibility.

The Grim Reaper frowned. If this was the case, the giant buddha would truly be an invincible existence that had no weakness. No matter how powerful Beiming Youhuang was, it was useless as his time reversal could reverse all the negative effects. Unless they could find the true body of the Buddha Sovereign and kill him, not giving him any chance to unleash his dao.

But if they don’t break his control over the masses, it was also impossible to force him out. This was truly a paradoxical situation that had no solution.

Just the Buddha Sovereign alone was ready so troublesome for them to deal with. Yue Changkong and Che Hou were still observing from the side. Che Hou has already proven his strength back then and Yue Changkong was someone that assimilated the power of two godkings. He would only be stronger. As of now, his true strength was still a mystery. No one knew for certain.

“I can stop time but if we want to kill him, I’m afraid that this is not enough. To kill him, we must seize the exact moment when he loses the connection of faith with the western world army and join forces to destroy the giant buddha before we can break his dao. This is possibly the only solution.” At this moment, Qin Wentian spoke, his voice ringing out in the minds of everyone. The eyes of the Grim Reaper flashed. That’s right, Qin Wentian was also proficient in the dao of time. His understanding of it now should be even deeper than before.

The idea proposed by Qin Wentian was feasible.

“Me and Senior Grim Reaper will be responsible for destroying the giant buddha.” Qin Yuanfeng spoke. Everyone nodded and turned their gazes forward. At the next moment, all the peak characters began to unleash their dao arts. For a time, the amount of power and pressure in the air was simply shocking to the extreme!

Chapter 2018: Pinnacle Battle

“Let’s act.” Qin Yuanfeng directly attacked after he spoke. This opponent was too powerful, one couldn’t feel any hesitation. Qin Wentian proposed a possible solution, they could try it out.

The Grim Reaper glanced at the Imperishable Heaven Lord and acted as well. For a time, death qi permeated the area as an incarnation of death appeared behind him. In an instant, countless seals of darkness manifested before him, these were all death seals and there were over a billion of them which flew forth and blasted into the giant buddha at the same time. If the giant buddha statue possess life, these death seals would instantly drain it of all vitality.

“BOOM!” When the billions of death seals slammed into the giant buddha, the golden buddha body turned pitch black, darkness devoured the golden light completely. Not only so, behind the giant buddha, the buddha lords and sacred buddhas of the western paradise also saw their bodies turning black. They looked about to be engulfed by the death seals.

Back then, the fame of the Grim Reaper spread throughout the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there was naturally no need to doubt his strength. If the aftershock of this attack was to come in contact with an ordinary deity, that deity would have already died umpteen times. He wouldn’t have any life force left.

“Kill!” The Grim Reaper shouted. Beiming Youhuang’s attacks also arrived. She unleashed her supreme dao that seemed equivalent in strength to a godking-level dao. The western world army abruptly halted once more as their souls were frozen, becoming ice statues again. The faith they provided also continued weakening.

The golden light radiating from the giant buddha wanted to counter-devour the death qi. However, because the faith energy dwindled, the giant buddha’s recovery rate also slowed.

“Time reversal.” His voice rang out once again in the air. Time was about to reverse but at this moment, Qin Wentian stood in the airspace above the western world army. His dao also extended out and enveloped the entire space as time intent within his body flowed outwards continuously. His flesh and blood and his dao bone flooded forth relentlessly as everything in this space crawled to a still. The giant buddha wanted time to reverse but he caused time to stop. This made the process of time reversal become extremely slow and gradually crawl to a halt.

Hua Taixu unleashed his heavenly dao illusion art. In the stilled spacetime, his dao entered the minds of the western world army, rousing many of them wake. Those people were no longer under the western world’s control. Their goal was to completely sever the connection between the western world army and the giant buddha before killing the giant buddha.

“Explode!” A shocking roar suddenly rang out. This voice belonged to the Grim Reaper. As the sound of his voice faded, the dao seals of death blasting into the giant buddha’s body abruptly exploded with unfathomable might. These death seals could actually draw the life force from the target’s body and continued to explode. For a time, death qi permeated the atmosphere. The body of the giant buddha turned completely dark, like a dead object.

Qin Yuanfeng, who had been constantly attacking, also arrived. Countless beams of light from the constellations bore down on him as a god sovereign's silhouette manifested behind him. He also transformed into a boundlessly large giant and punched out with the force of the six paths. Six beams of light directly penetrated the giant buddha body. The six beams of light transformed into six dragons that continued ravaging the blackened body of the giant buddha, wreaking destruction.

Cracks appeared on the buddha body, after that, the pieces were either devoured by the dragons in the sky, sent to another spacetime, or buried in samsara… the gigantic buddha body was crumbling bit by bit.

The moment the cracks widened, the attacks from the six dragons grew even more ferocious as they sought to destroy everything. They transformed into six supremely powerful grand daos that could devour everything in the sky. In addition to the constant explosion of the death seals, all the spectators only felt that they were witnessing the fall of a god. This scene was simply too shocking.

The giant buddha was simply too terrifying, many peak characters of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms had to join forces to defeat him. If they didn't join forces, most probably no one in this world would be a match for the giant buddha. Naturally, this buddha was only formed by the gathered faith of countless people in the western world army, its strength didn't belong to an individual as well. If it wasn't for the enemy peak experts being present, the giant buddha could surely do whatever he wanted as no one could stop him.

Shattered pieces of the buddha fell like meteors from the sky, it was unknown which part of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms they would land in. After a long time, others in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms inclined their heads and had shocked looks on their faces when they finally saw the falling pieces. Each piece contained the power from the dao of death and buddhic energy, they seemed like shattered parts of a giant divine weapon. Some of the pieces even caused the ground to be turn asunder from the impact of their landing. Only after a long time did they learn that these broken pieces were due to a great battle that occurred in the nine heavenly layers. These ordinary people had no way to imagine how terrifying that battle had been.

Naturally, all these were the aftermath. Back in the present, the giant buddha was in the midst of shattering. The six dragons became six beams of divine light that dove in and out from its body. Finally, the buddha shattered completely from the might of the force of six paths.

"Success!" The eyes of the experts from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect gleamed sharply. This battle hasn't been easy at all, the giant buddha was too powerful and almost invincible. Their side finally managed to shatter the giant buddha statue. This time around, that Godking of the Western World should be about to show himself, right?

"It's about time for us to act." A faint smile could be seen on Yue Changkong's face. He cast a glance at Che Hou. Che Hou nodded in agreement.

However, the heavenly deities from the various hegemonic powers around Yue Changkongal felt extremely uneasy. After personally witnessing the deity-level battle earlier, they all felt that given their current cultivation bases, they were clearly a few levels below in strength. They had long lost the rights to proclaim themselves as 'hegemonic powers' and have no qualifications to contend for the position of the ultimate king of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Even though they followed Yue Changkong, at most, they could only be cannon fodder.

Qin Wentian, Qin Yuanfeng, the Grim Reaper, in fact even Hua Taixu and Beiming Youhuang, any of them could easily destroy them all.

This deity-level battle might be a calamity for them.

Yue Changkong floated in the sky. He stretched out his hands and closed his eyes, appearing as though he was mesmerized.

“The grand banquet of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms has finally began.” An intoxicated voice rang out from his mouth. After that, boundless astral light from the constellations gathered on him. The stars in the sky seem to shift as a brilliant full moon appeared in the air. This moon was extremely large and its radiance outshone the starlight. In addition, this full moon continued to expand in size, gradually blotting out the constellations in the air.

Qin Wentian and the other inclined their heads, staring at the bleak, cold and desolate moon. This was a moon realm formed from Yue Changkong’s intent. After waiting for such a long time, Yue Changkong finally acted. He only acted after the giant buddha was destroyed. Clearly, he had also felt that the giant buddha from earlier was simply too powerful.

The power Yue Changkong was using belonged to that of the Moon God instead of his past life. His past life as Godking Gu, allowed him to devour Qin Dangtian and allowed him to merge the half of the Moon God’s inheritance that Qin Dangtian obtained with the other half he possessed, forming the complete dao of the Moon God.

The Moon God’s schemes laid in the Divine Mausoleum, he wanted to return after countless years. Qin Dangtian wasn’t able to control the power of the inheritance fully but Yue Changkong, depending on the dao Godking Gu was most proficient in, managed to combine the Moon God’s dao and integrate it with himself.

“The grand banquet of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the last frenzy. Is everyone prepared?” Yue Changkong drew in a deep breath. The moon light cascaded down, enveloping the boundlessly vast space under it. This world became a moon devouring world, there seemed to be a hazy film covering the sky.

A faint shadow seemed to be cast on the hearts of everyone. Qin Wentian knew he could no longer focus solely on attacking the buddhist cultivators from the western world. His figure flashed as he returned to Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng’s side. Yue Changkong was just too dangerous. He had experienced Yue Changkong’s Moon God Eyes once, it felt extremely terrifying. Once one was caught within, it was exceedingly difficult to extricate themselves from it. Now, Yue Changkong’s strength would only be stronger than before.

A genuine moon god seemed to appear in the sky. This figure stood behind the moon and was like the supreme god. The moon was simply one of his eyes. Moonlight was his gaze.

“Things are about to begin.” The figure standing behind the moon spoke in Yue Changkong’s voice, causing the hearts of everyone to tremble.

As the voice of Yue Changkong rang out, beams of moonlight cascaded down, flowing towards Qin Wentian as well as the heavenly deities of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect around him. These beams are purely light from the moon? There was no way to evade them.

Qin Wentian’s eyes changed, becoming terrifying to the extreme. Divine runes manifested around him, shrouding his surroundings. The runewords fused together, transforming into a barrier of light that blocked the moonlight. These caused the beams of moonlight to ricochet off upon contact.

The shining runes contained the power from the dao of sealing within.

Within the moon, numerous black figures resembling heavenly hounds were spawned, seeking to devour the moonlight. After that, Qin Wentian discovered that the heavenly hounds grew in size and power and began to lunge over, aiming for him, seemingly endless in number. Their goal was to break the barrier of runes. Upon impact, the heavenly hounds unleashed the power of devouring against the sealing energy, causing the protective barrier to be riddled with holes.

These heavenly hounds seemed capable of devouring the dao. Swift after, the barrier made from sealing runes began to crumble as the moonlight seeped through.

Qin Yuanfeng furrowed his brows as he glanced at Qin Wentian’s direction. Qin Wentian had to fight while caring for the safety of the people around him. He was completely restrained and it was very troublesome for him. His figure flashed as he flew towards the moon in the sky. Many of the heavenly hounds sensed his approach and lunged towards him. However, his surroundings were filled with the force of the six paths. These six great daos couldn’t be controlled by any other daos. The heavenly hounds that rushed him simply disintegrated into ashes. They had no way to block Qin Yuanfeng from flying into the air.

Those people in Qin Wentian’s surroundings who were being protected by him all felt somewhat depressed. No matter what, they were still heavenly deities yet they actually became burdens now?

In truth, this couldn’t be blamed on them being weak. Rather, it was because Yue Changkong was now someone with the power level of a godking and Qin Wentian was worried that his friends and loved ones would be killed, hence he acted to protect them. Although they were also heavenly deities, they wouldn’t be able to withstand any one of Yue Changkong’s attacks.

Yue Changkong was extremely evil. If he found an opportunity to do so, Qin Wentian believed that Yue Changkong would surely act against the people who were closest to him. If such a situation truly occurred, he would definitely regret it forever.

Chapter 2019: Appearance of a Godking

After Yue Changkong acted, Che Hou also began to move. When he saw Qin Yuanfeng soaring towards the full moon in the sky, his figure flashed as he moved at lightning speed, instantly appearing before Qin Yuanfeng to block him. He struck out with his finger and an instant later, divine weapons began to fall like rain from the sky, shooting straight for Qin Yuanfeng.

Qin Yuanfeng’s eyes were extremely cold. He lifted his fist and punched out, generating the grand dao of devouring that trapped the divine weapons into an alternate dimension.

“Where do you think you are going?” Che Hou coldly spoke. The area in the surroundings lit up resplendently as endless waves of divine weapons appeared. The killing might contained in one of them was already shocking to the extreme, let alone the millions of them hovering in the air. What sort of magnificent scene was this?

Most probably, only the boundlessly vast starry sky was suitable to be their battlefield. If they fought on ground level in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, endless lives would surely be snuffed out due to the aftershocks.

“Kill!” Che Hou pointed his finger at Qin Yuanfeng. The countless divine weapons unleashed their daos, powered by chaos. They contained endless might, if ordinary deities were to face off against this attack, they would die for sure. However, Qin Yuanfeng was incomparably calm. He unleashed a palm strike towards the sky. An instant later, the sky trembled, but soon returned to calm again.

In the very next moment, space and time in the area got distorted as the sun, stars and moon shifted position. The entire starry space seemed to be spinning. Even the direction of the countless divine weapons were changing, some flowing backwards while others were trapped inside other dimensions. Not a single one of them managed to hurt Qi Yuanfeng.

Che Hou’s expression grew incredibly cold when he saw this. He transformed into a divine weapon himself and shot through space, directly appearing before Qin Yuanfeng and engaging him in close combat. Most probably, no one in the world had a body that was as tough as him. His true form was the ultimate divine weapon that was formed after seizing good fortune from the heavens and earth.

Qin Yuanfeng counter-attacked, actually using his body of flesh and blood to clash directly against Che Hou. He infused the force of the six paths into his fists, making them indestructible and capable of supreme destruction. At the moment of their collision, even the sky was trembling. Cracks appeared in the surrounding space, the scene of this was terrifying to the extreme.

Yue Changkong glanced at the battle here before turning his gaze back to Qin Wentian. An evil smile appeared on his face, “Speaking of which, I truly should properly thank your father. He was the tomb keeper and I became the person who inherited everything in the Divine Mausoleum. In order to show my gratitude, I shall devour both of you, allowing you two to become a part of me. In this way, even if both of you die, you would still live on forever through me.”

“Yue Changkong, although you lived a second life, you also won’t be able to change your fate. In this war for supremacy, you will still be destroyed sooner or later.” Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at Yue Changkong. His eyes turned golden, becoming extremely terrifying. Yue Changkong stared straight at him, matching his gaze without fear. Qin Wentian could sense the power of the Moon God Eyes. It felt like he was falling through endless layers of illusions. However, Yue Changkong also felt the power of Qin Wentian’s eyes. He also entered a strange world where he and Qin Wentian seemed so close to each other, yet worlds apart. It felt like he was in a world where the rules of space and time were distorted.

“What world is this?” Yue Changkong smiled as he asked.

“A world with the spacetime formed from my intent. Those trapped here would never be able to exit. For the battle today, only one of us will survive.” Qin Wentian’s voice was cold. Yue Changkong smiled as he stared at Qin Wentian. “I thought that the power of my Moon God Eyes was unrivalled, I didn’t expect that when I matched gazes with you, I would actually enter a space of your creation. Buddhic energy is also integrated into this, right? As expected of I, Yue Changkong’s opponent. I’m growing more and more excited with anticipation. After devouring you, how much stronger would I become?”

As the sound of his voice faded, a moon god appeared in this world. The terrifying Moon God Eyes stared straight at Qin Wentian.

“The buddha path speaks of calmness and truth. Your illusions won’t be that effective on me.” Qin Wentian replied. If his cultivation base was weaker, he might be trapped in the illusions cast by the Moon God Eyes. But given his current power, he was able to resist against the power of the Moon God Eyes.

“The Moon God was once a godking of equal fame as me in my past life. How can his abilities be as simple as you imagine?” Yue Changkong coldly laughed. Beams of moonlight landed on Qin Wentian, wanting to extinguish all other daos. The holy light radiating from Qin Wentian weakened bit by bit. After that, numerous full moons in the sky cast their shadow down, wanting to envelop and devour Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian lifted his palms and counter attacked. In an instant, billions of strands of spacetime sword intent shot up, penetrating the moons. However, things weren’t concluded yet. The number of moons in the sky continued to increase in number, they seemed endless. The shadowy light casted down by those moons landed in Qin Wentian’s surrounding space. At this moment, the strands of spacetime sword intent in the air seemed to dull as they slowly dissipated.

“Dao extinguishing.” Qin Wentian mused silently. The complete power of the Moon God, other than being able to cascade moonlight down to envelop a boundlessly vast space to form a gigantic and immensely powerful illusion realm, it was about to cast its shadow to extinguish all daos in the world. The combination of these two abilities were what made the Moon God so powerful. A single glance from him could cause the entire world to sink into an illusion so strong that they believed that the illusion they were living in was reality.

As for the various sources of dao might radiating from Qin Wentian, under the shadowy dark glow of the moon, everything was extinguished. The area around him became an area where no daos were permitted to exist, there were no laws here. He activated his spacetime dao wanting to stop time but everything was useless. When the dark glow from the moon bore down on him, his spacetime dao was extinguished. It was like there were no daos this moonlight wasn't able to destroy.

However from the perspectives of the outside world, Qin Wentian and Yue Changkong who were intensely battling didn't move at all. They were standing still like statues and gazing directly at each other. However, the people around them all understood that the two of them must have entered a different dimension of sorts to battle. It was just that they weren't able to see it. Such a battle would surely be extremely terrifying.

"Let's attack his true body!" The experts from the various hegemonic powers around Yue Changkong spoke and flew straight towards Qin Wentian. As long as they disturbed Qin Wentian's body that was here in the external world, he would be affected negatively in the dimension where he was having the mental fight against Yue Changkong.

This battle was too dangerous. If any of them were the slightest bit careless, they would surely be buried here in the Heaven Vault. Hence, they hoped to be able to be victorious. If they could kill Qin Wentian, the controller of the Heaven Vault first, the others who resisted would then merely become a pile of loose sand with no foundation.

However, how could the people around Qin Wentian allow them to succeed? Earlier, all of them felt somewhat sheepish about needing Qin Wentian to protect them. Now that they could do something to help Qin Wentian, they naturally seized the chance and directly flew towards the attackers, wanting to kill these invaders. The person they wanted to kill most was none other than Yue Changkong. This man's evilness towered up into the sky. He was like the incarnation of sin itself. He had to die.

The armies of both sides clashed together. Jun Mengchen and Little Rascal were among the most powerful ones and they began to display their brilliance in the chaotic battle.

At the same time at the other battlefield, the Grim Reaper and Beiming Youhuang didn't dare to be careless. Although they joined forces and destroyed the giant buddha statue, the Buddha Sovereign has not revealed himself yet. He was undoubtedly an extremely dangerous existence.

Beiming Youhuang continued to use powerful soul attacks on the western world army, freezing their souls. Hua Taixu sought to awaken them. The Grim Reaper scrutinized the situation carefully. No one knew where the Buddha Sovereign was hiding. He had to be as cautious as possible.

"What's the point of all of you doing this?" A voice sighed, seemingly originating from the void. "The general situation is already fixed. For the sake of the multitude of lives in the world, my Buddhist Sect has to take over the Heaven Vault no matter what."

“What boastful words. If your Buddhist Sect is so powerful, why are you still sneaking around and hiding in the shadows? Since you don’t want to come out, I shall first exterminate all the cultivators from your western paradise.” The Grim Reaper coldly spoke as he turned his gaze towards those people leading the western army. With a wave of his hand, a palm of death manifested, directly grabbing the hearts of his targets. The ordinary buddha lords and sacred buddhas from the western world army felt their hearts lurching to a stop as they felt a sense of breathlessness.

“Die.” The Grim Reaper cast a glance over, spears of death shot out from his eyes, directly penetrating that person. After that, a loud boom rang out as that figure was directly destroyed, reduced to dust.

“Back then when you kill your way into the various hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, rivers of blood flowed and you were completely tainted by sin. Now, do you want to repeat the footsteps of your past?” The ethereal voice rang out once more. An extremely ordinary looking monk broke free of Hua Taixu and Beiming Youhuang’s control and walked out. The Grim Reaper simply cast another glance over and that figure fell lifelessly. It seemed effortless.

A third person walked out. It seemed that among the countless western wood army, anyone could be the Buddha Sovereign. He was everywhere and could truly control the lives of people under him.

The killing intent in the eyes of the Grim Reaper flickered terrifyingly. But he knew that unless he killed everyone in the western army, he would never be able to kill the other party.

“I also brought a few old friends here with me, allowing them to bear witness to everything.” The third figure slowly spoke. The sounds of buddhic chants filled the air and after that, the layers of frost on the buddha cultivators all melted away as they joined in the chant. A few moments later, an illusory figure gradually appeared, radiating with resplendent light, illuminating the surrounding space.

This figure was extremely gigantic in form, he blotted out the sky and was a gigantic beast that exuded a sense or incomparable wakefulness, like he was the king of all beasts.

He let out roars that shook the nine heavens. The starry space trembled, causing the deities who were fighting there to glance over. After that, Little Rascal seemed to have sensed something as well. He threw his head back and let out a howl as he began to fly towards this battlefield where the Grim Reaper was at, all the while staring at the gigantic beast in the air.

“Godking Desolate.” The illusory figure of the Imperishable Heaven Lord spoke. This giant beast was none other than a heaven devouring beast.

“How about it? Are you all surprised? Isn’t it good that you can meet with an old friend of yours?” The buddha cultivator below spoke. After that, beside Godking Desolate, motes of starlight brimming with terrifying devilish might gathered together, transforming into a fearsome storm of devil qi as another figure appeared within.

This figure grew increasingly corporeal and finally transformed into a giant figure whose body was completely black. The tyrannical aura in his eyes was incomparable. With a single glance, he seemed to be the master of this world. Everything in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms had to submit under his feet.

Chapter 2020: Buddha and Devil in One Body

This devil figure was just too terrifying, it was like the ultimate devil lord of the entire world. When he appeared, the expressions of many experts of the Heaven Vault froze. Yet another godking appeared. The devil lord of the eight ancient godkings actually also came out.

“Grand Devil Lord.” The Grim Reaper stared at that devilish figure. Among the eight godkings, there were buddhas, devils, demons and deities. The western world Buddha Sovereign and Grand Devil Lord were existences that had been in opposition against each other from the start. One was a buddha, the other a devil. However, at this moment, the Buddha Sovereign actually managed to summon the Grand Devil Lord? At the same time, he also summoned the heaven devouring demon god and he also joined forces with the vilest and most evil godking of all among the eight, Godking Gu.

Was he truly still a buddha?

In the hearts of all the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the western paradise could no longer be called a place of Buddhism. It would be more apt to call it a place for false buddhas.

Little Rascal rushed over. He was roaring at the giant beast in the sky. However, that giant heaven devouring beast simply coldly stared at him, causing Little Rascal to feel extremely miserable. He could sense that this giant beast was none other than his father.

“The Buddhist Sect has the Reincarnation Buddha who is proficient in the dao of reincarnation. This dao’s nature is evil, there’s no difference to seizing the bodies of others. As the Buddha Sovereign that’s proficient in all the arts and techniques of the buddha path, you actually seized the bodies of two great godkings. What a cruel method. Do you still have any face left to claim that you are a buddha? Back then, I didn’t agree with the philosophy of the western paradise because I’ve seen through all of these. The western paradise shouldn’t exist in this world. It would only serve to bring trouble to the people of the world.” Hua Taixu sighed. He has already awakened the memories of his past self and knew many things about the Buddhist Sect. Now that he personally saw the invasion of the western world army, he had completely seen through the true face of the western paradise clearly.

The so-called Buddha Sovereign was just a facade, his true nature was that of an evil devil.

“True buddhas would perform acts of kindness and deliver the world from sufferance. By performing acts of virtue and kindness, they would accumulate merit and convert those who have fallen onto the devil path. They wouldn’t plunder the faith of the people from the world, gathering it for their own purposes. For the sake of getting stronger, you didn’t mind sacrificing anything. And it was also precisely because of this that that current location in the west dared to name itself as the western paradise. The true holy ground of the western world buddhist sect in the past has been tainted by the secular world, which led to it becoming the current western paradise.” The Grim Reaper spoke.Hua Taixu nodded, feeling an intense obsession to destroy the current western paradise in his heart, allowing the western world to return back to its original path of goodness and kindness.

The Grand Demon Lord and Heaven Devouring Demon God coldly stared ahead, their eyes flickered with disdain. The devil might from Grand Devil Lord began to engulf the starry space, flowing towards the western world army at the back. In an instant, buddhas and devils interchanged. The army of buddhist cultivators all began to radiate devil intent. Their fates now seemed to be linked with the Grand Devil Lord.

“This is the usage of the dao of fate. He linked the fates of all these people with him. The Grand Devil Lord has now become a replacement body for the Buddha Sovereign.” Hua Taixu’s expression was extremely unsightly to behold. The Buddha Sovereign cultivates the dao of fate. He must have managed to subdue the Grand Devil Lord sometime back in the past and used it on him. Now, all of these were tyrannically being put on display.

The Grand Devil Lord glanced at Hua Taixu and grabbed out with his hand. At this instant, Hua Taixu only felt his fate being stripped, falling under the control of the Grand Devil Lord. Samsara light radiated from his body as he entered a cycle of samsara of his own creation. Only then did he manage to evade the fate attack.

“I didn’t expect your preparations to be so thorough for this battle.” The Grim Reaper sighed. He felt a little helpless. The Buddha Sovereign was too powerful. He had prepared for many years and he desired to take the Heaven Vault with a single battle before conquering the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. If it wasn’t for the fact that they had many powerful experts on their side, they would have long been defeated by the Buddha Sovereign.

“This is the fate decree by the heavens. The date where the ultimate king of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is crown already isn’t far away.” The Grand Devil Lord coldly spoke. His palm blasted towards the Grim Reaper. This palm attack seemed as though it didn’t contain any dao. However, that palm strike itself was the dao. The Grand Devil Lord was the overall hegemon of all devils. Once, all the devils in the world worshipped him, treating him as the legitimate source of all devil daos. He himself was the dao, the dao of devils.

This palm strike contained boundless law might that could suppress all dao arts. It directly slammed towards the Grim Reaper. At this moment, a gigantic divinity appeared behind the Grim Reaper. The god of death, its gigantic body was filled with countless death seals which blasted out ferociously, fusing together as one in his palm as he slammed it out towards the Grand Devil Lord.

Their palms collided at the same instant. The power of the fused death seals erupted forth at the same instant, causing a stretch of death qi to engulf everything. Yet, the devil palm imprint wasn’t weakened at all. Boundless law might contained within the devil palm strike continued to destroy the power of the death seals. After that, a surge of power that could destroy everything rushed into the Grim Reaper’s body, causing him to groan in pain as he retreated with explosive speed. Within his body, explosions occurred unceasingly, creating bloody holes. It was extremely terrifying. If it wasn’t for his cultivation base being high enough, he would have already died.

The giant body of the Grand Devil Lord continued standing there imposingly, exuding a towering might like he was an eternal existence. Behind him, many figures were directly enveloped by the death qi and fell onto the ground. Most probably, there were over tens of thousands of his followers who died under the death seals of the Grim Reaper, as well as the aftershocks from the Grand Devil Lord’s attack.

Their fates were controlled by the Grand Devil Lord, linked together with him.

“It’s useless. Things are the same as before. Unless we kill this entire army, we won’t be able to kill him.” Hua Taixu appeared, staring at the Grand Devil Lord. This was truly an evil devil, it was more like the true face of the Buddha Sovereign. He didn’t mind using the multitude of lives in the world to achieve his aim.

The attacks from the Grim Reaper should have landed on him but the power of the attack was shifted to the western world army behind him, causing tens of thousands of experts in the western army to die. The stronger the grim reaper’s attacks were, the more casualties there would be.

In another battlefield, Little Rascal’s body rushed towards Godking Desolate. The heaven devouring demon god stared at him. After that, he swiped out with sharp claws, wanting to grab Little Rascal.

“Father!” Little Rascal called out.

“Careful, that is no longer your father!” Hua Taixu shouted. The gigantic claw already arrived above Little Rascal. In the next moment, a terrifying devouring vortex appeared, directly aimed at Little Rascal’s gigantic body, wanting to swallow him into the black hole.

“ROAR!” Little Rascal let out earth-shattering roars. His body was enveloped by the vortex and he was slowly being pulled in. He was incomparably disappointed as his heart was like dead ashes. Tears flowed from his eyes, his gaze was icy cold as he kept howling. His body continued to expand but no matter how large he became, that devouring vortex that seemed like a black hole was still pulling him in.

The fur on Little Rascal’s body was like divine weapons, incomparably sharp. They directly shot out from his body, blasting into the black hole. However, these strands of fur that could penetrate anything actually disappeared silently into the black hole. Godking Desolate was known as the Heaven Devouring Godking, he could even devour the heavenly daos and everything in the world. There was naturally no problem for him to devour strands of fur that were akin to divine weapons.

At this moment, a figure flashed by, appearing before Godking Desolate. Beiming Youhuang, as well as the illusory figure of the Imperishable Heaven Lord, rushed over to help. The Imperishable heaven Lord began to manifest imperishable divine diagrams that contained the profound secrets of heaven and earth. These diagrams were formed from the countless years of comprehension of the Imperishable Heaven Lord. She transformed them into dao diagrams which formed part of her illusory body.

These diagrams were formed from the combination of countless points of starlight. Each point of light also seemed to be like an independent divine inscription. At this moment, these countless points of starlight flowed towards Beiming Youhuang. When she lifted her jade-like hand and pointed it at Godking Desolate, the diagrams fused together becoming one and there seemed to be an exact same dao diagram reflected on Godking Desolate’s body. At this moment, the structure of this body was incomparably clear to her. The countless points of starlight clearly pinpointed every part of Godking Desolate’s body.

Beiming Youhuang waved her hand. At this moment, time seemed to stop. An illusory figure was peeled from the gigantic body. At the same time, the dao diagram began to frenziedly destroy the gigantic body of Godking Desolate.

Godking Desolate couldn't care too much about Little Rascal. He smacked his paw and sent Little Rascal flying while roaring in rage. The dao diagram vanished bit by bit, devoured by the laws of devouring that radiated from his body. Beiming Youhuang also didn't expect that a single attack from her could kill a godking of the past. She instantly retreated and returned to her original position as she cast a glance at Little Rascal.

"Have you seen clearly? This is no longer the soul of your father." Beiming Youhuang's voice rang out. Earlier, the soul of the giant beast was peeled away. That soul which should be the soul of a giant beast was actually a human-shaped figure. Clearly, Godking Desolate has already died, his body was now just a puppet used by the Buddha Sovereign.

Large drops of tears flowed from Little Rascal's eyes, he naturally saw it. This giant beast that has the exact same appearance as him was controlled by the soul of another person. This was no longer his father!

"After you died, you actually managed to seal a portion of your energy and used the hand of others to release it. The Imperishable Heaven Lord is as expected of the true supreme lord of Ancient Azure Mystic, worshipped by people of the world. I don't feel regret being injured by you in the past." At this moment, the Grand Devil Lord spoke. Godking Desolate and the Grand Devil Lord were both ancient godkings but the Grand Devil Lord seemed to be directly possessed by the Buddha Sovereign. He could even unleash the power of fate-related dao arts and was evidently stronger compared to the heaven devouring demon godking. After all, Godking Desolate was now nothing but a puppet and he still had the support of energy reinforcement by the western world army behind him.

"But today, there will no longer be anyone who can stop me." The Grand Devil Lord coldly spoke. After that, pairs of arms manifested. The Grand Devil Lord suddenly had a total of three heads and six arms, causing people to feel that they were fighting against three Grand Devil Lords. He then began to attack, the devil palm strike covered the sky, blasting towards the Grim Reaper while the Imperishable Heaven Lord and Hua Taixu stepped out, trying to defend.

Time seemed to stop at this moment, the starry space fell silent. The Grand Devil Lord used the dao of spacetime wanting to still the time here. Only his devil palm strike can exist.

Behind him, the experts in the western world army all transformed into devil cultivators. Ancient devil rune words manifested around them, flowing towards the Grand Devil Lord, augmenting his strength. This caused the Grand Devil Lord to have countless devil rune words revolving around him. These rune words felt as though they were capable of suppressing everything in the world, making the Grand Devil Lord an invincible existence.

Beiming Youhuang's soft and supple palm slammed out. The diagram which manifested before her palm was an imperishable star diagram, there seemed to be a stretch of starry space layered before her palm, helping her to defend against the devil palm strike. The countless devil rune words slammed into the imperishable star diagram, causing the starry space to crack apart. From within the starry space, a beam of light that could destroy everything manifested, shooting through the boundless space!

Chapter 2021: Giving One’s Life for the Dao

When the Grand Devil Lord attacked Beiming Youhuang, its six arms also simultaneously launched attacks at the Grim Reaper and Hua Taixu. Its devil palm imprints contained boundless might. Devil runes revolved around it, causing the might within the devil palm imprints to stack endlessly.

The Grim Reaper manifested an extremely powerful death spirit to block it. His body trembled violently from the impact again as more bloody holes opened up. Hua Taixu stabbed out with his samsara spear arts, his spear contained boundless samsara might, wanting to swallow the devil palm imprints into a cycle. However, that endlessly stacking devil might actually sundered the cycle of samsara. Hua Taixu’s body shuddered as he coughed out a mouthful of fresh blood that dyed his robes red.

But even so, his gaze was still as sharp as ever, he cast a glance at the people behind the Grand Devil Lord while sighing in his heart. If these lives weren’t destroyed, they would never have a chance to defeat the Grand Devil Lord.

In truth, many people died during this clash. They took on the brunt of the damage on behalf of the Grand Devil Lord. Roughly a million experts of the western world army were turned to ashes. The scene of this was simply cruel, causing him to feel sorrow in his heart. However, the Grand Devil Lord had no emotions on his face. As long as he could kill these people obstructing him and take over the Heaven Vault, he wouldn’t mind even if the entire western world army was sacrificed. What he wanted, was the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to be under his control.

“Youhuang, do it. Show no mercy.” The Imperishable Heaven Lord spoke. Beiming Youhuang trembled. She felt some reluctance, does she really have to take so many lives? If that’s the case, would there be any difference between her and the evil devil before her eyes?

However, if she didn’t kill these people, they would have no way to defeat the Grand Devil Lord. She and her friends would all have to die. Not only them, but all the innocent people in the Heaven Vault would also die as well.

Hence, Beiming Youhuang had a look of agony on her face. She was struggling. Such emotions truly caused her to feel pain and agony. This wasn’t simply killing one or two people. It was about killing an entire army.

“ROAR!” At this moment, the heaven devouring godking let out a roar, reminding them that there’s still another godking-level existence around.

“Youhuang, if you don’t kill them, there would only be more deaths.” The Grim Reaper spoke. “All of them are already under the Grand Devil Lord’s control, becoming his puppets. Their lives no longer hold any meaning. Their fate is already decided.”

The Grand Devil Lord chanted devil scriptures, numerous devil lords descended from the sky, all of them had devil runes revolving around them as they radiated a blinding light. They wanted to lock down this starry space. Those devil runes and devil light fused together becoming a devil god barrier, wanting to trap everything within here.

On the devil god wall, the devil runes transformed into waves of extreme power that flowed out, aiming for the three experts. At the same time, those devil lords also unleashed devilish punches, and the devil cultivators also attacked together. The might of their combined attacks could even shatter stars.

The dao diagram before Beiming Youhuang shone resplendently, seemingly imperishable regardless of how much devil energy was blasted at it. The diagrams could easily neutralize the devil might. However, each blast of attack would cause the dao diagrams to tremble. The crazy old freak summoned millions of death seals to counter-attack, the collision made the entire space tremble as explosions occurred unceasingly. Hua Taixu’s spear danced about, the samsara light he generated also swallowed up some of the enemy attacks.

At this moment, the devil lords in the air let out howls of madness. The sound they produced could shatter everything and caused the souls of the three experts to tremble. At the same time in another direction, the heaven devouring godking flew towards the Grim Reaper, preparing to finish him off first. Yet, Little Rascal blocked his way. The two of them looked extremely similar, their baleful eyes flickered with a blood-red light.

“You want to fight against your father?” The Grand Devil Lord laughed coldly. After that, the heaven devouring godking stretched out his claw and directly caused Little Rascal’s gigantic body to be enveloped by boundless devouring light. His surroundings transformed into devouring vortices. The heaven devouring godking took a deep breath, everything in the surrounding space was about to be devoured by him.

When Beiming Youhuang saw this, an icy look flashed in her eyes. Her soul power covered the boundless starry space, boring down on the western world army.

“Kill!” She closed her eyes, her voice was filled with agony. A moment later, countless experts only felt their souls being shredded. She no longer froze them, choosing to directly destroy their souls. The faces of experts from the western world army all turned ashen, their gazes turned vacant and they fell from the air a moment later.

More and more experts from the western world army died unceasingly. Tears flowed from Beiming Youhuang eyes. She had no choice but to conduct a massacre here today.

The expression of the Grand Devil Lord froze when he saw this. He then punched out towards Beiming Youhuang, causing her to be unable to focus on the western world army while his eyes flickered with a cold smile.

Boundless devil might from his fists blasted into the dao diagram before Beiming Youhuang. At this moment, the devil might continue to explode unceasingly. The waves of pressure that emanated forth seemed endless, finally causing the light from the dao diagram to fade away bit by bit.

Behind the Grand Devil Lord, the devil runes from the army fused into his fists, intent on breaking through Beiming Youhuang's defense.

Hua Taixu glanced at the battlefield here and turned to the western world army. Determination flared in his eyes. A true buddha was a merciful and benevolent one, they would deliver the people of the world from suffering, helping them to avoid calamities.

Buddhism has a famous phrase: If I don't enter hell, who would?

Hua Taixu pressed his palms together as golden light radiated from him. His body slowly transformed into a buddhic golden body. His aura became more outstanding and although he has long hair, he looked like a true buddha now, flawlessly holy and pure. His long hair fluttered in the wind as he thought back to his experience in his two lives.

During his first life, he cultivated the buddha path, gaining insights into samsara. But after that, he doubted his cultivation, the western paradise didn't seem to be as pure and holy as he once thought it was. He began to doubt his dao, to doubt the buddhas of the western paradise and decided to rebel, leaving there to seek answers. He didn't hesitate to cast aside his life to enter the cycle of samsara for a second chance.

In this life, he no longer cultivated the buddha dao but he still chose to cultivate samsara energy. He gained insights in the mortal world, experiencing the suffering there while also experiencing the emotions of the mortal world. From the Myriad Incarnations Immortal King, he felt true love, and that was the spark that awakened his past life's memory.

Through these two lives, he could be considered to have fully comprehended the true meaning of samsara, allowing him to see the true nature of the buddha dao. The buddhist cultivators in the western paradise, could they truly be considered buddhas? No, they weren't, Buddhas were everywhere, one could be a buddha as long as one performed acts of kindness. Buddhas should impart virtue and benevolence, they should truly do good instead of sitting in some sacred hall and preaching empty words.

Buddha was in one's heart, one doesn't need to cultivate the buddha dao to be one.

The golden light increased in radiance, illuminating the surrounding space. This was true buddhic golden light. Buddhic chants echoed in the air as numerous buddha figures appeared. This space suddenly manifested a stretch of astral river. This astral river was completely golden in color, containing the power of samsara.

The Grim Reaper and Beiming Youhuang's eyes flashed as they stared in that direction. Even the Grand Devil Lord started. He glanced over at Hua Taixu only to see Hua Taixu's figure becoming more and more illusory, like he was burning his body and soul. Gradually, his body completely vanished, dispersing into dust. It was the same for his soul as well. A sarira of samsara appeared in the starry space, it directly floated into the samsara river and at this moment, the samsara river began to form a true great dao cycle of samsara.

“Impudent!” The Grand Devil Lord roared in rage. He naturally knew what Hua Taixu wanted to do. Golden light rained down from the samsara river, covering everything, including the western world army. The samsara river engulfed everything and at the moment when all the experts were enveloped by the samsara intent, their souls drifted into the river, melding into it.

“Time reversal!” The Grand Devil Lord roared in anger. Time reversed, but the samsara light merely faded away a little. This was a cycle of samsara formed from the true great dao, the dao of time wasn’t able to control it.

Gradually, as the samsara river continued to rain down its water, the souls of countless experts melded into it as their bodies slumped down lifelessly. All of them died, but their souls had entered the cycle of samsara.

“He can actually unleash a dao that surpassed his own capabilities.” The Grim Reaper felt shock as he observed the situation.

“He gave up on his body and soul, transforming them into the true cycle of samsara, sacrificing himself to deliver the people of the world from suffering. He has transformed, his newly-found insights caused his dao to transform as well.” The Imperishable Heaven Lord spoke.

“Compared to those bald donkeys, he is more like a true buddha, willing to sacrifice himself to protect the lives of everyone.” The Grim Reaper sighed. Hua Taixu sacrificed himself for his dao, turning himself into the samsara cycle. Although the western world army seemed to have died, they didn’t die for real. Their souls entered samsara and they would have a chance to be reborn and live again. This was already the best solution. If not, their lives would always be controlled by the Buddha Sovereign and they would be used as tools, sacrificing their lives for nothing but the ambition of the Buddha Sovereign.

“He cultivated for two lifetimes. During his first life, he was on the buddha path. Now that he sacrificed himself for the greater good, it can be considered a virtuous achievement to him.” The Grim Reaper tried to console everyone. He then glanced at the Grand Devil Lord. “Don’t the buddhas of the western paradise feel ashamed of your own inferiority?”

There were still some people behind the Grand Devil Lord that haven’t died. These were heavenly deities from the western paradise. They wouldn’t die so easily.

But at this moment, their expressions were all extremely ugly. In his past life, Hua Taixu was the Samsara Buddha, and this life, he actually spoiled the plans of the Buddha Sovereign, using the cycle of samsara to deliver the masses!

Chapter 2022: Dusk of Gods

Hua Taixu used the cycle of samsara to save countless lives, allowing them to have a chance to cultivate again in the next life. He spoiled the grand plans of the Buddha Sovereign. The faith of countless people in the western world army was used by the Grand Devil Lord as he battled, granting him immense might, allowing him to hold his own against three.

But now since the majority of them entered samsara, the strength of the Grand Devil Lord was greatly reduced. He was left with his original strength.

The Buddhist Sect traveled east. Why did the Buddha Sovereign bring the Buddhist Sect with him to fight the Heaven Vault? Obviously, he wanted to use the faith they provided, converting it into his strength. Sadly, all of his plans were spoiled by an ex-buddha lord of the western paradise.

Buddhism speaks of karma, wasn't this a karma of sorts?

“Imperishable. Back then, your soul was extremely powerful, so powerful that it was rare even among the godkings of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. You heavily injured my soul, causing me to spend countless years in recuperation. Today, you brought your successor here and passed all your energy to her and I've also returned again. Now, without the support of the western world army, I can experience again how powerful your soul attack is.” The Grand Devil Lord spoke. It was like the Grand Devil Lord was an avatar of the Buddhist Sovereign, both buddha and devil was one. The Buddha Sovereign was a devil as well as a buddha.

Beiming Youhuang and the Imperishable Heaven Lord stared at the Grand Devil Lord. After that, the Grand Devil Lord simply looked at them. Time seemed to crawl to a stop. There was a devil lotus of darkness blooming in the eyes of the Grand Devil Lord. This devil lotus was pitch black, it exuded a sense of pure evil like it originated from hell and directly took root in Beiming Youhuang's soul. In the next instant, Beiming Youhuang could sense a black lotus growing in her soul, wanting to devilize her soul before devouring it.

Beiming Youhuang's soul erupted with an incomparably holy light, shining resplendently, resisting the corrosion of the devil lotus of darkness. Her tyrannical soul also launched an attack at the same time against the Grand Devil Lord. In an instant, the soul of the Grand Devil Lord trembled from the frost, there was also a supreme destructive energy that could destroy everything born inside it.

Two powerful existences were fighting using their souls. This combat was much more dangerous compared to physical combat. Once a soul was injured past a certain extent, the soul would simply disperse. If the damage was severe, their souls wouldn't be able to recover within a short period of time. Both of them entered a wondrous stage, there were only each other in their eyes, they didn't have the time to focus on anything else.

“ROAR!” A heaven-shaking howl rang out. The heaven devouring godking moved towards Little Rascal, wanting to devour him. The Grim Reaper's figure flashed as he moved towards the battlefield, blocking the heaven devouring godking’s attack. He called out to Little Rascal, “You won’t be able to affect anything in this battlefield, why don’t you go help out in the other battlefields?”

Little Rascal gave a low roar. After that, he turned and flew towards the battlefield Qin Wentian was in. Over there, other than Qin Wentian and Yue Changkong fighting with each other, the other deities on each side were clashing madly too.

“Let’s head there as well.” The buddha lords and sacred buddhas of the western paradise who had survived earlier also began to rush there. In this place, there were clashes between four godking-level experts, they had no way to interfere. Since this is the case, they should try to kill or capture the experts from the Heaven Vault for now and cause Qin Wentian’s heart to be disturbed. They could also use the captives to threaten Qin Wentian.

In that battlefield, the experts from the hegemonic powers that have submitted to Yue Changkong were actually at an absolute disadvantage, they were ruthlessly being suppressed. Although they didn’t lose out in terms of numbers, the Heaven Vault has also produced a large number of deities during these years and among these deities, there were quite a few that were extremely powerful.

For example, Jun Mengchen. Although there was still a distance between him and a godking, he was already exceedingly powerful for a heavenly deity. His physical body was like an entire world and he wielded world force from the dao of the world. His simple-looking attacks contained immense force. All deities who blocked him were killed with no exceptions.

Although the battles haven’t been fought for a long time, there were already several deities who died to his hand.

And at this moment, when Jun Mengchen saw Hua Taixu dying on another battlefield, his aura became even more berserk as his killing intent engulfed the starry space.

Qin Wentian, him, Nanfeng Yunxi and Hua Taixu were comrades who experienced life-and-death situations numerous times before in the past. Back then when they first entered the City of Ancient Emperors, they already fought together. Although Hua Taixu was a man of few words and out of everyone, his relationship with Hua Taixu was the shallowest, he was actually in deep admiration of Hua Taixu. Hua Taixu was someone clear of grudges and gratitudes, someone that was able to see the big picture. According to his Senior Brother Qin, back then when Qin Wentian hunted his younger brother Hua Taixu managed to resolve everything with Qin Wentian, able to overlook the past because he knew that back then, his younger brother was the one who was in the wrong.

Back then, if that case was a small family matter, the case now involved the multitude of lives. In order to save the people of the world, he was willing to sacrifice himself, transforming into the cycle of samsara, allowing the souls of those people who were exploited by the Buddha Sovereign to have a chance to be reborn again. What courage and conviction must one have to do this? How could anyone not be impressed and admire Hua Taixu?

“Die!” Jun Mengchen punched out with another fist, aiming for the Prison God Clan Leader’s body. The Prison God Clan Leader controlled his dao of space to counter-attack. The layers of space were easily sliced apart by him, the crescent blade in his hands was something formed by the laws of space. His eyes shone with hatred, wanting nothing more than to tear Jun Mengchen into pieces.

Jun Mengchen's fist slammed into that supremely powerful spatial crescent blade. That blade could even slash apart space but it was still broken by the force of Jun Mengchen's punches. A terrifying light radiated from Jun Mengchen fist, each of his punches had the force of the explosion of a world. The spatial blade couldn't withstand the force and shattered into pieces, unleashing a spatial storm in the process.

Upon seeing the mighty fists aiming for him, the Prison God Clan Leader warped space, wanting to flee.

"This is my world." Jun Mengchen coldly spoke. The light from the dao of world enveloped the surrounding space and when the Prison God Clan Leader tried to flee, he slammed into the barrier of the world. Although space was distorted by him, he wasn't able to escape this world.

"Go to hell!" Jun Mengchen roared angrily as he punched out. Explosions occurred unceasingly within the world, causing the sky and earth to shatter. Destructive might swept over everything, enveloping the Prison God Clan Leader. When he saw the destructive might flowing over, he could feel that today would be his doomsday. He was the leader of a hegemonic power that ruled over an entire area, someone who stood at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. But today, he would be killed by a junior.

This world finally belonged to the people of the later generations. The battle in the Heaven Vault this time around caused him to feel that these juniors have already risen up to his level. He and his peers were surpassed and left behind. This was fate.

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms seemed to be undergoing a cycle of samsara.

The world then exploded, the Prison God Clan Leader was buried within, a leader of a generation died just like that.

This scene caused the other experts from the hegemonic powers to feel a chill in their hearts. They came here to conquer the Heaven Vault but what awaited them was their doomsday.

In truth, in the previous battle when they invaded, it was their best opportunity. Sadly, Qin Yuanfeng arrived in time and spoiled their plans and the western paradise also failed to keep Qin Wentian imprisoned. Hence, that led to the second battle over the Heaven Vault today. This time around, the Heaven Vault was much stronger compared to before.

Jun Mengchen, Luoshen Qianxue, Qin Kexin, the old Qiankun Sect Leader, which of them weren't extremely powerful existences? Even for Luoshen Chuan and the demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain, as well as Qin Wentian's subordinates like Qi Yu and the others, all of them have become extremely powerful. All these factors led to the hegemonic powers being suppressed.

But at this moment, the experts of western paradise arrived. The western paradise had always been the strongest hegemonic power in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They had the most number of deities and could dominate any hegemonic power. In an instant, the morale of the experts from the hegemonic powers surged when they saw their allies. They grew increasingly berserk in battle, wanting to slaughter a bloody path out.

“Is there any use?” Jun Mengchen’s eyes were cold. He stepped out, directly flying towards the camp of experts from the western paradise. A powerful pressure gushed forth from him, he was still a distance away from godkings but how could he not be powerful enough to deal with heavenly deities? He definitely wouldn’t allow his senior brother to be distracted in this battle. The experts of the Heaven Vault would naturally make sure to kill all these enemies.

Little Rascal also rushed over quickly, he was brimming with killing intent as he also rushed into the camp of deities from the western paradise. His father died in the hands of the Buddha Sovereign. He wanted revenge. Since he couldn’t kill the Buddha Sovereign, he shall redirect his hatred onto these bald donkeys.

The buddhas of the western paradise radiated buddhic light as their bodies turned golden. Jun Mengchen and Little Rascal’s powerful attacks were actually blocked by the golden light. At this moment, Qi Yu also rushed over. Battle runes floated in the sky as his battle intent surged. His eyes were filled with coldness when he stared at these bald donkeys. Everyone hated the western paradise, the hatred they felt for the western paradise even exceeded their hatred of Yue Changkong.

Yue Changkong’s evil was displayed out in the open, he didn’t mask it. He was evil incarnate, he was the devil. However, the western paradise was nothing but a filthy hypocrite, hiding behind the facade of kindness yet doing evil deeds in the dark. They spoke about virtue and benevolence yet the Buddhist Sovereign kidnapped countless lives, making them a part of the western world army with the buddha lords and sacred buddhas to lead them. The western paradise was then the greatest evil in the world. Their sins towered up into the sky and they had lost all humanity.

“Capture the two of them.” A heavenly deity pointed to Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng, knowing that they were his wives. Now that they were in a disadvantageous position in the battle, they might be able to overturn the situation if they managed to capture Qin Wentian’s wives.

Instantly, numerous deities rushed towards Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng. Qing`er’s gaze flickered with frost, her body flashed as golden light radiated forth. The space around her began to distort. Those deities that rushed towards her and Mo Qingcheng were torn into countless pieces by the distorting space.

White-haired killing goddess! As expected of her title.

In another direction, Qin Wentian and Yue Changkong were still in their mental battle. Their bodies quietly stood there unmoving, yet in the world of intent, their battle was extremely intense. At this moment, the full moon unleashed a dao extermination divine glow that could destroy all daos in the world. Qin Wentian slashed out billions of strands of sword intent to counter but his sword intent and spacetime dao were being extinguished by Yue Changkong.

This power once belonged to the Moon God Godking. But now, it was unleashing its might in Yue Changkong’s hand.

“The dao of the Moon God can extinguish all daos in the world.” Yue Changkong coldly laughed. The defenses before Qin Wentian were being torn apart layer by layer yet Qin Wentian was as calm as ever.

He inclined his head and looked up at the sky, “The myriad of things in the world would either engender or counteract one another. This is the same principle for daos as well. There’s no such thing as an invincible dao in the world.” Qin Wentian slowly spoke. He stared at the starry sky and there were some constellations that seemed to sense his gaze. Those constellations began to glow with a resplendent light that enveloped the full moon.

“Sealing heavenly dao.” Qin Wentian spoke. The full moon in the sky now dimmed, like there was a shadow cast on it.

Chapter 2023: All Evil in the World

Sealing heavenly dao, sealing the might generated from the heavenly dao. By borrowing the power of constellations, Qin Wentian directly unleashed a grand sealing art, causing a shadow to be cast on the full moon in the sky. After that, the light of the moon began to dim as its power was sealed bit by bit.

Yue Changkong inclined his head and stared at the sky as a strange light gleamed in his eyes. He didn’t expect Qin Wentian’s daos to be so powerful to this extent, allowing him to directly depend on the constellations to unleash the heavenly dao seal, sealing away his Moon God Eyes. This art engulfed the entire starry space, it was something only a godking would be capable of.

“I didn’t expect that the first opponent I encountered in this world would be my greatest enemy.” Yue Changkong coldly spoke. Qin Wentian was the greatest enemy he encountered in this lifetime. All his enemies couldn’t be considered anything. Only Qin Wentian had managed to humiliate him again and again. After that, when he awakened his past life’s memories, he initially thought that Qin Wentian would no longer be his match. Yet, the truth showed that Qin Wentian was still his greatest enemy.

“Yue Changkong, you’ve committed too much evil in your life, your sins towered up into heaven. The cycle of karma of the heavenly dao wouldn’t spare you.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

“Heavenly dao? Haha.” Yue Changkong laughed uproariously. “Ridiculous, the heavenly daos are merely things for us to control. What is the thing that cultivators are pursuing? It’s naturally to control and dominate the heavenly dao. Everything in the world should be tools for us to use, why would we fear karma? The battle today would be the ultimate final battle of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to set the situation. After I conquer the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and become the Monarch of Supreme Ancient, wouldn’t I be the incarnation of the heavenly dao then? Everyone in the world would worship me. At that time, what sins would there be?”

“I can’t be bothered to play with you slowly. It’s meaningless to fight a battle of intent. Since you have the power of a godking, let us fly into the nine heavenly layers and have a real battle.” Yue Changkong spoke. His eyes turned even more terrifying, piercing through Qin Wentian’s gaze, breaking apart this world of intent. After that, his body soared into the air, flying towards the nine heavenly layers.

Qin Wentian glanced at Yue Changkong. His divine sense surveyed the battles in the surroundings before he also soared into the air, chasing after Yue Changkong. Since Yue Changkong wanted to fight him, he would accept it. If Yue Changkong remained here, he would be a great threat to the people around him. Now, Jun Mengchen and the others enjoyed an advantage in the battle. His father Qin Yuanfeng could also contain Che Hou. In that case, his present goal should be to kill Yue Changkong. For battles between godkings, one of the godkings has to die first before the situation could be resolved.

The two of them transformed into two beams of light and flew upwards. In the starry space, many people in the floating palaces stared at the two beams of light as they silently prayed for Qin Wentian’s victory.

The battle today would decide whether they lived or died, as well as the fate of the future Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

The two beams of light arrived at the nine heavenly layers, countless constellations shimmered in the starry space, the two of them were separated by a vast distance as they stared at each other. Yue Changkong's body suddenly expanded as he turned into a giant. It was like he himself was a constellation.

Behind Yue Changkong, a constellation appeared. This constellation was one of extreme evil and was in the form of an evil and malevolent head. A terrifying aura belonging to the evil attribute permeated the area.

Yue Changkong released his astral soul and fused as one with his constellation. This constellation was like an incarnation of his strength.

He then drew in a deep breath, and in an instant, countless heads appeared in the starry space. The surrounding constellations were drawn over by that giant head as it began to absorb their power.

Qin Wentian also stood before a constellation. In his sea of consciousness, his astral gates in his mind were like a stretch of starry space. The light from countless constellations flowed towards him and he was bathed in starlight. At this moment, an incomparably holy aura radiated from him. It was like he was a true god, unexcelled in the world.

"The dao of the Moon God has already become a part of me. Enjoy this well." Yue Changkong spoke. After that, the numerous heads began to shoot out beams of light that wanted to bury the heavens. The beams of light contained the dao of destruction, capable of shattering everything, all of them were targeted at Qin Wentian.

When Qin Wentian saw the boundless destructive might flowing towards him, a solemn gigantic figure appeared behind him. This figure was a buddha. In an instant, all the buddha-attribute constellations in the air cast their light over. Qin Wentian seemed to transform into a buddha, gaining a golden invulnerable body that shone with treasured light. When all the destructive beams slammed into him, they had no way to break the golden body.

Yue Changkong was an evil cultivator that cultivates in the evil arts. Using the buddha-attributed daos was the most suitable to counter him. Hence, Qin Wentian decided on this.

"Your golden body isn't bad. But how long can you endure?" Yue Changkong coldly laughed. The surrounding constellations started to tremble as beams of dao-extinguishing light shot out next. The golden body produced a clear tingling sound as cracks began to appear. The invulnerable golden body still suffered some damage ultimately.

At the same time when Yue Changkong attacked, some of the evil-attributed constellations in the starry space began to manifest terrifying evil devils. Their eyes pierced through space and locked onto Qin Wentian, affecting his mind. Qin Wentian suddenly saw many terrifying scenes. Down below, his people have lost the battle, Beiming Youhuang was killed by the Grand Devil Lord and after that, the Grand Devil Lord led the buddhas of the western paradise to kill all his loved ones.

He saw the women he loved most in front of his eyes. Qing`er, Qingcheng and Ye Qianyu were all covered in blood, begging him to save them. Qin Wentian involuntarily felt his mind wavering as his body trembled.

“What evil methods.” Qin Wentian knew that this wasn’t the truth. Although the scenes were extremely realistic, everything was just illusions aimed at wavering his heart. The buddha dao could suppress evil. His golden body began to radiate boundless holy light filled with the law of purification to purify the evil in the world. The thoughts in his mind formed by Yue Changkong’s evil intent were wiped out as well, revealing the truth. He could see countless devils attempting to feast on his fears.

In the air, the buddha-attributed constellations cast their light over, purifying all evil in the world. Yue Changkong saw that Qin Wentian’s defense was impenetrable by evil, causing the coldness in his eyes to grow colder. Many of the evil-attributed constellations also cast their light towards him as numerous devils were formed. In the surroundings, many giant heads with bloody maws appeared, wanting to swallow all the constellations in the sky.

These heads continued to expand, locking down the entire space. After that, they actually moved towards Qin Wentian, like they wanted to eat up all the constellations there. This scene was simply terrifying. These devil heads were even larger than constellations and they wanted to devour everything, including Qin Wentian.

The buddha figure behind Qin Wentian was as sturdy as ever. He closed his eyes, calmly allowing the devil heads to devour everything. His surrounding space became dim, he was then swallowed into the boundless darkness where numerous forms of evil flowed about, wanting to corrode his golden body.

However, the buddhic light from him grew increasingly resplendent as the golden body expanded in size even more, wanting to break free from the darkness.

Countless pairs of arms also appeared, making Qin Wentian seem like the thousand-hand buddha. On each hand, a spacetime sword could be seen, their light shone resplendently, capable of illuminating everything through time.

“Slaying evil.” A voice rang out. The countless pair of hands brandished their swords at the same time. Each of the swords were infused with buddhic energy, capable of slaying evil. It was also a buddha-dao sacred sword, containing the power of time and space.

Each sword, upon being slashed down, produced a spacetime river. With millions of hands, how many sword slashes could he produce?

In an instant, the sword light tore apart the darkness, causing widening cracks on it. Boundless holy light was branded on the darkness, shining with resplendence. In the next moment, the sword intent erupted forth as those devil heads directly exploded. Their explosion was like the destruction of a constellation, causing the starry space to tremble. In the nine heavens, numerous flashes of light could be seen. Even those who were fighting below could see the phenomenon in the air.

This scene was too beautiful. The pure and holy dao light engulfed everything, erupting forth, wanting to vanquish the evil.

“This sword attack should be unleashed by Wentian, right?” Many of Qin Wentian’s loved ones resided in the floating palaces. Yue Changkong was an evil cultivator, only Qin Wentian could produce such a beautiful and magnificent sword attack that could surpass the constellations. Right now, Qin Wentian was already at the godking-level. He could destroy constellations with a wave of his sword.

Yue Changkong’s devouring might was vanquished, his aura trembled as he stared at the giant buddha with countless hands that Qin Wentian transformed into. Golden light flowed unceasingly from Qin Wentian, capable of eradicating all evil in the world. Qin Wentian had managed to fuse his spacetime dao with the buddha dao, unleashing unfathomable might.

“All evil in the world.” Yue Changkong’s eyes were incomparably cold. All the evil-attributed constellations in the starry sky seemed to receive a summons. They produced numerous terrifying evil devils which appeared in all locations in the starry space, including the space around Qin Wentian. Their gazes were terrifying to the extreme.

Yue Changkong stood there like he was the true king of evil in the world. All evil devils in the world would listen to his command!

Chapter 2024: Overwhelming Victory

The starlight from the nine heavenly layers shone down on the boundless starry space in the Heaven Vault. This was truly a magnificent sight. There were numerous battlefields in the Heaven Vault now where peak characters of both sides were clashing with each other, participating in the ultimate war for supremacy.

Qin Wentian and Yue Changkong fought at the highest point of the nine heavenly layers, while Qin Yuanfeng and Che Hou fought within the starry space.

The Grand Devil Lord's soul battle with Beiming Youhuang might not create such a huge commotion but the light radiating from both of them was bright enough to illuminate a boundlessly vast area. The light from Beiming Youhuang was pure and holy, while the light radiating from the Grand Devil Lord was tainted with darkness. Black lotuses bloomed everywhere around him. One represented the light, the other the darkness.

The Grim Reaper and the Heaven Devouring Godking were in another area. Their clash shook the heavens and earth. However, regardless of how the crazy old freak attacked, he had no way to kill the Heaven Devouring Godking, Godking Desolate.

All these were godking-level battles, although some of them might still be a distance away from the true godking-level, the distance isn't that great.

Other than them, the other deities were fighting as well. In the battlefield belonging to the deities, the situation was extremely chaotic. There were over a hundred deities concurrently fighting. It was like all the heavenly deities of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were gathered here at this moment. There would occasionally be deities dying. These were all lofty characters in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but at this moment on the battlefield, ordinary heavenly deities were insignificant existences.

After the buddhas from the western paradise joined the battle, it alleviated the pressure the various hegemonic powers were feeling and the situation became more balanced. However, they were still fighting a losing battle. Not too long after, as the battle continued, it was clear that the Heaven Vault still possessed the advantage.

The strength of the deities from the Heaven Vault was too strong, much stronger than anyone's expectations.

There was an old monster from the God Destroying Palace but the old Qiankun Sect Leader could deal with him. As for the Five Elements Sect and the other hegemonic powers, they had their own trump cards as well. But Qi Yu, Qin Kexin, and the others could handle them. The Heaven Vault also enjoyed the advantage in terms of the number of deities. During these years, another batch of deities was born. Mo Qingcheng, Bai Wuya, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord and the rest had all now become deities too. From this, one could very well imagine how fearsome the number of deities the Heaven Vault had.

There were also quite a few powerful buddha lords from the western paradise on the battlefield and their strength was equal to the peak characters from the various hegemonic powers. In fact, there were two buddha lords with strength on the level of old monsters like the old Qiankun Sect Leader. From this, one could tell how deep the foundations of the western paradise was. However, after Jun Mengchen killed the Prison God Clan Leader, he headed straight towards one of them. As for the second one, Little Rascal was keeping him busy. Despite the two buddha lords being old monsters, they were already not enough to defeat Jun Mengchen and Little Rascal.

As for the remaining buddha lords and sacred buddhas, the various devil lords of the Myriad Devil Islands back then, including Bai Qing and the five demon sovereigns, were now a match for them. Their cultivation bases were a far cry from before.

The battlefields where deity-level battles were carried out were simply heaven-shocking. Blood fell like rain from the sky, the scene was extremely intense.

Jun Mengchen was currently fighting against a buddha lord. He unleashed his dao of the world, and his attacks seemed ordinary but all of them contained overwhelming might. When he unleashed his strongest attacks, it felt like the power of entire worlds were packed within his punch, allowing him to pulverize and devastate anything. Despite the strength of his buddha lord opponent and the unfathomableness of his buddha techniques, he was crushed by Jun Mengchen and killed easily.

For Little Rascal, he was in his giant beast form and his eyes were bloodshot, filled with hatred. The western world has killed his parents, for this debt of revenge, he naturally needed to repay them for it. From this, one could imagine how much anger he felt now. He devoured the energy from the constellations nearby and formed a heavenly dao body that was invulnerable and extremely powerful. His close-combat attacks could shatter everything. His ability to devour the energy of the heavenly daos caused his opponent to feel extreme trepidation.

Even for Qing`er, she was much stronger compared to the first time the hegemonic powers wanted to invade the Heaven Vault. Her mastery of her dao was simply impeccable, she could kill people silently with ease, and when she does, not even any traces of her could be seen.

Bai Qing was also very powerful, she suppressed her opponent.

“Hey old venom, why did you choose a path of no return and follow Yue Changkong? Do you think he has any regard for any of your lives? Even if he really won and obtained the Heaven Vault, what is the future awaiting you all? By his side, you all have to worry about your lives at every moment and wouldn’t even know how you died. Could it be that you don’t know what sort of person Godking Gu was?” At this moment, a voice rang out. This voice belonged to the old Qiankun Sect Leader and he currently engaging the old monster from the God Destroying Palace in a battle. The poison qi in the air created a miasma but qiankun light could be seen around the old Qiankun Sect leader, isolating him from the poison.

“Don’t even dream about wavering the state of my heart.” The old palace lord of the God Destroying Palace was as thin as a match. He stared at the old Qiankun Sect Leader and continued, “What about you? I’m sure you were also forced to choose a side to serve. No matter what, Yue Changkong is someone who has the power of two godkings in one body. Qin Wentian won’t be able to win against him. The Heaven Vault will be destroyed for sure.”

“Hehe, can you not tell? Leaving side the situation of their battle, at the very least in this battlefield, you guys no longer have any chance to win.” The old Qiankun Sect Leader spoke. The words of the two of them seemed to be intent on causing the other’s heart to waver. Indeed, it was very tough to say who would win or lose. But since they have already chosen their side, they naturally had to go all out. If not, the consequences of failure was clear. They would all die.

At the very least as of now, for the battlefield of heavenly deities, the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was holding the advantage. Hence, the old Qiankun Sect Leader also gained a psychological advantage. The old monster from the God Destroy Palace frowned, his eyes gleamed with a cunning light as the thought of retreat flashed across his mind. The reason was because they might not be able to hold out until Yue Changkong claimed victory over Qin Wentian.

Not only for him, right now, many experts from the hegemonic powers also wanted to retreat. If they continued to battle, they knew they would all die here.

At this moment, the sound of an intense collision rang out. Through the divine sense of many deities, they saw boundless golden light flaring as a gigantic golden buddha exploded. The golden light flooded everywhere, it was magnificent and beautiful. However, as that buddha lord died, he transformed into a sarira and sought to transform into a beam of light to escape. But how could Jun Mengchen let him do so? He grabbed out and used world force to hold the sarira, crushing it into pieces.

“If I allow people like you to enter reincarnation, you would simply harm others again in the future.” Jun Mengchen coldly spoke. He was filled with immense hatred for these false buddhas of the western paradise and he wanted to slaughter them all. Only if they died would the buddha dao in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms regain its original nature. A deep and thorough cleansing was required.

The Buddha Sovereign and the western paradise have governed the western world for countless years and has caused the buddha dao to long be tainted. Their roots were extremely deep, only by destroying the roots would it be able to start anew.

“Not good.” Many heavenly deities silently mused. After killing that buddha lord, if Jun Mengchen turned his attention to one of them, who could contend against him?

As expected, after speaking, Jun Mengchen was like a freed dragon and directly headed for another heavenly deity who was still in combat. That heavenly deity hurriedly attempted to defend but Jun Mengchen’s fist contained a dominating force that shattered his body and soul. That poor enemy deity didn’t even have the chance to scream.

His divine sense swept across the battlefield and saw a few deities fighting against Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng, wanting to capture them. After that, he instantly rushed over with anger filling his heart. He stepped out, moving across space and not long after, the deities attacking the two ladies were killed by him.

Jun Mengchen's strength naturally was noted by the other deities who were still fighting. Those invaders all sensed a chill in their hearts.

The godking-level battles have yet to determine the victors but right now, for the battle at the heavenly deity-level, they wouldn't be able to last much longer.

If this continued, all of them would die here.

"Retreat." The old monster of the God Destroying Palace was an existence that lived for countless years. Upon seeing the situation was completely against them, he decisively gave the order to retreat. The poison qi around him gushed forth, covering his retreat.

"Retreat!" The other deities from the God Destroying Palace also used poison qi to cover their retreat, fleeing from the battlefield. Upon seeing this scene, the deities from the other hegemonic powers who were still fighting instantly descended into chaos. Victory and defeat hasn't been clearly spelled out, yet the God Destroying Palace had already retreated. This meant that the deity-level battle here had already ended prematurely.

"Vile creatures, how dare you all retreat. After our western paradise unifies the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, I want to see how any of you can escape!" The buddhas of the western paradise raged.

"We have to be alive if we want to wait until then." A cold voice rang out, causing the hearts of many to tremble.

All of them had cultivated for countless years but they would be buried here today for the sake of Yue Changkong's ambition?

If they could see a chance of victory, everything would still be good. But at this moment, even before clear victory or defeat could be determined, there were already people fleeing. If the others continued to fight, all of them would die eventually. They had no time and weren't able to last until the godking-level battles were decided. In that case, what were they waiting for?

Since the thought of retreat was already in their minds, the hegemonic powers who had been in the disadvantage since the start, naturally all chose to flee. Their morale collapsed completely. This was a vicious cycle, more and more deities from the hegemonic powers began to flee respectively.

"Bastards!" The buddhas of the western paradise angrily roared. They had no way to flee because all their fates were controlled by the Buddha Sovereign.

"Kill them all, don't let any of them escape." Jun Mengchen moved with lightning speed as he pursued after the fleeing deities. The eyes of the deities from the Heaven Vault all flickered with coldness. Did these people think that they can flee after they were defeated?

These people have attacked the Heaven Vault twice. How could they spare them? All of them prepared to hunt down the fleeing deities. If they could catch up to them, they would kill them with no mercy.

The deity-level battle became a pursuit instead. The invaders rapidly fled towards the Heaven Vault’s entrance but how could the deities of the Heaven Vault let them leave so easily? In the end, the majority of those who fled were controlled and killed easily since they had already lost the heart to battle.

Very soon, this deity-level battle was already about to be concluded. Those buddhas from the western paradise also couldn’t hold on. Little Rascal began an all-out slaughter, under his sharp claws, numerous enemy deities perished. Divine blood dripped from his claws, raining down to the world below.

After some time, the battle completely ended. The situation here gradually regained its normal calm. However, everyone in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect understood that the true battle has yet to be concluded. The battles that would decide the fate of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were still being fought high up in the air.

“How many have escaped?” Jun Mengchen coldly spoke as he glanced up at the sky.

“It’s already not bad that we managed to gain an overwhelming victory for the battlefield here. Next, we will have to depend on Wentian and the rest.” Luoshen Chuan also turned his gaze towards the sky.

Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er, and the others also stared up at the nine heavenly layers. Their eyes were filled with a hint of worry. They were even more anxious and worried compared to their own battles earlier!

Chapter 2025: Hope and Expectations

The nine astral rivers of the nine heavenly layers were in the air above everyone. They extended forth and seemed boundless, constituting a beautiful and magnificent sight.

All the deities were bathed in the starlight. Although they won an overwhelming victory in the deity-level battle, they didn’t feel too excited. Qin Wentian had fought for so much time for them, allowing them to have more cultivation time in the Heaven Vault to gain insights on their daos through their constellations. This caused an army of deities to be born and the older batches of deities would only grow stronger with time. Under such an environment, if they couldn’t even win a deity-level battle, how could they have the face to see Qin Wentian?

It was only natural for them to win the deity-level battle, there was nothing worthy to be joyful about. Everyone understood that the battle between the eight great experts in the air was then the true battle.

Under the starlight, a gentle breeze gusted by, causing Mo Qingcheng’s long hair to flutter. After she entered the heavenly deity realm, her aura became more outstanding and she was like a celestial maiden from the nine heavens, breathtakingly beautiful.

Beside Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er, Ye Qianyu, Luoshen Qianxue, Qin Kexin, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Nanfeng Yunxi, Nanfeng Shengge, Bai Qing and the other females were all so beautiful as well. Right now, they stood in different locations but their gazes all turned to the same direction.

“Wentian gege, you have to win for sure.” Bai Qing softly spoke, praying for Qin Wentian. She hated herself for not being strong enough to participate in the godking-level battle. She had no way to help Qin Wentian.

“He will.” Qing`er’s eyes were cold as she stared at the starry space. Her white hair fluttered in the wind but the resolve in her eyes was extremely staunch.

“Mhm, Wentian will definitely win. He promised me and sister Qing`er that he would bring us to tour the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, taking us to view all the beautiful sceneries.” A radiant smile appeared on Mo Qingcheng’s face. She firmly believed that Qin Wentian would win against his opponent. They had experienced so much suffering but managed to pass through all trials. This would be the final battle. Once this battle is won, from then on, their family could truly be free and explore the entire world. They would no longer have any external restraint in the form of enemies, under the nine heavenly layers.

They would view the sceneries of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms together, travel to all corners of it, visiting the majestic mountains, the magnificent lakes and rivers, admiring the world. This was what Qin Wentian has promised them. He would be able to do it for sure.

Luoshen Qianxue glanced at the beautiful young woman beside her. She stretched out her hand and held Mo Qingcheng’s hand while gently smiling, “Naturally, he would do what he has promised. If he dares to break the agreement, I will disown him as my son.”

“Thank you mother-in-law. Wentian also said that he would bring father-in-law and mother-in-law alone. He said that after being reunited with you all, he spent most of his time on cultivation and has never truly accompanied you two before. He said he would compensate for all the lost time. When everything is over, our family must definitely visit all corners of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms together!” Mo Qingcheng smiled sweetly.

“Right.” Luoshen Qianxue’s eyes were slightly wet. She nodded heavily, as many scenes of the future flashed through her mind. How beautiful would all that be?

In truth, not only for Qin Wentian, she and Qin Yuanfeng had always been under pressure. Firstly, it was their hatred towards the Qin Clan. After they left the Divine Mausoleum and settled the grudge with the Qin Clan, they initially thought everything would be over. But right now, the war for supremacy of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms suddenly started. They had never known true peace at all. She truly hoped that there would be a day where their family could live unrestrained, tossing aside everything and simply enjoying time with each other.

But the prerequisite for all of this was that they had to gain victory in the godking-level battles. Regardless of her son Qin Wentian or her husband Qin Yuanfeng, their opponents were extremely terrifying. One was the evilest godkings out of the eight ancient godkings. He had even devoured the dao of the Moon God and fused the power of two godkings into one. As for the other, he was the clan leader of the Che Clan that merged with an ultimate divine weapon, gaining control of the dao of chaos.

Right now, all of their hearts were tense, they were all silently praying.

“That little lass Youhuang must win as well.” Luoshen Qianxue glanced at Beiming Youhuang’s battlefield.

“Naturally. Sister Youhuang will definitely win. When everything is over, we will make Wentian organize a grand wedding to bring sister Youhuang into the family.” Mo Qingcheng gently smiled. She stared at Beiming Youhuang’s battlefield, and spoke of a beautiful future. How could she not understand the feelings Youhuang had for Wentian? Youhuang was also willing to give up everything, including her life. During the first invasion, it was Youhuang who saved all of them and she almost died. Now, she’s risking her life again to join the battle and her opponent was the Buddha Sovereign, one of the strongest existences in the world currently. Even when the three experts on their side joined forces, they also failed to kill him. The Buddha Sovereign was a monster with both the buddha and devil in one body.

If she was the slightest bit careless, she would be consigned to eternal damnation with no hope of reprieve.

When everyone heard Mo Qingcheng’s words, all of them felt their hearts were moved. All of them also prayed for this, they hoped that her words could come true.

“Silly child.” Luoshen Qianxue tightened her hold on Mo Qingcheng’s hand a little. She then spoke in a light voice, “Wentian is truly fortunate to have met you girls. If he doesn’t treat you all well, how can he face up to you all?”

The people at the side listening felt many emotions in their hearts. The hearts of Nanfeng Yunxi, Nanfeng Shengge, and the others all felt extremely tender now. All of them were silently praying. Now, they only hoped that Qin Wentian could be safe and return victorious. From then on, there would no longer be any troubles in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

“Nothing will happen to elder brother.” Luoshen Lei also had a radiant smile on her face as she spoke to everyone. “Why are you all frowning? We must trust in elder brother. How can he be defeated?”

“Mhm, nothing will happen to senior brother.” Jun Mengchen nodded his head. The expressions of many people then eased up but their hearts were still filled with worry. It was impossible for them to totally let go of their worry and anxiousness. After all, this battle concerns the fate of the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Their hearts had already flown into the boundless starry space, together with the ones they entrusted their hopes and expectations.

In the boundless starry space, the battlefield in the nine heavenly layers, all the evil devils surrounded Qin Wentian. Each of them were extremely gigantic, resembling gods of evil and all had different shapes and forms.

There were some powerful devils with nine heads, some with many arms, some with blood-red light in their eyes, some emitting the aura of corrosion… Each of the devils had a different dao, and each of their daos was terrifying to the extreme, containing immense destructive power.

Right now, Qin Wentian was completely surrounded. These devils were summoned by Yue Changkong. Yue Changkong was the king of all these devil lords.

Qin Wentian glanced at the evil devils, the buddhic light radiating from him grew increasingly bright. The holy light contained the properties of purification, wanting to purify all evil from the world. However, at this moment, he saw a pair of devil eyes looking straight at him. In the next instant, many illusions flashed through his mind as countless terrifying scenes played out before him. After he was killed by the evil devils, his family, his friends were all slaughtered, their fates were extremely miserable. He saw Beiming Youhuang living a life worse than death, he saw the terrible fates awaiting Qingcheng and Qing`er. All these scenes continued to devour his heart. These were the things he was most fearful of.

Some times, death wasn’t the most terrifying thing. What was most terrifying are the things that would happen to his loved ones after his death.

“This is the power of heart devils, he wants to use illusions to summon my heart devils.” Qin Wentian understood what Yue Changkong wanted to do. Buddhic chants filled the air as the buddhic light grew more resplendent, attempting to expel the heart devils.

But what were heart devils? There would always be fear in one’s heart. If there’s fear, there would be heart devils.

What was the goal for Qin Wentian’s cultivation? His goal was to be free from all restraints, for the safety of his loved ones, for him to be strong enough so others couldn’t threaten him, for him to be carefree. What he feared wasn’t his death, it was the fate of his loved ones after his death. Hence, with the seed of fear existing, the heart devils naturally took this chance and influenced his heart.

Everyone would have a heart devil. Their influence was unblockable as long as one felt fear.

“Kill!” An evil light gleamed in Yue Changkong’s eyes. The evil devils in the area all launched their attacks, rushing towards Qin Wentian, wanting to take the opportunity when Qin Wentian was distracted by his heart devil to kill him. Yue Changkong naturally understood that given Qin Wentian’s current strength and cultivation, the influence of the heart devils would only last for a few moments. It was impossible to depend solely on Qin Wentian’s heart devils to deal with him. Attacking him with everything while Qin Wentian was distracted was the best choice to kill him.

The buddhic light was rapidly being corroded by the attacks of the evil devils. The entire space seemed about to be destroyed. When the boundless evil energy blasted into Qin Wentian’s golden buddha body, the impact and damage caused cracks to appear.

“SLAY!” Qin Wentian roared in rage, his closed eyes suddenly opened as his millions of hands slashed out resplendent arcs of light, transforming into sword rivers that contained the dao of space and time, as well as the aspect of purification, powered by the buddha dao. Many of those evil devils were instantly disintegrated. However, their numbers were too much and they were too powerful. It was impossible to destroy them all with a single strike.

This evil space seemed to become hell, buried in the starry space. The evil devils were howling, a powerful corrosion energy then bore down on Qin Wentian’s golden body, slowly invading it.

“Yue Changkong.” Qin Wentian’s body was ice-cold. The golden buddhic light has faded, becoming extremely dark and dim. The gigantic golden body was now a body of darkness. An instant later, towering amounts of devilish might flooded out from Qin Wentian, threatening to dominate everything in the surrounding space, filled with the air of tyranny. This transformation caused Yue Changkong to be stunned.

It seems like not only that bald donkey of the western paradise could fuse the buddha and devil in one body, Qin Wentian has achieved the same feat as well!

Chapter 2026: Inheritance of the Devil Sovereign

Yue Changkong stared at the gigantic devil which was Qin Wentian. This devil was like the lord of all devils. When the attacks from the evil devils blasted into him, Qin Wentian's body shattered but recovered almost instantly, like he had an undying body. If one wanted to kill him, one had to exterminate him completely in a single strike, killing him in body and soul simultaneously.

The powerful evil devils continued to attack Qin Wentian sending out negative thoughts to invoke his heart devil. Qin Wentian inclined his head. His devil body expanded in size. His gaze was incomparably deep, akin to an abyss of devils that stretched forth endlessly. An icy devilish voice rang out from him, "I'm originally a devil cultivator. What do I have to fear from devils?"

He chanted devilish verses as fearsome devilish might engulfed the starry space. The evil devils felt their bodies trembling. There seemed to be an invisible dao controlling everything.

"What dao is this?" Yue Changkong frowned. Qin Wentian's devil-path dao seemed to contain an extremely powerful controlling might, which caused the evil devils he summoned to be impeded severely in terms of their movements and actions.

His eyes shone with an evil light, terrifying to the extreme. Everywhere he glanced at, the evil devils would unleash their evil arts. One of the evil devils manifested spears of darkness that shot through the sky, directly aiming for Qin Wentian's soul. The giant spear in the center was like the spear of the ghost god, capable of extinguishing all daos. This dao originally belonged to the Moon God but was now manifested by this evil devil.

And other than the spear devil, there was another devil causing a giant blood-colored axe to manifest, this axe seemed capable of cleaving apart the skies and even the astral rivers.

The scene was too terrifying. The devil, which Qin Wentian transformed into, stood amidst the evil devils as all of them frenziedly launched attacks at him.

Qin Wentian's gaze was terrifying as well. The darkness from his eyes could envelop the sky, directly shooting into the eyes of the evil devils.

"Submit to me." The voice of a devil sovereign rang out, causing the evil devils to tremble even more violently. The gigantic devil Qin Wentian transformed into grabbed out towards the sky. An invisible might that could dominate everything spread out, wanting the devils to submit to him. Boundless devil light cascaded down on him. The light originated from all the devil-attributed constellations in the nine heavenly layers.

"Break!" The giant devil head roared, causing the sky to shake as the astral rivers crumbled. Those evil devils trembled violently. The spear of darkness was then devoured by a terrifying devil dao. It shattered inch by inch, and the destructive power traveled back to the source, causing the evil devil's body to crumble apart as well. The evil devil roared in rage but had no way to resist this power.

As for that evil devil which manifested the gigantic axe, its fate was the same. The axe trembled before it shattered apart. After that, the body of the evil devil seemed to be shaved off bit by bit. The other evil devils howled, the volume causing the sky to tremble. The devil might in the area began to churn wildly. The eyes of Yue Changkong, who was controlling the evil devils, turned even more terrifying. What devil dao was Qin Wentian using? How could it be so powerful?

From Qin Wentian's dao, he could sense devilish might, the energy of space, time, as well as the laws of dimension being fused together into a tyrannical devilish power.

This caused Yue Changkong to recall a person, this person was an extremely fearsome character that was once equal to the Grand Devil Lord. He was also proficient in the dao of devil and had the title of Devil Sovereign. After that, that existence vanished. It was said that he had transformed into a constellation. Another rumor stated that he achieved transcendence. There were also people saying that he was killed by the Grand Devil Lord. In any case, it was an extremely ancient existence. If that existence was still alive, back then, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms might have nine ancient godkings instead of eight, with two masters of the dao of devils.

And even if he vanished, it was impossible for him to bring everything away. It's highly possible that he left behind some inheritances for the juniors. Currently, the power Qin Wentian was unleashing bore a great deal of similarities to that existence. Could it be that Qin Wentian had obtained that existence's inheritance?

Wasn't Qin Wentian's luck a little too good? He had so many inheritances and now, he was proficient in all heavenly daos. Space, time, buddha, devil, sealing…It seemed that he was capable of everything and had endless methods at his disposal, making him extremely tough to deal with. The bald donkey of the western paradise also came back stronger than before but none of them expected that despite the little amount of time they gave to Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian had actually grown to such a stage where he could fight against godkings.

"I want to see how strong you are exactly." Yue Changkong's eyes were cold, gleaming with evil. His body transformed into boundless black fog, enveloping the surrounding space, causing the constellations to dim. Countless evil devils continued to kill their way towards Qin Wentian but were easily destroyed by Qin Wentian. However, at this moment, a figure suddenly appeared from the black fog, causing Qin Wentian's eyes to widen in shock.

"Little Ye." Qin Wentian's expression froze as he stared at that figure. There were numerous tentacles pulling on Little Ye's arms and legs.

"Godfather, save me!" Fan Ye's tears flowed like rain as she sobbed continuously, "Godfather, save me…"

"Impossible. This is an illusion, it is a heart devil." Qin Wentian's devil eyes were terrifying to the extreme. Even if this was the dao of illusion, it felt no different from reality.

"Godfather, godfather!" Little Ye called out in a frenzy. The black fog transformed into blades of darkness that pierced into her body. Each stab into Little Ye's body caused Qin Wentian to feel that his heart was being stabbed instead. He had always felt guilty towards Little Ye, and towards Fan Le and Xuan Xin. Now that he saw such a scene, one could very well imagine his emotions.

Back then, Little Ye was precisely killed by Yue Changkong. Could she have managed to live on? Qin Wentian felt some hope in his heart.

"Puchi!" A sword of devilish darkness slashed out an astral river. Qin Wentian stepped into the river, moving towards the black fog. Even if it was an illusion, so what of it? He clearly knew that this was a trap but he had to go no matter what.

"Little Ye, godfather has let you down." Qin Wentian walked to Fan Ye's side, stretching out his hand wanting to stroke her face. However, Fan Ye's body vanished into the black fog at this moment. Qin Wentian's eyes were filled with agony but he wasn't surprised because he understood that this was an illusion. Even so, he still felt longing in his heart, and wanted to touch that illusory figure.

In the surrounding space, evil devils were everywhere, they were countless in number. Darkness has already enveloped the entire world. He lifted his head, the sky was completely dark. It felt like he had thrown himself head-on into a trap by walking to the center point of the black fog where countless devils existed.

"You are courting death." Yue Changkong's face appeared in all directions, like he existed everywhere. If one were to gaze at this from the outside, they could see an incomparably huge devil head as large as a constellation. Its eyes shone with a fearsome devil light and Qin Wentian was currently inside this head.

"Over there!" Down below, everyone in the starry space sensed the existence of the gigantic devil head via their divine senses. They saw Qin Wentian walking into it. All of their expressions were filled with worry. What happened? Qin Wentian clearly knew that what he saw was an illusion, why did he still enter?

Was this his obsession? Could it be that even now, he still can't put that down?

But then again, they all knew very well what sort of person Qin Wentian was. Sometimes, he would let his emotions rule his head. He could ignore the consequences. He had always been like this. Even though he was already a heavenly deity now, and was equivalent to a godking, he had never changed.

"Wentian." Mo Qingcheng smiled but her eyes were filled with tears. She was truly very worried and afraid. Her relaxed smile was just a pretense.

"I'll go and help senior brother!" Jun Mengchen stepped out, flying towards the sky.

"ROAR!" Little Rascal rushed over, also wanting to head there.

“Don’t go, the two of you wouldn’t be able to change anything. Just leave it to Wentian, believe in him.” Bai Wuya spoke. At this moment, the least they could do was not to cause Qin Wentian to be distracted.

Outside the Heaven Vault, there were now two people who entered. Earlier when the battle started after the western world army arrived, Qin Wentian used his spacetime dao to sent everyone away. After that, no one dared to get near the Heaven Vault for fear of the aftershocks killing them, let alone entering it.

But right now, there were precisely two people who entered. One was an old man, another was a young man. After they entered, they inclined their heads and stared at the sky.

“Will he be able to win?” The young man was demonically handsome, he spoke and asked the old man.

“I have no idea.” The old man shook his head. He truly didn’t know. The level of this battle has already surpassed his cultivation realm. This was what he had wanted to see in the past. Qin Wentian has indeed surpassed his expectations.

Chapter 2027: Epiphany

In the boundless starry space, the gigantic devil head trembled. This head was like a demon star, its eyes shone with a terrifying light, causing fear in the hearts of those who looked at it.

By using his divine sense, Jun Mengchen naturally could feel the situation of Qin Wentian’s battle. His body trembled, feeling somewhat reluctant to accept this. He actually wasn’t able to help his senior brother out?

He worked so hard in cultivation but was his current strength still considered weak?

He was truly unwilling to accept this. In his mind, he felt a strong obsession to grow stronger.

What would happen if his senior brother encountered some mishaps? He could only wait here passively and watch his senior brother and everyone else die? To watch passively as the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms fell into the control of the evil bald donkey and Yue Changkong?

He, Jun Mengchen, was unwilling to see such a scene. He clenched his fists tightly, producing a cracking sound. He closed his eyes as the look of a struggle could be seen on his face.

In the starry space, the light from the countless constellations illuminated the sky. The sight of it was so resplendent and beautiful, filled with boundless profoundness and the battles within the nine heavenly layers were unfolding on a grand scale.

At this moment, although he had closed his eyes, Jun Mengchen seemed to have sensed a truly boundless world. In his vision, within the world, he not only could see the evil head within the nine heavenly layers, he also saw the people fighting in the other battlefields. Qian Yuanfeng and Che Hou were currently clashing violently.

“Everyone is working hard.” Jun Mengchen silently mused.

Qin Yuanfeng unleashed his force of the six paths. These six paths were created by him, and they included the daos of devouring, death, reincarnation, dimension, etc. When the six paths converged, a completely brand new heavenly dao might known as the six path force would be born. When this clashed against Che Hou’s false chaos dao, it was actually not in any way inferior. The battle between the two of them was extremely intense as a result.

Che Hou used his insights into the false chaos dao for his attacks, generating the other daos. Qin Yuanfeng’s six paths force transformed his surroundings into a different spacetime. This type of dao might usage was truly terrifying. When watching their fight, Jun Mengchen’s divine sense seemed to have integrated within their combat completely. Jun Mengchen clenched his fists even tighter as the scenes of their battle imprinted themselves in his mind. He suddenly felt an epiphany.

Space, time, chaos, devouring, buddha, devil. All these daos were extremely powerful ones. They combined the various law attributes, allowing even more daos to be formed. There were some ultimate daos with endless might, but when they are traced back to their roots, what would their origins be?

Where did the constellations of the nine heavenly layers come from? The power contained within them was the power of daos. And for godking-level experts, they resembled constellations when they fought. In that case, could the constellations in the starry space be vestiges left behind by ancient cultivators since an unimaginably long time ago?

Which daos were the pinnacle? What were the true ultimate daos?

There was a saying, chaos was the progenitor of all daos. Everything in the world originated from chaos. The dao of chaos encompassed all daos in the world. Clearly, it is a type of ultimate dao.

What about the dao of world he was cultivating? Can the dao of world represent Heaven and Earth? Could this vast universe, the nine heavenly layers, represent a part of the dao of world?

The dao of the world was also a true ultimate dao. Chaos could give birth to a myriad of daos. In that case, he who controlled the dao of the world, why couldn’t he give birth to a myriad of daos as well?

Jun Mengchen entered a miraculous state, like he was in an epiphany. His will was as strong as ever, and his obsession with growing stronger gave him great motivation.

The boundless starry space, the nine heavenly layers, everything here was imprinted in his vision. If his dao of the world could merge with the nine heavenly layers, what did this mean? Could it mean that with a single thought, he would be able to control the entire world?

Could this be the ‘transcendence’ his senior brother was talking about before?

In the past, his senior brother once said that cultivators were all comprehending the heavenly dao. Through their insights gained, cultivators would be able to control a trace of heavenly dao might and those with higher masteries could even create their own dao world. But in truth, this sort of ‘control’ over the heavenly dao only allowed one to control things inside their domain. For example for the dao of time. One could only control the flow of time in your own domain. For example, when the Buddha Sovereign used time reversal, only the surroundings around him were affected but the flow of time in the other parts of the world remained unchanged.

Hence, the daos which people of the world have mastered, in truth were just minor heavenly daos.

If one day, when he mastered the true ultimate heavenly dao, that would mean that he could control the daos in the nine heavenly layers. At that point of time, that would indicate true transcendence. Despite how heaven-defying godkings are, they still aren’t able to accomplish this point.

At this moment, Jun Mengchen's mind kept spinning as new perspectives and ideas formed in his mind. All of a sudden, boundless starlight cascaded down on him. He himself wasn't aware of this. Right now, the connection between him and the nine heavenly layers grew even tighter as he senses grew clearer. He could sense all the details of the battles happening in this starry space. Each intense clash was imprinted into his mind. Maybe this was a sort of display by the dao of the world.

He stared at Qin Yuanfeng and Che Hou's battle and he seemed to gain some insights from it. He got increasingly immersed within and in fact, he could even faintly sense that Qin Yuanfeng's cultivation was exceedingly deep and was infinitesimally close to the next step.

However, as to what the next step was like and how powerful it was, Jun Mengchen had no idea.

After all, after the heavenly deity realm, there were no clear demarcations. Everyone was known as heavenly deities as they could control heavenly daos.

But it was precisely this realm that the gap in strength between individuals could be like the distance between the heavens and earth. Ordinary heavenly deities, the peak-level deities who were either sect leaders or clan leaders from the various hegemonic powers, old monsters like the old Qiankun Sect Leader, and even Qin Yuanfeng and Che Hou's tier of deities, were all known as deities despite the strength difference between each level being exceedingly great, impossible to surpass. Each improvement would result in one's strength becoming greater but as to how strong exactly, no one could say for sure.

For example for Qin Wentian, after many years of accumulation, his cultivation base was already deep enough for him to fight equally against godkings. This meant that unknowingly, he has also reached the godking-level.

"Uncle Qin." Jun Mengchen called out. He naturally didn't use his mouth but used his divine sense. In the air, Qin Yuanfeng who was fighting sensed the communication. His eyes gleamed with sharpness as he turned his head. From the energy fluctuations and the aura, he recognized the speaker. The speaker was none other than the junior apprentice brother of his son Qin Wentian.

"Uncle Qin, the force of the six paths in your hands have already become perfect, comparable to six grand daos. However, I feel that you can improve things a step further and continue to evolve it, transforming it into the six daos world." Jun Mengchen's voice continued to ring out in his mind, causing Qin Yuanfeng's eyes to gleam with a bright light.

The force of the six paths could continue to evolve, transforming into the six daos world?

Through his two lifetimes of cultivation, he had cultivated all types of daos and even entered the Divine Mausoleum to learn about the daos of the deities who had fallen there. He combined his insights from his two lifetimes, transforming them into the force of the six paths. He further refined this within the Divine Mausoleum. In there, he had no distractions. He became the tomb keeper, the master of the Divine Mausoleum, the moon god also gave him some benefits. He then slowly began to merge the six different daos together, forming the force of the six paths, allowing him to unleash his current tyrannical might.

During these years, he has been slowly trying to probe to understand the greater truth. How should he continue to advance the six paths?

He had no way to understand it but cultivation was simply just like this. Sometimes when you are stuck, you would never be able to understand it forever. But once you gain an insight, everything would become clear to you in an instant.

With a single sentence from Jun Mengchen, it seemed to have sparked something, causing Qin Yuanfeng's heart to tremble. At this moment, Che Hou flew towards him again. Che Hou seemed even stronger, he used his false chaos dao to manifest a myriad of daos that could exterminate all living things. Flames began to manifest, these flames had the power to incinerate the world and Che Hou was cloaked by the flames.

"Burn." He spoke. The world-incinerating flames infused their properties into the countless divine weapons. In the next instant, the area around him turned golden as the world-incinerating flames grew more intense.

The golden divine flames could truly incinerate everything in the world. That, in addition to the power of all the divine weapons, how strong was he exactly?

"Six paths, six daos, six dao worlds!" This voice kept repeating in Qin Wentian's heart. In a few short instants, it was unknown how many times it had repeated. His eyes were as calm as ever, his hands were as steady as ever too. Despite the fearsome scene before him, his will didn't waver.

"Kill!" Che Hou waved his hands. A moment later, the golden flames erupted forth, illuminating the starry sky. The countless divine weapons burned with the golden flames as they soared through the air, aiming for Qin Yuanfeng. Qin Yuanfeng seemed as though he was in a daze, standing there and doing nothing. He was about to be swallowed by the golden flames.

"Yuanfeng!" Luoshen Qianxue's expression froze. Her heart pounded violently when she saw this.

"Father!" Qin Kexin's gaze stiffened as she stared in that direction.

The boundless destructive might seemed about to swallow Qin Yuanfeng. A smile finally appeared on Che Hou's face but this smile was as cold and mechanical as ever.

But at this very moment, Qin Yuanfeng acted. He punched out with his fist, manifesting the force of the six paths which took the form of six azure dragons. The dragons roared and flew towards all directions, expelling everything as they continued to stretch out. They rushed towards the chaos divine weapons as the force of the six paths transformed again, enveloping them. This entire space trembled violently as a strange change occurred, the force of the six paths seemed to contain unfathomable might.

“Break.” At this moment, Qin Yuanfeng coldly spoke. In the next instant, within the chaos dao, six destructive dao forces that could exterminate everything began to form. These six different types of forces then merged into one, forming resonance with the great dao. The heavens and earth cracked, the true force of the six paths appeared in the sky, causing the destructive might of the golden flames and divine weapons to be turned back upon Che Hou.

“How can this be possible?” Che Hou saw his attacks born of his dao of chaos being turned on to him. His gaze was exceedingly cold. He transformed into a beam of light and wanted to flee. But in the next moment, his expression changed. His surroundings seemed to have become a world formed by the six daos from the six paths. No matter where he fled to, he wasn’t able to move out of the six daos world.

“Refine.” An extremely cold voice rang out. The power of the six paths madly erupted forth. Che Hou’s body trembled violently. In the next instant, countless faces actually appeared on his body, belonging to countless souls of the Che Clan!

Chapter 2028: A Stroke of Genius

"Six daos world." Down below, everyone stared at the battlefield in the air as their hearts pounded violently. Qin Yuanfeng broke through suddenly. At the heavenly deity realm, a breakthrough wasn't like the other breakthroughs in the realms before. One can only achieve a breakthrough if one's comprehension of their heavenly dao deepened. This was definitely much harder compared to breaking through to the heavenly deity realm from the world overlord realm. The gain in power would also be much greater.

At this moment, the six azure dragons transformed into a dao world. This world contained the force of the six paths, which were akin to six grand heavenly daos and the sole purpose of its existence was to bury Che Hou. In the past, Qin Yuanfeng had already managed to fuse the six paths together but now, it can finally be considered a perfect whole.

In the six daos world, numerous souls constantly flew out from Che Hou's body. These souls were struggling frenziedly. After that, they either entered samsara, or were devoured, or were killed by dimensional force, or destroyed by the six paths force.

"Are these the experts of the Che Clan? There are so many of them, almost countless in number. These are the lives of the entire Che Clan." A demon sovereign of the Demon God Mountain stared up at the sky. There were simply too many souls. The six daos world was like a purgatory, delivering these souls from suffering. They actually managed to find release after being fused into the ultimate divine weapon along with Che Hou.

And at this moment, Che Hou seemed to be in intense pain. His expression contorted as his aura grew increasingly weaker. As the number of souls within him decreased, his control over the dao of chaos got striped away bit by bit. After that, the divine weapons vanished, the divine formations he set up vanished, the golden flame vanished as well. Che Hou no longer resembled a human, he resembled a stretch of chaos that has no body instead. A golden chaotic light flashed and after that, Che Hou howled in madness. The light radiating from him was so bright that it was hard for the on-lookers to open their eyes.

After the flash of light, the mass of chaos disappeared as a human figure appeared there. This figure was the appearance of the original Che Hou. However, he looked extremely fragile now. His aura wavered, he stared at everything before him as he laughed out loud all of a sudden. His laughter sounded as though he was mocking himself.

He was the real Che Hou, the original Che Hou, clan leader of the Che Clan. He was no longer fused with that ultimate divine weapon that seized good fortune from the heavens and earth.

"Ultimately, I still failed? I fused with the ultimate weapon and gathered the strength and daos of everyone in the Che Clan within me. In the end, the Che Clan was destroyed and it seems that I'm also going to die here." Che Hou seemed to be mumbling to himself. His body gradually turned illusory before disintegrating bit by bit as he vanished inside the six daos world.

The powerful human-form divine weapon Che Hou was defeated in one of the godking-level battles and has died.

The six daos world vanished. Qin Yuanfeng glanced downwards, his gaze piercing through the boundless starry space and directly landed on Jun Mengchen. He only saw that right now, Jun Mengchen had his eyes closed, like he was in a marvelous mental state. Qin Yuanfeng understood that Jun Mengchen was in an epiphany. Before this, he already knew that this junior apprentice-brother of Qin Wentian was extraordinary. Now, Jun Mengchen must have gained an epiphany. He would only be stronger after he awakens from this state. In addition, Jun Mengchen used his own insights to remind Qin Yuanfeng, allowing Qin Yuanfeng to gain a sudden breakthrough, killing Che Hou.

If not, if the battle continued, neither he nor Che Hou would be able to do anything against the other.

Naturally, although Jun Mengchen had credit for his break through, the main reason was because of Qin Yuanfeng himself. His cultivation base was already sufficient, he only needed a flash of insight. Also, he fought against Che Hou’s dao of chaos which enabled him to glean some understanding from it which helped his cultivation too. In the end, Jun Mengchen’s words reminded him, the words spoken became the flash of insight he needed, allowing him to break through.

Qin Yuanfeng then looked up. His figure flashed as he moved with lightning speed, flying towards another battlefield. His battle has concluded but there are still three more battles currently ongoing in the boundless starry space. Only by winning them all would the war for supremacy be concluded. Only then could they be considered the real victor. Now, it was still too early.

Those below saw Qin Yuanfeng flying towards Qin Wentian’s battlefield, they couldn’t help but to perspire in their hearts from the worrying emotions. They could only hope that nothing would happen to Qin Wentian.

Very soon, Qin Yuanfeng also arrived at the space above the nine heavenly layers. He stood before the giant head and appeared extremely tiny. He felt like he was standing face to face with an evil-head constellation. This evil constellation reeked of pure evil. Qin Yuanfeng’s body instantly expanded, growing larger and larger, becoming a towering god of battle the same size as a constellation. He lifted his hand as the might of six paths gushed out. Just as he wanted to attack, the eyes of the evil head gleamed with a red light. Its gaze contained the Moon God’s dao, drawing Qin Yuanfeng into an illusion.

This world was filled with blood and darkness, as well as countless divine weapons. Evil devils spawned all around him and rushed towards him, wanting to trap him here.

“Kill.” The force of the six paths erupted forth, destroying the evil devils.

And as for Qin Wentian who was inside the head, he was also seeing a similar scene just much more terrifying. Qin Wentian was deep inside the head which YueChangkong transformed into. In this world, everywhere here contained the power of the evil daos. If an ordinary deity was to enter, their body would instantly rot away and be devoured by the evil devils.

But Qin Wentian transformed into a devil sovereign and vanquished all the evil-attributed attacks that were aimed at him. But even so, the evil devils here seemed endless, there was no way to kill all of them. The corrosiveness of evil was present everywhere, wanting to exhaust Qin Wentian to his death.

Qin Wentian's gaze was extremely terrifying. He understood that he has already fallen into the center core of Yue Changkong's dao world. In here, he also knew that he was in some sort of illusion, he might be within the influence of his heart devil. In fact, even these devils he killed might not truly have existed. This was why they were endless in number.

There seemed to be no way for him to gain victory in such a battle.

The devil Qin Wentian transformed into grew increasingly larger as he continued to kill the evil devils. He fused all his daos together and unleashed them in destructive attacks, but even after a long time had passed, he still couldn't kill all the evil devils. Finally, his devil energy was drained, he started to feel fatigued. There were more and more injuries on his gigantic devil body, it felt increasingly tougher to continue persisting.

But Yue Changkong's true body didn't appear at all. Yue Changkong wanted to slowly grind away at his energy, exhausting him to death. And after another long period of time passed, one of his arms was slashed off. Qin Wentian howled in rage and became more violent. His broken arm showed signs of regenerating but before it could be regrown fully, his other arm was slashed off as well. He roared in agony, seemingly extremely miserable. He kept suffering the attacks as the evil devils began to devour him, leading to parts of his body disappearing bit by bit.

And at this moment, an incomparably bright light shone in the darkness. Qin Wentian's head in his devil form was beheaded, and the darkness seemed to turn still.

His devil body was split in twain. The sounds of a soul struggling could be heard. That seemed like Qin Wentian's soul.

"Has it finally ended?" At this moment, an evil voice echoed out. From the darkness, a head floated over. This head belonged to Yue Changkong. He was now staring evilly at Qin Wentian's soul.

"Qin Wentian, I shall inherit everything you possess." Yue Changkong laughed maniacally. His head flew towards Qin Wentian's soul as he began to devour it. Qin Wentian's soul struggled, yet a terrifying dao might erupted forth from Yue Changkong, locking his soul down. His soul had no way to escape. Many of his insights of his daos now entered Yue Changkong's mind.

"How satisfying. All your comprehensions, insights and memories shall become mine. As long as you give in now, I can promise not to kill your women. I shall take good care of them instead." Yue Changkong grinned. The feeling of satisfaction intensified as an intoxicated look of enjoyment appeared on Yue Changkong's face.

Qin Wentian's soul roared futilely, struggling madly. But the more he struggled, the more intoxicated Yue Changkong became. He truly enjoyed this feeling. He closed his eyes, fully lost in the moment.

But at this moment, that destroyed devil body suddenly emitted a sound. In the next instant, a supreme beam of light shot out, cleaving apart the darkness. Golden buddhic light and a golden radiance fused together, a figure flew through the air, shining with holy light as a sword of buddhic energy materialized in his hands. He seemed capable of transcending space and time as he slashed out with his sword.

This sword strike was too swift, even quicker than time. Yue Changkong, who was intoxicated, suddenly opened his eyes. After that, when he saw that holy and resplendent figure, disbelief filled his face. “Impossible.”

That holy and resplendent figure was actually none other than Qin Wentian.

In that case, who was the person he killed earlier? Who was the person he devoured?

That definitely wasn’t an illusion. He truly devoured Qin Wentian’s dao, devoured his comprehensions and memories. That was truly Qin Wentian’s soul. Only then would he be so mesmerized and intoxicated by the taste, completely ignoring everything else, focusing solely on that. At that point of time, he felt no wariness because he believed he had already become the victor.

That was the moment when he was the most relaxed. But at that instant, such a swift and powerful sword attack suddenly struck out, as though it came from beyond this world!

Chapter 2029: True body of the Buddha Sovereign

Yue Changkong’s evil face showed intense panic. The sword light flashed. That evil face trembled violently before being destroyed.

All the evil devils in the surroundings vanished at this instant, they no longer existed.

At the same time, the gigantic devil head akin to a constellation in the external world began to tremble violently. Rumbling noises rang out as it began to shatter and crumble apart. The world of darkness also gradually dissipated. That pair of evil eyes flickered with agony before disappearing. Qin Yuanfeng’s body appeared. He was stunned when he saw the scene ahead.

Earlier, he was trapped by that illusion and he was preparing to break out from it. But all of a sudden, the illusion heavenly dao suddenly collapsed on its own. After that, he saw a bright beam of sword light which slashed apart the darkness. That sword strike was simply too dazzling, exuding a sense of holiness. That definitely couldn’t have been a sword strike unleashed by Yue Changkong.

Evidently, that was Qin Wentian’s sword attack.

“Wentian!” Qin Yuanfeng called out. In the darkness, a golden light flared from a golden buddha body. A sword of radiance could be seen in the figure’s hand. This was none other than Qin Wentian. He slashed the darkness apart and appeared here.

Earlier, if it wasn’t for Little Ye, he wouldn’t have rushed into the dark fog and entered Yue Changkong’s trap. Inside, he was suppressed severely and had no way to connect with the constellations in the sky as he was put into a passive position. He had no choice but to use such an extreme method.

Beside Qin Wentian’s golden body, an illusory figure suddenly took form. It looked like a soul and appeared extremely weak. This soul was also in the form of Qin Wentian. But earlier, this soul belonged to his devil body. That scene earlier wasn’t an illusion he manifested to fool Yue Changkong. Everything that happened was real. If it wasn’t real enough, Yue Changkong would definitely be able to see through it.

“Father.” Qin Wentian’s figure flashed. Two of his figures, one corporeal and one illusory arrived beside Qin Yuanfeng. That black fog hadn’t dispersed completely. The fog gradually converged together in the distance and Yue Changkong’s face actually appeared again. He stared at Qin Wentian as his expression contorted while he coldly spoke, “You played a trick.”

“Didn’t you use Little Ye to lure me inside the gigantic head earlier?” Qin Wentian coldly replied. Any and all methods are considered a type of strength.

“How could I have neglected your avatar. You actually have two bodies, one a buddha, the other a devil.” Yue Changkong grimaced, he had been too careless and this mistake might condemn him to eternal damnation. What about his ambitions now? It has been so long and he finally reincarnated and returned. His purpose was naturally to conquer and rule the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms unchallenged and to walk to the pinnacle of the heavenly dao. If all of his dreams turned to bubbles and froth, how could he be willing to accept this?

“I didn’t expect that you would still survive after that strike.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. He glanced at Yue Changkong. Behind him, a gigantic figure with a pair of terrifying eyes appeared, staring into the darkness. Light radiated forth, enveloping the surrounding space. At this moment, the time in the entire area seemed to stop, a wave of terrifying dimensional energy sought to cleave the darkness apart, wanting to kill Yue Changkong completely.

If Yue Changkong doesn’t die, it was hard for his heart to be at ease. He would also be unwilling to accept this. He has yet to take revenge for Little Ye’s death. A debt of blood had to be repaid by blood.

The formless black fog was destroyed. Yue Changkong’s face disappeared and reappeared again and again in different locations in the starry space. He stared at Qin Wentian, “Which is your true body?”

“Both are my true body. I’ve long fused back as one with my avatar.” Qin Wentian coldly replied. After he merged with Di Tian, there was no longer any differentiation between the true body and the avatar. He could still split into two but both were his true self, they were completely him. But of course, for the second body, only a portion of his soul was in there. The strength of the second body would also be slightly weaker if he chose to split into two.

In the starry space, the black fog continued to explode. However, there was still a large portion fleeing in different directions. Some of the black fog transformed into spears and halberds of destruction, wanting to extinguish Qin Wentian’s dao, fleeing from Qin Wentian’s control.

“It’s so hard to kill you.” Qin Wentian’s voice was ice cold. His sealing astral soul appeared behind him. A moment later, he activated the sealing energy of his sealing constellation and as he glanced over, boundless sealing light erupted from his eyes. The black fog that was flowing away was forcefully sealed. Although it contained the power to extinguish daos, it would still be tough for it to break the power of the seals.

It was truly tough to kill Yue Changkong. Other deities would have their souls disintegrated from the sword strike he unleashed but Yue Changkong actually still survived. In truth, back then Yue Changkong had already lost his body when he devoured the deities of the Ziwei Divine Court, including his teacher. His soul existed in the boundless dark fog and this fog was endless in amount and was filled with the energy of evil as well as boundless life force. As long as not all of it was destroyed, Yue Changkong couldn’t be killed.

But even so, his carelessness earlier caused him to suffer heavy injuries. He used the majority of his power to devour Qin Wentian. At that time, he was lost with excitement and suffered such a destructive attack. From this, one could imagine how terrifying his injuries were. His injuries were even more serious than Qin Wentian’s.

The soul of one of Qin Wentian's bodies was almost devoured but he still had another body. Also, he possessed the Undying Scripture. The Undying Scripture was heaven-defying because it has immense recovery capabilities. Given his current cultivation base, his regeneration was even more terrifying than before. Hence, while he was fighting, he was also recovering simultaneously with great speed.

Qin Yuanfeng also took a step forth at this moment. He punched out. The force of the six paths was like angry dragons rushing out from the ocean, shooting forth in the starry space, chasing after the black fog before directly devouring it. This joint-attack by father and son wanted to eliminate the threat that is Yue Changkong completely. This man was too dangerous. They would certainly not show any mercy.

Mo Qingcheng and the others could see the combat in the air. Smiles could be seen in their eyes. Qin Wentian was fine now, he managed to break free from his predicament and was now joining forces with Qin Yuanfeng to destroy Yue Changkong.

Qin Yuanfeng was victorious and now, Qin Wentian also won his fight. This made everyone feel hope.

Out of the four godking-level battlefields, they already won two. Also, Qin Yuanfeng was now stronger than before. Jun Mengchen was currently also in a marvelous state of epiphany. If this continues on, they truly had hope to win this war for supremacy.

Now, only the battles between the Grim Reaper and the heaven devouring godking, as well as Beiming Youhuang and the Grand Devil Lord remained. Even if they couldn't win outright, it was enough if they continued to drag the battle on. After Qin Wentian and Qin Yuanfeng finished Yue Changkong, they would be able to rush to the two other battlefields and finish the two remaining enemies off.

"Trash." Just at this moment, the Grand Devil Lord who was fighting against Beiming Youhuang suddenly spoke in a cold voice. Black lotuses filled the air, wanting to envelop the space Beiming Youhuang was in. At the same time, black lotuses also began to grow within Beiming Youhuang's body. The battle between the two of them was a battle between their souls.

But even so, the Grand Devil Lord actually still had the time to observe the other battlefields. The word 'trash' which he spoke, was naturally referring to Yue Changkong and Che Hou.

Back then, Yue Changkong went to the western world wanting to form an alliance to attack the Heaven Vault. The Buddha Sovereign agreed. But when the time came for them to really attack the Heaven Vault, Yue Changkong and Che Hou simply stood aside to watch, only acting after that. Although he didn't say anything, how could he not understand Yue Changkong's intentions? Even so, he didn't care about it. He believed that Yue Changkong and Che Hou could be exploited. In the following battles, they would show their value. But now, both of them actually lost so quickly. This made him extremely unhappy.

"You should be worried about yourself instead." The Imperishable Heaven Lord's illusory figure coldly spoke.

“Worry about myself?” The Grand Devil Lord opened his eyes. His gigantic body exuded imposing might, unexcelled in the world. He stared at the Imperishable Heaven Lord and spoke, “Do you really believe that the current you still has the strength to contend against me? Did you think that once the western world army enters the cycle of samsara, this seat would have no way to kill you?”

“Laughable. I’m only fighting with you because…” The Grand Devil Lord icily spoke. After that, the black lotus of darkness bloomed in Beiming Youhuang’s body, radiating a soul-rending force. In an instant, the roots of the lotuses spread out and forcefully invaded Beiming Youhuang’s soul, implanting their seed in her.

Behind Beiming Youhuang, the Imperishable Heaven Lord and the wills of many ancient heavenly deities from the ancient battlefield surged into her frenziedly, passing their strength to Beiming Youhuang to fend off the invasion. A powerful killing might was unleashed, flooding towards the black lotuses.

But at this moment, those black lotuses took on human form. They actually took on Qin Wentian’s appearance. These figures were like planting their seeds in Beiming Youhuang’s dao heart. Beiming Youhuang’s soul trembled violently, she couldn’t bear to kill them.

“This is your heart devil. He is the Buddha Sovereign and has perfect mastery in all the buddha arts. Now that he became a devil, his power to bewilder the hearts of others would only become stronger. Don’t be tricked.” The Imperishable Heaven Lord reminded. Beiming Youhuang gave a loud shout, her long hair fluttered in the wind as she decisively directed the killing might towards the figures resembling Qin Wentian.

Blood flowed from them, one of them stared at her fixedly, “Youhuang, you want to kill me?”

His voice echoed out, reverberating ceaselessly in Beiming Youhuang’s soul. This caused Beiming Youhuang to lose control of her dao heart. How could she want to kill Qin Wentian? How could she?

It was fake. Everything was illusory. She mustn’t be fooled.

She didn’t allow herself to waver.

“KILL!” Beiming Youhuang’s eyes flashed with resolve as she continued. Those figures disintegrated under the powerful killing might. At this moment, golden light flashed as a golden buddha appeared. It was as though this buddha was unkillable and invulnerable.

“Are these your true forms? Godking of the Western Region.” Beiming Youhuang felt a chill in her heart.

From the start of the battle until now, the Buddha Sovereign has never shown himself. Now, he actually appeared in her soul. Was that his true self?

“It’s me.” That figure admitted. “I’ve always been present, and I’m everywhere. It’s just that you aren’t capable enough of discovering me. I wasted time and fought with you for so long not because I couldn’t kill you. It was only for me to obtain your soul dao art. Now, in this world. There will no longer be anyone capable of blocking me. Leaving you aside, even if the Imperishable Heaven Lord revived and came here with her peak power, she would no longer be able to do so.”

Chapter 2030: Opportunity

‘I’ve always been present, and I’m everywhere.’

The Buddha Sovereign was then the most terrifying opponent. Beiming Youhuang’s heart felt extremely cold. She watched as the golden buddha in her body multiplied, becoming more and more. In her soul, the Buddha Sovereign was everywhere. Both buddhic chants and devilish chants rang out together. Beiming Youhuang’s body trembled violently. The golden lotuses and black lotuses of darkness seemed to be of one body, growing from her soul, wanting to seize her everything. Her beautiful features contorted, it felt like she was about to become a female buddha.

“No…” Beiming Youhuang roared loudly. She felt herself being controlled. Her sovereignty over her own body was being seized away. This was worse than death.

Her long hair fluttered in the wind. At this moment, Beiming Youhuang felt extremely miserable. The grim reaper howled and rushed towards her. However, the attacks of the heaven devouring godking grew even more terrifying, not allowing the grim reaper to leave their battlefield.

Qin Wentian who was currently dealing with Yue Changkong also noticed the situation here. His heart trembled as he called out, “Youhuang!”

As the sound of his voice rang out, his eyes glanced at the boundless starry space. In an instant, all the sealing-attribute constellations cast their light onto Beiming Youhuang, their energy entering her body. Numerous powerful seals manifested within Beiming Youhuang’s body. Qin Wentian has experienced a similar situation before when the Reincarnation Buddha tried to possess him. He wanted to help Beiming Youhuang free herself.

His powerful dao might entered Beiming Youhuang’s soul. Qin Wentian could see the golden buddhas. Right now, there were two types of energy running rampant in Beiming Youhuang’s body, causing her to be in extreme agony. Her will could collapse at any time, she had no way to endure this. Her face turned pale as her delicate frame shook. Her long hair fluttered wildly. Those who saw this all felt their hearts trembling.

“Youhuang!” Qin Wentian decisively gave up his pursuit of Yue Changkong when he saw how much agony Beiming Youhuang was in. He stepped through space and arrived beside her. His soul energy frenziedly gushed into her as he placed his palm on her body, intent on using his sealing arts to aid her, destroying the golden buddhas within her soul. The golden buddhas were destroyed one by one, but they all had the same smile on their faces as they disappeared.

“Pu…” Beiming Youhuang coughed out a mouthful of fresh blood as her countenance turned as pale as paper. Numerous figures rushed here. Qin Yuanfeng also arrived, he stared straight at the Grand Devil Lord.

A cloud of black fog gusted over, appearing beside the Grand Devil Lord as it transformed into a giant face. This was none other than Yue Changkong. But the current Yue Changkong was no longer a threat. Only the Buddha Sovereign was a threat. He was too powerful, and it seemed that he was still hiding a part of his strength even now.

“How are you feeling?” Qin Wentian supported Beiming Youhuang. Beiming Youhuang shook her head lightly, her expression was completely pale. Even the Imperishable Heaven Lord’s illusory figure behind her became much fainter. She stared at the Grand Devil Lord and coldly spoke, “So you are the Godking of the Western Paradise, an entity that’s both buddha and devil.”

The Grand Devil Lord revealed an icy smile. He stared at the experts before him, “In the past, you once managed to injure me. Could it be you still don’t understand the dao I cultivate? I’ve already said before I’m present everywhere and my goal is transcendence. The dao I cultivate is the concept of anatta (buddhist concept of non-self). Although I don’t exist, I’m everywhere. Even the buddhas of the western paradise have no idea who am I but in truth, I’ve always been undergoing reincarnation, living lives after lives. Any of the buddhas in the western paradise might be one of my incarnations after going through the cycle of reincarnation. I control all buddha daos, I can do anything.”

“However, I still have no way to transcend this world of the nine heavenly layers. The nine heavenly layers far above the sky enveloped the multitude of lives in this universe. I’m unwilling, I want to transcend it. It’s insufficient to merely cultivate the buddha daos. I need to cultivate all daos in the world. Godking Desolate could devour the power of all constellations and comprehend heavenly daos from them. Hence, his fate was already decided. Also, I was injured by you before. Your dao also contains the true essence of all heavenly daos within. That type of soul dao is extremely beneficial for me. I want to obtain it, hence I wasted time to fight with this little lass today. If not, did you really expect she could last until now? Even if you at your peak returned and fought me now, bringing all deities of Ancient Azure Mystic with you, it would be impossible for you to injure me again.”

The Grand Devil Lord spoke arrogantly. The him now seemed to have transformed, becoming even more powerful than before.

Qin Wentian, Qin Yuanfeng and the others also had heavy expressions. The Godking of the Western Paradise was much more powerful than they had imagined.

He cultivated the immensely powerful dao of anatta. He doesn’t exist in this world but he was everywhere. This Grand Devil Lord was his current incarnation.

“Gu, do you think I don’t know your thoughts? But I don’t care about it. I came to the Heaven Vault not only to seize it. My true purpose is to borrow this grand war for supremacy to gain true transcendence. If I fail again this time, I have no idea how long it would take for the next. I’ve been waiting for this day for far too long. If it wasn’t for this, I would already have passed on peacefully. I know the past and the future, I can calculate the fates of everyone. I have already seen that the opportunity to transcend is here. Hence, I’m here.”

He continued to speak, each of his words caused the bodies of everyone to tremble. He knew the past and future and could calculate the fates of everyone in the world. He wanted to attack the Heaven Vault not to merely seize it, it was because the opportunity for transcendence has arrived. He wanted to use this war for supremacy to gain true transcendence.

“Gu, your fate is already determined. Why don’t you give me all your power and aid me? You obtained the Moon God’s dao and awakened your past memories, integrating both ultimate daos together. If you give me your power, I might truly be able to see the scenery at the very peak.”

Yue Changkong’s eyes flickered with coldness, he turned his head and stared at the Grand Devil Lord. He has devoured countless people, treating them as nutrients. But today, the Buddha Sovereign actually wanted to do the same to him?

A terrifying energy enveloped this space. The Grand Devil Lord wouldn’t be polite to him. Yue Changkong knew that even if he didn’t want to agree, he had to agree.

No matter who won in this war, he wouldn’t be spared.

“Fine.” Yue Changkong nodded. After that, he flew towards the Grand Devil Lord. From the Grand Devil Lord, waves of devilish light radiated, flowing into Yue Changkong. But at this moment, Yue Changkong suddenly rushed towards the Grand Devil Lord and fused into him. A terrifying evil head appeared, enveloping the Grand Devil Lord. Even now, he still wanted to resist, he wanted to devour the Grand Devil Lord instead.

“An ant trying to shake the tree.” The Grand Devil Lord coldly spoke. The evil head also melded together with the Grand Devil Lord. The face of the Grand Devil Lord flickered, it would sometimes be Yue Changkong, sometimes be the Grand Devil Lord’s.

“You would also be able to see the grand scenery of the pinnacle if you submit once my dao got verified. What’s there not to be happy about?” The Grand Devil Lord spoke softly. He stretched out his hand again as his palm of darkness covered the sky. The darkness shrouded the heaven devouring godking who was fighting with the Grim Reaper. The heaven devouring godking directly gave up on continuing to fight the battle and shrunk in size as he flew towards the Grand Devil Lord before gradually integrating into the palm, vanishing from sight.

“No…” Little Rascal felt extreme pain when he saw this scene. Although he knew his father was being controlled, he still couldn’t help longing for him. Now, the heaven devouring godking has vanished completely, like it was devoured whole by the Grand Devil Lord.

The Grim Reaper’s expression sank. He came to Qin Wentian’s side. The four of them stood together. Right now, Qin Wentian, Qin Yuanfeng, Beiming Youhuang and the Grim Reaper all had heavy-looking expressions.

So it turned out that many things that happened before were just shows put up by the Buddha Sovereign. He should have recovered from his injuries since a long time ago. The Buddhist Sect has techniques allowing one to pry into heavenly secrets, calculating the fates of others. The Buddha Sovereign claimed that the opportunity to transcend has arrived.

Could he really calculate fate and see the future?

The four experts stood together, their hearts were incomparably heavy. Currently, for this opponent before them, how many people were fused together for his current incarnation?

His original self was the Buddha Sovereign, the Godking of the Western Paradise. His body was that of the Grand Devil Lord and he has even obtained the devouring powers of Godking Desolate. Earlier, he just managed to absorb Yue Changkong and Yue Changkong himself contained the powers of Godking Gu and the Moon God.

This meant that their current opponent had the powers of five godkings in one body. And earlier, he also claimed that he managed to steal the Imperishable Heaven Lord’s soul powers. If the him now erupts with his true strength, how strong would he be exactly?

The Grand Devil Lord drew in a deep breath as his devilish eyes landed on Qin Wentian. “In the future that I’ve seen, you are also one of those chosen by heavenly fate. I’ve been waiting for you to mature. If I can capture you, I wouldn’t be too far off from true transcendence. Now, the opportunity is finally ripe.”

Chapter 2031: Unexcelled

The Godking of the Western Paradise had reincarnated many times and cultivated all types of buddha daos. His main dao was the dao of anatta, and he sought great freedom. He didn't exist within the heaven and earth yet he was everywhere. What level of a concept was this? He wanted to transcend everything and become the lord of this heaven and earth.

He knew very well how difficult it was to advance another step at his current level. The difficulty was as tough as ascending to the sky. The dao of godkings depended on the number of constellations they could connect with. They then had to fuse their insights together, heightening their mastery of their daos and establish an unprecedented path to climb higher.

The so-called nine astral souls and nine law attributes was the pathway leading to the heavenly deity realm. If one followed that direction, they would be able to reach the heavenly deity realm and even nearing the godking realm if their potentials were high enough. But there are still innate differences between heavenly deities and godkings. For godking-level existences, which of them didn't depend on their heaven-defying comprehension abilities or lucky opportunities to reach their level? All of them only had one goal, they wanted to break the original constraint the nine heavenly layers imposed on them. Only through transcendence would they be able to truly verify their daos and rise even higher.

Yue Changkong gained the dao of evil, allowing him to control evil beings. The Grand Devil Lord gained mastery of the dao of heaven devil. Godking Desolate could devour the constellations of the nine heavenly layers. The Imperishable Heaven Lord gained mastery of the dao of imperishability. Qin Wentian was even more terrifying. He obtained the inheritance of Godking Xi and he could connect with all the constellations in the starry space. He understood that only this was the true direction leading to the ultimate grand dao.

If one wanted to transcend the nine heavens, one first has to gain control of the power of all constellations in the nine heavenly layers. If not, if you couldn't even control the constellations here, why is there still a need to speak of transcendence?

The Buddhist Sovereign already knew that the opportunity for transcendence would soon arrive. Also, his comprehension over the various daos was also approaching the point of transcendence. He was just a step away, he was now very close to it. This war was the ultimate war for supremacy. It was also his war for transcendence. If he missed this opportunity, it was unknown how many more years he had to wait for the next one.

"BOOM!" The Grand Devil Lord clenched his hands into fists as a terrifying might erupted from him. His eyes were like the constellations in the sky and when his gaze landed on people, Qin Wentian and the rest felt their souls trembling.

"If you all are willing to submit and become a part of me, I can allow a hint of your consciousness to exist, allowing you to witness the scenery at the peak." The Grand Devil Lord spoke. It felt like he didn't place these four powerful experts in his eyes at all.

“The heavenly dao is eternal and unchanging. Before transcendence, no one would be able to see everything in the future. You can’t do it as well. If not, you wouldn’t have been heavily injured back then.” The Imperishable Heaven Lord spoke. The Grand Devil Lord coldly laughed, “As expected of the Imperishable Heaven Lord. Things are as you said, there’s indeed no one who can foretell everything in the future. Even given my current cultivation base, I still cannot see everything. However, even so, with my insights into the dao of fate, I can still pry into heavenly secrets and see some of the things that would happen.”

“In that case, can you see our fates?” Qin Yuanfeng calmly spoke. The Grand Devil Lord glanced at Qin Yuanfeng as a cold smile appeared on his face but he didn’t reply to Qin Yuanfeng. In the air, countless constellations cast their light down onto the Grand Devil Lord.

“Imperishable. For the dao I’m cultivating, I’m only one step away. Now after gaining control of your dao and Yue Changkong’s dao, my dao is perfect. Thank you.” The Grand Devil Lord calmly spoke. Earlier, he just devoured Yue Changkong but he actually said that he had already gained control of Yue Changkong’s dao. This speed was simply incredible but it was very possible for the Buddha Sovereign to achieve this. His cultivation base has already reached an unfathomable level, it was impossible for them to estimate how strong he was. He reincarnated many times and cultivated all the buddha daos. Buddha daos had always been extremely mysterious and powerful. They include the dao of karma, the dao of reincarnation and the dao of fate.

Hence, it wasn’t strange that the Buddha Sovereign could do this.

He stared up at the boundless starry space as countless illusory figures suddenly appeared at this moment. These figures seemed endless in number. Many such figures appeared on each constellation and their cultivation bases ranged from high to low, and their ages varied as well.

“Is it fate or karma?” The grim reaper’s eyes instantly became extremely cold. For the countless constellations in the nine heavenly layers, each constellation would have countless cultivators connected to it. If this is the case, karma would be formed. The cultivators who condensed astral souls from the constellations would surely be connected to it.

At this moment, the countless constellations cascaded starlight downwards, towards the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Within the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, countless lives raised their heads. In one of the random streets, an immortal-foundation cultivator frowned in puzzlement as he spoke, “What’s going on? I’m not cultivating but why did my constellation suddenly cascade its light down on me?”

“Did something happen?” The people beside him were shocked as well. They glanced at the surroundings and discovered to their shock that the same thing happened to everyone. Their hearts couldn’t help but pound violently.

“Are the skies changing?” Someone murmured.

It’s rumored that in the Heaven Region, the ultimate war for supremacy to decide the future of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was currently occurring. However, the war was a matter between those supreme experts and hegemonic powers, it was too far away for ordinary people like them.

But could this phenomenon be because of that?

Within heaven and earth, boundless starlight cascaded down everywhere. It felt like the nine astral rivers in the nine heavenly layers were being turned topsy turvy. The entire world was shrouded in resplendent and beautiful light.

At this very moment, the hearts of everyone pounded violently. After that, it was like their souls flew out of their bodies. Their consciousnesses were floating towards an extremely faraway place, high up in the starry skies. They continued to float upwards and could see the resplendent nine heavenly layers, and they saw the figures of the supreme experts standing here, including an incomparably holy buddha who was fighting against four powerful evil devils. These four evil devils wanted to destroy the sky. The holy buddha wanted to save all of them. They had to lend their power to the holy buddha to aid him for victory.

Similar thoughts like these flashed through the hearts of the multitude of cultivators, entrenched deep in their hearts. They began to provide their power, their faith, and their fates.

Hence, on the battlefield, boundless reflection of light rays shone upon the Grand Devil Lord, connecting with him. At this moment, the Grand Devil Lord could control the fates of everyone. Not only merely for the western world army, he now truly controlled the multitude of lives in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

“Did you all believe that you can resist?” The Grand Devil Lord stared at Qin Wentian and the others as he spoke. Qin Wentian and the others instantly released their auras, their expressions were unprecedentedly heavy. This war was the final war, and was also incomparably dangerous because their opponent was truly just a step away from transcendence. His dao could connect him with the lives and fates of everyone in the world. It was too terrifying. Who else in this world could stop him?

Right now to Qin Wentian and the rest, this war no longer merely concerned their lives and deaths.

In order to aid the hostages of the western world army, Hua Taixu sacrificed himself to his dao, creating the true cycle of samsara. No one expected the Buddha Sovereign to grow even stronger.

“It’s time to conquer and unite the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.” The Grand Devil Lord calmly spoke. His expression changed as his devil intent towered up into the sky. At this moment, golden light radiated from him, the buddhic light fused with the devil intent as both buddha and devil were in one body.

As the sound of his voice faded, Qin Wentian and the others felt an extremely powerful might directly boring down on their souls. At the next moment, their fates and souls seemed about to fall under the control of their enemy.

Such power was truly too tyrannical. The two bodies of Qin Wentian merged back into one but he could still feel that overwhelming pressure boring down on his soul.

Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes stared fixedly at the Godking of the Western Paradise. She felt some regret. It was her battle with him that allowed him to steal her dao of souls, which made him even more terrifying. She summoned the ancient wills of Ancient Azure Mystic as well as the powers of their souls as she aimed an attack at the Buddha Sovereign. Reflected in the air, two illusory figures appeared. One was Beiming Youhuang, and another was the Godking of the Western Paradise whose countenance was blurry, a fusion of buddha and devil. Both were clashing in the air.

"BOOM!" An explosive blast rang out, Beiming Youhuang directly coughed out blood. She, who was originally injured, suffered even more injuries now. The blurry figure's soul energy transformed into a mouth of devouring, aiming to devour Beiming Youhuang's soul. At this moment, Qin Wentian's soul energy gushed forth, transforming into a giant buddha law body that manifested powerful dao attacks. A countless number of buddhic spacetime sword attacks were slashed out, forcing the soul energy of the Godking of the Western Paradise to retreat. Only then did Beiming Youhuang manage to break free. Her pale expression grew increasingly unsightly as her aura weakened.

"You want to protect her? Who can you protect?" The Godking of the Western Paradise, who was a fusion of buddha and devil, coldly laughed. He turned his gaze towards the horizons, that location was the place where Mo Qingcheng and the others were at. In the next instant, boundless starlight rained there, resembling beams of fate. Mo Qingcheng and the others all felt an irresistible force boring down on them.

Qin Wentian's expression grew extremely ugly to behold. He then spoke, "Let us go."

As the sound of his voice faded, terrifying spatial fluctuations enveloped the people around him. Space and time twisted, they directly appeared beside Mo Qingcheng and the others. Qin Wentian stared at the skies as his eyes were cold to the extreme. The light from countless constellations under his will also cascaded down, enveloping this area to prevent the daos of others from invading.

"What should I do?" Qin Wentian silently mused, feeling extremely anxious. This opponent was too powerful. He could attack anywhere he wanted to with just a thought. To the Godking of the Western Paradise, the concept of distance doesn't exist. With the aid of the constellations in the nine heavenly layers, his attacks could envelop boundless space, even reaching to the ground-level of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms from all the way up here. How heaven-defying was that? When his will could directly envelop the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it would indicate that he obtained true transcendence. That was also what Godking Xi had been pursuing. At that point of time, he would truly have surpassed the nine heavenly layers!

Chapter 2032: If He Wins, I’ll Just Kill Him

“BOOM!” The sky trembled, the starry space shook. The nine astral rivers seemed to cast their light at one location, onto the body of the Godking of the Western Paradise. He was half-buddha and half-devil, his body continued to grow in size, becoming even larger than a constellation. He wanted to become a true giant, an existence that transcends everything.

The fates of everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were taken hostages by him. Even a single finger from him was as large as a constellation. His eyes were like shining moons, and by standing in the starry space, it looked like his feet were in the nine astral rivers. The constellations surrounded him, this scene was truly terrifying to the extreme.

In the astral river where he stood in, not only was his gigantic body in there, there were also the reflections of the multitude of lives in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. At this moment, the scene here was projected down, appearing before the eyes of everyone in the immortal realms. The sun has vanished, the world transformed into the starry space. In the boundless starry space, the gigantic figure of his could be seen. He was like the victor of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms about to ascend the throne. He only needed to destroy these people and from then onwards, no one in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would be able to threaten him.

All lives in the world couldn’t help but feel their hearts trembling now. Naturally, the vast majority of people’s fate was now being controlled by him. This was like the ultimate goal of the western world earlier but on a much larger scale. He wanted to gather the faith of everyone for his own use. The Godking of the Western Paradise’s ambitions were even greater now.

In a picturesque mountain range, a location with lush-greenery, there were a few small huts under the foot of the mountains. On top of a particular cliff, two figures stood there. One was an old man, the other was a woman.

This woman was like a maiden from the ninth heaven, simply not of the mortal world. Her beauty was transcendent, it was probably difficult to find another woman who could match her beauty in this world. But she actually lived in the mountain range, far from civilization. Not only was she beautiful, she was also powerful as well. Her cultivation base was at the heavenly deity realm, she was a character that could stand at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

However, this young woman now had an extremely anxious look on her face as she stared at the starry space. The beams of fate cascading down from the sky wanted to control her fate as well. However, as a heavenly deity, how could she be controlled so easily?

She stared at that gigantic figure who was a fusion of buddha and devil. This figure looked so powerful, like an invincible existence.

“I’m afraid it won’t be so easy to flee from this calamity.” Beside her, that old man softly spoke as he sighed. That shocking young man was already extremely powerful. From the world overlord realm, he managed to stir up all the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and even destroyed the immensely powerful Qin Clan. But could he still not escape the clutches of fate? To think a monster like the Godking of the Western Paradise actually appeared. Who in the world could win against him?

The look of anxiousness in the young woman's eyes intensified after she heard that. Her figure flashed, wanting to leave as she soared into the air.

“Nichang, when you rush over the battle most probably would have already ended. Also, if you really head there, you would only be courting death!” The old man called out. He was none other than Qu Shen. Right now, both of them were living in seclusion here, ignoring all external matters.

Her beautiful eyes stared at the boundless starry space, it seemed like her heart has already drifted there.

Daoask City also suffered the disturbance from the starlight.

In the city, there was a holy ground – the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

At this moment, in the airspace above the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, many students inclined their heads and stared at the sky. Their hearts were also incomparably shocked. Was this the Godking of the Western Paradise? Who in this era could stop him? He seemed poised to conquer the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms with unstoppable momentum. Would their senior brother Qin Wentian die here?

During these years, countless junior geniuses entered the sacred academy for cultivation. Many of them had nothing but respect for this senior brother of theirs. Qin Wentian might be the student with the highest accomplishments in the entire history of the sacred academy.

“There are still a few senior brothers of the sacred academy in the Heaven Vault. Would the headmaster head over and participate in the battle?” Many people glanced at an ancient peak within the sacred academy. Their Headmaster Ye was currently standing there and looking up at the sky. At this moment, he didn't exude the aura of a supreme expert. He seemed ordinary and stood quietly behind a figure, executing the courtesy of a disciple greeting a teacher.

“Headmaster Ye probably cannot contend against the Godking of the Western Paradise. The godking is simply too powerful now. I wonder if that person would be able to win or not?” The eyes of many people turned towards the young man in white who was standing in front of the headmaster. Now, many rumors about this white-robed young man were circulating around the sacred academy.

Many people claimed that the creator of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was none other than this young man. He was a true supreme expert and has already attained transcendence. Usually, he didn't bother about matters of the world.

Even Headmaster Ye was taught by him. Headmaster Ye was naturally incomparably respectful of this white-robed young man. It was extremely hard to imagine what sort of existence he was.

Someone also stated that he's the overlord of fate, able to control the fate of all lives in the world.

However, according to the approved sayings of many people, the legendary place of the sacred academy was none other than the residence of this white-robed young man. Only entering there would one be able to gain a chance to meet him. But now, all of them finally saw him. Because of this war of supremacy, he decided to exit the legendary place and personally witness the war.

On the ancient peak, the white-robed young man stood with his arms behind his back. His expression was as calm as ever, with no fluctuations. A gentle breeze could be felt on the mountain, blowing at his white robes, causing his black hair to flutter. His face was handsome and exquisite like he wasn't someone from the mortal world.

“This Godking of the Western Paradise is too evil, he actually took everyone in the world as hostages, ignoring their lives and deaths. Before this, many people have almost died due to him. If it wasn't for Hua Taixu sacrificing himself, those people wouldn't have the chance to enter samsara.” Headmaster Ye spoke. Other than the wind, only his voice was there on the mountain peak. However, the white-robed young man still stood there quietly, resembling a statue.

“Now, he's using the strength of his hostages to transform into a heaven-defying existence. That fellow Qin Wentian most probably wouldn't be able to contend against him. Those little fellows there are all in danger.” Upon seeing the white-robed figure not saying anything, Headmaster Ye continued to speak. However, he still didn't get any reply. This caused him to feel somewhat depressed.

“What are you trying to say?” The white-robed young man finally spoke. The old face of Headmaster Ye broke into a smile as he said, “Master, could it be that you are simply planning to sit on the fence and watch?”

“Through these countless years, you've followed me to many places. Everything that happens in the world would operate automatically according to a prior fixed set of rules. Could it be that I have to interfere every time there's a calamity?” The white-robed young man shook his head.

“Master, I naturally understand this point. Good and evil engenders each other. Humans would have two sides to them. Unless one destroys the world completely, everything would never be able to escape the cycle of good and evil.” Headmaster Ye nodded, but he was speechless in his heart. Since his master has spoken, it meant that he has already decided not to act. He couldn't tell what his master was thinking about, but he knew he wouldn't be able to change his master's mind either.

“If the Godking of the Western Paradise is the victor, I’m afraid that would be a calamity of everyone in the world.” Headmaster Ye sighed.

“If he wins, I’ll just kill him.” The white-robed young man calmly spoke. The gaze of Headmaster Ye instantly froze.

Down below, some of those eavesdropping on the conversation between the white-robed young man and Headmaster Ye felt their hearts pounding violently.

“Cough, cough.” One person coughed ferociously, his face turning red from the exertion, and he almost fell to the ground from fright. He stared at the ancient peak. The white-robed young man quietly stood there. With him present, everything in the world seemed only qualified enough to serve as his foil. When he said those words, he was so calm and casual, like killing the Godking of the Western Paradise was just an insignificant matter.

If he wins, I’ll just kill him?

Killing the Godking of the Western Paradise?

This…

Even Headmaster Ye was sweating. But he wasn’t as shocked as the others. He then murmured, “Didn’t master just say that you wouldn’t interfere because everything would operate automatically to a fixed set of rules…?”

The white-robed young man turned his head and calmly glanced at Headmaster Ye. The calm eyes of the young man actually caused Headmaster Ye to feel that his master was looking down at him with disdain. Did he just say something wrong?

“Aren’t rules created by humans?” The white-robed young man simply replied. When Headmaster Ye saw the disdainful look his master cast on him, he felt somewhat wronged. In that case, wasn’t everything that would happen or not, dictated by his master alone? No matter what he said, it was useless.

However, although the words were simple. Who else in the world was about to say such words so casually when knowing that the enemy was the Godking of the Western Paradise?

The fixed set of rules they were talking about were the invisible rule that governs the universe. The rules are created by humans? Which human could create that?

However, Headmaster Ye didn’t dare to rebut because the person who said these words was his master. In this world, there was no one else more qualified to say such words than his master.

Headmaster Ye depressedly lowered his head. He decided not to speak anymore. It was better to be more honest and stay quiet before his master.

Hence, a strange scene appeared on the ancient peak. The legendary, extremely powerful elderly headmaster of the sacred academy was now like a little kid that was being bullied. He lowered his head. This scene, for those at the sacred academy who witnessed it, would never be able to forget this all their lives.

And their earlier conversation? Was that a joke…? However, given Headmaster Ye’s status, he shouldn’t joke about such things, right?

Hence, at this moment, everyone in the sacred academy was thinking what sort of character this white-robed young man was exactly.

Chapter 2033: The Last Battle

The Godking of the Western Paradise stood in the air, he was incomparably gigantic and there was a cold smile on his face. His gigantic palm stretched out towards a constellation. He then grabbed it ferociously, holding the constellation in his grasp. That constellation then exploded into dust as he exerted force. Those cultivators that connected to that particular constellation all felt as though they lost something. Never again would they be able to sense the power of this particular constellation.

The Godking of the Western Paradise enjoyed this feeling very much. He laughed, “So this is the feeling of having boundless power? I myself didn’t expect I would be this powerful. Many thanks to all of you for giving your strength to me. Since I’m about to transcend soon.”

Qin Wentian and the rest stared at the gigantic figure as their hearts trembled. Their enemy could shatter a constellation with a single grab. Such divine strength was truly shocking. The Godking of the Western Paradise has truly attained an unfathomable realm. He was simply too powerful. Who could contend against him?

“How can we win?” Qin Wentian seemed to be mumbling to himself. Everyone was asking themselves the same thing.

“Jun Mengchen is still immersed in his epiphany. Due to his words, I attained a breakthrough, my six paths became the six daos world. I can sense that right now, Jun Mengchen is trying to envision how he can control the world. Wentian, you are able to sense the energy of all constellations in the heavenly layers, there’s definitely a way to break the situation. Only you have the ability to find the answer. Only then, would we have a chance.” Qin Yuanfeng’s voice was heavy. The Godking of the Western Paradise was so powerful because he managed to fuse the powers of various godkings into his dao, allowing him to be able to sense the countless constellations in the heavenly layers.

“A mantis trying to stop a chariot.” A cold voice echoed through the sky. In the eyes of the Godking of the Western Paradise, everyone else in the world was an ant. He was about to transcend. These people must be dreaming if they feel that they could still obstruct him.

He lifted his foot and stomped down in the direction of Qin Wentian and the rest. Now, he only needed to lift his palm and could cover the sky. A single grab from him could shatter a constellation. What terrifying might was this? Even if it was a casual stomp from him, the entire world would tremble. Qin Wentian and the others could feel the earth-shattering might. This stomp has the power to extinguish all daos. His sealing energy was directly extinguished. It was as though a single stomp could bury all of them here.

“Spacetime.” Qin Wentian used his mastery of the spacetime dao to envelop everyone. Spacetime shifted and they directly vanished, reappearing above a floating palace. There were many of his loved ones residing here, he naturally had to protect them well. If not, a single smack from the Godking of the Western Paradise would be able to crush them all to death.

“Hmph.” A cold snort rang throughout the starry space. Qin Wentian still wanted to protect his loved ones? Who in this world would Qin Wentian be able to protect?

Right now, the fates of all lives were in his control. The people he wanted to die, would die. If he wanted everyone to be buried, everyone in the world would be buried. How could Qin Wentian save anyone?

His palm grabbed towards the floating palace but he saw Qin Wentian activating an extremely powerful spacetime dao might. Astral light cascaded down, Qin Wentian and the floating palace vanished together, appearing once again at a location extremely faraway. However, to the Godking of Western Paradise, even if the distance was far, it was insignificant to him. Currently, his body was boundlessly large. If it was an ordinary deity, most probably that deity wouldn’t even be able to fly out from his palm.

“Godking of the Western Paradise.” At this moment, Qin Wentian called out. His voice rang throughout the starry space, that gigantic figure turned his gaze towards him, exuding an air of arrogance.

“This fight is between you and me. If you can kill me, I will allow you to devour my insights and become part of your strength, aiding you to pursue transcendence. But before this, don’t harm any of the people around me or the multitude of lives in this world any longer. If not, even if I die, I would destroy all my insights and turn into dust. You won’t gain any benefits from my death. How about it?” Qin Wentian spoke.

“Naive.” The Godking of the Western Paradise mocked. “Do you really think you are qualified enough to talk terms with me? All of you are nothing but insignificant ants. Regardless of heavenly deities or mortals, all are the same to me. If I want to deal with you, do you think I will give you a chance to destroy yourself? But since you have already spoken out, I can give you a chance and spare the others first. I shall kill all of the participants of the battle first. But if you all still dare to play any tricks, don’t blame me for making your loved ones live a life worse than death after you all die.”

He agreed to Qin Wentian’s conditions. Evidently, he still felt some trepidation with regards to Qin Wentian’s words. His purpose this time wasn’t simply to kill Qin Wentian and the others. His final goal was to pursue transcendence. Although his words seemed casual and arrogant, he was also somewhat worried that something unexpected might happen. If Qin Wentian and the others truly destroyed themselves, they might really be able to affect his chance to transcend. If he missed out on this opportunity, it was unknown how much longer he would need to wait for the next one.

Hence, he didn’t mind agreeing. He could always kill the other ants later.

“Fine.” Qin Wentian nodded. He released his spacetime dao and teleported the floating palace to a place extremely faraway. The Godking of the Western Paradise simply watched on calmly. These people wouldn’t be able to escape him. He wasn’t worried that Qin Wentian might try any tricks.

“Wentian.” On the floating palace, countless familiar figures turned their gazes to Qin Wentian. Only to see Qin Wentian staring at them, “The battle today is unavoidable. If I die in battle, all of you must not give up on seeking a chance to live. I’ve let down everyone, I’m unable to protect you all well.”

“I will accompany you.” Mo Qingcheng spoke.

“Seal.” Qin Wentian’s figure pointed at Mo Qingcheng. A powerful energy directly sealed all her cultivation. After that, he turned to Qing`er. Qing`er’s figure flashed, wanting to evade by using her dao of space. But how could she be swifter than Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian’s gaze caused her body to be immobilized. Qing`er’s beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian. Her white hair was like the snow, and at this moment, her beautiful eyes were wet, causing tears to flow. It was like they were bound by a telepathic connection. When Qin Wentian sealed Mo Qingcheng, she already knew he would do the same to her. They simply understood each other too well.

After that, Qin Wentian sealed Ye Qianyu as well. As he looked at his beautiful wives looking at him, Qin Wentian smiled. He calmly spoke, “If I die in battle today, let us meet again in my next life. I still want to take all of you as my wives.”

After speaking, he turned his head to Luoshen Qianxue. “Mother, bring all of them away. If we die here in battle, you can release the seals on them. Don’t turn your head back and don’t give up any hopes of living.”

Qin Wentian was very clear that if they died in battle, most probably the fates of everyone would be decided. But he still harbored a trace of hope in his heart. He hoped that Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er would live on. Although that ray of hope was minuscule, he didn’t want them to give up.

“Silly child.” Luoshen Qianxue sighed. She knew everything Qin Wentian, Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er had experienced. If Qin Wentian truly died, how would they choose to live on?

But even so, Qin Wentian still did this. True love was able to transcend life and death, including rationality.

“I want to participate in the battle too.” Jun Mengchen opened his eyes. His gaze was ice-cold. “I’m still some distance away. I hate the fact that we no longer have time. I can feel myself already going to reach another point in my cultivation soon, but I won’t be able to make it.”

“Good brother. Let’s die or live together.” Qin Wentian stretched his hand out, Jun Mengchen did the same as they clasped each other’s hands. The two apprentice brothers walked together to this point. Now that the final battle was coming, both of them would naturally be present.

“Are you done?” A cold voice rang through the air. Qin Wentian turned his gaze over and stared at that incomparably gigantic figure. He then turned to Qin Yuanfeng, “Father, this child has implicated you.”

“You are my son.” Qin Yuanfeng calmly spoke. Qin Wentian smiled, no longer saying anything. Qin Wentian then turned to the Grim Reaper. The old fellow simply spoke, “This is the hatred of Azure Mystic.”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian didn’t say anything. In the end, he turned to Beiming Youhuang. Beiming Youhuang was also looking at him. She said, “Do you think that he would spare me if I don’t participate in the battle?”

Qin Wentian was speechless. It was like what Beiming Youhuang said. The Godking of the Western Paradise originally already covets the power of the Imperishable Heaven Lord. And since Beiming Youhuang was the Imperishable Heaven Lord’s successor, how could the Godking of the Western paradise spare her?

Evidently, Beiming Youhuang had to participate in the battle.

“Let’s go then.” Qin Wentian calmly smiled. He stepped through the starry space. Qin Yuanfeng who was holding Luoshen Qianxue, released his hold on her. He smiled gently at her, “Now, Wentian is a man who can bear the weight of the heavens on his shoulders if he needs to. We should be proud of him. Do things according to what he said. If both of us die in battle, you have to live on well.”

“Mhm.” Luoshen Qianxue smiled and nodded. She didn’t feel sorrow. There was no need to spell everything out, they understood each other. She had experienced such a situation of despair once before. Now, it seemed that history was going to repeat itself and her son was even embroiled within. Could her husband and son escape this calamity?

Qin Wentian, Beiming Youhuang, Qin Yuanfeng, the Grim Reaper and Jun Mengchen. All of them flew over together, preparing to face death. They are already standing at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but even so, they could not see any hope for victory in this battle.

But even so, they had to fight no matter what.

This battle was for themselves, their loved ones, for everyone else in the world. If they couldn’t kill their opponent, they would be killed!

Each of their figures seemed so imposing, and so poignant!

Chapter 2034: Mournful

There were only five experts participating. Even for the powerful Little Rascal, he wasn't qualified to participate in this final battle. As for Jun Mengchen, he also only gained the strength to join after his epiphany.

But even so, none of them felt any hope for this battle at all. The multitude of lives in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were also paying attention to this battle. When they stared at the incomparably gigantic figure moving through space, they truly sensed the meaning of the words 'heavenly deity.' That was a true deity, he could grab the moon and stars with a stretch of his hands.

The Godking of the Western Paradise saw Qin Wentian and the four others standing before him. His eyes, that were like the starry space, flickered with a faint smile. After this battle, he might truly be able to transcend. He would then be able to see that unknown scenery that one could only see after standing at the absolute pinnacle. He was now so close to it, so close that he could almost feel it.

"Everything can end now." The Godking of the Western Paradise spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, boundless astral light cascaded down on Qin Wentian and the others. In the next moment, numerous gigantic figures manifested around them in the starry space. There were devils, and buddhas. These gigantic figures all contained terrifying dao intent and were much stronger than the evil devils summoned by Yue Changkong earlier.

"Striping fate." The godking coldly spoke. Qin Wentian and the others felt like their souls weren't under their control. Their souls were trembling and when the dao of fate bore down on them, it felt like their fates were about to be peeled off from them and would fall under the control of the Godking of the Western Paradise.

In the air, a giant head that could devour the fates of others appeared. It opened its mouth and drew in a breath, wanting to attract the strands of fate to fly towards its bloody mouth.

"Kill!" Qin Wentian and the others resisted the power that was striping away strands of their fate. Space and time shifted. Their bodies vanished from their original location and appeared before that boundlessly gigantic body. This dao of spacetime was unleashed by Qin Wentian. This was also the plan they discussed, they would directly attack together or they wouldn't stand a chance at all.

The Godking of the Western Paradise's body was simply too big. It meant that they could hit him no matter where they aimed.

The five experts appeared in different locations next to the godking's body. Boundless astral light cascaded down. Qin Yuanfeng's punch powered by the six daos world blasted out. Six azure dragons threatened to rend everything, blasting into the gigantic body. The Grim Reaper caused billions of divine death seals to manifest, directly aiming to leech away the godking's life force. A punch from Jun Mengchen felt like the explosions of many worlds. Beiming Youhuang's attack caused one of the nine astral rivers to transform into a divine formation that augmented her attacks. Qin Wentian's strike contained all the daos in the starry space. Billions of strands of spacetime sword intent erupted forth, terrifying sealing might gushed out…all these attacks slammed into the same target – the gigantic Godking of the Western Paradise. For ordinary godkings, the combination of so many attacks from godking-level experts would probably cause them to be destroyed.

However, the giant in the starry space was no ordinary godking.

A terrifying devil dao intent gushed forth from the godking and in an instant, all the power of the attacks were gathered into an incomparably terrifying attack and seemed to be grafted on the surrounding constellations, blasting towards the illusory figures of fate that were under the control of the godking. After that, the figures of fate were destroyed. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, countless people perished under this blow. It was unknown how many people died exactly.

"The Grafting Devil Dao of the Grand Devil Lord in addition to the dao of fate of the Buddha Sovereign." The Grim Reaper's expression was extremely unsightly to behold. How should they even fight him?

They attacked him but their attacks actually caused such a great killing sin. Although they didn't mean to do this and only wanted to kill the evil character before their eyes, this evil character took the fates and lives of everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms as his hostages. He could redirect and graft the attacks to the surrounding constellations, causing those unfortunate ones linked to the constellations to die as the constellations were destroyed. This was simply a calamity.

Invincible. This thought flashed through the minds of everyone. Hua Taixu has already sacrificed himself for the dao earlier to free those hostages in the western world army. But now, who else could break this dao? In addition, even if Hua Taixu didn't die, it would still be extremely difficult to break this dao. This was different from earlier. The Godking of the Western Paradise was now much stronger than before and the hostages now were everyone in the entire world.

"Stop." At this moment, a cold voice rang out. In the next instant, everything in this space seemed to become still. The five great experts revolved around the godking's body. They were extremely close to him, and with such a close distance, the opponent's dao could be unleashed to their maximum effect. At this moment, the entire space and time here was stopped, entering a state of stillness.

However, Qin Wentian was still moving. He was also proficient in the dao of time and space. When he employed his dao, he could contend against his opponent in terms of their control over the spacetime dao.

"Break." His spacetime dao enveloped the four other experts and aided them to break free. But at the same time, darkness tentacles sprouted from the giant godking, extending through the air, wanting to lock this entire space away. Also, within the locked space, darkness in a liquid state flowed about. Qin Wentian and the others could sense a terrifying corrosive and destructive might within.

The darkness liquid congregated and formed a river of death, seeking to engulf everything, wanting to bury them inside.

“We have to rush out.” Jun Mengchen spoke. “Follow me.”

An incomparably resplendent world light radiated from him, towering up into the sky. The others followed behind him. They were enveloped by a world. The river of death could even corrode worlds. The worlds around Jun Mengchen’s surroundings began to explode frenziedly, opening up a path of survival for them to flee out of the darkness.

However, what awaited them was a giant palm of darkness that could destroy everything.

“BOOM!” That palm strike landed, destroying the worlds. Jun Mengchen and the other experts were sent flying from a single smack. Their bodies flew past the constellations. The force behind the attack was too powerful. Jun Mengchen bore the brunt of it, he groaned in pain as the world light radiating from him, which created the divine world body, now had cracks on it.

The buddhas and devils here all began to rush towards them. Qin Wentian and the others all felt some despair when they saw this. At this moment, Qin Wentian closed his eyes. Within his astral gate, the starry world began to unleash a dazzling light, forming a connection with the nine heavenly layers. Boundless astral light cascaded down, the sealing-attribute constellations all began to release a terrifying sealing light that flowed towards and engulfed the buddhas and devils, as well as the constellations in the surroundings. He wanted to seal them all away.

When the sealing light was reflected towards the constellations, those constellations were sealed, the godking could no longer borrow their power. The countless illusory figures formed from strands of fate also vanished. Clearly, the connection between those strands of fates and numerous experts were now severed.

“It’s useful!” Beiming Youhuang and the others could see the scene. However, they were still too weak. It wasn’t that Qin Wentian was weak, Qin Wentian was already sufficiently powerful, borrowing the power of all sealing-attribute constellations to aid him. This terrifying power could be compared to the Godking of the Western Paradise’s direct control over the power of countless constellations in the nine heavenly layers but it was much weaker. He had no way to seal all the constellations away.

“Protect senior brother!” Jun Mengchen spoke. He also could connect to the countless constellations. Boundless astral light fell onto him, his body was like an entire world. He rushed towards a direction and punched out, opening up a pathway by slaughtering the buddhas and devils.

Qin Yuanfeng and the other two stood around Qin Wentian, fighting against the evil devils and buddhas. These summons were much stronger compared to Yue Changkong’s summons. Beiming Youhuang found it the toughest. After all, her soul suffered an injury earlier. At this moment, a powerful buddha palm strike blasted into her body, causing her delicate frame to be like a falling leaf in the wind as she coughed out large mouthfuls of fresh blood.

Upon seeing this scene, the Grim Reaper’s figure flashed as he flew over. Beiming Youhuang wasn’t just his successor, she was also the bearer of the woman he loved. Right now, the Imperishable Heaven Lord had to depend on her body to live on, appearing in the world again through her.

“Courting death.” The Godking of the Western Paradise coldly spoke as he stared at this scene. Disdain could be seen in his eyes. Qin Wentian actually wanted to seal all the constellations? This actually caused him to be somewhat shocked but evidently, Qin Wentian didn’t have such power.

“Let’s finish you off first.” The godking glanced at the Grim Reaper. His gaze was terrifying to the extreme, directly immobilizing the Grim Reaper while also trying to strip away his soul. The buddha and devil summons arrived. A spear of darkness directly pierced through his back as the terrifying corrosion energy seeped into him, devouring his life force. His fate was also peeled off bit by bit. He no longer had a way to resist the Godking of the Western Paradise’s dao.

“Teacher!” Beiming Youhuang called out loudly. But at this moment, she also found it hard to protect herself. It was basically impossible for her to save the Grim Reaper.

Qin Wentian gave up his attempt to continue sealing. Spacetime twisted, he directly appeared beside the Grim Reaper. Numerous terrifying dimensional blackholes manifested around him, but the buddhas and devils rushed over in endless waves, destroying the dimensional black holes. Qin Wentian turned his head back and roared in anger. His voice shook the entire sky and the power of his dao, that was contained within his voice, actually caused the bodies of those buddhas and devils to shatter apart.

He brought the Grim Reaper by shifting space and time. The Godking of the Western Paradise snorted, stretching a hand out as an illusory figure formed from the strands of Grim Reaper’s fate appeared. His fate wasn’t under his control anymore. This caused Qin Wentian to stop as he stared helplessly at this scene.

“It’s useless, I didn’t expect that we are still unable to stop him despite there being five of us.” The Grim Reaper stared at Qin Wentian. “Brat, you’ve already grown to the point where you are stronger than me. The hope of Azure Mystic lies on your shoulders. No matter what, you cannot lose this battle.”

Qin Wentian felt a chill in his heart as he called out, “Teacher!”

A smile flickered in the Grim Reaper’s eyes, feeling gratified in his heart. But his body trembled even more violently. He was heavily injured no longer had a way to resist the invasion of their opponent’s dao.

“Also, treat Youhuang well.” The Grim Reaper smiled. At this moment, Beiming Youhuang also arrived here. The illusory figure of the Imperishable Heaven Lord floated towards the Grim Reaper. Tears could be seen in her eyes. The powerful Heaven Lord could actually also cry.

“Don’t cry. If you cry, you will not be as beautiful.” The crazy old freak smiled, it was the most radiant smile he had shown in his entire life.

“We will definitely win this battle.” The Imperishable Heaven Lord turned and looked at Beiming Youhuang. “Youhuang, are you willing to sacrifice yourself to grant all your strength to Wentian?”

“Mhm,” Beiming Youhuang didn’t hesitate to nod her head. She inclined her head and stared at Qin Wentian. Her beautiful eyes were filled with tenderness. There was no need for her to consider this question at all, she was naturally willing to do so. She didn’t want to be the same as the Imperishable Heaven Lord, watching the man she loved die. This scene was too mournful and miserable. She would rather she was the one who died instead.

“Good.” The Imperishable Heaven Lord nodded her head. She stared at the Grim Reaper. “Back then, the two of us cannot be compared to the two of them now. Since we could defeat the Buddha Sovereign then, they can also defeat the Godking of the Western Paradise now.”

“Mhm.” The Grim Reaper nodded heavily. Although they understood that hope was truly extremely faint or they wouldn’t have waited so long. But even so, they were willing to put their trust in that hope!

Chapter 2035: Sacrifice

The Imperishable Heaven Lord stared at the Grim Reaper. His body trembled even more intensely and at this moment, an icy voice drifted over, “Still living in a fantasy?”

As the sound of the voice rang out, a supreme energy bore down. The fate soul of the Grim Reaper was peeled away and flew towards the gigantic figure. The godking opened his mouth and inhaled, directly swallowing the fate soul away. After that, his eyes that were as large as constellations closed, it was like he was savouring the taste.

The Imperishable Heaven Lord didn’t glance over. Her eyes were fixed on Beiming Youhuang. “I’ve told you before the true meaning of the Death Scripture. Do you still remember it?”

“Mhm.” Beiming Youhuang nodded with tears in her eyes. “Death Scripture, only through death would one be able to transform into their dao.”

“The Death Scripture is a type of offering. The true meaning isn’t simply to allow one to control zombies but to offer themselves instead. Only through death could one transform into the dao. In ancient times, it’s said that the Death Scripture and the Undying Scripture complemented each other. Only cultivators of the Undying Scripture could endure the dao a cultivator of the Death Scripture transformed into. Once, I and your teacher joined forces before and I sacrificed myself. Now, I’m afraid you have to do the same as well.” The Imperishable Heaven Lord spoke softly, there was no joy nor sorrow in her tone. This battle concerned their fates and the lives of everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Sacrifices couldn’t be avoided.

Youhuang would vanish if she sacrificed herself, disappearing completely. She would no longer exist. But even if she sacrificed herself and transformed into the dao, such a sacrifice might not be enough to defeat the Godking of the Western Paradise.

However, if she didn’t choose to sacrifice herself, there would be no suspense to this battle. They would all be killed one by one.

“No.” Qin Wentian’s expression sunk when he heard the conversation between the Imperishable Heaven Lord and Beiming Youhuang. He glanced at Beiming Youhuang and shook his head. “I don’t accept this.”

Beiming Youhuang’s beautiful eyes flickered with tears. There was a smile in her eyes as she stared at Qin Wentian, it was like all her tension was released and she was prepared to welcome death. Death wasn’t scary. What’s truly scary was that they have no hope at all. If her sacrifice could bring hope, giving Qin Wentian a chance to win against the godking, what does her death count for?

“Wentian. There are bound to be sacrifices in a war. If my sacrifice can give us a chance of victory, my sacrifice wouldn’t have been for nothing. Don’t forget, there’s not only me and you in this place.” Beiming Youhuang smiled radiantly. At this moment, her tone wasn’t cold at all. There was only warmth and gentleness.

Qin Wentian clenched his fist tightly. From the perspective of rationale, he naturally understood what Youhuang said was correct. If not, the Imperishable Heaven Lord wouldn’t have allowed her to do so as well. However, from the perspective of his emotions, he wasn’t able to accept Youhuang’s sacrifice.

“Look at them.” Beiming Youhuang glanced in the direction of Qingcheng, Qing`er and the others. Qin Wentian looked over. All his loved ones were there. In the air, his father and Jun Mengchen were still continuing to battle.

“If this continues, every one of us will die. Is that the ending you want to see?” Beiming Youhuang was still smiling as she stared at Qin Wentian. After that, the entirety of her soul power began to flow towards Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian felt agony in his heart, he resisted it, he didn’t want to accept it.

“Wentian, don’t hesitate anymore. If you still hesitate, all of us will die. I know you don’t care about your own life and death and would rather fight to the death alongside with me instead of me sacrificing myself. However, this matter doesn’t concern just our lives.” Beiming Youhuang’s voice rang out in Qin Wentian’s soul. The boundless soul energy within her continued to flow into his soul. Qin Wentian could only close his eyes miserably.

Just like what Beiming Youhuang has said. If this only concerned him, he would rather fight to the death alongside her, he was unwilling to see her make such a sacrifice. However, this didn’t simply concern the two of them. His father, Mengchen, Qingcheng, Qing`er, his mother…there were so many of his loved ones who would be affected. Hence, even if Beiming Youhuang’s sacrifice only brought a ray of hope, he had to fight for it.

“In addition, even after my sacrifice, we might not win for sure. Maybe, the ending would still be the same.” Beiming Youhuang calmly spoke. Qin Wentian finally let go of everything and didn’t resist any longer as her soul energy flowed into his. After that, boundless astral light cascaded down on the two of them.

“Uncle Qin, protect senior brother!” Jun Mengchen shouted. He used his world force to envelop the sky, blocking the attacks from the enemy. Qin Yuanfeng also began to rush towards where Qin Wentian was. At this moment, everything that was happening was exceptionally clear in Qin Wentian’s mind.

“Time.” Qin Wentian activated his dao of time when he saw this. In an instant, the flow of time changed. Around his area, the flow of time increased by a thousand times.

Beiming Youhuang sat before him. At this moment, her smile seemed so beautiful, like this was the happiest moment in her life. From this moment onwards, she would be one with Qin Wentian and could feel his aura for all eternity. From now on, she would be a part of him.

Qin Wentian could sense the power of Beiming Youhuang’s soul enveloping the starry space. But at this moment, her soul power continuously flowed into him. The entire starry space seemed to be imprinted into his vision.

“Dao transformation.” Beiming Youhuang softly spoke. Her figure and the Imperishable Heaven Lord began to burn. A flawlessly pure and sacred flame manifested. The Imperishable Heaven Lord’s figure vanished quickly. Beiming Youhuang’s body also became increasingly illusory like she was about to meld with the boundless starry space.

At this moment, Qin Wentian sensed that he truly could perceive the countless constellations in the nine heavenly layers and his perception scope was expanding with every second. This was the soul perception of Beiming Youhuang aiding him, the scope continued to extend outwards boundlessly with great speed while Beiming Youhuang’s soul power was gradually approaching her limits.

Finally, a noise rang out from his soul. Qin Wentian’s soul trembled intensely, his mind felt like it was about to explode. A roar erupted from him. The endless soul power flooded his entire being, causing his soul to die before being reborn again and again. No one knew how much pain Qin Wentian was in now. Every explosion equated to a death, and the soul energy provided by Beiming Youhuang helped his soul to be reborn. He was in this eternal cycle, and this seemed to be like the cruelest punishment in the world.

He finally understood why only those who cultivated the Undying Scripture could endure this.

The Undying Scripture seemed to have been created precisely to endure the power of a cultivator cultivating the Death Scripture transforming into the dao. Now, their soul powers seemed to be fused together as one but Beiming Youhuang’s consciousness was fading.

“Youhuang.” Qin Wentian spoke in agony. He saw Beiming Youhuang’s silhouette disappearing, vanishing completely. In a few short moments, he felt like he had endured the passing of countless eras. How could these short few moments seem so long in duration? Also, after the endless cycle of death and rebirth for his soul, he discovered that he now could truly sense ALL the constellations in the nine heavenly layers. This felt different from the past. In the past, he could sense every constellation singularly, connecting with anyone of them. But right now, it was like he could feel ALL of them at the same time. The constellations seemed to appear directly within his sea of consciousness. His ninth astral gate seemed to be the incarnation of all the constellations in the starry space.

His perception probed, he could faintly sense Beiming Youhuang’s figure within his mind. She has become part of the starry space there and existed everywhere.

Once, the Imperishable Heaven Lord did the same thing, sacrificing herself for her dao. She then borrowed the power of the constellations and sealed Azure Mystic away, and used heaven-defying methods that caused Azure Mystic to be protected from the other immortal realms.

At this moment, Qin Wentian's soul grew incomparably strong. Also, it seemed that he gained control of Youhuang's dao. The dao of the Imperishable Heaven Lord.

"Bang!" A loud boom rang out. The defenses here were finally broken. Qin Yuanfeng and Jun Mengchen's bodies were flung through the air from the impact. They retreated to Qin Wentian's side, both were now injured.

Terrifying explosions occurred. In the air, that gigantic figure of the godking arrived. He lowered his head and stared at them with cold disdain. Only three enemies were left? Beiming Youhuang and the Imperishable Heaven Lord sacrificed themselves to pass their strength to Qin Wentian. But did they really think that that would be enough to defeat him? He originally already has the strength of five godkings. And now, the Grim Reaper became a part of him too. Qin Wentian only had strength from two more people and it has only been such a short time since they became part of his strength. How could Qin Wentian contend against him?

Qin Wentian wasn't him. It was impossible for Qin Wentian to digest their strength so quickly. For example, Qin Wentian didn't have the Grim Reaper's dao that allowed one to digest all sorts of powers completely.

He stared down below, his eyes radiated the light of death which instantly bore down on Qin Wentian and the others. This death gaze of his could destroy all existence. They then stacked together, causing the amount of death might to multiply by an unfathomable amount.

Qin Yuanfeng and Jun Mengchen's expression turned unsightly. Could they still not escape this calamity no matter what? During the process of their fight with the godking, they could clearly feel how powerful their enemy was. It was too terrifying, the godking was simply invincible.

At this moment, Qin Wentian inclined his head. In his gaze, there was only bleak sorrow.

The countless constellations in the air seemed to sense his sorrow. At this moment, the constellations all began to radiate sealing light, cascading down on the space around them.

Chapter 2036: How to break it?

The boundless sealing light transformed into a supremely strong dao art, sealing the spacetime here. At this instant, for the spacetime Qin Wentian and the rest were in, it got completely sealed. When the light of death bore down, the power within was sealed bit by bit by the sealing barrier set up by Qin Wentian.

“Youhuang.” Qin Wentian stared at the starry space. Over there, it was like he could see Youhuang’s shadow. Her soul has transformed into her dao and integrated with the nine heavenly layers. Each constellation there seemed to have a trace of her existence.

At this moment, numerous scenes flashed through Qin Wentian’s mind. They were the scenes of him and Youhuang together.

He recalled when he first met her, the location was in the City of Ancient Emperors. Then under the arrangement of that crazy old freak, the two of them went to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms together, ending up in Lifire Palace of the Lifelong Realm. The moment they came, they offended the Jialan Monarch. He became a bandit while Youhuang stayed in the emperor palace in a state of half-imprisonment. After that, Youhuang was shifted to the Lifelong Sainthall and the Lifelong Realmlord wanted to marry her. Youhuang also agreed to it. All of these were because she wanted him to be able to establish his position in the Lifelong Realm. And because of this, he also managed to become the Lifire Palace Lord.

All these scenes and numerous details flashed through his mind. At this moment, Qin Wentian was still immersed in sorrow. He didn’t try to comprehend how great his power currently was.

“Sister Youhuang.” On the other side of the starry space, many people had tears in their eyes. Mo Qingcheng was crying, her tears flowed like rain. Beiming Youhuang didn’t even want a status, she was content with silently loving Wentian, to the extent she could sacrifice herself for him. For Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er and Ye Qianyu, they did receive something from what they have given up. They have been together with Qin Wentian for many years and loved each other deeply, enjoying each other’s company. But Beiming Youhuang has never enjoyed solo companionship with Qin Wentian before. He has never given her anything.

Even for Qing`er who has always been cold, tears were also flowing down her face. When Qin Wentian sealed them and sent them away as he went to fight the final battle with the risk of death, they didn’t cry. But now, they were all crying.

“BOOM!” The Darknorth Immortal Emperor, Beiming Nongyue and the others wanted to rush out but they were blocked by Luoshen Qianxue and Luoshen Chuan. How could they allow them to court death like this?

“Are the heavenly daos truly so heartless?” Bai Wuya sighed when he saw this scene. That gigantic figure of the evil godking gave no regard about the life and death of the multitude of lives. Yet, he had invincible might.

But no matter if the heavenly daos are heartless or not, the battle must continue.

“Extinguishing dao.” In the air, the incomparably gigantic invincible figure moved. He punched out with a fist that was even larger than constellations, directly into the protective barrier of sealing, wanting to extinguish the power of the dao. Countless cracks appeared on the barrier as it crumbled apart. The seals were all extinguished.

“ROAR!” Ten Thousand Buddhas Assembly! A huge roar rang out as countless buddhas appeared in the air. As the sound of this roar rang out, many people lost their lives. Both Qin Yuanfeng and Jun Mengchen groaned in endless agony, their souls felt like they were about to shatter. Qin Wentian could also feel the boundless soul energy inside him being destroyed. The power of this roar could shatter everything, it wanted to sever the connection he had with all the constellations.

“Wentian, wake up!” Qin Yuanfeng roared, his voice directly ringing out loud in Qin Wentian’s soul. Qin Wnetian’s body trembled. He stared at his father. At this moment, his father that looked like a god of war, was in an extremely miserable state. His face was pale and his aura fluctuated weakly. Once, how magnificent was his father when he borrowed the power of the constellations to manifest a dao incarnation to expel the hegemonic powers when they invaded the Heaven Vault? But now, their opponent was simply too powerful to the point of invincibility. Despite them father and son joining forces, even with the aid of Beiming Youhuang, the Grim Reaper and Jun Mengchen, they were still unable to match the Godking of the Western Paradise in strength.

Now, Youhuang has sacrificed herself for her dao, passing her strength to him. His life no longer belonged to him alone. What qualifications did he have to continue wailing in misery?

He only had one thing to do. He had to fight, he had to exterminate the Godking of the Western Paradise.

Intense rumbling sounds rang out as Qin Wentian’s body continued to expand unceasingly. The three attributes of buddha, devil and demon glowed around him. Swiftly, he became a towering giant the same size as the godking. His body strode across the astral rivers, countless constellations cast their light onto him, illuminating the entire area.

The two of them faced off in the starry space against each other.

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed with the intent to kill. If he couldn’t kill the godking, he could only die.

Those watching the war stared at the projection that reflected the scene in the starry skies. Their hearts pounded madly. This was too terrifying. So, this was the ultimate war for supremacy of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?

“The victor will become the monarch of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Everyone in the world would have to submit to him.” Someone mumbled. The people around him nodded their heads. The victor would truly become the ruler of everything. There would no longer be a need for that person to control the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms through the power of sects or clans. They alone were the law of everything. A single thought could cause the entire multitude of lives to shake. With such power, do they still need to do anything else?

The godking watched as Qin Wentian transformed into a giant but there was no hint of any worry in his gaze. Qin Wentian only had the power of two extra people. Did he think that would make him strong enough to contend against him? How could things be so easy? Out of the five opponents, two have already died. Very quickly, everything shall end.

“Kill!” A cold voice rang out, all the buddhas and devils here rushed towards the gigantic body of Qin Wentian. Each of them had different daos and was able to destroy anything. Their attacks also contained a hint of the power to extinguish daos.

Qin Wentian coldly stared at his opponent. The astral light in the area seemed to transform into a superstrong divine formation with him at the center. Sealing light radiated outwards, sealing those constellations away. If he wanted to kill the Godking of the Western Paradise, he first has to break his dao, breaking the connection between the godking and the multitude of lives, making it so that he had no way to use the faith of everyone in combat.

“You think you are the only person who knows how to summon stuff?” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, numerous buddhas, devils and demon gods manifested in the area around him, each of them at the deity level. The two of them created huge armies that instantly clashed against each other as a deity-level battle erupted. The heavens and the earth shook, the astral rivers here also trembled.

“KILL!” Qin Wentian roared in rage, a gigantic-scale spacetime storm appeared, engulfing the buddhas and devils of his opponent. He stepped out, moving across space. His body size might be huge but it didn’t mean that his speed was slow. His dao of spacetime allowed him to directly appear before his opponent. Qin Wentian then lifted his hand, creating a burst of sword light with the spacetime dao intent, aiming for his opponent’s body. In an instant, sword light filled the entire space as the storm of sword intent gushed forth.

The godking coldly smiled, Qin Wentian wanted to clash directly against him?

In that case, let’s clash then.

A terrifying devil fist punched out, shattering everything. This fist was like a black hole, frenziedly absorbing the sword dao in the air while shattering all attacks. However, Qin Wentian didn’t stop. His sword attacks pierced through space and time, he increased his speed again as his sword intent caused the area to distort.

The punch and sword attack clashed together as the astral rivers shuddered. The surrounding constellations directly shattered from the impact. Qin Wentian only felt terrifying energy gushing into his body, this energy contained countless death seals. This was the power of his teacher, the Grim Reaper, but it was now being unleashed by the Godking of the Western Paradise, aiming to destroy his body. Qin Wentian’s face turned black, his vitality seemed to stop circulating. However, endless life force from within his body started to circulate frenziedly. Boundless astral light cascaded down on him as he sought to expel the death energy.

However, nothing happened to the godking, he wasn’t injured at all. Behind him, countless illusory figures exploded, dying in his stead. Each illusory figure represented the life of someone. The attacks he suffered would be redirected to a multitude of lives.

“As expected, if I don’t break his dao, it is impossible to kill him. This is a calamity for the entire world.” Qin Wentian’s eyes turned ice-cold. No matter how powerful his attacks were, it was useless if he couldn’t break his opponent’s dao.

His figure flashed. Qin Wentian stood in the boundless starry space and used his heaven-defying dao of sealing to continue sealing constellations. However, his dao wasn’t powerful enough to instantly seal every constellation in the starry space yet. Although his speed was fast, it seemed that he wouldn’t be able to make it in time. The godking wouldn’t stop his attacks.

“You truly caused me to feel surprised.” The gigantic eyes of the godking stared at Qin Wentian. “Seems like my hope of transcendence lies with you.”

Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang were people of this era, they became cultivators countless years after him and were merely the successors of people who were once his opponents. However, when Beiming Youhuang’s strength was passed to Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian could actually unleash such tyrannical combat prowess. Most probably, only Qin Wentian could do so. Only Qin Wentian could sense all the constellations in the starry sky and borrow the power of these countless constellations for combat out of all his opponents.

As the voice of the godking rang out, he attacked Qin Wentian again. In addition, Qin Wentian couldn’t even evade. After all, Qin Yuanfeng and Jun Mengchen were behind him.

Countless lotuses of darkness began to appear in Qin Wentian’s soul. The power of the dao of fate also bore down on Qin Wentian. The countless buddhas and devils continued rushing towards him and the gigantic figure of the godking punched out once more. All these dao attacks blasted towards Qin Wentian while Qin Wentian used all sorts of divine techniques to block them. But every time he counter-attacked, countless illusory figures behind the godking would vanish. The godking suffered no damage.

Qin Wentian didn’t dare to counter-attack with full force because if he did so, it was unknown how many more innocent people would die.

“Despicable.” Jun Mengchen cursed in rage. This evil godking actually took the multitude of lives in this world as hostages while fighting with his senior brother, causing Qin Wentian to be extremely restrained. Also, his senior brother wasn’t willing to harm the lives of innocents. But even so, every time he counter-attacked, many people would die.

Qin Wentian was attacked again and again. His gigantic figure trembled as blood flowed from his eyes. While in combat, Qin Wentian actually closed his eyes. He was using his perception to sense everything and to fight.

He knew this couldn’t continue on. Right now, although he gained control of Youhuang’s power. The increment to the power of his attacks was still based on the earlier basis of his strength. Although his power could be multiplied countless times if he borrowed the power of the countless constellations, if he doesn’t deepen his comprehension of his own dao to break his opponent’s dao, there still wouldn’t be any hope for this battle.

What should he do exactly to break his opponent’s dao? If he depended on pure attacks and continued blasting the godking’s body, even if he won in the end, everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would surely end up being buried as well.

Chapter 2037: Since the Heavenly Daos are Heartless, I Shall Change the Heavens

Although Qin Wentian's eyes were closed, he could still clearly perceive everything in the starry space. The buddhas and devils here rushed over, they were like the heartless heavenly daos that wanted his destruction.

In Qin Wentian's soul, the lotuses kept blooming. Above the throne formed from lotus flowers, there was a buddha figure and a devil figure. The buddha was incomparably holy, he spoke to Qin Wentian, "Kindness and evil are both logical. Lay down the butcher knife and you can save a multitude of lives. Why must you be so obsessed with victory?"

Within his own body, an illusory figure of Qin Wentian appeared. He coldly stared at the buddha figure as he icily spoke, "If both kindness and evil are logical daos, you ought to go to hell straight away."

"If you become a part of me, we will control the heavens together. Everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would submit. Why are you so resistant?" At this moment, the devil figure spoke, trying to bewitch Qin Wentain's heart, wanting him to give up resisting.

The buddha and devil inside his soul kept trying to influence him. In the external world, there were still extremely powerful attacks being constantly launched. From within and without, all the daos from the godking wanted to destroy him.

The Godking of the Western Paradise controlled the power of all the constellations in the sky. He borrowed the lives and fates of everyone in the world to battle, transforming into an invincible existence. He was skilled in all daos, how hard would it be to kill him? In addition, any retaliation would kill innocents instead. There didn't seem to be any dao that could allow Qin Wentian to defeat the godking.

"Youhuang, what should I do?" Qin Wentian's perception stretched through the boundlessly vast starry skies and the nine heavenly astral rivers. Youhuang's figure seemed to be there still. The boundless astral rivers were so beautiful and magnificent, like a masterful work of art.

It was like he could see Youhuang's smile waiting for him in the work of art. At this moment, Qin Wentian's heart grew even more determined. Back then, Godking Xi had almost reached the point of transcendence. He connected to the nine heavenly layers and established the Heaven Vault, enveloping the astral rivers. Although he died, he eventually transformed into the tiny astral-being. His mind was an entire stretch of starry space. What cultivation realm was that? Since Godking Xi dared to pursue transcendence, why wouldn't he dare?

"Give up, give up." Countless voices rang out in Qin Wentian's soul, wanting him to give up resisting. Qin Wentian's eyes abruptly opened as he inclined his head and stared at the sky. It was like he could see the Grim Reaper, Youhuang and Little Ye. Why would the heavens let them die? Why were the heavenly daos so emotionless and heartless? Why would someone so evil be able to control the heavenly daos?

“Since the heavenly daos are heartless, I shall change the heavens.” Qin Wentian roared in anger. This caused the nine astral rivers in the nine heavenly layers to tremble. All lives in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could feel their hearts pounding violently.

Since the heavenly daos are heartless, I shall change the heavens? How ambitious was this?

However, could he do this?

The astral light from the starry space all bore down on Qin Wentian. He could sense all the daos in the nine heavenly layers. In his mind, the starry space there began to transform. There also seemed to be the power of the heavenly daos within, and they were flowing through his body.

Back then, for the thing Godking Xi failed to achieve, Qin Wentian was preparing to attempt it now. Since there was no hope, he shall give it his all to find that trace of hope. In order to kill that evil character, he wouldn’t regret it even if he died in the attempt.

Qin Wentian’s body began to swell up. His body was originally already extremely gigantic but it now grew even larger, like it wanted to transform into the new nine heavenly layers. This scene was too terrifying. Qin Wentian’s form continued to expand, wanting to occupy the nine astral rivers. When the constellations in the starry space came in contact with his ever-expanding body, all of them were pushed away.

“What are you doing?” The Godking of the Western Paradise’s eyes couldn’t help but narrow when he saw this scene. He stared at Qin Wentian. He didn’t understand what Qin Wentian was trying to do? Is he trying to self-implode? Or was he trying to kill everyone here?

“Senior brother…” Jun Mengchen’s heart trembled, staring with shock at the figure that was now incomparably huge.

“Wentian.” Qin Yuanfeng also stared at Qin Wentian.

“No..!” Mo Qingcheng frenziedly shook her head. She felt a strong sense of premonition that something bad was about to happen. The people beside her were all staring at Qin Wentian as intense worry and sorrow appeared on their faces.

“The vast heavens have no daos that he approved of. He wants to change the heavens.” The people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms felt their breaths almost stopping when they saw the scene in the starry space. Could Qin Wentian really not be able to win this battle? Was there really no one that could stop the Godking of the Western Paradise?

“BANG!” An explosive blast rang out as the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms trembled. Regardless of which corner in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the people there could feel the tremor. Qin Wentian’s body has vanished, it was like the explosion caused his soul to disperse. But all of a sudden, boundless light filled the sky. Things seemed the same as before, yet it also seemed somewhat different. Another set of astral rivers as vast as an entire world seemed to appear in the starry space. This new world seemed to be stacked with the existing world.

Qin Wentian was no longer present. It was like he had vanished from this world completely.

As the Godking of the Western Paradise saw this scene, this was the first time he was unable to remain calm. Intense waves of emotions filled his heart. He could sense that above the nine heavens, a new world has appeared, a new world with nine heavenly layers.

Has he died or not?

If he died, everything would be meaningless. There would only be one single world, a single stretch of the heavens.

Everyone in the world was staring at the sky like they were waiting for something. Would he appear? Although the people of the world could sense how powerful the godking was, they still had hope that Qin Wentian would be victorious. The godking was an evil devil, taking the lives and fates of the world has hostages.

However, even after a long time has passed, Qin Wentian didn’t appear. It was like he no longer existed in this world.

“AH!” Mo Qingcheng roared loudly, feeling so much pain now that life was worse than death. Maybe, only those beside her could understand such pain.

Why? Why after paying such a huge price and enduring so many things, the ending was ultimately still like this? Could it be that the heavenly daos are truly heartless?

It was like her voice was heard. In the sky, an incomparably gigantic face appeared. At the instant upon seeing this face, the entire world fell silent. Mo Qingcheng sobbed bitterly when she saw this scene. Right now, no one knew what had just happened. Most probably, only the Godking of the Western Paradise knew a bit.

“You actually succeeded.” The godking inclined his head and stared at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian sacrificed his body to transform into his daos. In addition, his daos transformed into a world with the nine heavenly layers.

Heavenly deities could all create their own heavenly dao worlds but who could create a world with the nine heavenly layers? Which in turn would give birth to constellations which manifest the myriad of daos in the world.

Just like what Qin Wentian has said, the heavenly daos are heartless. He wanted to change the heavens.

And now, there were two stretches of heavens. In this new world with nine heavenly layers, it was similar to the old world and it was also Qin Wentian's world.

Indeed, Qin Wentian has done it. He succeeded in something which Godking Xi failed to succeed in and he has even walked further on this path compared to Godking Xi.

He stared fixedly at the Godking of the Western Paradise as an incomparably intense killing intent flashed in his eyes.

At this moment, a cold smile appeared on the godking's face. He stared at Qin Wentian's face in the air and spoke, "So what even if you succeeded? You may control a stretch of the heavens but I'm the same as well. In addition, I control the fate of everyone in the world. How can you kill me?"

"Buddhas and devils, kill!" The Godking of the Western Paradise roared in anger. His summons all began to rush towards the new world Qin Wentian created, wanting to destroy everything.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze towards those summons. After that, boundless beams of tribulation light fell from the starry space. There was buddha light, and devil light mixed within the beams of tribulation light. They could either purify everything or destroy everything. When these beams of light landed on the summons, a resplendent scene suddenly appeared in the starry space. The buddhas and devils were all completely eradicated. This was the grand heavenly dao. Qin Wentian himself was the incarnation of the heavenly daos.

This stretch of the heavens was something he created. The Godking of the Western Paradise merely borrowed the power of the heavenly daos.

"These heavenly daos of the nine heavens are something created by you. How can they be comparable to the true heavenly daos of the nine heavenly layers?" The Godking of the Western Paradise roared in rage. He opened his mouth and inhaled, the power of all the constellations began to flow towards him. Even for the nine heavenly layers created by Qin Wentian, the light from the constellations was also swallowed by the godking. The entire sky trembled as countless constellations shifted positions. All of a sudden, another gigantic face appeared in the air, capable of devouring a constellation in a single gulp.

Boundless astral light flowed towards the devouring face. Time's flow seemed to stop. After that, a world of darkness descended, like it was a different spacetime. This world of darkness enveloped the devouring face, wanting to banish it.

Qin Wentian coldly stared at the godking. As his gaze landed, numerous pairs of divine eyes appeared in the air, locking down the godking's body. The space the godking was in entered a state of absolute stillness, everything there was under Qin Wentian's complete control. The godking howled in anger, wanting to break free from the restraints imposed on him by the heavenly daos.

“BOOM!” The gigantic body of the godking moved, punching out ferociously, wanting to shatter the heavenly daos. However, his movements became extremely slow. He wanted to unleash his own time reversal but he discovered he wasn’t able to do so.

“Even if I cannot kill you, I’m going to seal you forever.” Qin Wentian coldly spoke. If he killed the Godking of the Western Paradise, it would be equal to killing all lives in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

“I don’t believe that your dao of time can seal me.” The godking roared in rage.

“If I can’t seal you, I will simply create an astral river of space and time.” Qin Wentian waved his hand. Boundless astral light cascaded from all time, space and sealing-attributed constellations. These constellations descended from the starry space, landing at the location the godking was in. They transformed into a stream that continued to extend forward, eventually becoming an astral river.

Not only did Qin Wentian want to change the heavens, he also wanted to create an astral river.

The body of the godking was incomparably vast, he could easily wade across this astral river. But now, his movements when inside the river were incomparably slow. Billions of constellations continued to descend, entering the astral river. If the godking’s body was too vast, Qin Wentian would simply continue and make constellations of all attributes sink into the astral river he created, enlarging it until it became boundless, large enough to engulf and seal the Godking of the Western Paradise forever regardless of everything.

Chapter 2038: Calamity for All Lives

The astral river grew longer and wider. The gigantic body of the Godking of the Western Paradise waded in it, wanting to step out from it. His strides were extremely large, the distance he could travel with a single step was immensely vast yet he had no way to exit the astral river Qin Wentian created. The spacetime within seemed to be chaotic, even if Qin Wentian had no way to kill the godking, he wanted to seal him inside the astral river forever.

"How did you create a new stretch of the heavens?" The godking roared in anger. He lifted his hands, wanting to destroy the constellations in this astral river but Qin Wentian seemed unconcerned. Qin Wentian's expression was resolute and cold to the extreme, Youhuang sacrificed her life for her dao to grant her strength to him. All these were for them to obtain a trace of hope. He would definitely not disappoint Youhuang. When he looked at the nine astral rivers in the nine heavenly layers, it was like he could see her face.

The heavenly daos are heartless, he wanted to change the heavens. Back then, Godking Xi once wanted to control the heavens, using his divine sense to envelop the nine heavenly layers while his body became the Heaven Vault. What power was this? He walked in the same direction as Godking Xi but his path was a little different. Youhuang transformed into the dao, using her soul to fuse with the nine heavenly layers. His path also contained his own method. In addition, he fused the advantages of Godking Xi's method and Youhuang's method together and comprehended the nine heavens. After that, he transformed the boundless starry space in the astral gate inside his sea of consciousness into a brand new world with nine heavenly layers, a new stretch of the heavens.

This was exceedingly dangerous, he would die if there was the slightest misstep. Even his soul would be dispersed. If he didn't succeed, death was the only thing remaining for him. But fortunately, he did succeed and created another world with nine heavenly layers. This world was a true heavenly dao world. His will was the heaven's will. Naturally, this only referred to the world he created and not the original heavenly dao of the world they existed in with the nine heavenly layers.

Hence, he hasn't transcended yet. It was too difficult to achieve true transcendence. Godking Xi and the other five godkings didn't manage to do so as well. Although Qin Wentian had gained insights, he still had no way to transcend with a single step. If he had truly transcended, it would only take a single thought from him to sever the connection the Godking of the Western Paradise had with the multitude of lives in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

But even if he didn't transcend, by just being able to create a new set of nine heavenly layers was something that has never been done before in the past. The heavenly daos are heartless, he wanted to change the heavens. Such spirit, how many people could compare to it? He created an astral river of spacetime, wanting to seal the godking for eternity within, making it so that the godking no longer has a way to harm the multitude of lives.

However, what sort of character was the Godking of the Western Paradise? He cultivated countless years and fused the powers of five great godkings into his body, and even obtained the daos of the Imperishable Heaven Lord and the Grim Reaper. He alone was equal to the existence of seven godkings. Even if he was trapped inside the astral river, it was impossible for him to be defeated easily. The spacetime in there was chaotic but they couldn't destroy his will to fight. He participated in this war to gain transcendence. He wouldn't give up. He then began to take large strides, as he continued to destroy the constellations around him inside the astral river. He wanted to destroy this set of nine heavenly layers Qin Wentian created.

Even if this needed a very long time, he wasn’t bothered. In addition, he also had other methods at his disposal. He wanted to see if Qin Wentian would be able to handle all his techniques.

Lifting his head, the godking could no longer see Qin Wentian’s figure. He was trapped inside chaotic spacetime but so what of it? His strength and will could connect with the original nine heavenly layers. With a single thought, he could influence the heavens.

“You say that I’m an evil devil. But are you not the same? Your actions would cause the deaths of countless, how many people died for you already and how many people would die because of your stubbornness? You are the one creating the calamity and bringing it upon everyone.” The voice of the godking rang out, reverberating throughout the world. On the stacked nine heavenly layers of the two worlds, boundless astral light cascaded down, enveloping the astral river. Within the astral river, many scenes appeared.

Qin Wentian stared over. He could see all the scenes that had appeared. On one street, a young woman knelt on the ground crying with an ice-cold corpse beside. Her sobs were heart-rending. Not long ago, the man she loved was suddenly enveloped by a beam of fate light. He seemed to be under the control of someone. Not long after, an immense power of destruction bore down on the man she loved, directly killing him.

In another scene, in a residence, the sounds of sobbing rang out. There were two cold corpses on the ground, belonging to a young couple. There was a little kid beside them, and an old woman. Both were crying bitterly, not daring to believe that such a calamity would happen to their family. The old woman roared in rage and pointed to the heavens. Why would the heavens do this to her descendants? If bad karma existed in this world, why would it target the innocents? Why didn’t the heavens direct the bad karma to her instead?

In fact, there was even a young teenager who just entered the cultivation world but died all of a sudden. His parents were cursing the heavens. Why are the heavens so cruel? Not deigning to spare a kid who just started on cultivation.

All these scenes of sorrow appeared, projected through all locations in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Many people actually died due to the immense sorrow. These people all died because of the battle between Qin Wentian and the godking. They were innocent but fate dragged them into this.

“Vile beast!” Qin Wentian roared in rage. His eyes flared red. These people were all innocent yet they were embroiled into this battle via the Godking of the Western Paradise’s dao of fate.

“Hahaha, what about you? Do you know who was the one who killed them?” The Godking of the Western Paradise coldly spoke. After that, another scene appeared. Beiming Youhuang’s figure was there. She stood there and smiled at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian felt incomparable pain in his heart as he stared at her. He mumbled, “Youhuang?”

“For whose sake did she die for?” The voice of the godking rang out once more. In the air, the light from countless constellations and the sorrow of all lives down below seemed to merge together into an invisible energy that flowed towards Qin Wentian. This energy was unfathomable and formless. Qin Wentian’s tears flowed down his face as he stared at Beiming Youhuang’s figure. He had a feeling that his heart had died. That’s right, who did Youhuang die for?

He glanced down at the multitude of lives below. These families were all broken up. They were the same as him and had people they cherished. But why did they have to die when they were innocent?

“You said that your actions are for the masses and you want to seal me inside the spacetime astral river forever. But can you really do so? In addition, countless lives would perish from you doing this. Look…” The godking spoke again. He grabbed out with his hands, holding the fates of countless people in his palm as he clenched his hand abruptly. In the next instant, it was unknown how many people died. All the scenes of their deaths entered Qin Wentian’s vision, their families all broke apart as they died senselessly.

“You said that I’m the evil devil, everything happened because of me. But what about you? Can’t you see that if I achieved my dao and unified the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms with the masses submitting to me, allowing me to use their gathered faith, I would definitely treat them kindly? How could I bear to kill them? But now, because of your own selfish desires, you caused a calamity to all lives. This calamity was brought about by your selfish desires. You are not afraid of death, everything you have done is for your loved ones around you. However, only you have a family? How many families have you broken up? They all lost their loved ones, what sort of emotions have you forced them to endure?”

The voice of the godking was like the heavenly daos, they merged with the sorrow of the masses and flowed towards Qin Wentian. His voice permeated everywhere, even causing Jun Mengchen and Qin Yuanfeng to be affected. They stared at the scenes as tears flowed unceasingly down their faces. Was their decision to fight against the Godking of the Western Paradise wrong?

Were they the ones who were bringing calamity to the multitude of lives?

“Since the two worlds are stacked, you can continue to trap me here. For every constellation I destroy, I shall destroy the fates connected to it. Let me see your mercy and your kindness.” The godking spoke as countless people died again. The fates of these people turned into illusory figures, appearing in the starry space before Qin Wentian.

He saw a pair of brother and sister, depending on each other to live. The brother was killed. The younger sister carried the corpse, wanting to find immortals to beg them to save her brother. This scene was truly tear-inducing. He thought back to his younger sister Qin Kexin, Luoshen Lei, Bai Qing. If he was killed, they would definitely be as heartbroken as well.

He saw countless scenes of calamity and countless people wallowing in sorrow and pain. He closed his eyes in agony. The strongest heart devil in the world was that you clearly knew that it was a heart devil but you had no way to escape it. You could only endure.

Numerous voices continued to ring out in his mind, along with the calamity boring down on countless lives.

At this moment Qin Wentian, who was in the air, was suddenly enveloped by the light of fate. Numerous beams of fate light cascaded down, attacking him. Qin Wentian lifted his palms and destroyed them but he discovered that they were actually the fates from cultivators connected to the constellations. The scenes of their deaths then replayed out in his mind. All these scenes were striking his state of heart and spirit.

“WHY?” Qin Wentian bellowed. The heavenly daos were heartless, he had changed the heavens but was this still not enough? Why must he endure such cruelty? He only wanted to kill the evil devil and protect his loved ones, yet the fates of all lives were taken as hostages. He had no way to resist.

He initially thought that he could seal away the godking forever and would be able to save the lives of the masses. But he was clearly wrong. Even if the godking had to kill every single innocent, he wanted Qin Wentian to die.

After a few continuous cycles, Qin Wentian’s body trembled. Finally, another beam of fate light descended. Qin Wentian lifted his hand and wanted to destroy it, but he eventually placed his hand down, allowing the light to strike his soul.

After that, even more beams of fate light shot over, blasting into him. Qin Wentian’s figure turned increasingly illusory. He still had his head inclined and was staring at the heavens, feeling intense reluctance in his heart. But what could he do? Should he continue to kill the masses? He truly couldn’t endure watching the scenes of their deaths replaying out in his mind.

When the lives of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms saw this scene, all of them were incomparably enraged. The Godking of the Western Paradise didn’t mind the deaths of all innocent people as long as he could kill Qin Wentian.

Right now, Qin Wentian clearly possessed the advantage and could fight and might even win against the Godking of the Western Paradise. He should be counter-attacking but he was afraid that his retaliation would be the cause of calamity instead.

For the sake of all lives, did he really have to give up?

Who was the buddha? What was the buddha?

Buddha said that kindness would be repaid with virtue. But where was the repayment?

Buddha said that karma comes in a cycle. But why when such an evil character took the lives and fates of everyone as hostages, nothing happened to him?

All lives in the world felt sorrow for Qin Wentian. Could it be that they ultimately couldn’t escape their fates?

Chapter 2039: The Will of All Lives

All lives in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could clearly see Qin Wentian's situation. They were asking themselves who was the buddha, who was the devil?

At this moment, even those lives whose fates were controlled by the godking also started to struggle. Their faiths were struggling.

Right now, the multitude of lives all felt an intense obsession. They all hoped for the Godking of the Western Paradise to fall. They hoped that Qin Wentian could win.

These obsessions transformed into an invisible energy, an extension of their wills, flowing towards the starry space.

In the starry space, when Jun Mengchen saw how much agony Qin Wentian was in, he felt his heart was being lacerated.

Every scene that played out wasn't simply seen only by Qin Wentian. He saw them as well. Tears could be seen at the corners of his eyes.

As he saw his senior brother still struggling, his figure flashed as he actually decided to fly towards Qin Wentian. He came to the side of Qin Wentian's illusory figure and spoke, "Senior brother, I've fought by your side for so many years. Even if it's death, we will die together. Let us try our best one more time. Maybe, we will have a chance to seal all the constellations he is using."

As the sound of his voice faded, Jun Mengchen closed his eyes. His will enveloped the nine heavenly layers and this entire world. After that, all his strength and comprehensions flowed towards Qin Wentian.

"Dao transformation." A single tear flowed from Jun Mengchen's eyes. He stared at the sky and cursed angrily, "Bastard. If I gain control of the heavenly daos, I will definitely shatter the heartless heavens!"

Roars of his anger reveberated throughout the sky. After that, his body grew increasingly illusory. When Qin Yuanfeng saw this scene from below, his heart trembled violently. He smiled as he stared at the vanishing figure of Jun Mengchen before he turned to Qin Wentian. Was this true brotherhood? Using one's life to exchange for a hint of hope.

With the sacrifices of so many people, was it still not enough?

Qin Yuanfeng then turned his gaze once more. He saw another figure moving over, flying through the starry space. This figure was extremely beautiful. Her eyes were filled with tears but it did nothing to mar her exceptional beauty.

“Qingcheng.” Qin Yuanfeng’s heart shuddered. He turned towards his wife, Luoshen Qianxue. Qingcheng’s strength was sealed, how could she fly over? But swiftly after, he understood. His wife and Qingcheng both didn’t wish for Qin Wentian to give up. Hence, his wife released her seal and allowed Qingcheng to fly over.

The beams of fate light continued to blast towards Qin Wentian. After obtaining Jun Mengchen’s insights, his comprehension of the nine heavenly layers grew even deeper. Right now, he felt like he could clearly perceive all the scenes in the entire world. He could see what the multitude of lives were experiencing. He could even see Qingcheng flying towards him. When he saw her, his heart involuntarily trembled.

“Qin Wentian.” Mo Qingcheng inclined her head, staring at the figure becoming increasingly illusory in the air. Her eyes were wet, she coldly spoke, “I don’t care about the heavenly daos, I don’t care about the multitude of lives in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. I’m not so noble. I only want you to live.”

Qin Wentian’s heart trembled violently. At this moment, Mo Qingcheng’s voice sounded so cold and so determined.

“You already have the strength to win the battle, yet you hold yourself back because you are worried about the masses. You only think about the masses, yet have you ever thought of me? Thought of sister Qing`er? Thought of Youhuang? Thought of father and mother-in-law? Who are these people living for?” Mo Qingcheng’s beautiful eyes stared straight at him. Qin Wentian could see her, the Mo Qingcheng now had tear stains all over her face.

“I want you to live. For you, I can endure all the calamities. Even if the calamity that bores down on the masses was to fall on me, I’m willing to endure it all. I only want you to live.” Mo Qingcheng called out, her voice trembled with pain and misery. Her body began to burn, she hoped that Qin Wentian could wake up, she hoped that Qin Wentian would retaliate.

“Qingcheng, what are you doing!” Qin Yuanfeng shouted. However, it was like Mo Qingcheng couldn’t hear him. The flames on her body blazed even more brilliantly like they were flames of the heavenly dao. She was incinerating herself.

“NO!” Qin Wentian howled. He stretched out his palm, grabbing towards Mo Qingcheng but at this moment, beams of fate light shot over, directly slashing at his arm.

“I vow by the heavenly dao. If you live but the masses die, I’m willing to undergo millions upon millions of reincarnations and spend each lifetime enduring the pain of the power of the heavenly daos incinerating my body. This is just the first lifetime.” Mo Qingcheng’s words seemed to resonate with the heavenly daos. Her figure turned increasingly illusory but her gaze was as determined as ever.

“If you die, choosing to ignore your life, ignoring sister Qing`er and my life, in my next life twenty years after reincarnation, I will marry someone else.” Mo Qingcheng’s voice rang throughout the heavens and earth. Her body completely became illusory and vanished after that. A beam of fate light, which represented Mo Qingcheng, flew towards reincarnation.

She wanted Qin Wentian to live. She was willing to endure all of these. Even if she had to reincarnate millions of millions of times and suffer the pain of the power of heavenly dao incinerating her, she was willing to do so.

She didn’t permit Qin Wentian to die. If not, twenty years after her reincarnation, she would marry someone else.

“Qingcheng…” Qin Wentian felt so much pain that it was worse than death. How could this have happened? He had experienced the boundless suffering of the masses when scenes of their deaths flashed past his mind. Why must he be put through this much agony again?

Mo Qingcheng’s voice rang out through the starry space. Those who could perceive the battle in the starry space all heard her voice. But could they blame Mo Qingcheng?

They couldn’t. Her words sounded so cold and emotionless, yet they were filled with such deep love. She only wanted the man she loved to live on. For that, she didn’t mind suffering the pain of being incinerated by the heavenly daos for millions upon millions of reincarnation cycles.

Even more wills transformed into that invisible energy and flowed towards Qin Wentian. At this moment, it was like everyone in the world wanted Qin Wentian to pull himself together, hoping for him to fight. Even though the calamities might fall on them, they were willing to endure it.

Boundless obsessions turned into wills which turned into that invisible energy and flowed into Qin Wentian, aiding him to resist the pain and agony caused by the godking.

Qin Wentian was as though he could sense the emotions of the masses, the obsessions of the masses.

He inclined his head and stared at the sky, letting out a roar of anger. His illusory figure turned corporeal once more. With a single look, his glance turned into a blade that could tear the sky asunder, directly slashing towards the beams of fate light shooting over.

Countless lives were extinguished but at this moment, Qin Wentian didn’t feel the sorrow he did earlier. When the beams of fate light were extinguished, their fluctuations flowed towards him. He inclined his head and stared at the starry space. “Is this the power of fate? All of you hope that I will continue to fight?”

The boundless obsessions turned into will and flowed frenziedly into Qin Wentian’s body. The Godking of the Western Paradise frowned when he saw this. He felt that something was wrong. The fates of many people actually severed their connection with him on their own accords. Given his dao acting as the shackles, this was basically impossible. His dao of fate was extremely powerful, enabling him to easily influence the wills of people for him to plunder their fate.

But at this moment, an unexpected situation actually occurred. An impossible thing actually occurred.

And as for Qin Wentian, his intent enveloped the world and the boundless starry space. He could feel countless obsessions and boundless fate energy, as well as the wills of people of the world. He could sense sadness, happiness, all sorts of emotions from the world. All of these gathered together at this moment, as they transform into immense faith energy, flowing into him.

“The heavenly daos are heartless but the masses are filled with emotions.” When Qin Wentian sensed all the changes, he involuntarily shed some tears. “Qingcheng, I will definitely find you again.”

He stared at the sky, looking at the fates of the masses on each of the constellations. He then called out, “Do you all hope for me to battle?”

The fates of countless people transformed into a superstrong wave of obsessions. This was the will of the masses, the will of all lives.

“I understand.” Qin Wentian inclined his head and revealed a smile. After that, boundless astral light cascaded down from the sky, landing on Qin Wentian. At this moment, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms began to tremble. Not only for the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, all thirty-three immortal realms started to tremble.

In the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, countless people inclined their heads and stared at the sky. At this moment, an incomparably resplendent astral light suddenly flashed through heaven and earth. The entire world was shaking, the sky was filled with multi-colored light. This caused countless people to walk out of their houses and stare up at the sky. Their hearts pounded madly, what was happening.

Not only for Azure Mystic, but the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms, Blazing Sun Immortal Realms, all the other immortal realms were also trembling as phenomenons manifested in the sky. The thirty-three immortal realms began to resonate with each other, and were connected to Qin Wentian.

In the skies, a surge of a mysterious power manifested. This mysterious power was even stronger than heavenly might.

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, the white-robed young man still stood there with Headmaster Ye standing behind him.

At this moment, a smile finally appeared in the eyes of the white-robed young man.

“Master, is this transcendence?” Headmaster Ye asked in awe.

“His comprehension of the heavenly daos are originally already extremely deep, he could perceive all the daos in the nine heavenly layers. After that, with the sacrifices of Beiming Youhuang and Jun Mengchen, their insights further assisted him to create a brand new world with a new set of nine heavenly layers. I once have also done something similar to him before and was at the same exact level of cultivation as him. If he continues to comprehend the new world he created with the new nine heavenly layers, there might be a day where he could rule supreme in his original world. However, if he wants to transcend, just with this, it isn’t sufficient. This world originally has its own set of rules. If he wants to transcend, other than understanding all the heavenly daos, he still needs the will of the masses. The Godking of the Western Paradise had already foreseen this. This is why he wants the faith of everyone in the world via controlling their fates. Sadly, his path is wrong.”

“Without experiencing the calamities that the masses suffered, how could one understand the will of the masses? The actions of the Godking of the Western Paradise could say to be paving the way for Qin Wentian.” The white-robed young man smiled as he spoke, feeling happy for Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian has finally reached this step. In that case, he would no longer be too lonely in the future.

Headmaster Ye also revealed a smile when he heard his master’s words. Qin Wentian has finally transcended.

“Master, in that case, do you want to act now? Now that calamities have struck the masses, we should do something.” Headmaster Ye couldn’t bear the thought of countless innocents perishing in the battle, he had to say something.

The white-robed young man turned to stare at him before laughing and shaking his head. He turned again and walked away as he spoke, “Now, he is already not any weaker than me. Why would I still need to act? This world of the nine heavenly layers already belongs to him.”

Chapter 2040: Return

Heaven Vault, in the astral river of space and time, the body of the Godking of the Western Paradise continuously trembled. The fates of all lives unceasingly broke free of his control. He could naturally sense the resonance of all the immortal realms as well.

"No, impossible. Impossible…" He frenziedly shook his head, feeling an intense unwillingness in his heart. He had already predicted that the opportunity to transcend was near. His prediction was correct but could it be that the person to transcend wouldn't be him?

Why was this so?

He plundered the faith of all lives, controlling their fates. How could the person to transcend not be him?

The astral light flowed. The constellations in the astral river kept vanishing unceasingly. Very soon after, the Godking of the Western Paradise appeared in the original starry space. Above him, Qin Wentian coldly stared down at him. Qin Wentian's expression was cold to the extreme.

"Transcendence? What qualifications do you all have to transcend?" Qin Wentian stared at him. At this moment, the Godking of the Western Paradise felt the whole world looking at him. Each gaze was so cold. The wills of lives had forsook him. He no longer could use the faith of masses to enhance his strength. His aura continuously weakened as the fates of people he controlled earlier were stripped from his control.

The body of the godking kept trembling. After a moment, he seemed to have calmed down. He looked at Qin Wentian and he suddenly burst into maniacal laughter. "I didn't expect that even though I could predict the future and see through fate, I ultimately couldn't see my own future and predict my fate. I cultivate the dao of fate but was played by fate instead. I wasn't in the wrong. I have committed no mistake. It's just that my time isn't now, my destiny hasn't come."

As the sound of his voice faded, his gigantic body seemed to be burning up. The entire space around him began burning. It was like he knew his fate was already decided, he no longer resisted.

A few moments later, an explosive boom rang out. His body exploded as the starry space trembled. The people of the world watched this scene as their hearts shuddered. They all silently mused, has everything ended?

It hasn't. Qin Wentian stared at the vanished figure of the godking as a cold smile appeared on his face. He lifted his hand and grabbed towards the void. An instant later, above the constellations, beams of light gathered there, causing a figure to gradually take form. This figure was extremely illusory and was half-buddha and half-devil. His appearance was also very blurry, his true features couldn't be seen.

“Is this your dao of anatta? Your true body exists above the constellations, you are controlling the lives and fates of everyone from there. Even now, you want to lie to me so you can live?” Qin Wentian’s voice was incomparably calm yet filled with an intense coldness. That illusory figure above the constellations trembled, it howled with anger at Qin Wentian, wanting to break free from the formless heavenly dao energy binding him. But when the power from the nine heavenly layers bore down on him, he actually couldn’t struggle free.

The face kept changing. It then turned into the face of the crazy old freak and stared at Qin Wentian, “Wentian, you’ve finally reached this step.”

After that, it transformed into Little Ye, “Godfather.”

Qin Wentian looked at all of these, there were no emotions on his face. He stared at that figure and spoke, “Since you like to play with fate so much, I’ll let you die from the countless calamities of fate.”

As the sound of his voice faded, boundless strands of fate light cascaded down, transforming into calamities of fate, landing on the illusory figure of the Godking of the Western Paradise. In an instant, he screamed miserably. The countless calamities of fate slowly began to cause strands of the godking’s fate soul to be peeled off. For every second that passed, he felt unbearable pain, it felt like the cruelest torture in the world.

“KILL ME!” He howled in madness. The godking struggled frenziedly but at this moment, Qin Wentian’s heart was as tough as iron and stone. Even when using the cruelest method in the world to deal with the godking, he still felt that it was insufficient.

Boundless rage radiated from Qin Wentian. This was a reflection of the emotions from the wills of all lives. The people of the world were the same as Qin Wentian, and wanted nothing more than to tear the Godking of the Western Paradise into countless shreds. At this moment, there wasn’t a need for bullshit charity and benevolence. If they still wanted to treat the godking mercifully, what did everything from before count for? The deeds of the Godking of the Western Paradise were too heinous, Qin Wentian was right in using the cruelest method to deal with him.

“You will be tormented in this endless chaotic spacetime for billions of years.” Qin Wentian waved his hand. It was like he didn’t want to see the godking’s figure for even a moment longer. He sent the godking into chaotic spacetime, sentencing him to suffer from the countless calamities of fate.

After banishing the godking, Qin Wentian turned his gaze onto the nine heavens. His intent shrouded the world of the nine heavenly layers. At this moment, the entire world felt like it was one with him. With a thought, the light from the world enveloped the area before him. Gradually, a spirit body appeared. This spirit body continued to transform, eventually taking on the appearance of Jun Mengchen.

Jun Mengchen’s body moved about. After that, he opened his eyes and stared at Qin Wentian. He felt somewhat disbelief as he called out, “Senior brother.”

“Mengchen.” Qin Wentian smiled as he looked at his junior apprentice brother.

“Senior brother, have you won? What’s going on? Didn’t I transform into the dao?” Jun Mengchen asked as he glanced over.

“Mengchen, you have mastery over the dao of the world because your true form is actually the spirit body of the world, born from the good fortune of the heavens and earth. Even if you have transformed into the dao, you would simply become a part of this world.” Qin Wentian spoke. This was information that he just learned recently.

“Spirit body of the world? What is that? I was birthed by the heavens and earth?” Jun Mengchen scratched his head in confusion.

A smile appeared on Qin Wentian’s face. “It means that in your future, you will be able to control the world. This world belongs to you.”

“Then, what about you, senior brother?” Jun Mengchen felt that he understood even less.

“Me?” Qin Wentian laughed. He didn’t reply and turned his gaze towards the nine heavenly layers. The light from the nine heavenly layers was so beautiful and magnificent.

Within the boundless astral light, a beautiful figure appeared. This was the figure of Beiming Youhuang. Earlier, Beiming Youhuang also sacrificed herself and transformed into the dao, integrating with the nine heavenly layers in order to allow Qin Wentian to better perceive the constellations in the nine heavenly layers.

“Youhuang, I want you to return.”

Qin Wentian called out to the heavens. Boundless light cascaded down as a figure gradually manifested. This figure was incomparably beautiful and exuded a sense of pure holiness. It was none other than Beiming Youhuang.

She was the same as Jun Mengchen. She started, and after that, she saw Qin Wentian. The Godking of the Western Paradise has already vanished. At this moment, how could she not understand what just happened? A radiant smile appeared on her face and after that, a tear flowed from her eye. This sparkling teardrop was as pure and limpid as the stars.

Have they succeeded?

Qin Wentian was still alive and well. As for her, whether she was able to return or not, it no longer mattered. But now, she actually returned. This was naturally an even more beautiful ending.

Qin Wentian also stared at Beiming Youhuang. The two of them stared at each other across the starry space as smiles appeared in their eyes. Qin Wentian didn’t say any words of thanks. Between them, there was already no need for words. Was there even any meaning to verbally saying it?

Qin Yuanfeng, Luoshen Qianxue and the others all smiled when they saw this scene. They hoped that everything would be well.

During their times of despair, Qingcheng entered reincarnation, Jun Mengchen transformed into the dao. Qin Wentian’s transformation caused the entire world to tremble. Now, did Qin Wentian finally reach the unprecedented step that no one in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms has ever reached before?

Qing`er also smiled as she saw the scene in the air. However, her fists were still tightly clenched. Because, there was someone who has yet to return.

She didn’t know what transcendence means. Could someone who transcended change everything that has happened? To restore the dead to life? If she couldn’t return, Qin Wentian would always be in agony, it was the same for her.

Not only for Qing`er, many people beside her felt the same way. They were happy because Qin Wentian won and all the calamities have finally ended. But at the same time, they were worried and anxious because there was still someone who hasn’t returned. Everyone could understand Qingcheng’s position in Qin Wentian’s heart. Her position was something no one could ever replace.

Earlier, she seemed so cold and aloof. She could ignore the fates of all lives, she only wanted Qin Wentian to live. She’d rather endure the calamities of billions of reincarnation cycles just for Qin Wentian to wake up and fight.

Could Mo Qingcheng return? Everyone was praying silently in their hearts, hoping that Qin Wentian could bring her back.

Everyone stared up at the starry space.

Qin Wentian’s gaze finally shifted away from Beiming Youhuang. He closed his eyes. In the next moment, everyone only saw Qin Wentian’s figure vanishing. But just a moment later, he appeared again and still stood in his original location in the starry space. Before him, another figure appeared. This figure belonged to the Grim Reaper.

At the instant the Grim Reaper appeared, Qing`er’s eyes were suddenly filled with tears of joy. Qin Wentian could do it, he could bring back those who died!

Everyone released the tension in their hearts. Since the Grim Reaper could return, it meant that everyone could.

“What ability is this?” People of the world saw the return of the Grim Reaper as their hearts pounded violently. Someone who died could actually return?

“He has already transcended. It means that he surpassed the daos of the nine heavenly layers. The him now is no longer restricted by the heavenly daos, he has also surpassed the reincarnation cycle of life and death and can return to the past or head into the future. In fact, he can even reverse time permanently. Earlier, he might have gone back to the past and brought the Grim Reaper to this present point in time.” An expert mumbled, the hearts of everyone were filled with shock and awe.

From today onwards, Qin Wentian shall be the monarch of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, having become the victor from the war of supremacy. He fully deserved his reputation. Everyone in the world was happy for him. Luckily, he managed to stop the Godking of the Western Paradise or great calamities would surely befall the people of the world.

“Since the Grim Reaper can be revived, what about the others who died?” Everyone felt a hint of anticipation. Now that Qin Wentian has reached his current level and surpassed the reincarnation cycle of life and death, he shouldn’t be willing to allow the aftermath of the calamity to remain, right? This calamity was too miserable. Everyone was hoping that those who died could be revived.

As for Qin Wentian’s wife, the people of the world also hoped that she could return. Although her words were extremely cold earlier, stating that she could ignore the lives of the world, no one blamed her. They truly and sincerely hoped that she could return.

All of them hoped that the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would have a perfect ending.

Author Note:

I saw many people cursing me. In truth, I could have ended this book right here but I would still take the time to write a few more chapters to properly wrap things up. Many people might feel that these ‘extra chapters’ are nonsense since the main storyline has concluded. Hence, I suggest that for readers who don’t wish to read on, you can treat this chapter as the end. These are words of truth from me, if you cannot read it without constant unconstructive criticism, you don’t have to force yourself to continue reading it. I will still continue to write something more because there are many friends and readers who wish to see more epilogue. Everyone can also suggest and let me know what you all want to read.

Chapter 2041: Twenty Years

Qin Wentian stood in the air. He still had many things he hasn't done yet. At this moment, he could sense the will of all lives. Everyone hoped that Qingcheng would be able to return. He felt very happy when he sensed that.

The heavenly daos are heartless but the multitude of lives was filled with emotions.

Although the world had evil people like the Godking of Western Paradise and Yue Changkong, ultimately, the number of kind people far outnumbered them.

How could he allow such people to suffer calamities?

He closed his eyes and his senses enveloped the nine heavenly layers. Boundless fate-attribute constellations cast their light down, cascading to the world, landing on the countless corpses lying on the ground. These figures all had their fates stripped from them. Now, Qin Wentian was returning their fates to them.

A sort of reversal light radiated from the countless constellations. The fate souls of everyone appeared on the constellations and after that, they followed the reversal flow and flowed towards the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The beams of light were like a rain of life, sprinkling over the boundlessly vast ground.

This rain was so resplendent and beautiful. The people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms found themselves in a dream-like state. It was truly too beautiful.

“Elder brother, this rain of astral light is so beautiful. Can you see it?” At this moment, the young woman carrying the corpse of her brother around stared at the wondrous scene of astral light raining from the sky. Her tears involuntarily flowed down her face.

“That's right. It's truly beautiful.” A voice rang out from behind her. The young woman's body trembled violently. After that, she placed the body on her back down and stared at the figure who just awakened. She couldn't help but to start sobbing out loud. She rushed into the embrace of the figure. Her elder brother just came back to life.

In another location, inside a residence, a young couple sat up from the ice-cold ground. They stared in puzzlement at the crying old woman and child near them as they asked, “What happened?”

The old woman and child started, after that, the child cried and rushed into the embrace of his parents. The old woman's body trembled, she stared at the sky and knelt down, “The heavens have eyes, the heavens have eyes!”

Under an ancient tree, a young man sat there, his heart was like dead ashes and he was now like a zombie. In his arms, an extremely beautiful young woman laid there.

At this moment, the eyelashes of the young woman fluttered. After that, she opened her beautiful eyes only to see the man she loved was in a dumbstruck state, staring into the horizons. She softly asked, “Are you okay?”

The young man started. He lowered his head and glanced at the young woman. The young woman continued looking at him. After a moment of being dazed, the young man dipped his head down and kissed her on the lips. The young woman was stunned, her beautiful eyes blinked and after that, it was like she could sense the deep emotions the young man had for her. She also hugged his neck and let it go, enjoying the sensation of being in love.

Such scenes played out everywhere in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. After suffering the calamity, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms regained its prior vitality once more.

When the rain of astral light vanished, the phenomenon in the sky vanished as well. The world seemed to be filled with melancholy and a sense of loss. Countless people inclined their heads and stared at the skies while giving thanks silently in their hearts.

“Father, mother. Who is it that saved me?” A young man, who just started cultivating that just recently awakened, asked his parents.

“Qin Wentian.” His parents stared up at the sky while hugging their child. This felt extremely heart-warming.

“Who is Qin Wentian?” The child naively asked. The gazes of his parents froze. After that, his father smiled, “He is the Godking of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the Ancient Godly Monarch.”

“Ancient Godly Monarch.” Not far away, there were also people murmuring these words.

“Ancient Godly Monarch…” In all corners of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, these three words rang out unceasingly. Gradually, the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were filled with the echoes of these three words. Everyone in the world knew about it. All of them stared up at the starry space and prostrated themselves in worship. Their hearts were filled with unmatched reverence. In the world, the voices of all of them speaking the title of ‘Ancient Godly Monarch,’ continued rising up, reaching the nine heavenly layers, shaking this universe.

From then on, these three words became the true symbol of faith of all lives from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They all willing believed in it.

Qin Wentian could sense everything that happened in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. However, he didn't feel any excitement because of the title the people of the world gave him. The him right now still had many important things he needed to do.

A figure appeared in the starry space. This figure was a beautiful young woman. She stood in the air and when she saw Qin Wentian, she couldn't help but be stunned. After that, she started crying and called out, "Godfather!"

After speaking, she flew with breakneck speed into Qin Wentian's embrace. She sobbed bitterly, "Godfather, Little Ye knew that you would definitely save me. I initially thought that I will never be able to see you ever again."

"It's fine now, everything is over." Qin Wentain smiled and softly patted Little Ye on her shoulder. Behind Qin Wentian, numerous figures flew over. Among them were the figures of Fan Le and Xuan Xin. Their bodies were trembling and their faces were filled with disbelief as they stared at this scene before them.

"Fan Ye." Fatty's eyes were wet. He didn't expect that his daughter would be able to return from the dead.

"Father, mother." Fan Ye ran towards Fan Le and Xuan Xin.

A relaxed smile appeared on Qin Wentian's face when he saw that their family was reunited. The guilt he once felt has now been repaid. Luckily, everything was in time.

"Father, mother, what happened exactly? Didn't I die? Also, I now feel like I've died before. There seemed to be another me who experienced that. This world I'm in now gives me a sense of surrealism." Little Ye softly spoke. Xuan Xin's tears flowed as she spoke, "Lass, everything is alright. The bad experiences are over now. Your godfather has transcended and surpassed the heavenly dao. This world is now completely under his control. He is the one that revived you."

"Ah…" Little Ye blinked her eyes. She turned her head back and looked at Qin Wentian. "Godfather, in that case, doesn't it means that you are now more powerful than heavenly deities?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded.

"But why do I have a sense of surrealism. I feel that the other me is already dead." Little Ye shook her head, she was very confused. This mysterious feeling felt very strange.

"Silly lass, don't overthink things. Godfather will protect you properly from now on." Qin Wentian gently patted her on her head.

"Little Ye, don't worry. With your godfather present, no one would dare to bully you again in the future." A voice drifted over, the speaker was Ouyang Qinxin.

“Qinxin!” This pair of sisters united once again, they embraced each other happily. However, at this moment, the Grim Reaper transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian. “I feel the same as her. Is it because you changed our original fates?”

Qin Wentian turned to the Grim Reaper and nodded lightly. Seems like there were some residual effects, but being able to do things to such an extent was already the best ending. After all, he had surpassed the heavenly daos and that was the only reason why he could travel back in time to rewrite their fates before he could save the Grim Reaper and Little Ye.

“Wentian.” At this moment, Qing`er stood beside him and softly called out. Qin Wentian turned his head over and looked at Qing`er’s beautiful eyes. Qing`er seemed to have something on her mind. How could Qin Wentian not understand what she was thinking? He walked over and embraced this woman whom he loved as he softly spoke, “Qing`er, from now onwards. No one will be able to separate us any longer.”

“Mhm.” Qing`er nodded lightly, hugging him back.

His mother Luoshen Qianxue walked over, along with many of his loved ones. All of their gazes were trained on Qin Wentian because there was still one more person who has yet to return. That person was someone that Qin Wentian couldn’t lack in his life. If she didn’t return, the ending couldn’t be considered perfect.

Qin Wentian released Qing`er. When he thought back to the icy vow made by Mo Qingcheng, his heart felt a piercing pain. He hated himself for allowing her to feel such pain.

However, should he rewrite her fate and bring her back from a previous point of time?

If he did so, Qingcheng would be the same as the Grim Reaper and Little Ye and suffer the same residual effects. She wouldn’t be complete.

Qingcheng didn’t die, she transformed into the dao and entered the reincarnation cycle. He would be able to find her.

Closing his eyes, Qin Wentian seemed to be sensing something. In his mind’s eye, he saw a bubbly little girl living carefreely without pain or worries. There was no sorrow in her life, only joy and happiness.

A moment later, Qin Wentian opened his eyes as understanding shone within. He turned his head back and looked at Beiming Youhuang. “Youhuang, are you willing to wait another twenty years for me?”

Beiming Youhuang’s heart trembled, her eyes turned slightly wet. She naturally understood the meaning of these words spoken by Qin Wentian. She nodded her head heavily. “Even if I have to wait 2,000 years more, I’m also willing.”

“I’m willing to endure twenty years of longing and protect her, accompanying her as she grows up. I will wait until her memories have returned. I want the life of the woman I love to be perfect and flawless.” Qin Wentian stared at everyone as he spoke. Everyone nodded their heads, this was Qin Wentian punishing himself. For the next twenty years, his heart would be filled with longing for Mo Qingcheng, he would think of her every day. Qingcheng who had entered the cycle of reincarnation, wouldn’t know about any of these until her memories had awakened. Only then, would that reborn Qingcheng be considered complete.

“I’ll accompany you.” Qing`er held Qin Wentian’s hand as she softly spoke. Qin Wentian stared at her, smiling as he nodded his head.

The people in the surroundings had smiles on their faces. To them, twenty years was a very short period of time. They were all willing to wait together with Qin Wentian. Twenty years later, everything would definitely be more perfect.

They were all anticipating the arrival of that day. Wentian told Youhuang to wait for him for twenty more years. Before Qingcheng returns, it’s impossible for him to have any thoughts of marriage. After she returns, a world-shaking marriage event would probably happen in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Qin Yuanfeng and his wife, who were holding hands, tightened their grasps on each other. Everything was now developing towards that beautiful and perfect future.

Chapter 2042: Reincarnation

Qin Wentian was now the monarch of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, his title was the Ancient Godly Monarch.

The name of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect echoed famously throughout the world. There were no longer eight great regions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms as it had been completely unified. The hearts of all lives turned to Qin Wentian, they had submitted to him out of reverence.

In the previous Heaven Region, in the location where the Qin Clan used to be, a towering structure was constructed there. This hall was known as the Godking Palace and became the central core of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The reason as to why they chose to build it in the previous location of the Qin Clan instead of the Boundless Sea Region was a joint decision made by characters of the previous generation, namely Qin Yuanfeng and Qin Tiangang. Naturally, the Godking Palace was incomparable to the Qin Clan from back then.

With Qin Wentian, how could people of the world still remember the Qin Clan? They would only know about the Godking Hall. Maybe, the term Qin Clan would only be brought up because of Qin Tiangang and his son Qin Yuanfeng. But in any case, this faction of the Qin Clan belonging to Qin Tiangang that was forsaken by the Qin Clan back then, has now replaced the entire Qin Clan and was much stronger compared to them. All lives in the world revered the Godking Palace, it was the absolute center of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

As the Godking Palace was established, both the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace of the Heaven Region became a branch of it.

After the war, only a minority of hegemonic powers remained. And in the future, these hegemonic powers would become even stronger. All of this was because their choice was correct, they had chosen to stand by Qin Wentian. For the other hegemonic powers like the Che Clan, Prison God Clan and others, they were now all destroyed.

The name of the Battle Saint Tribe once again rang throughout heaven and earth. The Luoshen Clan, Demon God Mountain, Southern Phoenix Clan, Evergreen Clan, etc. naturally all prospered as they were followers of the Ancient Godly Monarch. All of them had the qualifications to enter and exit the Godking Palace freely. It was unknown how many people in the world wanted to join the Godking Palace.

The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was still a holy ground. No one could shake its status.

And the names of the people around Qin Wentian who had fought beside him, also resounded famously through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

It was rumored that Jun Mengchen had the world spirit body, he was born to control the world. In the war for supremacy, he once transformed himself into the dao to support Qin Wentian. His title was known as the World Godking.

Beiming Youhuang was the woman Qin Wentian loved. It was rumored that they had been in love since a long time ago but because the Ancient Godly Monarch already had his wives, she chose to wait silently. In the war for supremacy, she also sacrificed herself and transformed into the dao, using her soul to integrate with the nine heavenly layers. She died then and was revived by Qin Wentian. Her title was the Darknorth Godking.

Qin Yuanfeng, the Six-Paths Godking.

Qin Wentian's demonic beast companion's cultivation was also extremely near the godking realm now. He was a descendant of Godking Desolate. In the future, he would surely become a godking, it was only a matter of time.

Evergreen Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng's name naturally also circulated through the world. People called them the goddesses of the nine heavens, the wives of the Ancient Godly Monarch.

All the damage caused in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms has now recovered, it was teeming with life once more.

There were countless lives here, but no matter how far they were from the Heaven Region, everyone was making their way there for a pilgrimage now.

From now onwards, the Godking Palace would become a place of pilgrimage for the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Over there, there was a person who had unprecedented achievements and achieved transcendence, saving the lives of everyone in the world. A single word from him would become the law, he could even revive the dead.

There were many people who wanted to beg for an audience with Qin Wentian to revive their loved ones but they knew that other than those who died in the calamities of fate, it was impossible for Qin Wentian to act and save others. If not, the world's order would surely be in chaos. And if everyone wanted him to save people, how could Qin Wentian have time for any other stuff? He would be busy reviving people left and right.

Outside the Godking Palace, there were many people standing together. When they looked at the Godking Palace that towered up into the sky, boundless emotions filled their hearts. There were even some older people who involuntarily broke into tears, they knelt and kowtowed to the Godking Palace.

"Qin Ding and Qin Zheng have harmed our Qin Clan!"

These people were the clansmen of the Qin Clan. They were the same as others and came to pay their respects at the Godking Palace. When they saw the magnificent sight of the Godking Palace, one could very well imagine their current emotions. Regret is a bitter pill, if the Qin Clan hasn't done those things in the past, the Qin Clan right now would be part of the Godking Palace, enjoying the worship of people of the world. How glorious would that be? No other power in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms had such glory before. Such glory even exceeded the era of the eight godkings.

Qin Wentian was now the number one character in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Qin Tiangang and his wife were revived by him and they were residing with Qin Yuanfeng together in the Godking Palace, controlling the center core of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

In truth, at this moment, Qin Tiangang and Qin Yuanfeng weren't as happy as they thought they would be. On the contrary, both of them had bad headaches, there were simply too many things to do.

After the Godking Palace was established, the people of the world came by to pay their respects. How many people and how many problems were there in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? Well done to Qin Wentian indeed, he was just the leader in name but he didn't have any responsibilities. However, no one blamed him. After all, everyone knew what he was doing. Hence, they could only be the ones to handle all the matters here.

"It's somewhat troublesome regarding the Desolate Region, In-laws, does your Luoshen Clan have any ideas? In the past, both the Demon God Mountain and the Battle Saint Tribe were from that region. So who should we let to govern it?" Qin Tiangang stared at Luoshen Chuan. After he was revived, he felt extremely happy after learning that Qin Wentian had transcended. Qin Wentian was his grandson. Back then, he returned via the dao of time and exerted his dominance in the Qin Clan, sending Qin Ding away into chaotic spacetime. The hope of his faction all lied on Qin Wentian's shoulders.

His grandson didn't disappoint him indeed.

"There's no need to worry about my Luoshen Clan, although we were from there too." Luoshen Chuan smiled and waved his hand. He was Qin Wentian's maternal grandfather, there was no meaning for him to want the authority to govern a region. With Qin Wentian present, it would mean that the Luoshen Clan would never be destroyed. Now, was there anyone who could defeat Qin Wentian?"

"Elder brother, do you have any suggestions?" Qin Yuanfeng glanced at Luoshen Yu. The current Skyorder Heavenly Deity has already recovered completely, his cultivation base was restored.

"Before Wentian left, he said that our Godking Palace wasn't established for the purpose of governing the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, we only need to administer and enforce some rules. As long as no villainous existences such as the Godking of the Western Paradise or Yue Changkong appears to disrupt the order of the world, everything is fine. The Desolate Region is somewhat chaotic, why don't we let it be the domain of demonic beasts with the Demon God Mountain governing there? Qi Yu has followed Qin Wentian for many years, most probably, he wouldn't mind this." Luoshen Yu spoke. Qin Yuanfeng nodded.

“Mengchen, can you discuss this with Qi Yu?” Qin Yuanfeng glanced over to Jun Mengchen who was currently browsing through the gifts delivered to them from all the major and minor powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. There were simply too many but with a sweep of his divine sense, he could catalog them very quickly.

“No problem.” Jun Mengchen nodded his head.

At this moment, a figure walked over. It was Luoshen Lei and her eyes flickered with dissatisfaction. She stared at Luoshen Chuan and her father Luoshen Yu, “Grandpa, father. The elders from the other Luoshen Faction have returned.”

“Who?” Luoshen Yu frowned, but he seemed to understand after a moment. He coldly spoke, “They still have the face to return?”

Luoshen Chuan also had a cold look on his face. He then walked towards the entrance. After Luoshen Qianxue heard their conversation, she also understood what was going on. She asked, “Is it Luoshen Mu and those on his side?”

She was already very clear what happened to the Luoshen Clan back then. In the past, Qin Wentian appeared there but Luoshen Mu and his faction didn’t want to protect him and even leaked the news to the Qin Clan. Qin Zheng even personally went over to capture Qin Wentian. Before that, he sent a heavenly deity to deal with Qin Wentian who was merely at the world overlord realm then. If it wasn’t for Qin Wentian having supreme talent and managing to kill that heavenly deity, there definitely wouldn’t be a Godking Palace today.

“Luoshen Mu didn’t come.” Luoshen Lei spoke. Most probably, Luoshen Mu also knew no one would welcome him. But even so, the others of the Luoshen Clan dared to come here? Their skin was truly extraordinary thick.

“We didn’t seek them out for revenge and now, they actually have the face to come here?” Luoshen Qianxue coldly spoke. For the matters of the past, Qin Wentian might not bother about it but she was extremely bothered. Luoshen Mu and his cronies almost caused the death of her son.

“They said that they came here to apologize.” Luoshen Lei spoke.

“Apologizing is false, most probably they wanted their faction to return to our Luoshen Clan, thereby elevating their own statuses.” Luoshen Qianxue coldly stated. How could there be such a good thing in the world?

“Lei`er, pass down the command to capture all of them. Also send out an arrest warrant for Luoshen Mu. I want every detail in the past to be investigated, we will handle all of them together.” Luoshen Qianxue coldly spoke, radiating an extremely coldness. No one questioned her words. Luoshen Lei nodded and left the area, giving the command on behalf of Luoshen Qianxue.

After the command was given, the guards instantly acted and captured the people from Luoshen Mu's faction. After that, not long after, Luoshen Mu himself was arrested and brought back to the Godking Palace. Their endings could very well be imagined.

The news of this matter circulated through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. People of the world claimed that right now, the Ancient Godly Monarch's will enveloped the entire world, for those who offended him in the past, no one would be able to escape. Many people were filled with trepidation. They took the initiative to head to the Heaven Region and prepared to beg for forgiveness.

However, currently, the character revered by everyone in the world, the Ancient Godly Monarch Qin Wentian, wasn't in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms at all.

The fame of the Ancient Godly Monarch has not only already circulated through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the other thirty-two immortal realms knew of his name as well. All lives in the thirty-three immortal realms wanted to head to the Heaven Region to pay their respects at the Godking Palace. The seal over Ancient Azure Mystic was unsealed, and the current Azure Mystic Immortal Realms also expanded. The name of the Heaven Empyrean also echoed to all corners in Ancient Mystic.

The people there already knew that the Heaven Empyrean, Qin Wentian, was now already the Ancient Godly Monarch. He was the first person to achieve transcendence. Even the nine heavenly layers were under his control now.

Those who didn't know about the fame of the Ancient Godly Monarch were most probably the particle worlds surrounding the thirty-three immortal realms.

In the particle world where Qin Wentian grew up in, there was a small ancient city. The Mo Clan was an extremely famous clan in the city. This was especially so because the number one expert among the junior generations Mo Changtian, was a top genius who married the number one beauty in the city. He was envied by countless people.

Today, the atmosphere was extremely busy in the Mo Residence. Everyone felt nervous because today was the predicted day of childbirth for Mo Changtian and his wife.

At this moment, a young man stood outside the Mo Residence. The guards at the door saw him, they could instantly feel that this man was extraordinary. He was clad in white and was extremely handsome but he exuded a type of demeanor that was indescribable. Also, the white-robed young man seemed extremely nervous now and his gaze was turned in the direction of the Mo Residence's interior.

All of a sudden, a baby's cries broke the air as joyous cheers rang throughout the residence.

“The baby is delivered, it’s a young miss!”

“Young Master Changtian now has a daughter. He’s now preparing to name her!”

“Yan`er, what should we name our daughter?” Mo Changtian looked at his wife who was currently still extremely fatigued. He held the baby in his arms and softly spoke, “She will be like you and will definitely be a great beauty in the future.”

“You can make the decision.” The woman softly replied.

“Right. In the future, our daughter would surely be a beauty whose looks could topple empires. Let’s name her Mo Qingcheng.”

Chapter 2043: Accompany

There was one more young miss inside the Mo Residence and the atmosphere was much livelier than before. Also, there were a few tiny huts not far from the Mo Residence. The white-robed young man would sit in the chair before the house every day and stare in the direction of the Mo Residence in a daze. He would break into a smile frequently and he would sometimes walk closer to the Mo Residence as he silently watched.

Gradually, the people of the Mo Residence all got acquainted with him. They felt somewhat strange. Why would such a handsome young man stay outside their residence every day? Also, his bearing was extraordinary yet his aura felt very normal, there seemed to be nothing special about him at all. He was just a good-looking ordinary person.

Maybe because he was good looking and he has never disturbed the Mo Residence, the people of the Mo Residence gradually got used to his existence and simply allowed him to do what he wanted.

In the blink of an eye, half a year has passed. Little Qingcheng has learned to walk. She was extremely adorable and bubbly. Sometimes, her family members would hold her hand and bring her to the entrance to take a walk. Every time the strange white-robed young man saw this, he would be extremely serious and even appeared emotionally moved, with a smile on his face. When he smiled, he became even more good looking but his smile was extremely pure. If not, the people of the Mo Residence would surely think that he had some malicious intentions towards their Little Qingcheng.

Mo Changtian also noticed him. There was a time he couldn’t contain himself and walked over to him, asking him what he wanted to do exactly. Qin Wentian merely smiled but didn’t reply. After all, it was impossible for him to say to Mo Changtian that he was waiting for his daughter to grow up, right? If he said so, Mo Changtian would definitely take him as a mad man.

Naturally, he had too many methods to bring Mo Qingcheng away but he didn’t do so. He would use twenty years of time to silently watch her grow up.

Spring went and autumn came, two years have passed. Qin Wentian still acted the same. His hair was now very long but he didn’t trim it. He also had a beard now. Today, a two-year-old female kid ran out of the Mo Residence. She was extremely cute and her hair was tied in a pigtail. The shadow of her previous life could already be seen from her. As Qin Wentian watch Little Qingcheng running about, his smile became extremely warm and tender.

“Strange uncle, my dad said that the weather would be very cool soon. The wind is extremely cold, do you want to enter the residence and rest?” Little Qingcheng’s voice was clear and very immature. Qin Wentian smiled and shook his head.

“In that case, I will accompany strange uncle and sit here awhile with you. My dad asked me to start reading books and told me I can start my preparations for cultivation. Strange uncle, do you know how to cultivate?” Little Qingcheng asked.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded his head lightly.

“In that case, do you want my daddy to teach you? You can keep me company and read books together.” Little Qingcheng sat down beside Qin Wentian. She who was still insensible about many things didn’t know that what she was feeling now was an innate closeness to this young man in front of her. Beside Little Qingcheng, a snowy white puppy rubbed itself lightly against her. Little Qingcheng giggled and spoke in a crisp voice, “Little Rascal, you are getting more mischievous.”

At this moment, Qin Wentian frowned. However, after that he relaxed, he continued quietly accompanying Little Qingcheng. In the tiny huts behind him, Qing`er stood there, quietly staring in Qin Wentian’s direction. Not far from her, a few other figures appeared. Jun Mengchen, Beiming Youhuang and Ye Qianyu have also come.

“Senior brother truly cares deeply for elder sister Qingcheng.” Jun Mengchen spoke softly. Qin Wentian’s name has long resounded throughout the entire world. It was unknown how many people wanted to meet him to pay their respects but his senior brother chose to come here alone, not meeting anyone, simply wanting to accompany Qingcheng as she slowly grows up.

However, when he thought back to the vow Mo Qingcheng made two years ago in the starry space, his heart also couldn’t help but tremble. He wasn’t able to remain calm. What sort of emotions must she have had for Qin Wentian to make such a vow? She would rather the entire world die, she only wanted Qin Wentian to live on.

“Why did you all come? It’s fine if I accompany him alone.” Qing`er softly spoke. She has always been someone with a quiet personality and she was also long used to simply silently watching Qin Wentian. A very long time ago in their particle world, she has already been doing so. For the next twenty years, she would continue accompanying Qin Wentian like this.

“I have some questions for senior brother.” Jun Mengchen spoke. “Sister Youhuang and sister Qianyu wanted to come over to take a look.”

“Elder sister Youhuang, it has been hard on you.” Qing`er spoke to Beiming Youhuang. Qin Wentian told her to wait another twenty years for him. Now, there are still eighteen years left.

Beiming Youhuang smiled and shook her head. She naturally understood Qin Wentian’s feelings. If Qingcheng doesn’t return, how could he have the mood to marry her?

They didn’t disturb Qin Wentian accompanying Little Qingcheng, and also silently watched on. All of them also missed Qingcheng. She wasn’t just Qin Wentian’s wife. To them, she was also their loved one.

After a long time, after Little Qingcheng returned to the Mo Residence, only then did Qin Wentian slowly walk towards them. When he saw Beiming Youhuang, Ye Qianyu and Jun Mengchen, a gentle smile appeared on his face.

“Senior brother.” Jun Mengchen walked over.

“Didn’t I ask you to take over my responsibilities and deal with matters in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? You can simply transmit a message to me if you have questions, why are you here personally?” Qin Wentian smiled.

Jun Mengchen rubbed his head and laughed, “Because sister Youhuang and Qianyu misses you. Uncle and aunty also asked me to come and take a look at sister Qingcheng for them. They actually also wished to come but they don’t want to disturb you. They will continue to wait in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and hope you would be able to bring sister Qingcheng back as soon as you can.”

“It has been hard on you all.” Qin Wentian sighed and spoke to them. Jun Mengchen shrugged, Beiming Youhuang and Ye Qianyu gently smiled, they didn’t mind it.

“Senior brother, there’s an organization called the Star River Association. Their scale is quite huge and they are very well developed in many particle worlds. They came and begged for senior brother’s forgiveness saying that one of their branches had once offended senior brother when they were in a particle world. I only understood what happened after I read some records of the past and I’ve already captured the leaders of that branch back to the Godking Palace. In addition, the Jiang Clan and some other powers in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms need to be dealt with too. They also came to beg for forgiveness.” Jun Mengchen spoke. Back then, these powers had been in hiding. But now, none of them dared to not head over to the Godking Palace. They were afraid Qin Wentian might remember old grudges. Right now, Qin Wentian was already the Ancient Godly Monarch, it was useless no matter where they hid. They could only take the initiative to beg for forgiveness. The incident that happened to the Luoshen Clan had already circulated through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. These were all incidents that happened many years ago. He simply had too many stories and had gradually forgotten some things in the past. He only remembered them after Jun Mengcheng brought this up.

“Get the Star River Association to disband, they are not permitted to exist anymore. For the people of the Jiang Clan, cripple their cultivations. For the other matters, Mengchen you can just decide their punishment.” Qin Wentian casually spoke.

“Alright.” Jun Mengchen nodded. “There are still some things in Azure Mystic that weren’t cleanly settled in the past. I’ll settle everything in one go then.”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. These things to him were no longer as important.

Jun Mengchen and the others stayed for a while more before they left. In this place, only Qin Wentian, Qing`er and Little Rascal who had transformed into his pet form remained. How could anyone in this particle world know what sort of characters were staying in these tiny huts?

During winter, snow covered the city. The scenery was beautiful and quiet. Little Qingcheng was already six years old this year. She has already started to cultivate and her first constellation was from the 4th heavenly layer. This caused a huge commotion through the empire. Right now, countless people were paying attention to the Mo Clan in this tiny city, paying attention to one of their young misses, Mo Qingcheng.

Outside the Mo Residence, chimes-like laughter echoed out. On the snowy ground, large and small footprints could be seen alongside with a snowman. The hair of the snowman was very long, its beard was long as well and it looked quite good looking, and was actually in Qin Wentian's appearance.

“Strange uncle, do you think the snowman I build resembles you?” Little Qingcheng smiled. She, who is six years old, already looked somewhat similar to how she looked in her past life. She was now already very beautiful.

“It does resemble me.” Qin Wentian laughed. During these six years, he did nothing but accompany Mo Qingcheng as she grew up. Although he was an outsider and has never entered even half-a-step into the Mo Clan, Little Qingcheng already treated him as someone very close to her. Naturally, this closeness was something she innately felt.

The people of the Mo Residence were long used to Qin Wentian's presence. In addition, they could see he wouldn't harm Qingcheng and doted on her very much. And given the fact that Qin Wentian had a wife as beautiful as a fairy, everyone naturally didn't feel that he had any malicious intentions. Although they had no idea what Qin Wentian wanted exactly, they did nothing to stop him from hanging around here.

Naturally, there were also some in the Mo Clan who didn't like him. But Qin Wentian couldn't be bothered with them.

“Strange uncle, let me help you to tidy up and trim your hair and beard.” Little Qingcheng walked towards Qin Wentian as she spoke.

“Alright.” Qin Wentian smiled and nodded. Little Qingcheng revealed a mischievous smiled. Astral energy flowed from her palm as she tidied his hair and trimmed his beard and for some reason, it actually seemed like she knew what she was doing. Not long after, some black strands of hair and beard could be seen on the snow. Little Qingcheng glanced at Qin Wentian's appearance and innocently stated, “Strange uncle, you are the most good-looking person I've ever seen before. After I grow up, I want to marry someone as good-looking as strange uncle!”

Qin Wentian's heart trembled, he silently spoke in his heart, “Qingcheng, I will wait for you to grow up.”

“Qingcheng, come back.” Someone in the Mo Residence called. Mo Qingcheng nodded and replied, “Second uncle, I'm coming back right now.”

After speaking, she turned and ran back to the Mo Residence.

“Our residence is so large yet you are so fond of playing outside. Now, you can already cultivate and your talent is the highest in our Mo Clan. You should put in more effort to cultivate so your name will become famous in the future. It’s better for you to stay indoors more often.” Her second uncle spoke in a strict tone.

“Oh.” Little Qingcheng reluctantly nodded her head. After that, she turned and made a ghost face at Qin Wentian. Her second uncle coldly swept his glance at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian quietly watched, he didn’t do anything. Unless some major incidents occurred, he would not interfere in Mo Qingcheng’s life and disturb her growth. He hoped that she would grow up in joy, free from all worries!

Chapter 2044: The Worries of Age Eighteen

There would be huge changes to all regions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms every day. Countless new powers were established, countless geniuses rose up. All of them had the same dream, they wanted to be a part of the Godking Palace. For example, the Battle Saint Tribe, the Southern Phoenix Clan, the Myriad Devil Islands. If they could enter into any branch of the Godking Palace, they would be able to soar to the sky and even gain the chance to enter the Heaven Vault, heading to the stars directly to comprehend their daos.

The changes in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms also influenced the other thirty-two immortal realms. Among them, the changes to the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms and Blazing Sun Immortal Realms were the greatest. Back then, Yue Changkong harmed the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms, causing countless deaths as he harvested them as nutrients. But now, it was gradually recovering its vitality. The Blazing Sun Immortal Realms was governed by the Cao Clan. Once, they who had ousted their rebellious son Cao Tian, now respectfully invited him back. The clan held a discussion and decided to pass the position of clan leader to Cao Tian.

Those in his clan who once looked down on Cao Tian all came over to apologize and gave gifts wanting to mend their relationship. However, Cao Tian simply gave a sentence. He didn’t care for the clan leader’s position at all. He continued to roam the world with his friends and enjoyed his drinking. Naturally, his drinking friends were none other than Ten Miles Springwind, Old Ghost and the rest. Now, even Jian Junlai the Sword Monarch had also joined them.

When they felt like it, they would enter the Heaven Vault and comprehend their daos from the constellations. How carefree was that? The Cao Clan had asked him countless times for him to forge a connection for their Cao Clan to the Godking Palace, allowing elders of the Cao Clan to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation. Cao Tian couldn’t be bothered. Although he knew that it would only take a single message from him to Qin Wentian to accomplish this, what did the cultivation of those old fellows got to do with him?

Naturally, the immortal realm with the greatest change was none other than the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. It was like the creation of a whole new world. Countless territories appeared, and numerous ancient ruins were discovered. Let alone people from Azure Mystic, even people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms headed there to probe ancient secrets. Azure Mystic contained a huge attraction to the people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Other than exploring those ancient ruins, there was another extremely important reason. This place was where Qin Wentian grew up in. Qin Wentian was known as the Heaven Empyrean by everyone in this world.

And now, the people of Azure Mystic also already knew that their Heaven Empyrean had become the Ancient Godly Monarch, the ruler of the thirty-three immortal realms. He was unrivaled in the world. The people of Azure mystic all felt extremely glorious.

Many people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms went to Azure Mystic to find out more about the legendary history of the Ancient Godly Monarch. To their shock, they discovered that Qin Wentian’s legend didn’t start from Azure Mystic. It actually started from one of the countless particle worlds near the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. He climbed from a particle world, all the way to the peak of the universe. What sort of legendary story was this? Hence, many people wanted to find the particle world he came from to find out more about him.

For all legendary characters, they would surely attract the attention of people of the world. These people hoped that they would be able to find out some valuable experience with regards to the growth of a legend and see if they could learn anything from it. Naturally, there were simply those who were curious and venerated the legends.

Time was like a shuttle. Already sixteen years have passed ever since the war for supremacy.

Many years ago, after Qin Wentian brought all his loved ones in the particle world away, the particle world had a long period of stillness. And after many years, the particle world gradually grew prosperous because this place was considered the hometown of the Ancient Godly Monarch, Qin Wentian. During these years, many powers from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms went to set up branches in the particle world to recruit talented disciples. With Qin Wentian as a past precedent, how could anyone still dare to underestimate people from this particle world? There was no need to question the origin of a hero.

In addition, no one dared to carry out any acts of destruction or evil in this particle world. This place was the hometown of the Ancient Godly Monarch. Who knows when his divine sense would sweep over here? If they were discovered, the consequences of those who attempted to do evil here could very well be imagined.

No one knew that right now, Qin Wentian was in this particle world.

He was now sitting on a chair in front of a tiny hut. He was quietly enjoying the sunlight. It has almost been sixteen years. Qingcheng has gradually grown up. She should be able to awaken her memories in a few years time.

“Strange uncle.” At this moment, a beautiful figure mounted on a crane flew over. The crane stopped before Qin Wentian. Upon seeing the beautiful young woman in white on the crane, Qin Wentian felt as though he was in a dream. Once, when he first met Mo Qingcheng, she was precisely this age and her appearance was the same as well. Her beauty was already capable of toppling empires. Now that she was riding on a crane, she truly seemed to resemble a fairy from the nine heavens.

A reincarnation cycle was like a dream. It was in the same particle world but this place was another Mo Residence. Everything now felt surreal.

Qingcheng now, her appearance and temperament seemed to be exactly the same as the Qingcheng whom he first met in the past.

“You’ve broken through.” Qin Wentian smiled. Celestial Phenomenon Realm but she wasn’t fully sixteen years of age yet. If this was in the past, it would definitely shock everyone.

“Mhm, my teacher has been guiding me during these years. I just broke through not long ago and my teacher gave me an immortal crane as a gift.” Mo Qingcheng smiled. She floated down from the immortal crane and walked to Qin Wentian’s side. “Strange uncle, I have something I want to ask you.”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian smiled and nodded. During these years where he accompanied Qingcheng as she grew up, she has long treated him as family. Back then, after Mo Qingcheng’s second uncle warned him not to come near the residence, he hasn’t approached the outside of the Mo Residence any more. But Qingcheng would often come out to his tiny hut to look for him.

“An immortal sect came to the Mo Residence and wants to recruit me as a disciple. I don’t know if I should go or not.” Mo Qingcheng softly spoke.

“Do you wish to go?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Nope.” Mo Qingcheng shook her head as she smiled. “If I go there, I won’t be able to see strange uncle anymore.”

“If you don’t want to, just don’t go.” Qin Wentian’s gaze was filled with tenderness. Although he could easily follow her no matter where she went, accompanying her forever, he still hoped that Mo Qingcheng could follow her own desires and continue to grow up happily.

“But my parents and elders all want me to go. They said they placed all their hopes on me. I cannot bear to disappoint them.” Mo Qingcheng sighed, in a dilemma.

“Just follow your heart. No matter what your decision is, I will always support you.” Qin Wentian warmly smiled.

Mo Qingcheng’s eyes shone with light. She stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, “Thank you strange uncle. During these years, only you are the one who knows me best. I still have a question which I’ve always wanted to ask you.”

“What’s the question?”

Mo Qingcheng leaned forward. Her beautiful face almost pressed into Qin Wentian’s face. Her eyelashes were very beautiful. Her beautiful eyes contemplated Qin Wentian before she giggled, “From when I was young until now, my parents’ cultivation bases grew higher and they also aged. But why does strange uncle look the same as before? You don’t seem to have aged.”

After speaking, a strange smile appeared on her face like she found out some secrets.

“Maybe I have a way to maintain my youth and won’t age so quickly.” Qin Wentian smiled. Seems like Qingcheng knew that he wasn’t an ordinary person.

“Is that so? Let’s wait a few more years and see if you have aged or not.” Mo Qingcheng laughed. She then turned and rode her crane away, flying back home.

“It has been sixteen years.” Qin Wentian silently sighed as he watched Mo Qingcheng leaving. These sixteen years felt as long as thousands of years to him. But even so, he was willing to wait patiently, accompanying her to grow up. Every day when he saw Qingcheng, he would feel peace in his heart. This was what he owed her.

Mo Qingcheng entered the immortal sect, this caused a commotion throughout the whole country. She would be able to have immortals from Azure Mystic guiding her in her cultivation. The Mo Residence was incomparably glorious. However, it was unknown what sort of method Mo Qingcheng used. She actually could remain in this tiny city. The immortal sect built a branch here in the city just for her sake. Maybe, they discovered Mo Qingcheng’s shocking talent and hence they were willing to close an eye to her request.

Qin Wentian was very happy after he learned of this. This was perfect. Mo Qingcheng’s desires could be fulfilled. She could stay here and make her family happy by joining the immortal sect. She especially came to tell him this news, and she sounded very excited. In truth, Qin Wentian already learned about it. When he saw how happy she was, he was happy as well.

Another two years passed, Mo Qingcheng was eighteen now.

Today was her eighteenth birthday. She didn’t stay at home but went to look for Qin Wentian in his tiny hut. Little Rascal leaped into her embrace just like how he would always do so when they were still young in the past, in the Chu Country. Little Rascal truly missed those times.

“Happy birthday.” Qin Wentian smiled as he looked at Mo Qingcheng. He would naturally remember her birthday.

However, Mo Qingcheng didn’t seem to be happy. She looked at Qin Wentian, her furrowed brows smoothened as she spoke, “Strange uncle, can you accompany me to drink?”

Qin Wentian knew that she had a load on her mind. He nodded. Mo Qingcheng then took out a few jugs of wine. She glanced at one of the rooms and asked, “Would sister immortal blame me?”

“She won’t.” Qin Wentian smiled and shook his head. Sister immortal was naturally referring to Qing`er.

“That’s good then.” Mo Qingcheng relaxed. She then began to drink. Qin Wentian also accompanied her. Little Rascal also walked over and poured a cup for himself, draining the contents in a single gulp. Mo Qingcheng couldn’t help laughing when she saw this scene.

The wine was very strong. Not long after, Mo Qingcheng’s face was completely red. She who was just eighteen already had beauty comparable to heavenly immortals. Her red face actually increased her charm, causing Qin Wentian to sigh silently. Mo Qingcheng has finally grown up. There were just two more years to the twenty-year mark.

“Today is the date of my eighteenth birthday but today is also the day I’m the most unhappy. My parents actually want me to marry someone I don’t like. Although he is very outstanding and is a peak genius of the immortal sect, why should I marry him just because he proposed? I don’t like him at all.” Mo Qingcheng was a little drunk, saying out her true feelings after the wine.

Qin Wentian wasn’t agitated when he heard this. He already knew about this. How could anything in the Mo Residence be hidden from him? Although he was angry, he wasn’t worried. In this universe, was there anyone who could snatch away his woman?

“But my parents said that it’s for my own good. My elders said the same thing. They say if I married him, my future prospects would be better. Also, he is extremely outstanding and would surely make me very happy. There’s no one that’s more suitable than him. But, I simply don’t like him.” Mo Qingcheng mumbled. She inclined her head and looked at Qin Wentian, “Strange uncle, can you understand me?”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded his head lightly.

Upon seeing his nod, Mo Qingcheng happily smiled. “Strange uncle, you are truly the person who understands me most in the world.”

Qin Wentian seriously nodded. Indeed, in this world, there was no one who understood Qingcheng more than him.

Chapter 2045: The Day of Her Twentieth Birthday

Mo Qingcheng drank a lot, she also said many things. She simply trusted Qin Wentian a lot. Maybe she didn't know this, this was because of their fate of two lifetimes. In her previous lifetime, this young man before her eyes was the person she loved most. Even now, meeting him again after reincarnation, she still felt a sense of innate closeness to him.

At this moment, Mo Qingcheng inclined her head. Her face was red, she smiled at Qin Wentian, "Strange uncle, do you feel I should marry him?"

"If you don't want to, just reject it." Qin Wentian replied.

"But my parents and elders want me to marry him. Also, they have treated me very well. The hope of the clan is all on my shoulders." Mo Qingcheng spoke in a daze.

"You don't need to marry someone you don't like because of this and cast a shadow over your own heart. In this world, there's no one who can force you to do anything you don't want to." Qin Wentian seriously spoke.

When Mo Qingcheng saw how serious he looked, she giggled in a silly manner. She leaned forward, nearing Qin Wentian's handsome face. Her beautiful cheeks rested against his. Qin Wentian could clearly sense her breathing, as well as the faint natural fragrance from her.

"But if I don't marry him, who should I marry? Will you marry me?" Mo Qingcheng laughed in a silly manner, like she was sprouting the truth after being drunk. Staring at her pure and beautiful face, Qin Wentian started. He couldn't be calm at all. He was shouting in his heart, "I will marry you!"

However, he didn't say it out loud. There were two more years. After two years, Qingcheng would recover her memories. This was decreed by fate. She brought her obsession into reincarnation as she made the vow. He would continue to wait.

"I'm just teasing you." Mo Qingcheng laughed, brushing her earlier words aside. She drank another cup of wine and continued, "However, strange uncle you are the most good-looking person I've ever met and you seem like you don't age at all. What genius of an immortal sect? How can he be better looking than strange uncle? In the future, the person I want to marry definitely has to be as good-looking as strange uncle and dotes on me as much as you. In addition, he would have to summon true dragons and divine phoenixes, arrange a grand procession for ten thousand miles, with rainbows filling the skies as well as having many phenomenons manifesting in the heavens. The entire world would be stunned. How can a genius from an immortal sect compare?"

When Qin Wentian heard Mo Qingcheng's nonsensical words, he silently mused in his heart, "Silly lass, this was the scene when I married you and Qing`er in your past life."

“He definitely will.” Qin Wentian seriously nodded his head, burying her words in his heart.

“Really?” Mo Qingcheng glanced at Qin Wentian, “Strange uncle, you are lying to make me happy again, right?”

“Nope, it’s the truth. In the future, the person who marries you would surely arrange for a grand procession, even the upper worlds would be notified and all heavenly deities and divine beasts would attend. Phenomenons would appear in the sky, the nine heavenly layers would resonate together and all the supreme experts from all the immortal realms would come by to offer their congratulations.” Qin Wentian seriously spoke.

Qin Wentian’s words caused Mo Qingcheng to start. After that, she laughed and pointed her little finger at Qin Wentian. “Strange uncle, you are making me happy again. How could there be someone so powerful as what you said?”

“Qingcheng.” At this moment, a voice drifted in from outside, interrupting her. Someone called out, “Qingcheng, your parents and elders are still waiting to celebrate your birthday for you. Why did you run out all of a sudden?”

After speaking, a middle-aged man pushed the door to the hut open, there were several people behind him. Qin Wentian wasn’t surprised, he naturally long sensed the arrival of these people.

“Strange uncle, I have to go back now. The words you said earlier might only come true in my dreams.” Mo Qingcheng giggled in a silly manner. After that, she patted Little Rascal on his head and spoke with some reluctance, “Little Rascal, I have to leave now.”

After speaking, she turned and left the hut.

After Mo Qingcheng left, her second uncle didn’t leave straight away. His gaze landed on Qin Wentian and his eyes were as cold as swords.

“I don’t know what purpose you have for hanging around here all these years, I also don’t care about your identity. But now, Qingcheng has already grown up and is a disciple of an immortal sect. She will be married to a monstrous genius. It’s best that you don’t meet her again in the future and affect her reputation.” He coldly stared at this extremely good-looking young man before him. He felt very curious about Qin Wentian, why didn’t he age? Clearly, Qin Wentian didn’t have the aura of a cultivator and seemed like a mortal yet his demeanor was extraordinary.

But no matter what and no matter who Qin Wentian was, they cannot allow Qingcheng to mix with him anymore. He was too good-looking and there wasn’t anyone around Qingcheng who was as good-looking as him. He also wouldn’t age as well. Mo Qingcheng was now at the age where the first awakening of love would usually occur. He mustn’t allow her to take a wrong step. This was especially so now that she joined an immortal sect, she would have a chance to head to the upper worlds and acknowledge an immortal as her master. Also, she would be married to a peak genius character, that genius was the descendant of an immortal as well. How could he allow Qin Wentian to spoil things?

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the man before him. Now, there was actually someone who dared to speak to him in this manner. It was somewhat laughable. But no matter what, this man was Qingcheng's second uncle in this lifetime. Given Qin Wentian's current state of heart, there was really no need for him to be bothered because of a sentence from this person. He merely calmly replied, "You can leave now."

"Hmph. You better engrave my words into your heart." Mo Qingcheng's second uncle threatened before leaving the tiny hut.

Qin Wentian calmly watched as he left. After that, a faint smile appeared on his face. Qingcheng was now already at the age where she could marry. After accompanying her for eighteen years, she finally grew up.

After leaving the tiny hut where Qin Wentian stayed in, Mo Qingcheng rode her immortal crane and flew through the air. Her face was still red. The gentle wind blew on her, and unknowingly, her eyes became wet.

"Strange uncle, I naturally don't want to marry him. Because, I already have someone I like." Mo Qingcheng silently spoke in her heart.

"I heard the people in my clan saying that ever since I was born, you have been waiting outside the Mo Residence like you were waiting for my birth. For many years after that, you were there every day, watching as I grew up bit by bit, accompanying me to play. You would always be so patient and didn't mind me being mischievous. You wouldn't be angry when I rode on your shoulders, and the time you accompanied me is even longer compared to my parents. When you look at me, your gaze is so warm and tender. I don't know why but I've always felt a sense of familiarity when I see you. It feels like we know each other in our previous lives. When I looked into your eyes, I can feel a sense of safety. It's like no matter what and when, you would always be by my side, watching out for me, protecting me.

"Now, I've finally grown up and you didn't age at all. You are as good-looking as you are then. Do you know that the person I want to marry is none other than you.

"You say that in the future, the person who marries me would surely arrange for a grand procession, even the upper worlds would be notified and all heavenly deities and divine beasts would attend. Phenomenons would appear in the sky, the nine heavenly layers would resonate and all the supreme experts would come by to offer their congratulations. However, I don't want any of this. I only want the person who marries me to be you."

"But how can I do this? Sister immortal is so kind and beautiful. You already have such a warm family, how can I destroy the relationship you have with her? I cannot do this."

As she continued thinking, Mo Qingcheng's tears fell like rain. Tear stains had long covered her face and her clothes were wet from her tears.

The love of two lifetimes, who could understand? Who would know of Qingcheng's heart?

After arriving at the Mo Residence, Mo Qingcheng wiped her tears away. A smile appeared on her face as she silently mused, "Strange uncle, you told me to live my life happily. I will be strong, I cannot keep thinking about you anymore. I will definitely try to pass my days happily. I know you will be happy if you see that I'm happy. In the future, even if I'm unhappy, I will silently hide the unhappy things away in my heart and only allow you to see my happy side. By doing so, I'm sure you will be happy."

When she thought of this, Mo Qingcheng smiled and entered the Mo Residence.

The Mo Residence celebrated her birthday for her. She told the Mo Residence that she temporarily didn't wish to marry anyone. When she was twenty, she will decide again. The news circulated out, the people of the immortal sect also didn't force her. After all, given her talent, she would surely become an immortal in the future. Although the people of the Mo Clan wished for her to agree now, they wouldn't force her either.

Not long after, news from the immortal sect circulated to the Mo Residence. Two years later, there would be an immortal from the upper worlds personally descending here. That immortal would accept Mo Qingcheng as a personal disciple during her twentieth birthday.

Other than that, the descendant of that immortal, the genius of the immortal sect would also propose officially to Mo Qingcheng on that day, preparing to marry her.

When the news spread, everyone in the Mo Residence was cheering. An immortal from an upper world, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, would personally descend to accept Mo Qingcheng as a personal disciple. What glory was this? The Mo Clan in this tiny city would surely ascend to the heavens from now on.

And as the news circulated, many major clans within the country went to pay a visit to the Mo Clan. These clans were much stronger than the Mo Clan but all of them were extremely respectful, causing everyone in the Mo Clan to feel extremely satisfied, fulfilling their vanity. To them, there was no more suspense with regards to the marriage proposal two years later.

However, from then on, Mo Qingcheng rarely ventured out. She spent the majority of her time cultivating because only with a powerful cultivation could she control her own fate. Strength was the key everywhere in the world.

In fact, she also rarely visited her strange uncle.

Naturally, Qin Wentian was still silently watching over her and everything around her.

Time slowly passed, the date of two years got increasingly closer. Qin Wentian's state of heart wasn't able to remain calm. This naturally wasn't because of the marriage proposal by the immortal sect. To him, that was simply an insignificant matter.

The reason for his heart being unable to calm down was because Qingcheng would soon return. When she turns twenty, her memories would be recovered.

"Strange uncle." Seven days before Mo Qingcheng's birthday, Mo Qingcheng set out and came to the tiny hut Qin Wentian was residing in. As she looked at the young man seated outside the hut, she giggled, "Strange uncle, you have not aged at all."

"You won't age as well." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Strange uncle, don't lie to me." Mo Qingcheng mischievously glared at Qin Wentian. After that, she continued, "Strange uncle, I came here to tell you that seven days later, there would be an immortal from an upper world, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, coming to take me as a disciple. Back then when I mentioned to you about that genius of the immortal sect proposing to me, I gradually discovered that there's nothing bad about him. His talent is first-rate and he is handsome and graceful. He's not too bad at all. It's fine that I marry him I guess. In any case, I will be very happy."

Qin Wentian didn't reply, he merely quietly looked into Mo Qingcheng's eyes. Her gaze showed hints of evasion.

"Strange uncle, can you promise me one thing?" Mo Qingcheng asked.

"Speak." Qin Wentian nodded.

"On that day, you have to come and see me okay?" Mo Qingcheng was somewhat nervous as she stared at Qin Wentian.

"I will." Qin Wentian seriously nodded his head. Mo Qingcheng left happily but Qin Wentian knew that when she turned around, she was no longer as happy as she presented herself before him.

"Silly lass." Qin Wentian softly spoke. How could Mo Qingcheng hide her thoughts from him? Finally, only seven days were left.

Qin Wentian stood up, he inclined his head and his gaze penetrated through the nine heavenly layers. His divine sense enveloped boundless space and at this moment, countless people in the Godking Palace felt the presence of this divine sense. They all knew who this divine sense belonged to.

“There are seven more days. Make the necessary arrangements.” A voice rang out within the Godking Palace. Countless people felt their hearts trembling but after that, many people had smiles on their faces. Twenty years, they had waited a whole twenty years. Was she finally going to return?

Chapter 2046: I Will Marry You

The tiny city gradually becomes increasingly lively. Many people in the particle world headed there in congratulations. Some wanted to see the immortals from the upper world, even in this era, immortals were extremely rare in particle worlds. They were all lofty characters. Hence, one could very well imagine the allure an immortal from an upper world would cause.

The Mo Residence naturally was the center of the liveliness. Endless people flowed into the city, wanting to congratulate them. The atmosphere there was even more bustling compared to the city streets.

But as the main character in question Mo Qingcheng, during these days no one saw her again. According to the Mo Residence, Mo Qingcheng was currently cultivating in closed-door cultivation.

Other than the Mo Clan being extremely lively, many people also came to the tiny huts where Qin Wentian resided during these few days. His parents, Qin Yuanfeng and Luoshen Qianxue also arrived. They came here quietly. And other than them, his foster father Qin Chuan, Mo Qingcheng's family from her previous life, were all here. After that, they quietly stayed in this tiny city and didn't bother the Mo Residence. Only a few days were left. They were willing to wait quietly until Mo Qingcheng recovers her memories.

As for the so-called marriage proposal by a genius of an immortal sect as well as an immortal wanting to accept her as a personal disciple, all these to them were simply an insignificant matter. There was no need to worry too much about it.

The day where Mo Qingcheng turns twenty was finally coming.

In the tiny city, horses galloped on the streets while flying beasts blotted out the sky. In a radius of several hundred miles, everyone came here to witness the magnificent scene and to offer congratulations. Today would be the day where immortals from an upper world would descend.

Everyone in the Mo Residence was standing at the platform to welcome the immortals. When they saw the countless figures in a radius of several hundred miles, their faces were filled with smiles as they clasped their hands in response to the congratulations. They were all in high spirits.

At this moment, a group of figures suddenly floated down from the air. There were over a hundred people. The young men were all handsome and graceful while the young women were extremely beautiful. All of them exuded an extraordinary air. These people were disciples in the branch of the immortal sect here in this particle world. They also came to the platform and gazed up at the air, like they were waiting to welcome someone.

In the sky, immortal light flashed. After that, everyone saw an immortal beast flying over. The aura of the immortal beast was extremely shocking, everyone could feel it even from extremely far away.

“They are here.” The people of the Mo Residence felt excited.

The disciples of the immortal sect knelt with one knee on the ground as they bowed, “We welcome the immortals.”

“We welcome the immortals.” The people of the Mo Residence all bowed as well.

“We welcome the immortals.” The people in the surroundings of over hundreds of miles in radius all bowed together to show respect. These were all immortals from an upper world. It was rumored that these immortals were people with very high statuses in the immortal sect and many immortals would listen to them.

The Mo Residence was going to ascend to the skies. Everything was because the Mo Clan had given birth to a good daughter.

The golden-colored demon immortal beast descended on the ground, everyone could truly sense how terrifying this demonic beast was. It was a golden condor and his sharp eyes swept across everyone like they were nothing but ants.

The golden condor was extremely large and there were many people on his back. All of them respectfully stood there, standing around an immortal sedan. The auras of them all were clearly extremely powerful. All these were lofty characters.

At this moment, the curtain of the sedan pulled open as two figures slowly walked out. They walked from the back of the condor to the head and many people followed behind them.

This was a couple. The man was clad in luxurious robes and had an immortal crown on his head. The woman was elegant and graceful, like a female emperor. Her eyes had a hint of disdain as she stared at the people in this particle world. In that instant, everyone in the radius of few hundred miles held their breaths, in their vision, only the two of them existed now.

These two were immortals, high up and supreme. If it wasn’t for Mo Qingcheng, maybe all of them here would find it hard to be able to meet with such existences.

“Father, mother.” A young man appeared. This young man was extraordinarily handsome and he had a smile on his face. He was born extraordinary and came to this particle world to temper himself. It was here where he met Mo Qingcheng. He wanted to take her as his wife and even asked his parents to show up here, descending from the upper world. Truly, they had given the Mo Clan enough face.

“Where is she?” The woman calmly asked, not bothering to show too much respect to the Mo Residence. Their arrival was already showing favor to the Mo Clan. Her immortal sense swept through this world, this was ultimately still a particle world after all and it was so weak that it felt pathetic. It’s rumored that this place was the hometown of the Ancient Godly Monarch but in any case, there would only be one such person in the world. It was improbable for so many heaven-defying talents like him to exist.

“Quick, call Qingcheng over.” The people of the Mo Clan felt extremely anxious. This was the first time they were receiving such major characters, immortals from an upper world.

A moment later, Mo Qingcheng walked out. She looked at the immortals from the immortal sect but she was very calm.

“Qingcheng, why are you not paying your respects to the immortals?” Beside her, Mo Qingcheng’s second uncle hurriedly urged.

“Not bad.” At this moment, the woman nodded her head lightly, she looked very satisfied after seeing Mo Qingcheng. Regardless of cultivation or appearance, Mo Qingcheng truly could be qualified enough to match her son.

“It’s truly rare for the Mo Clan to be able to have such a descendant.” The man beside her also nodded in satisfaction. Seems like their son’s judgment truly wasn’t bad.

“Many thanks to the immortals.” Mo Qingcheng’s second uncle was incomparably respectful. Even now, those people from the immortal sect in Azure Mystic haven’t walked down from the golden condor yet. But no one dared to say anything about their arrogance. After all, they had the right to be arrogant. But even so, Mo Qingcheng didn’t feel too well about this. Her beautiful eyes stared at the crowd like she was searching for someone but she didn’t see the person she wanted to find.

“Strange uncle, you promised me that you would come. Qingcheng still wants to see you and talk to you.” Mo Qingcheng felt some sadness in her heart as she was unable to find the person she was looking for.

The young man’s figure flashed, he came to a place not far from Qingcheng as he spoke, “Qingcheng, two years ago you didn’t agree. But today, I especially asked my parents to head here from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. I’m sure you should be able to see my sincerity, right?”

Mo Qingcheng stopped her stray thoughts. Her beautiful eyes were calm as she stared at the young man.

“Mo Qingcheng.” At this moment, the beautiful middle-aged woman on the golden condor spoke. “I heard that you joined the immortal sect two years ago and your talent is outstanding. Now that I’ve seen you personally, I’m also extremely satisfied. In the future, you can be my personal disciple. If you put in some more effort, you should be able to establish your immortal foundation and enter the immortal realms.”

“Also, my son likes you very much and he brought this up many times to me. This time, us husband and wife came by because we wanted to propose marriage on his behalf. In the future, you can wait upon your husband well and improve together with him. Both of you shall be an idea immortal couple.”

Her words sounded so natural, like she didn’t even consider if Mo Qingcheng would reject this. From her point of view, this was a favor she was granting to the Mo Clan. It was Mo Qingcheng’s honor to accept.

Mo Qingcheng’s gaze showed hints of evasion, she was still searching through the crowd. This caused the beautiful middle-aged woman on the golden condor to frown. The man beside her spoke, “Mo Qingcheng, are you willing?”

“Qingcheng.” Mo Qingcheng’s second uncle spoke behind him. A hint of disappointment flashed in Mo Qingcheng’s eyes. She turned her gaze to the two immortals on the golden condor yet her heart was still thinking of that strange young man whom she named strange uncle. Would he really not come?

“The Mo Residence has struck it rich.” Countless gazes turned to Mo Qingcheng, waiting for her to say the words ‘I agree.’ There was no need to doubt the ending at all. Immortals came down personally from the upper world to propose. What an honor it was for the Mo Clan?

Mo Qingcheng’s eyes became somewhat wet. Everyone who was watching thought that she was emotionally touched. But who would know of her real feelings?

At this moment, a beam of light suddenly appeared in the sky. This beam of light was extremely bright, instantly attracting the attention of everyone. Many people inclined their heads and stared at it, but after that, a strange look appeared on their faces.

Mo Qingcheng also inclined her head. This beam of light was extremely bright. Not only that, a rainbow appeared and the rainbow continuously extended forth. Very soon, the rainbow filled the sky with multi-colored light. The multi-colored light actually gathered and took on unique forms, becoming the shapes of different saint beasts. There were dragons, phoenixes, black tortoises, and kirins. The scene was truly beautiful and magnificent.

“How beautiful.” Many people sighed in praise. Phenomenons manifested in the sky. Was the reason behind this the descent of the immortals from the upper world?

The light from the sky shot towards the ground, opening up pathways that seemed to lead directly up the heavens. This was simply incomparable. The people here have never seen such a miraculous scene before. At this moment, countless people in this particle world inclined their heads and stared up at the sky.

Mo Qingcheng’s eyes turned even wetter when she saw the phenomenons in the sky. The multi-colored light of the rainbow transformed into saint beasts but the person who will be marrying her wouldn’t be him. If that’s the case, what was the meaning of all of this?

“Phenomenons manifesting in the sky, an auspicious omen.” People from the Mo Residence spoke. Everyone in the Mo Residence was incomparably happy. Today, immortals from the upper world came by to propose a marriage and this event actually caused phenomenons to appear in the sky.

“Truly auspicious indeed.” The two immortals revealed smiles. It was very rare for such an amazing sight to happen.

It was unknown when but a snowy-white puppy suddenly ran out, moving towards Mo Qingcheng. Mo Qingcheng seemed to have sensed something. She stretched her hands out and Little Rascal leaped into her embrace. The light in her eyes brightened by a few degrees as she patted Little Rascal on his head. “Little Rascal, why are you here? Where is strange uncle?”

“Yiyiyaya.” Little Rascal gestured with his paws towards a direction. Among the crowd, a figure quietly walked over. This figure was clad in robes of pure white. He was extremely handsome and had an extraordinary demeanor. A smile appeared on his face, this smile was very warm and filled with tenderness. In his dark eyes, boundless emotions could be seen within.

Twenty years, a whole twenty years. It felt as long as a few centuries to him. The day he was waiting for finally came. Twenty years ago, he stood outside the Mo Residence waiting for Mo Qingcheng to be born. The destiny decreed by the cycle of reincarnation has finally come.

“Strange uncle, you are here!” Mo Qingcheng smiled happily. She was truly happy. Her smile was so radiant, but this caused the people of Mo Residence to furrow their brows. The young man who came to propose marriage also frowned, so did the immortals on the golden condor. Their eyes flickered with a cold light.

“What’s going on?” The beautiful middle-aged woman coldly spoke. Her voice was like ice. Such a handsome young man suddenly appeared and Mo Qingcheng’s smile was so radiant when she looked at him. She couldn’t help but to imagine things.

However, among the people who came here today from the particle world, there were still some elderly people who were still alive. Their cultivations weren’t low, at the Celestial Phenomenon Realm, hence their lifespan wasn’t short. When they saw that white-robed figure walking through the crowd, their bodies involuntarily trembled as their hearts pounded madly.

“My heavens, how can this be possible. It’s him, IT’S HIM!” They could never forget this figure, absolutely not. He, has returned.

“Mo Qingcheng, Mo Qingcheng…no wonder this name sounded so familiar.” They silently mused in their hearts. At this moment, they finally recalled it.

“I’ve come.” Qin Wentian gently stared at Mo Qingcheng.

“Strange uncle, I have some words I wish to speak to you about.” Mo Qingcheng spoke.

“Even if you don’t say them, I already know.” Qin Wentian replied.

Mo Qingcheng’s beautiful eyes blinked. So it turned out that he already knew. When she thought of this, she couldn’t help but blush.

In that case, he still came today?

When she thought of this, her heart pounded rapidly. “Strange uncle, then…should I marry him or not?”

“If you don’t wish to, you don’t need to marry him.” Qin Wentian’s reply was the same as two years ago.

“But if I don’t marry him, who should I marry?” Mo Qingcheng’s beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian.

“I will marry you.” Qin Wentian’s smile was incomparably radiant. When Mo Qingcheng heard this, the most beautiful smile in her twenty years of life appeared on her face!

“I will marry you.” Twenty years, in these twenty years, she has never heard of a single sentence that was so touching. The her right now tossed aside all considerations and worries. For this sentence, she was willing to pay any price!

Chapter 2047: Offering Congratulations to the King of Gods

Mo Qingcheng smiled sweetly. She smiled, and her eyes were wet. She stared at the white-robed figure in front of her, “You have not asked if I’m willing to marry you or not?”

“In that case, are you willing?” Qin Wentian smiled and asked.

Mo Qingcheng inclined her head, she stared at the rainbows in the sky and shouted, “I’m willing…!”

Her voice echoed throughout the surrounding space. They were speaking as though there was no one nearby. This caused the surroundings to fall into silence. No one dared to speak. The two immortals both had extremely ugly expressions right now.

“Senior, I’m sorry. I already have someone I love. Hence, I can only thank you for your kind intentions.” Mo Qingcheng’s beautiful eyes stared at the two immortals. She had already made preparations to endure all consequences due to her rejection.

“Do you know who are you rejecting?” That beautiful middle-aged woman coldly spoke, causing everyone to feel a sense of being stifled.

“Qingcheng, you are crazy!” Only now did the people of the Mo Residence react. They rushed over. The second uncle glared at Qin Wentian as he angrily roared, “You are courting death!”

Qin Wentian turned his gaze over, and stared at Mo Qingcheng’s second uncle. His expression was tranquil, he calmly spoke, “I don’t wish to hurt you. So, it’s best that you stand at the side and watch quietly.”

“You…” Mo Qingcheng’s second uncle pointed at Qin Wentian as he raged, “You madman, you harmed my Mo Residence. Twenty years ago, you were already waiting outside our clan for Qingcheng to be born. Could it be you were waiting for today? Isn’t that too ridiculous? You are simply too despicable.”

“I told you to stand at the side and watch quietly.” Qin Wentian seriously spoke. He glanced over. At this moment, Mo Qingcheng’s second uncle only felt his soul being frozen. His entire body was wet from his sweat. He couldn’t help but to stare fixedly at Qin Wentian. As expected, he was no ordinary person. No wonder he didn’t age.

“I don’t care who you are. If you scram now, I won’t kill you.” At this moment, the young man who proposed to Mo Qingcheng had a dark look on his face as he looked at Qin Wentian. The way he spoke was like he was granting Qin Wentian a favor. His parents personally came to this particle world to propose marriage for him yet now, their family was actually having their faces smacked in public.

Qin Wentian calmly glanced at him before shifting his gaze away. The young man only felt that Qin Wentian completely had no regard for his existence at all. It was like he simply didn't exist in Qin Wentian's eyes. Also, this white-robed figure was truly extremely handsome. This couldn't help but cause the young man's eyes to flash with a hint of ruthlessness.

"Kill him." The expression of the young man turned malevolent, he turned and gave a command to the golden condor which was his parents' mount. The golden condor let out a sharp screech. It lifted his claws and took a step forward.

It was unknown when Little Rascal jumped out of Mo Qingcheng's embrace. His body suddenly transformed. He shone with golden light as he expanded in size. Very soon, he grew even larger than the golden condor as an absolute kingly aura radiated from him. His gaze also contained an invisible pressure that caused the hearts of everyone to pound rapidly.

That golden condor began to tremble unceasingly. Its legs didn't seem able to support its body. With a soft plop, it actually directly groveled on the ground. Not only for the golden condor, everyone discovered to their shock that all the demonic beasts in the surroundings were all prostrating themselves. Their bodies trembled with fear as they faced Little Rascal's location like they were paying respects to their king.

"I told you to kill him. Trash." The young man barked angrily when he saw the golden condor groveling. His parents narrowed their eyes, their immortal senses swept over this terrifying demonic beast which was Little Rascal. They both felt something was wrong. This demonic beast merely revealed a trace of his aura and all the other demonic beasts here instantly groveled in fear.

"Little Rascal?" Mo Qingcheng stared at this scene with disbelief. Ever since she was young, she had been playing with this little fellow. That snowy puppy was actually a greater demon?

The people of the Mo Clan were also stunned. Their eyes turned to Qin Wentian. The second uncle coldly spoke, "So you truly had malicious intent."

"We are from the Qilian Immortal Sect of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realm. I wonder who sir might be?" The two immortals turned their gazes to Qin Wentian as they asked.

However, Qin Wentian didn't even spare a glance at them. His gaze turned to Mo Qingcheng as he smiled, "Qingcheng. I still remember two years ago you once told me that the person whom you want to marry would have to summon true dragons and divine phoenixes, arrange a grand procession for ten thousand miles, with rainbows filling the skies as well as having many phenomenons manifesting in the heavens and I said that the person who marries you would surely arrange for a grand procession, even the upper worlds would be notified and all heavenly deities and divine beasts would attend. Phenomenons would appear in the sky, the nine heavenly layers would resonate together and all the supreme experts from all the immortal realms would come by to offer their congratulations."

Mo Qingcheng's eyes flashed with a bright light as she looked at Qin Wentian. She naturally remembered this. However, wasn't that just a beautiful dream?

"As long as the person who marries me is you, everything else doesn't matter." Mo Qingcheng's tears flowed as she smiled gently.

"But I will naturally have to accomplish the things I promised you." Qin Wentian's gaze was incomparably tender. The hearts of everyone in the surroundings trembled. Had this fellow gone crazy? His words were simply unbelievable. Who in this world could achieve what he said earlier?

Qin Wentian inclined his head and glanced at the sky before calmly speaking, "Split the sky."

With just a single glance, the heavens were shaking. A beam of divine light directly split the sky as boundless multi-colored light descends from the horizons. From the location Qin Wentian was in, beams of divine light shot in different directions. Everywhere the divine beams passed by, everyone discovered to their shock that they could actually see different scenes. There were numerous majestic cities, powerful sects and clans, towering floating palaces wherever they looked. Were these all scenes from the upper worlds?

Thirty-three beams of light, thirty-three immortal realms. At this moment, the divine beams of light arced through the skies of the thirty-three immortal realms as countless people inclined their heads, staring at the reflected scene in the particle world.

(Arrange for a grand procession, even the upper worlds would be notified.)

And now, in the airspace of the particle world, another beam of light arced through as heaven-shaking roars could be heard. After that, five-clawed golden dragons rode the wind and flew over. Phoenixes burning with divine fire arced through the sky. Kirins galloped on the clouds, the golden crows screeched…All sorts of divine saint beasts descended from the upper worlds and continued appearing in the airspace of this particle world. It was unknown how many saint beasts there are.

The people of the particle world stared up at the sky as their bodies trembled. What just happened exactly?

The saint beasts descended and arrived in the airspace directly above the Mo Residence. These beasts were all incomparably gigantic in size and they flew in circles above the Mo Residence, spiraling around. Those experts from the immortal sect felt their bodies shuddering. The two immortals felt their hearts pounding with fright as well.

"Miracle, is this a miracle?" Many people directly knelt down, staring up at the sky, feeling extremely moved.

However, even more gazes landed on Qin Wentian. He split the skies open with a single glance and connected this place to all the immortal realms in addition to divine saint beasts descending. He truly did achieve what he said.

Mo Qingcheng stared at this scene with disbelief. Her eyes were wet. Was she dreaming?

From the sky, numerous figures suddenly descended. Each figure exuded unfathomably powerful auras like they were deities and gods. There were also terrifying devil experts who arrived as well.

Not only so, everyone in the upper worlds watched the scene in the particle world with solemn expressions filled with respect. They naturally knew who Qin Wentian was. Qin Wentian was the god all lives believed in.

The two immortals felt their hearts trembling. Even their legs were shaking. Anyone of the figures that appeared, including anyone of the demonic beasts, were so strong that even the strongest people in their immortal sect had to kneel before them.

Each character that arrived from the sky were existences they had no way to come in contact with. The distance between them was unimaginably huge. Who was this white-robed young man exactly?

“Who is he?” Countless people silently mused. The people of the Mo Residence was asking as well. This scene felt too surreal.

“Demon God Mountain leads all saint beasts and demonic beasts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms Desolate Region to offer our congratulations for the Ancient Godly Monarch. We pay our respects to the king of gods.” All the demons lowered their heads. Regardless of saint beasts or demonic beasts, they were all incomparably respectful at this moment. This young man before them was the Ancient Godly Monarch, it’s said that it was difficult even for their demon sovereigns to meet with him. As for them being able to come and offer their congratulations, this was already an unparalleled glory.

“Congratulations to the king of gods.”

“Congratulations to the Ancient Godly Monarch.” In the sky, all the deity-level experts bowed like they were on a pilgrimage.

“Godking Palace of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms offers our congratulations to the Ancient Godly Monarch.” Outside the heavens, in the scene reflecting the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, countless people within the Godking Palace were bowing as they offered their congratulations.

“Heaven Empyrean Palace of Azure Mystic offers our congratulations to the king of gods.” All branches of experts in the Heaven Empyrean Palace also bowed.

“Cao Clan of the Blazing Sun Immortal Realms offers our congratulations to the king of gods.” In another scene, many people in the Cao Clan knelt on one knee. The Godking Palace and Heaven Empyrean Palace of Azure Mystic were direct subordinates of the Ancient Godly Monarch. Their statuses were different hence they needed to be even more sincere and more respectful.

“Donghuang Clan of the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms offers our congratulations to the Ancient Godly Monarch.” In another scene, a woman stood in the lead. This woman was none other than Donghuang Ying. She led everyone from the Donghuang Clan to offer their congratulations. No one knew what the current emotions in her heart were.

All sorts of voices rang throughout the thirty-three immortal realms. At this moment, the entire particle world was filled with the echoes of their voices. Within the thirty-three immortal realms, all lives were offering their congratulations, staring at the scene in the particle world with respect from the depths of their hearts. The Ancient Godly Monarch had saved all their lives after the war for supremacy.

With a soft plopping sound, the two immortals knelt on the ground and directly prostrated themselves, with their heads touching the ground. Their bodies trembled. At this moment, how could they still not know the identity of this white-robed young man?

In this entire universe, there was only one person who could make everyone in the thirty-three immortal realms pay respect to him.

The Heaven Empyrean, the legend of Azure Mystic, their symbol of faith and belief. Everyone in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms knew of this legend and worshipped him.

He also had another title – Ancient Godly Monarch.

He was unrivaled in the thirty-three immortal realms and the nine heavenly layers.

He was a high-up and supreme god, an existence that even surpassed godkings. However today, they met him here. Not only did they meet him, they actually wanted to snatch his woman for their son?

At this moment, they who had prostrated themselves on the ground, didn’t do so merely out of fear. They were shocked and emotionally excited too. The Ancient Godly Monarch was right before their eyes.

Was there anyone in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms who didn’t wish to meet with the Heaven Empyrean Qin Wentian?

“Sir, you have returned.” Some of the older people in this particle world spoke out. Their bodies also trembled as tears fell from their aged eyes. They slowly knelt down with respect from the depths of their hearts. Once, it was he who saved this particle world. He was the god of this world since a long time ago and he has now finally returned. They had never imagined that they would actually be able to see him at such a close distance. Right now, he wasn’t merely the god of the particle world. He was the king of the gods of all the thirty-three immortal realms!!

Chapter 2048: Returned

All lives worshipped him. The deities and gods of all immortal realms paid their respects and offered their congratulations, proclaiming him as the king of the gods, the Ancient Godly Monarch.

The young man looked at everything before his entire person fell limply onto the ground. He was completely devoid of strength. How could things be so ridiculous? He actually encountered such a scene. He fell in love with the Ancient Godly Monarch's woman? Should he feel honored because of this?

Earlier, he even said that he wanted to kill Qin Wentian. At this moment when he saw what was happening, he finally understood how ridiculous his words were. Most probably, no one would care about such a minor character like him. No wonder the Ancient Godly Monarch didn't even look at him straight from the start until the end. Was he even qualified to snatch a woman from the Ancient Godly Monarch?

Qin Wentian truly didn't pay any attention to him. Although this young man had thoughts about Qingcheng, one could only say that the judgment of this young man wasn't bad. He also didn't do anything malicious. Given Qin Wentian's current status, he naturally wouldn't deign to kill a minor character. Hence, he directly disregarded the young man. The so-called immortals from the Qilian Immortal Sect were also completely insignificant to him. Although he didn't bother about them, he didn't know that because of this matter, the Qilian Immortal Sect in Azure Mystic Immortal Realms disbanded a few months later. If someone dared to bad-mouth the Heaven Empyrean in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, even if the Heaven Empyrean didn't care about it, could those people who offended him really feel that they could live as peacefully as they did before?

The hearts of the people of the Mo Residence were all in chaos. Mo Qingcheng's second uncle was so frightened that he sat directly on the ground. His gaze was dumbstruck. Wasn't this world a little too crazy?

The Ancient Godly Monarch, the Ancient Godly Monarch! The person that has been waiting outside the Mo Residence and accompanying Qingcheng for twenty years was actually the king of all gods. Wasn't this ridiculous?

He himself also laughed, but it was unknown whether he was mocking himself or mocking fate for making a fool out of him.

The Ancient Godly Monarch fell in love with his niece Mo Qingcheng. However, he couldn't feel any happiness at this moment because he had tried to drive Qin Wentian away and even threatened him numerous times. Initially, he could ascend to the heavens with a single step, the stars, sun and moon would just be a stone's throw away from him. But now, he most probably could only struggle in hell.

Mo Qingcheng's beautiful face was long wet with tears. She stared at Qin Wentian and everyone in the immortal realms offering their congratulations. Wasn't this the scene Qin Wentian had mentioned to her before?

A grand procession, rainbows filling the sky, divine beasts descending, thirty-three immortal realms resonating, all deities and gods coming by to offer congratulations!

“Why do you have to make things so touching?” Mo Qingcheng smiled and cried.

“Because this was what I promised you.” Qin Wentian gently spoke.

“But why is my strange uncle the king of the gods. I actually feel more fearful instead, I’m afraid that everything might be an illusion.” Although Mo Qingcheng was touched, she wasn’t a fool. Ever since she was born, this young man has been waiting outside the Mo Residence for her and watched her grow up slowly. This young man was actually the Ancient Godly Monarch. This indicated that ever since she was born, Qin Wentian had already been waiting for her. He didn’t fall in love with her later.

“Silly lass.” Qin Wentian stared at Mo Qingcheng. His gaze was filled with warmth and doting affection. “Because you were already my wife in your past life. I’ve waited for a reincarnation cycle and you’re finally about to return.”

“My past life?” Mo Qingcheng mumbled in a low voice. She didn’t feel too shocked. In fact, she believed it because she always had the feeling that she was acquainted with Qin Wentian since a long time ago.

So it turned out that in her previous life, Qin Wentian was her husband.

“In that case, you must have loved me very deeply in my previous life?” Mo Qingcheng smiled sweetly. She was truly very happy. So it wasn’t just this lifetime. In her past life, her strange uncle had already loved her and was willing to wait for her in this life, accompanying her as she grew up.

“Naturally.” Qin Wentian spoke.

In the surrounding spaces, numerous figures silently walked out. Each of them, no matter male or female, were all exuding magnificence. Their demeanor was extraordinary and even if they don’t exude any aura, everyone could still tell that they were extraordinary people.

Among them was Qin Wentian’s parents, the Six Paths Godking Qin Yuanfeng, as well as his mother Luoshen Qianxue. Qin Wentian’s younger sister Qin Kexin, and Mo Qingcheng’s previous lifetime’s family members. In addition, Qin Wentian’s foster father Qin Chuan and the rest were here too. His junior apprentice brother Jun Mengchen, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch Nanfeng Yaoyue, Nanfeng Yunxi, Bai Qing… All of them were present.

When they saw the scene of Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng being in love again, all of them had radiant smiles on their faces as they silently wished the couple well. The emotions of two lifetimes, who could understand?

Now, everything was going to conclude today. The woman who once made a heavy vow and entered the reincarnation cycle was finally about to return.

Mo Qingcheng stared at these people as her heart pounded rapidly. She felt that she was acquainted with them all. Although she clearly hasn't met them before, the sense of familiarity was extremely strong. Her mind was in some chaos now, she couldn't help but close her eyes.

Qin Wentian drew in a deep breath as though he had foreseen something. His smile grew increasingly radiant as he spoke, "Qingcheng, return to me."

On Mo Qingcheng's body, a mysterious light radiated forth, causing her beauty to become more pure and holy. Her eyelashes fluttered and after that, her beautiful eyes gradually opened. When she looked at Qin Wentian again, the emotions within her eyes seemed even deeper. These were the emotions of her two lifetimes.

She smiled but soon cried again. She slowly walked forward and wiped away the tears in her eyes. Everything was so wonderful.

Qin Wentian also lifted his feet and walked step by step towards her. Finally, their bodies were just an inch apart. Qin Wentian stretched his hand out and wiped away the tears on Mo Qingcheng's face. He spoke, "Silly lass, in the future, I will never make you cry again."

"Strange uncle, to which Qingcheng are you talking to?" A mischievous look flashed in Mo Qingcheng's beautiful eyes. When Qin Wentian saw the mischievous look in her eyes, he suddenly stretched his hands out and pulled her into his embrace. He didn't wait for her reaction and directly leaned in for the kiss.

Mo Qingcheng's body trembled. After that, her body seemed to melt into his.

Time seemed to stop at this moment, it was like this moment was preserved in eternity.

It was unknown why but when all lives in the immortal realms saw this scene. Many emotional people involuntarily shed tears. This was especially so for people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They personally witnessed the war for supremacy and saw Mo Qingcheng making that heavy vow before entering reincarnation. Now, they finally personally saw her returning. They were truly happy, they bore witness to the Ancient Godly Monarch's love. The emotions of two lifetimes as he waited for her reincarnation.

"Little Qingcheng. I will give you another wedding to make up for this lifetime." Qin Wentian softly laughed. Mo Qingcheng punched his waste and spoke, "There's still sister Qing`er, sister Youhuang and sister Qianyu. You have to give them another wedding too."

"Fine." Qin Wentian nodded. "I will listen to you."

“Let’s go and see your family, they have all missed you very much.” Qin Wentian softly spoke. Mo Qingcheng nodded and walked over to her family members from her previous life. Qin Wentian’s gaze then turned towards everyone else as he spoke, “This particle world was the place I grew up in, it is considered my hometown. I will establish teleportation arrays in the thirty-three immortal realms leading to here. For all heavenly deities and world overlords, if you are willing to come to this world to teach and guide the people here, I will give you special permission to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation. I will send my people to monitor the situation here. However long you all provide guidance for the people here, you would be allowed to stay in the Heaven Vault for the same amount of time.”

His voice rang out through the nine heavens, echoing throughout all the immortal realms. When his words faded, countless world overlords in the immortal realms went crazy. Even if they didn’t have the opportunity to join a branch of the Godking Palace, they would also be able to gain a chance to cultivate in the Heaven Vault?

Qin Wentian’s words were like a door has opened up for all the heavenly deities and world overlords in the immortal realms. They would all be able to gain the opportunity to enter the Heaven Vault. As to guiding the people of a particle world, given the length of their life, it was truly nothing much at all.

All of them understood that the Ancient Godly Monarch was doing this because he wanted to open up a path to the Heaven Vault for people of the world while also making use of this opportunity to do something for his hometown. In the future, this particle world would be a place where deities and world overlords gathered. From this, one could imagine how prosperous this particle world would become in the future.

“In addition, I will return to the Godking Palace and plan for a wedding. Everyone in the world would be able to see everything and those who come to the wedding would be able to enjoy an immortal banquet. At the same time, I will command heavenly deities to give dao lectures. Those who attend the wedding would be eligible to listen to these lectures.” Qin Wentian spoke again, causing countless people to enter a frenzy. This was especially so for people of the Heaven Region. The geographical distance between them and the Godking Palace was the nearest, they would surely be able to make it in time. As for those regions that were located far away, they felt somewhat depressed. They have missed yet another chance but even so, they would still send the congratulations and in addition, they would be able to see the most magnificent wedding through projections.

For those who could make it, everyone could attend the wedding. Even if they cannot, they would be able to see it.

After she finished meeting her family members, Mo Qingcheng walked back to Qin Wentian’s side as she softly spoke, “Wentian, I want to ask my parents of this current lifetime if they are willing to head to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms or not.”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. “Other than your parents, if the family members of this lifetime are willing, they can all head there. They would also be able to return anytime they want to.

In this lifetime, they had raised Qingcheng up.

Mo Qingcheng nodded and walked towards her parents of this lifetime. Many people in the Mo Clan naturally wanted to head over. That was the Godking Palace after all. Mo Qingcheng would marry the Ancient Godly Monarch. However, Mo Qingcheng didn't issue the invitations to many people. Only those family members who were truly good to her were invited. For example, people like her second uncle weren't invited at all. Her second uncle wanted to use her many times for him to gain more benefits in the family. He didn't really dote on her and he had also threatened Qin Wentian several times.

After finishing everything, Qin Wentian left alongside with people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The deities vanished, the divine and demonic beasts also left. The rainbows in the sky faded, everything felt like a dream.

Staring at that figure vanishing into the horizons, many people in the particle world knelt directly on the ground. Before Qin Wentian left, Qin Wentian still didn't forget about his hometown. In the future, there would be heavenly deities and world overlords arriving here frequently. Although they had no idea what cultivation realm heavenly deities and world overlords have reached, these realms should have surpassed the immortal realms and were above the immortal emperor level, right?

The two immortals from Azure Mystic were still kneeling there. The young man laid limply on the ground. Even when Qin Wentian left, he didn't spare them a glance.

Mo Qingcheng's second uncle stared at the backs of the people in the Mo Clan who left with Mo Qingcheng. He inclined his head and sighed. Fate was making a fool out of man. For the marriage proposal of the immortal sect, he put in plenty of effort. But in the end, he was the person that was the saddest of all.

Chapter 2049: Disciple of the Ancient Godly Monarch

In the Godking Palace, the Ancient Godly Monarch would be having his wedding. Within the majestic halls, it was unknown how many tables were set up for the banquet. The scene here could clearly be seen by all thirty-three immortal realms. All lives sent their blessings and congratulations. This would be one of the most magnificent weddings in the history of the universe.

All branches of the Godking Palace came to help out for this wedding. The heavenly deities were doing miscellaneous chores. When has such a thing ever happened before?

The four brides of the Ancient Godly Monarch were all very beautiful and each was beautiful in their own way. Among the four ladies, Beiming Youhuang was probably the shyest bride. She accompanied and waited for so many years and finally got her wish. Qin Wentian organized a world-shaking majestic wedding to marry her. Her whose aura was always cold, actually exuded warmth and gentleness now. She felt incomparably holy and pure.

Qin Wentian and his four wives stood together, looking like perfect matches for each other. Most probably, only a character like him could be worthy enough to match up with such grand beauties.

The elders all sat on the viewing platform above, waiting for the brides and groom to toast them. Qingcheng's family, of her second lifetime, was a little unused to it and felt very restrained. They originally wanted Qingcheng to marry into an immortal sect, who would have expected her to be married to the Ancient Godly Monarch instead? The Ancient Godly Monarch was truly an unrivaled existence in the world. Major characters were seated all around them, even those doing the odd jobs and chores were lofty existences compared to them. All of them were existences Mo Qingcheng's second family would never be able to meet in their lives originally.

The people who were most happy were naturally none other than Qin Yuanfeng and Luoshen Qianxue, including Qin Tiangang and the rest. This can be considered the first time they truly attended Qin Wentian's wedding personally. This was their son and their daughter-in-laws. Qin Wentian would marry four ladies in an unprecedentedly grand wedding. They who were his parents, had never been able to witness their son's wedding before. Now, all of this could be made up for.

Qin Chuan, Ye Qingyun and the others of Mo Qingcheng's first lifetime family had experienced before. Although this wasn't their first time, they were still very happy.

The people who were the happiest naturally had the Darknorth Immortal Emperor included within their ranks. He also finally got his wish and officially became the father-in-law of Qin Wentian. Now, he could finally stand up tall to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and he kept winking at him during the wedding. Such antics caused the Evergreen Immortal Emperor to burst out into laughter. This old fellow was really something else.

This time around, all the elders were present. It was truly a grand union.

On the viewing platform for the elders, a minor episode occurred. There were two old men who were vying for a seat closer to the center, like they were two squabbling kids.

“I’m the master of Wentian and Youhuang. They could be together because of the schemes I pulled in the past. How dare you snatch this seat from me. Hmph.” The crazy old freak rarely showed his childish side. Naturally, the two who were squabbling were just joking.

“Why can’t I? Without me, how can Qin Wentian have today? I’m considered half his master and taught Di Tian cultivation for many years. Now, although he fused back in one, how could he have his accomplishments today if it wasn’t for me?” Another old man spluttered in anger, glaring at the crazy old freak.

“Is your cultivation stronger than mine?” A single sentence from the Grim Reaper instantly dealt the finishing blow to the other party. The other party was speechless. Who the hell was this crazy old freak? He actually wanted to compare cultivation bases? What a bully.

Upon seeing the look on the other party’s face, the Grim Reaper laughed. “Alright alright, seeing that you are Wentian’s half-master, let’s sit together.”

“That’s more like it.” The other old fellow nodded in satisfaction. After that, a smile appeared on his face as he stared at the scene ahead. There was still another very cold-looking young man behind the two old men.

“See? Luckily my judgment was correct. The Ancient Godly Monarch is truly unrivaled in the world. When would you have even half of his accomplishments? I would definitely be extremely satisfied if you could.” The old man spoke. The young man behind him had a sullen look on his face and was speechless. How much was half of Qin Wentian’s accomplishments? Most probably he would have to become a godking, right? (This old fellow, after you got bullied, you came to bully me to vent your emotions? No matter what, I’ve been with you longer than that fellow Di Tian, right? Now you actually…Hmph.)

Qin Wentian and the four ladies walked over and toasted the tea. Everyone was infected by the joyous mood. This magnificent wedding could be witnessed by all the thirty-three immortal realms but it seemed so ordinary. Other than the number of people being more, there didn’t seem to be anything too special. But even so, the people of the world could feel warmth in their hearts as they watched the scene.

However, such a heartwarming scene actually caused some people to shed tears. Those who cried were all women and they were in different locations of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Once, they were very close to him. But now, they could only watch him ascend to the peak and marry his beloved. All thirty-three immortal realms would bear witness, they could only watch silently.

It was also said that for the wedding of the Ancient Godly Monarch, the banquet in the Godking Palace would last three months. There would be heavenly deities lecturing about the heavenly daos every day, giving good fortune to those lucky enough to rush here to attend the wedding. Hence, for those people with stronger cultivations, they all spared no expenses to rush over. For people of the Heaven Vault, they naturally also gave it their all as they rushed towards the direction of the Godking Palace.

Among all these people who were rushing over, there was a group of people but their cultivations weren't very high. The majority of them were only at the immortal realm, and there was only a single world overlord in their group. They were covered in dust, it was evident that they had been rushing as well.

"We will arrive at the Godking Palace very soon." At this moment, a handsome young man with an exquisite look stared at the towering Godking Palace in the distance.

"Sister, Little He, we will reach there soon." The young man seemed to be very happy, as well as a little nervous.

"Mhm." His elder sister was also beautiful and her beauty had a sense of pureness to it. "But will Big Brother Qin still remember us?"

"Master will surely remember. He treated us so well before. But if he doesn't recognize us, it's fine too. At the very least, we would be able to see him again and that can be considered as us having fulfilled a wish in our hearts." The young man smiled.

"Mhm, Big Brother Qin is so kind. He definitely wouldn't forget us." The young woman seriously nodded. She could still recall every scene about Qin Wentian back when he interacted with them in their tiny city. She knew that back then, Qin Wentian accepted her brother as his disciple for a reason, the reason was to protect her brother.

"We've spent all our savings and only then could we use the teleportation array to this place. Qin Feng, if you dare to lie. I definitely won't forgive you. At that time, don't use the excuse that the Ancient Godly Monarch doesn't recognize you." At the side, another man coldly spoke to Qin Feng.

"Elder brother, Qin Feng wouldn't lie to us." The woman named Little He held Qin Feng's hand as she spoke gently.

"The human heart is unfathomable. Who knows if the truth was that he covets the resources of our clan. He's able to reach his current height in cultivation because of the foundation of our clan. All his money was already used up for his trip from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms to this place." The man coldly continued. This man was from a powerful clan in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Qin Feng got together with his younger sister and he had always objected to this. Even his clan members also objected to this as well. If it wasn't for the war of supremacy twenty years ago, and Qin Feng said that he was acquainted with the victor who was the master he had always been searching for, how could this man and his clan members even bother to waste time with him?

"Elder brother." Little He angrily stared at her elder brother. Her hand holding Qin Feng tightened. "Qin Feng, don't mind my brother."

"I won't." Qin Feng smiled and shook his head.

“It’s fine even if the Ancient Godly Monarch doesn’t recognize you two. At that time, we will find a reason to elope. I will follow you to roam the heavens and earth.” Little He transmitted a voice message to Qin Feng. Qin Feng tightened his hold on her hand. Right now, he truly hoped that his master would be able to remember him. It was not for him, it was for Little He. He doesn’t hope for Little He to lead a life of aimless roaming with him, by doing so, they would be placing their fates in the hands of the heavens.

In truth, he didn’t look for Qin Wentian because Qin Wentian was now the Ancient Godly Monarch. Since a very long time ago, ever since he knew Qin Wentian was none other than the Heaven Empyrean of Azure Mystic, he and his sister had started to look for him. They went to the Heaven Empyrean Palace but at that time, all Qin Wentian’s loved ones there have already been brought away by him. Those who remained there didn’t even have the chance to meet Qin Wentian, how could they help him? Hence, he could only use the teleportation array in Azure Mystic and come to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to look for his master. Both he and his sister only wanted to see his master once more.

But not long after they arrived, he got acquainted with Little He. Now, with a woman he loved, he really hoped that his master would be able to acknowledge their relationship despite knowing that such a thought was a little selfish.

“Let’s go.” Qin Feng softly spoke. They continued rushing there. Finally, they arrived outside the Godking Palace and saw the towering and magnificent place.

The banquet was open to everyone. As long as they are here, people could enter the Godking Palace and enjoy the food. Qin Feng and the others were very moved, they also felt trepidation in their hearts. Even Qin Feng’s uncle who had always been arrogant felt somewhat nervous here. After all, this place was the Godking Palace.

After they got a seat, Qin Feng’s uncle cast a look at him. Qin Feng looked around and called out to an extremely busy beautiful-looking young woman. “Fairy.”

“Yes?” That fairy was from the Southern Phoenix Clan. She was very beautiful and had some resemblance to Nanfeng Yunxi when Nanfeng Yunxi was younger.

“Fairy, can I meet with the Ancient Godly Monarch?” Qin Feng nervously asked. The fairy from the Southern Phoenix Clan smiled. “In this place, there are countless people who want to meet with the Ancient Godly Monarch daily.”

Qin Feng’s expression froze. That’s true, there should be countless people who wished to meet his master every day.

“He is the Ancient Godly Monarch’s disciple but they separated back then. Now, he came back here to look for him.” Qin Feng’s uncle spoke. The expressions of the fairy from the Southern Phoenix Clan froze. She then spoke in a soft voice, “I only know that the Ancient Godly Monarch has two female disciples named Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran. They are currently in the Godking Palace. Does he still has any other disciples?”

After speaking, his gaze turned to Qin Feng. Qin Feng looked her in the eye and seriously nodded. But he didn't feel too confident at all. He then added, "It was a very long time ago."

"Let me help you ask Fairy Shengge then." The fairy from the Southern Phoenix Clan smiled and left this place. Most probably, no one would dare to lie about such a thing, right? Hence, she decided to take this seriously. Who would dare to fake being a disciple of the Ancient Godly Monarch?

Qin Feng was visibly even more nervous. Not long after, an exceptional beauty arrived here. She was like a goddess from the ninth heavens, and was incomparably pure, like a beauty from a portrait. Now that she was already a heavenly deity, there was naturally no need to say anything about her aura. Everyone would instantly fall into a daze if they glanced at her. The people sitting here all stood up shakily when they saw her.

Nanfeng Shengge smiled. She stared at Qin Feng, "Are you the disciple of elder brother Qin?"

The number of people who could refer to Qin Wentian as elder brother could probably be counted on two hands. From this, one could very well imagine what her status was. This caused everyone to become even more nervous.

"Mhm." Qin Feng nodded. Nanfeng Shengge inclined her head slightly, sending her divine sense towards the interior of the Godking Palace. A moment later, another divine sense gushed out with a laugh, "Qin Feng, little lass Qin Qing, quickly come in here."

Upon hearing the familiar voice, Qin Feng's body trembled, his heart was incomparably agitated. As for Qin Qing, tears involuntarily flowed down her face!

Chapter 2050: Guest From Another Universe

Qin Feng and Qin Qing trembled as they stood up. Nanfeng Shengge would personally led the way, bringing them into the interior of the Godking Palace. Qin Feng pointed to Little He beside him as he spoke, “This is my girlfriend, Little He.”

“Mhm, bring her along.” Nanfeng Shengge smiled.

Little He stood up agitatedly. Qin Feng’s words were real. The Ancient Godly Monarch was really his master.

The others wanted to follow them but they were stopped by the fairy from the Southern Phoenix Clan and could only give up.

Inside a hall deep in the Godking Palace, a smile appeared on Qin Wentian’s face when he saw them walking over. “Little fellow, you have already reached the immortal realm and little lass Qin Qing is growing more and more beautiful.”

The two of them trembled slightly. Now that they really met with Qin Wentian, they were so nervous that they didn’t know what to say.

“Big Br…Godly Monarch.” Qin Qing didn’t know what to call him. Qin Wentian glared at her, “What Godly Monarch? Just call me Big Brother Qin will do. Qin Feng, it has been so many years since I last saw you. You don’t even know how to pay your respects to master?”

“Disciple pays my respects to master.” Only now did Qin Feng walk over. He then knelt on the ground before Qin Wentian and wanted to kowtow, executing a disciple’s courtesy. However, an invisible energy propped him up before he could do so.

“Things are still the same as before. If you want to act in this manner, I can only pretend that I don’t know you two.” Qin Wentian laughed. His voice was filled with the vicissitudes of time. Given his status now, even people close to him back then might feel nervous to interact with him now. He didn’t like this. Most probably, only those who had always been around him could feel as calm as ever when interacting with him.

“Big Brother Qin.” Qin Qing nodded, feeling incomparably happy in her heart. Her Big Brother Qin was the same as before, gentle and easy to approach. Her beautiful eyes were slightly wet. She stared at Qin Wentian, “Thank you, Big Brother Qin.”

“Silly lass.” Qin Wentian walked over and patted Qin Qing on her head. Back then, this lass was already extremely kind, willing to sacrifice herself for the sake of her younger brother.

“Your name is Little He?” Qin Wentian glanced at Little He who was beside Qin Feng.

“Mhm.” Little He nodded heavily, as she secretly surveyed this unrivaled character before her.

“In the future, you can be like Qin Qing and just call me Big Brother Qin. Don’t worry, although Qin Feng is my disciple, I won’t allow him to bully you. If he bullies you, you can just complain to me.” Qin Wentian laughed. Little He smiled after hearing that and nodded her head. She even cast a glance at Qin Feng. Qin Feng rubbed the back of his head awkwardly.

“The person outside is your elder brother, right? How is his character?” Qin Wentian calmly asked. Little He’s expression froze. She stared at Qin Wentian, “Big Brother Qin, my elder brother he…if Qin Feng isn’t really Big Brother Qin’s disciple, he would most probably break us up.”

“What about you? If Qin Feng wasn’t my disciple, would you still be together with him?” Qin Wentian laughed as he asked. This caused Little He to tremble. Although she called Qin Wentian as ‘Big Brother Qin,’ just a casual sentence from Qin Wentian could still make her feel trepidation.

“Master, Little He isn’t such a person. Before we came in, she has already made the decision to roam the world with me.” Qin Feng explained.

“What are you nervous about?” Qin Wentian glared at Qin Feng. At the instant he asked Little He that question, he already knew the answer. Right now, how could the thoughts of anyone be hidden from him? He asked this because he didn’t want Qin Feng to be used by others.

“Qin Feng, Qin Qing. I will let you all choose a residence here to stay in. In the future, you can simply move in. As for Little He’s family, if it’s suitable, we will compensate them for whatever help they have given you but don’t break the relationship completely. After all, they are Little He’s family members.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke. By speaking so, he believed Qin Feng would understand what he meant. Since the other party had unfathomable motives in their hearts, there was no need for them to think about claiming any benefits through Qin Feng. But he wouldn’t really let Little He break off the relationship with her family. That would be too over the top.

“Disciple understands.” Qin Feng smiled and nodded. He understood what he should do.

“Shengge, bring them to choose their residence. I need to go and welcome somebody.” Qin Wentian spoke. Nanfeng Shengge’s beautiful eyes flashed with a strange light. There was actually somebody that needed Qin Wentian to welcome them personally?

The vast majority of his friends and kin were already in the Godking Palace. Who in the world would have a high-enough status for Qin Wentian to do so?

“Okay.” She nodded lightly and brought Qin Feng’s group away. Not long after, Qin Feng and Qin Qing had a majestic residence of their own. This residence was a royal palace as large as an empire. The serving maids here all had cultivation bases at the immortal realm. This caused Qin Feng’s group to feel like they were dreaming.

The Godking Palace was a place where countless people dream about going in. Now, even heavenly deities and world overlords couldn’t enter casually.

“Qin Feng, will we stay here in the future?” Little Ye felt like she was in a dream, this was too surreal. She did believe in the past that Qin Wentian was Qin Feng’s master. Qin Feng told her some stories before. However, the episode back then happened many years ago. She wasn’t sure if Qin Wentian would still recognize Qin Feng as his disciple. After all, Qin Wentian would surely have met countless people on his journey up to the peak. Qin Feng was merely one of the countless people. It would be very normal if Qin Wentian didn’t want to recognize him.

“I knew Big Brother Qin would never forget about us.” The tears in Qin Qing’s eyes weren’t dry yet.

“I wonder who was the one who was so nervous earlier, not even daring to greet her master.” Qin Feng joked, causing Qin Qing to glare at him ruthlessly. However, everything had finally ended.

Nanfeng Shengge smiled as she listened to their conversation. From now on, their fates would be completely different. They could roam anywhere they wanted to in this world with no worries.

When she thought of everything that happened in the past, even Nanfeng Shengge herself felt like she was in a dream.

…..

Qin Wentian’s figure appeared outside the Godking Palace, he personally came here to welcome a person.

At this moment, not far away from the Godking Palace, two figures slowly walked over. Qin Wentian met the two of them before. The man in the lead was dressed in robes of snowy white. His aura was ordinary yet it gave off an ethereal feel, like he wasn’t from the mortal world.

As for the figure standing behind him, Qin Wentian met him before too. Once, he met this person in the past and obtained a boon from him.

“I didn’t expect that you two seniors would be able to come.” Qin Wentian smiled.

“You’ve already transcended. There’s no need to call me senior any longer. We are on the same level now. I’m older than you, you can simply call me elder brother if you don’t mind.” The white-robed young man was as carefree as ever.

“Right, elder brother.” Qin Wentian smiled, he directly called out.

“Since you’ve already called my master as your elder brother, it’s naturally not appropriate for you to call me senior. Speaking of which, your cultivation base is currently higher than mine.” The figure behind the white-robed young man laughed. So it turned out that he was none other than one of the eight ancient godkings, the godking of the Mystic Region, the Godking of Time.

“Your master?” Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed before he laughed. Indeed, in this world, most probably only the white-robed young man could qualify to be the Godking of Time’s master. Naturally, the him now was qualified as well.

“I once told you in the past that I’ve been searching for a way to transcend. I want to be able to move freely through the past and future but even now, I have no way to accomplish this step. After that, I met my master. He was able to do so hence I thickened my skin and followed him. My master was helpless and finally agreed to accept me as his disciple.” The Time King laughed casually, not caring about pride at all. At his current level, he only had a single goal left to pursue.

“Sadly, he is destined to fail. If one wants to transcend, they have to gather the will of all lives on them. This recent war of supremacy was the opportunity. The Godking of the Western Paradise also understood this point but sadly, his path was wrong and his actions ultimately ended up benefiting you.” The young man in white smiled. “What? I came by to offer my congratulations, are you not inviting me in?”

“Elder brother, please.” Only now did Qin Wentian react. He couldn’t help but laugh mirthlessly as he invited the two of them in. The three of them walked together to a location within the Godking Palace that was quiet and had a tranquil environment.

The white-robed young man was someone who preferred the life of a recluse. Most probably, he loved the peace and quiet or his name would have long been famous throughout the world.

“Elder brother, I always wanted to ask this. If one wanted to transcend, they need the will of all lives. In that case, for those who transcended, people of the world would surely know of their names but why does it seem that only a very few people know of the existence of elder brother?” Qin Wentian curiously asked. Even people of the Sacred Academy didn’t know about the white-robed young man.

“From a certain perspective. I cannot be considered to have transcended.” The white-robed young man shook his head. “Because, to you and this universe, I’m someone that doesn’t originate here.”

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed, “Elder brother, you came from a universe outside of the nine heavenly layers world?”

“Mhm.” The white-robed young man nodded his head lightly. “Since you have transcended, you should know that at our levels, the cosmos are boundless, there’s no boundary at all. The universe that’s shrouded by the nine heavenly layers is considered one of the perfect world systems. And out there in the vast outer space, there are countless perfect world systems. Once, I was roaming the cosmos and toured many different universes. I only came here to this universe some time later. I felt that the laws of this world are quite interesting and seemed to be quite perfect, capable of giving birth to someone who can reach my level. Hence, I decided to stay here. Now, the person I've been waiting for finally arrived. That person is you."

Qin Wentian felt some shock in his heart. Touring the cosmos, visiting the various perfect world systems. How long must this elder brother of his have existed for? Even in the cosmos, it was rare to find an existence like him and until he transcended, there had been no other. From this, one could tell how powerful transcenders are. Naturally, this also meant that Qin Wentian now has also reached that level of power.

"In the future, are you interested to tour the cosmos with me?" The white-robed young man suddenly laughed as he asked.

"I'm afraid elder brother might have to wait some years for me." Qin Wentian smiled. He knew that after he transcended, there was nothing here for him to pursue. However, this was the place he was familiar with. He probably wouldn't leave here for a long time, he might only leave after he grew bored of this universe.

"Understood. After all, we shared the same experiences to reach this point. As for waiting for you, there's no problems at all. At our current levels, the passing of time is insignificant, it doesn't count for much." The white-robed young man smiled. Qin Wentian would eventually be bored and feel lonely as well. The loneliness of invincibility.

"Right, that's a promise then." Qin Wentian smiled. He also wanted to see the other universes to broaden his horizons. But before this, he wanted to explore every place in this universe first.

The two of them laughed and chatted, speaking of interesting matters. For example, what were the other perfect world systems like and tales of the white-robed young man's exploration. Their laughter would occasionally drift out and only after a long time passed, did the white-robed man bring the Godking of Time away as he left. He and Qin Wentian made an agreement that someday in the future, they would tour the cosmos together!

Chapter 2051: Chu Country's Snow

The banquet that lasted for months finally came to an end. Countless people of the thirty-three immortal realms all felt a faint disappointment as the scene at the Godking Palace vanished before their eyes. In the future, it probably wouldn't be so easy for them to see the Ancient Godly Monarch again.

After the banquet ended, everyone in the world felt that the curtains of a brand new era had just been pulled open. A new epoch just started, waiting for the people of the world to leave their marks on it.

On one morning, in the residential palace Qin Wentian stayed in, Qin Wentian, Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er, Beiming Youhuang, and Ye Qianyu were together as they walked out of the residential palace.

At the moment they stepped out, a snowy-white figure flashed and directly leapt into Qingcheng's embrace. Little Rascal's eyes stared at Qin Wentian as he spoke, "Wanting to leave me behind here? No way."

"Hush." Qin Wentian laughed. However, at this moment, another beautiful figure appeared behind him. This was none other than Purgatory. She silently followed behind but didn't say anything.

"Wentian gege, it's useless. The entire Godking Palace is now filled with heavenly nets of our making. Although you can easily destroy them, we would still know of it. Hehe." A mischievous voice rang out. It was unknown when Bai Qing appeared beside Qin Wentian. The her now was clad in robes of fiery red which accentuated her figure. She exuded an elegant air, no matter how one looked at her, she didn't seem to be the ruler of a place like the Myriad Devil Islands.

"Little lass Qing, even you are scheming against me?" Qin Wentian sighed in mock depression.

"Who asked you to be so dishonest? This idea originates from me. Why? Does it mean that because you are the Ancient Godly Monarch now, you can ignore your senior apprentice sister?" Luo Huan's sexy figure appeared. She crossed her arms in front of her chest and looked incredibly alluring. Her beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian. Beside her, Qin Yao was laughing too. This younger brother of hers was just too dishonest, actually wanting to sneak away.

"Senior sister, please spare me." Qin Wentian was incomparably depressed.

"It's useless to beg me." Luo Huan giggled. Numerous figures from the surroundings walked over. Nanfeng Yunxi, Nanfeng Shengge, and Jialan Qiuyue were among them. For a time, this place felt as though a hundred flowers had bloomed. The scenery here was incomparably beautiful. The majority of those who appeared were goddesses. Most probably, in this entire world, only Qin Wentian could have such preferential treatment.

"Elder brother, your attempt to sneak away failed once again." Luoshen Lei also came by, smiling as she spoke.

“Senior brother, just submit yourself to them.” Jun Mengchen walked over, looking to partake in the liveliness.

“Mengchen, the matters of the Godking Palace shall be handed to you. You better settle everything well for me.” Qin Wentian kept a straight face as he stared at Jun Mengchen.

Jun Mengchen’s expression instantly turned heavy. “Senior brother, I was wrong. Please forgive me.”

“You are the World Godking, the lord of this world system. This matter naturally has to be handed over to you. This is such a great responsibility, only you are capable enough to do this. Also, my father-in-laws and the Emperor Lord, as well as senior Bai Wuya would all help you as well. My maternal grandfather and uncle are present too but your cultivation base is the highest, hence I have to pass the seat of command to you.” Qin Wentian spoke solemnly, clearly using his public office to avenge private wrongs.

“I thought uncle and aunty were still here?” Jun Mengchen spoke. “Kexin can do it as well.”

“Oh, we are preparing to tour the universe.” Qin Yuanfeng and Luoshen Qianxue appeared as they laughed, completely shattering Jun Mengchen’s hope.

“Father, mother. You guys really don’t want to travel with us?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Don’t we know how to tour places ourselves?” Luoshen Qianxue smiled, exchanging a glance with Qin Yuanfeng. Everything between them need not be said out loud. Qin Wentian’s heart flowed with currents of warmth. He was naturally happy that his parents were so loving.

“Kexin, who will you follow?” Luoshen Qianxue smiled and asked.

“I will follow elder brother and not disturb you two.” Qin Kexin softly spoke, not wanting to disturb her parents. Qin Wentian had black lines on his face. Not wanting to disturb their parents so you came to disturb me? The fate of him as an elder brother was bitter indeed.

“Hehe, in any case, I will also be sticking with elder brother.” Luoshen Lei added on another stab.

“Please spare me.” Qin Wentian stretched out his hands and covered his face.

“Don’t worry. My family will go by ourselves and won’t disturb you. Look, only a brother like me would treat you so well.” It was unknown when Fatty Fan Le walked over. He spoke to Qin Wentian, Ouyang Kuangsheng and Jiang Ting were beside him and they were smiling.

“Family?” Fan Ye asked.

“Yep, us two and you Little Ye. We are going to enjoy some private time together.” Fan Le spoke with a look of satisfaction at Qin Wentian’s current predicament.

“Who wants to go with you all? I would rather follow godfather.” Fan Ye’s figure flashed and ran to Qin Wentian’s side, hugging his arm. Fan Le was stunned, when he returned to his senses again, he let out a bellow, “Is this really my good daughter?”

“Don’t worry, every hundred years I will come back and visit you once I have the mood to.” Fan Ye giggled, her words causing Fan Le’s tears to flow.

“Wentian.” Ye Qingyun also came over.

“Foster-father.” Qin Wentian nodded at him.

“Bring your sister Lingshuang along. That lass feels very bored in the Godking Palace.” Ye Qingyun smiled. Qin Wentian truly had no way to say no.

“Qingyun, us two fellows can continue to play our chess.” Qin Chuan spoke to Ye Qingyun.

“Ah, senior brother. I will take revenge for your treatment of me. Jun Mengchen spoke with unwillingness in his heart.

“It’s fine.” Qin Wentian smiled at Jun Mengchen. Jun Mengchen’s expression sank again. He couldn’t win against his senior brother in a fight.

Qin Wentian cast an apologetic glance at Qingcheng and Qing`er. He transmitted his voice, “We will sneak away in the middle of the journey, breaking away from them.”

Qingcheng and the others smiled, feeling warmth in their hearts. Finally, they had no restraints. This scene was truly beautiful.

“Let’s move out.” Qin Wentian glanced into the horizons.

“Move out.” Little Rascal inclined his head and roared.

All of them had smiles on their faces as they departed.

Not long after they left, a shocking news circulated from the Godking Palace. The Ancient Godly Monarch Qin Wentian brought his wives and loved ones to tour the universe of the thirty-three immortal realms, including many particle worlds. According to the news, Qin Wentian might follow the path which led him to the peak, including visiting other locations that he had never been to before.

Hence, countless people in the thirty-three immortal realms stirred restlessly, all hoping that they would be able to meet him one day. Maybe, if they could obtain his guidance, they would also be able to ascend to the sky with a single step.

After Qin Wentian learned this news, he almost couldn’t endure it and wanted to fly back to the Godking Palace and give his junior brother Jun Mengchen a severe beating. His junior apprentice brother has learned to be bad. However, Qin Wentian was happy in his heart. He wouldn’t change his plans as well. Jun Mengchen would lead the Godking Palace from now on and govern the matters of this universe. This world system would belong to Jun Mengchen sooner or later.

…..

In a particle world, in the location where the Chu Country once existed, heavy snow began to fall.

The white snow blanketed the ground, akin to the ground wearing a layer of silver adornment.

In the place where Sky Harmony City once existed, there was a gigantic statue. The falling snowflakes landed on the statue, covering it. There would occasionally be people who walked past and all of them would bow to pay their respects to the statue.

At this moment, not far from the statue, several figures appeared. One of them resembled the statue greatly. He was naturally none other than Qin Wentian.

“Even the Qin Manor from our past has vanished.” Qin Wentian smiled.

“Mhm.” Qin Yao nodded. “Wentian gege, can you carry me on your back? Just like when we were young.”

Qin Wentian squatted down and laughed, “Come on up.”

Qin Yao smiled and went over. The two of them traveled through the snow, Bai Qing had a smile on her face as she followed behind. Their movements left behind footprints in the snow. From Qin Wentian’s back, a single tear fell onto the ground, melting the snow in that spot.

In another scene, there was a gigantic-looking tree in the place where the Chu Country used to be. The towering tree embraced the wind and snow and its branches were covered with a layer of whiteness.

Underneath this ancient tree, a handsome-looking young man in white sat there with his legs stretched out. He lazily leaned against the thick trunk of the tree. His bright eyes had a smile as he surveyed the beautiful scenery. A supremely beautiful fairy stretched out her hand, allowing the snowflakes to land on her palm. She casually spun around on the spot, although she didn’t intentionally dance, her movements were like the most beautiful dance in the world.

Beside the young man, another beauty with white-haired stood there quietly, as though melding as one with the snow.

After a long time, the first fairy seemed to be tired. She turned and walked back to the towering tree and leaned against the white-robed young man, closing her eyes in enjoyment.

The white-haired fairy also sat down, leaning against him from the other side. Time seemed to stop, right now, there were only the snowflakes floating down from the sky.

Gradually, the bodies of the three people underneath the tree were covered by white snow. They were like snowmen quietly existing there. The scene was beautiful, extremely beautiful!

Chapter 2052: Finale

Time unconsciously flowed by. In the particle world, there was a piece of news from the Chu Country stating that there were people there who saw the Ancient Godly Monarch, Qin Wentian. He sat down against a towering ancient tree quietly with a goddess from the ninth heavens dancing in front of him.

There were also people who claimed that they saw Qin Wentian personally buying several immortal boats and was sailing the lakes, enjoying the sunshine just like ordinary people. It was just that the people around him were too magnificent.

Not long after, the news of the Ancient Godly Monarch Qin Wentian roaming the particle world began to spread swiftly with crazy speed. In fact, this news even spread to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. There were heavenly deities and world overlords who came here to this particle world to provide guidance to the people here. They used their powerful divine sense and immortal sense to envelop the world but they didn't discover any traces of the Ancient Godly Monarch. Maybe, Qin Wentian had some heaven-defying methods that could shroud himself and the people around him from the prying of divine and immortal senses.

In the location where the Grand Xia Empire once existed, in the Moongaze City. The Hua Clan wasn't that peaceful recently.

This Hua Clan was none other than the Hua Clan Hua Taixu was from, his bloodline that remained in the particle world until now.

Twenty plus years ago, a baby was born in the Hua Clan. In order to commemorate the fact that their Hua Clan once produced a supreme expert, they named this baby Hua Taixu. They had received news from Azure Mystic that Hua Taixu was given the title Lord of Samsara by the Godking Palace. To save the lives of innocents, he chose to sacrifice himself and transform into the dao. The Hua Clan hoped for their descendants to remember this name forever.

Hence, they had high hopes for this newly born Hua Taixu. This Hua Taixu didn't disappoint them and displayed unprecedented talent and was full of spirit. However, what made the Hua Clan break down was that just when they were prepared for him to take a wife, and the marriage engagement talk was already settled, Hua Taixu actually became enamored with the Buddhist Dao. It was fine that if he simply wanted to cultivate the buddhist daos. The daos of the buddhist-path were all extremely powerful. However, Hua Taixu actually shaved his head and…became a monk! He said he wanted to focus his heart on buddhism.

The entire Hua Clan naturally objected. Even Hua Taixu's father fell into sickness due to this and refused to acknowledged Hua Taixu as his son.

Today, a mysterious guest arrived in the Hua Clan. Upon seeing the person who arrived, everyone in the Hua Clan was trembling and looked like they were about to kneel. Their legs were shaking profusely.

"I will take a walk around here casually." Qin Wentian smiled. The people of the Hua Clan understood that their ancestor, Hua Taixu, of the past had a relationship with the Ancient Godly Monarch. This might be the reason why the Ancient Godly Monarch paid a visit here today.

An extremely handsome-looking monk walked over. After he saw Qin Wentian, he bowed, "The Ancient Godly Monarch coming by to visit. What a rare occasion. It just so happens I have some questions about Buddhism in my heart. I hope the Ancient Godly Monarch would be able to resolve my puzzlement."

"I know about your questions but I have no way to resolve your puzzlement." Qin Wentian glanced at the handsome monk in front of him as he smiled gently. His appearance was different, his personality was different as well.

"You are the Ancient Godly Monarch but even you cannot resolve my puzzlement?" Hua Taixu asked.

"Although I am the Ancient Godly Monarch, my knowledge into Buddhism is too shallow, there's nothing I can guide you about. In the future, you will be the epitome of Buddhism in this universe of the nine heavenly layers and will deliver the masses from their suffering, leading people of the world towards kindness. You shall be the representative of the orthodox buddhist dao in the future. Hence, you should just comprehend your own insights." Qin Wentian left behind a sentence and simply turned around to depart, vanishing in an instant. After hearing his words, the hearts of people in the Hua Clan trembled violently. After that, the sounds of them kneeling on the ground could be heard as they prostrated themselves in the direction of Qin Wentian's departure. Huge waves of shock rose up in their hearts, unable to cease even after a long time.

In the future, Hua Taixu would establish a buddhist sect and become the orthodox representative of Buddhism in this world system.

If such words were spoken by someone else, most probably the Hua Clan would treat that person as a madman. However, the person who stated this was none other than Qin Wentian, the Ancient Godly Monarch.

In that case, it was clear that he meant Hua Taixu would be the Buddha Lord of all lives in the future.

The news of Qin Wentian arriving at the Hua Clan naturally circulated out quickly. More and more people believed that the Ancient Godly Monarch was indeed in the particle world now. Everyone in the world was very emotional, and all of them hoped they would be fortunate enough to meet the Ancient Godly Monarch. If they were like Hua Taixu and were given a title by the Ancient Godly Monarch, how wondrous would it be? Sadly, their thoughts were destined to be merely a beautiful fantasy.

Other than the commotion Qin Wentian caused, there were also some things that happened in the various corners of the particle world.

For example, the Immortal Martial World's location, within a lake in there, a fairy descended from the sky and played ancient tunes on a zither while floating on the lake. The melody produced was beautiful and filled with a hint of tranquility. It also contained boundless longing and sorrow. When the melody ends, those listening to it would surely cry from the emotions dredged up from the depths of their hearts.

The people of the world were all silently musing. Who was the one who could make this fairy long for him so much?

In addition, this fairy played the zither every day, not pausing to eat nor drink, causing countless people to feel pity for her.

Other than this, another incident created a commotion. The Battle Sword Sect which the Ancient Godly Monarch Qin Wentian was once a part of, the people of the sect could long enter and leave the Godking Palace freely. However, one powerful fairy from there chose to descend to the mortal world to re-establish another Battle Sword Sect in the particle world. Apparently, this was in response to the words of the Ancient Godly Monarch and her purpose for doing so was to guide the people of the particle world.

This powerful fairy was a peerless beauty, her expression was one of cold arrogance and she exuded and icy feel. It was said that she was once the Ancient Godly Monarch's senior apprentice sister and had adventured with the Ancient Godly Monarch before.

Many years later, the zither that was played daily by the fairy, its strings were finally broken yet the person she was waiting for hadn't arrived. During the second day after the strings broke, she vanished like she has never appeared before. Many people who were attracted by her went to search for her but no one could find any of her traces. Some said that after her zither's strings broke, the person she was longing for had returned and brought her away. Others stated that the broken zither strings represented her broken heart. She might have committed suicide due to love.

As for which conjecture was correct, most probably no one in the world would know. It was just that someone stated not far from the lake, they saw the Ancient Godly Monarch passing by. But naturally, this couldn't be verified.

Finally, there was no longer anyone who saw traces of the Ancient Godly Monarch in the particle world. But at the same time, news of the Ancient Godly Monarch being present in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms started to circulate.

The once Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, Evergreen Immortal Empire, Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, Southern Phoenix Immortal City… Traces of Qin Wentian appeared once again in all these familiar places. Many people stated that they saw the Ancient Godly Monarch there, in addition to many breath-takingly beautiful fairy maidens.

There were also people in the Myriad Devil Islands who said that they saw the Ancient Godly Monarch there. This was especially so on a devil island near the edge of the Myriad Devil Islands. Many people saw Qin Wentian's figure, it seemed that the Ancient Godly Monarch was recalling his past experiences. Could it be that he knew someone here well?

From the particle world to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms before heading to the other thirty-two immortal realms. The legends of the Ancient Godly Monarch continued to circulate, repeated day after day, year after year. This was an eternal topic in the thirty-three immortal realms.

Hundreds and thousands of years passed by, but the legend of the Ancient Godly Monarch would still be brought up by people, his presence was everywhere.

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms after thousands of years, became even more prosperous than before. Numerous heavenly deities were born but naturally, the majority of these new deities were from the various branches of the Godking Palace. After all, people there could enter the Heaven Vault for their comprehension and there were older deities sharing their insights with them via dao lectures. Other than these, there were also some extremely talented people who managed to enter the deity realm. When these people were at the world overlord realm, they headed to the particle world to educate and guide the people there. After that, they gained the right to enter the Heaven Vault for comprehension. In truth, Heaven Vault can already be considered as being opened to the public.

Below the entrance of the Heaven Vault, the majestic Qin Heavenly Divine Sect in the Boundless Sea Region still stood tall. But in truth, it has already become a historical remnant that served as a mark of symbolism. The Godking Palace was then the true core of the current Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Outside the boundaries of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, there was still a large stretch of ocean. There would be people sailing the seas daily, staring up at the Heaven Vault. It was like they could feel closer to the starry space by being on this stretch of seas.

Today, a group of people appeared at the borders of the Boundless Sea Region. When they appeared, they instantly drew the attention of everyone. The expressions of everyone in the surroundings froze as looks of fanaticism appeared on their faces.

“The Ancient Godly Monarch.” A trembling voice called out.

“Shh.” Qin Wentian made a shushing gesture, smiling as he stared at the people here. After that, he brought a bevy of beauties and continued flying forward. For a time, the vision of everyone here was dazzled by the sight of the beauties.

Even before they could react, Qin Wentian already embarked on a boat and sailed to the center of the sea region. The people on the shoreline stared dumbfoundedly at this scene. Someone spoke, “I’ve always imagined what I would say when I finally met with the Ancient Godly Monarch. Now that I’ve truly finally seen him, I actually couldn’t even say a single sentence…”

“Me too.” Someone at the side sighed as he shook his head with a bitter smile on his face.

“The fairies behind him are all so beautiful. Most probably, the most beautiful women in the thirty-three immortal realms are all beside him.”

“Don’t forget, there’s one more in the Boundless Sea Region.” Someone smiled. The eyes of everyone flashed, recalling the flawless beauty of that figure the person was speaking of. The once number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang, has been sailing on a boat in the boundless seas for many years. Her residence was none other than the Boundless City.

At this moment, everyone exchanged glances with each other as smiles respectively appeared on their faces like they understood something.

In the Boundless Sea Region, Qin Wentian quietly laid down at the deck of the boat with his hands acting as pillow, placed underneath his head. He languidly enjoyed the sunlight. Mo Qingcheng who was beside him stared up at the sky and spoke, “In the past, we have always been in the Heaven Vault above this sea region and have never properly admired the vastness of the seas before. So it turned out that this place is so beautiful.”

“My Qingcheng is the most beautiful.” Qin Wentian laughed.

“What about sister Qing`er and the others?” Mo Qingcheng smiled.

“They are as beautiful as my Qingcheng.” Qin Wentian replied.

“Loquacious.” Mo Qingcheng rolled her eyes, but she was enjoying herself. No matter how often this conversation repeated itself, she would always feel warmth in her heart when she heard his reply.

Staring at Mo Qingcheng’s beautiful face, Qin Wentian suddenly spoke, “Qingcheng, let’s have a child.”

“Ah…” Mo Qingcheng was stunned by this sudden topic. Her face flushed, and when she saw Qin Wentian staring straight at her, she turned her head slightly as she replied, “Go and look for sister Qing`er.”

“Qing`er.” Qin Wentian stood up, turning his head and smiling at Qing`er.

“You better look for sis Youhuang.” Qing`er spoke. Qin Wentian then turned his gaze onto Beiming Youhuang.

“Me?” Beiming Youhuang’s face was also flushed. She stealthily glanced at everyone before nodding her head lightly.

“Sister Youhuang, you…” Behind her, many beauties upon seeing Youhuang nodding her head, they all couldn’t help but laugh as they walked forward. In an instant, Beiming Youhuang’s expression became even more shy and her face turned even redder. Qingcheng and Qing`er laid a trap for her?

On the boat, twinkling sounds of laughter rang out, echoing through the Boundless Sea Region.

Similarly, within the Boundless Sea Region, a boat was silently floating on the water’s surface. There was a supremely beautiful woman on the lone boat. Her beautiful eyes turned towards the horizons, allowing the boat to drift where it wills. It was unknown where her endpoint would be!

Author Note: It has been almost three years and I have finally finished writing the Ancient Godly Monarch. There are thousands of words in my heart and I don’t know where to begin. The Ancient Godly Monarch has received splendid results, achieving the top two position in terms of internet search. For this year, it has been sitting stably within the top five ranks of Qidian. The result of this book is even better compared to my previous book, ‘Peerless Martial God.’ Over here, I want to say a big THANK YOU to everyone for accompanying me on my journey, allowing the Ancient Godly Monarch to have a breakthrough in terms of results. Thank you!…With regards to the new book, I will spend the next two months preparing and conceptualizing it. After all, writing a book is something that takes a lot of effort. It’s impossible for me to start writing the new book straight away just like that. As for some more stories about the minor characters, for those who have the free time to read, you all can search my wechat account ‘净无痕.’ And lastly, I just want to say take care of yourself, let’s meet again in the immortal world some day!

Chapter 2053: Additional Tales: Legend of the Devilish Female

In the Falling Devil Region, the Blackstone Devil Palace.

Within the princess manor, there was a beautiful figure standing in a pavilion. The figure of this maiden was graceful and lithe. Her long cloak landed on the clean ground made from green jade. She didn’t wear any shoes. Her beautiful and lanky legs of absolute fairness reflected even more charm upon the reflection of the green jade ground.

There was no need to doubt her beauty. As the princess of the Blackstone Devil Sect, Yan Yuruo, who also had the title of devilish female, had appeared in the dreams of many people countless times.

In fact, the number of major characters from the Fallen Devil Region and many other devil islands who came to propose a marriage engagement to Yan Yuruo was already countless in number. However, the personality of the devilish female was extremely fierce. For countless years, she simply had no regard for anyone at all. Even for descendants of evil emperors as well as young devil kings with supreme talent, none of them could even enter her eye.

Hence, everyone on the Myriad Devil Islands all knew that the devilish princess Yan Yuruo was cold and arrogant with an extremely aloof personality that had no regard for the heroes of the world. During these years, she also had offended several people.

“Waiting in the pavilion, listening to the sounds of wind and rain. Who would know of my longing?” A faint smile flickered in the eyes of the devilish female. She was incomparably charming. Currently, the sky was drizzling. She stood in her pavilion and staring at the drizzling rain. This scene of rain caused her to feel even more longing in her heart.

“Princess.” Behind her, soft footsteps rang out. A beautiful woman with a cold expression appeared behind her. “Princess, the Devil King told you to leave.”

“Leave?” Yan Yuruo shook her head lightly, she was still looking at the rain. There were traces of his past presence here in this place.

“Juyu, you have followed me for so many years. Only I know the reason why. I believe that you are one of those people who understands me the most.” Yan Yuruo softly spoke. Juyu was once a devil general on the Blackstone Devil Island. Her fate changed because of one person. After that, after that person left, Juyu has always remained behind in the Blackstone Devil Sect and became her follower. There was only one reason why. Because, in their memories, the figure of the same man was there.

“Only my father and you know why I would never fall in love with any others. Even for this genius who is the most talented genius in the Fallen Devil Domain within ten thousand years, the youngest devil emperor in history.”

Yan Yuruo smiled and stared at the sky. “Every time I want to forget this segment of memories, his name would suddenly appear in my mind as his figure would flash past my eyes. From the Devil Mountain to the Azure Mystic Heaven Empyrean and to the Ancient Godly Monarch. That bastard must be doing this intentionally so I can never forget him.”

Juyu smiled bitterly. Wasn’t she the same as well? Everyone would meet many people in their lives but some of these people were destined to be passersby. Even if they left behind precious memories in your heart, they would never be a main part of your life. However, that person was different. When you were about to forget him, his name would suddenly circulate through the world, appearing in your life again. He grew more and more dazzling, like the blazing sun high up in the sky. Even if you want to forget him, you wouldn’t be able to do so.

“What’s sad is that, for the bastard’s grand wedding, all thirty-three immortal realms were celebrating together. The number of beauties around him are as many as the clouds, his wives are all goddess-level beauties, how would he remember me? I’m nothing but just a passerby in his life. He entered our lives but left us so ruthlessly. He can only see the smiles of his new companions, how would he be able to see the tears of his old companions?” The devilish female sighed with melancholy. Juyu was speechless. She knew that the devilish princess, Yan Yuruo, had some history with Qin Wentian but their relationship shouldn’t be beyond friends. The princess was only saying things in this manner due to her personality.

At this moment, the rain falling outside suddenly stopped. A terrifying devil cloud shrouded the skies above. Numerous figures from the Blackstone Devil Sect rushed over, arriving at the pavilion’s surroundings. Their gazes were filled with vigilance as they stared at the terrifying devil cloud in the air.

The black-colored clouds flashed with fearsome-looking red lightning bolts. Electricity swam within it, and a young man actually appeared there. His figure was extremely skinny, and his eyes were demonic, flickering with extreme pride. The red lightning seemed to be flashing in his eyes, the scene was terrifying to the extreme.

When the people of the Blackstone Devil Sect saw the figure in the air, fear rose in their hearts, as well as some degree of respect. This was the youngest devil emperor in ten thousand years in the history of the Fallen Devil Region. His title was the Blood Devil Emperor. Many people in the devil sect didn’t understand why a supreme genius like him, who has already become a major character that was a devil emperor, would still be able to patiently pursue their princess for so many days. In addition, the princess seemed to have no interest in this devil emperor at all which led to the devil emperor finally becoming infuriated.

The Blood Devil Emperor stared at Yan Yuruo. His red eyes flared with arrogance and a few hints of rage. He stretched his hands out and instantly, terrifying red bolts of lightning fell from the sky. For a time, countless bolts of red lightning were unleashed within the vast devil sect. In an instant, numerous buildings here were turned into ashes. This place transformed into a world of red lightning.

“You said that I’m not qualified to be compared to the person in your heart. In that case, I want to show you if I’m qualified or not now.” The Blood Devil Emperor’s red eyes glanced at the pavilion Yan Yuruo was in. A moment later, the ground there was split apart by the red lightning. Terrifying cracks appeared, extending upwards to the pavilion. Boundless lightning bolts engulfed the pavilions, weaving in the space in Yan Yuruo’s surroundings, as though they were threatening her.

In the next instant, the pavilion flew into the air. It was surrounded by red lightning. This scene was too horrifying to behold.

“Blood Devil Emperor. Why must you force matters of the heart? Please spare Yuruo.” The Blackstone Devil King stood in the air and spoke.

The Blood Devil Emperor glanced at him. With just a single glance, a bolt of red lightning directly penetrated the chest of the Blackstone Devil King and sent him flying through the air from the impact.

“I’ve promised Yan Yuruo that I won’t kill anyone from the Blackstone Devil Sect. But if someone dares to stop me, I shall kill all of them with no mercy.” The Blood Devil Emperor coldly spoke. His gaze landed on Yan Yuruo once more. “I’m going to ask you this for the last time. Are you leaving with me or not?”

Yan Yuruo calmly smiled. This smile of hers was truly mesmerizing. She stared at the Blood Devil Emperor and asked, “Am I beautiful?”

The gaze of the Blood Devil Emperor froze. He nodded, “Naturally.”

“He once also admitted that I’m good-looking. But so what of it? Didn’t he break my heart in the end as well? He had hugged me and even touched me but he refused to be responsible for it. He is simply the most shameless bastard in all of the thirty-three immortal realms.” Yan Yuruo cursed with hidden bitterness. But despite so, when she recalled the past memories, her smile was exceptionally radiant. She stared at the Blood Devil Emperor, “I’m prepared. Just do what you want to.”

“You would rather die than to leave with me?” The Blood Devil Emperor revealed a look of rage. “Who is he exactly?”

“It’s best that you don’t know his identity. If not, I’m afraid you wouldn’t be able to sleep well from now on.” Yan Yuruo giggled.

“Ridiculous, what status do I have? Even if you don’t wish to leave with me, there’s no need to use the excuse of an imaginary person. Let alone the Fallen Devil Region, on the entire Myriad Devil Islands, even in the entire Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, who has the qualifications to make me, the Blood Devil Emperor, feel fear?”

“There are naturally people who can make you feel fear.” The heavily injured Blackstone Devil King walked over. He stared at the Blood Devil Emperor, “I clearly understand how outstanding you are, but even so, I’ve never persuaded Yuruo because I know it would be useless. You completely have no way to be compared to him. Most probably, you don’t even have the qualifications to be glanced at by him.”

“Impudent!” The Blood Devil Emperor turned his glance towards the Blackstone Devil King again. In an instant, the Blackstone Devil King was engulfed by countless red bolts of lightning. It was like with just a thought from the Blood Devil Emperor, the Blackstone Devil King would be consigned to eternal damnation.

“Father, this is my choice. Don’t interfere anymore.” Yan Yuruo stared at the Blackstone Devil King as she spoke.

“Silly girl. He ultimately is a person from another world. Even in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, who can be fortunate enough to meet with him? Why must you do this?” The Blackstone Devil King sighed deeply. He stared at the Blood Devil Emperor. “The man in her heart is the king of all gods, the Ancient Godly Monarch.”

After speaking, the Blackstone Devil King stared up at the sky. Maybe, only when glancing up at the vast skies would one be able to feel closer to Qin Wentian.

The Blood Devil Emperor started. But after that, he broke out in maniacal laughter. The heavens and earth trembled, and along with his maniacal laughter, the entire devil sect was engulfed by his lightning. This caused countless people to have looks of terror on their faces.

“How ridiculous. Could it be the person she loves really is the Myriad Devil Sovereign, the Heaven Empyrean of Azure Mystic, the Overlord of all Thirty-three Immortal Realms, the Ancient Godly Monarch?” The laughter of the Blood Devil Emperor echoed throughout the surroundings, causing the remaining buildings to tremble from the force of it.

“That’s right.” Yan Yuruo seriously replied, her words causing the Blood Devil Emperor to start as he glanced at her. He only saw Yan Yuruo smiling. Her smile was so gentle. She inclined her head and stared up at the sky, seemingly wanting her gaze to penetrate it. A tear suddenly appeared in her eyes. She spoke, “You are now the Ancient Godly Monarch and is omnipotent. Can you see what is happening here now? Do you still remember that once, in the Blackstone Devil Sect, a devilish female tried to entice you but she failed miserably? What an embarrassing and sorrowful story. If you knew one day that I’ve died, would your heart even feel the slightest fluctuation of emotions? Oh, I’m wrong. You are so busy now. Most probably, you would never know that I would die here today forever, right?”

As she spoke, the devilish female closed her eyes, seemingly filled with reluctance. All of a sudden, she opened her eyes and scolded, “Qin Wentian, you damnable bastard. Your existence harmed this beautiful young woman for my entire life. Even before my death, I still couldn’t help but keep thinking of you!”

Her voice echoed through the red bolts of lightning in the surroundings, before dispersing gradually. Yan Yuruo’s beautiful eyes were filled with unwillingness but ultimately, she still closed her eyes. The boundless red lightning descended, wanting to swallow her whole.

However, at this moment, a sigh suddenly rang out from the sky. After that, time seemed to stop as a lazy voice echoed through time and space.

“Who’s the one scolding me?”

This voice wasn’t loud yet it penetrated through the blood-red bolts of lightning and entered the ears of everyone here.

The devilish female Yan Yuruo, who had closed her eyes, suddenly trembled. When she listened closely to the voice, her delicate frame suddenly trembled intensely. Her beautiful eyes abruptly opened. A figure seemed to step through space and time and appeared from the void, gradually manifesting in full. In just an instant, tearstains covered the entirety of Yan Yuruo’s face!

Qin Wentian’s figure appeared in the air, smiling as he stared at her. At this moment, deathly silence was everywhere. Countless people felt their bodies trembling.

“Ancient Godly Monarch.” It was unknown who started murmuring his title.

“My heavens, I actually met the Ancient Godly Monarch today!” Somebody was so excited that he shouted out loud. Before this, they could only see him through the projection in the sky. But now, the Ancient Godly Monarch himself has appeared before their eyes.

The countenance of the Blood Devil Emperor was like dead ashes. He was trembling as well. Never in his wildest dreams did he imagine that the person Yan Yuruo loved was truly the overlord of all thirty-three immortal realms. He knelt down as he trembled with fear, He then bowed, “The Blood Devil Emperor pays my respects to Ancient Godly Monarch.”

Qin Wentian didn’t bother to glance over. He only waved his hand and a moment later, the Blood Devil Emperor completely vanished. Nobody knew where he went or whether he was dead or alive.”

Tears continued flowing down Yan Yuruo’s face. Her beautiful eyes stared fixedly at the figure in the air. She only saw Qin Wentian smiling, “Today is a joyous day. Why are you crying so badly?”

“A joyous day?” Yan Yuruo started as she asked.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. His gaze surveyed the crowd as he continued, “The mobile game for this series (Ancient Godly Monarch – Astral Soul Awakening) is formally released online. All of you can download it and accompany me to unite the thirty-three immortal realms, verifying your own daos and becoming the most powerful godkings as well!”

——

Author Note:

Are all of you surprised by the creative way of advertising? Today is truly a joyous day. The official mobile game for this series (Ancient Godly Monarch: Astral Soul Awakening) has launched. When you guys read the novel, you can also wage war and unite the thirty-three immortal realms, becoming a godking as strong as Qin Wentian!

Translator Note:

Sadly, I don’t think the mobile game has been translated. I’m not sure if readers outside China would be able to download the game too. For those who are in China, the actual name of the game is ‘太古神王:星魂觉醒’.

Thank you all for reading the series! It has been a long three years for me as well but I’m not tired yet. I’m looking forward to translating more future novels by the author Jing Wuhen!
